3 Texans Are Appointed To Peace Corps Panel

Three Texans were among 33 persons appointed by President Kennedy Thursday to a National Advisory Council for the peace corps.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was named chairman of the council of 26 men and seven women, the Associated Press reported.

THE OTHER Texans appointed are Oveta Culp Hobby, president and editor of The Houston Post and former secretary of health, education and welfare, and Dr George I. Sanchez, chairman of the Department of History at the University of Texas and a professor of Latin American education studies.

President Kennedy said the group of outstanding Americans "will bring to the peace corps the insight and experience of prominent individuals who are interested in the role of the United States in world affairs."

They will give the peace corps guidance and counsel, he added.

Supreme Court Associate Justice William O. Douglas was selected as honorary chairman.

PROMINENT NAMES among those appointed include Mrs Franklin D. Roosevelt and David E. Lilienthal, an experienced government official who headed the Tennessee Valley Authority and was chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Three men, including Lilienthal, and one woman — were selected to serve as vice chairmen. The other vice chairmen are:

Dr Mary Bunting, president of Radcliffe College in Cambridge, Mass, and a well known educator.

Thomas J. Watson Jr of New York City, president of the International Business Machines Corp.

The Rev James Robinson, pastor of the Church of the Master in New York City, and director of Operations Crossroads Africa, a program in which American college students spend their summer vacations working on development projects in African villages.

THE PEACE CORPS is headed by Mr Kennedy's brother-in-law, R. Sargent Shriver, and is currently in the planning stages.

Other members of the council include:

Joseph Beirne, president of the Communications Workers of America and vice president of the AFL-CIO.

Leroy Collins of Washington, DC, president of the National Association of Broadcasters and former governor of Florida.

Cornelius J. Haggerty, Los Angeles, president of the Building Trades Council of the CIO-AFL, and a specialist in international labor.

E. PALMER HOYT, Denver, Col, publisher of the Denver Post, and assistant publisher, American Heritage Publishing Co.

Dr James A. McCain, Manhattan, Kan, president of Kansas State College, and formerly president of the Montana State University.

Franklin D. Murphy, Los Angeles, chancellor of the University of California at Los Angeles. He is a member of the U. S. Advisory Commission on Educational Exchange, Department of State.

MRS E. LEE O'BRIEN, Oklahoma City, international president and now on the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Harry Belafonte, popular singer-actor.

Roger Revelle, director of Scripps Institute of Oceanography at La Jolla, Calif.

The Rev William Sloane Coffin, Washington, DC.

Henry Crown, Evanston, Ill.

Murray D. Lincoln, Columbus, Ohio.

Frederick B. Mann, Philadelphia.

James Scott, Beverly, NJ.

THE HOUSTON POST
3-31-61
Houston, Texas
RE:

HOUSTON DIVISION

File 5

62-106740-A

FX-139 DEC 85