Bureau should note that the current dispute between the SDS and the BPP over the issue of a petition campaign for community control of local police officers has not extended to North Carolina. The only actual SDS activities have been at Charlotte, N. C. However, the recent issue of the BPP newspaper set forth that there were no actual panthers in Charlotte, and thereafter, the group considering themselves members of the BPP disbanded and have ceased meetings and activities.

[redacted] is very active in New Left activities; however, his activities involve predominantly white individuals almost to the exclusion of Negroes.

This matter will be brought to the attention of the informant; however, there would appear to be no opportunities for action at this time.

1. Potential Counterintelligence Action

[redacted] The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the present status of [redacted] with the YSA and to listen to his defense of his recent actions. [redacted] did not appear at the meeting. [redacted] a leader in this group, stated that [redacted] had recently been making statements detrimental to YSA and that he has threatened to oppose YSA efforts to build a "movement coalition" to be used to oppose the war in Vietnam. It was felt that as long as he felt and acted this way he should not continue in the capacity of "organizer" of this local. [redacted] stated he felt [redacted] would quit the YSA soon in order to join the Black Panther Party. He stated that [redacted] had been expressing considerable interest in the Panthers recently and has been quarreling with the national policies of YSA for not taking a strong militant stand in behalf of the black liberation movement in the United States.

It is believed that this situation could be exploited to the detriment of this YSA local a[redacted] is the only Negro in this local. Some action, such as possibly sending an anonymous letter to the membership accusing the leaders of white chauvinism and failure to support the black movement, is being considered.

The primary purpose of this group has been to contact the soldiers and get support from military personnel in opposition to the United States involvement in the Vietnam War. The situation with regard to [redacted] might also be used to deter some black soldiers from participating in these activities of SMC.

Also, plans to submit anonymous letters to officials of Duke University, Durham, N. C., regarding the New Left activities of [redacted] an English instructor at this university, were not recommended for the following reasons:

Charlotte is presently making efforts to improve informant coverage particularly in the SDS chapter at Chapel Hill, N.C., and the SSOC chapter at Davidson, N.C. In this connection, efforts are being made to identify former military intelligence officers who are returning to school and who might be utilized in these areas. Four new cases were recently opened on individuals of this type and it is expected that through this means, the informant coverage of these New Left organizations in this territory will be improved by the fall of 1968.

It is noted that these organizations are inactive at the present time because of school vacation.

There has been no violence in the past in connection with SDS and SSOC activities on campuses in the Charlotte territory and these groups have specifically indicated that they desire their activities to be of a nonviolent nature.

There is no indication that these groups will engage in violence during the coming school year. With improved informant coverages of these groups, it is hoped that this office will be in a position to ascertain in advance of any planned or contemplated violence and will immediately notify the Bureau.

B. Activities

On March 18, 1968, a group of about 50 individuals staged a demonstration sponsored by SDS at the University of North Carolina protesting the appearance of a recruiter for Dow Chemical Company. According to leaders of the demonstration, their demands were that company recruiters coming on the campus must engage in debate regarding company practices if challenged to do so by a student organization.

The second demand was that the University request all businesses who come on the campus to recruit to give up the manufacture of weapons of destruction.

These demands were taken under consideration by the administration and no decision was rendered. As a result of this protest, 15 of the demonstrators were arrested by campus police on a charge of obstructing the entrance to a public building. All submitted peacefully to arrest and were booked at the Chapel Hill Police Department without incident. They were subsequently all convicted and fined.

Included in this group who were arrested and convicted were [redacted] and [redacted], both of whom were nonstudents from Durham, North Carolina, and both are staff members of SSOC.

On April 25, 1968, [redacted], advised that on that date a recruiter for the United States Marine Corps set up his booth for recruiting at Y-Court on the University of North Carolina campus. Shortly thereafter members of SDS set up a booth in the same area and then moved their booth next to the United States Marine Corps booth. The SDS people were led by [redacted] SSOC staff member, and they played antiwar music and displayed pictures showing sufferings of the Vietnamese people because of the war.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SSOC is a fraternal affiliate of SDS.

Beginning in the fall of 1966, SSOC became a membership organization and embarked on a campaign to form local chapters on various college campuses throughout the South. SSOC publishes October through May each year a publication, "New South Student," which, according to the above source, has increasingly espoused and defended the pro-Communist and anti-United States position on domestic and foreign policy.

On September 27, 1966, a second source advised that [redacted] of Nashville, Tennessee, while in attendance at a Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) Youth Conference, Camp Webatuck, New York, September 12, 13 and 14, 1966, gave a report regarding Nashville, saying that CP personnel were concentrating on organizing rent strikes, working with SSOC and SCEF and establishing a Socialist Study Group for students. He said he thought a riot was possible in the near future in the Negro community and the CP must take advantage of same. He emphasized that some main efforts were to work with SSOC and SCEF. Following this conference, attendees [redacted] also known as [redacted] traveled to Nashville to join [redacted] organizing efforts there.

