SUBJECT: CORETTA SCOTT KING
aka Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr.
INFORMATION CONCERNING (SUBVERSIVE CONTROL)
(OO:AT)

ReWFOairtel dated 4/23/62, captioned, "Request For Passport Files By HCUA On 50 Individuals Who Departed For Geneva, Switzerland, 4/1/62, Security Matter - Subversive Control," which stated the WFO to furnish Bureau and OO with information appearing in current passport applications of these individuals.

ReNYairtel dated 4/5/62, entitled, "Women's International Strike For Peace: Information Concerning (IS)," (Bufile 62-107350), set out names of individuals going to Geneva.

On 6/27/62, the current passport application for the captioned individual at the Passport Office, USDS, Washington, D. C., was reviewed by IC [redacted]. The following was contained therein: CORETTA SCOTT KING was issued passport C224842 on 3/28/62. This was valid for travel to all countries with the exception of Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea, and Viet-Nam under communist control.

In an application for the passport dated 3/27/62, at Atlanta, Georgia, the subject advised that she was born on 4/27/27, at Heiberger, Alabama. Her residence was listed as 653 Johnson Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia.

KING listed her father as OBIE SCOTT, who was born on 8/24/99, at Heiberger. Her mother was listed as BERNICE M. SCOTT, who was born on 2/11/05, at Heiberger.

She married MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. on 6/18/53. He was born on 1/15/29, at Atlanta, Georgia, and resided with the subject.

Marion, Ala., as to the relatives of CORETTA SCOTT KING in that area. MOOTY stated that CORETTA KING was born and raised in an area in Perry County, Ala., known as "North Perry." Her father is OBIE SCOTT, who for years was known as an industrious individual and was well respected, however, in recent years, SCOTT has been mistrusted by both whites and Negroes. MOOTY stated that CORETTA KING obtained her college education "up north" and while attending school, she met and married MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. Since KING has vaulted into prominence, OBIE SCOTT, his father-in-law, has taken advantage of KING's reputation and made trips to various counties outside of Perry County, Ala. and collected funds under KING's name for the alleged purpose of contributing it to KING's movement. This collecting of funds has been suspected by individuals in Perry County of being for SCOTT's own personal use and many Negroes in Perry County have expressed doubts that the funds ever reach the treasury of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference under Rev. KING.

As to subject, MOOTY advised that she seldom comes to the Perry County area. She has promoted no activities in the area, and apparently is concerned with other areas rather than Perry County, Ala.

Mobile file is being considered RUC in this matter.

Re: Mrs. Martin Luther King

On November 29, 1965, Detective Lieutenant George Rollins, Special Investigations Bureau, Detroit, Michigan, Police Department, advised that Mrs. Martin Luther King, on November 28, 1965, spoke at the New Bethel Baptist Church, Linwood and Philadelphia, Detroit, Michigan.

"The Detroit Free Press", a Detroit daily metropolitan newspaper, in its November 29, 1965, edition, on Page 3, Section A, contained an article captioned, "Viet Policy Raked Mrs. King: Peace Warrior". This article, in part, stated, Mrs. King, wife of Martin Luther King, Jr., indicated that she and the civil rights movement may play an increasingly active role in the peace movement. Mrs. King said that she is not sure some American policymakers want a negotiated end to the war in Vietnam.

"I think there are people (in the government) who are sincere in feeling we can win the war with military might. I'm not sure they want it to end in any other way."

The article goes on to state that her appearance here followed her participation Saturday, November 27, 1965, in the March in Washington of 25,000 persons protesting American policy in Vietnam. Mrs. King was quoted as saying, "I was very sympathetic to the march and I share the goals of the peace groups."

Mrs. King further mentions in this article that she is involved in Women's Peace Movements. She stated that her husband's Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) is not yet ready to expand into the peace movement but that a large percentage of the SCLC membership supports it.

"The civil rights movement and the peace movement must work together ultimately, because peace and civil rights are part of the same problem."

This reference is a teletype dated 4/16/63 from Birmingham which set out information pertaining to the behind-the-scenes maneuvering that went on in connection with the allegation that Martin Luther King, Jr., was being held incommunicado in the Birmingham City Jail.* It was indicated that President Kennedy was perturbed over the report that King had not been permitted to call his wife, Mrs. Martin Luther King, over the Easter Sunday. On Monday 4/15/63 King was permitted to call his wife, however, the conversation was restricted to personal matters.

Attention was called to a UPI dispatch dated 4/15/63 at Atlanta which stated that Mrs. King reportedly telephoned President Kennedy, and the President told her that FBI Agents had talked to her husband in the Birmingham Jail on 4/14/63 and confirmed that he was all right.

Birmingham Office advised that no Agents had been in contact with King since his incarceration.

Southern Christian Leadership Conference
(SCLC) - Racial Matters

On April 17, 1968, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, ascertained that on that date Stanley Levison was in contact with Dora McDonald, Secretary to Martin Luther King, Jr., deceased head of the SCLC, and thereafter Coretta King, wife of Martin Luther King. McDonald told Levison that "Meet the Press" wants Ralph Abernathy, successor to Martin Luther King as head of the SCLC, to appear on this program as soon as possible and Coretta King at a later date. She stated that she had not talked to Abernathy who was still in Memphis. Levison questioned if Martin Luther King had not been scheduled to appear on "Face the Nation" then added that "Meet the Press" was the roughest one. He said he had talked with Abernathy and advised him not to appear on "Face the Nation" at the present time because he believed Abernathy was gambling with his reputation and if Abernathy "falls on his face" he would do so before the whole nation. He said Abernathy agreed. Levison added that as far as Abernathy is concerned, it would be best if he put off any appearance until just before the Washington Campaign (Poor People's Campaign scheduled for Washington, D.C.) and that Abernathy acknowledged that he needs to study up on current legislation and political facts. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Levison referred to Coretta King's possible appearance at the major mass anti-Vietnam war demonstration scheduled for New York City on April 27, 1968. He said he had checked with Dave Dellinger's (National Director, National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam) office and that he, Levison, feels that it is alright for her to appear on this program and also to participate in the Mothers' March (in Washington, D.C. in connection with the Poor People's Campaign) as long as she does not do anything else.

Levison then told Coretta King that he had checked with Dave Dellinger's office and that there is a good platform so that if she is inclined to participate, they should be promptly advised so they can have the benefit of the publicity. He emphasized that she should not do other things because it would be too much exposure. Comparing her situation with that of Jackie Kennedy, Coretta commented that she believes many people see that her life was not the same, that people understand how she was "in the picture" and have now given her a mandate that she must remain "in the picture". Levison agreed but counselled this should be done gradually and in good taste.

Coretta asked about requests for articles about herself and Levison advised that, as a general principle, proceeds for such articles should go to her because the subject of the articles will command the price. He said if thousands are paid for an article, then a few hundred is all the writer is entitled to.

Levison mentioned that Grosset and Dunlap, an old publishing firm, is coming out with a book, "I Had A Dream", about Martin Luther King which is unauthorized. He said Harper and Rowe are willing to have their lawyers prepare an injunction preventing or stopping the publication and distribution of this book, but a telegram is needed from Coretta to proceed. Levison then read a telegram for her signature and she agreed to have Dora McDonald send it immediately.

Coretta discussed requests she had received for appearances and Levison stated that she would receive many requests but that she will have to be selective and turn many down. He counselled that she should adopt the position that, for the present, she feels that activity in King's behalf has to be toward his memorial and that it would not serve anyone if her name is used by everyone. He added that this says she is using her name in the area she knows would be closest to King, his family and his organization. He said it is important in preserving the strength of a name that it not be overused.

Finally, Levison asked if Coretta wanted him to contact Dave Dellinger. She stated that he should call Dellinger and point out that her exposure must be limited and that she must be protected because she is only doing the things she feels very strongly about, that is, those things that are related to the work of her husband.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early, 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

Dear Mrs. Stegall:

I thought the President might like to know that we have received information from a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past indicating that Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York recently contacted Coretta King, widow of the late Martin Luther King, Jr., who was President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference at the time of his death. Governor Rockefeller asked Mrs. King if the Southern Christian Leadership Conference needed money or if she personally needed money. She referred Governor Rockefeller to Andrew Young, Executive Vice President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, on both questions.

Governor Rockefeller also extended an invitation to Mrs. King and her family to get together with his family when things settle down.

The above information is being furnished to the Attorney General.

Sincerely yours,

[redacted] advised recently that Stanley Levison, long-time secret Communist Party member, has been in contact with Coretta King, widow of the late Martin Luther King, Jr., twice and counseled her relative to public appearances and finances. It is apparent that Mrs. King is relying heavily on Levison's advice. At his instruction she has agreed to appear at a mass anti-Vietnam war demonstration scheduled for Central Park, New York, New York, on April 27, 1968. He has also counseled her to appear before the Mothers' march in connection with the "Poor People's Campaign" in the Nation's Capital.

In view of the above, the Atlanta Office should immediately open a case on Mrs. King and conduct a discreet investigation to follow her activities through established informants and sources. You should furnish the Bureau with the results of a file review concerning Mrs. King's background and activities in a form suitable for dissemination.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS:

MRS
[Redacted] has advised that recently Mrs. King, while in conference with Stanley Levison, long-time secret Communist Party member and former principal advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr., advised him that Governor Nelson Rockefeller had contacted her and asked her if SCLC needed any money or if she personally needed money. She referred Governor Rockefeller to Andrew Young, Executive Vice President, SCLC, on both of these questions.

For your information, [redacted] has advised that Mrs. King has been in contact with Levison twice for advice concerning her personal appearances and finances.

It is apparent that Levison will continue to play a dominant role in the affairs of Mrs. King and the SCLC.

