Mrs. Roosevelt Criticizes Unveiling of Yalta Files

By the Associated Press

TEL AVIV, Israel, Mar. 18.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today that she was "sure" the United States record of the Yalta Conference would not have been published if her husband had been alive.

The wartime President's widow arrived here by air today to visit children's institutions in Israel. Asked for comment on the State Department disclosures, she replied:

"My husband talked with Mr. Churchill about a great many things and it is possibly true he suggested that Hong Kong—a great international port—be handed over to China. But I wasn't there and I don't know.

"If my husband were alive, I am sure it would not have been published," she added emphatically.
