AFFIDAVIT OF DEBORAH LAYTON BLAKEY
RE THE THREAT AND POSSIBILITY OF MASS SUICIDE
BY MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE

I, DEBORAH LAYTON BLAKEY, declare the following under penalty of perjury:

1. The purpose of this affidavit is to call to the attention of the United States government the existence of a situation which threatens the lives of United States citizens living in Jonestown, Guyana.

2. From August, 1971 until May 13, 1978, I was a member of the People's Temple. For a substantial period of time prior to my departure for Guyana in December, 1977, I held the position of Financial Secretary of the People's Temple.

3. I was 18 years old when I joined the People's Temple. I had grown up in affluent circumstances in the permissive atmosphere of Berkeley, California. By joining the People's Temple, I hoped to help others and in the process to bring structure and self-discipline to my own life.

4. During the years I was a member of the People's Temple, I watched the organization depart with increasing frequency from its professed dedication to social change and participatory democracy. The Rev. Jim Jones gradually assumed a tyrannical hold over the lives of Temple members.

5. Any disagreement with his dictates came to be regarded as "treason". The Rev. Jones labelled any person who left the organization a "traitor" and "fair game". He steadfastly and convincingly maintained that the punishment for defection was death. The fact that severe corporal punishment was frequently administered to Temple members gave the threats a frightening air of reality.

6. The Rev. Jones saw himself as the center of a conspiracy. The identity of the conspirators changed from day to day along with his erratic world vision. He induced the fear in others that, through their contact with him, they had become targets of the conspiracy. He convinced black Temple members that if they did not follow him to Guyana, they would be put into concentration camps and killed. White members were instilled with the belief that their names appeared on a secret list of enemies of the state that was kept by the C.I.A. and that they would be tracked down, tortured, imprisoned, and subsequently killed if they did not flee to Guyana.

7. Frequently, at Temple meetings, Rev. Jones would talk non-stop for hours. At various times, he claimed that he was the reincarnation of either Lenin, Jesus Christ, or one of a variety of other religious or political figures. He claimed that he had divine powers and could heal the sick. He stated that he had extrasensory perception and could tell what everyone was thinking. He said that he had powerful connections the world over, including the Mafia, Idi Amin, and the Soviet government.

8. When I first joined the Temple, Rev. Jones seemed to make clear distinctions between fantasy and reality. I believed that most of the time when he said irrational things, he was aware that they were irrational, but that they served as a tool of his leadership. His theory was that the end justified the means. At other times, he appeared to be deluded by a paranoid vision of the world. He would not sleep for days at a time and talk compulsively about the conspiracies against him. However, as time went on, he appeared to become genuinely irrational.

9. Rev. Jones insisted that Temple members work long hours and completely give up all semblance of a personal life. Proof of loyalty to Jones was confirmed by actions showing that a member had given up everything, even basic necessities. The most loyal were in the worst physical condition. Dark circles under one's eyes or extreme loss of weight were considered signs of loyalty.

10. The primary emotions I came to experience were exhaustion and fear. I knew that Rev. Jones was in some sense "sick", but that did not make me any less afraid of him.

11. Rev. Jones fled the United States in June, 1977 amidst growing public criticism of the practices of the Temple. He informed members of the Temple that he would be imprisoned for life if he did not leave immediately.

12. Between June, 1977 and December, 1977, when I was ordered to depart for Guyana, I had access to coded radio broadcasts from Rev. Jones in Guyana to the People's Temple headquarters in San Francisco.

BB-3-a-3

13. In September, 1977, an event which Rev. Jones viewed as a major crisis occurred. Through listening to coded radio broadcasts and conversations with other members of the Temple staff, I learned that an attorney for former Temple member Grace Stoen had arrived in Guyana, seeking the return of her son, John Victor Stoen.

14. Rev. Jones has expressed particular bitterness toward Grace Stoen. She had been Chief Counselor, a position of great responsibility within the Temple. Her personal qualities of generosity and compassion made her very popular with the membership. Her departure posed a threat to Rev. Jones' absolute control. Rev. Jones delivered a number of public tirades against her. He said that her kindness was faked and that she was a C.I.A. agent. He swore that he would never return her son to her.

15. I am informed that Rev. Jones believed that he would be able to stop Timothy Stoen, husband of Grace Stoen and father of John Victor Stoen, from speaking against the Temple as long as the child was being held in Guyana. Timothy Stoen, a former Assistant District Attorney in Mendocino and San Francisco counties, had been one of Rev. Jones' most trusted advisors. It was rumored that Stoen was critical of the use of physical force and other forms of intimidation against Temple members. I am further informed that Rev. Jones believed that a public statement by Timothy Stoen would increase the tarnish on his public image.

BB-3-a-4

16. When the Temple lost track of Timothy Stoen, I was assigned to track him down and offer him a large sum of money in return for his silence. Initially, I was to offer him $5,000. I was authorized to pay him up to $10,000. I was not able to locate him and did not see him again until on or about October 6, 1977. On that date, the Temple received information that he would be joining Grace in a San Francisco Superior Court action to determine the custody of John. I was one of a group of Temple members assigned to meet him outside the court and attempt to intimidate him to prevent him from going inside.

17. The September, 1977 crisis concerning John Stoen reached major proportions. The radio messages from Guyana were frenzied and hysterical. One morning, Terry J. Buford, public relations advisor to Rev. Jones, and myself were instructed to place a telephone call to a high-ranking Guyanese official who was visiting the United States and deliver the following threat: unless the government of Guyana took immediate steps to stall the Guyanese court action regarding John Stoen's custody, the entire population of Jonestown would extinguish itself in a mass suicide by 5:30 p.m. that day. I was later informed that Temple members in Guyana placed similar calls to other Guyanese officials.

18. We later received radio communication to the effect that the court case had been stalled and that the suicide threat was called off.

19. I arrived in Guyana in December, 1977. I spent a week in Georgetown and then, pursuant to orders, traveled to Jonestown.

20. Conditions at Jonestown were even worse than I had feared they would be. The settlement was swarming with armed guards. No one was permitted to leave unless on a special assignment and these assignments were given only to the most trusted. We were allowed to associate with Guyanese people only while on a "mission".

21. The vast majority of the Temple members were required to work in the fields from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. six days per week and on Sunday from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. We were allowed one hour for lunch. Most of this hour was spent walking back to lunch and standing in line for our food. Taking any other breaks during the workday was severely frowned upon.

22. The food was woefully inadequate. There was rice for breakfast, rice water soup for lunch, and rice and beans for dinner. On Sunday, we each received an egg and a cookie. Two or three times a week we had vegetables. Some very weak and elderly members received one egg per day. However, the food did improve markedly on the few occasions when there were outside visitors.

23. In contrast, Rev. Jones, claiming problems with his blood sugar, dined separately and ate meat regularly. He had his own refrigerator which was stocked with food. The two women with whom he resided, Maria Katsaris and Carolyn Layton, and the two small boys who lived with him,

BB-3-a-6

Kimo Prokes and John Stoen, dined with the membership. However, they were in much better physical shape than everyone else since they were also allowed to eat the food in Rev. Jones' refrigerator.

24. In February, 1978, conditions had become so bad that half of Jonestown was ill with severe diarrhea and high fevers. I was seriously ill for two weeks. Like most of the other sick people, I was not given any nourishing foods to help recover. I was given water and a tea drink until I was well enough to return to the basic rice and beans diet.

25. As the former financial secretary, I was aware that the Temple received over $65,000 in Social Security checks per month. It made me angry to see that only a fraction of the income of the senior citizens in the care of the Temple was being used for their benefit. Some of the money was being used to build a settlement that would earn Rev. Jones the place in history with which he was so obsessed. The balance was being held in "reserve". Although I felt terrible about what was happening, I was afraid to say anything because I knew that anyone with a differing opinion gained the wrath of Jones and other members.

26. Rev. Jones' thoughts were made known to the population of Jonestown by means of broadcasts over the loudspeaker system. He broadcast an average of six hours per day. When the Reverend was particularly agitated, he would broadcast for hours on end. He would talk on and on while we worked in the fields or tried to sleep. In addition to the daily broadcasts, there were marathon meetings six nights per week.

27. The tenor of the broadcasts revealed that Rev. Jones' paranoia had reached an all-time high. He was irate at the light in which he had been portrayed by the media. He felt that as a consequence of having been ridiculed and maligned, he would be denied a place in history. His obsession with his place in history was maniacal. When pondering the loss of what he considered his rightful place in history, he would grow despondent and say that all was lost.

28. Visitors were infrequently permitted access to Jonestown. The entire community was required to put on a performance when a visitor arrived. Before the visitor arrived, Rev. Jones would instruct us on the image we were to project. The workday would be shortened. The food would be better. Sometimes there would be music and dancing. Aside from these performances, there was little joy or hope in any of our lives. An air of despondency prevailed.

29. There was constant talk of death. In the early days of the People's Temple, general rhetoric about dying for principles was sometimes heard. In Jonestown, the concept of mass suicide for socialism arose. Because our lives were so wretched anyway and because we were so afraid to contradict Rev. Jones, the concept was not challenged.

30. An event which transpired shortly after I reached Jonestown convinced me that Rev. Jones had sufficient control over the minds of the residents that it would be possible for him to effect a mass suicide.

31. At least once a week, Rev. Jones would declare a "white night", or state of emergency. The entire population of Jonestown would be awakened by blaring sirens. Designated persons, approximately fifty in number, would arm themselves with rifles, move from cabin to cabin, and make certain that all members were responding. A mass meeting would ensue. Frequently during these crises, we would be told that the jungle was swarming with mercenaries and that death could be expected at any minute.

32. During one "white night", we were informed that our situation had become hopeless and that the only course of action open to us was a mass suicide for the glory of socialism. We were told that we would be tortured by mercenaries if we were taken alive. Everyone, including the children, was told to line up. As we passed through the line, we were given a small glass of red liquid to drink. We were told that the liquid contained poison and that we would die within 45 minutes. We all did as we were told. When the time came when we should have dropped dead, Rev. Jones explained that the poison was not real and that we had just been through a loyalty test. He warned us that the time was not far off when it would become necessary for us to die by our own hands.

33. Life at Jonestown was so miserable and the physical pain of exhaustion was so great that this event was not traumatic for me. I had become indifferent as to whether I lived or died.

34. During another "white night", I watched Carolyn Layton, my former sister-in-law, give sleeping pills to two young children in her care, John Victor Stoen and Kimo Prokes, her own son. Caroyln said to me that Rev. Jones had told her that everyone was going to have to die that night. She said that she would probably have to shoot John and Kimo and that it would be easier for them if she did it while they were asleep.

35. In April, 1978, I was reassigned to Georgetown. I became determined to escape or die trying. I surreptitiously contacted my sister, who wired me a plane ticket. After I received the ticket, I sought the assistance of the United States Embassy in arranging to leave Guyana. Rev. Jones had instructed us that he had a spy working in the United States Embassy and that he would know if anyone went to the embassy for help. For this reason, I was very fearful.

36. I am most grateful to the United States government and Richard McCoy and Daniel Weber; in particular, for the assistance they gave me. However, the efforts made to investigate conditions in Jonestown are inadequate for the following reasons. The infrequent visits are always announced and arranged. Acting in fear for their lives, Temple members respond as they are told. The members appear to speak freely to American representatives, but in fact they are drilled thoroughly prior to each visit on what questions to expect and how to respond. Members are afraid of retaliation if they speak their true feelings in public.

37. On behalf of the population of Jonestown, I urge that the United States Government take adequate steps to safeguard their rights. I believe that their lives are in danger.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, except as to those matters stated on information and belief and as to those I believe them to be true.

Executed this 15 day of June, 1978 at San Francisco, California.

REFUTATION OF DEBORAH LAYTON'S AFFIDAVIT:

2. she never was financial secretary.. never was in that position. She only held temporarily after Maria and until Robin T. took over.

3. is applicable

4. exactly the opposite is true.. He has moved from more religious to more politically aware... but has never been tyrannical. A somewhat paralzying fact is that it is so much of a participatory democracy.

5. untrue. JJ encouraged disagreement- he always has. Esp. the words 'fair game'- a word that JJ never used- but another group does- Scientology uses that word. re: punishment for defection was death- not true- none of that.. doesn't exist at all. No corporal punishment- none of any kind existed- even minimal - for many months.

6. re: conspiracy- that was not the main problem. The identity never changed- always went back to the fact that we were spied upon when Mayor Blackwell from Mississippi was here. But nothing conclusiv never has been anything conslusive. Tho it has beenxbem become pretty obvious esp. where TOS was involved- that there was $ backing it. Then Dennis Banks etc, but really- very little was said about that. Because there is nothing they particulary feel that can be done about it.

about concentration camps etc.- it is true that JJ spoke about that possibility happening in U.S. Not true about white members names appearing on a secret list of enemies... don't know anything about that at all.. no knowledge of that- but did see evidence of that when Sharon Amos name appeard on FOI etc.

7. It is easy for them to say those things. He always preferenced any discussion of reincarnation etc. esp. re Jesus Christ- with "if that ever existed." As far as Lenin goes- people presumed... the saw what they wanted to see.

