II. General Communist Party Activity

There is set forth herewith a general summary of the Communist Party activity of the subject, outlined in chronological order:

In the "Daily Worker" of February 16, 1949, page 2, columns 3 and 4, it was reported that CLAUDIA JONES of the National Women's Commission, CP, USA, was a member of a delegation of ten women organized by the Congress of American Women, who petitioned Judge HAROLD R. MEDINA, United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on February 15, 1949 to register a protest against exclusion of women from jury service. Dr. GENE WEITFISH, Chairman of the Congress of American Women, was the delegation spokesman.

In the "Daily Worker" of February 22, 1949, page 2, column 3, it was reported that "CLAUDIA JONES, national leader of the Communist Party," would speak at the Lincoln-Douglas Memorial Meeting on February 23, 1949 at Manhattan Center, New York City.

The "Daily Worker" of February 23, 1949, page 7, column 3, reported that the above-mentioned Memorial Meeting was being sponsored by the New York State Youth Board of the Communist Party. It was stated that the theme of the meeting would be "Youth fights for peace and freedom." The specific points to be considered at the meeting would include:

- (1) Protest against police brutality.
- (2) Fight for jobs for Negro youth.
- (3) Smash the indictments.
- (4) Celebrate Colonial Youth Day.

The principal speakers were listed as HENRY WINSTON, CLAUDIA JONES and LOU DISKIN.

In the "Daily Worker" of April 27, 1949, page 7, column 4, it was reported that CLAUDIA JONES spoke at a "Women Fight Deportation Meeting" called by the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born on April 28, 1949 at the City Center Casino, 135 West 55th Street. Other speakers at this meeting included CAROL KING, ANITA ALVAREZ, ELIZABETH SASULY, FREDERICK WASHINGTON, and Dr. ANNETTE RUBENSTEIN. 4

In the "Daily Worker" of June 3, 1949, page 4, column 1, it was reported that CLAUDIA JONES, representing the Communist Party, was a member of a delegation sent to Washington by the National Committee to Free the INGRAM Family, to protest to the Department of Justice officials against the inactivity in the INGRAM case.

In the "Daily Worker" of May 27, 1949, it was reported that CLAUDIA JONES, of the Women's Commission of the National Committee of the CP, was scheduled to be the principal speaker at an all-day conference on "Marxism and the Woman Question" called by the Jefferson School of Social Science for June 4, 1949.

[REDACTED]

(C) (C)

[REDACTED] advised that approximately 300 men, women and children appeared at the Federal House of Detention on June 4, 1949, as above reported. The demonstration which followed was directed by CLAUDIA JONES. The demonstrators carried posters which bore inscriptions such as "Jail the Lynchers," "Free the Fighters for Freedom," "Jail the Nazi Murders," "Free American Vets," "Demand Judge MEDINA release WINSTON, GATES and HALL," and "Dismiss the Indictments - Free the 12." It was also observed that copies of the "Worker" were distributed to passers-by announcing that mass picketing

In the "Daily Worker" of June 17, 1949, page 10, column 1, in a column written by ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, it was reported that GIL GREEN, member of the National Board of the CP, and indicted CP leader, and CLAUDIA JONES would be the scheduled speakers at a July 4th "All-Nations Press Picnic" to be held in Chicago on July 4, 1949.

In the "Daily Worker" of July 6, 1949, page 2, column 4, it was reported that five thousand persons attended the July 4th picnic sponsored by "The Illinois Worker" and "twelve national progressive newspapers", which was held in Chicago July 4, 1949.

The principal speakers included CLAUDIA JONES and HERBERT MARCH, organizer for the CIO United Packinghouse Workers, and GIL GREEN. With reference to CLAUDIA JONES, it was stated that "A fiery Negro woman leader drew loud applause throughout her blistering exposure of the frameup trial of the Communist Party leaders."

In the "Daily Worker" of July 6, 1949, page 5, column 3, it was reported that CLAUDIA JONES was one of the sponsors of a reunion dance for EL-YCL-EKS (Young Communist League members), to be held July 9, 1949 at the Hotel Theresa, 125th Street and 7th Avenue, New York City.

