FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription June 26, 1972

HAZEL MINES, Supervisor, Janitorial Staff, Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge, 2601 Virginia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., furnished the following information:

She is in charge of all the maids who clean the rooms at the Motel. In the event that one or more of the maids do not report for work, she herself often cleans guest rooms. During several weeks during the month of May, 1972, the maid who cleaned the rooms on the fourth floor was sick and did not report for work. During this time she cleaned the rooms on that floor, including room 419 and she often had conversations with the occupant of that room. She advised that the individual who occupied room 419 stayed in the room most of the time during the day and in conversation with her stated that he worked at night. However, he would not state the nature of his business. Her office is on the fourth floor, down the hall from room 419 and she often ran into him in the hall of the Motel.

During the latter part of May, 1972, this individual moved from room 419 to room 723. When she asked him why he was moving to the seventh floor, he stated that he wanted to avoid all the women who were bothering him all the time. She got the impression that he was joking the way he made this statement.

After this individual moved to room 723, she had occasion to be in the room only on a couple of occasions. She recalled seeing a wad of papers on the desk during one of these visits.

She recalls seeing the individual who occupied room 419 and then room 723 coming into the Motel on a couple of occasions at about 7:15 or 7:30 in the morning. She stated that the individual who occupied these rooms always wore casual clothes.

EMMA SCOTT, 3355 16th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., Apartment 812, was interviewed at Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge, 2601 Virginia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., where she is employed as a maid. She furnished the following information:

She is assigned to clean the rooms on the seventh floor of the Motel. She specifically recalled the individual who was staying in room 723 during the last several weeks because on several occasions when she would clean the room he would tell her that he did not want her to come and clean the room the next day. When she cleaned the room on Thursday, June 15, 1972, she was told not to come to the room on June 16, 1972. She also recalled that she would always have to telephone the room before she could go in and clean it. After she called he would leave the room while she cleaned it and return when she had finished the job. She recalls that he kept the "Do Not Disturb" sign on the door most of the time during the day.

She recalls seeing three suitcases in the room in one day when she cleaned it and only one suitcase the next day she cleaned the room. She also recalls seeing a typewriter in the room on one occasion, but it was gone the next time she cleaned the room. She can not recall seeing any other items in the room.

The individual who occupied this room told her on approximately June 12, 1972, that he would be at the Motel for another three weeks because he had a lot of work to do. She was surprized to see that he had checked out of the Motel when she reported for work on June 19, 1972.

Major General LEIGH WADE, United States Air Force (Retired), 3065 Cleveland Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., furnished the following information:

He served in Cuba during World War II with the United States Army Air Force and was the ranking American officer in Cuba during the war. He was personally acquainted with FULGENCIO BATISTA and with all of the high ranking military officers in the Cuban army at that time. Many of the officers who were serving in Cuba at that time with the Cuban army are now in this country and associated with groups who are working in this country to overthrow FIDEL CASTRO.

He recalled that near the close of World War II a young officer named BERNARD L. BARKER was assigned to his command in Cuba. He saw BARKER after the war in approximately 1962 in Washington, D.C., when BARKER was staying at the Shoreham Hotel. [redacted] He stated that since this luncheon engagement in Washington, D.C., approximately 10 years ago, he has had no personal contact with BARKER. However, he did exchange Christmas cards with BARKER until 1969. He advised that BARKER's wife's name is CLAIRE and that the last address he had for the BARKERS was 3623 Northwest 57th Street, Miami, Florida. His best recollection is that BARKER most recently was employed as a promoter of boxing matches in Miami. He further stated that during World War II in Cuba, BARKER had also promoted boxing matches.

WADE stated that he did not know why BARKER would have his name in an address book since he has had no personal contact with BARKER for ten years. He advised that he is well known among the Cuban exiles in this country and that it is possible that BARKER maintained his name in his address book

Mr. GLENN J. SEDAM, JR., General Counsel for the Committee for Re-Election of the President, Committee Headquarters, 1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., furnished the following information:

During the late Fall or early Winter of 1971, Mr. JAMES WALTER McCORD, JR., had learned that he (SEDAM) had been inquiring for someone to do part-time yard work at SEDAM's residence. SEDAM stated he had made the initial inquiry to a retired Navy chief, who was then employed by the Republican Organization. SEDAM stated he had made specific inquiry concerning the services of a reliable and honest person.

JAMES McCORD had learned of SEDAM's inquiries and appraoched Mr. SEDAM stating that he had "just the man for him" advising that he was one of his (McCORD's) students at Montgomery Junior College.

After several months, Mr. SEDAM actually employed the services of the person recommended by McCORD, and advised he was known to him as JUAN RUIZ, who claimed to be a Chilean national and former member of a police department in Chile. Over a period of three or four weekends, RUIZ did part-time yard work during March and April, 1972, at Mr. SEDAM's residence. On April 15, 1972, Mr. SEDAM paid an accrual of wages totaling $40.00 to RUIZ; however, at RUIZ's request, Mr. SEDAM made the check payable to a DON R. HEATH in the amount of $40.00.