As far as the meetings- the most JJ would ever talk has been 4 hours at the most and many times he never talked. As far as 'divine powers'- JJ never related to that word "divine". And as far as being able to heal- that is the truth. And re: having extrasensory perception- yes he does- but he never put much emphasis on that becaus it is not that important.

JJ never said he had 'powerful' world connections- never- in fact- on the contrary. And re: Idi Amin- ridiculous. Once mention his political party but never the person himself. re: Mafia, no- just mentio that someone had offered to help once. And re: Soviet govt.- wish it were so that he had influence there.

BB-3-C-1

8. That is what TOS and shehad- problems between fantasy and reality. Don't relate to the word 'irrational'.. that is TOS. If he ever ~~xxx~~ believed in 'the ends justifying the means'- he doesn't now becau of TOS. In fact, in Russia- it is very directly dealth with. Anything illegal results in conviction on criminal charges

At various times, J would not sleep for days, but the people around him saw no difference in his perspectives at all. No measurabl difference in his outlook. He never focused on conspiracies.. if he were the only one, never would have bothered with all the move etc. They use the term 'irrational' for convenience. just rationalization.

9. Long hours- not so much now as was necessary at first. There is alot of family life, maybe too much.. "Proof of loyality" never calle upon, and certainly never to J in the first place. No one is in bad physical condition. Debbie lost weight because she wanted to- she needed to and she looked forward to doing so. She herself also had plenty of sleep.

10. She never worked long hours. The word 'fear' never applied.. never acted like it- always wanted to be more active where JJ was concerned.. stayed close to JJ alot of the time.

11. the word 'fled' doesn't apply.. in fact, he almost changed his mind in N.Y.- but a heart condition then.. the others urged him to go on, or he would have returned then. Public criticism never bothered J Being imprisoned never bothered JJ either. Not the thought of it or the possibility- he was never concerned about that.

12. she was never ordered to go to Guyana.. just the opposite- she insisted that she go to take her mother there- was rather pushy about // re: 'codes'- yes

13. that situation was pretty ~~xxx~~ plain- not necessary to get it from 'radio codes'.

14. Debbie never liked Grace Stoen at all.- just the opposite. Grace was never popular.. no way compare her to generouse and compassi ate.- her leaving was no threat to control at all. There may have bee a few episodes about her.. but never tirades. also- word 'bitterness' does not apply as far as JJ goes. He was always concerned about what would happen to John. and he did say that he would never return HIS SON to her. re: CIA- that is unfounded.

15. "informed"- ridiculous! That was not the purpose at all of John's leaving. It was TOS suggestion. He pushed the signing of Parental consent forms etc. It was TOS fully.. recommended by him. The rest of this is also not correct.

16. Didnt want to do this- but C. Garry thought it was advisable. re: the 5,000. Teri says she is confused about the 10,000.

17. 'frenzied' and 'hysterical'- don't apply. Just asked Reid for ans. - some kind of assurances. We would have rather gone to Cuba or Russia- rahter than suicide. Never was aware of any calls to Guy. officials.. not ture.

BB-3-C-2

18. don't know anything about that.

19. Debbie strongly requested to go on to Jonestown.. no 'orders'

20. the next day after she got there- she went to PNC party- and got drunk at it.- not applicable // she saw no armed guards etc. She did what she wanted. We couldn't get much closer to the Guyanese there is an impending intermarriage now. so this is ridiculous.

21. this never was the arrangement. Sometimes people would work 4 hrs. on Sunday. but never that long as she says. There are maybe only 70 people who work in the fields- wish we had more- very needed- but that just doesn't apply.- 'vast majority'= that is ridiculous. never 7 am. to 6 pm.- we work in 4 different shifts.
Also the food was taken in boxes with the workers to the fields 88.the standing in line part is a lie. Sometimes don't even start till 10 am.

22. the food is tremendous. Excellent nutrition. so much food- we dont know what to do with it. we obviously show evidente of being well fed. she always bragged about how good the food was.

23. no distinction between JJ and others. he does have blood sugar problems- always has, and he does not eat meat regularly- tho the other people do- every day. His diet is less varied than the other people because of his health problems. Everyone else eats the same foods. All dine communally. Dr. Schact wanted the small refrigerator for JJ to keep a few things at hand. No distinctions made.- never has been. Caroly and Maria and the two sons live in separate quarters in the same house as JJ. All the children eat the same- all in very good health.

24. never occurred.. the illness does not exist.. she never was sick. There was something- but it was not extensive- had nothing to do with 'conditions'. She was not ill tho= quite the contrary- she had good food and the ones who were sick were given extensive medications as needed.

25. again- she was not financial secretary.. the 65,000 is not true, she had no way of knowing anything- as she was not involved. and the facts speak otherwise. about the 'fraction' of income- not true- ridiculous- much more than that is spent on each person.. to meet all the needs.
JJ. never thought he would go down in history- no reserve at all. The only time she assisted Maria- JJ wasn't around at all. Debbie had total control of her job- she could have done whatever. Who knows how much $ she stole during that time? She undoubtedly had a complex.

26. ridiculous- maybe he has spoken 1 hr. at the most.. sometimes they have a meeting in the dining area- have asked him to talk, he relays world information- an effort to give all views and perspectives-Russia China, and U.S.- understanding of dissendent views- very comprehensive // no marathan meetings- completely wrong.. only 2 meetings a week. No loudspeakers allowed during sleep time.

BB-3-C-3

27. totally not so! J never concerned about history- just the opposit He would grow 'despondent' on occasion- but not related to his 'place' in history. despondent in reference to whether it would have been better to assisted U.S. because at times, we didn't know where ~~xk~~ Guya was headed.. it always related to his thoughts on the old people and the children- their future. It had nothing to do with going down in history at all. There is very little of it anymore...

28. visitors come thru daily- unannounced. Untru that performances required.. how would we possibly instruct so many people how to behave ~~thxxx~~ Work not shortened- never changed when visitors came. music and dance, food, all the same.. no change. Video etc. daily.

29. don't know how she would know about that at all because she was always isolated from the rest. Not interested in talking about prin= ciples etc.- not true. exception, talk of death- the need to be prepared. There was no more joy that at a childbirth... the joy of life is celebrated. The mass suicide talked about on 1 occasion- in reference to U.S.- as remote possibility.. the concept was discussed yrs. ago at d.S... in light of Huey etc.// Also discussed at Jonestow but only travel to Russia or Cuba seen as a solution.

31. mercenary threats- emergencies.. never mention of ~~xxxxx~~ armed mercenaries to people- but we were obviously being shot at.. that was real...the thought of leaving was talked about during that time. If accepted by Cuba or Russia. never 50 armed guards- not half that many and they were for the protection of the people from whoever was shooti at us from the jungle.
"white night' happened in correlation with shots being fired at JJ. but the origin was never determined.. mercenaries not mentioned. JJ centralized storage of guards etc... that was essential. No blarin sirens. the liquid- that is not true. There was roll taken of all people there. No mass meeting- just ~~xxx~~ waited to see ~~iff~~ false alarm or what. Its been ~~x~~ months since that time.. can ask the Moores what state of mind people are in since then...

32. There was discussion of prognosis of Guyana- and U.S. relations. looked like their might be a siege happening... looked like Guyana was going to be destablized. Even Mingo thought that might take place. Burnham was ill, Reid was out of the country.. looked bad. Since that time- Burnham has made considerable changes in staff.. more stabl Poison- that was not the word at all... was only discussed as a hypothetical as a tranquilizer for the people.. It was all speculativ Tranquiler only referred to only if USSR and Cuba said no on assistanc the whole snenario did not take place that she described. Only speculative. last sentence is ridiculous. (Chronicle stated that she said the staff would do it- contradicition).

BB-3-c-4

33. Life in Jonestown= glorious. since she was in Georgetown 3 mos. (this also contradicts Chroncile)- she didn't want to go to Georgetown because she wanted JJ's attention. Sharon thought she would be helpful there. Now JJ feels badly about it- he wondered at the time- but he went along with others suggestions that she go to work at the capital.

34. No- not true- Carolyn wouldn't even know how to use a gun! absolutely not true.

35. she left Jonestown- no later than March. (again contradiciton with what Chronicle said). not true about the spy in state dept. embassy.

36. just engratiation herself.. in fact- our members speak to member of the embassy one to one in private- so how would we know if they told anything or not/ not threats of retaliation at all- ridiculous.

- also that is not her signature at the end.

BB-3-C-5

This is a short explanation of what happened to me after I found out that my daughter Debbie Blakey had left us (for good I suppose). And the circumstances under which she left. —
When Jim first told me, I was shocked and could hardly believe that this was really true for the longest time I rationalized, trying to understand her behaviour, but as time went on and statements were published about us in the States, which she had made. I slowly realized that she was committing an evil act against us.
It was a terrible realization and as much as I tried not to let it get me down, and as loving and understanding Jim Jones was, trying to comfort me, it had it's bad effects.
My health, which was good after a serious cancer operation in the States last Sept. started to go down. I lost weight, started to feel weak and developed several physical complaints that I hadn't had up to that point. I worried constantly, and Debbi's leaving us became an obsession. — I have heard about people dying of grief, or a broken heart and I suppose that this was what was happening to me to a lesser degree in the sense that I was not dying. — Jim requested that Dr. Schacht give me a complete physical, and I had x-rays and just about every test imaginable. All of them were negative. Anyway, I was put in our hospital for complete rest, special foods and vitamins, and I am recovering. — Debbi is the youngest of 4 children. When she was 7 years old her oldest brother left for college, followed by her sister and another brother, all within 3 years. They all left for U.C. at Davis. During the same time I decided to take a job, and my mother in law came to take care of Debbi. It was during this period Debbi became a problem. First her grades became poor. As she got older she began to associate with the delinquent element n her classes. We moved her from Garfield Jr. High to "Bentley's" (a private school) and back to public school, all in Berkeley. Then we enrolled her in El Cerrito High and next at the High school in Davis, Ca., where she stayed with friends of ours. As a last resort we sent her to a Quaker boarding school in , England (Ackworth).

Even there she continued to be a problem. She did meet a fine young man in her school, whom she later married and who is a member of our group here now and has been for many years. – The reason I am giving her background is to explain her personality. – She underwent a complete change when she became a member of Peoples Temple some 10 years ago after her older brother (who is also with us) introduced her to the group. She became dependable, and very capable and efficient. Besides working for the church she completed training as an operating room

After my right lung was removed at Kaiser Hospital in Oakland, Ca. she and another young friend cared for me at the Temple. It was during this period that I became very attached to her.

The care I received was beautiful - but that is beside the point, even though it may explain in part why I became so attached to Debbi.

I have heard of people having split personalities, but never knowingly have had an experience with such a person. I am wondering at this point if this is Debbi's problem.

Dear Debbie - I have been in extencive care for [illegible] now. I got sick after I heard that you left [illegible] how you left. It was a terrible shock to me and somehow I have not been able to get over it. I am receiving the best of medical care. Even though, I cannot get rid of the feeling of a great loss. It is with me at all times. Actually what you have done is worrying me into the grave. This is pretty strong language but it is true. - I had the worst guilt feelings thinking back to the time when you were little and how I failed you by keeping ~~Keeping things~~ things confidential that you trustingly told me and I discussed these matters with your Dad. Also how I did not support you strongly enough when Wanda Gomans became hysterical because you told one of her children that babies were not born thru the navel. However all that is past history now. You know that we are socialists and [illegible] a beginning in a new land. You also know that what we have done with our agriculture is spectecular, and could not have happend with-out cooperation. It looks to me that you really did not understand Socialism in it's beginning stages. You gave up 3/4 up the hill - and that is a shame. -

Right now we are planning to build 100 more houses. Phil keeps at picking up lumber for us. Larry is working 1/2 time with x-rays and the rest of his time with the Alaskan sawmill. Also we are getting another saw mill to speed up producton. There are constant changes and improvements -
The best thing that could happen to me personally, is your return. Others have left in the past and came back. You know how forgiving Jim is. — What I cannot understand is that after leaving us you turned around and told lies and twisted stories. I read copies of the papers that were sent to us by either you or Stoen. Why did you participate in their evil efforts? Where you afraid that something might happen to you if you had asked Stoen not to bother you? ~~Bother you~~ I wish you would stop harming us. And I wish you would come back. People have left before and returned and were lovingly received by Jim and all the rest of us. I surely hope you won't go back to your old pattern, because you won't make it this time.

I love you —

Mom

Dear Phil,

Hi! Thanx's for the 2 lovely informative letters. The drawings were good and the world re-knowned artist, Michel Angelow said he wanted to buy it from me. Of course I refused him the priveledge and he was very upset - evidently he went to the airport after speaking with me. I heard that he will be arriving soon on your shrimp boat.

The helicopter number he can be identified by is 007 - so beware! I think he has had movies made of him - alias James ~~Bond~~ Michlangelow Bond.

The mail man is screaming at me to hurry and get done with this letter. She's a new one on the route - Jean Brown → BB-3-e-4

Dear Phil

This weekend we are in L.A. for the first time since the vacation. It's nice to have the family back after 3 weeks of doing the S.F. meetings without them.

