Re: ALFRED SARANT
ESPIONAGE - R

SARANT LABORATORIES, INC.

On August 31, 1950 DAVID GREENGLASS was interviewed by SA LEO H. FRUTKIN. At that time DAVID GREENGLASS recalled that about September or October 1946, while he was associated with the G & R Engineering Company, New York City, JULIUS ROSENBERG told him that a mutual friend of JOEL BARR and JULIUS ROSENBERG had at that time given to JULIUS ROSENBERG an Atlas lathe and Buffalo drill press, which that individual had owned. JULIUS ROSENBERG did not identify this individual to DAVID GREENGLASS, but told DAVID that the unknown individual had formerly used the lathe and drill press at a little laboratory which the unknown individual had operated. DAVID GREENGLASS was of the opinion that this laboratory had not been in the unknown individual's home, but had probably been in a store. JULIUS ROSENBERG told DAVID that this man gave the lathe and drill press to him because the man had to go up-state to work. This lathe and drill press were installed at the G & R Engineering Company and were later installed at the Machine Products Company, which succeeded the G & R Engineering Company.

DAVID GREENGLASS also advised that he does not recall ever seeing this individual himself. He further stated that the following persons might be able to furnish information as to the identity of the unknown individual or of the location of the laboratory from which these machines had come: (1) BERNARD GREENGLASS, brother of DAVID GREENGLASS; (2) ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, residing at Knickerbocker Village, former partner of G & R Engineering Company.

DAVID GREENGLASS also advised that there was a possibility that these machines had been transported from the unknown individual's laboratory to the G & R Engineering Company by Sherdel Trucking Company, which is located on Delancey Street between Sheriff Street and Columbia Street, New York City.

DAVID GREENGLASS also recalled that while the G & R Engineering Company was still in existence, JOEL BARR came in a few times to use the lathe to make some bushings for a fishing rod or something of that nature. DAVID GREENGLASS also recalled that JOEL BARR used to putter at a bench in the rear of the G & R shop at what seemed to be a radio chassis. DAVID GREENGLASS pointed out that this bench also came from the aforementioned unknown individual who gave JULIUS ROSENBERG the lathe and drill press. DAVID GREENGLASS stated that JOEL BARR was not employed by G & R Engineering Company. DAVID GREENGLASS was unable to describe in greater detail just what JOEL BARR was working on in connection with the radio chassis.

AT GODEFFROY, N.Y.

Mrs. Louisa Berglund, Postmistress, advised that Max Resnick operates a Gulf gas station, rooming house, & 4 or 5 bungalows on route 209.

He has been in Godeffroy over 18 years. He is approximately 60 years of age, a Russian Jew, with 3 sons, Israel (employed P.O. in Florida, Sidney (Eastern Air Lines, Newark) and Alexander the younger who helps his father. There is also a daughter, Mrs Helen Sonnenshein who resides in NYC.

Resnick also operates a place in Florida during winter months.

He does not do much business here, is boycotted because of his sharp business practices.

[redacted]

About 2 years ago Resnick tried to mail a letter to Russia. Mrs. Berglund would not accept it because it was not written in English.

Resnick took the letter & never brought it back to the P.O.

Resnick has never been known to have any connection with anything Communistic.

Omar & Alexander Resnick looked at all pictures, with no identifications being made.

They stated that in 1948 they rented the big house to two sisters Ann and Adele Bouillion (phonetic). The house was used as a tourist home.

The sisters were communists, they stated to the Resnick's that the Russian form of govt. was the best in the world, that Joe Stalin was the greatest leader, and that the 5 year plan are the only things that would save the world.

The sisters used to live in Resnick's place in Florida, 52 S.E. 6th St, Miami, and Adele worked in the Children's Cardiac Hospital, around 38th St, Miami, Fla. She was a dietitian or nurse.

The sisters used Resnick's phone until Resnick complained about the highest theses.

Thereafter the sisters had their own phone put in (around Aug 1948)

It is noted that Miss Evelyn Naylor, Southern States Telephone Co, 164 Pike St, Port Jervis, NY has no record of this alleged phone.

(Spelling of Boullion may be in error to account for negative results at Phone Co.)

Resnick heard that the sisters are now in Canada & have relatives there.

Mrs. Berglund, Postmistress, was re-contacted and she advised that the Boullion sisters leased Resnick's place for the summer of 1947.

She checked with her daughter Barbara, who was of the same opinion.

A search for a forwarding address for the sisters was negative.

failed to recognize any of them as having stayed at Kozy Korners. Mr Swan recognized the picture of Rosenberg as similar to one which appeared in the New York Times at the time of his arrest.