By separate communication we are instructing the Atlanta Office to conduct a discreet investigation of Mrs. King so that we can continue to fulfill our responsibilities relative to the subversive influence in racial matters.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) The attached letters be sent to Mrs. Mildred Stegall at the White House and the Attorney General.

(2) The attached airtel be sent to the Atlanta Office instructing them to conduct a discreet investigation of Mrs. King.

RACIAL MATTER

The following information was furnished on April 29, 1968 by source one, who has furnished reliable information in the past: ~~(S)~~ (U)

The Women for Legislative Action (WLA) (see appendix) is contacting its membership throughout Southern California to advise them that Coretta S. King, widow of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, is scheduled to speak at a public meeting at 8:15 p.m., May 10, 1968, at the Olympic Auditorium, 1801 South Grand, Los Angeles. ~~(S)~~ (U)

The topic of Mrs. King's projected speech has not been indicated by WLA, however, source was of the opinion it would be an attempt to tie the anti-Vietnam movement to the civil rights movement. ~~(S)~~ (U)

WOMEN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

A source advised on May 1, 1963, that the Women for Legislative Action was formed in 1952, claiming to be an independent organization dedicated to non-partisan participation in legislative and civic activities. Its position in favoring or opposing legislation usually parallels the position of the Communist Party and related groups. It also supports legislation to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Membership in the Women for Legislative Action does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

Another source advised on May 11, 1967, that the Women for Legislative Action continues to be active in the Los Angeles area.

STANLEY LEVISON, ON JUNE FIVE TOLD HIS WIFE OF AN SCLC MEETING HELD WASHINGTON, DC ON NIGHT OF JUNE FOUR.
HE DESCRIBED MEETING AS GOOD IN ONE SENSE AND NOT GOOD
IN ANOTHER. HE STATED THAT RALPH ABERNATHY IS HOPELESS
AND WAS ASLEEP DURING ENTIRE MEETING. HE INDICATED THAT CORETTA KING TOOK HIS ADVICE BUT INSISTED ON GIVING PRIORITY TO THE LIBRARY (NOT SPECIFIED). HE SAID SHE TOOK A GOOD POSITION ON MONEY AND ASSURED HIM SHE IS GOING AHEAD WITH THE BOOK (ABOUT HER LIFE WITH KING).
LEVISON SAID ABERNATHY TOOK HIM ASIDE AND TOLD HIM
THE ONLY TWO PEOPLE IN HIS LIFE HE TRUSTED WERE MARTIN LUTHER KING AND LEVISON. ALSO THAT ABERNATHY SAID

Subsequently, the source ascertained that Levison advised Harry Wachtel that he had spoken to Coretta King, widow of Martin Luther King, and told her that the SCLC has forgotten what the people who went to Washington for the PPC went for. He said he told her that she does not have the capacity to solve the problems, that he does not believe she should go into the leadership but if she does he will not go with her. Levison mentioned that there is a complete lack of integrity, that if they are not shaken up now nothing but evil will happen. He noted that Andrew Young does not want leadership preferring to be in the second level of leadership but that Coretta King wants the top leadership. He added that both Abernathy and Coretta King are inadequate. ~~A~~ U

The source learned on June 4, 1968, that on that date, Levison and Andrew Young discussed the SCLC meeting to be held in Washington, D.C. Levison mentioned that the meeting time had been changed because Coretta King was going to a union convention in Miami. He was critical of Coretta accepting this invitation because he had advised against it. ~~A~~ U.

Young explained that he felt Abernathy should attend but was not anxious to have Coretta King in on the negotiations with the international presidents. He said that he had suggested Wednesday, June 5, as a better day for the meeting. Young also mentioned that [] said that with respect to the SCLC going into a membership campaign that they want to try to guarantee that a good percentage of their membership would become SCLC members and that they are willing to push a membership drive but want Abernathy to be present. ~~S~~ u

Levison said he saw no objection for not going along with the meeting or going along with [] SCLC membership proposal. ~~S~~ u.

Young brought up the matter of Bayard Rustin's statement and said that Rustin wanted him to approve it. Young stated that he would not approve it without a group analyzing it. He said he did not know why Rustin issued it. ~~S~~ u.

Levison attacked Rustin's statement stating he has never seen anything as insulting. He said that the PPC effort in Washington is being sabotaged by the SCLC people in Washington, including Young, by actions such as bringing Rustin in to run the June 19 march. He told Young the SCLC was playing house with Resurrection City, that it had been said at the outset that not much of a city would be needed because once the action began and people went to jail they would be fed there. He said there has not been any campaign and for Rustin to come in as he has, compounds all the confusion about leadership. ~~S~~ u.

Levison brought up the fact that Coretta King wants to be on the SCLC Administrative Committee. He said he told her that the problems are too deep for her to think she can solve them, that she had underestimated the gravity of the problems and overestimated herself. He noted that Coretta is not sure whether she can work on the book she had planned for July because she felt she had to be in Resurrection City and that she has been told she has a duty to the movement. He said he told her that the book represents financial security and warned her against people trying to use her. Levison added that he believes that Coretta's conceit is such that she could not be afraid of doing the book. He said she resents the fact that they have set up a situation in which she can be financially independent but has to put out effort for it. He said she resents the money coming into the SCLC and thinks the movement owes her a living. ~~S~~ u Levison and Young agreed to meet at the Pitt Motel in Washington, D.C. on the afternoon of June 4, 1968. ~~S~~ u.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. ~~(S)~~ (U)

HE HAD TALKED WITH ABERNATHY TWO HOURS BEFORE AFTER TALKING TO ANDY YOUNG (EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF SCLC). HE SAID YOUNG TOOK THE POSITION THAT ABERNATHY ONLY LISTENS TO PEOPLE WHO FLATTER HIM AND NOT PERSONS WHO HAVE CRITICISM. LEVISON SAID HE TOLD YOUNG THAT IF IT IS POINTED OUT TO ABERNATHY THAT CERTAIN WEAKNESSES CAN KILL HIM, HE IS SMART ENOUGH TO LISTEN. LEVISON SAID HE SEES RIDICULE ARISING IN THE PRESS BECAUSE OF INEFFICIENCY OF THE SCLC WHICH WILL BE A REFLECTION ON ABERNATHY. HE SAID HE TOLD YOUNG THAT IF HE AND YOUNG TALK TO ABERNATHY THAT ABERNATHY KNOWS THEY ARE THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE ALWAYS DELIVERED AND WILL LISTEN. LEVISON STATED HE THEN TALKED TO ABERNATHY AND TOLD HIM HE WAS GOING TO BE THE OBJECT OF RIDICULE WHICH HAD ALREADY BEGUN, THAT THE PRESS HAS BEEN NICE TO HIM BUT IF HE DOES NOT ORGANIZE THE MAY THIRTY (POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN (PPC) MASS GATHERING IN WASHINGTON, DC) PROPERLY, HE WILL BE ATTACKED. LEVISON SAID HE RECOMMENDED THAT WYATT (WALKER FORMER SCLC OFFICIAL) WOULD BE A KEY MAN TO SET UP APPARATUS IN NEW YORK FOR THE PPC BECAUSE NEW YORK HAS TO PROVIDE MORE THAN HALF THE PEOPLE FOR THE WASHINGTON (MAY THIRTY) EVENT, AND ABERNATHY AGREED. CORETTA SAID IT IS

SHE STATED SHE EXPRESSED HER CONCERN ABOUT THE FUTURE OF SCLC TO ABERNATHY THAT SHE FELT IT IS IMPORTANT FOR HIM TO COMMUNICATE WITH HIS TOP LEADERSHIP AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE. LEVISON AND CORETTA DISCUSSED USING JESSE JACKSON'S (SCLC STAFF MEMBER) ABILITY TO THE BENEFIT OF SCLC. LEVISON STATED THAT DECISIONS SHOULD BE MADE BY THE TOP LEADERSHIP
COLLECTIVELY. CORETTA AGREED AND NOTED IF ABERNATHY WILL USE PEOPLE AROUND HIM COLLECTIVELY, HE WILL BE EFFECTIVE AND THE SCLC CAN GO ON WITHOUT BEING HAMPERED BY "ALL THE POWER PLAYS THAT ARE GOING TO COME." LEVISON SAID THAT THEY MUST BE FRANK AND HONEST IN DEALING WITH PEOPLE'S SHORTCOMINGS. LEVISON FELT
THE MOST CORRECT TYPE OF LEADERSHIP WOULD HAVE BEEN A COLLECTIVE LEADERSHIP. LEVISON AND CORETTA DISCUSSED HER OPINION THAT THE SCLC SHOULD HAVE A STRONG PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT. LEVISON
DID NOT AGREE. THEY ALSO DISCUSSED FUTURE FINANCING OF THE SCLC.
LEVISON SAID HE HAS NO CLEAR IDEA OF WHAT THE SOURCES OF FUNDS WILL BE BY THE FALL OF NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. ✓

COMMUNIST PARTY,
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

A schedule is currently being worked out for Gus Hall, Herbert Aptheker, Henry Winston and other CP, USA leaders to make speeches on behalf of the candidates. (S) u

The CP, USA does not expect its candidates will win. However, it is hoped their participation in the election will greatly assist in electing local Communist Party candidates. Not only does the running of the candidates furnish the CP, USA with a vast amount of publicity and propaganda about its program, which it could not possibly afford otherwise, but it should also help establish in the minds of the American people that this is a legal political party. (S) u

It is generally realized among the CP, USA leadership that not all Communist Party members and sympathizers will vote for the CP, USA ticket. Some members are already committed to support the Peace and Freedom Party, which is running Dr. Benjamin Spock for President and Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr. for Vice President. The leadership regards the Peace and Freedom Party as being strongest in the eastern United States, but its principal defect is that it does not have any national base or expression. (S) u