[REDACTED]

In the "Daily Worker" of August 1, 1949, page 7, column 3, there appeared the first article in a series of three articles written by CLAUDIA JONES on the topic "Un-American Committee and the Negro People." In this article the subject accuses the "House Un-American Committee" for calling before it spokesman of the Negro people to impugn all the Negro people in this country. She stated that never before in the history of the nation has the loyalty of a whole people been so attacked. She stated that the hearings were timed at a strategic moment for American imperialist reaction. She stated "To begin with, and primarily, they coincided with the pivotal attack on civil liberties at Foley Square where 12 Communist leaders face a heresy trial for their political ideas because of indictments by the Department of Justice and the Truman administration". She pointed out that three of the defendants were jailed for protesting against "The obvious bias of a judge, who serves monopoly capital and who sought to put in jeopardy the names of thousands of working class men and women by demanding that the defendants become stoolpigeons." She stated that the trial reached a significant highlight in the testimony of BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Communist leader and Councilman from the city of New York. CLAUDIA JONES said that DAVIS utilized the "weapon of Marxism-Leninism to throw light

"on the forces responsible for the national oppression of the Negro people—the capitalist class itself."

In the "Daily Worker" of August 2, 1949, page 7, column 3, the second article in a series of three appeared on "Un-American Committee and the Negro People." In this article the subject stated that "It is more than a passing coincidence that at the Un-American Committee loyalty hearings on 'Communism and the Negro' the Negro reformist leaders—such as LESTER GRANGER, CHARLES S. JOHNSON (to say nothing of the miserable stoolpigeons such as MANNING JOHNSON) were not powerful enough or convincing enough in their views on this subject. This, despite the American bourgeoisie's all out efforts to control the Negro press through ads, or to meagerly give crumbs from its profit-laden tables for the support of such institutions as the reformists may lead."

She stated "The ever-present virus of 'white supremacy,' intensified national oppression, and the second class citizenship, plus intellectual integrity compelled Rev. Sandy Ray, one of the leading Negro religious leaders, the chairman of the Social Service Commission of the National Baptist Convention, to boldly declare, without apology, of the Jimcrow lynch system in the United States: 'We do, however, seek to overthrow an intangible empire which exists within our government and many of our institutions throughout the land. It is that empire which shelters injustice, oppressions, exploitation, segregation, discrimination, illwill and all of the inconsistencies which make for separation, tension and strife. It is against that empire that we wage our war. It is that empire that must be subdued if we are to have domestic peace and give effective leadership in world chaos.'"

In the "Daily Worker" of August 7, 1949 there appeared the third of the series of articles by CLAUDIA JONES. In this article the subject stated that the Un-American Activities Committee hearings were unsuccessful and boomeranged. She said, "They boomeranged, first, because the Negro question is itself 'the Achilles heel of American imperialism' in the words of the national chairman of the Communist Party, William Z. Foster. And because, the more they touch it, the more the imperialists are exposed for what they are: the oppressors of the Negro people, of the working class, the organizers of force and violence against the Negro people, the financiers of exploitation of six million Negroes and four million whites in the South, from which exploitation they wring the profits to stuff their coffers for the financing of an imperialist atomic war and domestic fascism!"

"The hearings boomeranged, for a second reason. And that is because

NY 100-18676

"even as they utilized the old 'divide-and-conquer' tactic, the eyes of 14,000,000 Negro Americans, the eyes of countless white Americans, the eyes of nationally and colonially oppressed peoples in Africa, the West Indies, and in Liberated China, the eyes of the New European Democracies, the eyes of the leader of the world democratic forces, the Soviet Union, were upon them.

"And thirdly, these hearings boomeranged because even among reformist Negro leaders, intellectual integrity and intensified national oppression pushes many of them to a clearer realization of the profound truth spoken by Frederick Douglass: 'Power concedes nothing without struggle.' " b1 [REDACTED] (C) advised that CLAUDIA JONES was observed with Mrs. EDNA WINSTON, wife of HENRY WINSTON, in the courtroom at the Communist Party trial, United States Court House, Foley Square, on September 21 and 22, 1949.