The Swans maintain a very poor register which dates back to about 1934 and was also used by the previous owner. They have operated Kozy Korners for about eight years. A review of this register failed to produce any names similar to those of the people whose photographs were displayed.

The Swans are Greek Arthodox Catholics and cater mostly to Polish trade.

Reimemo of SA James P. Lee, 7/26/50, NYC.

Records of Seward Park High School, Essex and Grand Streets, New York City, reflect only one graduate named PEARL GOLD between January, 1931 and January, 1944. She was born 9/30/19, daughter of LOUIS GOLD. She was admitted to school 9/11/33 and graduated June, 1936, having taken a commercial course. Her address at time of entrance is shown as 61 Montgomery Street, but a later address is given as 24 Attorney Street. Her IQ is [redacted] her scholastic record appears [redacted]

School records for the same period further contain the following: ROSALIND GOLD, born 1/28/17, daughter of Louis, 61 Montgomery Street, entered 2/8/32 and graduated in January, 1935. THELMA GOLD, daughter of LOUIS GOLD, 24 Attorney Street, entered 1/1/38 and graduated in January, 1941.

Mail boxes at 24 Attorney Street indicate that "GOLD" occupies apartment 15 at that address.

JACOB BERNSTEIN, Druggist, 120 Grand Street, and SAM GOLDING, Grocer, 116 Grand Street, both advised that, although familiar with the GOLD family from a business standpoint and although they realize that one or two of the daughters are married and have [illegible] moved elsewhere, said that they do not know the daughters by name and could provide no information concerning PEARL's current whereabouts or her married name.

TOM REID, Superintendent, 24 Attorney Street, advised that he has known the GOLDS since they first moved into the building about fifteen years ago and described them as quiet respectable persons of whom he knows nothing to indicate communistic tendencies or affiliations. Concerning PEARL GOLD, he provided essentially the following additional information: She married approximately seven years ago, doubtless here in New York City. She married a red-headed man whose last name is KUSHNER, but whose first name is unknown to him. KUSHNER shortly thereafter went into military service. Before that, she and PEARL lived at an unknown address in the Lower East Side for a year or so. While KUSHNER was away in service, PEARL lived with her parents at 24 Attorney Street. After KUSHNER's discharge he and PEARL moved to Brooklyn, but the address and section are unknown to him. After his return from service he will [illegible] living.

D above represents a list dated 9/16/49 of persons communicating with HAROLD R. MEDINA, Judge, U. S. District Court, Southern District of New York, protesting the trial of the eleven leading Communist Party leaders, which contains such a communication from PEARL USHNER, 795 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N.Y.

E above, which may or may not refer to the PEARL GOLD USHNER in question, represents a list of employees of the Electronic Corporation of America, 45 West 18th Street, NYC, for the period 1/1/46 to 6/30/46 as made available by Albany Division [redacted] which includes one PEARL USHNER, SS No. 056-07-6861, and reflects her taxable wage amount, $190.80.

Among references to the name LOUIS KUSHNER, only several of which have been examined, is one—121-[illegible]—which indicates that a person of that name, 37 Grand Street, witnessed a 1940 nominating petition of the Communist Party for BROWDER and FORD, page 8914. It is noted that the address given is in the immediate neighborhood of 2 Attorney Street, where PEARL GOLD appears to have resided at that time.

Birth certificates of the New York State Department of Health, Borough of Brooklyn, contain one numbered 45380, certifying the birth of SANDRA EVE KUSHNER, October 7, 1948, a white female, born at the Crown Heights Hospital, Brooklyn. She is indicated as the only child born of that pregnancy and the first child born alive to her mother. The attending physician was JANE R. [illegible], M.D., 190 New York Avenue, Brooklyn. The child's father, LOUIS KUSHNER, 31, white, born USA, an upholstery salesman. The child's mother, PEARL GOLD, 28, white, born USA, a housewife.

Inasmuch as the PEARL GOLD referred to by RUTH GREENGLASS seems by the above investigation to have been identified and located, a teletype to the Bureau, requesting permission to interview her concerning ETHEL ROSENBERG's alleged Communist Party affiliations, is being prepared.

New York, New York

SAUL COVEN

JOHN PHIPPS, elevator operator, 315 West 125th Street, New York, New York, advised that the London Upholstery Company went out of business approximately two years ago. He advised that JOSEPH and MORRIS SOLOWAY, former partners, deserted the business. He stated that a former employee of the company, a STEVE HERTELENDY, 500 West 176th Street, New York, New York, is now employed by the Durabilt Company, 1166 Colgate Avenue, Bronx. Mr. PHIPPS stated that the employees of the London Upholstery Company, when the firm went into bankruptcy, banded together for several months under the name London Decorators, which firm was later bought by the Durabilt Company.