In addition, there are CP, USA members who are already committed to support the presidential candidacy of Senator Eugene McCarthy. This is particularly true in California. (S) u

Security Matter - C

On July 9, 1968, a confidential source advised some employees of Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) were under the impression that Coretta Scott King, widow of Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., former President, SCLC, planned to depart the United States on that date or July 10, 1968. Mrs. King expected to be accompanied by Mrs. Benita Bennette, wife of Fred C. Bennette, Southern Director, Operation Breadbasket, SCLC. Benita Bennette currently serves Mrs. King as an assistant and companion. Source could furnish no further details. ~~(S)~~

(U)

On July 11, 1968, source advised that some SCLC employees understood Mrs. King and Mrs. Bennette had left the United States (destination unknown), on July 10, 1968, for a period of twenty six days. Source pointed out that on July 11, 1968, he had learned via the news media that Mrs. King had stated she would be gone from her Atlanta, Georgia residence for several weeks. It was also reported that she would spend this time at an undisclosed secluded location in order to concentrate on the preparation of a book regarding her late husband. ~~(S)~~

The FBI has not investigated Coretta King. You are referred to a "~~Top Secret~~" document entitled "Communist Influence in Racial Matters -- A Current Analysis," dated April 10, 1967, which was furnished to Mr. James J. Reynolds, Under-Secretary of Labor, on October 23, 1967. This document set forth in detail the extent of communist influence within the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and Martin Luther King, Jr.'s involvement with such elements. Data regarding his wife, Coretta, is also submitted therein. (100-438794-2008)

In addition, this Bureau has received information from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past that Mrs. King, since the death of her husband, has continued to hold conferences with Stanley Levison, long-time ~~former~~ Communist Party member and former principal advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr. Mrs. King sought Levison's advice and counsel concerning her finances and personal appearances.

STANLEY LEVISON on 7/21/68 informed CORETTA KING that BAYARD RUSTIN had told ~~MARTIN~~ RALPH D. He explained that ABERNATHY considered [redacted] instead of CORETTA and this may create a problem for CORETTA KING. LEVISON noted CORETTA would address the aforementioned women's conference. He counseled her not to remain any longer than necessary after completing her speech, because ABERNATHY [redacted] at every point and resent the attention CORETTA would receive. gh

LEVISON went on to impress CORETTA she should not allow herself or her staff to become dependent upon SCLC because this would give ABERNATHY opportunity to tell her what to do. He cautioned, however, that CORETTA needed SCLC because ~~to~~ break with the organization would raise questions as to her ambitions. SCLC, LEVISON told CORETTA, needed her because it lacked prestige. gh

On this occasion LEVISON explained to CORETTA the makeup of and use to which her husband MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., put the SCLC Research Committee. He said in addition to himself the Research Committee included among others BAYARD RUSTIN, [redacted] and HARRY WACHTEL. gh

Subsequent to the death of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., former President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), a confidential source has advised on several occasions that Coretta Scott King, his widow, has had very little association with SCLC or officials of that organization. During this period of time, it has been source's understanding that Coretta Scott King has been largely occupied with the writing of a book, handling matters relating to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Center and generally perpetuating the image of her late husband. (S) (U)

Source advised that as of early December, 1968, Coretta Scott King had engaged Andrew J. Young, Executive Vice President, SCLC, in a consulting capacity in which position he serves in addition to his duties with SCLC. (S) (U)

With reference to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Center, the Atlanta Journal, daily Atlanta newspaper on Page 2A, of its Blue Streak Edition, January 15, 1969, published an article by lined Harmon Perry and captioned "King's Widow Tells Of Plans for Center". This article reflected the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Center was planned as ". . . a tribute and realistic attempt to carry on the ideals" for which Reverend King lived and died. A portion of this article is set forth below:

The center, to be developed in two parts, will be funded by grants from foundations, corporations and private gifts. It will operate under a first-year budget of $150,000.

In announcing creation of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center, Mrs. King said the facility will seek to extend her husband's best hopes and dreams.

Mrs. King said the center will attempt to meet the needs facing black people, but all persons are invited to participate in it in the search for creative ways to liberate the future of all peoples from oppression and fear.

Plans call for the center to be developed in two parts. The first will include restoration of Dr. King's birthplace on Auburn Avenue and continuance of activities at Ebenezer Baptist Church, where he shared the pulpit with his father.

THE SECOND PART of the center will be developed in the Atlanta University complex, and will include an institute for Afro-American studies, a museum of Afro-American life and an institute for non-violent social change.

Both sites are necessary to tell the story of Martin Luther King Jr., Mrs. King said.

The announcement was made at the Interdenominational Theological Center where the Martin Luther King Jr. Library project will operate under the direction of Dr. Vincent Harding.

The library is now seeking an additional grant of $50,000 to add an oral history section.

CORETTA SCOTT KING
RACIAL MATTER

(U) On January 13, 1969, a confidential source advised he understood that in the near future Coretta Scott King, widow of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., former President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), contemplated traveling to India. In connection with this travel, Mrs. King had requested Andrew J. Young, Executive Vice President, SCLC, to accompany her. (C)

(U) Source was unable to furnish any further details regarding the above except he understood Mrs. King would depart the United States in the very near future. (C)

(U) During December, 1968, source advised he had learned that Young, in addition to his position with SCLC, was employed by Coretta Scott King as a consultant. (C)

(U) On January 15, 1969, The Blue Streak Edition of the Atlanta Journal Daily Newspaper, Atlanta, Georgia, on Page 12B, in a column entitled "Names in the News", published the following item datelined New Delhi, "The widow of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Mrs. Coretta King, will visit India for five days beginning January 21 to receive on behalf of her husband the $13,333.00 Jawaharlal Nehru Award for international understanding".

Dear Dr. Kissinger:

This will confirm the information furnished
February 4, 1969, to of your office.

A source of this Bureau who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Mrs. Coretta King, widow of the late Martin Luther King, Jr., planned to call the President to discuss with him a proposed

Stanley David Levison, an advisor to Mrs. King, has suggested that Mrs. King would not want to place herself under any obligation by asking the President for help but suggested that she take the approach that it is not a question of asking the President for a favor but rather that the Federal Government owes it to the Negro to establish such a memorial.

Re Bulet to Atlanta, 8/1/68, and Atlanta letter to Bureau, 12/30/68.

Submitted below is information pursuant to referenced Bulet:

STANLEY LEVISON on 1/6/69 counseled CORETTA KING regarding a request for her to address the Atlanta Press Club and choice of architects for the MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. Memorial. CORETTA reminded LEVISON of a meeting (not described) to be held on 1/9-10/69. LEVISON said he would attend this meeting on 1/9/69.

[Redacted]

STANLEY LEVISON on 1/9/69 advised [Redacted] identified to source as [Redacted] for CORETTA KING, what action CORETTA should take with regard to a copy of a tape one, [Redacted] who claimed to be a journalist, desired to send to CORETTA KING for her lawyers. This tape allegedly related to a conversation between JAMES EARL RAY and an unknown person.

STANLEY LEVISON informed CORETTA KING on 1/14/69, the [redacted] had decided to contribute $10,000.00 to the MLKMC. LEVISON instructed her to have [redacted] arrange details of payment. LEVISON also informed CORETTA KING he was arranging for JACK O'DELL to meet with the individual (not identified) working on the movie of the Life of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

STANLEY LEVISON planned to meet CORETTA KING on the afternoon of 1/28/69 at the JOHN F. KENNEDY National Airport, New York City, upon her return from India and to attend her Press Conference that date.

DORA E. MC DONALD, Secretary to the President, SCLC, on 2/4/69, advised STANLEY LEVISON that CORETTA KING contemplated calling President NIXON that date in order to discuss the MLKMC. MC DONALD expressed apprehension that by calling the President, CORETTA might obligate herself. LEVISON explained to MC DONALD that there was no harm in CORETTA talking to the President provided she took the approach she was not asking any favor but rather that the Federal Government was obligated to the Negro and the memory of KING, JR. to establish a memorial. LEVISON

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN
LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

J.C. Brooks

A confidential source advised [redacted] he had learned that [redacted] Ralph D. Abernathy, President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), met with Coretta Scott King and Reverend Martin Luther King, Sr. widow and father respectively of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., former President, SCLC, at their request. Mrs. King and her father-in-law informed Abernathy they were greatly upset over "reports" they had received indicating that SCLC contemplated holding a "moral court" in Memphis, Tennessee, during the latter part of March or early April, 1969. Coretta King told Abernathy she would be embarrassed to participate in such an activity and acidly inquired why her opinion had not been solicited prior to SCLC deciding upon such a course of action. (u)

b6
b7D

Abernathy explained to Coretta and Reverend King, Sr., the idea of the "moral court" was simply one of several proposed activities which had recently been discussed by the SCLC staff to be held on or about April 4, 1969 in commemoration of the assassination of Reverend King, Jr. He said a firm decision on these proposals had not yet been reached with one exception. That exception Abernathy assured Coretta was a definite decision that SCLC would not conduct a "moral court" in connection with any activity on or about April 4, 1969. (u)

On March 9, 1969, a confidential source advised Stanley Levison and Harry Wachtel discussed the content of a statement which Wachtel was preparing for use of Coretta Scott King, widow of Martin Luther King, Jr., in the event James Earl Ray, alleged assassin of Reverend King, pleaded guilty.

According to source, Levison and Wachtel agreed on the language of this statement which when completed, in part, read as follows:

"to the family of Martin Luther King there is a sense of emotional relief, for the moment. We have been spared the trial which would compel us to re-live the fearfully tragic event of his death. But we realize this is but a respite. This plea of guilty must not be allowed to close the case, to end the search for the many fingers which helped pull the trigger. We shall press the State of Tennessee and the Federal Government to continue until all who are responsible for this crime have been apprehended. Not until then can the conscience of the nation rest".

