"San Francisco Chronicle"

It is noted that the morgue of the "Palo Alto Times" newspaper was checked on 1/2/69, and no additional data considered pertinent was noted.

San Francisco files reflect that the Fall, 1968, bulletin put out by the Mid-Peninsula Free University reflects that the MFU is a non-profit corporation organized to implement a vision of cultural revolution in which a new society will develop with the shell of the old. The MFU has a commitment to total reconstruction at all levels, its goal being the emergence of a new politics, new economic, new religion, new education and a new vision of humanity based on libertarian, democratic and communitarian ideas. This bulletin further stated that the MFU opposes laws against use, possession and sale of marijuana, supports non-violence resistance to the draft and to the war in Vietnam as well as supporting the ten point program of the Black Panther Party.

On Page 8 of this bulletin there is a listing for a class on Marxism Leninism and the American Revolution taught by [REDACTED]. It is reflected that this course is a seminar for those who want to help make the American revolution and those who wish to explore the belief of MAO Tse-tung that "if there is to be a revolution, there must be a revolutionary party...A party built on the Marxist-Leninist revolutionary and in the Marxist-Leninist revolutionary style." It was indicated that selected works of LENIN and MAO Tse-tung would be utilized in the course.

In addition to the public source material noted above in which [redacted] is specifically mentioned and/or quoted, there is also attached an article from the "Berkeley Barb", issue of 5/24/68, which reflects information concerning the existence of the Peninsula Red Guard at Stanford University. Caution should be exercised inasmuch as there is no public source material linking [redacted] with the Peninsula Red Guard. However, this particular article could be used effectively to steer [redacted] into answering questions such as does such an organization exist at Stanford, and, if so, what are its aims and purposes.

There is also attached a xerox copy of an article appearing in Barrow's, the National Business and Financial Weekly, dated 9/16/68, in which ERNEST MANDEL, the recognized international Marxist scholar, comments concerning a report on the fourth conference of Socialist scholars. This report appears to parallel the Party line of the New Left and student activists. Although [redacted] is not specifically mentioned in this material, it is felt that he would follow this particular line in a debate and statements by [redacted] could be pinned down to a similar or identical line as that MANDEL advocates in this article.

This is being submitted for the Bureau's review in connection with the particular situation set forth in the referenced communication.

Ejection Ends His Protest Of Napalm Plant

By HOLGER JENSEN

REDWOOD CITY — A Stanford University professor was forcibly dragged from a Redwood City Port Commission meeting Monday after an uproarious protest by "Vietniks" against a proposed napalm factory here.

Crying out that "I have a right to speak on this moral issue," Prof. of Literature H. Bruce Franklin was dragged out by Deputy Chief of Redwood City Police Theodore Moudakas.

Port Commissioners took advantage of the incident while the audience was distracted, to unanimously approve a sub-lease agreement with United Technology Center to establish a napalm manufacturing plant at the Port of Redwood City. It will be located on 2.1 acres of former U.S. Navy property.

The Franklin episode culminated in a disorderly 2 1/2-hour meeting which started at the port office and moved to the San Mateo Supervisors chambers after some 70 anti-napalm demonstrators demanded to air their views.

Commission Chairman Norman Menefee reluctantly agreed to hear the protesters, although he insisted that "the moral issue of napalm and its use in Vietnam is not the responsibility of this body (the port commission)."

"Our responsibility is simply to lease a parcel of land," said Menefee. "We all deplore war but it is not the function of this body to determine the policy of our government."

Commissioner Robert Brown said, "The people who are here need to be in Washington."

Earlier in the meeting Franklin and James Coleman, managing editor of Ramparts Magazine, led some 70 members of the Stanford Committee for Peace in Viet Nam and other peace groups in haranguing the commission to deny the LTC lease proposal.

posed is that Redwood City become the site of the first napalm production contract granted since the end of the Korean War.

Three LTC representatives sat stoically in the front row of the meeting room as another pro- tester, Rev. William R. Harris, told commissioners "the sole purpose of napalm is the destruction of men."

"Redwood City will become known as a place where flaming death is manufactured," he said. "Do you leave your morals in church when discussing business?"

Palo Alto peace crusader Elena Greene told commissioners,

"You are committing thousands of people to death by permitting this lease. I don't know how you sleep at night."

