He talked to Jill about the guidelines
Did he talk about the situation with Cuba and how it was going?
Daniel yes. And the fact that it takes a long time and he didn't want to do anything rash.
Daniel well frankly he didn't think that we had more than a fifty [illegible] that we could get [illegible],
[illegible] I shouldn't tell you this, but I think I will anyway.
[illegible] I like you, still in confidence
[illegible] in Cuba they are leaving these things;
a. [illegible] Cuba about B.I.
b. [illegible] (don't think of our military with cuts)
[illegible] will just [illegible] there is the things.
[illegible] to the subject
[illegible] to the [illegible] that we are [illegible] if they will not come out and see how [illegible] that we [illegible]?
[illegible] that, but frankly he was just waiting for [illegible] to be there.
[illegible] that a thing that will influence is that we are [illegible] citizens?
[illegible] I don't think so, because Cuba [illegible] the right to [illegible]
[illegible] in his voice (Daniel)
Daniel [illegible] if we are willing to split up, or has it one of the [illegible] that we just [illegible] a trap?
[illegible] if of course we could be [illegible] to be that, that we realized
[illegible] of course we might have to do this. He mentioned [illegible] if we are willing [illegible] of our people would come,
[illegible] who would like to go to Miami and [illegible] the [illegible].
Daniel [illegible] he felt this [illegible] was good [illegible], he was glad that we had come.
Daniel [illegible] if he [illegible] to the press, would he be able to speak to the press.
He [illegible] he would
He said he wouldn't want to [illegible] a trip out there and just tour and not be able to speak to the press.
[illegible] if it would be [illegible] if he was [illegible] of [illegible]?
It [illegible] he [illegible] it would. He did say that only if he [illegible] of [illegible], the opinion of Daniel's [illegible] would [illegible], he [illegible] it, [illegible] to that [illegible] by the [illegible] he had [illegible] time, [illegible] at the [illegible], [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] to our house.

[illegible] we talk to Daniel, he [illegible] a little more open and [illegible] to our problems, to [illegible] of [illegible] to the [illegible]
[illegible] possibility of [illegible] in, if [illegible] the right

1.) [illegible]: Visited by [illegible] & Deb T....
We were speaking to the first secretary when the Korean Ambassador entered to speak to us. He said they have been trying to locate us, they will have many things to do with us. He was gold to see us there in that they were searching for our location. The First Secretary later told us they had heard of us in North Korea, there was an article about us. Sharon asked if it was good or bad? He said it was good. He said he did not read the article himself, but their information service provided the information. He asked alot of questions; basically he wanted to know the nationalities of our members, and the [illegible] of people who [illegible] both here and in the United States, e.g., [illegible] proportions, how many [illegible], blacks, whites, [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] here and in the U.S., [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] about Law, said they would like to see him if he comes [illegible] town. He asked for directions to our [illegible] office in [illegible], said he would like to come. Sharon asked what they found [illegible] about us? He said they [illegible] [illegible] in [illegible] projects, and after [illegible] [illegible] the contact with us, it will make them more knowledgable as to how we can [illegible] and work together with them. He said they were [illegible] in all [illegible] people. Sharon asked if they found it strange that a group of [illegible] were in Guyana living [illegible]? He agreed that they did. The [illegible] sent [illegible] to us that he regretted he was not able to [illegible] with us today, but he would see us another day. They gave us quite a bit of [illegible] on Korea, and [illegible] written by their [illegible], [illegible] Kim Il Sung.
Conclusion; They [illegible] very nationalistic, I noticed rather than asking when they could meet our leader, they were desirous of seeing Law especially. [illegible] asked about the type of work Law did, and Kim Yoo Ni's function on the project. They [illegible] us soft drinks and saw that Martin [illegible] who [illegible] with us [illegible] as he liked, took special care without Martin asking.
The first Sec. did mention they have good relations with all socialist countries [illegible] Russia & China.