The Atlanta Constitution, daily Atlanta newspaper, on the front page of its March 11, 1969 edition, published an article captioned "Widow Says It's Not Over". This article referred to the plea of guilty by James Earl Ray on March 10, 1969 in Memphis, Tennessee. It set forth comments of Coretta Scott King regarding Ray's plea which in part were as follows.

(Ray's plea)- -"cannot be allowed to close the case, to end the search for the many fingers which helped pull the trigger". For her family she said "there is a sense of emotional relief". "For the moment, we have been spared a trial which would compel us to relive the fearfully tragic events of his death". "But we realize this is but a respite". On 3/20/69, WEO advised of receipt of information from an informant that [redacted] had recently asked RALPH D. ABERNATHY to step aside as President of SCLC and that ABERNATHY was increasingly fearful of assassination.

The 3/18/69, issue of The Atlanta Journal carried an article by JACK NELSON of the Los Angeles Times News Service referring to an interview with RALPH D. ABERNATHY. This article refers to ABERNATHY's position as President of SCLC being shaky and Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. taking a more active role in the organization which implied that Mrs. KING would replace ABERNATHY.

In response to the above article, ABERNATHY sent a telegram to the Los Angeles Times News Service and at the same time sending a copy of the telegram to the Atlanta Journal, which telegram was published in the Atlanta Journal on 3/21/69. In the telegram ABERNATHY refers to gross errors of fact and incorrect opinions in NELSON's article and emphatically denied saying anything to NELSON remotely suggesting his leadership as President of SCLC needed solidifying or that it was shaky. ABERNATHY further stated that reports of dissension in SCLC were malicious rumors and deliberate attempts to bring about division between him and Mrs. KING.

It is noted that [redacted] advised on 3/25/69, that he is in receipt of no information to indicate that plans are actually in the making to replace ABERNATHY as President of SCLC with Mrs. CORETTA KING. ✕

As the Bureau is aware, periodically various offices advise Atlanta of receipt of anonymous threats against the life of ABERNATHY. In the past Atlanta has not furnished such information directly to ABERNATHY, but has followed the policy of immediately passing the information on to an appropriate official of the Atlanta Police Department, who in turn advises ABERNATHY. This policy was established several years ago, when MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. was President of SCLC, due to the fact KING was traveling extensively and was not cooperative when efforts were made to locate him in Atlanta for the purpose of advising him of threats against his life.

It now appears that some advantage may be gained by changing the existing policy of informing ABERNATHY regarding receipt of information relating to threats against his life. It is felt that by notifying ABERNATHY directly upon receipt of information relating to threats against his life, some rapport may be developed with him at this particular time when the possibility exists of him being concerned about his possible assassination as well as his position as President of SCLC being shaky and the possible taking over of his position by Mrs. CORETTA KING.

Another strong factor of a counter intelligence nature to consider in changing the existing policy to notify ABERNATHY directly would be the disruptive effect of confusing and worrying him by reminding him of continuous threats against his life.

It is recommended that in the future upon receipt of such information, Atlanta notify ABERNATHY directly and in turn notify appropriate officials of the Atlanta Police Department.

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION WAS FURNISHED BY [redacted]

[redacted] (CLASSIFY "SECRET") ON JUNE TWO ZERO

SIXTYNINE:

ON JUNE TWO ZERO, SIXTYNINE, CORETTA KING TOLD STANLEY LEVISON THAT ETHEL KENNEDY HAD CONTACTED HER THAT DATE TO SAY SHE WAS SORRY ABOUT WHAT HAS BEEN IN THE PAPER (APPRENTLY REFERRING TO THE ARTICLE CONCERNING THE AUTHORIZATION FROM ROBERT F. KENNEDY, WHEN ATTORNEY GENERAL, TO TAP MARTIN LUTHER KING'S TELEPHONES). CORETTA ADDED THAT ETHEL KENNEDY IMPLIED THAT SHE HOPED THIS WOULD NOT INTERFERE WITH THEIR FRIENDSHIP. CORETTA SAID SHE REPLIED THAT SHE UNDERSTOOD HOW THE PRESS CAN BE DEVISIVE AT TIMES AND THAT THIS DOES NOT COLOR HER ATTITUDE IN ANYWAY TOWARD THE (KENNEDY) FAMILY.

CORETTA ALSO TOLD LEVISON THAT ETHEL KENNEDY SAID "THEY" HAD A MEETING AT HER HOME THE PREVIOUS NIGHT AND TALKED

AS IF CORETTA KNEW WHAT THE MEETING WAS ABOUT. CORETTA SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW WHAT ETHEL KENNEDY WAS TALKING ABOUT AND DID NOT WANT TO ASK HER.

LEVISON COMMENTED THAT HE FELT CORETTA'S ANSWER WAS EXACTLY RIGHT BECAUSE THERE IS NO POINT IN ATTEMPTING TO ASSESS WHAT ROLE BOBBY KENNEDY PLAYED SINCE THERE IS NO WAY OF REALLY KNOWING.

CORETTA STATED THAT THIS WAS "SORT OF PASSING THE BUCK, AND THEY'RE TRYING TO PUT IT ALL OFF ON HIM". SHE ADDED THAT HE MAY HAVE AGREED AND GONE ALONG WITH IT.

LEVISON REMARKED THAT THEY KNOW KING, WHETHER HE FELT BOBBY KENNEDY WAS INVOLVED OR NOT, STILL MAINTAINED A FRIENDLY RELATIONSHIP WITH HIM. HE SAID IF KING FELT BOBBY KENNEDY HAD DONE ANYTHING, HE FORGAVE HIM NO DOUBT BASED ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE TIME, THE FACT HE WAS ALWAYS SUPER NERVOUS ABOUT HIS BROTHER (PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY). LEVISON SAID THIS IS THE ATTITUDE CORETTA SHOULD TAKE. HE SAID IF THE PRESS "WANTS TO DIG UP GARBAGE" IT SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO INTERFERE WITH A CONSTRUCTIVE RELATIONSHIP.

CORETTA SAID THAT FOLLOWING HER CONVERSATION WITH ETHEL KENNEDY, THE PHONE RANG AGAIN AND THAT THE GIRL WHO

LEVISON CONTINUED THAT THE PRESSURE AT THIS POINT HAS COME FROM MANY LIBERALS WHO RESENT FBI DIRECTOR HOOVER'S ROLE, AND THAT HOOVER GAVE AN ANSWER. HE ADDED THAT HOOVER HAS BEEN ANSWERED BACK BY (RAMSEY) CLARK, AND THAT CLARK'S ANSWER IS RIGHT.

LEVISON GAVE HIS OPINION THAT THE ENTIRE AFFAIR WILL "DRIFT AWAY" AND ADDED THAT "IT'S NOT THE KIND OF THING YOU CAN KEEP GOING." LEVISON FELT THE ENTIRE THING WILL BE FORGOTTEN BUT THAT FBI DIRECTOR HOOVER WILL BE BOTHERED BY IT BECAUSE IT LEAVES HIM AS THE MAN RESPONSIBLE.

CORETTA AGREED, STATING "I FEELS LIKE HE IS THE MOST GUILTY."

On 3/9/69, STANLEY LEVISON and HARRY WACHTEL discussed the content of a statement which WACHTEL was preparing for subject to use in the event JAMES EARL RAY pleaded guilty. They agreed on the language to be used and source furnished a portion of the statement. The Atlanta Constitution, daily Atlanta newspaper on the front page of its 3/11/69 edition, published an article captioned "Widow Says It's Not Over". This article referred to the plea of guilty by RAY on 3/10/69 and set forth comments of subject which paralleled very closely the language prepared by LEVISON and WACHTEL on 3/9/69.

Gentlemen:

Shortly after King's death, the enclosed photo began circulating among the white employees in our office. Most were afraid to check it out. I brought it home and am just now writing to ask whether this is propaganda or true. I am also enclosing a column I clipped from the Tulsa morning paper concerning King.

I belong to the Tulsa branch of American Association of University Women which has headquarters in Washington, D. C. This organization has requested donations or contributions to the Coretta Scott King scholarship. I have not made a contribution as I am not satisfied about King's possible communist affiliation.

I am disturbed about any person of influence attempting to disrupt our government or to promote communism here. I have read Mr. Hoover's book on communism and it has caused more speculation about King, on my part.

I will appreciate an answer about the Augusta Courier photo.

Thank you.

MARTIN LUTHER KING....AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee at a later date.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for the FBI for twelve years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in United States.
2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.
3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.
4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle Tennessee.

These "Four Horsemen" of racial agitation have brought tension, disturbance and violence in their advancement of the Communist doctrine of "racial nationalism".

This is a review of the book, "My Life With Martin Luther King, Jr." by Coretta Scott King, published in 1969 by Holt, Rinehart and Winston. The book is being placed in the Bureau library. Excerpts from this book were published in Life magazine on 9/12/69 and 9/19/69 under the title "He Had A Dream."

We have never investigated Mrs. King but there are numerous references in our files to her activities in connection with her husband's activities and about her pacifist activities. She acknowledges the assistance of Stanley Levison (a former communist) in writing this book. Levison boasted that he was able to get things he wanted into the book. The book, being a widow's epitaph, depicts a saintly couple with saintly children surrounded by saintly associates.

The portrayal of a number of incidents in the book is far from accurate. References to the Bureau are not derogatory.