STEVE HERTELENDY, salesman, Durabilt Company, Bronx, New York, reported that JOSEPH SOLOWAY, former partner of the London Upholstery Company, could be located c/o Dairyland Restaurant, 364 Whalley Avenue, New Haven, Connecticut (Telephone New Haven 8-9356). He stated that MORRIS SOLOWAY, the other partner, has been reported living outside of the United States since the bankruptcy of the London Upholstery Company.

MEMO
NY 65-15348

Mr. HERTELENDY also advised that SAUL COVEN could be contacted at JE 6-5572. It was ascertained that this number was listed to BEATRICE COHEN, 1475 Wythe Place, Bronx, and subsequent inquiry at this address revealed that Mrs. BEATRICE COHEN and her husband were currently residing at 111 East Front Street, Long Beach, Long Island, New York. BEATRICE COHEN was contacted at her Long Beach address by SA J. GARTH GRAY and arrangements were made for the interview of her husband SAUL COHEN.

SAUL COHEN, when interviewed in this office by the writer, reported that in business he uses the name SAUL COVEN. He stated that he is at present a free lance salesman and maintains no business office in New York City. He reported that he was formerly the outside salesman for the London Upholstery Company and manager of the London Decorators, 315 West 125th Street, New York City, after the bankruptcy of the London Upholstery Company. Mr. COHEN stated that he later formed the Mercury Upholstery Company, 1507 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York, which firm has been out of business for over a year.

Mr. COHEN stated that the subject and his engineering firm are unknown to him. The photograph of the subject and his associates were exhibited to Mr. COHEN and also to Mr. HERTELENDY, who failed to identify the subject or his associates as former business or social contacts.

It is recommended that a lead be set out to interview JOSEPH SOLOWAY, care of Dairyland Restaurant, 364 Whalley Avenue, New Haven, Connecticut.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE R

XXXX
Refmemo of SA W. D. Wright, NYC, 8/18/50.

HARRY PLETMAN, 210 West 101st. St, Tel AC 2-8372, owner, Aristocrat Whipper Corporation, formerly at 424 Broome Street, now at 370 East Houston Street, Tel. GR 3-8330, advised that he first met ROSENBERG in about November, 1948, when the latter came in to his place of business at 424 Broome Street to solicit business. He said that he recalls that ROSENBERG said something about having heard from some tool salesman, name not recalled, that PLETMAN needed some machine shop work done.

Mr. PLETMAN continued essentially as follows: Shortly after that initial contact, he gave ROSENBERG an order for 1000 pieces needed in his manufacture of whip cream machines. From that time until 2/24/50 he occasionally did business with ROSENBERG and PITT MACHINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION, being visited by ROSENBERG from time to time and himself visiting Pitt on six to ten occasions, mostly to hurry up the work being done or to help them work out some detail in the business. On 2/24/50, his own shop at 424 Broome Street burned down. Thereafter, he took a small store near 370 Houston Street and prevailed upon ROSENBERG to let him use a corner of his shop and put there some of the machinery he was able to salvage from the fire. He paid ROSENBERG rent for the space and, because of the fire and his own limited capacity resulting therefrom, caused ROSENBERG to do more and more of his work in manufacturing whipper parts. From that time on he saw ROSENBERG almost daily until his arrest. He knew him almost exclusively from a business standpoint, but drove him home occasionally and had dinner with him from time to time. In his business contacts with ROSENBERG he often had difficulty. Most of that difficulty was delay in completing an order. On several occasions the work was spoiled and had to be done over elsewhere. He had business with ROSENBERG pending at the time of the latter's arrest. When ROSENBERG SHOWED UP at the shop after the arrest of DAVID GREENGLASS--later explaining that the day following that arrest he had been interrogated by the FBI or the U S Attorney--he said nothing about GREENGLASS for several days or a week. He then brought that up on his own accord at lunch one day, indicating disbelief in GREENGLASS' guilt, but then broke off the discussion when asked questions about the matter. He never discussed the matter after that.

65-15348-70
N.Y.C.