Mr. SEDAM displayed his personal check in the amount of $40.00 made payable to DON R. HEATH. The check was drawn on the Riggs National Bank of Washington, D. C., Dupont Circle Office, 1913 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W.

The back of the above described check bore the following handwritten notation, "pay to the order of JULIE A. HEATH, DON R. HEATH" and the appropriate signature of JULIE A. HEATH, #75191032.

Mr. SEDAM advised that RUIZ did not do any further work for him after that date indicating that he then had a full-time job working for McCORD Associates.

Mr. SEDAM furnished this information because of the publicity received by McCORD in the current case and said while RUIZ worked for him, he seemed on each occasion to involve himself in discussions of a political matter, asking similar questions concerning American politics, and Mr. SEDAM recalls specifically indicating an interest in the recent bussing decision handed down by the Supreme Court.

The following general description of JUAN RUIZ was furnished by Mr. SEDAM:

Name:	JUAN RUIZ
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	Approximately 28 years old
Height:	About five feet seven inches
Weight:	150 to 170 pounds
Hair:	Black
Characteristics:	Heavy Latin accent and Latin appearing

SEDAM also advised it was his understanding that RUIZ had been enrolled in a course taught by McCORD at Montgomery Junior College and believed his study was in the field of industrial security

Mr. NEAL advised there were no records maintained of any incoming telephone calls. If any long-distance outgoing calls were made there would be charges which would appear on the folio. The absence of such charges would mean no long-distance calls were placed from the assigned rooms or charged to these rooms. There are no records kept as to description of vehicles in the garage. Anyone may park, receive a preforated numbered ticket, a copy maintained by the parking attendant, and reclaim their car by presenting the stub. Charges could be made to a room by the customer showing his room key.

Charges made by the health club would be by the customer showing the room key.

Restaurant charges are made by the customer showing his key and signing the check. These checks are forwarded to the front desk to place amounts on the folio then returned to the restaurant accounting office.

HAZEL MINES, Supervisor, Janitorial Staff, Howard Johnson Motor Lodge, 2601 Virginia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., furnished the following information:

She has been trying to recall more information regarding the individual who occupied rooms 419 and 723 of the motel during May and June, since being contacted by agents of the FBI on June 19, 1972. She recalled that from approximately May 5, 1972, to May 11, 1972, the room was vacant and unoccupied when she checked it each morning to determine if it needed to be cleaned. When she checked with the front desk to see if the room should be listed as vacant or as occupied, she was told that a $200.00 deposit had been placed on the room and that it was rented, even though it was not occupied. She advised that she had checked the cleaning charts from May, 1972, which did reflect that that room was not occupied from May 5, 1972, through May 10, 1972.

On May 11, 1972, she noted that an individual had occupied room 419. She stated that she specifically recalls seeing an individual in that room because that room is on the same floor as her office and she spends quite a bit of her time on the fourth floor. At about 3:00 p.m., on May 11, 1972, she telephoned room 419 to inquire if the occupant wished to have the room cleaned. No one answered the telephone when she called, but several minutes later the occupant of the room met her in the hall. She told him that she had called and asked if he wanted to have the room cleaned. He said, "I fooled you by not answering. I thought it was one of my women." She assumed that he was just kidding her and told him that she would send one of the maids to clean the room. This individual remained in the room while the maid cleaned it.

During the time that this individual occupied room 419 she had occasion to speak with him almost daily. She stated that he was very friendly and outgoing and that he told her that

ROBERT SCHREIBER, 2911 Arizona Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), furnished the following information:

He was employed as a day shift desk clerk at the Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge, 2601 Virginia Avenue, N.W., WDC, until June 15, 1972, at which time he voluntarily left the employ of the motel.

Upon reading the "The Washington Post", dated June 19, 1972, concerning the men arrested in the Watergate Office Building on June 17, 1972, he recognized the photograph of one of the men arrested, JAMES MC CORD as an individual who had rented a room at the Howard Johnson's Motel in late April of 1972.

He related that approximately April 20, 1972, JAMES MC CORD approached him at the desk at the Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge and stated that he wished to rent a room for approximately ten days to be used for business meetings for his company, McCord Associates. SCHREIBER explained to him that the motel did not have any vacancies due to the fact that various colleges and universities were holding functions in the area. MC CORD stated that he would leave a deposit for any room that he reserved and also told SCHREIBER that he wanted a room on a high floor. SCHREIBER stated that the motel has eight floors. He gave MC CORD a group of keys to various rooms and MC CORD went upstairs to pick out a room. He returned to the desk and said he would take Room 619. He gave SCHREIBER two one hundred dollar bills as a deposit on the room and stated that he would return approximately April 29, 1972, to begin occupying the room. SCHREIBER stated that he recalls that the one hundred dollar bills were not new bills.