DETAILS:

Review of Bureau Files

We have never investigated Mrs. King. Our files contain numerous references to her in connection with her husband's activities and her own activities in pacifist organizations such as the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Book Review

In her acknowledgment at the front of the book Mrs. King stated that Stanley Levison had read the entire manuscript and had offered many useful suggestions. She also acknowledged the valuable legal and personal assistance she got from Harry Wachtel. Later in the book she said Levison and Wachtel were two of King's dear friends and that King sought their advice and used them as sounding boards for his ideas. She said Levison always worked in the background and his contribution was indispensable. She added that Levison and Wachtel were two of the most important supporters of her husband's work and that they continued to assist her in many valuable ways to this day.

OTHER O/S (U)

Levison, a white attorney, is identified as a secret member of the Communist Party (CP) as late as 1963. He did not think the CP's program on civil rights was sufficiently militant and his break with the CP was tactical rather than ideological. (S)

[redacted] Wachtel's wife was a CP club chairman in 1944 and Wachtel's name was also contained in CP records although his relationship with the CP is not known. S (U)

In April, 1969, one of our sources reported that Levison said he was busy working with Mrs. King on her book. He said that because it was completed just before the deadline he was able to get some things into it that the publisher wanted to keep out. He said two of the things he got into the book were an attack on the Vietnam war and the fact that King did not have a "one-dimensional, negative attitude" toward black militants and black nationalists but that there was mutual respect with these people. ~~Y~~ U

Mrs. King's treatment of the incidents contained in the book must be read as that of a wife writing about her dead husband and about her impressions concerning his activities-- a widow's epitaph. A lack of objectivity and a biased report overemphasizing the importance of these activities are to be expected in such a book and are present in this book. Mrs. King's book depicts, page after page, a saintly couple, with saintly children, surrounded by saintly associates. She compares King with Christ on a number of occasions. Also on one occasion she makes the statement that "taking the world as a whole, his (Martin Luther King, Jr.) influence may even be greater than that of the Pope."

Concerning Mrs. King's pride, conceit and materialistic outlook one of our sources in June, 1968, reported that Stanley Levison commented that Mrs. King was resentful of the money the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was currently receiving from donations following King's death and appeared to feel the civil rights movement owed her a living.

Our sources also reported that, according to Levison, Mrs. King wanted top leadership after King's death. Levison told her she did not have the capacity to solve problems and that she underestimated the gravity of the problems and overestimated herself. Levison expressed the opinion in June, 1968, that Mrs. King's conceit was such that she could not be afraid of writing the book. ~~U~~

The book is full of incidents, described in mythlike goodness and light, which in reality were far, far from it.

One such incident was the description by Mrs. King of the actions of King's entourage in a hotel in Oslo, Norway, prior to his receiving the Nobel Peace Prize in December, 1964. They arrived in Oslo on 12/8/64 and King was awarded the prize on 12/10/64 and left for Stockholm, Sweden on 12/11/64. The evening in the Oslo Hotel was described by Mrs. King as one of hymn singing and a gathering together in simple fellowship and the warmth of oneness.

In the epilogue to her book Mrs. King thanked the people who sent checks to continue her husband's work and those who sent checks specifically to the children and herself. She said she had used these gifts to assist her in setting up and maintaining a staff and an office to handle the large volume of mail and "the myriad requests made of me."

This selfless, magnanimous, decorous attitude is belied by Mrs. King's actual shrewd, calculating, businesslike activities. In August, 1968, following King's death in April, 1968, Levison and Harry Belafonte, the Negro entertainer, conferred on Belafonte's concern over a request by Mrs. King for fifty percent of an SCLC fund. Levison said her request, which amounted to about $200,000 was for fifty percent of the Martin Luther King Fund which was established with the understanding that it would be shared with her. A confrontation between Mrs. King and the SCLC leadership was imminent over this matter and many other things. Levison, Mrs. King's devoted friend and protector, told Belafonte that only about half the money that had been collected for the Martin Luther King Fund had been put into that fund. Therefore, if Mrs. King's request was granted, she would still only receive about twenty percent of the fund.

On page 245, in writing about the death of President Kennedy Mrs. King mentioned the courage of Mrs. Kennedy and added that for all their philosophical explanations and their deep faith in God, she and King were still personally in a dark abyss of sorrow for "this gallant, compassionate and wise man." She indicated that in a way President Kennedy was King's best friend.

Mrs. King in the book recounts how in the Summer of 1965 King went to Chicago for an SCLC drive and decided not to stay at a hotel but to rent a slum apartment in order to share with the people of the ghetto the kind of life that was imposed upon them daily by the system. She said he was almost like a Messiah to these ghetto dwellers.

This is a variance with the appraisal of Stanley Levison who in 1962 passed the word to Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, that King is a whole-hearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it and agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly. ~~(S)~~ (U)

References to the FBI

On page 227 she mentioned that when King was in jail in Birmingham, Alabama, in April, 1963, she feared he was being held incommunicado. After trying to reach President Kennedy, he called her back and told her "We sent the FBI into Birmingham last night. We checked on your husband and he is alright." At the request of Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall the Bureau did interview the chief of police in Birmingham on 4/14/63 who said King was in good health and was not being held incommunicado. In fact he had conferred with four attorneys on 4/13/69.

On page 247 she mentioned that the FBI had found the bodies of the three civil workers slain in Philadelphia, Mississippi.

On page 265 she tells about the march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama, in March, 1955. During this march there was a rumor that King was to be assassinated by a man disguised as a minister. She then said "while we maintained unarmed guard, we understand the FBI was on hand guarding Martin all the time." This statement, while reported only as an understanding on her part, is a complete falsehood; we never guarded King.

I called Deputy Attorney General Richard G. Mr. Kleindienst thanked me.

I told him further that I had asked our Atlanta Office to try, if they can, to find out whether the plane is to land at Friendship or National Airport. Mr. Kleindienst said that if we find out and he is not in the Attorney General's office, he would be at the Mayor's Command Post for the rest of the evening and we can get hold of him over there.

I called Deputy Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst, who was in the Attorney General's office, and advised him that Mrs. Coretta King was due at Friendship Airport at 6:15 PM and the Maryland State Police are there and the D. C. Police. Mr. Kleindienst said that was right as they were set up to meet her, but they wanted to be sure she was on the plane. I told him she was on the plane and was due to arrive at 6:15 PM at Friendship. Mr. Kleindienst said that was fine, as it makes a difference as to when the march starts. I commented that it takes time to get in from Friendship and he agreed.

MR. BISHOP

Deputy Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst called. He said he was sorry to bother me by a trifling matter, but Mrs. Coretta King was supposed to have left Atlanta at 4:30 this afternoon by Eastern Airlines to arrive at Friendship Airport at 6:15 PM. Mr. Kleindienst said that they have arranged to give her protection so she can head this march tonight and then get her out of town. Mr. Kleindienst wanted to know if somebody in the Bureau could determine whether, as a matter of fact, she did leave Atlanta so they would know when to anticipate her arrival.

I told him I would check, but I did see in the paper this morning an article quoting her as being in New York. Mr. Kleindienst said there were two or three -- Baltimore, New York, et cetera. I told him I would find out whether she left Atlanta on the 4:30 PM Eastern Airline flight, as I would check with our Atlanta Office.

Mr. Kleindienst said he would be either in his office or in the Attorney General's Office.

[redacted] in Mr. Tolson's Office was instructed to contact the Atlanta Office by phone and as soon as he obtained an answer back, to let me know so that I might advise Mr. Kleindienst.

Dear Sir:

I realize you cannot answer my question,

I nevertheless will ask, WHY this subversive person is allowed to lead these moronic left wingers into one public nuisance after the other. She and "old mealy mouthed Abernathy" are two very busy anarchists. She is just as RED as her former husband was, and a more subtle actor. Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR Observe her exquisitely groomed self, expensive apparel, and syrupy tones (much overdone) to this critic. And on many occasions the orchids on the shoulder, as she leads of all things a parade for the poor! Just contemplate the good that could be done for the poor if (Mr.) Abernathy would sell his cadillac to buy them food. And the rest of this "gang" were to use their Moscow furnished allowances for food for the poor! Instead of guns to kill Whitey.

The tax payers get restive when the things their hard earned money ^{paid for} are damaged and destroyed to impress the world with their ^{we BRO} power. 62-1108052- They have all ready gone such too far.

Sincerely,

NOT RECORDED

We Still Have A Choice,

Isn't this a case for the Un-American Activities

Mrs. King Tells Marchers

Committee?

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Amid the jostling and the crushing, the lights and photographers, Coretta King walked with head high, face serene and hands cradling a candle to symbolize peace.

And in front of the house where Richard Nixon lives as President of a troubled nation, the widow of Martin Luther King paused, bowed her head, and touched the candle to a much bigger one on a brass stand and for a moment was herself a symbol.

And when she moved on, 35,000 — some say more — came after her as if she were a Pied Piper for Peace.

"We still have a choice," she said earlier to those thousands as they sat in the autumn chill on the grassy slopes beneath the Washington Monument. "We can have nonviolent coexistence or violent annihilation. My friends, which will we chose?"

The choice, to this crowd, was clear. After the speech-making was done, they too lit candles and walked, silent and orderly, to the White House to petition their President for peace.

Re Bureau airtel to Atlanta, 10/17/69.