Commissioner J. Edgar E. O'Connell told the audience the most common "moral" legacy of the war against Japan was "a hatred against the enemy and a hatred."

Franklin, who was not a member of the Redwood City Board of Supervisors, said as he left the meeting, "If the war in Korea goes off the Redwood facility (at the port) will go with it," he said.

Commissioner O'Connell, who was asked to limit an individual speaker to three minutes,

"I have never before seen people in a public meeting treated with such utter contempt and disrespect," he said.

It was while Franklin was speaking that Commissioner O'Connell announced that the board would not consider the lease until the board had received more information on the lease and the board's responsibility to the community. The board will meet again on Monday night to consider the lease

and the board's

responsibility to the community.

Commissioner O'Connell said he plans "legal recourse" to reverse the board's action.

He said, "Eighteen German fighter pilots have been killed since the beginning of 1943. The planes crashed at the rate of about one every two weeks during 1943 and seven have crashed in eleven weeks this year."

For months, Germany's parliamentary defense committee has been discussing the accidents, and at the beginning of this year Defense Minister Karl Dönitz announced certain steps to improve maintenance and pilot training.

He also asked the Lockheed Company, which designed the F104, to give estimates for handling aircraft maintenance on the 30 Starfighters operated by the Luftwaffe on a civilian contract basis. Lockheed officials now studying the problems are expected to make an offer in about a month.

While Lockheed declined to disclose the exact figures for the U. S. Air Force, most of the German fighters were produced by a German-Dutch-British consortium. U. S. officials said the Starfighter has a safety record in the U. S. Air Force comparable with other fighters which is about 114 major accidents per 10,000 flight hours.

ReSFairtel 11/26/68. Reairtel transmits a letter from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] in which Cina outlines her revolutionary activities as a teacher in the New York School System.

A review of Bufile on [REDACTED] reveals that she was last known to be employed at the New York City Department of Public Works. Her file shows that she apparently traveled to Cuba in July, 1968. In view of this latter fact, coupled with her statements as set forth in the above-mentioned letter regarding the teaching of revolution, New York should immediately reopen the investigation of [REDACTED] and submit a current report accompanied by FD-128 making a recommendation as to her inclusion on the Security Index.

New York should also verify her employment and, if in fact, she is employed by the public school system, the Bureau should be advised as to whether a source is available to which this material can be furnished with a view toward having her discharged. If such a source is not available, New York should submit for approval an anonymous communication which can be used as a cover vehicle in supplying New York authorities with a copy of her letter.

In addition, New York should advise whether this material can be used to advantage by its contacts in the news media in the New York area. If such is the case, you should make a recommendation in this regard.

NOTE:

By referenced communication SF furnished a letter written by [redacted] to one [redacted] in which [redacted] outlines her activities within the school system in New York City. [redacted] states that she is actively preaching revolution to her children in an effort to turn young kids on to the revolution. She states in her letter that activities such as hers within the public school system is "a reasonable strategy for populating the revolution." SF recommended NY be authorized to furnish a copy of this letter to responsible school authorities and also that the material be used by appropriate newspaper contacts in order to preclude this type of occurrence from other school areas and to awaken authorities to this danger. Our file indicates NY has previously conducted an investigation on [redacted] and that she traveled to Cuba in 1968. November 20, 1968

Dear [redacted]

I stole the November issue of the Movement from a friend in order to read your Cuba articles (my own sub had run out in my absence). Your coverage is superb! "More Revolution" is the best all-purpose Cuba article I have seen anywhere. I've always thought the Movement was good movement journalism; now I think it's terrific. Not that I mean to engage in unrevolutionary ego-building; it's just that right now I'm riding high on enthusiasm from a bunch of high school kids.

For the past couple of weeks I've been doing what Fausto Diaz says we should do - turning up young kids on to the revolution. As you know, a long teachers strike has just ended in NY City. I hold a teacher's license, so I presented myself at a high school as a social studies teacher and got assigned to one freshman class in Eastern Studies, one American history class, and one economics class.

