NATION OF ISLAM,
formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

On July 10, 1963, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by ALLAH, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon".

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

NATION OF ISLAM (con't)

On July 10, 1963, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his program.

MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLE OF ISLAM NO. 11
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, also referred to as the Nation of Islam (NOI)

On March 18, 1954, a source stated that the Nation of Islam (NOI) had become active in Boston, Massachusetts, and knew that it had held meetings as early as November, 1953.

On May 31, 1963, a second source stated that the Temple of Islam in Boston, Massachusetts, is known as Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 11, or Muhammad's Mosque No. 11. It is located at 35 Intervale Street, Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts, and is the local branch of Muhammad's Temple of Islam whose headquarters are in Chicago, Illinois.

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) and Minister of NOI Mosque #7, New York, who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in times of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principles." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

During an appearance over KYW - Television, Cleveland, Ohio, on April 7, 1964, MALCOLM X stated that the MMI does not stand for integration, but for complete freedom, justice, and equality for Negroes. He stated that Islam was the religious philosophy of the MMI, while the political, economic and social philosophy was black nationalism.

On May 15, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York City, where they were established on March 16, 1964.

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM
MOSQUE #7, NEW YORK CITY

On May 3, 1963, a source advised that the Nation of Islam (NOI) affiliate in New York City is known as Mosque #7, also known as Temple #7, and is located at 102 West 116th Street, New York City. Mosque #7 is a part of the NOI headed by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, with headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. Mosque #7 follows the policies and programs as set forth by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD.

The date Mosque #7 originated in New York City is not known.

However, in connection with the origin of Mosque #7, it should be noted that in 1953, a second source advised that there was a temple of the NOI (known to source then as the Muslim Cult of Islam) in New York City located at 135th Street and Seventh Avenue, as far back as 1947.

Enclosed for Chicago, Los Angeles and Phoenix is a Xerox copy of an article which appeared in the March 9, 1968, edition of "The New York Times," page 23.

The above-mentioned article indicates that two film companies in Hollywood are currently preparing to start production on two separate films on the life of subject, now deceased, who is better known as Malcolm X. Columbia Pictures, which owns the movie rights to the book "The Autobiography of Malcolm X," will produce one of the movies to be released under that title. The script is being written by James Baldwin. The second movie is being produced by 20th Century-Fox and will be entitled "Malcolm X." The script for the latter is being written by Louis Lomax. All offices have previously been alerted under the "Nation of Islam, IS - NOI" caption to a possible movie on the life of Malcolm X since it is anticipated that such a film would be detrimental to the Nation of Islam and its leader, Elijah Muhammad.

EX-105 REC-74 100-399321-444

Los Angeles is requested to discreetly contact sources at the above two studios to confirm the information in the article and to determine details relative to these two films. Los Angeles should be particularly alert for indications that the Bureau will be mentioned or portrayed in either movie. Los Angeles should obtain advanced copies of these scripts in order that the interest of the Bureau may be protected. Handle promptly and furnish the results in a form suitable for dissemination to the Bureau and all interested offices.

SUBJECT: MALCOLM K. LITTLE INTERNAL SECURITY - MUSLIM MOSQUE, INC.

Racial informants have previously advised of the possible production of a movie on the life of Malcolm K. Little, a former leading black nationalist who was better known as Malcolm X. Malcolm X was formerly an official in the Nation of Islam (NOI) before breaking from that group in 1964, at which time he formed his own two organizations, the Muslim Mosque, Inc., and the Organization of Afro-American Unity. He was assassinated on 2/21/65 and three members of the NOI have been convicted of his murder. Since then, Malcolm X has become a "saint" to the black nationalist movement.

The 3/9/68 edition of "The New York Times" contained an article indicating that two separate films on the life of Malcolm X are scheduled to be produced by two major Hollywood studios. Production is not expected before the late Summer of 1968.

Columbia Pictures will produce "The Autobiography of Malcolm X," based on the book of the same title, of which they own the movie rights. The movie script is reportedly being written by James Baldwin, a well-known Negro writer [redacted] 67C

The second movie, to be entitled "Malcolm X," is being produced by 20th Century-Fox and the movie script is reportedly being written by Louis Lomax, a well-known Negro author.