On 12/17/69, [redacted] advised that for some time,

[redacted] ANDREW J. YOUNG, Executive Vice President, SCLC, was serving subject in an advisory capacity. Informant, on 10/21/69, advised it was generally understood among [redacted] that YOUNG continued to advise subject on various matters. Informant was unable to furnish information any more specific. He stated he did not know that YOUNG assisted subject in preparing speeches, but in view of YOUNG's capabilities, it would be logical to assume he does so on occasions. (U)

On 6/13/69, "The New York Times" (page 31) published an article date-lined 6/12/68, Cambridge, Massachusetts, referring to a speech by subject that date at Harvard University. In her speech, subject referred to the inadequate response of the government to the assassination of her husband, ROBERT KENNEDY, and also referred to the Vietnam war. Following this speech, [redacted] told LEVISON she had learned that subject, in the above speech, had mentioned the speech which LEVISON had put in it. (Atlanta letter, 8/12/68, page 6)

On 7/6/68, subject discussed with LEVISON her invitation to address the Committee on Resolutions of the 1968 Republican Convention. LEVISON dictated a letter to this committee for the subject declining its invitation. (Supra, page 7)

NORMAN COUSINS, Editor, "Saturday Review", sponsored a conference of women 7/23/68 in New York City. LEVISON on 7/21/68 told subject he had prepared her speech for this conference and requested she acquaint herself with it in advance. (Supra, page 8)

LEVISON on 11/18/68, discussed with subject the content of an address she would give at a dinner 11/22/68 in honor of Governor OTTO KERNER of Illinois. (Atlanta letter, 12/30/68, page one)

Subject, on 1/6/69, was counseled by LEVISON regarding a request for her to address the Atlanta Press Club. (Atlanta letter, 3/5/69, page one)

On 1/13/69, subject discussed with LEVISON the content of a statement she planned to submit to the press regarding the MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., Memorial Center. The 1/15/69 issue of "The Atlanta Journal" published an article on Page 2A captioned "King's Widow Tells of Plans for Center". (Supra, page one)

LEVISON, on 2/4/69, told DORA E. MC DONALD (an SCLC Secretary) he had previously instructed subject as to her approach when speaking to President NIXON. (Supra, page 2-3)

HARRY WACHTEL and LEVISON, on 3/9/69, discussed a statement WACHTEL was preparing for subject to use on the event JAMES EARL RAY pleaded guilty. "The Atlanta Constitution", on the front page of its 3/11/69 edition, published an article captioned "Widow Says It's Not Over". This article referred to the guilty plea by RAY and set forth subject's comments which closely follow those previously discussed by WACHTEL and LEVISON. (Atlanta letter, 7/3/69, page one)

LEVISON, on 4/18/69, said he had been working with subject on her book ("My Life with Martin Luther King, Jr.") and had managed to include in it some matters the publisher desired to keep out, two of which were the Vietnam war and KING, JR.'s attitude toward Black Nationalists and Black Militants. (Supra, page two)

LEVISON, on 6/13/69, discussed with subject the contents of a letter from her to President NIXON regarding the Federal Government sponsoring a MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., Memorial Center. (Supra, page two)

On 9/14/69, LEVISON provided subject a list of material which he said she should read in order to prepare herself for a forthcoming interview (not identified). (New York airtel and LHM, dated 9/17/69, captioned "Cominfil of SCLC;; IS - C").

MRS. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr., who is also known as Mrs. Coretta King, was born on April 27, 1927, at Heiberger, Alabama.

She is the widow of the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., to whom she was married on June 18, 1953. Mrs. King has not been the subject of an investigation by the FBI. However, our files reveal that she has been extremely active in making speeches and appearances throughout the United States concerning civil rights matters.

In addition, the FBI has received information from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past that Mrs. King, since the death of her husband, has continued to hold conferences with Stanley Levison, former principal advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr. Our files reveal that Mrs. King has sought Levison's advice and counsel concerning her finances, personal appearances and speeches, and in connection with her book "My Life With Martin Luther King, Jr." (R) u

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party (CP). Levison has been described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. (S) (U)

CORETTA SCOTT KING
RACIAL MATTER

On February 18, 1970, a confidential source advised he had learned that Coretta Scott King, widow of Martin Luther King, Jr., (former President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)), contemplated pursuing in the near future a program of voter registration in several southern states. (In this activity King will be assisted by Andrew J. Young, Executive Vice President, SCLC. ~~(S)~~ (U))

It was source's understanding that Hosea Williams, ^{b7D} Director of Voter Registration and Political Education, SCLC, has not been consulted by King or Young regarding this activity. Williams recently expressed [redacted] he felt Young's apparent interest in King's contemplated program of voter registration was based upon a selfish motive related to Young's desire to seek election to the United States Congress.

ReBulet to Atlanta 8/1/68.

[redacted] advised on 1/15/70, a commemorative service was held at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta, for MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. under sponsorship of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Center (MLKMC). A program distributed at this service indicated CORETTA SCOTT KING to be the President of the MLKMC; also listed were the names of 19 individuals under the caption "Board of Directors". Included in this listing were the names of HARRY BELAFONTE, RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, STANLEY LEVISON, C. T. VIVIAN, and HARRY WACHTEL (also indicated to be legal advisor). Prior CP connection and/or sympathy on the part of these individuals has been established. (S) - (U)

GA

On 2/10/70, [redacted] (protect), advised he had observed that in the operation of the MLKMC, CORETTA SCOTT KING has evidenced a confidence in LEVISON and WACHTEL.

In the fall of 1969, the firm of Holt, Rinehart, and Winston published the book entitled "My Life with Martin Luther King, Jr" by CORETTA SCOTT KING, copyrighted 1969. In this book under the caption "Acknowledgements", CORETTA SCOTT KING under the date "June, 1969" expressed her appreciation for the assistance rendered by various individuals in preparation of the book. When referring to several members of her household, office staff, and family, the author included

Telephone Conversation between MG Roland H. del Mar, USA (Ret.)
and MG McChristian 13 April 1970

Gen. del Mar: This Brady Tyson wrote an article in the Outlook Section about Brazil a week ago Sunday which was answered in yesterday's letter to the Editors in the Post (by Brazil's Minister Counselor).

Something about Brady Tyson had taken Coretta King to northeast Brazil ostensibly to stir up trouble among the blacks down there. My informant today said he took Abernathy down there last week to talk to Halter Comera (phonetic). (The Bishop who is leaving the church.) Abernathy is now engaged in Brazilian Sociology and politics with Brady Tyson.

Gen. McChristian: I will pass this on to the FBI. They are the ones interested in this.

Coretta King expressed dissatisfaction with the number of employees maintained by the MLKMC, particularly in the Martin Luther King, Jr. Library Documentation Project, a part of the MLKMC. As a consequence, the services of approximately twenty or thirty employees were terminated. (U)

Sources understood that the employees whose services were terminated would, on August 3, 1970, picket the residence of Coretta King, 234 Sunset Avenue, N. W., Atlanta, in protest. (U)

As of August 1, 1970, the terminated employees were of the opinion that Coretta King was essentially concerned that financial resources of the Library Documentation Project did not justify the number of individuals employed and that such a continuation, if not rectified, might have a bearing upon the efficiency of the MLKMC in the eyes of future donors (identity not known) of financial aid to the MLKMC. (U)

On August 3, 1970, Captain Jack McIntyre, External Security Unit, Atlanta Police Department, Atlanta, advised no picketing activity occurred at the Coretta King residence that date.

The Atlanta Journal, daily Atlanta newspaper, on Page 2A of its Blue Streak edition of August 4, 1970, published an article captioned, "King Memorial in Need, Widow Informs Protesters", bylined Ron Taylor. This article in part revealed that on August 4, 1970, Coretta King held a press conference at which time she stated, "Some alterations" had been made in personnel of the MLKMC because of lack of funds. During this press conference, several individuals confronted Coretta King with charges that one-half of the Library Documentation Project Staff had been dismissed without notice on July 31, 1970.

At the aforementioned news conference it was announced that Doctor Julius S. Scott, Jr., had been appointed First Executive Director of the MLKMC replacing Doctor Vincent Harding who previously had also been in charge of the Library Documentation Project, and the Institute of the Black World (IBW), 87 Beckwith Street, S. W., Atlanta, another facet of the MLKMC. Harding, the article said, would henceforth direct the IBW.

The Atlanta Journal and Constitution on Page 14A of its August 17, 1970, edition published an article captioned, "Prospects of King Center Shrunken by Tight Budget", bylined Bill Montgomery. This article related that the Library Documentation Project of the MLKMC was currently $81,000 in debt.

MRS. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Summary

In addition to information previously furnished the White House on January 26, 1970, on captioned individual, our files reveal the following.

Born 4/27/29, Heilbrunn, Pa

In March, 1970, information was received from a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past indicating that at a commemorative service held for Martin Luther King, Jr., in Atlanta, Georgia, under the sponsorship of the Martin Luther King, Jr., Memorial Center (MLKMC), a program was distributed which revealed that Mrs. King was the President of MLKMC and 19 other individuals made up the Board of Directors, including Stanley Levison, Harry Wachtel, and C. T. Vivian. Prior Communist Party (CP) connections and/or sympathies on the part of these individuals have been established by the FBI. (U)

Our files also reveal that Mrs. King continues to rely on and confide in Levison and allegedly has become more dependent on Harry Wachtel's advice. Wachtel is a New York City Attorney who was a member of the Board of Directors of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). His name appeared on a list of names in a local CP headquarters in Brooklyn, New York, in 1944. (U)

In connection with Mrs. King's book entitled "My Life With Martin Luther King, Jr.," which was published during the Fall of 1969, Mrs. King expressed appreciation to various individuals for their assistance in the preparation of that book, including

MRS. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Summary

Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr., who is also known as Mrs. Coretta King, was born on April 27, 1927, at Heiberger, Alabama.

She is the widow of the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., to whom she was married on June 18, 1953. Mrs. King has not been the subject of an investigation by the FBI. However, our files reveal that she has been extremely active in making speeches and appearances throughout the United States concerning civil rights matters.