To the first I brought Shier's "How the US Got Involved" pamphlet plus some Viet-Reports. The kids began reading and we began discussing. Result: last Friday when a new kid came in and charged that North Vietnam had invaded the sovereign state of South Vietnam, another kid pulled out his copy of Viet-Report with the Geneva Agreements in it and read out the section about the temporary demarcation line between the two areas. Facts they've never heard of are flying, and I'm telling them why they're lied to about everything. They're thinking about bourgeois ideology and the system it protects.

To the American history class I brought Williams' Tragedy of American Diplomacy, which they have bought as the text. American foreign policy is economic expansion. Disputes over whether that is the case, Wondering why that is the case. Explaining why that is the case. Making the cold war ideology they are filled with begin to drain out of them.

To the economics class I brought Ruberman's Man's Worldly Goods, which they bought as the text. This is a brilliant book - a Marxist political economy of the western world plus Das Kapital, written for workers. I told the kids it was Marxist. The radicals fell off their chairs onto the floor. The rest just dropped their jaws. I assigned chapters every night and spent the class periods in random discussion - the concept of historical materialism, the dialectic, the utopian socialist tradition that goes all the way back to Christ, lots about Cuba (I showed slides and rapped to the whole school about Cuba for a couple of days.), the function of ideology, etc., etc.

A kid told me that the discussion goes on for hours after class and is very emotional, as well it might be. In the afternoons, when they had an "enrichment program," I went to the political forum club and denounced capitalism. If the strike had lasted into this week I would have been showing guerrilla films with a NACLA speaker, "Hanoi, Martes 13" with a friend of mine who's been to North Vietnam, Newsreel's Colombia strike and Black Panther films, etc., etc.

Now we are at the one piece of official business in this letter. The enclosed $20 (is it enough) is for two subs to be sent to me plus as many as you can give me of the November issue (200 or more). I'll first use them with the kids in my seminar group, with extra copies for them to pass out in school. The rest I'll use later, with new groups of kids in other high schools. PLEASE RUSH!

Thanks in advance for the copies of the November issue. I hope you have enough extra.

The political demands of the film are rather simple. The world is bad. The ideological system is the cause of it. Central theme: (a) The world is fantastically malleable. The conspiracy is to get people to go to the left. There were those conspiracy films told to a lot of young people on the left why they were there. The universal theme showed that they had a good understanding of why their participation was important. "You're here because I was told to come. I understand why I can make my greatest contribution to the revolution by being here."

There are few formal civil liberties in Cuba, but there is a substantial liberty for everyone to escape from the slavery of economic and social insecurity. The feelings of the great majority of people are always recorded for, but freedom of expression is not absolute. Expression of dissatisfied opinion is discouraged. Individuals and groups are not considered counter-revolutionary -- rather they are re-incorporated into collective life.

The first one is freedom of expression for everything that is not counter-revolutionary. One CGR director told me that the definition of "counter-revolutionary" is rather narrow. Something against the will and interests of the Cuban people is counter-revolutionary. The Party is strictly against this.

The Cuban reaction to the Czech situation tells a lot about civil liberties, freedom of expression, decision-making and what is considered counter-revolutionary in Cuba. For months before the Soviet invasion, every day thousands of Cubans in the unusually large amount of trucks in the streets carrying Czech cars and trucks — Czechoslovaks, I understand, — were coming in a matter of a few minutes from the Czech Republic. The Czech Republic was one of the governments in the world to befriend the United States. Czechs say it is the most honest and the most good version. The Czechs are well known in ballet, sports, even architecture. Many Cuban students and

On the basis of all these sources, the Cuban people had developed a definite attitude towards the Czechs in the Prague Spring. The COIN made a study of the Cuban people to learn how they felt about Czechoslovakia. The COIN director was surprised that 85% of the people strongly opposed what they considered middle class reforms in Czechoslovakia and that they should be stopped at any means necessary.

Then there was the minority position. The year before I was elected to the Faculty Council, mostly students, tried to stage a spontaneous pro-Czech demonstration. All spontaneous demonstrations are illegal in China. The demonstration never quite came off and most participants were criticized for "spontaneity." Five of them who had "counter-revolutionary" past, were kept in jail.

Something of the Party gets out there in the CTC in a number of working bodies.

On the Isle of Man there's a famous camp where the soldiers from the wars have ger and worker in quite a heated argument. Most of the other workers defended the "company man". After 15 minutes had the last word, he went away in a huff.

