On 4/17/72, Solicitor FRANK J. YEAGER, Winston Salem, N. C., advised that as a result of his appeal the North Carolina Supreme Court reversed Superior Court Judge LONG's ruling and ruled that the North Carolina statutory plan for selection and drawing of jurors is constitutional and provides a jury system free of discrimination. Mr. YEAGER stated barring further appeal, LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER would again be scheduled for trial on the previous charges. Mr. YEAGER pointed out, however, he anticipates defense attorneys for the three BPP members will appeal ruling to the United States Supreme Court. New trial date for the three BPP members has not been fixed as yet. Charlotte will follow with solicitor's office and advise results of further prosecution.

FACTIONALISM

During March , 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N.C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

In an intensified effort to increase community support, the BPP Chapter issued a pamphlet announcing the following programs:

Free Breakfast for Children Program
Monday - Friday, 6:30 - 8:30 AM

Free Pest Control Program

Free Clothing Program

George Jackson Liberation School for school age children.

The Free Breakfast for Children Program, under the direction of MARY MC DONALD was able to feed approximately 10-12 children daily during the month of 3/72. Lack of food and funds limited the program and MC DONALD continues to insist the program will have to be dropped unless additional support can be obtained.

The Free Pest Control Program, under the direction of GRADY FULLER, continues to operate in the Black neighborhood and residents have been urged to sign up at BPP Headquarters to have their houses sprayed.

The Free Clothing Program was launched on 3/18/72, at BPP Headquarters. This program, under the direction of BEATRICE FULTON, had solicited new and used clothing which was given away on a first-come first-serve basis on 3/18/72. The supply of clothing was exhausted the first day, however, and FULTON expressed the opinion that it was questionable if the Free Clothing Program would continue.

The George Jackson Liberation School for School Age Children was launched in 3/72, at BPP Headquarters, however, lack of participants and direction by BPP members resulted in the prompt cancellation of this program.

During 3/72, the BPP Chapter was forced to close their location at 400A Loflin St., High Point, N.C. due to lack of funds to pay the back rent. The 2 or 3 members residing in High Point were moved to BPP Headquarters in Winston-Salem. The two apartments rented by the BPP in Winston-Salem, N.C. are located on property that has been purchased by the Urban Renewal Project and are slated to be torn down. The BPP Chapter is undecided about what action to take and continue to utilize these apartments on a temporary basis.

In an effort to boost the sagging moral of the BPP Chapter "Mustang Sally", a well-known local female impersonator, arranged a party at BPP Headquarters on 3/4/72. Prior to the party, "Mustang Sally" made improper advances to a Winston-Salem PD Vice-Squad officer and was arrested. "Sally's" associates carried on in the best tradition and put on an exhibition at BPP Headquarters labeled as a "Belly and Heat Party." Four female impersonators offered a concoction of heroin and spanish fly to those in attendance and to the participants. After consuming this mixture they stripped and did a "belly dance" followed by a homosexual orgy in

A. LOCATION OF NORTH CAROLINA HEADQUARTERS

North Carolina chapter of Black Panther Party (BPP), 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

The above headquarters is located in a two story frame house situated in a predominantly black residential neighborhood. The house was purchased under a lease-purchase agreement in the name of HAZEL LEE MACK and LEE FAYE MACK with an initial downpayment of $500 and monthly rent of $100 per month to be applied to the purchase price of the house at the end of 5 years. The total purchase price for the house was $8,500.

On March 8, 1972, HAZEL MACK contacted the United States Post Office, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and requested Post Office Box 2019, be charged from the name of DAVID CATO to her name. HAZEL MACK changed the name of the firm under which the Post Office box is rented from the National Committee to Combat Fascism to the BPP. MACK advised the Post Office that the office address for the BPP was 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Telephone Number 724-6249.

F. ARREST AND TRIALS OF BPP MEMBERS

On September 20, 1971, [redacted] Superior Court Solicitor, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, advised that the trial of LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL and GRADY FULLER commenced that date in Forsyth County Superior Court. LITTLE, CORNELL, and FULLER were indicted by the Forsyth County Grand Jury on various theft charges stemming from the theft of a meat truck which was located at BPP Headquarters in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. A shoot out with police ensued leading to the arrest of the above three BPP members.