We told him about the situation of the mercenaries and the things Stoen is doing.-
-Showed him an article on Stoen and Katsaris.
-We also told of his involvement with the aircraft photography and the agencies involvement with the CIA
-He noted that down
-We did most of the talking, basically filled him in on the whole background of Stoen, Terri reminded him and Anita Blackwell Wright and Senator St[illegible] and we reinforced that our concerns were very real and Minister Mingo was also concerned that the mercenaries would use the Venezuela border for a base to attack us.
At first he tried to tell us there was no real threat from the border because it was well protected by the GOFRand there was too much contraveny between the two countries for anyone to move about freely over the borders.
-We explained how people trade and travel back and fourth all the time and it is virtually unknown.
-He told us he would have to step up his visit to Jamestown under the circumstances.
He said he wanted all the material we had on Stoen and he would stop by our home tonight to pick it up
-He said he wished to express solidarity with us, but that we were both guest in Guyana (in so many words there were limitations)
-He asked us what we were getting at? What did we want or expect from them?
He told him we wanted his opinions and appreciated what they had to say because we had looked to Cuba for a long time with the deepest respect, and what did he suggest?
-He said he had sent our request to Cuba (ref. to people going to Cuba) but he didn't expect an immediate reply, they would have to analyze and understand the situation.
-In so many words, I told him I didn't feel people took us seriously and that we felt like the Jews when no one would listen to them.
-He said he couldn't make any commitments on his own, but that he would get back to us as quickly as possible.

-I felt he took our conversation a little more seriously this time and perhaps really listened for the first time, because things we talked to him about, he said he hadn't heard before although we have told him at different times details on Stoen and the whole conspiracy.

We asked him to contact the USSR about the doctor situation
He said we were concerned in view of the threats and attempts.
-He took down the information and said he would pass it on. He agreed that they did have fast communication, but that did not mean that the reply would come so fast.
We asked him about contacting Rev. Garrison for us because of the position we are in -Kramarenko said it would be difficult for him as well, they could not do this, he wanted to know why we didn't write him an official letter or take an appt. to see him?
We told him of our concern of the article, and that Rev. Garrison had never visited Jonestown and would be suspectful for what his people would have to say about it, and furthermore,
it would have some impact then us talking about ourselves.
-He said he was sorry he could not help us out in this matter, but he would get back to us as soon as possible on the other situation.
-Kramarenko seemed careful, or unsure as to how to deal with us.
-He is not as easy to talk to as Timofeyev

-Timofeyev said not to use the word pragmatic, said it was not a proper word in Russian terms, it means selfish, it is not a positive word.
-He advised us against making any unofficial visits to Jagan, said we should have invited him to the cultural center though and that we could invite him to any public function that we had.
-He said once before they had tried to go to Jonestown and had contacted the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, at that time Shirley Field-Ridley was standing in for Wills
-She had said no, for them to go another time.
-At a later date, she had tried to make it look as if they had misunderstood her instructions, as if she had never said no.
-Mentioned that Wills was a more progressive leftest and now that Wills was put out, didn't know what would happen with Mingo.

G-2-Jg-1/a

-He said that Alex had mentioned that Jim refused to be taped
-Timofeyev thought the part about another big group coming to Jonestown, Guyana, should be edited from the article, troubles could be raised for their immigration.
-H

-He read the article to us, what he called the unofficial translation (read translation in Sharon's notes)
-Alex had come in by then, Alex mentioned that Cde. Jones was surprised he did not take notes.
-Timofeyev said it was his advise that we shouldn't have Jim move about unless it was stated in writting, something written from the Guyana Govt.
-He also mentioned that four rep. from the GDR (someone by the name of Voodkin) was at our function at the cultural center
-He said he had mentioned to their commercial counselor of our interest in boats and helecoptors.
-He said the man was also impressed with the talk of Cde. Alexander
-Alex will be giving a talk and show of some slides to the others in the Embassy.
-Timofeyev said he was reading a book called "The Cosentary" he said he didn't think there was an english translation, but he thought there may have been a translation in French or German, I'm not sure which and he would get it for us. He would like for one of our people to read it, he said it mentions us in it, (meaning the Peoples Temple)
