JCRC to Arrange D.C. Rally for Brezhnev's Visit

A massive Washington, D. C., assembly by the nation's Jewish community in support of Soviet Jewry will be held Sunday, June 17—the eve of the arrival of Soviet Communist Party Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev.

Plans for the mass mobilization were disclosed yesterday by Benjamin S. Loewenstein, president of the Jewish Community Relations Council, who detailed Philadelphia's role in the national demonstration.

JCRC is joining the National Conference on Soviet Jewry, which is coordinating the effort, in convening the mobilization. Also joining are the Greater New York Conference on Soviet Jewry, the Baltimore Jewish Community Council and the Washington Jewish Community Council.

Loewenstein spoke after an emergency JCRC meeting at the Federation of Jewish Agencies for Brezhnev mobilization chairmen appointed this week by the presidents of JCRC's 37 member agencies.

He said the Washington rally "may very well be the most significant manifestation undertaken by the American Jewish community in its 10 years of activity on behalf of Soviet Jewry."

"Its potential impact compares with the dramatic impact of the 1971 Brussels Conference," Loewenstein explained.

He said organizations and synagogues will charter buses to take their members to Washington. Charter arrangements are being coordinated by the office of Brith Sholom and its executive director, Albert Liss, at PE 5-1308.

Critical Nature

Rabbi Sidney Greenberg, chairman of JCRC's Committee of 1,000 for Soviet Jewry, joined Loewenstein in describing the critical nature of the assembly.

"No Jewish family should exempt itself from the obligation to join in this massive mobilization in Washington," Rabbi Greenberg said. "If there is a commitment to the cause of Soviet Jewry, it must be demonstrated at this assembly on the eve of Secretary Brezhnev's visit."

In letters and telegrams to the presidents of JCRC's constituent agencies, Lowenstein said, "JCRC believes that the Brezhnev visit is an exceptional event which demands an exceptional response from the Jewish community. If there is no response to match the visit, it will be assumed that we regard recent developments as completely satisfactory.

Profound Impact

"The Washington assembly can have a profound impact on the morale of Soviet Jews. It will strengthen, at a critical time, Congressional support of the Mills-Vanik-Jackson amendment. It will provide valuable support to President Nixon's appeals to Brezhnev on behalf of Soviet Jewry. And it will dramatically assert to Brezhnev this country's deep concern for Soviet Jewry.

"The horror of continuing trials of Jews whose only crime was to claim their right to emigrate to Israel is evidence that we have much to communicate to visiting Soviet officials, as is the unexplained rejection of thousands of emigration applications, the more than 40 prisoners of conscience, the harassment and bullying of activists and their families, and the refusal of Soviet authorities to budge in regard to the quality of Jewish life," Loewenstein said.

Meeting in Washington

The plan to hold the assembly was drawn up at a meeting in Washington on Tuesday, May 15, between executives from key national agencies and representatives of the four major communities, according to Albert D. Chernin, JCRC executive director, who represented Philadelphia.

Two days later, the executive committee of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry met in New York City and approved the recommendation to hold the massive mobilization in Washington.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 6/5/73

Previous information received indicates Communist Party USA (CPUSA) officials are supporting Leonid I. Brezhnev's visit to the United States and are trying to lessen participation in expected anti-Soviet demonstrations by Jewish and ultra-right organizations.

On 6/5/73, Isidore G. Needleman, an attorney who has appeared on behalf of current and former members of CPUSA, contacted Hyman Lumer, CPUSA Central Committee member, He had a copy of a poster which read, "Save the JDL (Jewish Defense League) Seven. Wanted dead or alive Leonid I. Brezhnev." He requested that Lumer give him the names of Jewish organizations "on our side." Lumer named the Jewish Cultural Clubs and Societies and the Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Woman's Clubs as the type organizations he was seeking.

Information in attached being furnished by teletype to State Department, Secret Service and Central Intelligence Agency.