The above carried an article headed "Rosenberg & Worth Plan 'Lenny Bruce'". In substance the article revealed that the Lenny Bruce story was to be added to the production schedule of Marvin Worth with Stewart Rosenburg as Director. The article further explained that Marvin Worth was said to produce Malcolm X at Columbia with James Baldwin as writer of the script. Negotiations were under way for a director for the Malcolm X film and for a writer for the Bruce story. From present indications, both projects may go simultaneously this fall.

This memorandum presents a review of captioned book published in 1965 by Merit Publishers which is being placed in the Bureau Library.

SYNOPSIS:

b7c [redacted] George Breitman, [redacted] traces the life of Malcolm X from childhood to his violent death in 1965. The author shows how Malcolm X was introduced to the Nation of Islam headed by Elijah Muhammad while in prison and how, after released from prison, he devoted his time to speaking in favor of the Nation of Islam and helped transform the Black Muslims to a well-known organization. In 1964, he split with Muhammad's organization because of the growth of militancy and mass action in the Negro community and formed his own organization known as Muslim Mosque, Incorporated.

BOOK REVIEW

The author describes the life of Malcolm X from his childhood to his assassination in February of 1965. After the death of his parents, he lived at state institutions and boarding homes until the age of 15 when he went to live with his sister in Boston, Massachusetts, and drifted into a life of crime including gambling, drugs, hustling, and burglary. In 1946 at the age of 20, he was convicted of burglary and sentenced to ten years in prison.

During his incarceration which continued for six years, he was introduced to the Nation of Islam headed by Elijah Muhammad. During this period he educated himself and learned to speak and debate. The author described him as the most respected debater in the country. After parole, he traveled to Chicago, Illinois; met Elijah Muhammad; was accepted into the Nation of Islam; and in a few short years his work, through his plain direct speaking style, helped transform the Black Muslims from a virtually unnoticed to a well-known organization.

While in the Black Muslims, Malcolm X traveled throughout the country as Muhammad's troubleshooter and came to know the ghetto areas nationally. According to the author, Malcolm X became attuned to the needs and wants of a growing multitude of black people looking for a new road. In 1964 he decided his place was with the Negro masses rather than with Muhammad's organization.

He split with Muhammad's organization and undertook the difficult task of building a new movement based on the black unity of all Negroes regardless of their religion and philosophies as long as they were ready to fight for freedom. His new organization was known as Muslim Mosque, Incorporated. He traveled to Africa and the Middle East to mobilize African support behind a project to put the United States Government on trial in the United Nations for continued oppression of the American Negroes. He favored Negroes organizing politically, electing their own candidates, and driving "black stooges" from office in the major political parties. Malcolm X was revolutionary and became increasingly more anticapitalist and prosocialist. He read the Socialist Workers Party publication, "The Militant," and urged other Negroes to do likewise.

No mention is made of the FBI in the book.

SUBJECT: BOOK REVIEW
"THE SPEECHES OF MALCOLM X AT HARVARD"
BY ARCHIE EPPS
RACIAL MATTERS

This is a review of captioned book published in 1969 by Apollo Editions. The book is being placed in the Bureau Library.

b7c [redacted] Epps is Assistant Dean of Harvard College. He is described as founder and adviser of "The Harvard Journal of Negro Affairs."

Book, 191 pages, divided into two parts, latter part being verbatim texts of speeches by Malcolm X on 3/24/61, 3/18/64, and 12/16/64. First 112 pages are analysis by Epps of the speeches in effort to determine personal motivations and goals of Malcolm X (true name Malcolm Little). Epps noted first speech given at time when Malcolm X was deeply involved in Nation of Islam (NOI) and was dedicated follower of NOI head Elijah Muhammad. His remarks showed Black Muslim view of the white man as a lowly animal but freedom of the black man from yoke of white man was placed in terms of redemption by God. Shortly before second speech, Malcolm X resigned from the NOI because of disillusionment. In the second speech, he appeared no longer to believe to rely upon God to save the black man from the white man but presented the Negro people as both judge and executioner of the whites. The final speech was made shortly after he had returned from an extensive trip to Africa and just two months before his assassination. The author concludes that Malcolm X saw himself and the Negroes as exiles in a society which was a jungle for them, threatened by daily violence. He was a mixture of prophet, escapist and revolutionary.