Trial in this matter started May, 1971, however, was continued due to numerous defense motions.

On September 27, 1971, [redacted] advised that Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG quashed the indictments against LITTLE, CORNELL, and FULLER following a defense motion that the Forsyth County Jury Lists was improperly drawn. [redacted] stated it was improbable that LITTLE, CORNELL and FULLER would be re-indicted on this charge.

On February 10, 1971, GEORGE DE WITT, RANDOLPH JENNINGS, BRADFORD LILLEY, and LARRY MEDLEY were arrested that date at 612 Hulda Street, High Point, North Carolina, following a shoot out with High Point Police. Police Officers were attempting to serve an eviction notice on the occupants of 612 Hulda Street, High Point, North Carolina, when the shooting occurred. Police Lieutenant SHAW COOKE of the High Point, North Carolina, Police Department, was critically wounded by a bullet fired from a high-powered rifle during the shoot out. Two other police officers were also struck by bullets during the shooting, however, they were uninjured as both were wearing bullet proof vests. As a result of the shoot out, DE WITT, JENNINGS, LILLEY, and MEDLEY were charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and assault on a police officer with firearm.

County Solicitor [redacted], High Point, North Carolina, advised on January 19, 1972, that the trial of the four men was scheduled to commence in Guilford County Superior Court, High Point, North Carolina, on January 24, 1972. He pointed out that trial of the four was initially scheduled for the September, 1971, term of Superior Court, however, pre-trial motions by the defense delayed the trial until January 24, 1972. Solicitor [redacted] advised that the Grand Jury had returned a true bill of indictment charging each of the four with one count of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and two counts of assault with a firearm on a police officer.

On February 4, 1972, Solicitor [redacted] advised that after a two week trial, the case went to the jury on February 3, 1972. On February 4, 1972, the jury returned a verdict of guilty against LARRY MEDLEY, BRADFORD LILLEY, and RANDOLPH JENNINGS on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, and not guilty on the charge of assault with a firearm on police officer. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on all charges

[illegible] GEORGE DE WITT. On same date, Superior Court Judge J. [illegible] COPELAND ordered DE WITT released. Judge COPELAND sentenced [illegible], LILLEY and JENNINGS to not less than seven nor more than ten years in prison with the stipulation that time spent in jail before the trial should be credited toward these sentences. Defense attorneys immediately filed notice of appeal and an appeal bond of $7,000 was set for each of the three convicted.

G. FINANCES

The principal source of income for the North Carolina BPP chapter is through the sale of the Black Panther weekly newspaper published by the BPP. The chapter receives approximately 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper each week which are sent by air freight from the printer in New York City.

The newspaper sells for 25 cents each and half of the proceeds from newspaper sales is forwarded to BPP Headquarters in Oakland, California.

The BPP also supplements its income by soliciting donations for the various programs as well as for bond money and legal defense [illegible] for its various members who have been prosecuted or are awaiting prosecution.

The BPP operates on a cash basis and a cash box is [illegible] at BPP Headquarters under the control of LARRY LITTLE or [illegible] HALLADY.

Members of the BPP are unemployed and devote their full time to their BPP activities which includes extensive travel throughout North Carolina selling the BPP newspapers.

H. [illegible] MEMBERS

On August 7, 1971, GARY DARNELL LILLEY traveled to BPP [illegible], Oakland, California, for training as a representative [illegible] North Carolina chapter of the BPP. LILLEY returned from California on November 3, 1971, and on November 7, 1971, LILLEY gave a talk before BPP members at BPP Headquarters regarding information he had learned in California.

During January, 1972, LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, Head of the BPP chapter, went to BPP Headquarters, Oakland, California, for an indefinite period of training. LITTLE remains in California as of the date of this report.