He continued that in approximately April 26 or 27, MC CORD returned to the motel and picked up the keys to the room.

Sometime during the second week in May, 1972, MC CORD paid $300 more to cover the charges on the room he had rented. He made the payment in cash using three one hundred dollar bills.

SCHREIBER stated that MC CORD never stayed in the room to his knowledge but that another individual whose identity is unknown to SCHREIBER occupied the room. Sometime during the month of May, 1972, this individual moved from the room on the sixth floor to room 721.

SCHREIBER stated that he never saw MC CORD carry any luggage into the motel and never observed him to go upstairs to the room. He also advised that there were an unusual amount of long distance phone calls made from the room rented to McCord Associates.

SCHREIBER also stated that after reading "The Washington Post" of June 19, 1972, he recognized the photograph of FRANK STURGIS another of the individuals who was arrested in the Watergate Office Building as having been in the motel inquiring whether there was any mailfor McCord Associates.

FRANK WILLS, Security Guard, General Security Services, Incorporated, 1254 23rd Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), residence 3128 22nd Street, N.W., telephone 833-3128, was interviewed at his place of employment and provided the following information:

He is assigned to the Security Force of the Watergate Office Building, 2600 Virginia Avenue, N.W., and regularly works the mid-night to 8:00 a.m. shift.

On Friday night, June 16, 1972, he came to work at 11:45 p.m. and immediately began a check of the doors on the basement level of the building. He explained this check at the beginning of his shift is more or less standard procedure.

On Level B-2 he found the two stairway doors, which entered from the garage into the building, taped with strong packing tape so the lock would not engage. These doors were supposed to be locked so he removed the tape from both doors. He did not give much consideration to the tape being there since occasionally in the past he had found tape on various doors left by janitors or engineers who work in the building.

He then walked down the stairway to Level B-3 and found the first door locked. The second door was unlocked, but not taped. He checked two more doors on Level B-3 and found them locked. He then checked B-1 Level door which was locked, went to the lobby desk and took the tape which he had removed and placed it on the desk.

Approximately ten minutes later he decided to make another check of these doors just to be sure and returned to the B-2 Level. He found the same two doors from which he had removed the tape previously retaped. At this time he left the tape in place and went to Level B-3. Both doors leading to the garage area from the building were also taped, so he immediately took the elevator to the lobby. At the lobby desk, he called the Second District, Metropolitan Police Department, through the hotel operator and related the above facts. The time of this call to the Police Department have been between 12:15 a.m. and 12:30 a.m., Saturday morning.

Two officers arrived approximately 15 minutes later at the lobby and he accompanied them to the 8th floor of the building to begin a floor by floor check of the building. As they checked the stairway door leading to the 6th floor corridor they found the latch taped.

Just as the tape was discovered someone rang the elevator bell which is a signal for him to unlock the lobby door for employees leaving the building. As he let these people out, he was met by more police officers and from them he first learned that someone had been arrested on the 6th floor.

He then accompanied these officers, numbering 10 to 15, on the elevator to the 5th floor and up the stairway to the 6th floor. He entered the Democratic National Committee office with these officers and observed five individuals handcuffed against the wall.

He then asisted in the search of the office of the Democratic National Committee and observed electronic equipment stacked up in the middle of the floor of one of the offices. Some officers soon began carrying this equipment down the stair to the elevator on the 5th floor and then to the lobby.

Once in the lobby, again more police officers were arriving and he returned to the 6th floor with a new group. This time he observed file cabinets and desk drawers had been pulled out and Metropolitan Police Department fingerprint men were processing them. He noticed two panels had been removed from the ceiling of one of the offices, but did not think anything about it at that time. He next spent approximately one to two hours searching various offices for the home telephone number of someone from the Democratic National Committee to notify. Finally one of the officers called the Deputy Chairman of the Democratic National Committee who appeared approximately a half an hour after the call.

Mr. FRANCO ROVERE, Banquet Captain, Watergate Terrace Restaurant, Watergate Hotel, 2670 Virginia Avenue, N.W., telephone 965-5252, advised:

He viewed guest check number 174707, dated May 26, 1972, then advised he had served this dinner in the Continental Room. ROVERE was the only waiter since it was a small party. Ten had been guaranteed when the reservation was made, but only eight guests, all males, attended.

Mr. ROVERE then viewed the following photographs, all polaroid shots in black and white:

GEROGE LEONARD
ALFRED C. BALDWIN
BERNARD L. BARKER
ENGENCO MARTINEZ
EDWARD WEBB
JAMES W. MC CORD
JAMES HILL
DANIEL MAHAN
V. R. GONZALES
JOE SMITH
FRANK STURGIS

Mr. ROVERE identified the photographs of STURGIS and GONZALES as persons who definitely were at this dinner. He believes MARTINEZ also attended, but can not be certain.