No mention of the FBI is made in the book.

SUBJECT: BOOK REVIEW
"The Assassination of Malcolm X: Unanswered Questions And The Trial"
By George Breitman and Herman Porter
RACIAL MATTERS

This is a review of captioned booklet published in 1969 by Merit Publishers which is being placed in the Bureau library.

REVIEW OF BUREAU FILES:

Breitman is [redacted] a former editor of "The Militant," a publication of the SWP. Porter is [redacted] a writer for "The Militant." [redacted]

BOOK REVIEW:

This booklet consists of 12 articles which appeared in "The Militant" between July, 1965, and March, 1966. Of the three subjects arrested, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Malcolm X the authors claim that one was undoubtedly guilty but he was not proved to be a member of the Black Muslims. The other two subjects who were Black Muslims were not a part of the assassination and were framed by the police in order to show Malcolm's death was caused by the rival organization. Breitman writes in an introductory note "Readers should also understand that if the New York police were involved in the assassination (and nothing said or done at the trial, or in the four years since the crime, has absolved them of this charge), that involvement could not have been on their own initiative, but must have resulted from the decision and direction of the Government in Washington, that is, the CIA."

MENTION OF THE FBI:

The FBI is mentioned on pages 5, 6, 9, 11, 22, and 29. On the first three listed pages, mention is made of the Bureau in connection with its investigations and development of informants

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY - MALCOLM X
MAY 19, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTERS

67C

Malcolm K. Little, better known as Malcolm X, a black militant leader, was born 5/19/25. He was killed in New York City (NYC) 2/21/65.

Because many of today's black revolutionaries regard Malcolm X as a hero and a martyr, the possibility exists that the anniversary of his birthday may be marked by them with acts of violence. As an example, last year two NYC police officers were seriously wounded in a machine gun attack by black assailants the night of 5/19. Anonymous letters claiming credit for the attack linked the shooting to "Malcolm's Birthday."

Bring this to the attention of all Agents handling black extremist matters so that they may be alert for any information concerning possible violence in connection with Malcolm X's birthday. Instruct black extremist informants to be particularly alert to obtain and report such information.

If any such information developed, promptly advise Bureau under appropriate caption and handle in accordance with existing instructions.

SUBJECT: BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY - MALCOLM X
MAY 19, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTERS

Purpose of this memorandum is to secure approval of a letter to all field offices instructing they be alert for information regarding possible violence to mark birthday anniversary of Malcolm X, born 5/19/25.

Malcolm K. Little, better known as Malcolm X, an exconvict and black militant leader, was at one time a national leader of the black separatist Nation of Islam (NOI). He broke with the NOI in 1964, set up his own organization known as the Muslim Mosque Incorporated, and developed a substantial following. On 2/21/65 he was shot to death while addressing a rally in New York City (NYC). Three Negroes, described as Black Muslims, were later convicted of his murder.

Malcolm X is regarded as a hero and a martyr by many black revolutionaries and the possibility exists his birthday may be marked by them with acts of violence. Last year, for example, two NYC police officers were seriously wounded in a machine gun attack by black assailants the night of 5/19 and anonymous letters claiming credit for the attack linked the shooting to "Malcolm's Birthday."

While no information has been received indicating any specific plans for violence to mark Malcolm X's birthday, it is deemed advisable to instruct the field to be alert to any such information and to target black extremist informants to be particularly alert to obtain and report such information.

ACTION: That attached letter to all field offices in line with above be approved.

The S.O.U.L. School was formed in July, 1968, in Baltimore, Maryland. Its objective is to enlighten black people through education and action and has printed literature advocating black revolution. Generally, African or Arabic names are used and members are forbidden to drink alcoholic beverages, use dope or eat pork.

THE BLACK UNITED FRONT

The Black United Front is a federation of Black people who have banned to promote the interests of the Black Community collectively and aggressively. The Black United Front recognizes the divisiveness of the power structure when it deals with Black organizations; however, the Front offers a platform by which the Black Community can come together to promote unity and to assemble points of view relevent to the liberation of Black people from oppression and exploitation. We shall chart courses of action toward issues that will motivate the Black Community to meaningful answers and alternatives.

