After seeing information on the news today about a red vehicle, [redacted] contacted the Oak Creek Police Department to report suspicious activity she witnessed. [redacted] D.B. SCHENKER trucking company, 330 East Mahn Court, Suite 300, Oak Creek, Wisconsin. SCHENKER is across the pond from the Sikh Temple in Oak Creek. On 07/23/2012 at 10:30 AM, [redacted] noticed a red SUV pull into the SCHENKER parking lot and drive around the back of the building where [redacted] could see the vehicle [redacted] It was a red, newer model 4-door SUV, possibly the size of an "Escalade", though she was not aware of the make or model. There was a single male driver, approximately 240 pounds, with facial hair and dark hair on his head. He was wearing long sleeves, possibly light purple in color. He did not have any passengers in the vehicle.

When he initially drove into the parking lot, he drove up to the dumpster and leaned over the passenger seat to take pictures of it through the passenger window. He then drove around the building two separate times, taking pictures on the back side of the SCHENKER building each time he drove around. [redacted] stated it looked as though his camera was pointed toward the top half of the building and the roof. The individual appeared to be taking pictures in a hurried manner. [redacted] stated that the front of the SCHENKER building is what faces the temple (from across the pond and through some trees.) [redacted] commented that taking pictures from behind the building where this individual was would not capture the Sikh Temple, but the suspicious activity alarmed her. [redacted] was not able to view the license plate or any other identifying information on the vehicle. b6 b7C

The store interior video was reviewed, starting at 5:00 PM on 08/03/2012. At approximately 5:35 PM, according to the recorded video time stamp, the individual described by [redacted] was located. After review of the UNSUB, it was determined he was not PAGE. The UNSUB in PILOT did have tattooed arms, although the UNSUB's hair was not as closely cut as PAGE's and the UNSUB appeared to have more weight in the abdomen compared to PAGE.

Officer [redacted] requested a copy of the video while the UNSUB was in the store. [redacted] agreed to provide a copy estimate to be ready at approximately 9:00 AM 08/08/2012. [redacted] stated he would contact Officer [redacted] when the video was recorded onto a DVD-ROM disk.

Also present for the interview was [redacted], an employee of [redacted] After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] was working at [redacted] on either Thursday, July 26 or Friday July 27, around 1:00 or 2:00 pm when a white male with goatee facial hair and driving a SUV stopped at the back of the store and unloaded 8 boxes of Compact Discs (CDs). The white male, who was about 5' 10" wearing a green t-shirt, unloaded the boxes by himself. [redacted] did not see anyone else in the SUV. In response to specific questions about visible tattoos, [redacted] did not recall seeing any. [redacted] described the SUV as dark colored, possibly black or dark maroon with no reflection. The SUV was older based on the way it looked with a 1990's Chevy Blazer type of hatch. [redacted] made eye contact with the male, but they did not speak. Another [redacted] employee, [redacted] pulled the boxes off of the loading dock as the white male placed them on the dock. [redacted] does not believe [redacted] took notice of the white male's appearance. The white male took about five minutes to unload the boxes and then left. [redacted] did not think she could positively identify the vehicle if she saw it in a photo. b6 b7C

After taking a break, [redacted] and two other employees, [redacted] began to go through the contents of the boxes. The boxes contained commercially manufactured CD's that [redacted] could sell. [redacted] estimated that about 50-60 percent of the CD's had home made labels made with pictures that had white supremacists overtones and were so offensive in nature that they could not be resold. The commercially manufactured CD's also had white supremacists photos and language. As [redacted] looked through the boxes she also found several other items.

[redacted] found some guitar cords used to plug into amplifiers. Three or four of the chords were loose and one was still in it's original packing. [redacted] also found 3 or 4 what she described as "flyer type" magazines printed on newspaper similar to "The Onion" or "Shepard Express". [redacted] described the content as weird. One of the magazines had a picture of a guy lying in sand with knives stabbed all over his body, including his eyes. There were some articles, but [redacted] did not read any.

[redacted] also found several photographs. Some of the photographs appeared to be typical Kodak photos of a group of males in a basement. Most of the males were bald with tattoos with their hands in the air in a Hitler salute. One of the photographs included a young boy whom [redacted] guessed to be about 8 years old who also had his hand in a Hitler salute. There were a couple of pictures that appeared to be of a band with similar looking males. The pictures included one of a crematory. There were additional pictures which looked like they were taken off of a television. Those pictures were of holocaust graves and two people being hung with a Nazi solider standing next to them.

The only items that [redacted] kept were the commercially manufactured CDs (approximately 56) and the guitar chords. All of the other items; home made CDs, photographs and newspaper flyers did not have any retail value and were thrown in the garbage. The dumpsters at the rear of the store are emptied each day.

SA [redacted] reviewed the commercially manufactured CDs and found that they appeared to contain music only. Six of the CD's were labeled "Definite Hate". Inside the CD cover was a photo of five males. One of the males in the photo was identified as WADE MICHAEL PAGE, through the comparison of tattoos using autopsy photos. An additional CD labeled "Final War: We Speak the Truth" contained a handwritten note on yellow paper in red marker. The note read "Wade, How are ya. Heres our new shirt too. [redacted] All seven CD's will be maintained in a 1A.

After watching news coverage on Monday 8/7, [redacted] saw a photo of PAGE. As the news coverage began to describe PAGE, she began to put two and two together and thought that PAGE could have been the male who dropped off the items described above. She notified her supervisor [redacted] who in turn contacted the FBI. [redacted] estimated the date of the drop off based on her vacation which she had taken the week prior. [redacted] confirmed through employment records that [redacted] was on vacation the week of July 16th.

[redacted] provided no further information and the interview was concluded at approximately 12:20 pm.

Prior to the leaving [redacted] SA [redacted] was introduced to another employee of named [redacted] is [redacted] had been previously interviewed by the FBI. [redacted] did not disclose in previous interviews that she saw PAGE at [redacted] approximately two weeks ago. [redacted] was coming out of the back with an arm full of clothes when she say PAGE in the men's clothing. PAGE waved to [redacted] who replied by saying "hey Wade". Thanks I got them. Just curious does you system photograph the car. We are trying to determine if any of the systems captured pictures of any passengers in his vehicle. Is it also possible to pull the data for the 3700 block of E. Holmes Avenue from 07/15/2012 to present. We'd like to see who was parked on that block near his house. Again, we are hoping to

On a side note.....is it possible to query your parking tickets for the 3700 block of E. Holmes. I'd be interested in any parking tickets issued there from 07/15/2012 to present. I would think any overnight guests wouldn't have purchased parking permits and may have been cited. That may also help identify associates.

I am sorry to bother you guys with this, but they are running down any and all possible means to Thanks for the help.

The CCTV recording indicated that WADE MICHAEL PAGE (PAGE), with short, dark hair and a dark goatee, wearing a grey polo shirt with light colored art or writing on the rear, khaki brown pants, white shoes with black accents, and dark-rimmed glasses, entered the Gamestop at approximately 5:08:39PM CST, sold his Xbox360 console and games, and exited the store at approximately 5:14:49PM CST. Page appeared to be waiting patiently while the transaction was completed. Page entered and exited the Gamestop alone and did not converse with anyone besides [redacted] during the sale of his games and console.

Per [redacted], PAGE did not care about the dollar amount that he received for the Xbox360 console nor for the games that he sold for cash. Most people complain that the trade-in values for games and consoles are too low at Gamestop and attempt to barter with the Gamestop employees. [redacted] confirmed that he was the employee [redacted] with PAGE. PAGE did not notice anything out of the ordinary with PAGE for the duration of the transaction.