In addition, the FBI has received information from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past that Mrs. King, since the death of her husband, has continued to hold conferences with Stanley Levison, former principal advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr. Our files reveal that Mrs. King has sought Levison's advice and counsel concerning her finances, personal appearances and speeches, and in connection with her book "My Life With Martin Luther King, Jr."

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party (CP). Levison has been described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. ~~S~~ (U)

This morning I attended the Deputy Attorney General's weekly conference, it being noted that this is the first conference he has had in three weeks.

In attendance other than Deputy Attorney General Kleindienst were Assistant Attorney General Will R. Wilson of the Criminal Division and Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian of the Internal Security Division. Inspector George C. Moore, Section Chief of the Racial Intelligence Section, Domestic Intelligence Division, accompanied me and gave those present a rundown of the highlights of the overall racial extremist picture in the country today.

Mr. Kleindienst stated he was quite impressed with the intelligence the FBI was developing in the black extremist field and certainly recognized the threat that these political terrorists represented especially as to kidnappings, assassinations, and other such acts which could shake the country. In this regard, he specifically voiced his concern as to the current racial undercurrents which could spontaneously erupt into riots if provided with catalytic action similar to that of the assassination of Martin Luther King in 1968.

Mr. Kleindienst further took note of the fact that Mrs. Coretta King likely would appear as a speaker before the forthcoming massive peace demonstration here in Washington, D.C., on April 24, 1971, and if she is not given adequate security, extremist elements could be provided with a target which could kick things off. Mr. Kleindienst thereupon instructed Mardian to make certain that the Department's overall plans regarding the April 24th demonstrations provided for adequate police protection of Mrs. King.

March 26, 1971

Mrs. Ruth Gage-Colby, National Coordinator
National Peace Action Coalition
1029 Vermont Ave. N.W., 8th Floor
Washington, D. C. 20005

Dear Ruth,

I plan to be with you in Washington on April 24, because I think this is the single most important thing that I could do at this time toward fulfilling my husband's dream.

I am gratified that persons like Senators McGovern, Hartke, Gravel, Hart, Tunney, and 14 members of the House of Representatives have taken a strong position in support of the April 24 demonstration. The forces that have forged the alliance for April 24 represent the broadest and most diverse base of support that the peace forces have ever had.

This war has ravaged our domestic programs. It has created a climate of wanton violence at home and in Vietnam, and it is patently responsible for the unprecedented deterioration of our values. Without a doubt, America has continuously built for war and destruction, with flagrant disregard for peace and development.

It is my conviction that if a significant number of elected officials combine their strengths with large numbers of people whose convictions are sufficiently strong, and with a determination to end the war, this will be a clear mandate to the Nixon Administration to move toward ending this brutal and immoral war. I still believe that the power to bring about positive, lasting change rests with the people.

I will be with you on April 24 in Washington.

Yours for a lasting peace,

Coretta Scott King
Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The following references in the file captioned "Demonstration Protesting US Policy in Vietnam, Washington, D.C., 1/15/68", pertain to the activities of Coretta King from 1/4/68-1/15/68 in connection with the above demonstration, in Atlanta, Ga. and Washington, D.C. King was a national sponsor of the Jeannette Rankin Brigade (JRB), a coalition of organizations and individuals from all over the US protesting the war in Vietnam. The JRB was formed by Jeannette Rankin, Congresswoman from Montana. The JRB met on 1/15/68 at Union Station, W.D.C., and marched to the Capitol where Rankin presented a petition demanding redress of grievances to end the war in Vietnam, after which they proceeded to the Shoreham Hotel, where King and others spoke. On 1/4/68 Rankin and King addressed a group of business women in Atlanta to join in the national delegation on opening day of Congress. King, a member of the steering committee of the JRB, indicated that the Vincent Hallinans, a wealthy lawyer from San Francisco, were the backers of JRB.

The following references on Coretta King appear in the file captioned "Desegregation of Public Schools, Memphis, Tenn." These references pertain to nineteen individuals, including Ralph D. Abernathy, national president of the SCLC., indicted by Shelby County, Tenn. Grand Jury, Memphis, on State charges growing out of recent United Black Coalition sponsored boycott of Memphis City Schools. Bench warrants served did not include Abernathy. Two of the individuals chose to stay in jail to dramatize their position and await the arrival of Abernathy ostensibly on December 11, 12, or 13, 1969, at which time he would surrender himself to the Court, and they predicted that Abernathy would remain in jail for a few days, hoping thereby to induce Coretta King to come to Memphis on 12/15/69 to lead a mass protest in Memphis.

March 26, 1971

Mrs. Ruth Gage-Colby, National Coordinator

1029 Vermont Ave. N.W., 8th Floor
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Ruth,

I plan to be with you in Washington on April 24, because I think this is the single most important thing that I could do at this time toward fulfilling my husband's dream.

I am gratified that persons like Senators McGovern, Hartke, Gravel, Hart, Tunney, and 14 members of the House of Representatives have taken a strong position in support of the April 24 demonstration. The forces that have forged the alliance for April 24 represent the broadest and most diverse base of support that the peace forces have ever had.

This war has ravaged our domestic programs. It has created a climate of wanton violence at home and in Vietnam, and it is patently responsible for the unprecedented deterioration of our values. Without a doubt, America has continuously built for war and destruction, with flagrant disregard for peace and development.

It is my conviction that if a significant number of elected officials combine their strengths with large numbers of people whose convictions are sufficiently strong, and with a determination to end the war, this will be a clear mandate to the Nixon Administration to move toward ending this brutal and immoral war. I still believe that the power to bring about positive, lasting change rests with the people.

I will be with you on April 24 in Washington.

Yours for a lasting peace,

Coretta Scott King

NAME CHECKS

MRS. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Captioned individual, who you advised is affiliated with the Martin Luther King Center for Social Change, 671 Beckwith Street, Southwest, Atlanta, Georgia, was the subject of White House name checks in 1970 and 1971. Copies of the FBI memoranda dated January 26, 1970, and February 1, 1971, each concerning the captioned individual are attached. (62-108052-57, 67)

Since that time, our files reveal the following information concerning the captioned individual:

The National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) and the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) sponsored a series of demonstrations in Washington, D.C., during the period of April 24 to May 5, 1971. The NPAC is an umbrella antiwar organization with an objective to involve masses including labor unions, G.I.'s, and the black community to effect the immediate withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Southeast Asia and abolition of the draft. The PCPJ described itself as comprised of over 100 organizations whose purpose is to combat the issues of racism, poverty, repression and war. On April 29, 1971, the Spring Demonstration Against Poverty, War and Repression as sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was held at Washington in conjunction with the NPAC and PCPJ demonstrations, and featured Ralph D. Abernathy, President of SCLC, leading a mule train to the U.S. Capital. With Abernathy calling for a guaranteed annual income of $6,500 for a family of four, other speakers at the Capitol rally included Bella Abzug, National Student Mobilization Committee Secretary Debra Bustin, Senator Vance Hartke, and Coretta S. King. In her speech, Mrs. King spoke of the trouble in America, of churches and schools having been napalmed by those who seek personal profits, (our) cities are dying from bankruptcy, having mass murders, fear exists everywhere and the war is the cause of all this. She said the war is an enemy of black people and that it rids the nation of all its useful resources. She posed the question, "Why can't people of the United States and Southeast Asia make peace?" She said people should make peace and that we should declare that the war is over, that the march of hunger and poverty is over and added that the only trouble is that Nixon and Agnew hope to keep this national crisis to maintain control of the people. Mrs. King said her husband maintained there must be a radical revolution in the form of a personal revolution in order to change the society and that racism and militarism have to be put down. She concluded by saying, "You - people - let us make the peace." (100-463195-810, 777 p. 3,4)

In November, 1972, it was known that Mrs. King continued to be a member of the Board of Directors of the SCLC while making frequent public appearances and speeches in behalf of legitimate civil rights movements and activities. She is also active in collecting funds for the Martin Luther King, Jr., Memorial Center in Atlanta, Georgia. (62-108052-72)

On November 30, 1974, Mrs. King led a march sponsored by the Committee for Integrated Quality Education in Boston, Massachusetts, to support busing for integration of the schools. She was one of the speakers listed for a rally in connection with the march. (157-6-5-A Daily World, 11/30/74.)

At 3:30 p.m. on March 10, 1975, I met with Assistant Attorney General Scalia, Office of Legal Counsel in the Department; William Hoiles, Counselor to the Attorney General; Harry H. Wachtel, attorney for Mrs. Coretta King and the estate of Martin Luther King, Jr.; Congressman Andrew Young (D-Ga.); and District of Columbia Delegate Walter E. Fauntroy.

Mr. Wachtel said that he represented Mrs. King personally and the estate of Martin Luther King, Jr., in an effort to determine the best course of action concerning certain file material believed to be in possession of the FBI regarding Martin Luther King, Jr. He introduced Congressman Young as the principal spokesman for their group.

Mr. Young said that he is personally acquainted with the King children and his principal concern is to protect the reputation of their late father. He said that during the years in which the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was active under the leadership of Martin Luther King, Jr., Young was a national coordinator and Fauntroy SCLC head in the District of Columbia. Young said that his interest is in preventing in any way disclosure of information that might be derogatory concerning King. He said that he is particularly concerned about the possibility that the Senate Select Committee and the House Select Committee on Intelligence might subpoena FBI records concerning King with the result that material could be leaked to the press.

He said he is also concerned about reports appearing in the press recently which alleged improper activities concerning the FBI. He gave as an example the allegation in the "New York Times" of March 9, 1975, that the Bureau had ordered handwriting samples of Young to be obtained in order for his signature to be forged. Young said that he is not interested in helping the press attack the FBI by having the Bureau's files concerning King made available because he has personal knowledge that the press, in the early 1960's, was aware that FBI Agents circulated false reports concerning members of the SCLC and doing other things to disrupt their activities. He said that at that time he and others had requested the press to identify the Agents involved, but they consistently refused to do so and now he saw no reason to aid the press in their current efforts against the FBI.