Father is as healthy and sound in his judgment as ever and as usually true: we stand in complete respect and awe. Always he shows no more way of dealing with what would seem to be a barrier but thru his great teaching we find it only a stepping stone.

He speaks of you often Phil with admiration and peace you give him a calm of mind because of your sincere dedication & dependency. We miss you.

Peace, Debbie.

Chief Justice Boeller:

Was introduced to him at his table. Later he came to ours and sat & spoke w Jim C for sometime.

We danced - he asked me about Jonestown. I told him it was beautiful etc. He sd he had been invited to go there anytime by Jim & that he wanted to, when he got a vacation. Seemed proud of the invitation.

We talked about our educations in Britain. How our cousins live near each other in Surrey & Sussex.

He sd that he had gone to the States financed by the US & visited 13 States. I asked was it on judicial business & he gave some explanation about Courts and Congress, but the music was so loud I could not hear him thoroughly. He sd:

"You know I'm Chief justice?"

I sd of course, that Rev Jones had spoken so very highly of him - and that is how I knew him.

He was exuberent - smiled & sd "Ohh".

I left, asked Debby should I ask him any questions about Wanda. BB-3-e-7

She sd no, that he was over our marriage. So I went back.

He's an old, educated lecherous fool.

I said that perhaps the groceries he came with were still awaiting him to return to his table. his reply was:

"my wife is in Berbice for a few days and I am a free agent tonite."

He asked me what I did for a living in the states I said a Surgeons' assist. He responded by telling a story of how he got a fish bone stuck in his throat.

He sd the entertainment was good. that matthew had an exquisite voice.

(Should we invite Boilleis for dinner - probably yes - sharon)

Report on Debbie Blakey
Deborah Touchette

Deborah Touchette
May 1978

-I saw her at the post office with Daniel Webble and aked what had happen to her, I told her we were really worried, she just looked at me very coldly. Dan Webble gave me a verybhostil look and said nothing.
-I asked if she was with him.
-she said yes.
-I said oh-oh, somethings wrong, what's wrong Debbie?
-she said I'm leaving, I'm sorry, I know it comes as a shock to you, but I just can't take anymore.
-Take anymore of what?, I said.
-I just can't take anymore of the whole thing.
-Why didn't you just say you wanted to leave, you gould have gone. people have left before, but all Jim ask is that you tellehim what is wrong, so we can correct our mistakes
-She said come on Debbie, youknow better than that.
-I said people have left before Debbie without any problem.
-Why,dohat'sothematter, I asked.
-Well the breaking point was when I couldn't meet my sister in Trinadad.
-What are you talking about? I asked?
-My brother in law is going to be working in Guyana, and my sister wanted me to meet her in Trinadad and then we would come back from' there.'
-I told her I didn't know what she was talking about
-I spoke to Dan Webble, asked him how he was doing?
-"fine" he answered with icy coldness.
-I then called home and asked for instructions on what to do? and was told to go back and see if she would talk to Jim before she left.
-I asked her if she would at least talk to Jim, tell him the reasons why she was going, and that she had caused him to have a heart attack and that Jim had ..I told her the desise
-I'm sure, she replied,I did.
-she answred as though she already had takne that into consideration.
-I asked her if she would write a note or someting if she wouldn't at least speak to him personally
-What do you mean personally? I can't do that, you mean go back up there? I can't do that.
-Would you at least speak to him over the radio? I asked.
-Baby, she said, I don't know, baby I'll do that, you mean come by the house and talk on the radio, I can't do that.
-I told her well call then and she gould speak over the radio to you
-she said o.k. she would.
-I asked her if she wanted to write a note or something just in c ase so at least Jim would have some idea of her feelings.
-I'm not going to write it, you write it, she said. I'll tell you and you write it down.
-QUOTE:
I have nothing vindictive againt the church, just tired, I thought it was unfair to have crisis when there wasn't one, and I think others are getting tired too. People can't live on a string. I know he has, but I'm not Jim, and I know alot of people. I just want to be able to leave and settle down. I know it doesn't make much sense but it's true. I know it sounds crazy, this is the happiest she has ever been in her life. (Who I asked? Lisa, she said) and in no way do I want to hurt her. I don't think its helpless either but.. Alot of things have been handled wrong, and alot of times it would have been taken as a trator. Alot of times when he says people give your opinions, they are put on a list,....to be watched. I didn't want it to turn out like this at all, If we move to another country I'd like to go. I don't like the U.S, but if I left the group and stayed here, for your own sake, you'd have to say it was a provocature. I've been in enough sessions,tanknowitisims I say won't be taken to heart. I've seen people be talked lovingly to to get people here and and confronted then. I felt I would be confronted.

Next, I think Jim believes in what he stands for, but it's gotton too structured. constantly confronted.iif youre trying to do rightyou might be a trator. You get into the swing of things and you wonder what they did it for. In the U.S. it wasn't so structured and I think it was better. The structure shocked me. I didn't know it was going to be the houss of work. If someone was slower they got confronted. I think we got cought up in more progress and structure then people. Alot of people I care for. I always had the feeling I wouldn't explain myself well and it would be the learning crew. If I didn't get my traffic.accross....
I would not get involved in parents united. You should change the codes on the radio, and call Bacchus Travel Agendge,
-why should we change the codes? I asked
-You know, because I'm leaving, she said.

-She said she told the embassy she had left her passport in the interior so she could getanother one (she had her old passport in town.
-she said she had to feel trusted and she didn't
-she always felt that Sharon Amos thought she liked Wesley Curtain and was telling Jim this.

(I think she told us to change the codes, because she knew she was going to set us up, but she may have felt felt some preservation, the last munite guilt, and she hopped we would change before she called so she wouldn't know them if she had to explain)

-I asked her if she was going to call anyway, she should at least let him know direct.
-She said she would
-I left for a phone to give this message and the car was gone when we got off the phone (U.S. Embassy car)

George Luna. Carribean - Cuban Press

Was speaking very briefly c̄ Ray Van Dyke - he was wondering where Debby T was & this white mustached man butted into the conversation.

He sd "Debby - every body in P.T is named Debby or Sharon?"
I turned & asked his name.
He was evasive & ~~[illegible]~~ said Sam.
I asked his surname & he sd Kennard. I'm a horticulturalist.
I asked was he a relation to the other Kennard & he sd no.

I found Debby she looked at him - sd it wasn't minister Kennard.

I later saw Ray Van Dyke - he sd that the guy was not Kennard - he was Cuban Press.

They were evidently friends - as this George guy, would not leave with out Ray (drunk as hell) because of his condition. And they got into a verbal fite over it.

He (George) was concerned at Ray being so drunk.

*- Hudson conversation = Claud last nite

Huds sd Claude was upset at things Mr. Maxwell & people underneath Hudson had told him.

Hud feels Max & people under him are now against him & that could be what's affecting the plane situation.

*- Large tank coming into port may hold up ships 2 extra days.

*- Jake wasn't going to leave til Friday - who knows now.

*- Tried to get ahold of Hudson, but they had a power failure where he is & can't.

*- Get ahold of Richards & see if he can authorize charter, since Hudson's unavailable & GDF & Company want his approval 1st.

Claude was upset c Larry when he met the nite before as Maxwell & Everest had talked c him & told him some rare stories on Larry.

Everest doesn't like him (Larry) & since Maxwell had direct access to Claude - Everest was going thru Max to get info on Larry to Claude. So Larry called it conspiracy saw Claude - he was blasted.

Re: Richy meeting c Larry

Feels that there are still some grave areas.
If Claude from Bennett - those type of people are devious.
Larry sd if Claud was from Bennett he'd be shocked & upset, but he didn't think so.
Thomas + Ann thought it was significant that he would even consider the thought -
Larry sd - reason behind Max & Everst doing this - as its time of year for people to be moved from posts & they were getting Claude's attention so they wouldn't be considered for moving - but Larry didn't believe the 2 were interested in his job.
Told Larry ~~we~~ he was loyalty was to him & was there anything we could do to help.

Thomas + Ann feels its significant if Max + Everst can make his seem credible - it could affect things in future.
Interesting that Everst was doing most the work on getting the plane for Sutton.
Larry sd last nite that Everst could have given alot more authoritative belly to the plane rather than putting it off on Larry saying he could go no further.
According to Larry Claud chewed Max out last nite as he was supposed to go to Trinidad on business & he didn't Claude made statement that Max was out fucking around rather than going to Trinidad
Larry thinks Max is leaving Thursday. That what Max told Claude

BB-3-1-5

- Thomas + Ann wondered since there is no extra cost perhaps Ann or some one should go on the plane & meet Sutton in Iridad & come all the way out.

- Will know by 11:00 what has become of the new info. on Charter.
Is calling now to see what progress had been made.

Re: Attractions and Hostilities

I am still and always have been attracted to you. I am not at the stage of needing your attention in the full sexual manner, but I have still feelings. Please don't feel a sudden need to show more attention to me, I am just trying to write honestly.....

You allowed me to accept myself for what I am as well as for what I look like. This does not extend into feelings that I am willing to go to another person and feel that confidence to be sexually forward. I mean that I now have the self assure ance to accept myself for what I am and be comfortable with it.
what I recieved was more than I would have ever thought possiasible. Both that it made me grow more responsible and willing to take on more responsibilities as well as made me face my physical differences as something that can be overcome and not desperately feared.

You allowed me to view myself as a normal person with normal feelings and accept [redacted] as a process that did not take away from my abilities and possible attributes.

The "relationship" (sorry for the poor wording-couldn't think of another word) came at the most appropriate time. I was having doubts about my character and self and was deprested. You paied attention to me and made me feel "special" when I was confussed.

I was even shocked to find that my female organs were not deformed, after believing that they must be-from my previous frustrating affair with Phil.

Debbie B.

Hostilities: Fears:

Fear that I will be distrusted because of the mess that I made with my unthought through discision about living with Phil. I feel that I was misinterpreted about living with him and having thougths of wanting sex with him. I don't-not did I.

(via Joyce Toucierte)

Otherwise: I am just greatful that I got to come here and get out of the rat race of SF.

Fear: That even though I am working diligently in the field, I ahve a fear that I will get written up- as I am still not quite up to the working capacity of those that have been doing it longer & have become more used to the weather.
I don't mean for this to be a reflection of you, I'm just very aware of the seriousness of the Peoples Rallys.

To Jim,
Re Conversations w/ Debbie

She told me that she thought Sharon would tell you about the night she Band played at the Belvedere same Cuban Dr. who made some pass at her same time was there. She thought that Sharon would write her up for compensating when she explained to me she was just being nice. On 3 different occasions she asked me if I thought Sharon had told you about Wesley Curtis liking her. She said she had told him twice she was rescued and what more did Sharon want her to do. She said everytime he came over Sharon would watch her like a hawk. She asked me if I thought you would believe Sharon. I told her that you didn't just listen to Sharon's report only, that if he you were concerned you would ask her directly. I told her to write up her side if she thought you were going to get the wrong view.

She didn't like anything Sharon or even Debbie, would say when we went to P.R. She would always have like an apology tone in her voice, she would call her very eyes or pick us under the table to let us know. She said always sounded too intense and like there was always a crisis.

She said Karen was a pussy bitch if she did as much work as she did watching people (talking about herself) she'd get something done. She said she hated her guts. I was surprised and I said I thought you were close to her she said [illegible] I said I've been close to her but I think she's done about the best job of anybody trying to keep this place coordinated.

When we were in the Tax office that day we had the conversation about if you died the whole group would disintegrate. ~~[illegible]~~ She also mentioned your fucking days would never be over. I think we got on this conversation because I was saying how much I hated Suzanne for what she did to Lou & she asked me if I knew that Suzanne wanted you to fuck her I said yes and it made me sick. I said everyone needed their needs met by you in different ways but I feel her is incurable after you being her Dad. I said I'm glad he isn't under that kind of pressure now, and then she said your fucking days would never be over. I said probably so but it wasn't like it used to. I have no idea when or what she was talking about.

