STANDARD FORM NO. 64

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, NEW YORK

DATE: November 30, 1951

FROM : SAC, NEW HAVEN (65-1346)

SUBJECT: COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE IN THE ROSENBERG CASE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

65-14763

By letter dated Nov. 27, 1951 George P. Murdock, Professor of Anthropology, Institute of Human Relations, Yale University, submitted to this office literature distributed by the above captioned committee which listed its address as 17 Murray St., New York 7, New York.

This literature consisted of a letter which was dated Nov. 21, 1951 and which was signed, "WILLIAM E. REUBEN, Provisional Chairman" and was addressed, "Dear Friend". This letter requested contributions to be forwarded to the above mentioned committee and stated that the ROSENBERG case was likened to the Dreyfus and the Sacco-Vanzetti cases.

Attached to this letter, which was mimeographed, was a mimeographed statement which decried the conviction of the ROSENBERGS. Among the signers of this letter were Dr. JOHN MARSALKA and Dr. GENE WELTFISH.

Dr. MURDOCK, in his letter of transmittal, advised that he knew Dr. MARSALKA slightly and mentioned that the only member of the Committee whom he knew really well was Dr. WELTFISH. MURDOCK remarked that he had every reason to believe that WELTFISH was a "confirmed Communist".

The New Haven Office is origin in the case entitled "JOHN PAUL MILAN MARSALKA - IS-C". MARSALKA is National President of the American Slav Congress which has been cited by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

It is to be noted that the signature of Dr. JOHN MARSALKA was typewritten on this mimeographed release, while the names of the other seven individuals were mimeographed. It might be that Dr. MARSALKA is the person responsible for distributing these locally.

65-15348-1860a

Enclosed for the information of the New York Office is the letter and the mimeographed release sent out by the above captioned Committee.

Informant advised today that he had been in touch with NAOMI BROTHMAN on 12/8/51. She advised him that she had sent a money order to EMANUEL BLOCH for $100.00 under a fictitious name. She advised that she put a note in the envelope telling MANNY "This is part of money I promised [redacted] I would send you."

Informant called BLOCH and told him that he should expect the money order from BROTHMAN.

On 12/11/51, BLOCH told informant that he had received the money order from BROTHMAN and that he was putting the money in a legal fee fund and not in the fund being raised by the National Committee to Free the Rosenbergs.

On 12/12/51, informant went down to BLOCH'S house and BLOCH gave him a copy of his brief. BLOCH told him that he had collected about $3,000.00 and that money was still coming in. He told informant that they had a headquarters in the Guardian Building, 17 Murray Street, New York City, with one full time employee.

BLOCH asked informant if he would be willing to spend about two nights a week helping to address envelopes and send out literature for the Committee. Informant stated that he would give as much time as he could. BLOCH advised informant that they had not as yet obtained a National Chairman for the Committee and that he was still looking around to find a reputable person.

Informant stated that during this visit, BLOCH discussed the ROSENBERG appeal and BLOCH read part of his brief. Informant stated that it appeared to him that BLOCH had lost a great deal of his enthusiasm for the case and he discussed the appeal with an air of "resignation."

Informant advised that he has been in touch with BLOCH by telephone a number of times, but that he has not been down to see him since the last visit. Informant stated that he had made a tentative appointment to go to BLOCH'S house on the eve of 12/24/51.

Memo: Julius Rosenberg
Espionage - R.

At 3:20 PM this date [redacted] Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, NY, called me & advised confidentially as follows:

"Manny" Block visited the Rosenbergs at Sing Sing on January 1. The following information was submitted — Hy Piskin (phonetic) and Lloyd Stryker, both attorneys, were contacted by Block with reference to the appeal but both refused to cooperate. It was not mentioned whether this concerned the argument of the appeal or writing the appeal brief. However, Osmond Frankel, attorney, read the brief and complimented Block on it.

Bill Reuben of the "National Guardian" plans to go to Chicago to coordinate the efforts of the Midwest Progressive Party to obtain sympathy and financial assistance for the Rosenbergs.

Block told Rosenbergs that Izzy Stone and Hambro are eager in every [redacted] possible. Hambro is connected with Radio Station W2XR, NYC, and, according to [redacted] has not been mentioned previously.

One Elizabeth Moose (phonetic) of Croton, NY was hostess to Bloch and the Rosenberg kids during a recent visit to Ossining.

Rosen (apparently male) is teaching Michael Rosenberg to play the piano and was quoted by Bloch to say that "the boy is a genius."

A former inmate of the Women's House of Detention, NYC, gave the Rosenberg children Christmas presents. She was mentioned only as Rose.

The French newspaper "Ce Soir", has been publishing friendly articles which described in detail the "outrage" committed against the Rosenbergs.

[redacted] Rosenberg's mother has been in contact with two Rabbis who are connected with her synagogue and who have promised to help.