Without the existence of such a Black United Front, the Black Community will continue to represent an image to destroy the prevailing system and attitudes which for so long have kept the Black masses in subjugation, degradation and humiliation.

BLACK STUDENT UNION

The Black Student Union is a group of high school and college age individuals, which was formed under the auspices of the Soul School, 522 N. Fremont, Baltimore, Maryland. The BSU is directed by officials at the SS; has its headquarters at the Soul School; and its classes are conducted at the SS.

b7D

[redacted] advised that members of the Ujamma Shop, Soul School, and other brothers presented a play showing how the black man was exploited by the white slave master through out civilization. The white man came to Africa, killed, raped, and robbed the black man of his land and possessions. He then brought them into bondage to America. These same problems went on until the black man was so called "freed" after the Civil War. This so called freedom turned into a political and economical stage where the white man still controlled the life of the black brother. Next the black man is forced to go to war to fight a man who has done him no harm. When the black brothers reached the war zone he finds that the man who he has been told to fight calls him brother. Then the black brother returns home to find out that the white man has enslaved his brothers and sisters by filling the community with dope. The black brothers should form a force and kill the white dope peddler and clean up his community.

There was a group of singers called the "Vandals" who the audience liked very much. The Super Simba Boot dancers of New Jersey performed African military marches directed by a leader, who spoke Swahili.

The main speaker was OWUSU SADAUKAI (master teacher) from Malcolm X University. He informed the audience it was "nation" time and all black brothers must march in the African Liveration Demonstration in Washington, D.C. The purpose of the march is to protect the exploitation of the blacks by white nations. SADAUKAI stated that he fought against white with black brothers and sisters and saw that most of the military equipment came from America. America has raised corporations and has billions of dollars invested in the lands of Africa and do not wish to see the black man free to own his own land because it would bankrupt his holdings. All of the persons attending the festival were invited to attend the celebration of Malcolm X's birthday to be held at Druid Hill Park, Sunday, May 21, 1972.

b7D

On May 22, 1972, [redacted] advised that a celebration for Malcolm X's birthday was held in Druid Hill Park on May 21, 1972. This festival sponsored by the same groups that sponsored Friday nights festival lasted all day. African dances were performed by the young brothers and sisters. African art was shown, drums were played and refreshments were sold. All those who attended were urged to travel to Washington, D.C. for the African Liberation Day Demonstration march to be held May 27, 1972.

b7D

On May 22, 1972, [redacted] advised that no information came to the attention of [redacted] concerning any incidents which arose out of the Malcolm X festival which was held in Baltimore on May 19-21, 1972.

RE: RALLY AND MARCH IN HONOR OF MALCOLM X, FRANKLIN PARK, COLUMBUS, OHIO MAY 19, 1972

On May 17, 1972, a first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a rally was scheduled for 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., May 19, 1972, in Franklin Park, Columbus, Ohio, in honor of Malcolm X. The rally is sponsored by Afro-Am, a black student organization at Ohio State University (OSU), Columbus, Ohio; Afro Set, a black extremist organization headquartered at Cleveland, Ohio, with a branch in Columbus, Ohio; Black Man's Development Center, a self-helped drug cure organization, Columbus, Ohio; and other interested blacks.

AFRO-AM

The Afro-Am was officially recognized as an organization at Ohio State University (OSU) during March, 1970, after black students participated in a demonstration and presented demands to the Vice President of OSU.

The organization's stated purpose is to govern all black organizations on the OSU campus, and to act as an information center for all black students.

On March 13, 1970, OSU obtained a common pleas injunction prohibiting any further disruption by the students who engaged in campus disruptive tactics by that date. This injunction included the Afro-Am.

AFRO SET,

The Afro Set, also known as Black Nationalist Party For Self-Defense, a black extremist organization, was founded in Cleveland during the summer of 1967 by HARLLEL B. JONES, who refers to himself as the Prime Minister, and who is the absolute leader of this group. The Afro Set has as its primary goal, complete takeover and control of the black community. It teaches hatred of white people and outside authority. The Afro Set is headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, and has a chapter in Columbus, Ohio.