She liked Mrs. D'Costa and I told her I thought she was a bitch & how she cut down Guyana she was very sympathetic to her and told me she understood how she felt since she had a rough time when she came to Guyana. meaning over [illegible]

Debbie T. Debbie B. and I had talked about going swimming in the ocean. I said I thought there was sharks she said no. she said she hadn't done anything fun since she left [illegible]

Also Robin & Shanda are very close, instead they will talk. I am very sorry I realize I might not have been the total cause, but I certainly reinforced her negativity by my mouthing off. I have mouthed off since then so I no need to report to you. I was very upset when I got a message from Mike P. saying Chae OK was to come in for medical reasons immediately (this was before Alma I would understand about Alma)

BG-3-0-2

Since Debbie left I wasn't trusted in town w/ my baby so you had to send some special message. When I asked Paula to clarify ~~[illegible]~~ why is and why I couldn't have received the ~~[illegible]~~ message myself she said you weren't around so I gave it to whoever. Then when the morning Sandy & Tino came in she told me again Chee OK was to come out (after I asked first) then I hear they are coming in and I thought for sure now I was considered shaky. Then I had to tether you and you said I could keep him. Then the next day I'm sent home so I felt for sure (until you talked to me on the radio) everyone ~~you~~ go in here thought I was just like her (Debbie) I bitched this to Maria and I said Paula needed to be kinder & more aware of how she talks to people since she didn't know when talking on the radio where people heads are at. Maria didn't side w/ me at all she told me to write it up. ~~If~~ I'm fact I thought that's why I was sent home because I was so shitty about this subject. I also said I resented that Sharon, Karen & Tino all came in & worked in the radio room, but I wasn't good enough. I'm sorry about this, I always work ~~[illegible]~~ through these petty problems that's why I never write them up, because as soon as I reflect and think logically I am ashamed because the problems & realities of life & people all over the world makes me sick when I think how much I have, how much more than so many, I don't deserve to be negative over petty bull shit. Unfortunately I mouth off first before thinking and ~~I~~ like Maria. I always knew Debbie was more trusted & therefore closer to you so I felt more justified to talk to her about things. I give you my word I will stop gossiping. And I am very sorry you had to ~~[illegible]~~ read through my shit. I hope you believe me when I say I have worked through it, because I have! I know it's my fault

RE: DEFECTOR

EVERY SINCE THE DEFECTOR LEFT, I HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO GET IT OFF MY MIND. EVEN THO YOU HAVE NOT SAID WHO IT IS, I FEEL CERTAIN I KNOW. YOU SAID IF WE HAD SOME ASPECT OF THE PERSON WE "THOUGHT" IT MIGHT BE (THAT IS IN ADDITION TO PERSONALITY TRAITS, REASONS ETC) FOR FUTURE REFERENCE — LET IT BE KNOWN.

FIRST I FEEL IT IS Debbie Blakey. I CERTAINLY WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED AT ALL. SEVERAL YEARS AGO ON BUS 7, ON A TRIP, I WROTE HIM UP. I EXPERIENCED PERSONALLY HER DEVIOUSNESS. SHE TREATED ME LIKE SHIT ON THAT TRIP + LATER ADMITTED TO ME THAT SHE DID IT ONLY BECAUSE SHE thought Dorothy Brady + I NOT EVEN SO! WERE ALLYING AGAINST HER. SHE MADE UP LIES + LATER TOLD ME she did IN THE LAW OFFICE. WHEN I GOT BACK FROM THE TRIP, I WROTE IT UP BUT IT ARRIVED IN YOUR HANDS AT A VERY BAD TIME. YOU WERE UNDER LOTS OF PRESSURE BUT I DID NOT KNOW THAT

BB-3-9-1 over

AT THE TIME I DID NOT HEAR THE ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE LAW OFFICE. AS A RESULT OF YOUR PRESSURE + NOT KNOWING THE FULL TRUTH ABOUT Debbie, YOU BLASTED ME ON THE LOUDSPEAKER. IT TORE ME APART + IT WAS THE CLOSEST I EVER CAME TO LEAVING THE CHURCH. I HAD ALL MY SUITCASES PACKED + IN THE CAR BUT THE POINT IS, I DIDNT LEAVE + PULLED MYSELF TOGETHER + UNDERSTOOD YOU DIDNT UNDERSTAND. I LET IT DROP EVEN AFTER Debbie ADMITTED TO ME SHE WAS WRONG. I NEVER TOLD YOU!!

ANOTHER THING - I SUSPECTED Debbie BECAUSE OF HYPOCRITICAL INTEREST IN JOHN JOHN'S KIMO, I COULD SEE RIGHT THRU IT + SEE IT WAS NOT REAL. I SUSPECT (NOW) ANYONE WHO CATERS TO YOUR CHILDREN (LITTLE ONES) IN AN ATTEMPT TO IMPRESS YOU! YET I NEVER SEE THEM SHOWING INTEREST IN OTHER CHILDREN SO ITS HYPOCRITICAL BULLSHIT!

Debbie WAS VERY SEXUALLY WRAPPED UP IN YOU. I MADE A MISTAKE ONCE IN TELLING HER (AS LATE AS GEORGETOWN WHEN I WENT TO DENTIST) THAT I HEARD YOU SAY ONCE THAT SHE WAS A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN. (YOU DID SAY IT). I SAID THE SAME THING TO HER IN S.F. ONCE ABOUT 3 YEARS AGO. I KNOW SHE WAS VERY SEXUALLY WRAPPED UP IN YOU BY A LONGING GESTURE SHE MADE TO ME WHEN SHE SAW A PICTURE OF YOU IN MY ROOM THAT

I had personally taken. She hoped she was No 1 but was very disappointed when she was sent to the accounting office away from you. Later, she was again disappointed at the possibility of having to move out of S.F. Temple into a commune which didnt take place. Later you came here - then Maria came & Debbie took Maria's place after you had gone - another disappointment. Then came here where it was not possible to live in the house with you like Maria. Then to Georgetown - away from you - all disappointments. Her dedication was based solely on impressing you & being near you... nothing else.

I could not see these traits in Debbie if I did not have them in myself. I watched her a lot.

* I would for sure watch those

I have a special affection for Kimo but rarely show it for the Re: Delski B's manipulations:

Last night in P.C. JJ said he hates people who manipulate ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ I manipulate.

1) I want fathers approval to the point of faultering in my truthfulness towards him. I do have hostilities towards him and sexual thoughts/feelings about him, but have been afraid to admit it, for fear of JJ's disapproval of me and loss of care for me.
I want him to care for me, but to analyze my thoughts, I want JJ to take exception with me - or to like me more than others. Its embarrassing to admit such narcissism, its all sexual!

2) I hate to admit that I am a paranoid person, because I fear people to think I am another, Harry Hayton. That also shows my narcissism: as I am too concerned about what others see me as, rather than what I know I am.

3) I try to protect my self image with others by not admitting how I feel towards father. It has even caused him to tread softly (easily) with me.
I want his respect, but fear ~~that~~ the rath that will come from his respect: in confrontation.

BB-3-r-1

2. I will write a long thing about my hostilities & sexual feeling this week. Concerning ff.

The conflict lies in the fact that I want ff's attention and acceptance, but I fear the hatred that ff feels towards people who fuck on him.

It is traitorous at this point in the seriousness in our work, to speak of such "feeling" toward ff. I don't think this is a manipulation as I don't want ff to think he has to pay attention to me.

5). I have acted towards people as though I had a position. This was to make them listen to me or accept my point of view - because of my position. What I am trying to say is that I have used the fact that ff made me a counselor, to make people listen to a point I had to make - knowing that they would feel that they'd have to accept what I said because father put me into my position.

I have used this mostly in speaking with a filthy mouth - cussing etc. which I have cooled quite a bit.

BB-3-r-2

Paranoia's and other shitty things.

a). I think ff wants me to move to the Valley because I'm too much of a fuck-off and can't be depended upon, in S.F. which is true b). I want to stay freinds with Robin Ischetter but feel guilty about it cause I know that freindships are not healthy ~~Bad~~ I do feel attracted to her. I really like Robin and like being around her. The only times that I talk to her are in the offering room and weekends.

I think people think we're really tight, but we're not. I enjoy her company.
This sounds really sick now.
As if she's a boyfriend or something.

Visitations

Casandra Minor

She is 2 months preganant. When Leona told me about it she mentioned that she felt the girl should not get an abortion due to her pitiful background. Which is: her mother died when she was 13, she had 2 brain surgerys in her childhood, one kidney, one eye, and rejection from her relatives after her moms'death. The reason that they think that this won't be transfered to the baby is that Casandras' mom was an alcoholic and that was her death as well. She was an alcoholic during tha time that she was carrying Casandra.

Kathy Jackson:

Three Months rpeganant. Still has her job and has been much more active in church work since the discovery. She has one abortion already,so I don't think that she wants to have another. She is loosing weight from what Debby Evans says.

Versi Connesaro:

Took over Rubys' job with the housing and procurment runs. It is still too short of time to judge how well she is doing. She has a good attitude and has not joined into the racial thing that was much more prevalent when Lee was here. It is not so noticeable now that he is gone. She still has her job, but has time off as she sprained her foot on the job. She returns in about a week.

Betty McCann:

Her attitude is very good considering she is now stuck with all the work that Tish never did. She has found many interesting things in Tish's drawers, which Maria McCann said she reported. I think that she will be hit with alot of slack as she is the only one in charge of the acconting office and she is unfortunately light skinned.

Tina Turner:

Working with procurement. Would like to go to Guyana, as her family is there and her husband leaves tonight. She has not requested to go however. She seems to be talking more with Robin now and this is where I get the information.

Robin Tschetter:

Works well. Gets alot of shit as she is in charge of the needs and makes alot of the decsions if people are asking too much on their needs. She has been spending more time with the youth like Andrea, Lisa Gibson as they were asking her how come she never did anything with them. All the youth go roller skating each Friday, Hue will take them amd Robin went twice. Leona had this thing organized to give the kids some outlet.

Diane Wilkerson:

Buford knows that in detail. She approached me last night and said that she wanted to get a job at Connies' restaurant on Filmore.

BB-3-u-2

The busses have now come down to the city so there is little work in that dept.anymore.
She has been very open about her dealings with the lesbian bars in SF. She has had an affair with both Mary Donnel and Marthea Hicks. She admitted to Versi that she had blown grass with them and drank. She made the comment after talking with Loretta on the radio,"she sounds so strong, and look at me now".
She has, funny enough a good attitude in alot of ways, she just acting out. She asks for work to do and does check in during the days (most of the time)

James Evans: Debby said that she wishedthat he could come over, There isn't that much for him to do in the line of busses as they are down here now, trying to be sold. He has had some unpleasant incidents with the police harrassing him and he doesn't feel comfortable in USA anymore.

David Galley: Hard worker. Having a relationship with Jewel Wilson and feels rather stuck in the situation. He told Jack that sometimes she is nice & other times he hates her with a passion. She approached him a couple of weeks ago and said that she hadn't had her period. That had him very upset as she said that she wouldn't let him have the baby if she was. Jack talked with him about it. David does vent his feelings to Jack and Jack has been telling me.

Colton Henry: Got a job working for Garrison and hadn'y turned in his check(he has worked fro him for a week). We talked with him last night, very friendly, and will start turning them in every Friday.
He has had a relationship with Elain Keeler and she went crazy on him one day. Said that no man was gonna fuck her and then walk away. They got into an argument. She threw a brick at his chest (all this in the backyard parking lot) and broke the windows of his stationwagon. Colton has had a good attitiude and does do church work without complaint.

Bennie&Bob Kice: Ready and packed to come there. They are waiting for the sale to go thru. Bob quit his job , so depending on when the house sale goes thru probably by Nov.1 they are ready.The house was supposed to be sold by the 21,Oct, but there was a problem with the contract.

Alice Ingram: Ready to go when her place goes through. Said that she wants to go on her own as she has some business to take care of in New York for 4 days first.

BB-3-u-3

Jane Mutchmann:	Requested for work to do in the evenings,so I thought that she could open the mail that Carter used to open. There is very little that comes in each day so I thought that it would be safe. It made her feel that she was doing more than just answering the phones, as she put it. She still goes out on various occasions in the evenings to "get a cup of coffee" I don't know if I should say anything to her as it is her only outlet. She has asked people to go with her, Carol Stahl went one weekend which seemed good.
Claire Janero:	Wants letters from the kids and spouce. She's shut out from whats going on as her entire family is there nad she is in the Valley without word from SF about what is going on. She has been very weepy about her predicement and is truely an unstable personality, emotionally. Its hard to be civil with her wining.
Harold Cordell:	An inigma. Needs letters often from his family and Edith to keep his head in line. Paddy C. did not let him talk with Edith one night and he said he knew that she worked in the laundry room rite across from the radio room, on the night shift. He became very upset about that.
Maxine Betts:	Needs letters from Paddy C. She is very secluded in the sence that she is always in the kitchen and doesn't get out much. She seems lonely and was happy after talking with Paddy on the radio the last time. She is gaining weight and that makes her depressed also.
Vernell :	Talks with me alot and cals me her daughter. She is worried about her daughter and wants to get it cleared to have her get a passport so that perhaps she can go over later. She works consistantly on the needs with Robin and has said that she wishes she could do more work about the church. She still has good income.
Andrea Martin:	Her attitude is cleaning up. We had a spatt abit ago and things are now settling. She is helping Casandra to find maturnity and infant cloths at the flea market and in the Goodwill stores.
Tom Adams:	Is Tom Adams. Comm see Comm saa..... Does a very good job of keeping his cool with Hattie in his room during the evenings.
Mike Klingman: & Kim Livingston Wade:	Said to be having some type of relationship with Kim Wade. Don't know if it is sex yet, but they enjoy being together. Preston felt there was something going on between them and Robin felt the samt thing when she was at the Ranch. Marlene said the same thing yesterday.

BB-3-u-4

Edith Roller: WRITTEN UP BY LISA LAYTON:

Edith came to my room last night looking for Debbi B. She satyed and told me that Marcie had given her a message from Jim after service one night to the effect that someone very close to her had turned against the church.(this is not her exact wording-but conveys the meaning) She then had lunch with Marcie and Marcies mothera few days later. She pondered for quite a while who the person that Jim referred to could be.