Quite a discussion was held between Bloch and Julius Rosenberg with a view

[redacted] Blochi [redacted] arranging for the sale of a lot of tools formerly used to make Walkie Talkies. These tools belong to Julius who bought them in a phoney deal in someone elses name because he could not purchase them in his own name due to his position. A suggested purchaser was someone at 43 Vesey St. NYC. The name "Pack Tel" and the name "Charlie" was mentioned in this connection.

One "Lena", apparently a sister, is heading up a group to distribute pamphlets on the Lower East Side

Bernard Greenglass recently visited Ethel Rosenberg. Their conversation concerned the Rosenberg Children for the most part. However, he told Ethel that he had a visitor who had formerly been "our very good friend". He is now making money "hand over fist" and stands ready to help in any way. Both Ethel and Bernard appeared very secretive during this part of the [redacted] and made a point not to mention this individual by name. [redacted] considered this unusual for Bernard who has been "open and above board" in the past. In this connection during Blochi visit with Julius Rosenberg, Julius warned him several times not to antagonize "Bernie" as he may be very useful later on.

[redacted] said he has made a copy of a letter in which we may be interested and is mailing it today. He did not desire to discuss its contents on the telephone.

[redacted] also advised he will not be in [redacted] 1952, but that the standing arrangement with this office will continue in his absence through [redacted] will have the Rosenberg file and may be contacted if desired.

At 9:20 AM SA William A Johnson called me from Mineola to advise that Mr. Lewis, Assistant Postmaster, Mineola, had noted an envelope in the mail which had become opened in transit. The envelope was addressed to Mrs. E. Babb, 33 Villa St, Roslyn, NY with no return address. Inside the envelope were several copies of a booklet entitled "To Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case" by William A. Reuben, with a foreword by the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case. Also contained in the envelope was a copy of an ALP Newsletter, Volume II, No. 1 dated January, 1952. This letter was cheaply printed and was issued by the Combined ALP of Roslyn and Great Neck. It announced a meeting concerning the defense of the Rosenbergs to be held at 12 Wimbleton Lane, Great Neck Long Island on January 9, 1952 at 8 PM. The letter also contained a plea for individual donations of at least "10¢". The letter noted that further information could be obtained by calling 65-15 348-1880

Informant advised on January 16th last that EMANUEL BLOCH had called informant on January 12th last and asked if he could take JULIUS' mother to Sing Sing on the 13th of January. Informant advised BLOCH that because of prior commitments, it was impossible for him to do so but that he would be glad to take Mrs. ROSENBERG to Sing Sing on the 20th of January.

BLOCH advised informant to speak with Mrs. GRUNEN, with whom Mrs. ROSENBERG is living, and to make arrangements for the trip.

Informant called Mrs. GRUNEN at LO 8-0821 and advised her that he would speak to her later on in the week to make final arrangements to take Mrs. ROSENBERG and the children to Sing Sing upon the twentieth. Informant advised that Mrs. ROSENBERG is living at Apartment 2A at 2436 Laurel Hill Terrace, in Washington Heights, New York City.

Informant stated that BLOCH told him that he had been very busy preparing for the argument of appeal of the ROSENBERG case and that was the reason that he had not been in touch with informant. He said that he would see informant some night this week. Informant has been instructed to keep in close contact with BLOCH during this coming month and to obtain as much information as possible concerning the National Committee to Secure Justice for the ROSENBERGS. Informant stated that he believed that BLOCH would ask him to serve on this Committee in the near future.

Bureau will be advised of further contacts with informant.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ETHEL ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE R

Judge Irving Kaufman on January 28th turned over to me the attached letter received by him from Dr. Horace B. Davis, 4121 Forest Avenue, Kansas City 4, Mo., for such consideration as we deem appropriate.

At the same time Judge Kaufman informed me that Mr. Samuel Schneirson of 145 Central Park West, who is connected with the Jewish Welfare Board, informed him that during the time the Rosenberg children were being handled by this Welfare Board they appeared to be in a very maladjusted state of mind. The older boy particularly seemed to have developed a complex and allegedly stated that he was going to devote his life to avenging his parents. Judge Kaufman was wondering whether he ought to send for the boys and talk with them. I told him I would make a little check as to what we knew about these children and someone would get in touch with him later regarding this. I mentioned the above to Supervisor Granville who said he would take care of this.

CONFIDENTIAL

On 1/21/52, informant advised that on Sunday, 1/20/52, he drove JULIUS ROSENBERG's mother to visit him at Sing Sing Prison. Mrs. ROSENBERG was alone. Informant advised that it was difficult to carry on a conversation with Mrs. ROSENBERG because she speaks very little English and can only speak Yiddish. He picked Mrs. ROSENBERG up about 11 a.m., left her at Sing Sing about 12:45 p.m., and returned and picked her up about 3:30 p.m. for the return trip to New York.

She advised informant that both JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG appeared to be in good health and spirits. She advised informant that she had received a letter from JULIUS talking about [redacted] and how wonderful he had been to both JULIUS and ETHEL. She told informant that JULIUS wanted him to get in touch with EMANUEL BLOCH. She asked informant what he thought about the case and how soon did he think JULIUS and ETHEL would be released. Informant stated that the greater part of the conversation going to and from Sing Sing that Mrs. ROSENBERG engaged in was how soon the ROSENBERGS would be released from jail.

