Dear Mr Khalifah

The Australian Department of Immigration and Ethnic Affairs has decided that there is a ground for cancellation of your visa under paragraph 116(1)(e) of the Migration Act 1958 because the competent Australian authorities have assessed you to be, directly or indirectly, a risk to Australian national security.

Your visa was therefore cancelled on 12 December 1994. The reasons for not cancelling your visa were not considered sufficient to outweigh the existence of the ground for cancellation because the assessment of the competent Australian authorities is conclusive.

You should forward your passport to this office so that your visa evidence can be stamped inoperative. Other relevant agencies have been advised that your visa has been cancelled.

As you are no longer the holder of an Australian visa, you are not entitled to travel to Australia. If you do, you will be refused immigration clearance and will be removed from Australia. Relevant offices in Australia have been advised that your visa has been cancelled.

You may wish to make another application for a visa, however I can give no indication of the possible outcome of that application. You should contact your nearest Australian mission for further information.

Yours sincerely