She said that Tim Stoen often came to her Appt. for a visit, but that she didn't know about his relationship with Grace. Anyway she had read in the Examiner&Chronicle about Tim.

I told her that I had read the reminniscenses of Lenein,written by Krupskaya (his wife) and that I learned from that book that friends and co-workers of Lenins' left the movement often. Some of thse people became enemies and traitors where others'fell by the wayside or maybe wanted to do their own thing. However I didn't mention the name of Tim in this or anyther connection.

I was responding to her "being shocked" about people leaving,explaining that even in the days before the Russian revolution, this happened all the time.

PS. She also talked about wanting to retire at 62 (the end of this year) and that she had talked with Gene Chaiken about that, but hadn't heard. I did not respond to that, thinking she wanted to know where Chaiken was. But made a general remark that I thought that a senior would have the priveledge to retire at 62 if that is what she wanted. Lisa.

Carol Dennis: Needs to go over, She went to La and the lady that she used to work for offered her job back to her. She wants to take it as she said that she doesn't like SF as it reminds her of the kids that are no longer here.She seems to be also having martial problems with Elihue.

Lisa Layton: Doing much better.Still tires eaily.Her only worry is that she will have to share a room/cabin with someone.

Jim Randolph: Works his butt off. He still talks in long details and leaves himself wide open for a sharp word, as his details are so damn lengthy. Otherwise he has excellaent follow thru and is repsponsible for geeting the peoples things catagorized,numbered and togtherand to the airport,without incident.

Hue Fortson: Getting much more involved. On the Housing commit with Versi and Kris Kice. I think he feels a little uncomfortable at times as he is a newer minister form LA and the people are getting to know him.

Re: My confrontation

Words are cheap, but I feel I must give some responce to my confrontation so you will know where I am at!

I think that people should get confronted at least, every three months. considering that I was never confronted for two years, that was too long of a span. It's too bad because my ways could have been viewed publically earlier and my fucked acts stopped-before being put in the position to hear things that I should not have heard or stopped from being put on PC.

1) Truely I am very cold and much like Larry.

2) I am very nosey and without thought. Now that it has been brought to my attention I can see where I am very inquisitive to things that have no concern to me, but it never occured to me to use the things I heard against anyone or tell others about it outside this PC.

3) I realize that I am the one that has caused this cause much hardship, and set your life ahead about ten years. I know that I have aged you and caused you to use strategy that would never had to be used, but because of my big mouth.

4) I know that I am the reason why "senior" left: what I said to him made him have to prove that he could make it on his own. I have really hurt the movement in the past three months and I want to make this one promise that may calm your nerves a little bit about me and my dangerous potential (loud mouth, does'nt think), : I will not question anything

I won't speak unless asked first, because I don't weigh my words, nor do I weigh my actions thouroughly!

My dear OSHCANAZY Sarah,

Thanks for the letter. In all my life I have never thought to get a note from the worlds most nutty character. I am glad thta you had a chance to go to the piggery and see your little friends. Perhpas with alot of persuation and discussion you could get a hippo infirmery there, so that you could have them near by and nurse them to health. Sarah the hippo aide. That does not include, in the same definition: HUMAN HIPPOs. . . . no Sarah, your truely an animal and the lover. Perhaps you could even work in the podiatry ward, with those whos toes need more attention than just a sock and a shoe. Toes that need affection and someone to talk with them now and then, without pluging up their noses at the poor little quadrupeltes. Although you may not agree , you are also a good one with kids.. you excite their imaginations and cause them to do some thinking for themselves. I won't write you up as an intrigueing addition to the high school, but you ought to take it into consideration. I sure would'nt have minded have ing you as an instructor when I was in school. Not that I was a studious student, but you would have at least made the class interseting enough, not to cutt.

Well, it sounds as though I will be coming down for a short visit to bring Lisa and get her setteled and then return to the brewing shit pot of poluted S F. This place really does a good job of sucking. Not only is the media out to kill us, but thier now after, (and as of a day ago they got), Bert Lanbe. Althought the guy may have some skeletons in his closet, the press has smeared his name all over , made inuendoes. and nebulous charges to the point that he had to reeign. This whole thing is a ploy to ruin Carters popularity and may I add they have done an excellent job. Carter came to his press conference to relay the news, with teary eyes and a couple of gulps. The press even made questioning statement about the Pres. loyalty to a life long friend. The whole thing stinks. They won't let die. One of the recent comments made on the Walter Cronkite news, by one of the reporters, is that the msot popular type of reporting now is the investigative stuff. Everyone is trying to uncover a "cover-up" story. Everyone is trying to get a name for themself. We might as well put Channel 2 at the top of the list on that case.

Is there anything that I can get you, which you may have left without, since you had little warning and you left with just a minimal amount of goods. I hope that you have enough of the necessities to keep yourself as cool as possible whenevr possible. Antway, please send me a word when and if you find yourself needing something that you left here. Even some of the articles that you would need to assist you in your writing career.

Well my dear I have run out of words and things to say. I will be looking forward to seeing you in your habitat - there; which has to beat the non-windowed closets that we have here. You must be getting to be a real well browned little semite.

Peace sister, and take care of yourself , the people, and the man who made it all possible.

Dear Debi -

April 30 - Sat.

I think I'm going out of my mind !!! Here I am planning a million details, moving people in and out of shot clinics, arranging house sitters, dog feeders, tree waterers then you call to say you're too busy to come along. I really can't believe it. This trip will be the most educational thing you'll probably ever do. Especially since you have chosen to live in South America, a tour of the rest of the continent, meeting with political leaders would really let you know where you are on the map, both physically & politically.

Then there's me. This may be my only chance ever to get down there to Guyana and it will definitely be my only chance to tour South America ... free (or otherwise). The reason I'm attaching my trip to yours (if you don't go I don't go) is: 1 - there are a good number of meetings that I will be involved in since I have spent 3 months doing a literature study of Ogla and probably have 100 times more facts at hand about it than Roy does. During those meetings I will need your help with S. and D. 2. - when I'm on my own I won't be able to explore my way through big cities and crowded buses with one child on each hand. I'll need another adult around. I'm really too chicken to do it without you, when you get right down to it. I tried to get Becky to fill the slot but she's having a lot of trouble these days. She was suspended from school for cutting P.E. 10 times. She flunked Geometry and is bombing out elsewhere. Sound like somebody you used to be? Luckily she's not into drugs or sex. When she cuts she just goes home and sulks. She is a very unhappy 15 yr. old. I'm trying to get her to transfer to Davis High & live with us, but part of her problem is that she has changed schools too much already. Enough - I'll tell you more May 15. But she can't go.

When we went to New Zealand 2 years ago, Ray spent 10 days in Australia while I toured the North Island alone with the kids. There I spoke the language (english) but just about went out of my mind without any help.

You should get this letter by May 3. Still time for you to be able to come. I'm certainly not going to cancel my reservations because I fully expect you to become convinced of the importance of all this. I may be able to arrange to stay longer than 4 or 5 days in Guyanna. How often is there transportation into & out of Jonestown. Could I get in and out in five days? If it looks like I may be able to, but you're not sure, I'll go ahead and "double book". I'll set keep the present reservations out and get another set for about June 13-15th. The airline probably won't realize it because the reservations through the U.N. are held in a bloc without individual names I think. If they catch you with two sets of reservations they cancel everything I've heard... although I'm sure they wouldn't cancel the U.N. reservations, they could do it to the later ones.

You see, I'm not going to take no for an answer from you. I'll see you in Caracas come Hell or High water.

Dear Debbi, April 26

I just sent you a telegram with our basic itinerary. You wouldn't believe how complicated all this is. The United nations (actually their nice research facility in the Philippines) is handling our tickets and visas and travel cards etc. They have some magical stamp or insignia or something that will get us in and out of anywhere. Assuming that you have wired your passport number by now we will also have your necessary documents. Luckily I have a photo of you (with a natural'). The one place we're running into trouble with you is Venezuela (caracas). I tried to arrange a flight so I could meet you in Port-o spain with your visa, but I just can't make good connections ... plus I would have to be dragging both kids around because Ray has to be on his own pretty tight schedule. Here's the problem: we can't get you into caracas without you in possession of proper documents. We can't even get you an airline ticket with the destination of Caracas without those documents so here is the solution: The flight mentioned in the telegram (varig airline # 9R Sat may 13 port-o-spain Caracas) flies on to the U.S. Your ticket will say destination New Orleans. What you have to do is to go to the Varig ~~con~~ Airline officials when you arrive in caracas they will have your necessary documents. With these in hand you can stay in caracas. As soon as you get into customs have them cancel the rest of your flight. We can get BB-3-21 our money back even if you are unable to cancel, but it would be easier if you take care of that.

Hopefully by flight time we will have the name of a person at the airline or us embassy there who you can phone or talk to.

Meanwhile, after you arrive in Caracas go to [illegible] there. You have reservations for [illegible] night & Sunday night. We will be arriving Sunday, 10:30 PM. Our room reservations are for Sunday night only, and since we won't arrive until quite late. You will need to confirm * the reservations on Sunday [illegible]

There will be somebody from that Rice production project meeting us Monday afternoon, and from there on in we are in their hands. They will have our tickets in a block and accomodations.

There will be a few other people traveling with us. I know of at least 1 other professor from [illegible]. Bring at least one fancy dress because we may be going to some pretty fancy parties. [illegible] you are traveling as our governess (baby sitter) so you will sometimes [illegible] doing just that.

Back to this trip [illegible] I really don't know [illegible] exact itinerary and I think not [illegible] [illegible]. I do know that we will [illegible] through caracas and end up in Guyana June 10 to June 14th. Do you think it will be possible for me to get into Jonestown for about two days? If not, maybe mom can come to Georgetown. I haven't written to mom yet - I guess you've told her about the trip ---? I'll write to her soon. Where is Karen these days? It would be nice to see her too.

I'll be able to hang around doing what I want in Guyana. Ray and the group with him will be speaking with Guyana officials about the $50 million grant, how it is to be used, where dams will be built and (most important to Ray) how Azolla will be used and cultured, what strains will be used, who will take responsibility for the Azolla etc. etc. Whoever that (azolla) person is, he will probably be sent to our lab to be trained eventually (or else to a big Rice Research facility in the Philipines).

I'm curious to know if this whole deal is being publicized much down there? Guyana is really being used as a model country to show how greatly rice yield can be increased. The world bank is financing it. I wonder whats in it for Them?? I guess I shouldn't bite the hand that feeds me! They're being really generous, letting all of us travel, but they know that Ray is using 1½ yrs. vacation time to do it and they can't pay him an out and out salary - so our tickets are his compensation. When we went to New Zealand two years ago it was the same sort of deal.

Y you see why I write in pencil? Sorry this letter is a such a mess.

Ask mom if there's anything she needs brought down to her. I could leave something large at Caracas and pick it up the second time we pass through. Same goes for anything you or Karen need.

Also- do you have a smallpox vaccination? Bring proof of that and yellow fever vaccination. (You needed that to get into Guyana). Also you will need your passport with you when you pick up your prepaid tickets

I can't think of anything else right now. If you haven't sent your passport number by the time you get this letter DO IT NOW.

The kids have opposite feelings about this trip David wants to stay home and play with his friend Eddie. Sara is so excited that she stays aware half the night making plans. (in case you hadn't noticed, Lori is now going exclusively by the name Sara) I actually prefer Sara and her teacher has changed the name at school.

Here is your flight again, in case you lost the telegram.

Pan Am # 227 Georgetown - port 'o spain Fri May 12 11:55 P.M

Varig # 981 port-o spain - Caracas Sat May 13 1:05 PM - 2:10 PM (midnite)

Your tickets will we held at Pan Am ticket counter in Georgetown. Love + Kisses sis BB-3-2-4

(4½)

P.S. your tickets will be held in Guyana about 2 days before your flight. Somehow, if they telex them down now, the tickets will be telexed back in two days. So - just pick them up the afternoon before flight

I will probably think of a million more things so I'll probably write again.

— Sis —

RE: CLARIFICATION

If it makes any difference, Debbie never told me anything negative about not living with Phillip. She merely stated that she felt you did not want her to live with him as she was in a position of handling money and should not be involved in a relationship. She never said anything negative or hostile, I just got the impression that she was unhappy about the situation.

I do not want you to think that I was bothered about what PJ said because I was not. I merely told KL what PJ had told me about Debbie and I because I wondered if she had said the same thing to Debbie as she liked Debbie a lot and used to spend time with her, especially on Sunday. She stated that she missed Debbie a lot and that is why I told you that I was worried about how she would take her defection. When PJ told me this she was unhappy. I think she was just telling me things that had piled up on her because she was emotional at the time. I don't think she was being devisive, she just wanted me to assure her that she was not to blame. She also in the conversation said that she was to blame in many ways for Mike leaving, because of the 3 days that she left. This is not to say that I have not been guilty of not reporting negativity between PJ and I, or unhealthy alliances that we have formed over the years. I did not report many things because I do not want to cross Patty, who is in my mind, relentless, mean and extremely vendictive. PJ is her alter ego, she lives thru her her and woe be unto anyone who casts aspursions on her. I can honestly say that I have never met anyone so mean except someone who has left the cause and become evil. That may be purely my bias but that is how I feel and I don't want to cross her. I am not afraid of dying, but crossing Patty is not that simple nor easy, it just makes dying all the more desirable.