Informant advised that about 4:35 p.m., he arrived at Mrs. ROSENBERG's residence to see WILLIAM REUBEN, reporter for the "National Guardian", driving away from the house with the ROSENBERG children.

Informant was asked whether he had received any further information from BLOCH or any other source concerning BERNIE GLADSTONE, HERMAN GOLDFARB or IRVING and ELAINE SAVLOWITZ. Informant stated that BLOCH has never discussed these people, and particularly no mention has been made of GOLDFARB, since his efforts last year to locate GOLDFARB and secure from him the $1,000 that ABRAHAM BROTHMAN supposedly had given to GOLDFARB for the publication of "Retort" or other use for the ROSENBERGS.

Informant stated that during all his conversations with BLOCH concerning the publication of the articles in the "National Guardian" and the formation of the National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs, no mention has been made of any of the above individuals. He stated he believed that if BLOCH had intended to use any of these people on the Committee, he would have been advised of such fact. He stated, however, that in the event BLOCH does mention these people, this office will be promptly advised. He also stated that he intended to get in touch with BLOCH on the evening of January 21 or January 22.

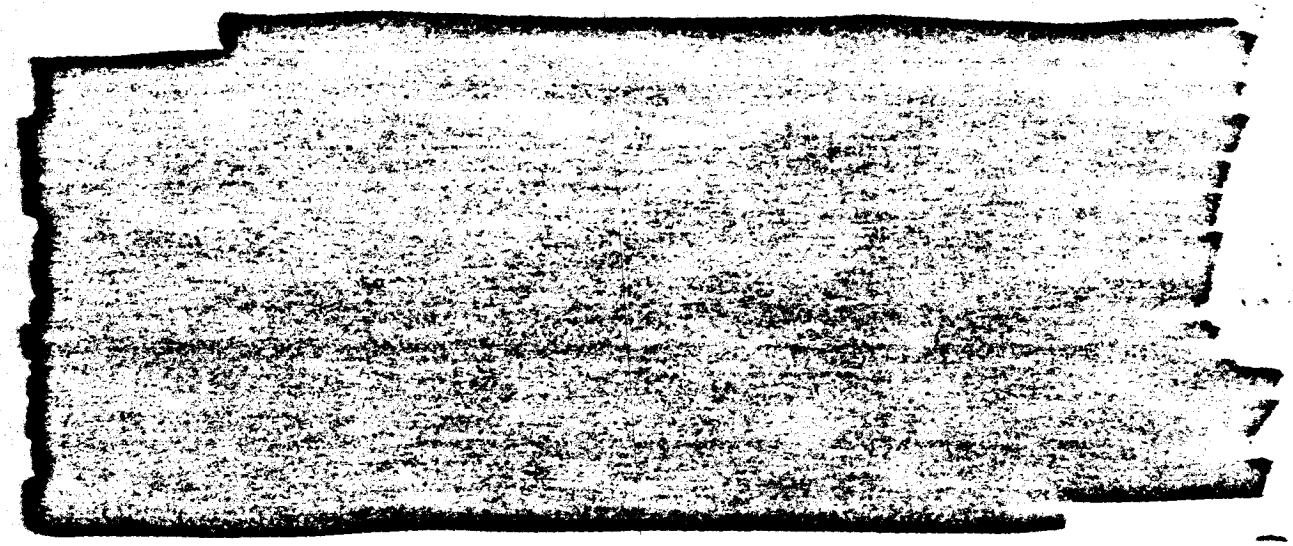
On January 23, 1952, informant advised that he had finally contacted BLOCH on the telephone on the evening of January 22. BLOCH told informant to contact JEAN PENNINGTON. Informant stated that he would contact this individual that same evening or the following day and advise this office the results of this interview. Informant did not advise at this interview of the identity or residence of JEAN PENNINGTON.



The Bureau will be promptly advised of future contacts with informant and of his meeting with JEAN PENNINGTON. It is pointed out to the Bureau that this is the first instance in which JULIUS ROSENBERG has suggested informant contact BLOCH and is the [redacted] occasion on which BLOCH has directed informant to contact another person, particularly a member of the Communist Party, other than NAOMI BROTHMAN.

STANLEY GREENSPAN, organizer of the Kingsbridge section of the Communist Party, Bronx, N.Y., told me that he "heard talks in party (C.P.) circles that the ROSENBERG case has been neglected to long" and that" it's about time to start doing something for them."

STANLEY referred to the case of JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG who were sentenced to death as atomic spies.

STANLEY said that according to the "talks" he heard during the time of their imprisonment the ROSENBERGS developed themselves politically to such an extent that "they are being compared to GRIGORY DIMITOV."

He said that "it is planned to set up some kind of a committee to aid the ROSENBERGS" and that "house parties should be organized immediately for the purpose of collecting funds for the ROSENBERGS."