Mr. PLETMAN continued essentially as follows: ROSENBERG was not a good businessman and did not run his shop well. He was at times too lenient with his employees and then unduly strict. They did not respect him very much. He was changeable also in his contracts, making definite committments to do certain work and then the next day putting the work off indefinitely. When he, Mr. PLETMAN, suggested that he was not right and that he might well consult a psychiatrist, ROSENBERG merely said that he was not feeling well or that he had hay fever.

The day after ROSENBERG's arrest ETHEL ROSENBERG came to the shop to say that certain jobs only were to be completed and that the rest could not be. She said that she would try to get rid of the business as best she could. Mr. PLETMAN put her in touch with RICHARD ROSENBERG, no relation, of the New Jersey Carbonated Company, 250 Madison Street, Passaic, New Jersey, residing at 187 Grove Street, Passaic, who was supposed to see her about buying the plant on the very day that she was arrested. The New Jersey Carbonated Company is a customer of Mr. PLETMAN, and he explained that he hoped to facilitate such a deal in order to make it easier for him to carry on his own business. The Pitt business was sold 8/31/50 to RICHARD ROSENBERG, individually and not for the Carbonated Company, with arrangements providing for PLETMAN to use the plant. ETHEL ROSENBERG was not co-operative with him, he said, and gave him no information about her husband or the espionage case.

Mr. PLETMAN said that his total business with Pitt amounted to about $1500.00 to $2,000.00. None of the Pitt books are available on the premises at 370 East Houston Street. Pitt's accountant was named ISAACS. Pitt did business with a firm known as Continental, but the rest of the name and its address are not known to him. They also did business with a firm known as "M.R.M." of 191 Berry Street, Brooklyn, the only Pitt customer who has called him and arranged for him to do work previously done by Pitt, but only after making sure that the business now is in no way connected with Pitt and ROSENBERG.

Mr. PLETMAN said that he heard from RICHARD ROSENBERG that a man named FUCHS, probably, tolk him that he, PLETMAN, was related to ROSENBERG, which is not true, he said.

Mr. Pletman said that he never discussed politics with ROSENBERG or GREENGLASS; that ROSENBERG did not allow such discussions in the plant; that he never detected anything to suggest espionage or other illegal activity; that he was surprised at the arrests of ROSENBERG and GREENGLASS; and that he recognizes none of the photographs shown him except those of the ROSENBERGS and the GREENGLASS and that of SOBELL, which he knew only from the newspapers.

Refmemo SA James P. Lee, 7/26/50, NYC (65-15336) and ref tel from Bureau 8/17/50, 11:08PM.

Refmemo above quotes RUTH GREENGLASS as naming IDA ALTERMAN as an active member of the Club Lincoln of the YCL who knew ESTHER ROSENBERG and who, along with one PEARL GOLD, remarked that ESTHER ROSENBERG was not in YCL because she was too old, but implied that they knew her as a CP member.

NY Division indices contain the following references to IDA ALTERMAN:

~~100~~-26603-1A54, signer of CP petition, 1943, nominating BENJAMIN DAVIS JR. for NYC Council, address--250 Division Street;
~~54~~-144-11056A, Memo 6/7/44, postcard;
~~100~~-59086-22,23, 287 Henry Street, reflecting communication obtained from highly confidential source sent by person of that name to Gov. DEWEY urging release of MORRIS U. SCHAPPES;

~~100-6906-123~~, Pg. 9, (consolidated into 100-6906-1A196)(below);

The second listed reference--54-144-11056A--has not been examined. All others are thought to refer to the IDA ALTERMAN in question.

~~100-6906-1707~~ represents information made available to SA Russell S. Garner on [redacted] by [redacted] Catholic Youth Organization, Archdiocese of New York, 15 E. 51 St, NYC, which he in turn obtained from [redacted] (both sources to be protected), who [redacted] of YCL in 1943, listed IDA ALTERMAN as membership director of the Manhattan AYD. It is noted that the same list includes the name MINNIE (or MERVINE) ALTERMAN, 504 Grand Street, as a member of the Victory Club, YCL.

100-6906-1A196 represents information provided SA Russell S. Garner, 3/4/42, by Mrs. MARGARET DISCO, NYC PD, consisting of lists of persons, including "YCL Members & Leaders (East Side Section," which contains the following: "IDA ALTERMAN (Party Name IDA ALTMAN), 248 Division Street, Apartment 3, NYC. Sister of SYLVIA ALTERMAN. Went to Albany in 1941 for NY St. Civil Service job. Was formerly branch organizer. White, female, 22-23, 5'5", 130; very sallow, unattractive complexion, with rash on face frequently. Talks with slight lisp."