The next day, the party called and had breakfast to the camp asked in my opinion of the incident. He was there but I did not ask it. He said that the matter was wrong, but he also blamed the workers for not defending one of their own. That was a sign of a lack of revolutionary spirit too. The Party had decided to call a meeting of the whole camp to make sure everyone understood it. I saw and understood the need for influence on the side of justice.

Sometimes I brought all of the population of the family down. One night in Havana, I came upon a public lecture being held in the street. The music was called for the people in the neighborhood to participate the sessions of the members of the various groups in the area.

Most people gather when they have to wait on line, and the Party people were trying to pass the blame for the lines on to the managers of this store. The people's reaction was impressive. They defeated the manager by explaining that the lines were inevitable. "The country is underdeveloped and in order to develop all resources had to go to agriculture." They also talked about the economic blockade and talked for several hours. They clearly indicated that the problem of lines was deeper than the efficiency of the store and would need to be persuaded otherwise by Party members. They were the same people you might hear complaining as you pass any line in Havana.

Contact with socialist realism is constrained not to employ dull, heavy-handed comparisons in communist countries. The expectation is then ardently put down in Cuba. There is a mourning for the need for more work, the defense of Vietnam, the support of the Black struggle in the U.S., etc. are usually done in a part style with psychological drama.

Most mobilization campaigns and ideological work use down-home language, combined with vocabulary of guerrilla struggle. There is a Che Guevara Work Principle: There are "guerrilla workers" (one who does odd jobs in the factory without pay for another six in the fields outside of town). The "Woman is the Mother of the Revolution". Communism (the "socialist tree") is the "Seed" of the "People's Mother". Khrushchev's speech to the Congress for Friendship and Cooperation.

The slide also shows what economic underdevelopment means in human terms. One doesn't need a formal education to understand the viciousness of imperialism, exploitation and poverty. But one does need training to develop modern agricultural techniques, or design an economic plan or to solve modern social cultural problems. And once in power, you also need a firm concept of self-determination and an ambition about the future of your re-destined lands.

The Council Committee and other high level Indian executives also complain that a problem, but not a real problem, since it is only transition to a concrete development and defense of India. The U.S. get up potential. And the fact that Cuba has actually eliminated the sugar which was convinced by the United Nations that is universal in character, like the UN, and still insist that there's a quick way to a peaceful humanity. They love Cuba, but are at odds with American propaganda to fight for the revolution to grow.

All Celine has, Celine, like a plastic mother figure, her child Celine is not yet a freedom. Although, for most, it is easier to return to the past. For example, it will be the sign of hard work and discipline to be the pseudo-noble and demands sacrifice.

The revolution is an experiment that often proceeds on a trial and error basis. Cuba is first. The creation of this society in the new society has begun, but there are no foundations. Few have a very accurate idea of what he will look like, and how to make him.

One thing is sure. The church's continuing to be the the Indian land and people's friend -- so is it also to be, for the people, probably a city-based institution, working in the hot Cuban sun and for one or other of the have-would-be-the-people. But when people know that the church can be for the people and for the children, when they understand what it is for and when they know that everything is being it, people really want to do it -- even more so.

When the British and we go for a society change for this, it is not really according. It is something else that is hard to do with the American example. It is not that. It is a way to treat opinion and politicians and join with anti-Mexican.

This is what the "Revolutionary Offensive" and abolition of material incentives is all about. Beginning in March, all revolutionary public enterprise was placed under the direct orders and commands of the workers, the prices of raw materials and tools and thus got cheaper. But there was only the material aspects of the Revolutionary Offensive. The purpose of this phase of it is not only to get rid of the material incentives, through the revolutionary and all-out struggle, but to have more men in it. The purpose is to let the workers win the battle for the abolition of the revolutionary incentives and to make a few revolutionary men to grow up to impress upon the people the dedication needed

Revelation in my Character:

For the last few years the Cubans have been trying to eliminate anti-Americanism. The process has been slow and non-effective. With the United States Collective the campaign took on a new urgency. Most people behave for fear, they work without joy. There are a couple of programs encouraging all people to work for various lengths of time in agriculture, without special pay. All work centers and schools had various ways to work extra to sell the 25th of July, then Sept. 23, then Oct. 24. They go from one mobilization to the next. The rewards are collectible and non-collectible -- a special pay, 10 francs a day, a bonus for the plant, special recognition in the press, etc. Collectible material incentives perpetuate the system. Martí doesn't see more toward the abolition of the system.