Source advised that one of the prime organizers of the rally is Charles O. Ross, Former Head of the Black Studies Division of Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Source advised that scheduled to speak at the rally were Howard Fuller, President, Malcolm X Liberation University, Greensboro, North Carolina; Sonia Sanchez, a black poetess; and Charles O. Ross. Source advised that participants in the rally were scheduled to march through the East Side of Columbus, Ohio from the Park between 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. Source stated that black Columbus high school students were scheduled to act as marshals during the march and rally. Source further advised that there were no plans for any type of violence connected with this march or rally.

RE: RALLY AND MARCH IN HONOR OF MALCOLM X, FRANKLIN PARK,
COLUMBUS, OHIO
MAY 19, 1972

MALCOLM X LIBERATION UNIVERSITY

Malcolm X Liberation University is described as an institution formed in 1969 at Durham, North Carolina, now located at Greensboro, North Carolina, to train young black people in the skills necessary to take over the institutions of the United States. The school is to produce black militants with the capacity of extremist acts with their loyalty primarily to black people regardless of the nation in which they live.

On May 17, 1972, [redacted] advised that his sources indicated that the march and rally would be peaceful and confirmed the above information. Sources advised that a number of black high school students were expected to skip school and attend the rally and march.

On May 19, 1972, the first confidential source advised that the rally in honor of Malcolm X sponsored by the above organizations began in Franklin Park, May 19, 1972. Itwas advised that three hundred fifty (350) black students marched to Franklin Park from Linden-McKinley High School, Columbus, Ohio, and joined approximately five hundred (500) blacks, many being junior high and high school age, gathered in the park. Source advised that there was a festive atmosphere at the rally and there were no plans for any type of violence. Howard Fuller, President, Malcolm X Liberation University, Greensboro, North Carolina, addressed the crowd along with Charles O. Ross, Former Head of the Black Studies Division at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Sonia Sanchez, black poetess scheduled to attend the rally, cancelled her appearance.

Source further advised that Fuller addressed the crowd at the rally and stated he recently spent eight weeks with Rhodesian freedom fighters in Africa and that black people must unite behind their African brothers. Fuller claimed that the police of the United States are in collusion with black drug pushers to prevent blacks from being involved in revolutionary activities. Fuller urged the crowd to travel to Washington, D.C. for African Liberation Day scheduled for May 27, 1972. Source also advised that the rally marched from the park through the East Side of Columbus, Ohio returning to the park and dispersing at 10:00 p.m., on May 19, 1972, without incident.

b7D [redacted]

b7D [redacted] On May 19, 1972, [redacted] advised that the rally in Franklin Park in honor of Malcolm X, Columbus, Ohio, was attended by approximately one thousand (1,000) blacks and that there were no arrests or incidents reported in connection with this rally.

REVIEW OF BUREAU FILES

Malcolm X, (true name - Malcolm Little) was Harlem hoodlum and ex-convict who became Muslim while imprisoned. He rapidly rose to become Nation of Islam (NOI) minister and major spokesman until split with NOI in March, 1964, and formed Muslim Mosque, Inc., (a quasi-religious, politically-oriented black nationalist group), and Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), (a militant civil rights action group aligned with all African descendants). He was assassinated, at age 39, by three Muslims 2/21/65 while addressing 400 OAAU followers in New York City (NYC). He has since been considered hero and martyr by many revolutionaries.

Editor Benjamin Goodman (true name - Augustus Benjamin Goodman) is Negro, aged 40, former NOI Assistant Minister, who defected from NOI with Malcolm X and was his primary assistant.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller
Re: Book Review "The End of White World Supremacy"
100-399321

These speeches were delivered during period 12/62-12/63, the final year of Malcolm X's NOI affiliation, and all except one were presented in NYC.

The first and longest speech entitled "Black Man's History" was presented at Malcolm X's NOI Mosque No. 7 in Harlem 12/23/62. It includes rambling, grossly distorted, anti-white view of history emphasizing blacks' oppression by "white devils."

