How the Communists broke into the New Deal first in 1936, and how Roosevelt demanded of Martin Dies that he stop investigating the Communists—that there was no menace of Communism in America.

How Thereafter Mrs. Roosevelt became the liaison between the New Deal politicians and the Red Front.

The Story of How the Roosevelt family made FIVE MILLION DOLLARS while Roosevelt was in the White House.

For the First Time—the inside story of the great banking crisis.

The Hectic Comedy of that curious circus of the wild men with their plans for locating everybody on Easy Street, in the chapter on the DANCE OF THE CRACKPOTS.

The First Account of how Roosevelt tried to use the war to destroy the Republican Party in 1940—and nearly succeeded.

The First Full Inside Story of the depression of 1938 as collected from the confessions of the New Dealers themselves, the battles that went on behind the scenes in the White House, when Roosevelt believed he was done for, until the war saved him.
