Title: RICHARD BARRETT
NATIONALIST MOVEMENT;
AOT-DT

Synopsis: To provide information and open preliminary inquiry regarding white supremacist rally/protest at Jackson, Mississippi.

Preliminary Inquiry Instituted: 12/20/2002, set to expire 06/16/2003.

Reference: 266-BH-0 Serial 147

Details: A preliminary investigation (PI) is being initiated based upon information set forth below which indicates that captioned subject may possibly be involved in criminal activity. This investigation seeks to identify the alleged criminal activity and prevent any associated terrorist activity pursuant to the Attorney General Guidelines, Part II, Section B(1) authorized on 05/08/2002.

On 12/19/2002, a Birmingham source reported that members of the National Alliance, Federation of Nazi Party, and Ku Klux Klan would be attending a rally/protest, organized by RICHARD BARRETT, scheduled for the afternoon of 12/20/2002, in downtown Jackson, Mississippi. Based upon these groups propensity for criminal activity and the fact that previous protests, organized by BARRETT, have resulted in violent civil disturbances, Jackson initiated this PI.

On 12/20/2002, RICHARD BARRETT, along with seven unknown individuals, staged a silent rally/protest in downtown

Jackson to condemn Senator Trent Lott for apologizing for remarks made during a birthday celebration for Senator Strom Thurmond. Demonstrators situated themselves at a busy downtown intersection and held signs with phrases such as "Strom was right", "Down with the black caucus", "No affirmative action", "Trent is a traitor", and "Trent is toast".

Members of Jackson Division's JTTF, along with members of the Jackson Police Department and Mississippi State Capital Police, monitored this hour long event and noted no disturbances or counter demonstration.

For information, BARRETT, a former Mississippi gubernatorial and congressional candidate, is a local attorney and author best known for defending white supremacist and segregationist organizations. He is the founder of a white supremacist/ultra-nationalist group called the Nationalist Movement. His website, nationalist.org, has already taken credit for Lott's resignation as majority leader.

BARRETT is further described as follows:

Synopsis: To document contact with captioned subject and close case.

Details: On 03/06/2003, Writer, along with SSA [redacted] contacted BARRETT at one of his residences, 154 South Sunset Terrace, Jackson, Mississippi, in an attempt to establish a dialogue with respect to several recent white supremacist rallies he has orchestrated. BARRETT initially refused to speak with agents; however, he ultimately spoke with agents for approximately 15 minutes concerning his views on free speech issues as well as his right leaning interpretations of the U.S. Constitution.

Prior to departing, BARRETT asked if agents could help facilitate the issuance of a travel visa he had recently applied for to allow him passage to Iraq. When asked what business he had in Iraq, BARRETT guardedly advised that he felt the American people were not being adequately represented by the present administration.

The next day, 03/07/2003, BARRETT made reference to agents' visit (by name) on the front page of his www.nationalist.org web site with a hyperlink captioned "Feds Target Mission to Iraq". This hyperlink opened an article titled Feds Try to Stymie Iraq Mission, Barrett Persists in Humanitarian Journey, in which BARRETT, mingled among other propagandistic statements, advises that the Bush Administration instructed the FBI to contact BARRETT with regard to his application for an Iraqi visa.