Mr. ROVERE had the Continental Room prepared for the 8:00 p.m. reservation and was waiting at the small bar in this dining room where the first guests arrived. There were four who arrived first, including STURGIS who seemed to be in charge at first. The others arrived very shortly thereafter. There were two Americans in the group, the others being of mixed origin, but all spoke Spanish very well. The group spoke Spanish as well as English during the time Mr. ROVERE served them. Mr. ROVERE's native tongue is Italian so he was able to understand certain Spanish words and expressions. During his service the main topic of conversation was night clubs in the Miami area and women. The women were prostitutes that hung out in these clubs. ROVERE can not recall any names of either clubs or women.

The American in charge ordered dinner to be served at 8:30 p.m. He also ordered scotch and milk. ROVERE chided him to which he replied he was having some trouble with an ulcer. This person also asked for the wine list, read it, then ordered some very good wine. Judging from Mr. ROVERE's experience, this person knew his wine very well. He did not ask for any wine suggestions or advise. When the wine was served, this man took a small glass, but asked for milk with his dinner.

He recalled this person to be five feet nine inches tall, 150 pounds, skinny, hair mostly gray, wearing a dark blue suit. He wore glasses. This person also requested and signed the dinner check.

The other American was chubby and short, about fifty-five years old. He wore a light brown suit with wide lapels and a wide tie.

He recalled one man was a young man who was from a Spanish-speaking country, but spoke very good English. No further description recalled.

When they arrived one was carrying a black suitcase measuring two and a half feet by two feet by one feet. They had requested to have a screen for movies. The Continental Room is the only room where the screen is available without rental. Mr. ROVERE fixed in his mind these men were in real estate since they requested the room. When dinner had been served, Mr. ROVERE lowered the screen, then left the room. He did not observe anything projected onto the screen at any time. He checked to see if he could render further service after serving dinner. He was not needed so he left work around 12:30 a.m. He learned later this party had remained until approximately 2:00 a.m.

On two occasions in the dining room, ROVERE observed STURGIS having either lunch or dinner. On one occasion STURGIS was with GONZALES, the other with someone else who had not attended the dinner on May 26, 1972.

The only thing unusual about the party was the group ate a lot of bread and they were messy. He observed some of the men ate the shrimp cocktail with the wrong fork rather than the smaller one which was provided.

He did recall attending a meeting in a room down the hall from his office in the Executive Office Building attended by MC CORD and approximately 15 other people. This meeting was some time prior to President NIXON's China trip, and it was concerned with a display of technical security equipment by representatives of Bell and Howell.

After further reflection he recalled an individual employed by Bell and Howell as a salesman by the name of MC CUIN. He was of the opinion this MC CUIN may have been at the meeting attended by MC CORD and himself along with several other individuals. He noted, however, he only dropped into this meeting for a short time.

He last talked with MC CORD approximately three weeks ago regarding MC CORD's receipt of a crank letter. They discussed the contents of the letter and he in turn referred MC CORD to the appropriate division of the United States Secret Service to follow through with any investigation that was warranted. He last saw MC CORD one to two months ago, but did not recall the purpose of the meeting. He advised that since he and MC CORD do not associate together socially, it must have been in regard to some technical matter of mutual interest in view of MC CORD's position as Security Director of the Committee to Re-Elect the President.

He did recommend MC CORD for the position of Security Director of the Committee to Re-Elect the President in a hallway conversation several months ago. On that day he ran into a Special Assistant to the President by the name of CAULFIELD, who asked him if he knew anyone for the position of Director of Security for the Committee to Re-Elect the President. At that time he hastily replied "Try MC CORD". That was the extent of his recommendation.

After MC CORD was hired, he and MC CORD had infrequent contact regarding technical matters. The only time the Republican National Convention came up in their discussions was on one occasion when MC CORD stated he would see him (WONG) at the Convention in San Diego.

Mr. WONG was not at all acquainted with EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT, JR., and the only time he may have seen HUNT's name would have been either on an address list or a security pass list.

Mr. WONG viewed a group of color photographs of white males, including [illegible] HOWARD HUNT, JR., but did not recognize any of the individuals in these photographs.

He next viewed a group of black and white photographs of white males, including that of ALFRED CARLETON BALDWIN, III, but did not recognize any of the individuals in these photographs.

Finally, he viewed five photographs of subjects MC CORD, STURGIS, GONZALES, BARKER and VALDEZ and recognized only the photograph of MC CORD from this group.