Mr. Wachtel said that he was aware that they could ask for materials under the Freedom of Information Act and that they could sue for damages for improper activities by the Bureau, but they have decided that it would be more useful to protect the privacy of the King family to attempt to resolve this matter without the publicity that would be attached to such requests or a suit. He asked what our general policy is concerning the release of information to Congress and our policy concerning the protection of privacy of individuals who might be mentioned in our files.

I told him that the FBI is not in favor of making Bureau files available for review by members of Congress and that we are most concerned about the protection of personal privacy of individuals. I pointed out that in most cases the FBI's position under the FOIA is that material should not be released even in those situations where the Department is of the opinion that the material must be released pursuant to the statute. Assistant Attorney General Scalia supported me in that position and said he well understood the policy of the FBI to be a careful concern for the privacy of individuals.

Congressman Young said that their interests could be served if they could be made aware of the nature of the information in Bureau files on King and he requested consideration be given to granting them access to file material concerning King. He explained that they could not take appropriate steps to protect the privacy of King and his surviving family against publication by Congress or leaks to the press unless they knew what the material was. Young suggested that it might be possible for any material on King to be transferred to the King Memorial Library to be held free from inspection for future historical purposes. I reminded Mr. Young that such a move would not protect the material from Congressional subpoena and I suggested to him that if material exists in FBI files concerning King, it would have greater protection in the custody of the FBI because of the opportunities available for the Executive Branch to deal on an equal basis with the Congress, and therefore to deny access to the material in the face of a Congressional subpoena.

Mr. Young agreed that he had not considered that aspect of his proposal.

Mr. Wachtel asked for a specific timetable for the preparation of the Attorney General's proposed guidelines and asked whether any specific arrangements have been made to date with any of the Congressional committees that might involve material on King. Assistant Attorney General Scalia told him that no specific timetable has been set for the development of guidelines but the Attorney General has indicated that they must be developed at an early date. He said that no arrangements have been made with any Congressional committees concerning file material on King.

Mr. Wachtel and Congressman Young requested an opportunity to meet again to discuss this matter further and indicated that they would call and request another meeting. Mr. Scalia then advised that he would present to the Attorney General the request for them to have access to the file material if any exists on King and indicated that he would advise Mr. Wachtel by March 17, 1975, of the developments concerning the Attorney General's proposed guidelines.

It was indicated that there was no request made under the FOIA. The purpose of the meeting was to attempt to find an informal way of disposing of material that might exist concerning King of a derogatory nature. After the conference had concluded, I discussed with Mr. Scalia the steps he might take in resolving this matter and I requested him to keep me advised as to any decisions that might be made by the Attorney General. Nothing additional needs to be done by the Bureau at this time concerning this matter.

RECOMMENDATION:

SUBJECT: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

At 3:20 p.m. on March 4, 1975, William Hoiles, Counselor to the Attorney General, called me and advised that the Attorney General had just received a telephone call from an attorney representing Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr., requesting a conference with the Attorney General. The attorney proposed that he would be accompanied by Congressman Andrew Young (D. -Ga.) and District of Columbia Delegate Walter E. Fauntroy. Hoiles said that instead of having the Attorney General meet with the Congressman, Mr. Fauntroy and the Attorney representing Mrs. King, it had been proposed that Hoiles meet with them accompanied by Assistant Attorney General Scalia of the Office of Legal Counsel of the Department, and he requested me to attend as well.

Hoiles said that the meeting would be held at 1:00 p.m. on the afternoon of March 5, 1975, in the office of Mr. Scalia.

It appears that the request to meet with the Attorney General is intended to provide an opportunity for a request to be made for information concerning Martin Luther King, Jr., under the Freedom of Information Act. In the event such a request is made, it will be made clear that the Bureau will receive the request and it will be handled appropriately under the statute.

At 4:15 p.m., Mr. Hoiles's secretary advised that the attorney representing Mrs. King would be Harry H. Wachtel.

Dear Director Sessions:

I have enclosed a copy of an editorial from the Atlanta Constitution on Tuesday, September 13, 1988, entitled "A Plan to Overcome Racism at the FBI." I am delighted to see you moving aggressively to institute an affirmative action plan to correct past and even present inequities in personnel practices. Your efforts can be of great benefit to the Bureau and subsequently, our nation. I am also pleased that the FBI will be housed in the newly designated Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Annex Building in Atlanta.

I hope you will visit The King Center, our Freedom Hall Complex, and the MLK, Jr. National Historic Site. An opportune time would be on Monday, January 16, 1989, when we observe the Fourth National Holiday in Dr. King's honor. The day's observance will begin with the Ecumenical Service at historic Ebenezer Baptist Church at 10:00 a.m. and conclude with our National Parade and March of Celebration which steps off at 2:00 p.m.

Sincerely,

A Plan to Overcome Racism at the FBI

Credit FBI Director William S. Sessions with doing the honorable thing. Without waiting for the outcomes of pending lawsuits that accuse the Federal Bureau of Investigation with discrimination against, and racial harassment of, minority employees, Mr. Sessions has instituted an aggressive affirmative action plan to correct inequities in his agency.

Judging from testimony in the legal proceedings so far, there is much to be corrected. A suit filed by 311 Hispanic agents charges discrimination in the assignment, promotion and discipline of Hispanic agents. An action by a black agent in Philadelphia accuses supervisors and agents of racial harassment. Several of the agent's complaints have been upheld by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Of 9,597 FBI agents, fewer than 10 percent are black or Hispanic. Only 417 are black; 439 are Hispanic. This even though blacks and Hispanics make up more than 20 percent of the U.S. population and despite the fact that a number of the bureau's cases require work in minority communities. Such cases would seemingly benefit from the involvement of minority agents.

In any event, Mr. Sessions, who says he has wanted to improve the bureau's treatment of minority employees since he took over the agency, has apparently realized the difficulty of trying to change an entrenched bureaucracy whose members' attitudes may still be influenced by the less enlightened policies of the J. Edgar Hoover years.

Over the next five years, the FBI will aggressively recruit women and minorities, and not just for "traditional" minority jobs. Mr. Sessions said minority members will be sought for crucial job categories such as linguist, lawyer, engineer, computer scientist and accountant. An advertising agency has been hired for that purpose and several of the agency's top employees will be asked to serve as recruiters.

Career development and training programs are being improved and promotion and complaint procedures are being reviewed. Mr. Sessions' actions are welcome. They indicate he is serious about his vow to stamp out racism and discrimination in the agency — an accomplishment that will benefit the bureau and the nation.

Dear Mrs. King:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in providing me with a copy of the September 13th editorial from the Constitution. There are many opportunities ahead for bringing highly qualified young men and women into the life and activity of the Bureau.

Thank you for your cordial invitation to share Monday, January 16th, with you. I shall look forward to being present at the Ebenezer Baptist Church and to touring the sites you have suggested. It is likely that I will need to depart Atlanta before the 2:00 p.m. parade.

I shall look forward to hearing from you about the scheduled events.

Dear Director Sessions:

My thanks and sincere appreciation for your kind and most generous letter of March 6, 1989. Your support of Martin's Federal National Holiday and the efforts of the Federal Commission to comply with the mandate of the Congress to make the holiday a "time for Americans to reflect on the principles of racial equality and nonviolent social change espoused by Martin Luther King, Jr." is to be commended. I am especially delighted and encouraged by your belief that using FBI personnel to work with the MLK Jr. Federal Holiday Commission could be a beneficial relationship for your employees.

I have every reason to believe that with the support of the President and the Congress that the Federal Commission will be extended beyond April 20, 1989 and that we will be in a position to take advantage of your interest in furthering the work of the Commission.

In the meantime, I would like to use this opportunity to express my concern about a good friend and supporter of Martin, The King Center and the Federal Commission, Congressman Walter Fautroy. As you know, the FBI has been investigating Congressman Fautroy for several months after very public and politically damaging allegations which originated with an Associate Press reporter.

I understand that the FBI completed its investigation and that the evidence assembled for the record, reflected no violation of law. I now understand that the FBI has been requested to extend its investigation of Congressman Fautroy for another two months which leads me and Civil Rights leaders to fear that an apparatus which was operated in the decade of the 60's against Martin is being reactivated as a results of the regulation issued by former Attorney General Messe on the last day of his tenure at the Department of Justice. I sincerely hope this is not so.

I know that your sense of fairness and justice would refrain the FBI from any involvement in efforts designed solely to discredit the reputation of a member of the Congress for political and partisan purposes. I hope we can close the chapter on the allegations and investigation of Congressman Fautroy, so that he can get on with providing the essential leadership to which so many of us have come to expect and to depend upon.

Sincerely,

Coretta Scott King

Dear Mrs. King:

I will look forward to hearing from you concerning extending the Federal Holiday Commission in support of Dr. King's Federal National Holiday.

I read of your concern with respect to the publicity regarding Congressman Walter Fauntroy. Public officials are constantly subjected to the scrutiny of the press and the general public. As I am sure you appreciate, it would not be appropriate for me to make any kind of comment regarding any investigation or inquiry the FBI may have originated with respect to allegations about Congressman Fauntroy.

I appreciate your confidence in my sense of fairness and justice and assure you that the FBI will conduct its business according to the rule of law and within the guidelines established by the Attorney General of the United States.

I hope you will continue to assist me in the recruiting of qualified minorities to be FBI employees. If you have any specific ideas along those lines, I would be grateful if you would share them with me.

Sincerely,

William S. Sessions
Director