Mrs. Deborah L. Blakey
(Mrs. Philip Blakey).

Dearest Debbi girl:

Last week I received a note from your mother remarking how lovely it was for you and phil to be together down there. From this & from something Laurence John said I gained the impression that you may not be returning to California for some time. Is this the case? What ever you do it should be toward maximizing your own happiness. You are young for only a short time and only once!! I wish that I had had some better insights when I was your age. I suppose that I have not been really happy for many years - at least not for over 10 years. I keep having a "feeling" that time is running out - wasting - & that I have somehow lost the secret of happiness. Yet I know that it depends only upon my own attitudes - that I have to break away or declare my own independence from the past.

I should be able to experience this feeling since all of my children are on their own. If your mother is taken care of and happy. Perhaps I must feel needed in order to experience happiness. It must be essential - this is terrible.

I have been thinking of travelling to Mexico but am afraid to go alone - perhaps I should simply fly off to Yucatan - Mexico as Tom keeps suggesting.

We had a very bad (wet) winter. If I have a real mess in my yard I hope to open the pool next week - so this may give me something to do.

Launchey J. now has a regular job at Herrick Hospital 40 hrs per week on 6 days. He seems to enjoy the work, but never has anything to say. I'm glad that I could help him to become established. He sleeps here 4 nights per week so that he can get to work early. Tom was up for Easter spring vacation. He likes to talk so I did talk with him. He still does not know about a job for next year.

I think that this uncertainty is part of what bothers me. He seems happy enough in spite of his situation. He will be unable to start his house at Tahoe this year because of restrictions on sewer hook-ups — too bad since he has $17,000 tied up in his lot.
Of course I'm in trouble with my house since your mom can't get me a valid Deed of Reconveyance without going to the U.S. Consul to get her signature witnessed. Either that or the Notary has to have a statement from a judge or official that he is a Notary & that that is his signature — all stupid but that is California law.
Annalisa & children are well. She enjoys her nearest job & certainly enjoys her children. I talked to Mother on the phone last week; she and all of her "relatives" are well. Mother will be 83 on 23 May, 1978;
her address is Lippert Terrace Apt. 508
4420 McCorkle Ave., SE, Charleston, W.Va.
Zip 25304 I plan to retire in 1979 around
November i.e. 18 months from now.
Of course the problem is what to do.

BB3-cc-4

PS(2) * 4/19/78 Tom just called that he will be interviewed for a job at San Jose State College on Tuesday & said he wants me set-monday. How is your [illegible] down there? Send me some [illegible] with myself and my time. I think that I will become a postdoctoral student for a year or so. I like learning new things if I see a use for them. I don't know how I'll feel if I Don't know what I'm going to do with "new" knowledge.

There is just a chance that Tom may get a job in the Bay Area* in which case I can see him occasionally. If it's not too often he may be able to be pleasant when I'm around.

I do hope that you will use your surgical training; you need that probably in order to be happy yourself. Don't forget though that serum hepatitis is almost an occupational disease for people in surgery. It is a "real bad" disease as you know.

I hope that you will write me of your activities & plans soon. Also your grandpa longs for letters from his daughter & granddaughters too.

With all my love

Your Dad,

Laurence L. Lyon

Thursday

Terri Carter - I overheard Terri telling Debbie Blakey that there was alot of pressure on people in Jonestown. She said there were meetings practically every night that you had to go to. First she said there was a meeting every night, and then as she went over each meeting every night, she said she guessed that we had two ### nights off each week. She said to Debbie B., "It's really bad." Debbie B.'s response was "Barf."

Terri told Bebbie B. and myself that there was alot of pressure to know the news all the time. She said you were constantly tested and people were asked at random in public meetings to answer questions, and you were quite embarrassed if you didn't know the news. I just said that I really wanted to know the news, because in town we hardly heard any except what we read in the Chronicle. Terri said once she was asked and she didn't know the answer.

I felt Terri was just mouthing off like a lot of people do who come in from Jonestown. People like to tell us in town what is going on with the discipline out in Jonestown, but they rarely tell us all the really great things that are going on too. Jack is great for telling disciplines too. Patty O. started telling about some people in trouble and I stopped her and said I was tired of people in town always getting one side, and not the positive, because the one side is rarely put in total prespective, and I didn't know who it might effect. So Patty stopped and started telling about some good things happening. (not that discipline isn't good, but I think you know what I mean.)

I find Terri Carter emotional and somewhat hard to deal with. She gets quite bitchy at times, and responded to things at time like Debbie Blakey. I guess that's another reason why I didn't note Debbie B.'s attitude so much, because Terri Carter didn't seem that different to me. Although Terri does have a concern about things, which Debbie seemed to ##### show a disinterest in in the end.

I caught Linda Mitchel in a couple of lies the other day. She had gotten the chicken I had bought for the guests out of the kitchen and was on her way downstairs with it when Joan asked her what she was doing with it. She said "Karen asked me to bring it to her." Joan told me about it and I asked Linda about it and she lied. (she did bring it to me because she had no other choice.) That was when Dr. thain was there. Then recently Rhonda told me that Linda said to her that I had cleared it for them all to go to the beach bec. I wanted to go myself since I had not gotten to go the night before. (this was a ridiculous lie - I never said any such thing.) Also, Daisy told me that Linda told her that I had cleared it for them to go procure show tickets so they could go to the show. So I confronted Linda the other day about all of these things. She said all 3 people were lying on her. I said I didn't believe they were. She had tried to say that Erin that # said I said I wanted to go to the beach, and Erin was there and said that wasn't true too. Rhonda was right there and said 'you did say that Linda,' and I was sure Rhonda and Erin ### were not lying. Then Terri, who had been sitting there listening and saying nothing, blasted at # me and said that I had no business, or something like that, using Joan's name since Joan was not even there. I said yes, but I had discussed it with Joan befo. and Linda before and Linda knew what I was talking about. But Terri continued, instead of giving support to what I was trying to say, to confront me about Joan. So I dropped it. Then Linda came in the hall and said it was true what Joan had said, but that Rhonda and Daisy were not telling the truth. I just said I didn't wish to discuss it with her privately. I called Terri in to talk to her privately, and said that I didn't appreciate her confronting me when I was trying to confront someone who was obviously trying to manipulate situations by using my name. She ### was somewhat pissy at first, and said that she had seen the situation with Daisy and Linda had only been teasing her by using my name. (however, if she was teasing as Terri said, Daisy believed it and went and got dressed to go.) I said that I knew that Rhonda and Joan had not been lying, and it was obvious to anyone that Linda was out of line. Finally she said half heartedly that she could see what I was trying to say. I told her when she disagreed with me, she should # tell me privately and not confront me when I am trying to straighten up situations in the house.

Another situation came up over Jimmy that I should probably mention, as you might have heard about it. I happened to hear that Jimmy was going around town by himself making contacts with bands and places to perform. I had understood he was going to be doing this with Tim, and when I heard he had been by himself I thought it was greatly unwise. 1) I felt Jimmy was not safe to be anywhere by himself considering mercenaries and enemies. 2) I felt if someone verbally attacked him or whatever, they might get him upset to violence which could get him hurt or cause problems for him and us, since there are people around who are hostile to us. 3) I felt anything he said - being your son - could be used against us, even more than what some other PR people might say. 4) We have been told to go in 2's and not make PR contacts by ourselves. 5) I felt he was quite young and inexperienced.

I had no problems with Jimmy in town, and his attitude was helpful and cooperative. So when I brought this up in a meeting that I felt he shouldn't be going out by himself, I was just trying to make a point. I was not attacking him or even confronting him really. I said I did feel I should have been told that he was going out alone, but I felt this was Tim's fault too that I had not known. I got no support from anyone in the room on this point. When I asked Sharon her opinion later, she said that she didn't think Jimmy would make any more mistakes than I would make (referring I'm sure to my blunder with Blackman's son which I know she already told you about.) thought she did say I might have a point about the danger. She said you praised Jimmy on the radio for doing so good getting places to play for the band. I said I wished I had been told that so perhaps I would not have made a big deal about Jimmy not being by himself. (though I still was not convinced that you would want him my himself.)

Anyway , I wanted you to know my reasoning for it and it wasn't bec. I was trying to put Jimmy down. Jimmy was actually helpful and I enjoyed him being there. Also, the next day I dropped him off alone downtown to pick up some printing for us. He asked me to so I did, an I wasn't about to say anything about it at that point.

ck Beam - I feel Jack is extremely negative, though I believe he always has been. I think he likely prefers it in town and will probably try to stay in. He makes little remarks all the time which show me he's not in agreement with what is happening. I can't even remember all of his remarks but for instance, I was reading a news article the other day and he walked by and said something to the effect that I must be worried I am going to get tested on it like we do in Jonestown.

When Richard and Jack were put off on the boat and told to wait till Terri B. came in, Jack was so hostile he said 'I feel Like Killing Someone.' Of course he was just mouthing off, but I'm not so sure he didn't mean it, and his hostilities certainly were not directed at our enemies. He was constantly making remarks about the boat - being put on stand by, that we had to have everything cleared by Harriet and Gene, etc. The night they were told Tefri was coming in, Richard came to me and said he was wondering if he could take Jack out somewhere bec. he was so upset he was just pacing the floor - take him out to get something to drink like a coke, and that frankly, he (Richard) was upset too. I told Richard the next day that I thought he and Jack fed each other's negativity, and that I felt it was up to Richard to show principle and not fall into Jack's negative bag. Richard agreed.

I went one day with Jack and Richard to meet the man who owns the boat and tell him that we were waiting on our secretary to come in from the interior. They kissed this guy's ass so bad I was really surprised. They kept saying how sorry they were, how great a man he was, how they couldn't remember when they had done business with anyone nicer, that he was so patient with us, etc. I tried to tell them later when they were complaining to me that we shouldn't be putting this man off because he had gone so far out of his way for us by giving us the crew and the insurance, etc., I told them that they sounded like the guy was a humanitarian instead of a business man, and that the reason he had gone so far out of his way for us was because he wanted our money, our American money. They disagreed, and said he could have gotten $100,000 if he had wanted, but he liked us and wanted to help us. I continued to disagree with them, but finally dropped the conversation when they continued to argue.

I basically like Richard in terms of liking to work with him because he is consistent, dependable and follows through on things. He pushes and gets things done. I don't know who could possible replace him if he were brought in. I felt he was very dependable with the books also and seemed to be on top of everything as far as I could tell. However, Debbie T. told me just before I left that the bank had called her 3 times about overdrawn checks, and she wondered what Richard was doing.

I frankly think Debbie is threatened by Richard's efficiency, and there's something in her that would like to see Richard look bad. However, she might be right about the checks - I don't know. I only heard this the day I left and I didn't have time to look in to it.

One thing I can say about Richard is that he cleared things with me before he did them; he always was accountable as far as I know for his time. He and Jack and Uhara went to the show a few times, but Richard always asked if they could go out and procure tickets to go. They never paid for tickets that I know of. I never let anyone go to the show the time I was there and pay for it other than for the guests, and Helen when she was there. I never went to a show myself, nor did Tim Carter or Debbie T. and some of the PR people.

Jack continually makes his sexual jokes which really piss me off. I simply can't stand him. He makes remarks to Erin about Gregg all the time, and he really likes to put her down. Also, he started on Terri Jones about how she was 'dancing' with Lew and got her baby. Whenever myself or anyone else has tried to confront him, he's gotten hostile and them later made diggs at us in terms of hostile joking.

Jack and Debbie Blakey were always joking around together, and they really pissed me off because I could never get a meeting through at night without them making alot of jokes and interrupting what I was trying to do. They also liked to play around together like they were doing karate, playing and sometimes even wrestling. Also, one day when I said something about Jack on the radio - I said he acted like he was an authority on something - Debbie jumped down my throat real hostile and nasty and told me I was being so two faced and why hadn't I confronted Jack to his face if I thought that. What it was is that we had gotten an order for 54 barrels, but when I gave it to Jack and Richard, he said they did not need them because our new shipment just out of Customs had barrels in them, so forget the order. The next morning Paula gave me the same order over the radio, and I told her that Jack had said we didn't need them and why, so she went and checked and came back and said we did need them, so I said that Jack had acted like he was an authority on it.

Jack never asked directly where Debbie B. was, but he did ask me what was going on. I just said I thought Stoen had stirred up some shit, and that Debbie Blakey had gone to England and that Terri Buford and Maria were going to join her there. I said I thought it had something to do with finances. (this was the message Tim C. gave me to say from the radio, tho Paula told me out here it was the wrong place - it was supposed to be Europe instead of England.) Anyway, Jack seemed to buy the story and didn't say any more.