On May 30, 1973, [redacted] who recently registered with the United States Department of Justice as an agent of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), advised that Soviet officials at the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D.C. Brezhnev to the United States as a result of the Watergate scandal. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that Soviet officials stationed in WDC are very concerned about possible anti-Soviet demonstrations which might occur during the Brezhnev visit. He added that Brezhnev probably will not visit New York City, New York, or Los Angeles, California, during his stay in the United States as a result of the Soviet concern for these demonstrations.

VISIT OF SOVIET COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER LEONID I. BREZHNEV
TO THE UNITED STATES, 1973
INTERNAL SECURITY-R

On June 5, 1973, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned that Soviet Ambassador to the United States, Anatoli F. Dobrynin, and U. S. Senator J. William Fulbright from Arkansas, had discussed the fact that Soviet Communist Party Leader Leonid I. Brezhnev desired to meet with Senator Fulbright and his colleagues on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Source noted that Fulbright indicated that four or five other individuals in addition to the members of the Committee would be present at this meeting. Dobrynin also indicated that plans were still being made for a luncheon to be held on Tuesday, June 19, 1973, but that these plans had not yet been finalized and he would discuss this matter further with Senator Fulbright later this week.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

We would like to ask you to join us in demanding amnesty for dissenters in Communist countries on the occasion of Leonid Brezhnev's visit to Washington in June. As the enclosed statement explains, we are all American dissenters, active opponents of the war in Indochina, opposed to the oppression of racial minorities, women, the poor. As American dissenters, we have a stake in the state of freedom in the Communist world.

Just as we support amnesty for American war resisters, we would like to express our support for the right to dissent in Communist countries and demand amnesty for the thousands who have been imprisoned for demanding and defending democratic rights.

The statement we are asking you to sign lists but a few of those suffering persecution for daring to disagree. There are many others like them. As dissenters in our own country, our voices raised in support of the right to dissent cannot be ignored; our voices demanding amnesty can make a difference.

When Brezhnev visits the United States on June 18, we would like him to see this statement, signed by you and hundreds of other American dissenters, as an advertisement in the New York Times. You can help make that possible by signing the enclosed card and mailing it to us along with as large a contribution for the advertisement as you can afford. We would like your signature even if you are not in a position to contribute. If there is an extended delay in Brezhnev's visit, the ad will appear with a more appropriate heading.

Dissidents in the East urgently need our support. We hope we can count on you. Please sign the card and mail it to us as quickly as possible. There is very little time to organize this effort.

VISIT OF COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER LEONID I. BREZHNEV TO THE UNITED STATES, JUNE, 1973

On the Occasion of Brezhnev's Visit

AMERICAN DISSENTERS DEMAND AMNESTY FOR DISSENTERS IN COMMUNIST COUNTRIES

We the undersigned are all American dissenters. We have actively demonstrated our opposition to American involvement in the monstrous war in Indochina. We have made no less clear our opposition to prevailing laws, customs and political policies which oppress women, racial minorities, the poor.

As American dissenters our primary commitments are to the causes and movements for economic and social justice in our own country. However, as American dissenters we cannot be indifferent to the fate of dissenters in Communist countries. To resist the inroads on civil liberties in the United States but to remain silent about the suppression of liberties in the Soviet Union and the Soviet bloc, to protest U.S. policies in Indochina but to acquiesce in the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia would not only be immoral but would quite properly call into question the sincerity of our commitments at home. As American dissenters we do have a stake in the state of freedom in the Communist world.

It is in this spirit, just as we support amnesty for American war resisters, that we support the right to dissent in Communist countries and demand amnesty for those mentioned below and the thousands of others whose names do not appear.

RE: JEWISH DEFENSE LEAGUE (JDL)

On May 22, 1973, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the JDL held a Fund Raising Event on May 19, 1973 at the Hebrew Academy of Long Beach, 530 West Broadway, Long Beach, New York.

> The Jewish Defense League (JDL) founded in 1968, is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish Rights." Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia and similar demonstrations against Arab establishments have often resulted in violence. Rabbi Meir Kahane, founder and National Director has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish the aims of the JDL.