On February 28, 1967, a fourth source advised that [redacted] of Seattle, Washington, a member of the Northwest CP District, had gone to Nashville, Tennessee, to organize in connection with a CP assignment.

On June 8, 1967, source five advised that [redacted] and wife [redacted] are all active members of SSOC in Nashville and that [redacted] is now [redacted] of the official SSOC publication, "New South Student."

On July 7, 1967, source six advised that [redacted] and wife [redacted] attended a CPUSA Youth Conference at Camp Abelard, New York, July 1 through 4, 1967.

On November 1, 1966, a first source advised that the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) with headquarters at 1703 Portland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, was formed on the weekend of April 3-5, 1964, to stimulate activity of Southern student groups in areas of civil rights, peace, academic freedom, civil liberties, capital punishment and unemployment. Originally it was to be a white counterpart of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). It has agreed to work with similar interested groups such as SNCC and Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc.(SCEF). SSOC is a fraternal affiliate of SDS.

Beginning in the fall of 1966, SSOC became a membership organization and embarked on a campaign to form local chapters on various college campuses throughout the South. SSOC publishes October through May each year a publication; "New South Student," which, according to the above source, has increasingly espoused and defended the pro-Communist and anti-United States position on domestic and foreign policy.

On September 27, 1966, a second source advised that [redacted] of Nashville, Tennessee, while in attendance at a Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) Youth Conference, Camp Webatuck, New York, September 12, 13 and 14, 1966, gave a report regarding Nashville, saying that CP personnel were concentrating on organizing rent strikes, working with SSOC and SCEF and establishing a Socialist Study Group for students. He predicted future rioting, which he said the CP must take advantage of. He emphasized that more CP youth must be sent South.

On August 12, 1966, a third source advised that [redacted], had been in the CP about four months.

On September 27, 1966, and again on June 2, 1967, the second source advised that during the summer of 1966 the CPUSA concentrated its youth cadre in organizing projects in several cities in an effort to recruit for and strengthen local CP youth organizations. Nashville, Tennessee, was included in this project. The youth placed in charge of the Nashville project was [redacted] with funds to be made available for three to five full-time organizers in Nashville. [redacted] also known as Jackie, of the CP in New York, New York, a Queens College Student, came to Nashville in the summer of 1966 for this purpose. At the CPUSA Youth Conference held at Camp Webatuck, New York, September 12, 13 and 14, 1966, [redacted] reported that effective liaison had been made with SSOC; that contact had also been made with black militants on Nashville Negro college campuses; and that a beginning had been made toward organizing in the Nashville Negro community. He said he thought a riot was possible in the near future in the Negro community and the CP must take advantage of same. He emphasized that some main efforts were to work with SSOC and SCEF. Following this conference, attendees [redacted] and [redacted] also known as [redacted] traveled to Nashville to join [redacted] organizing efforts there.

On February 28, 1967, a fourth source advised that [redacted] of Seattle, Washington, a member of the Northwest CP District, had gone to Nashville, Tennessee, to organize in connection with a CP assignment.

On June 8, 1967, source five advised that [redacted] are all active members of SSOC in Nashville and that [redacted] is now editor of the official SSOC publication, "New South Student."

On July 7, 1967, source six advised that [redacted] and wife [redacted] attended a CPUSA Youth Conference at Camp Abelard, New York, July 1 through 4, 1967.

The masthead of the June, 1967, issue of "Southern Patriot," official publication of SCEF, lists [redacted] and [redacted] as Editors and lists [redacted]

Re Bureau letter to Albany, 5/23/68.

1. False Allegations of Police Brutality

At the present time, New Left Organizations in this territory include chapters of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; Duke University, Durham, North Carolina; and chapters of Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) at Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, and Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina, with State Headquarters of SSOC being located at 1111 Chapel Hill Street, Durham, North Carolina.

There have been no reported charges of Police brutality following student-police encounters in this territory. On March 18, 1968, a group of about 50 individuals staged a demonstration, sponsored by SDS, at University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, protesting the appearance of a recruiter for Dow Chemical Company on the campus. During the demonstration, 15 individuals, some of whom were non-students, were arrested by campus police on a charge of obstructing the entrance to a public building.

Included in this group were [redacted] and [redacted] SSOC Staff Workers from Durham, North Carolina. All 15 submitted to arrest peacefully, and there was no violence and no charges of police brutality.

Members of SDS and SSOC have conducted demonstrations and picketing off campus at Armed Forces Induction Centers in Raleigh and Charlotte, North Carolina, at which times police were in the area to maintain the peace. However, in these instances, there were no encounters with police, the demonstrations were peaceful, and there were no charges of police brutality.

2. Immorality

It was learned on December 18, 1967, that Headquarters of SSOC were established at 1111 Chapel Hill Street in Durham, North Carolina, which is actually a house in a residential section. [redacted] and [redacted] two Staff Workers for SSOC, were living there as were [redacted], a leader of The Resistance and Anti-Draft Movement, and two Duke law school students, one of whom was [redacted] It is noted that [redacted] and [redacted] were not married at the time. [redacted] has since moved to Nashville, Tennessee.