Rhonda asked me about Debbie. She and Debbie B. seemed close. When I got up that first morning and asked where Debbie was, Rhonda is the one who said she saw Debbie out at the airport. That day we told her later she was over with Mrs. DeCosta who was sick. That next night she woke me up late at night after coming home from the airport to ask me where Debbie was. I told her the same story about going to England. She said had been worried because when she had asked if some of them could go to the beach, Debbie T. told her that Jim didn't want anyone going anywhere away from the house. I just told her I didn't know anything about that message - which I didn't at the time - and that it wasn't even related to Debbie I was sure, because I knew nothing of it. The next day I talked to Rhonda again and she seemed to be ok. I told her with the mercenaries and enemies coming over, that actually all of us should be much more careful. I don't know if this was right to tell her, because this is the 1st I think she had heard of the mercenaries. (I didn't realize she didn't know.)

Gladys Boyer told me she missed Debbie B, and that she had cried all day from missing her. I never said a word to her about it, and didn't try to explain. Debbie B. spent a lot of time with Gladys, and rubbed her back for her alot and talked to her alot. She always talked about how "pretty and beautiful" Gladys was.

(By the way, Gladys is a very dear lady and we all grew to love her. If we ever do take in a Guyanese family, I would think she would fit right in. She is a fantastic cook, helped in the house all the time, etc.) She went home on our boat this time, and said she might come Sunday to visit.)

I made a statement to Debbie Blakey which I had no business making. I never talked anymore about Sharon to anyone after you confronted me except this one time, and I said something to Debbie B. about her. I had gotten a package with a few clothes in it from my mom, but I was embarrassed to tell anyone because Sharon A. had confronted me over asking for clothes. She had read a letter to Richard from Claire which said that since I had asked for some clothes for PR, she had made sure Sandy sent some down (or Alice.) Sharon asked me about this, why I had asked for clothes when I had a whole closet of Paula's clothes in my closet. I said first of all all I asked for where some tops, and hair conditioner, and 2nd of all I couldn't even wear the clothes Paula had ~~in them~~ because they were too small, and Paula had taken alot of her stuff with her anyway. Sharon didn't act like she bought my explanation and it pissed me off because she constantly asked Sandy for clothes, and every time some new people came down (most times) there was a package in there for Sharon personally. I know I wasn't doing the heavy PR like Sharon, but I still had to go out at times in town. Anyway, when I got this package from my mom, I didn't tell anyone, though Sharon saw me walk through the front room with it and asked me what it was and I said "a package." Then I got embarrassed that I had gotten a couple of things that people could wear for PR and I wanted to share them, so I told Debbie I had gotten some things from my mom, and I showed her what they were and said she could wear them. Then I went on to tell her, which I shouldn't have, that I hadn't told anyone I had gotten these clothes because Sharon had confronted me about asking for clothes from Claire, though she had gotten things herself from states. Though I did say I knew she did do alot more PR of course, and did need things (or something like that.)

BB-3 4-5

That's all I can really remember saying negative to Debbie, as I could never relate to her. When I said this about the clothes, she said not one word, and I knew I had opened my big mouth again and made another mistake.

I heard Debbie Blakey and Terri Carter talked pretty bad about Sharon the night we had some seniors come in, ~~and~~ Debbie told Sharon she should be out of her room to give it to the seniors. She was leaving for Jonestown the next day anyway Debbie said and should have already been out of the room. Sharon said she had planned to stay in the room and type and continue packing after the seniors got there - which was late from the airport about 2 AM, and Debbie really started yelling at Sharon and said she knew she should have been out of there. Debbie got real nasty with Sharon. However, I did think Sharon should have had her stuff out, because it would have been a bit inconsiderate to stay in the room and type after they got here. I felt both of them were wrong. I didn't say anything, but then I heard Debbie come in the room and start talking to Terri Carter about how selfish Sharon was to want to put those seniors out like that, and that she should have have had the room cleared. Terri agreed, and both talked about her, though I don't remember now what all was said, if I even heard it all. Later, Sharon told me about it and said Terri C. had come down and talked to her and kind of apologized for Debbie's behavior. I said that was good, and didn't say anymore. But I wondered if Terri Carter wasn't being a bit two-faced about this too (I would certainly notice it since I was two-faced with Sharon myself and talked about her before I was confronted.)

It seemed to me that Terri Carter and Debbie were closer than the rest of us. Debbie B. seemed to relate best to Rhonda and Terri Carter, though before Terri Carter came in Debbie told me she really wasn't close to Terri. Terri Carter told me after Debbie left that Debbie had talked about me to her, so I imagine that Terri was at least open to the talk or contributed to it.

I was wrong for not having reported the 1st conversation I heard about Terri Carter saying how much pressure there was in Jonestown. I thought it was just another stupid remark # made unwitingly by someone not knowing how they might effect others, but I intended to tell you and just never got around to it. I was surprised by Terri saying this.

CRL told me today she hopes she never has to go back to G-town. She started the conversation on this note. Then she told # me how paranoid she got in G-town, expecially when Joan came in from Jonestown and told her about the Learning Crew where people walk and guard you with guns. She said she about shit, and thought my god, it must have turned into a fascist state out there. Said after she got home she saw it in prespective, but at the time in G-town she knew she had fucked up, and she was really upset and paranoid. She said Joan wasn't being critical, but we discussed how people make stupid remarks and only give one side.

She brought up the subject of Patricia - or maybe I did. Anyway, she said that PJ really wants to go into town to work. Then she said that Patricia had told her recently that YOU HAD SAID YOU HAD TOLD PATRICIA THAT YOU HAD TO FUCK CHRISTINE AFTER PATRICIA LEFT TO KEEP HER IN THE CHURCH AND THAT IF ~~PATRICIA~~ CHRISTINE LEFT IT WOULD BE PATRICIA'S FAULT. (I wrote you before what I felt about PJ going into town - I'm against it. I trust Joan alot, but I don't trust PJ.)

BB-3-Wt6

I did have an argument with Debbie Blakey when she 1st came into town. She said that there was more pressure in Jonestown than in Georgetown. This really made me mad, and I argured with her. She said that the pressure in Jonestown had increased since I had left even. I continued to say that there was free time in Jonestown, etc. that you didn't get in Georgetown. She disagreed and said that there was always something going on that you had to go to. We never resolved the argument and I was pissed and so was she. Paula heard part of this argument. I had forgotten I had discussed this with her, and of course should have reported it at the time.

Terri Carter did tell me that there was alot of pressure in Jonestown and in Georgetown, but if she had a choice, she'd rather be in Jonestown.

One remark I remember Jack saying was he was telling several of us the other night that he had heard they had started "Men's Classes". Jack said he asked what they talked about at them, and someone told him they talked about how all the men were homosexual. He laughed and made a joke of some kind.

One night Debbie Blakey got very pissed and very upset because she got confronted by Paula over the telephone. Paula said to Debbie that Debbie had caused a "White Night" because Debbie had given a wrong message. Debbie had misunderstood a name given over the radio, and so we had thought that some dignatary was working against us or something. I can't remember the details now. I was surprised at the time that Debbie wasn't humble, but rather just hostile and upset. Said it wasn't her fault, she couldn't help it if Paula had given a name and she misunderstood, and that Paula should have clarified it, and spelled the name.

Everyone in Jonestown has a thing against Paula really bad. Everyone talks about her. Finally I just told everyone that ##### it had gone on too long and too far, and Paula had done a lot of great things for this cause, certainly more than I, and had taken a lot of risks, and she was just trying to do her job. Sharon Amos agreed with me at that point, as Donnie had overheard Debbie and everyone talking about Paula so much that he started mouthing off about her all the time. I said something about her self righteousness on the radio once and I said I should not have said it. (Paula is very condescending alot of times on the radio and is short tempered, and it pisses everyone off.) Anyway, Terri Carter, Debbie Blakey and I guess Sharon and Tim, and Mike really don't like Paula. Jack puts her down all the time since Paula is the one who gives out the messages. I think really a lot of hostility is directed at her that really people might feel for you though different ones had different complaints. I certainly have had my conflicts with her.

Terri Carter seemed ### not to be able to stop talking about Paula. She talked about her fat ass, her narcissism, how she told Terri her ass wasn't that big, etc. She told me that when she got ready to come in to town, Paula pulled her aside and warned her about all the people in Georgetown, and had something negative to watch out for regarding each one including me. I asked her what Paula said and Terri said she couldn't remember. (I know this is the same kind of thing I did with Paula and Sharon which stirred up trouble, only I told specifics which was really bad.)

I talked to Lisa this evening. She said there were bugs swarming in her cottage. Then she said Alice had moved in and left all her stuff in the floor and she hoped they could get organized tonight. Then she said after the nuclear war we wouldn't be getting any more supplies. Then she said, "Oh well, then maybe we won't be having any more white nights so it will be worth it."

He said he had heard that Gloria was going to do SOMETHING WITH ODELL RHODES CONCERNING THE REGISTRATION (SOMEONE HAD TOLD HIM ABOUT IT) and he wanted to know what was going on. I think Paula mentioned to me she wondered if Terri had told him??

I am not fishing for verification but I think it is Debbie B. and she expressed conflict - she wanted to live w/ Phillip but felt that you disapproved and backed out with what I thought was conflict. She also had conflict about being exposed for being helped sexually and was interested to know that you had told me that I could become involved with someone if I wanted to. I feel that she (if it is her) may be alienated because when in G/T it became difficult not to be paranoid with you here, and knowing you are trepidicious of people there.

That they are not taking $ could indicate that the relative is funding them and would mean they are more dependant on the relative (in her case a vicious dad) It would almost seem better if they had stolen a large sum to make them independant of family.

Dear Dad,

May 18, 1978

I would have written this sooner but I didn't want you to think that I was being nosey. After you left San Francisco, Debby Blakey was supposed to visit her dad. She wanted me to straighten her hair so that it wouldn't look like an afro. I told her it looked really cute and stylish, but she was upset and worried that he would be upset. This concerned me and I wouldn't do it. Also, she stated publically in a meeting (I think it was a Wednesday night meeting), that she had been "very happy" before coming to Peoples Temple and had really enjoyed her life. (This really flabbergasted me because she was so miserable when she came.) I also think she has a lot of hostility for her mother. She told me during this same period that her mom had wanted her to have surgery on her lips at one time because she thought Debby was ugly. Also Debby told me that she had had a lot of trauma because [redacted] (She seemed to be less concerned about the hair.

I would like to tell you, Dad, that most of the people that left absolutely could not stand me. They seemed very uncomfortable around me and at the time I couldn't understand it but then when they would leave, I would. Maybe they were afraid I would find out their shit. I don't know.

I wish to thank you for the love and respect that you show all of us, Dad, even though many of us don't deserve it. I thought I was one of the few that had ran. It is so beautiful the way that you pave the way for people to come back. I felt so guilty, Dad. I thought that you would never trust me again....I remember when you said to everyone, "Why don't you make yourself trustworthy?

I hope the above information is of help to you, Dad.

Stateside faults & guilts

① Before the family & dad left for Guyana I went to the grocery store several times & stole a cake of butter.

② I caused dad to have a heart attack because I had gotten to the point where he had to show me self worth & relate to me and he became very sick in the process.

③ My hindering paranoia which I enacted when on the radio which only pressured your ability to talk more freely.

④ My idolizing Mildred which must have posed many concerns, understandably - I am sorry I allowed to happen.

⑤ Not working co-operatively = Dad & causing much un-due pressures for dad as I would antagonize Her & she'd go & write it up & I could have avoided it all along

(8) Had 2 major arguments w/ Sally which could have been avoided by me & I didn't - I allowed the indulgence of my own wanted to avenge her mouth.

Debs – all is fine with Lenora and me. We moved from Tr. 5 to the one Clara and Kay are in, because we need our former one for guests. We surely are having our share of guests as you know. The Trailer we are in now stays cooler during the day than our former one. Everyone is congenial. In a way I feel more comfortable now that there are several of us instead just Lenora and me, because people always asked about just 2 of us being in the old Trailer and I felt uncomfortable about that. The walking is good for me. Here are some of the new things we will be doing. Don Fitch is going to look into building a shit-house structure on wheels. That way we can roll it off and burn what's in the pit and then roll it back, instead of building a new toilet. Also we have started to grow wing beans which are as high in protein as soybeans. They grow here and some of the humid climates elsewhere and are little known. read us a research paper and scientific reports from U.S. Universities on the subject. It would mean a meat substitute and a great boost to feeding hungry people in the underdeveloped countries. The wing bean is a legume and puts nitrogen back into the soil – therefore acts as a fertilizer at the same time.

Paula is also in our cottage but she is hardly ever there. – When we had the journalist visiting us I did some translating for his wife who spoke no english and just a little high-school german. I went along on the tour of the premises to the piggery and tried to translate to her what J. said to her husband. He spoke english and understood it well. tests. He repeats them many times which gives most everyone a chance to get the news at one time or another. Everyone - old and young are taking notes. We all had to turn in a 2 page report on the news last socialist class and Hi schoolers a 3 page report. We have maps of Africa, S. America, Gyana - in short the world hanging in the pavillion and everyone is studying. It really is a great thing ~~how~~ ~~how~~ everyone is studying and learning. Jo is such a great teacher. It really is wonderful to see all the seniors taking notes and discussing the news. Guess I am repeating myself - I was writing and trying to listen to news at the same time!