There were approximately 250 to 300 people in attendance at a cost of $6 per person. Tickets for a door prize were sold at $50 a piece, and as estimated $2,000 was raised during the event from donations.

The Master of Ceremonies for the event, was FAY LLOYD, and the Key Note Speaker was BURT ZWEIBON, International Vice-Chairman of the JDL.

The first speaker for the evening was the father of SILVIA ZALMANSON, who is currently imprisoned in Russia. Her father talked about her mistreatment during her imprisonment, and that she is now extremely ill. He related that his daughter's husband and two brothers are also in a Russian prison, and that while he was in Russia, he was also imprisoned.

The above source advised that ZALMANSON's father was well received, and that SILVIA ZALMANSON's imprisonment has become a rallying point for JDL in the United States.

The second speaker was JOSEPH KLEIN, a New York JDL member who is one of 8 young people who recently travelled to Moscow and were arrested there at the Tourist Bureau. KLEIN stated that the 8 JDL members who were arrested were part of a larger group who visited Russia, and that they were not arrested until their second effort at a sit-down demonstration at the Tourist Bureau at Moscow. Following their arrest they were all taken to two different brigs where they were questioned by authorities. KLEIN added that the next day after being released, they journeyed to a Jewish synogogue in Moscow where they met with Russian Jew activists, and that he has since received a letter from one of them after returning to the United States. KLEIN indicated that a channel had been established through which they would correspond without being detected by Russian authorities.

Following KLEIN's presentation, FAY LLOYD, introduced an Iraqi-Jew, Y Ovadiah who had arrived in the United States to speak on behalf of the Iraqi-Jew.

BURT ZWEIBON was the third speaker of the evening. ZWEIBON referred to the previous speaker, JOSEPH KLEIN and stated a trip like this does not just happen it takes long and thorough planning, money, and the right people. He stated that they still have a liability to the airlines, and the cost of the trip was approximately $5,000. ZWEIBON stated that they should find other dedicated students such as KLEIN to go to other capitols of the world and to go back to Moscow to bring the action to them. He added that it is "our job to have American Jews arrested not picketing Russians in America, but picketing Russians in Russia; picketing people in their own country."

CONFIDENTIAL

ZWEIBON mentioned the Bolshoi Ballet which would soon be returning to the United States. ZWEIBON advised that the ballet had come here once before and were made unwelcome and left. He added that it seemed quite evident that they did not learn a lesson during their recent visit, but would learn their lesson this time.

ZWEIBON then stated that LEONID BREZHNEV, Soviet Communist Party Secretary, would be visiting the United States during June, 1973. He stated that he did not understand why BREZHNEV was such a thin-skinned man. ZWEIBON stated that if he was head of a large powerful nation and was visiting another country and demonstrations were being held to protest his visit, it would not be of any interest to him. ZWEIBON stated that on his desk were copies of communications sent by the Russians setting out the harrassment they were receiving in the United States, which were given him by a prosecutor in the Hurock bombing case.

ZWEIBON stated that BREZHNEV wanted assurances that he or the Soviet Government would not be the subject of demonstrations while in the United States on his proposed visit. He added that they needed people who could take a picture of BREZHNEV and blow it up life size on a poster which would be entitled, Wanted, Dead or Alive for Kidnapping and Extortion; and these posters should be carried everywhere BREZHNEV goes while in the United States. ZWEIBON stated that "Wherever BREZHNEV went in the United States, JDL would be there. When he came to Washington, they would be in Washington; if he came to New York, they would be in New York, and demonstrations would take place, terrible demonstrations which would show the world how thin-skinned BREZHNEV was."

ZWEIBON then introduced IRVING CALDERONE, a long-time New York JDL member who would be leaving the United States for Israel permanently in two weeks.

According to the above source, the rest of the evening was taken up with a band and a comic.