Mr. ROBERT C. ODLE, JR., Director of Administration for the Committee to Re-elect the President located at 1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., furnished the following information:

Mr. ODLE advised that Mr. JAMES W. MC CORD, JR., had been hired by the committee on a permanent basis as of January 1, 1972. Prior to that time Mr. MC CORD was serving as an Advisor for approximately two months. As of January 1, 1972, Mr. MC CORD was paid an annual salary wage of $20,000 as Chief of Security. Mr. MC CORD was hired on an individual basis rather than hiring the services of McCord Associates of Rockville, Maryland, and his official title was Security Advisor.

Mr. ODLE stated that Mr. MC CORD was selected from a number of applicants and that MC CORD had previously retired from the Central Intelligence Agency. Mr. MC CORD's job was to set up security and coordinate the guard force for the Committee to Re-elect the President and as Security Officer MC CORD recruited guards and some drivers for the organization. These individuals were paid on an hourly basis by money which was allotted to MC CORD separate from his per annum salary. Xu

Mr. ODLE advised that he had seen the newspaper account of the break-in at the Democratic Committee Headquarters at the Watergate and advised that he had no knowledge of this incident and that he knew none of the names of the persons arrested with Mr. MC CORD. He stated that the only time Mr. MC CORD had gone to Florida was when he went down to look at the convention center in Miami regarding accommpations and security. MC CORD looked at the Durral Hotel while he was in Miami where he would have stayed and his travel dates to and from Miami ranged from June 6, 1972 to June 8, 1972, when he returned to Washington. Mr. ODLE advised that if Mr. MC CORD had remained with the Committee to Re-elect the President his employment would have lasted until approximately the end of November or December, 1972.

Mr. ODLE stated the only other travel that he was aware which MC CORD did in conjunction with his job for the Committee to Re-elect the President was as follows:

MC CORD travelled to New Hampshire for the Republican rally held at the Manchester Armory, Manchester, New Hampshire.

MC CORD also travelled to Oakbrook, Illinois, to visit the committee's mail order contractor, RUBEN H. DONNELLY of Oakbrook, Illinois.

The only other trip MC CORD performed for the committee was he went to New York City to inspect the Public Relations Organization known as November Group Incorporated, located at 909 3rd Avenue, New York, New York.

At this time Mr. ODLE provided the interviewing agents with a Xeroxed copy of a Certificate of Nonresidence in the District of Colu[illegible] Withholding Exemption Form for JAMES W. MC CORD, JR., dated January 31, 1972.

GLENN JAY SEDAM, General Counsel, Committee to Re-elect the President (CRP), 1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), furnished the following information to the interviewing agents in the presence of H. DONALD KISSLER, attorney for the Committee to Re-elect the President:

In approximately late November or early December of 1971, SEDAM asked one MONICO BUNGATO, a retired U. S. Navy Chief who was then employed at the White House, if he knew of anyone trustworthy SEDAM could hire to do some yard work around his home. BUNGATO stated he would look around for someone.

Sometime later (exact time period unrecalled) before Christmas, SEDAM was contacted by JAMES MC CORD, Security Chief of the Committee to Re-elect the President, who told him (SEDAM) that he (MC CORD) had just the person to work around his home. SEDAM had no idea how MC CORD learned of his need for someone to work adding BUNGATO said nothing to him (SEDAM) about mentioning the matter to MC CORD. However, MC CORD highly recommended to SEDAM an individual named JUAN RUIZ, whom he described as the most trustworthy, outstanding student in his class at Montgomery County Junior College.

MC CORD had suggested paying RUIZ $3.50 an hour, but SEDAM stated this was too much and agreed to pay him $2.50 or $2.75 an hour.

SEDAM did not recall the exact date RUIZ started working around his house, but estimated it was the latter part of March. The weather was still cool enough for RUIZ to wear a jacket. RUIZ worked long enough to accumulate earnings of $40.00, although SEDAM did not recall exactly how many days RUIZ worked. The work was done on weekends and consisted of raking leaves and other yard type work. SEDAM's wife did not particularly care for RUIZ due to his apparent haughty attitude that yard work was beneath his dignity. SEDAM told his wife that people with foreign accents often appear overly proud. RUIZ called on several occasions saying he would not be able to come to work due to illness. He reportedly had a stomach ulcer.

RUIZ seemed very interested in discussing political [illegible] in general. SEDAM could specifically recall discussing the busing of minority children to school. These discussions generally took place in SEDAM's kitchen when, due to the cold weather, he asked RUIZ inside for hot chocolate. SEDAM could not recall RUIZ inquiring about anything relating to his (SEDAM's) job which would be of a secure or sensitive nature. RUIZ impressed SEDAM as an intelligent foreign student simply interested in the American political system.

To the best of SEDAM's recollections, RUIZ was never alone in any part of his (SEDAM's) home. He knew of no special ability RUIZ might have in electronics. SEDAM stated he supposed the possibility of RUIZ electronically "bugging" or tapping his phone existed. They sat near a phone in SEDAM's kitchen when engaged in conversation. The telephone lines to SEDAM's home are underground although they do emerge in an area of the yard where RUIZ worked. The SEDAMS were always home when RUIZ worked for them.