100-6906-1A276 represents a photostatic copy obtained by [redacted] and made available to FBI 6/23/44, of a "Membership Audit Work Sheet" of the Club: "Lincoln E.S.", of county figures as of 6/15/43 and the result of audit on 6/16/43, listing as club members present: "IDA SYLVIA ALTERMAN" and "GERT EPSTEIN". It also lists as "Club members responsible for membership and dues record, ~~SYLVIA~~ (crossed out on original) IDA ALTERMAN, GERT EPSTEIN."

It is noted that SYLVIA ALTERMAN is subject of the case file 100-39522*.

Mrs. ISAAC TENDLER, landlady, 287 Henry Street, advised that the ALTERMAN family still resides at that address, but that IDA ALTERMAN is married and lives with her husband, named ROTH somewhere in the immediate neighborhood, but at an address unknown to her. Her parents are ABRAHAM and ANNIE ALTERMAN, who previously lived at 234 Division Street and were reportedly forced to move out, she said. She described the entire family as Communists and said that they are friends of HELEN LEVY GOLD, her parents, named LEVY, who live in the building, and of the GOLD family into which HELEN LEVY married. She said that she does not know where the GOLD family lives. She said that IDA and her husband lived with her parents for a while. She described the husband as formerly an artist, but said that she does not know his present occupation. She said that it is her impression that IDA ROTH has recently been ill [redacted]

The current Manhattan telephone directory lists the telephone OR 4-7451 to HAROLD ROTH at 287 Henry Street.

Under the name IDA ROTH, the NY Division indices reflect the following references believed to be identical:

100-91839-36 p. 6, representing payroll records of the Polish American Supply Corporation for the Spring and Summer, 1949, made available to SA William R. Brooks by D. D. MATHIAS, Deputy Controller, Bankers Trust Co, 16 Wall Street, NYC. IDA ALTMAN is listed among those checks thought to be in payment of salaries, but under the category "No checks cashed in September.";

100-91839-13 p. 4, same as above, for period of December and January, 1949, listing check No. 4191 issued 12/9/48 to IDA N. ALTMAN, under "Salary--No subsequent checks issued," in the amount of $43.09, and showing that such check was endorsed by the payee and the Bankers Trust Company.

GOVERN JONES, Superintendent, Knickerbocker Station, U.S.P.O., 130 East Broadway, ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ advised that he had checked with the carrier covering 156 Henry Street, to learn that IDA ROTH was currently residing in the basement at that address.

HAROLD ROTH, 156 Henry Street, advised the writer and SA CHARLES VANCE that his wife was ill in bed; that she had been ill for several months; that she was suffering from "a nervous disorder"; and that she could not be interviewed at present or in the forseeable future. He said that it would be disturbing to her to be interviewed by agents of the FBI. Incidental to a question as to whether he knew PEARL GOLD--who had not at that point been identified--he said that he did not know her and that he had not been in school with his wife or her friends, having lived in the Bronx. DESCRIPTION of HAROLD ROTH from personal observation:

On August 30, 1950, MARTIN ECKHOUSE, 1707 Nelson Avenue, Bronx, New York, an employee of the Pitt Machine Products, Inc., during 1947 and 1948, was interviewed by the writer.

MARTIN ECKHOUSE stated that he was employed by Pitt Machine Products, Inc., for about 18 months during 1947 and 1948 under the GI Bill. ECKHOUSE stated that during the time he was employed by that company, it was operated by JULIUS ROSENBERG, DAVID GREENGLASS and BERNIE GREENGLASS. He stated that DAVID GREENGLASS was the foreman of the Pitt Machine Products, Inc., and that his brother, BERNIE, was his assistant.

ECKHOUSE stated that ROSENBERG was primarily engaged in soliciting business for the company and was in the shop only about half of the time. ECKHOUSE stated that to his knowledge, he does not recall that ROSENBERG was away from the shop for any length of time and that DAVID GREENGLASS to his knowledge was in the shop each day.

ECKHOUSE stated, however, that during the summer of 1947 or 1948, DAVID GREENGLASS'S wife, RUTH, spent the summer months in Monticello, New York and that DAVID GREENGLASS would visit her there each weekend.

ECKHOUSE stated that the Pitt Machine Products, Inc., prior to moving to its present address on Houston Street, was located on Second Avenue, New York City.

ECKHOUSE stated that he resided at 96 Sheriff Street, New York City and that during the time he was employed by the Pitt Machine Products, Inc., one SOL FINE, Grand Street, (exact address unknown), and one MORRIS ISRAEL, East Broadway (exact address unknown), were also employed there under the GI Bill.