At a SSOC meeting at Duke University, November 19, 1967, [redacted] a member, stated that [redacted] roommate has a motto, "Girls say yes to guys who say no." It was indicated that he was referring to [redacted] who was present, stated "That's my motto too.... just everybody don't come at once."

3. Action by College Administrators

On February 5, and February 6, 1968, SSOC sponsored a demonstration at Duke University protesting the appearance of a recruiter for Dow Chemical Company on that campus. Demonstrators included students of Duke University as well as students from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill and some non-students including [redacted] There were no known faculty members participating.

On February 5, 1968, the demonstration was peaceful and there was no blocking of entrance or passageways. However, on February 6, 1968, some few students including [redacted] then President of the Duke Chapter of SSOC, sat down in a passageway in the building in which the recruiter was interviewing students and blocked the passageway. The policy of the Duke University regarding picketing was made known which is that any illegitimate action is intolerable, for it is destructive to the pursuit of learning and of a free society. The administration made it known to the group that blocking passageways was in violation of this policy. The administration further announced that in such a situation, a Duke student could receive only one warning during his academic career or he would be expelled. In this instance [redacted] was advised of this rule and was given a warning that he must move to clear the passageway within five minutes [redacted] did move within the allotted time, and the demonstration thereupon broke up, and the participants left the vicinity. As a result of this action by the Administration, there were no further incidents, no violent action, and no arrests.

Approximately 75 students and non-students participated in these two day demonstrations. SSOC members demanded that the Dow Representative debate the issue regarding the production of Napalm for use in the Vietnam War. The representative declined to do so and no debate was held. The administration did not establish any policy as to whether future recruiters would have to debate such matters before being allowed to interview students on campus.

This has been only known ~~in~~ incident wherein the administration of the college took positive action to control a student demonstration and in this instance it was effective as noted. Other campus demonstrations have been staged by SDS and SSOC, but they have been peaceful and have caused no interference with the rights of others, and no action had been necessary by school officials. This has been true of all demonstrations with the exception of the above mentioned demonstration at Duke University and the demonstration at the University of North Carolina on March 18, 1968. As noted above, in that demonstration the students demanded that the Dow recruiter participate in debate regarding the production of Napalm for use in Vietnam, and 15 were arrested by campus police when they blocked the passage in the building. They were arrested by campus police on a charge of obstructing the entrance to a public building. There was no evidence of outside influence or faculty members rendering encouragement in this demonstration. The administration took no action with regard to the demands of the demonstrators and established no policy. Those arrested were tried in Recorder's Court in the City of Chapel Hill and were convicted.

Charlotte will continue to follow the activities of SDS and SSOC groups and promptly report any information obtained pertaining to these three items and this will be done on a continuing basis.

INTERNAL SECURITY

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 5/10/68.

1) In North Carolina, the New Left groups include chapters of Southern Students Organizing Committee (SSOC) at Duke University, Durham, and Davidson College, Davidson, with headquarters in North Carolina at 1111 Chapel Hill Street, Durham; and chapter of Students For a Democratic Society (SDS) located at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

It is believed that any action designed to expose or disrupt activities of these groups must be such that there will be no indication that the Federal Government is behind this action. Even a New Left group operating on a college campus has the advantage of wrapping itself in the cloak of academic freedom. It is believed that many students, whether sympathetic or not to these groups, would strongly resent any so-called Government interference into any activity on campus.

Regarding newspaper publicity, it is felt that articles which are generally unfavorable to New Left groups might not be as effective as articles aimed at some specific action taken by a New Left group. In instances where these groups have physically denied the rights of other students to be interviewed on campus by recruiters for private companies, as well as military recruiters, or have by shouting or other disruptive tactics, denied the rights of other students to hear a particular speaker, are examples wherein effective action could be taken. A strong article pointing out the hypocrisy of the group in denying others the very rights it demands for itself should create doubts in the minds of some students who have supported or been sympathetic to these organizations in the past.

REC 6

In addition, it is felt that action should be directed towards the discrediting of these groups in the eyes of responsible individuals and organizations, including those engaged in civil rights. Methods of doing this might include the use of anonymous or fictitious letters showing connections of the leaders with Communist groups and individuals, as well as support of Communist programs. Along these lines, it is felt that action might be taken to show that these groups are not sincere in their claims of supporting integration and civil rights in that these groups, as far as is known, are all-white and have no Negro members.

The Charlotte Office has obtained a mailing list used by SSOC which could be useful in distributing counterfeit literature showing support of Communist programs by SSOC and/or showing that the group advocates violence and is not sincerely fighting for individual rights.

2) Charlotte has no counterintelligence action against New Left groups pending at the present time.

3) No tangible results have yet been obtained.

Recommendations for counterintelligence action will be submitted individually by separate letter.