RUIZ's last day of employment was on April 15, 1972, when SEDAM wrote out his pay check for $40.00. Upon RUIZ's request, SEDAM made this check payable to a DON HEATH, whom RUIZ stated he was living with in McLean, Virginia. SEDAM recalled HEATH as being employed at the U.S. State Department or the Agency for International Development (AID). However, SEDAM telephoned RUIZ on a couple of occasions and described speaking to someone, a male, who spoke with a "thick, Spanish accent." He was supposed to return but called approximately a week and a half later stating he would not be returning due to the fact he was now employed full time by Mc Cord Associates. He had told SEDAM earlier he was working part-time in Mc Cord's office but never stated in what capacity.

SEDAM recalled RUIZ driving an older model, black Ford Falcon station wagon, which was often difficult to start. He could not remember exactly but recalled the license plate as being Virginia license.

Mr. COLSON was advised of the nature of the interview was in regard to the break-in at the Democratic National Committee Headquarters, Watergate Apartments, Virginia Avenue, N.W., WDC, on Saturday, June 17, 1972. Prior to any questioning in this regard, Mr. COLSON was advised of his certain Constitutional rights particularly his right to remain silent and right to legal counsel. Mr. COLSON stated that he understood his rights and would answer any question posed by the interviewing Agent. Mr. COLSON waived his aforementioned rights as shown by an executed warning and waiver form, and furnished the following information:

He has been acquainted with a Mr. EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT for a number of years and that he originally met Mr. HUNT on a social occasion and through subsequent meetings determined that HUNT was a former Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) employee and appeared to be an extremely intelligent person. During the early part of 1971, Mr. HUNT informed Mr. COLSON that he, HUNT, was presently employed by the Robert R. Mullen Public Relations Firm of WDC and that at the present time was in the position to offer his assistance to the President and the Republican Party in any manner deemed necessary. At that time, certain classified document were being considered for reclassification, these documents became later known as the Pentagon Papers and for this reason COLSON thought HUNT might be the appropriate person, based on his past experience with the CIA to assist in this declassification. At the end of June or early July, 1971, HUNT was considered for this position and in July, 1971, HUNT was retained as a Consultant for the purpose of his reviewing these classified documents for declassification.

HUNT was administratively assigned to Mr. COLSON's staff but actually HUNT worked with a special declassification unit. Mr. COLSON stated that HUNT was only under his direct supervision for only a short period of time, approximately six or seven weeks while he, HUNT, participated in the declassification of the aforementioned documents. During the period of time HUNT worked on this particular project, Mr. COLSON advised that he was under the direct supervision of a Mr. DAVID YOUNG. After completion of the declassification project, Mr. COLSON believed that based on Mr. HUNT's experience in South America he was assigned to investigate narcotic traff from that area into the U.S. Mr. COLSON stated that he believed that HUNT worked on the declassification project until the end of 1971 or the early part of 1972 at which time he began participating in the securing of intelligence information in the drug trafficking area.

During the Spring of 1972, HUNT advised Mr. COLSON that he had completed all his projects and that he had nothing pending at that time. Mr. COLSON stated that Mr. HUNT was not involved in any activities in his capactiy as a Consultant after March, 1972, and was removed form the rolls of the White House Staff as a Consultant at the end of March, 1972.

Mr. COLSON stated that HUNT was paid on a time work basis rather than receiving a pre-determined salary. HUNT was reimbursed for any expenses incurred while working as a Consultant but did not actually have an open expense account. Mr. COLSON stated that he believed that HUNT submitted his last expense voucher on April 1, 1972, for the month of March, 1972. However, Mr. COLSON stated that as an administrative matter Mr. HUNT is listed as a Consultant to the White House but has not acted in such a capacity since March, 1972. He further related that an office exists on the third floor of the Executive Office Building which is technically assigned to HUNT. He also advised that HUNT has a pass to the Executive Office Building and could come and go at will.

Mr. COLSON related that he has no knowledge that the Robert R. Mullen Public Relations Firm is connected with any other Government Agency. He stated that he could provide no information relative to the break-in at the Watergate Apartments on June 17, 1972, and that he had no knowledge of any of the individuals arrested in that record, nor with any other names that had become associated with those persons at a subsequent date except the name of E. HOWARD HUNT.

Mr. COLSON explained his duties at the White House as receiving special assignments from the President, advising the President in domestic issues and domestic legislation. Mr. COLSON stated that he also heads up the news planning operation but that he would have no connection with the investigation conducted by the White House to ascertain the identities of any person or persons leaking information from those offices.

Mr. COLSON stated that while EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT was acting as a Consultant to the President, he was also employed by the Robert R. Mullen Public Relations Firm.

