~~Vishinsky Passes Up Bid~~ To Join in Radio Debate

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 2—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, has declined an invitation to appear on a women's club forum next Sunday to discuss his recent "war-mongering" charges, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt revealed today.

Mrs. Roosevelt, moderator of the "World Security Workshop" program on the American Broadcasting Company's network, said Mr. Vishinsky had explained that he was too busy with United Nations Assembly work to prepare for such an appearance.

An invitation to the Yugoslav delegation to provide another participant in the forum has not yet been answered, it was learned. Yugoslavia has introduced a resolution before the Assembly condemning dissemination of "slander."