Looks like you will have to boil your drinking water or use bleach in Geo-town a maybe I got the wrong impression? Someone said that you had problems with your water, if that is the case you are responsible to see to it that it is boiled.

Be sure to write to the old asshole!

I wrote to Larry and comrades on the 3rd & 4th floor.

Last night all of Jonestown had a test on world events. There were 15 questions. One set for under 65 years and the other 15 for over 65s. I did ok. Dad read the questions to us.

So long - bit to Sharon - other comrades.

Due to the problems that I have been having with dad, I have really let go of my health. I realize it is a death wish, because I no longer want to be forced to cope with dad's harassing me.

It has been consistantly becoming more apparent. For example when I'm driving my car, the cents dad gave me, I often fall asleep at the wheel and have already had one accident.

The pain that dad puts me through each time that I see him - is just so horible! I don't want to take it any longer. Don't get me wrong its not that I am purposely trying to kill myself, but its my sub-mind that is causing these acts of mine.

I realize that it is my own fault to allow dad to get to me, but it is affecting me critically: in both health and personality. Debbi Blaley

Dear

I have really had enough of this entire thing. I know that People's Temple is the answer to the problems here in the State. Pastor Jones has truly worked out how to save his congregation in a depression and to assist other people in the same situation, but I don't want to stay here and wait for the depression. I admit I am turning away from the cause because of my own selfish wants and needs.

I realize that what I said before in letters to you about paying more attention to me could be used against me and my suicide. I don't want you people to prove that my suicide was self inflicted. I will not allow you to let my death be un-glamorous.

Just because your Pastor had the character to refuse to fuck me because he'll do it to no-one but his married wife - spouse, that doesn't mean he has to keep that moral with my threats of suicide. He talked to me for hours not to do anything harmful to myself, but I am too embarrassed now to stop it.

I don't want to be made to look foolish so - in case you think that the truth will put my ending to shame. I will make it look as though it was Jim's fault.

Thus to have my suicide look as though it was the Church's fault and that Jim Jones was the reason and cause for it. I have given different statements on paper and tapes to my friends and your enemies to prove that my suicide was purposefully pushed by Jim Jones to get me out of the scene. It will look as though I was manipulated into killing myself, and your Pastor will be to blame.

5) I am frightened when you look at me cause I figure you see bad traits in me which are traitorous which I don't see. (or repress)

6) Lots of times I just want to be held by you and cuddled in a fatherly manner. This upsets me cause here I'm 20 yrs. old and I act like a 15 yrs. old and younger.

7) ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~the~~
The reason I didn't make the other letter "~~personell~~" was because Deanna and the counsel read them all 1st before going to you.

8) I'm really competitive and put on an 'air' as if I know more than I do, when I'm with Karen. I don't want her to think I'm dumb, but I only come across as trying to prove 'nothing'.

I need you and am so grateful that you are my dad. I get a lump in my throat when I think about it. Debbie

You said while the note you wrote was being passed around that you did not like some of the responses you saw. Maybe I am paranoid, but I thought perhaps I gave a "bad" look (response).

When I read the note, I got disgusted & myself because I thought thats what you had said during service; but when you said, - sometimes I say things to put people purposely on the wrong path - eg. traitors, I thought then that maybe what I thought was not what you meant.

Sorry, Debbi B.

I believe things (mostly) what you say in service & thus I get on the wrong track.

I, Deborah J Blaky hereby resign from People Temple Christian Church I know this Church does the most for people all over the world. The Pastor of this great church, Jim Jones is an excellent man in every aspect of his character.
My purpose for such a selfish act, stems from my fickle attitude towards life and I want to do my own thing; travel etc.

Signed,

Also before I sign off I just wanted to know if I could stay at your home for a couple of days when I leave. I've been stealing money from the Temple and have written Phony checks to various persons using the name of the church. I know that the congregation is up to my game and I must get out before I get turned over to the authorities. I am worried for myself only, I really don't care about Linda Swaney, Ruth Kirno, Danny Phillips & others who have done the same thing.

I'll phone you later and tell you more about my theft etc.

Jennie Chick told me when I was helping her at her rest home - that she could leave her children and never look back. That she had no emotional ties at all.

My purpose to relay this is that you said once that if Mary Black could walk away from her children and never look back that there was something missing in her in character.

Boy, they'll never find out about all the money that I have stolen from them. People's Temple has been screwed out of much money and I used it to buy heroine & sell it to young elementary & high school students.
I love to steal & will continue to do it whenever given the chance.

Re: Saturday PM Counseling 3/23/75

Father. I agree c̄ everything you said.

I felt you had to degrade yourself when speaking to Steve + all of us about the sucking of penis's.
You were telling of how men will suck off others, thinking they'll gain their manhood. (of the one their sucking).
You got on the subject of yourself, trying to personalize the truth for the men and you said you'd never sucked a man, never thought of it, would never suck your own nor could reach it. While you said this you said that you had never even thought of doing such a thing but had just said it to make a point.
I felt that people would dwell on the subject for self-gain reasons and try to rationally think to say that you did think of such things.
I felt hostile and sickened when you have to say stuff like that, which will be used wrongly by competitive + "jealous" men, as Steve Hess. Women too.

Also I want to apologize for burdening you unfairly c̄ the awesome responsibility of being a father figure to me. I realize that all people look to you as a father but I feel my pressure is more intense + pushes you forcably into the role of having to be nice to me.
I am such a child, that you must guard somewhat how you approach me.
I am sorry.

I am resigning because my beliefs and activities are at variance with the beliefs and activities of Peoples Temple Christian Church, and Jim Jones, the pastor of said church. Questions

For: Whomever

1) I have no best freinds, I associate more with the counsellors in the SF Temple because I live with them and see more of them .

2) I am jealous of Anni Moore"s organizational ability . She is so dependable, responsible .

3) I don't believe in heaven, but I quess there cuold be reincarnation, but I don't know.

4) I have not thought of suicide in the serios vein. I only have wished that there was not such a thing as life.

5) To work and live in the promised land wuold be nice, but I would rather stay here in lousy America and fight and be tortured when the time comes.

6) Fears: skyscrapper heights, Also, I don't know if this is a fear or not , but I use to dream about being strangeled to death while having my head held under water in a bathroom sink.

7) Weaknesses: Irresponsible, joke too much about sex and gross people out, not kind enough to people, poor PR qualities, try to come across "hard " to people ,so that they won"t think that they can hurt me mentaly, I don"t act my age which is 22, I don't take on work that people my age do, don't want father to know how bad I really am and I don't want him to see my horrible qualities.

8) God means Communism, but for the sake of the congregations fears , the word Socialism is used because it is less threatening to the peopel.

9) Loud váice; Strenghts

10) I came to PT with poor motivations of fear of the bomb, but i have come to the awareness that: Our movement is the only reality in a world of broken dreams and that the only love that I have ever reieved was when father spoke with me. I know for a fact that I will remain to revenge all oft those who have messed with our work, even if something should happen to our leader.

11) Temptations: smashing windows with my fist, acting loud, getting into a fist fight with Rick Cordell, [redacted]

I have always wanted to have a large scar on my face -> sick!!!

12) Father: the greatest Political leader that has ever existed, He is the only answer to our

BB-3-ttt-1

12) Con't;world: of capitalism,

13) Sexual felings: I see father as a father figure. I have dreamt and fantisized about myselfbeing held by him and the complete security and relief I felt. I don't want sex with father as it would make me too dependent on him as a comforter and I am scared that I would then become jealous of others that he wuold have to relate to. I am a jealous person or at least used tobe in a sexual relationship. I highly respect those sisters that father has related with as they must fight the horrilbe feelings of jealousy and overcome the thoughts of less attention. I think if I were to get into the same position I wuold be the worst offender of them all. I think it would be very painful to accept the fact that what father does is for our benefit not for his pleasure. That is a haavy concept to accept in relation to sex. I dont want to appear as an acception,because I do have feelings toward him,but I could never handle having sex with him. I have tried fantisizing the sex act with father, but could not accpt him fucking me. I am more into being held by someone, rather than being fondeled. I hae a complex about my body , so that may be the reason why I can't accept my feelings. I really don't know where my head is at. Maybe if I felt more assured about my body I would feel more open toward sex and would want to get into it, but I doubtit.

14) Relatives: Lisa Layton,Larry Layton,Karen Layton.

15) No, I am not on good terms with my family.

16) Hostilities: That father has to say nice things to me because I need to know he cares for me, I don"t want him to see that I am weak in that area. I don't want him to feel that he must pmper me. At the fact that I fuck off so much - that father probably thinks I never have serious thoughts and that I am unstable. (I'm a paranoid fitd)

17) I like apostolic life, I was never one to conserve on $.

18) No, I dont see father as creator.

19) Quilt; That I like Robin Tschetter (its both for her maturity and sexually ,she's cute)

BB-3-ttt-2

Quilt

19) Con't.

1) That Larry Is My Brother
2) The Ordeal with Patrisha Jr.
3) That I pull too much on father and his attention and affection.
4) That I don't speak out enough on business matters in PC
5) That I'm Overwieght, but I am loosing
6) That I am a poor example as a counsellor, because I joke too much and cuss often
7) I feel quilty that i am not as appreciative of father for his Political views and that he is such a great leader, but still think of him much more on the father figure roll.
8) That I have'nt had to suffer as so many of our members have.
9) That people grew up in torture and poverty and rejection and that my childhood was easy
10) That I'm not sensitive enough
11) That I forget that father is in constant pain and when he smiles he does it because we need it
12) I too often forget the constant danger we are under and the roll that i play in stopping our premature ending

20) I don't know if there is life after death, but I hope that there is'nt. I'm tired of life.

21) I think that the church discipline is nessisary and that if I get spanked for something it will truely make me change for the better.

22) I have no critisism of the church or of its leadership. Also if I did I would bring it up in PC if I did.

23) The End justifies the means, Comm.

24) I Have not thought of leaving the church nor will I leave the church, ever.

25) The only purpose for my living is to work against the oppressive system. I am not much of an example of a "comrad" but I daily grow and make a transition towards the complete knowledge and Dedication to our goal. Although people view me as a fuch-off I will be here till past the end. I won't betray.

26) The world was created through chemical combustion and gases too.

Dear Lisa:

Well spring has arrived with brisk days & changeable weather. All the family are well. Lori and David are both quite tall and beautiful. David is still quite active but not as wild as he was at Christmas time; he has learned to swim. Tom has accepted a tenure tract job at San Jose State so may be only an hour away. He will be in Berkeley on June 10. We will try to find a suitable home for him to buy. He so much wants his own place and a family. He has published & has in press 12 papers since going to Dominguez Hills. He may be able to do even better at San Jose.

My mother was 83 yesterday. I called her & she wants me to pass her love & concern on to you. Aunt Dora age 85 has moved to Charleston too; she is practically blind and could no longer live by herself. Debbi stopped in to see me last Sunday. She looks well and seems happy even though in the process of getting a divorce. She is so constantly on-the-go that I have not really had a chance to talk with her. She is trying to get a job in Sacramento. I have not received the Deed of Reconveyance. I understand it is at the Temple house in Georgetown. I received the Paid Check in April

So know that you did receive the payments; I had been wondering if it had been lost. please get the Reconveyance to me, * here at the laboratory * as soon as possible. My heart has been giving out & I am anxious to get my estate in order so that Annalisa can settle everything in comfort. [I do not know whether or not I told you that I had a Cardiac Arrest while being examined at Kaiser. I am on Inderol to keep the heart from going into "fibrillation" [(shivering without beating the usual cause of death in heart attacks)]. I sent copies of L.J.'s Certificate to him as he requested. I feel quite hurt that he behaved the way he did after all my efforts to give him a second chance at education & a nice place in which to live these past few months. I feel it is tragic that he quit his good job at Herrick Memorial to go to Guyana - into nothingness.

I hope that your own illness is under control & that you will have a long happier life. Incidentally, Dick/Eva said that your father is now completely senile unable to do anything or to understand anything. Tom has kept in contact. He is trying to "capture" your family's story while Eva B. & Lisl Burnham are still alive.

Dear Annie Amperstedamn Moore,

Well, its been too long since I've written you & so this letter is truely long overdue. Thing are as foul as they ever could be here in this facist-media state. Tonite on Walter Cronkite one of the news commentators made the remark that: ever since the Watergate under cover story & the fame that the two brothers got from writing it now the "mass-cool" thing to do is your a journalist & want to make a name for yourself become an investigative reporter.

The comment was made in reference to the recent Burt Lancy affair here. This guy was in [illegible] as the head [illegible]

The press is trying now to get at Carter now because of his recent liberal stand on the Panama Canal.
They decided to dig deep into a cabinet member past & make a close buddy to the Pres look like a crook. They did an excellent job.
They got Lance to resign made the public support for Carter go down 40% & now we are back to the press attaching the President as repeating the scandalous past of Nixon. The whole thing stinks & it is so damn close to our situation too.
People are now getting scared. Slowly they see if they can get B. Lance, for shit years past. They are close to everyones back yard.