MARTINEZ reviewed this form in the presence of a District of Columbia Jail Guard and executed it by signing it, thereby consenting to an interview.

Thereafter, MARTINEZ was advised of the identity of DANIEL C. MAHAN and JOHN E. DENTON as Special Agents of the FBI of WDC. He was advised that the interview was concerning his alleged presence at the Democratic National Committe Headquarters of the Watergate Apartments during the early morning hours of June 17, 1972, and his alleged possession at that time, of electronic listening equipment. Mr. MARTINEZ was then advised of his rights regarding his right to remain silent and right to legal counsel, as they are set out on a warning and waiver form.

Mr. MARTINEZ stated that he desired further explanation for the purpose of the interview and was informed specifically that it was as to why he was allegedly present at the aforementioned location on the morning of June 17, 1972. MARTINEZ responded "that's the $64,000. question, isn't it?"

Additional information regarding the purpose of the interviewed was furnished MARTINEZ, at which time he stated he did not wish to afford an interview, and thereafter the interview was terminated.

JOHN NOCITA, Program Coordinator, Special Analysis Division of the Wartime Information Security Program (SAD), (phone number 395-5722), furnished the following information:

Mr. NOCITA indicated that he currently served as a member of the President's Office of Emergency Preparedness (OEP), 800 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. In that capacity, he was designated to serve as Program Coordinator for SAD.

Mr. NOCITA described SAD as a Military Reserve Unit, serving under the United States Department of Defense (DOD), with the responsibility for the formulation of contingency plans for the censorship of communications leaving the United States during a future wartime emergency situation. Mr. NOCITA stated that this military reserve group has the responsibility for development of plans to identify requisites for the accomplishment of such censorship in the areas of postal services and telecommunications, such as, appropriate methods for the use of sophisticated surveillance equipment to obtain censorship and then to disseminate the information obtained to appropriate government agencies.

The OEP is responsible only for policy guidance and coordination of SAD. OEP also provides the space in which the group holds its meetings on a regular monthly basis.

Mr. NOCITA indicated that SAD does not compile any lists of subversive individuals or organizations. He also stated that it has formulated no plans pertinent to the censorship of press. He noted, however, that a voluntary code of press censorship has been established by the media for possible use in a future emergency situation. This code requires purely voluntary participation on the part of the press.

Mr. NOCITA advised that although SAD formulates plans pertinent to censorship activities, it does not have the capability to carry out the plans which it formulates.

The current Commanding Officer of SAD is Colonel JAMES LANDIS, U. S. Army Reserve. LANDIS has served in that position since October, 1971. The Unit's Deputy Commander is Captain RICHARD L. FRANZ, U. S. Navy Reserve.

Mr. NOCITA advised that JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR., who is a Colonel in the U. S. Air Force Reserve, had recently served as the senior Air Force officer in the Air Force component of SAD. NOCITA noted that SAD is a Tri-Service Unit composed of five members from the Army, Navy, and Air Force. Responsibility for supervision of the Air Force component rests with Mr. FRANK BLAZER, USAF, Forrestal Building, Washington, D. C. (telephone number OX3-5509). NOCITA noted that MC CORD has been a member of SAD for approximately one year. He furnished the interviewing Agents with a copy of the current roster for SAD.

Major ROBERT A. YOUNG, United States Army Reserves (USAR), Chief, Systems Design and Programming Branch, Department of State, Virginia Avenue and C Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), furnished the following information:

Major YOUNG indicated that he had been employed by the Department of State for the past 7½ years. He indicated that he has served in his present position for the past four years. Major YOUNG currently has been assigned a Top Secret Crypto Security Clearance.

Major YOUNG advised that he has been familiar with JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR., and MC CORD's family for approximately the past 4½ years. However, he stated that his relationship with MC CORD was primarily based on their mutual service in a Military Reserve Unit under the Department of Defense, Special Analysis Division of the Wartime Information Security Program (SAD).

YOUNG indicated that he had recommended MC CORD for a position in that Reserve Unit on the basis of MC CORD's service in the United States Air Force (USAF) and CIA.

SAD meets on the first weekend of every month. MC CORD withdrew from the Military Reserve Unit approximately four months ago due to his involvement as Security Chief for the Republican National Convention. Subsequent to his withdrawal, MC CORD was probably assigned to "NARS", a holding group for unassigned Air Force officers in the active reserve element.

YOUNG stated that he believed MC CORD's special field of interest was physical security and the use of technical surveillance equipment.

GERALD J. MASLANIK, Assistant Property Manager, Watergate Improvement Association, Suite 455, 600 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), was interviewed at his office and made available five reports regarding breakings and attempted breakings at 2600 Virginia Avenue, N.W., copies of which are attached. He was unable to provide any additional information to that contained in these reports. As far as he knows, the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) was called in each case and their reports will contain whatever investigation was conducted.

