LAKE SUCCESS--PAUL ROBESON, JR., TODAY LED SOME 150 COLLEGE-AGE MEN AND WOMEN IN PROTESTING WAR AND THE ATOM BOMB AT THE UNITED NATIONS AND IN BOOING MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT.

THE DEMONSTRATORS SAT IN A CIRCLE IN THE MAIN PUBLIC CORRIDOR OF THE UN HEADQUARTERS BUILDING SINGING ANTI-WAR SONGS AND WHEN THE FORMER FIRST LADY, AMERICAN DELEGATE TO THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY, PASSED NEARBY, SHE SAID:

"I HAVE NO SYMPATHY WITH THIS GROUP. ALL OF YOU HAD BETTER GO HOME."

THE YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN HISSED.

APU SHAN, INTERPRETER FOR THE NINE-MAN CHINESE COMMUNIST DELEGATION HERE, SYMPATHIZED WITH THE GROUP AND TOLD A REPORTER:

"SEND OUR GREETINGS TO THOSE PEOPLE CARRYING THE 'NO A-BOMB' SIGNS."

THE GROUP VOWING TO SIT ON THE FLOOR UNTIL SOME UN OFFICIAL RECEIVED THEM, BUT FINALLY THEY BROKE UP AND WENT HOME.

UN GUARDS MADE NO ATTEMPT TO STOP THE DEMONSTRATION. THE GROUP CALLED ITSELF THE "YOUTH VIGIL FOR PEACE."

WOMEN CALLING THEMSELVES AMERICAN WOMEN FOR PEACE SPENT THE AFTERNOON IN A NEARBY ROOM WATCHING THE SECURITY COUNCIL DEBATE ON CHINESE COMMUNIST INTERVENTION IN KOREA AND PEKING'S CHARGES OF AMERICAN AGGRESSION AGAINST FORMOSA.
