MME. CHIANG CHIDED BY MRS. ROOSEVELT

(1A)

FORT DEVENS, Mass., Dec. 4 (UP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today that Madame Chiang, wife of the Generalissimo, was typical of the Chinese in that "she can talk beautifully about democracy, but she does not know how to live democracy."

The former First Lady referred to Madame Chiang during a question period after speaking to patients at the post's Lovell General Hospital.

The inability to "live democracy," she said, was typical of the Chinese "not because of any facetiousness, but because they never had an opportunity to see or practice democracy in action."

"Russia hasn't started any wars," she said in answer to a veteran's question about Russia as an agressor country.