In addition he advised that although he has no reports regarding an attempted breaking at the law firm of PATRICIA ROBERTS HARRIS on the 10th floor of the Watergate Office Building, 600 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC. He felt that information he does have may be of some significance in the light of the Democratic National Committee burglary. He felt there may possibly be some connection since HARRIS's office also housed the Credentials Committee of the Democratic National Committee.

Some time between 6:30 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. one day approximately a half week ago, an attempt was made to enter the double doors to HARRIS's office. Preliminary investigation indicated a crowbar was used which completely damaged the lock and it appeared to be an unsuccessful attempt to enter the office.

He was unable to provide any additional information.

IRA J. O'NEAL, Major, Director of Operations, General Security Services, Incorporated, 1254 23rd Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), was interviewed at his office and provided the following information:

During late April and May, 1972, several security guards who were employed by his company reported finding the doors leading from the garage area on Levels B-1, B-2 and B-3 to the office building, 2600 Virginia Avenue, N.W., held open with wads of paper. The doors in question were discovered in this condition usually after 6:30 p.m. weekdays and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

At that time and even now he feels that Watergate residents were responsible and used this technique to avoid walking around the block to the main entrance of the building. He noted also that the stairway door leading to the 6th floor was often found stuffed with paper which matched the paper from the printing room of the Democratic National Committee. This appears again to have been done by employees of the Democratic National Committee to go back and forth between the 6th and 5th floors without taking the elevator.

As far as any previous breakings or attempted breakings at 2600 Virginia Avenue, N.W., are concerned, he advised that this information would be in the hands of GERALD J. MASLANIK, Assistant Property Manager, Watergate Improvement Association, Suite 455, 600 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC, telephone 337-0020.

However, he did recall that one of the guards, MICHAEL GORDON, 20 Madison Street, N.W., telephone RA3-5380, called him to report an attempted breaking at the Democratic National Committee on May 29, 1972, and subsequently reported this to the

THOMAS MC GILLICUDDY, Investigator, General Security Services, Incorporated, 1254 23rd Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), was interviewed at his office and provided the following information:

On May 29, 1972, one of the security guards, LEROY C. BROWN, discovered the lock on the door to the Democratic National Committee offices, 2600 Virginia Avenue, N.W., had been tampered with and subsequently notified his office in the Second District, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD).

The police responded, dusted for fingerprints and notified Mr. ERIC JAFFE of the Democratic National Committee. Mr. JAFFE determined that the door was still locked and nothing was missing from the office area. On the door there were found marks from a wrench type apparatus by which an unsuccessful attempt had been made to unscrew the lock assembly.

After the investigating officers completed their investigation, one of the building engineers found a key which could be inserted in the front door lock, but would not lock or unlock the door to the office. He found this key in the cigarette recepticle in the hallway next to the elevators on the 6th floor. The MPD was subsequently notified and advised Mr. MC GILLICUDDY to preserve the key for future reference if another attempt was made to enter the office. This key was turned over to the interviewing agent in connection with the Democratic National Committee burglary.

Mr. MC GILLICUDDY advised that on the evening of June 16, 1972, there were two guards on duty in addition to FRANK WILLS, who discovered the tape on the doors. LEROY C. BROWN, 1428 Chapin Street, N.W., telephone 265-7610, was on duty from 5:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. that date and FLETCHER

Mr. JAMES C. MC KINNEY, Chief Operations, Federal Communications Commission, 1919 M Street, N. W., furnished the following information:

Mr. MC KINNEY stated that the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) had issued authority for JAMES W. MC CORD, JR., to utilize frequency 161.92 megahertz and one 156.26 megahertz within his capacity as a security officer for the Committee to Re-elect the President and that this equipment would be primarily used at the Republican National Convention in Miami Beach. These frequencies are clear channels between radio frequency normally held by Marine bands and issued for such occasions on a special clearance known as an STA clearance. The frequencies were issued to McCord Associates and authorization stipulations were set forth as to the restrictions placed on [illegible] this equipment utilizing the approved frequencies.

Mr. MC KINNEY said that "FCC has no knowledge the radios were used" but stated that any use of them by individuals other than the prescribed uses as set forth in the authorization from FCC would constitute a violation of Title 47, CFR Section 9583 (a2). In essence Mr. MC KINNEY stated that this law forbids the use of the equipment which involves activity contrary to local state or federal law.

Mr MC KINNEY advised that the records of FCC further reflect that McCord Associates Incorporated are authorized to have two citizens Class D radio units that call letters KEPO141 and that this authorization was instituted December 8, 1971 to extend up until December 8, 1976. Class D radio service is available to any citizen over 18 years of age and he added that McCord Associates Incorporated has applied for additional authority to maintain an increase in the number of Class D radio units above the two they presently hold.

At this time Mr. MC KINNEY furnished the interviewing agents with a Xerox copy of the following:
