SUBJECT: GIBBS JUNIOR COLLEGE
ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA
INFORMATION CONCERNING (Central Research Section)

This is to advise I completed as scheduled a commencement address at Gibbs Junior College, St. Petersburg, Florida, on the night of June 2, 1960. Approximately 1,400 to 1,600 people were present. Of this number, perhaps 100 or so were white people. I was introduced by Cody Fowler of Tampa who is the head of the Governor's Biracial Committee in Florida and a former president of the American Bar Association. Mr. Fowler was very laudatory of both the FBI and the Director.
