FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 11/30/78

10/8/92 1048 [redacted]

[redacted] a black female, Date of Birth (DOB): [redacted] was contacted aboard Pan American Airlines Flight 226, John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFKIA) and advised of the identity of [redacted] as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). [redacted] was interviewed in the presence of SAS [redacted] United States Secret Service, and [redacted] United States Customs. (U) b7c

[redacted] was advised by SA [redacted] that she was being interviewed concerning the assassination of Congressman LEO J. RYAN on November 18, 1978, near Jonestown, Guyana. (U)

[redacted] advised that she was a retired domestic worker who joined the Peoples Temple in Los Angeles, California in 1971. She advised she had no formal education and was introduced to the Peoples Temple Movement led by the Reverend JIM JONES by an associate of hers named [redacted]. She advised that [redacted] is a Peoples Temple member who still resides in Los Angeles, California, but she could not furnish the address of [redacted]. (U)

[redacted] stated that she did manual and domestic type work for the Peoples Temple Movement from the period, 1971 to August, 1977, in California. She advised that in August of 1977, she left the United States for the Peoples Temple Commune in Jonestown, Guyana. She advised that the trip to Jonestown was financed by the Peoples Temple and she stayed in Jonestown from the period, August, 1977, through October, 1978. In October, 1978, she left the Jonestown Commune, to work in the Peoples Temple Headquarters in the Republic of Guyana in Georgetown. She returned to Jonestown during the latter part of October, 1978, for medical treatment for a period of one week. She stayed in Jonestown during the last week of October, 1978, for dental treatment and medical treatment administered to her by the Jonestown Physician, whose name she did not know. She returned to the Peoples Temple Headquarters in Georgetown on approximately November 1, 1978, and remained there until November 29, 1978, when she (U)

[redacted] advised that she, during her entire stay in Jonestown, performed menial labor and did not have any contact with the Reverend JONES or any of the leaders of the Peoples Temple Movement. [redacted] stated that the elderly members of the commune were kept isolated in their own section of the camp, while the younger members remained together with their group and there was not much communication between the two groups. [redacted] stated that her last duties for the Peoples Temple Movement both at the Jonestown Commune and in the Headquarters for the Commune in Georgetown consisted of opening letters addressed to the Peoples Movement. She advised that all she did was to open the letters and give the contents to other people, whose names she did not know. She described the contents of the letters as consisting mainly of correspondence and donations made to the Peoples Movement in the form of cash and checks. She stated that she was also utilized during this period as a kitchen helper in both the Jonestown and Headquarters facilities. (U)

[redacted] advised that she turned over monthly to the Peoples Temple Movement, her Social Security check, which she endorsed and then furnished over to a representative from the Peoples Temple Commune, whose names she does not recall. She advised that other members of the Peoples Commune did the same thing with respect to monthly Social Security checks received. (U)

[redacted] advised that she learned of the shootings in Jonestown via other members of the Peoples Movement at Headquarters in Guyana, when the news became known over the radio. [redacted] denied any knowledge of any conspiracy to kill any government officials or the inner workings of the Peoples Temple Movement hierarchy. She stated that she joined the Peoples Temple Movement to "serve the Lord." [redacted] advised that the name, DON SLY is known to her and that she believed he was a Peoples Temple follower, but did not know his current whereabouts.

(U)

With respect to the Peoples Temple basketball team, [redacted] stated that she knew of the existence of such a team and that some of the members consisted of CALVIN DOUGLAS, JIM JONES, JR., and TIM JONES, a black male. She advised that she last saw the members of the basketball team on the morning of November 29, 1978, at the Peoples Temple Headquarters in Georgetown just prior to her departure for the United States.