NEW YORK, NY

"The Black Revolution," the second speech, was delivered at Adam Clayton Powell's Abyssinian Baptist Church, NYC. Text relates view only lasting solution to race problem is complete racial separation. Malcolm X proposed that U. S. should give blacks land in proportion to population ratio or send blacks back to Africa and provide their subsistance there for 25 years.

"The Old Negro and the New Negro," the third speech, is actually Malcolm X's comments during appearance on Philadelphia radio station, Fall 1963, following address at University of Pennsylvania. Comments include his views on decline of European colonialism, awakening of "dark" world, and development of black pride and self-reliance.

The last speech, "God's Judgement of White America," (subtitled "The Chickens are Coming Home to Roost"), was delivered at Manhattan Center, NYC, on 12/3/63. He declares that decline of U. S. as world power is God's punishment for enslavement of 22 million blacks and, unless whites "repent," further retribution will occur. NEW YORK, NY

MALCOLM X SPEAKS

Young Socialists forum, 12.15 p.m., U.S.C.R. (Town), July 30th, features a taped speech on "The Black Revolution", given in New York 10 years ago.

New facts that to come out in the light of the Watergate scandal have revealed strong implications that the FBI was involved in the assassinations of two of the most prominent leaders of the Black movement in the United States, Malcolm X and Martin Luther King.

The new evidence consists of seven previously top secret memorandums issued by J. Edgar Hoover between 1961 and 1970. Xerox copies of these memorandums, (which outline a government plot to "expose, disrupt, misdirect or otherwise neutralise" the Black liberation movement), were released by the Government in March in response to a court order. Most references to individuals and organisations are blacked out or covered over, however by counting number of letters and spaces made by the typewriter it's not hard to figure out who is being referred to.

One of the FBI's main aims was to prevent the emergence of a cohesive and radical leadership such as that which Malcolm X may have been able to give had he not been slain so soon. The circumstances of X's death (and also King's) have never been fully or satisfactorily clarified. This fact and the publication of the FBI memos led to the allegation of Rev. Jesse Jackson (President of Operation PUSH, a leading Black organisation in Chicago, and also a former top aide of King's) that "the FBI figured prominently in the assassination of Malcolm X, Martin Luther King and Fred Hampton".

Jackson himself was an eyewitness to King's murder and had described to reporters how the police, running towards him after the shooting, had asked him where the shot came from. Jackson pointed out that it came from right behind where they were running from . . . they were coming from where the shot had been fired!

Malcolm X was murdered at the Audubon building in Harlem, 1965. One of the three men convicted of the murder admitted in court to being part of a group of hired assassins but refused to disclose who had hired them. Nine years later the loose ends are still left dangling.

Malcolm X represented the dynamic and revolutionary wing of the Black movement. Unlike the other wing — epitomised by King — he evolved to a position where he did not think that Blacks would achieve equal rights let alone liberation by merely reforming the American system. This may be a position held fairly widely amongst radical Blacks today, but ten years ago it was a pretty daring thing for a Black to say. Malcolm X was [illegible] Black nationalist, whose ideas were not only [illegible] and upholders of racism, but also [illegible] and socialists [illegible] the [illegible] Party and the [illegible] line that he was cut down before he had time to formulate all his ideas into a cohesive whole.

Malcolm X emerged from the Black Muslims of Elijah Muhammed but developed significant differences with Muhammed and left one year before his death. That last year he expressed his own independent and evolving views rather than those of the Muslims. He set about developing them to a final outcome, drawing together the already existing ideas he had and additions and modifications from new experience and insight.

The idea of the white person as the enemy was the beginning of political wisdom for Blacks who had illusions that the white racist power structure would hand them freedom on a golden platter. The idea that Blacks had to fight for their freedom was an indespensable first step. As Malcolm X pointed out time after time Blacks needed to depend on their own organised strength, their own independent movement, aims and programme. After this stage had been reached, where they were an organised force, then they might look for other sectors of society including working class whites, to ally with, making the right kind of alliances. And by the right kind of alliance he did not mean working in the Democratic Party, as many Black liberals and radicals have been doing. He regarded the Democratic Party with all the contempt it deserves, and saw that it was a backward step for Black militants to support that party.