The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food for their Free Breakfast for Children Program and used clothing for their Free Clothing Program which they are trying to inaugurate. ARRESTS AND CONVICTIONS

After a two-week trial in Guilford County Superior Court which began on 1/24/72, the jury returned a verdict of guilty on 2/4/72 against LARRY MEDLEY, BRADFORD LILLEY and RANDOLPH JENNINGS, on a charge of Assault With a Deadly Weapon with Intent to Kill. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on all charges against GEORGE DeWITT. These four, frequently referred to as "The High Point 4", were members of the High Point group of the BPP, and were arrested on 2/10/71, at BPP headquarters following a shoot-out with police when High Point police officers attempted to serve an eviction notice. MEDLEY, LILLEY and JENNINGS have filed notice of appeal and are currently being held in lieu of an appeal bond of $7,000 each.

FACTIONALISM

During February, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program was operated sporatically during February, 1971, due to lack of funds. Most of the food designated for the program was consumed by BPP members themselves; however, MARY McDONALD, assisted by neighborhood women volunteers, was able to feed approximately eight (8) children approximately two or three times a week with the meager food available.

The BPP Chapter expressed mixed emotions of jubilation over the acquittal of GEORGE DeWITT in Guilford County Superior Court and disappointment over the conviction of the other three High Point members, LARRY MEDLEY, BRADFORD LILLEY and RANDOLPH JENNINGS. Efforts have been increased to raise bail bond money in order that these three BPP members may be released on appeal bond; however, sources report very little money has been collected to date. Several of the BPP members have expressed dissatisfaction with the leadership of NELSON MALLOY and have suggested an appeal be sent to BPP Headquarters for the immediate return of LARRY LITTLE. No action has been taken in this regard to date.

The BPP chapter has also been attempting to set up a Free Health Clinic in Winston-Salem, N. C., and the members have talked to several property owners in the black neighborhood in the vicinity of the BPP Headquarters. No apparent progress has been made regarding opening a Health Center since the chapter has been unable to raise sufficient funds.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program which began on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, continues to feed approximately eight to ten children each day. This program is headed by MARY McDONALD, wife of RUSSELL McDONALD. Mrs. McDONALD is assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers. The Program is in continuous difficulty, however, as the BPP members have been eating most of the food donated for the program, leaving very little for the children.

Trial of the "High Point Four", GEORGE DEWITT, RANDOLPH JENNINGS, BRADFORD LILLEY, and LARRY MEDLEY, commenced in High Point on 1/24/72. After disposing of numerous motions by the defense, a jury was selected on 1/28/72, and the prosecution commenced presenting its case. It is anticipated that the trial will last for several weeks. The BPP Chapter has been busy attempting to drum up support for the defendants and encourage attendance at the trial which has been very small to date. NELSON MALLOY, Acting Head of the group, has urged all BPP members to attend the trial, however, High Point police advise the small group in daily attendance is mostly from the

On both occasions, HAVEN HENDERSON and her baby were the only individuals found at the apartment and the High Point PD is still looking for [redacted].

[redacted] stated there was no incident during both attempts to locate [redacted] at the Loflin Street address, and on each occasions HENDERSON admitted the police officers after demanding to see their warrant. [redacted] advised that there was no indication that the BPP was utilizing this apartment as a day care center, and no children other than the baby belonging to HAVEN HENDERSON had been observed at this address. [redacted] pointed out that the children appearing in the photograph in "The Black Panther" newspaper were probably neighborhood children rounded up to pose for a photograph for this article.

Charlotte sources have been alerted to develop any information indicating the BPP is attempting to set up a day care center in High Point, N. C.

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 12/20/71.

During the month of December, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue. The apartment of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD, 1306A Underwood Avenue and an apartment rented under the name of RICKIE HOOPER located at 210 East 14th Street are also utilized by BPP members. The BPP headquarters remains without direct telephone service since members have failed to raise the deposit required by the telephone company because of past overdue bills. RICKIE HOOPER obtained telephone service at 210 East 14th Street, telephone 724-6249 which is being used by LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter, as well as other BPP members.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During December, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD,