The above source advised that the following individuals known to him as New York JDL members were recognized at the above event:

DURING DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE BREZHNEV VISIT WHO WILL BE PREPARED TO AUTHORIZE ARRESTS OF INDIVIDUALS VIOLATING THE ACT FOR THE PROTECTION OF FOREIGN OFFICIALS BY SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE FBI. HOWEVER, NO ARRESTS MUST BE MADE BY SPECIAL AGENTS WITHOUT PRIOR AUTHORIZATION AND UNLESS ARREST CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED SAFELY WITH GOOD JUDGMENT. BEAR IN MIND THAT ARREST DURING THE COURSE OF DEMONSTRATIONS COULD PROVOKE FURTHER VIOLENCE.

IN VIEW OF DEPARTMENT'S PROPOSAL TO DETAIL ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS TO SCENE OF FORTHCOMING DEMONSTRATIONS, RECIPIENTS SHOULD ESTABLISH LIAISON WITH LOCAL UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS' OFFICES SO THAT OUR COVERAGE CAN BE COORDINATED WITH THAT TO BE AFFORDED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE DEPARTMENT.

NOTE:

In connection with demonstrations which might occur in connection with Soviet Communist Party leader Brezhnev's forthcoming state visit, recipients are instructed to have Special Agent personnel on the scene at such incidents prepared to take photographs and collect other evidence which will give indication of violations of the Act for the Protection of Foreign Officials. Recipients also instructed to establish liaison with local United States Attorneys since the Department plans to have Assistant United States Attorneys present at such demonstrations to authorize on the spot arrests where appropriate in their judgment. Recipients instructed that no arrest to be made without Assistant United States Attorneys' authorization and unless same can be effected safely with good judgment.

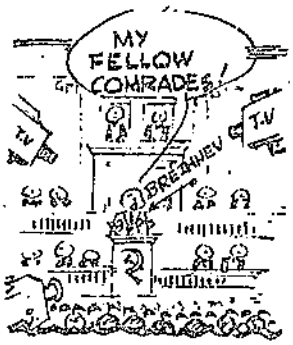
"Brezhnev Speak to Congress? An Outrage!"

To the Editor:

Outrage is the only word that fits the Nixon Administration's plan to ask our senators and representatives to allow Soviet Communist Party Secretary Leonid Brezhnev to address a joint session of Congress during his visit to this country later in June.



Not all Americans share Mr. Nixon's admiration or trust of this spokesman of International Communism, which Brezhnev's predecessor, Nikita Khrushchev, promised would "bury" us. Many oppose the fact that Brezhnev has been invited to this country in the first place — especially after the USSR provided North Vietnam and the Viet Cong with guns and ammunition to kill young Americans in Vietnam for so many years. To invite him to lecture Congress and the nation over network tv — carried, no doubt, by NBC, CBS, and ABC — is disgusting.

Let him tour Disneyland or Ford Motor Co. — even Watergate! But don't give him the opportunity to stick a feather in his hat by opening the doors of Congress for a major Soviet propaganda oration.

SOURCE FURTHER ADVISED THAT RABBI MEIR KAHANE RECENTLY DIRECTED A LETTER TO BERT ZWEIBON REQUESTING HE RESIGN AS HEAD OF THE JDL BECAUSE OF INEFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP. ZWEIBON PLANS TO ANNOUNCE HIS RESIGNATION IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

SOURCE ADVISED THAT THE ABOVE CIRCUMSTANCE IS THE MAIN REASON ZWEIBON DID NOT FORMULATE ANY POSITIVE PLANS FOR THE JDL DURING BREZHNEV'S VISIT.

AT 1PM, 6/18/73 INDIVIDUALS WERE OBSERVED CONDUCTING A PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION IN THE AREA OF THE SMUN. BANNERS IDENTIFIED THEM AS MEMBERS OF THE QUEENS COUNCIL FOR SOVIET JEWRY. LITERATURE DISTRIBUTED BY THE GROUP INDICATE VARIOUS JEWISH GROUPS INCLUDING THE JDL PLAN TO CONTINUE THIS DEMONSTRATION WHICH WILL NOT CONCLUDE UNTIL BREZHNEV RETURNS TO RUSSIA.