He began to look into the root causes of racism and to see the possibility of its elimination. He began to study the nature of capitalism as a system — always from the point of view of how the interests of Black people could be protected and promoted. From this study — especially from the thinking initiated through his discussions with African revolutionaries — he came to the conclusion that the capitalist system was, and still is, the cause of racism, and that its impossible to have capitalism without having racism. Therefore socialism should seriously be considered as an objective by oppressed nationalities. While he was prevented from any further development due to his death, it can at the very least be said that Malcolm X was pro socialist and anti capitalist, which was quite a thing for the times. It was his utter dedication, his honesty and his commitment to relentlessly fight racism which propelled him in the direction of socialism.

Malcolm X became to the Black Liberation movement what Eldridge C saver called "the standard" and "the model".

Because of their support of his ideas the Socialist Workers Party became the chief circulators of the Malcolm X material, and hold the rights of many of his works and speeches as well as source material [illegible]

Progressive Labour. The only left wing groupings to support him were the Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialist Alliance (the Trotskyist party and youth group). Malcolm X once drew an interesting line between the radical groups. When he said, "If you love revolution, you'll love Black nationalism". The Communist Party and the Maoists loved neither!

It is ironic that at the time of his being murdered virtually nothing of what he said was in print, (apart from some articles in the SWP paper, "The Militant", and twisted reports in the establishment media), but since then thousands of people have read and heard his views, many of whom were probably unaware of him when he was alive.

His work was the major influence on a whole wave of Black militants, including the founders of the Black Panther Party, although they later went off in a very different direction to the path which Malcolm X pointed to. Thus it was a great loss to the entire Black population

The Canterbury University Young Socialists have managed to get a tape of a speech that Malcolm X gave on April 8th, 1964 at the Militant Labour Forum organised by the SWP. The tape is called "The Black Revolution" and shows his ability as an orator, as well as Black leader, second to none. Anyone who has read any of his speeches, such as in the collection "Malcolm X Speaks", can feel the power of the man's words.

NOW YOU TO HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO HEAR THIS SPEECH BY THE MOST DYNAMIC POLITICAL LEADER, ORATOR AND THINKER THAT THE BLACK LIBERATION MOVEMENT HAS YET PRODUCED.

THE YOUNG SOCIALISTS WILL BE PLAYING IT AT A FORUM IN THE UPSTAIRS COMMON ROOM, TOWNSITE, ON JULY 30 TH, AT 12.15.

In addition, it was pointed out to him that we have experienced an extremely heavy backlog of requests as generated by the recent amendments to the FOIA and although we are attempting to process these requests to the best of our ability, there would necessarily be some delay in furnishing some information to him.

SHABAZZ AL HAJJ MALIK EL

Dear Mr. Webster:

I have recently received a petition signed by many of my constituents who are urging a new investigation into the assassination of Al-Hajji Malik Shabazz (Malcolm X). A copy of the petition is enclosed.

Deceased

According to the petition, new evidence has come to light which identifies all of the persons involved in the assassination and exonerates two of the three men convicted of the crime. In consequence, my constituents urge a new investigation of the assassination.

I would respectfully request that the FBI look into the statements made in the petition and inform me of its findings. I also would like to know if the FBI is currently conducting, or planning to conduct, a new investigation in the assassination of Al-Hajji Malik Shabazz (Malcolm X).

In advance, I appreciate your attention to this matter.

With kind personal regards.

PETI

The undersigned citizens of the United States Respectfully request that you use your best efforts to have the Congress investigate the assassination of Al-Hajji Malik Shabazz (Malcolm X) on February 21, 1965. We understand that there is new evidence identifying all of the persons involved in the assassination and exonerating two of the three men convicted of the crime, namely Muhammad Abdel Aziz (Norman 3X Butler), and Khalil Islam (Thomas 15X Johnson), and that this material has already been furnished to you. The House Committee on Assassinations investigated only the deaths of John F. Kennedy, and Martin Luther King, Jr.. In view of the new evidence relating to the killing of Al-Hajji Malik Shabazz (Malcolm X), it is high time that a thorough investigation of his death took place so that two innocent men, who have already spent more than fourteen (14) years in jail, can win their freedom.