Distribution Manager. [redacted] during December, 1971, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders. Sources report RUSSELL McDONALD and LARRY LITTLE have not been getting along; accordingly, McDONALD has not been handling distribution of the BPP Newspaper on a regular basis. DARRELL HOPKINS, a 19-year old high school student and member of the BPP Chapter has been handling BPP Newspaper sales, which has resulted in a backlog of unsold BPP newspapers. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food from local merchants to support the Free Breakfast for Children Program. The Pet Milk Dairy has been donating milk on a regular basis and the Merita Bakery, which is located in a black neighborhood, has continued to donate food for this program. Sources report that the BPP members themselves have been eating most of the food that is donated leaving very little for the children. MARY McDONALD handles the Free Breakfast for Children Program, which is operated out of BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue. The BPP Chapter has obtained a hand insecticide spray gun, along with a supply of insecticide and has inaugurated a free pest control program. This program is being handled by BPP member GRADY FULLER who has started going from house to house in the Negro neighborhood surrounding BPP headquarters and spraying the houses for roaches and other insects.

The chapter has also rented an apartment at 210 East 14th Street under the name of RICKIE HOOPER. This apartment is being rented for $40 per month and telephone service was obtained for $9 per month.

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE continues as the overall leader with HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON handling finances. [redacted] all financial transactions are reported to be handled in cash or by money orders.

BPP members expressed disappointment in the small donations collected following the speeches by BOBBY SEALE at Winston-Salem and Raleigh, N. C. A total of $173.20 in donations was collected at Winston-Salem and approximately $190 at Raleigh, N. C., in contrast to the $900 to $1000 anticipated by the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C.

Sources report there is much discontent at the Winston-Salem Chapter regarding the leadership of LARRY LITTLE. RUSSELL McDONALD and his wife, MARY McDONALD, appear to be the principal workers among the group and are reportedly upset over the lack of leadership qualities displayed by LITTLE.

LITTLE has berated BPP members for not selling enough BPP newspapers and has voiced his irritation about the failure of the group to raise sufficient money to start additional programs. LITTLE has been very outspoken about the failure to raise sufficient money to have the telephone connected at BPP Headquarters.

The local trial of four BPP members called the "High Point Four" has been postponed until after the first of the year. Two members of the "High Point Four" are still in jail and BPP members have been unsuccessful to date in raising sufficient money to bond them out.

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 11/19/71.

During the month of November, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue. The apartment of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD, 1306 Underwood Avenue, and a new apartment rented by RICKIE HOOPER on 11/15/71, located at 210 East 14th Street, are also utilized by BPP leaders. The BPP Headquarters is still without telephone service since members have failed to raise the deposit required by the telephone company. RICKIE HOOPER obtained telephone service at his new apartment, 210 East 14th St., which has telephone number 724-6249. This telephone is being used by LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of BPP Chapter, along with the telephone located at the residence of his mother, OCHIE BELL LITTLE, 1326 Oak Street, Winston-Salem, N. C.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During November, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD,

Distribution Manager. [redacted] during November, 1971, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders. Sources report RUSSELL McDONALD and LARRY LITTLE have not been getting along; accordingly, McDONALD has not been handling distribution of the BPP Newspaper on a regular basis. DARRELL HOPKINS, a 19-year old high school student and member of the BPP Chapter has been handling BPP Newspaper sales, which has resulted in a backlog of unsold BPP newspapers. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food from local merchants to support the Free Breakfast for Children Program. The Pet Milk Dairy has been donating milk on a regular basis, and the Merita Bakery, which is located in a black neighborhood, has continued to donate food for this program. Sources report that the BPP members themselves have been eating most of the food that is donated leaving very little for the children. MARY McDONALD handles the Free Breakfast for Children Program, which is operated out of BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue. She has continually complained to LARRY LITTLE about having insufficient food to feed the children and that the program will have to be discontinued unless additional donations can be obtained. RUSSELL McDONALD has suggested the BPP move its headquarters to Greenville, N. C., where he feels that they would have more community support; however, LARRY LITTLE, head of the BPP Chapter, has strongly opposed this idea and insists the chapter will remain in Winston-Salem. LITTLE has instructed BPP members to increase their efforts to sell BPP newspapers in cities outside Winston-Salem, N. C.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house.

D. OPERATIONS

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE continues as the overall leader with HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON handling finances. [redacted] all financial transactions are reported to be handled in cash or by money orders.
