On January 5, 1976, the Norwegian Ambassador to Argentina and Paraguay, Knut Brodsgaard Aars, advised he recently received information from the foreign office in Oslo indicating that the Norwegian Government had been informally approached in order to sound out the possibilities of captioned individual being accepted for residence in Norway as a political exile. Ambassador Aars noted that the Norwegian Government had been advised that the Argentine Government has a pending request with the Paraguayan Government for the extradition of captioned individual and that should the extradition request be favorably received, that captioned individual, under the terms of the Argentine Constitution, would be able to request that he be allowed to leave Argentina for another third country willing to accept him.

It is noted that subject was arrested during May, 1975 by the Police of the Capital of Asuncion, Paraguay after he had illegally entered Paraguay using false Argentine documentation. Captioned individual is the brother of ERP leader Mario Roberto Santucho.

On 1/27/76, Pastor Coronel, Chief of Investigations, Police of the Capital, Asuncion, Paraguay, provided the following information:

During the morning of 1/27/76, Coronel was summoned by Paraguayan President Alfredo Stroessner and advised that the Paraguayan Government had been informed by the Mexican Government that captioned individual would be accepted as a political exile in Mexico, should the Paraguayan Government desire to have him removed from Paraguay.

Coronel advised President Stroessner that he would be opposed to allowing Santucho to leave Paraguay, since in Coronel's view, Santucho is a dangerous terrorist leader who undoubtedly, should he be allowed to go to Mexico City, would continue activities on behalf of the ERP.