All three programs operate under a public interest, that is, to help the United States' material status with a 1945-46 outlook of a market overtaking 1947, 1948 and 1949. The first step is to get the United States' material status with a 1945-46 outlook of a market overtaking 1947, 1948 and 1949. The first step is to get the United States' material status with a 1945-46 outlook of a market overtaking 1947, 1948 and 1949.

There's still the Copolla crowd, thousands of young people who do nothing but stand in line starting and waiting for free cars every night. But they are not alone. The United Young People's groups most of his time predicting the doom of the Union of Communist Youth (UYC) -- "Gang, Gang, Shoot". The first shooting in the countryside in the cities, in the towns and villages in the wake of the revolution, education, economic development, and national liberation. It is predicted in all these spheres, the new man in the new society.

Newsreel's Version of Moses, Sprout Sit-ins Presented in Movie '139X' in Wheeler Tonight

By GENE GOLDENFELD

Rarely do news photographers capture events in a manner sympathetic to those involved. Newsreel is one of those rare news reporters. In fact, so friendly and respected is the Newsreel team, that they had one of the very few photographers inside Moses Hall two Wednesday nights ago. From the Moses and Sprout Hall sit-ins has come Newsreel's movie entitled "139X" showing tonight in Wheeler Auditorium.

"139X" is not only a news chronicle, but an argument as well. It seems that the absurdity of the whole situation is the major line of the movie.

From the sharp breaks and continuous changes in action, the film gives the impression of students confused; confused not about the issues, but about the necessity of their stand.

Similarly, the second portion of the film portrays the police action, especially when leaving campus Thursday morning. In the soundtrack which accompanies the film a police march song and the Cal fight song are used to escort the police off the campus. Scenes move from police faces to their marching feet to students mimicking the Bay Area's finest in blue.

The absurdity of students having to risk so much in order to stand up for so many over such a clear issue, clearly sets the tone of "139X." When juxtaposed with the police action, the film becomes a documentary of a lost University in a lost society.

"139X" is about 25 minutes long. The other movie filmed at Columbia last spring by New York Newsreel is about 50 minutes in length. Admission is $1.25 and is well worth the time spent.

ReBulet 10/23/68 which refers to factionalist dispute developing within SDS.

Informant reports of the past few years have indicated that at many of the National Council meetings and National Conventions of SDS there has been action by members of Progressive Labor Party (PLP) to influence the organizational set up or program of SDS.

These position papers usually carry the signature of the authors followed by "SDS-PLP" to show their dual affiliation.

At one time, PLP members urged the restructuring of SDS to form a stronger central organization; Regional Offices responsible to the National Office and "Autonomous" local chapters under the Regional Office. It was apparent that PLP saw "restructuring" as the only way of gaining some control over SDS. The idea of "participatory democracy" supported by the then National leaders of SDS prevailed and while chaotic allowing anyone to act as an SDS "spokesman" at any time on any subject has prevented either the CP or PLP from taking over the SDS.

Under SDS's idea of "participatory democracy" power evolves from the bottom up and not from the top down. The general result being that after all the position papers are submitted and discussed action is usually deferred and each Chapter and groups within chapters continue to do the "thing" they want to do without all members being organized toward a single set of goals.

For example, in the past it has resulted in the PLP infiltrated chapter at San Francisco State College being defeated in its resolution at a Northern California Regional Conference last year to urge SDS support of Stop the Draft Week Demonstrations at the Oakland Armed Forces Induction Station because most the SDS chapters in this area decided that mass demonstrations no longer served their purposes. The dual affiliation of individual PLP members within SDS is known to most other SDS members and even student newspapers refer to PLP members as making announcements while wearing the hat of an SDS spokesman.

Prior to the most recent SDS National Council meeting at Boulder, individuals at San Francisco State were offered free transportation to Boulder if they would support the PLP positions even though these individuals were not PLP or even SDS members. (If we follow the SDS National Office definition of what SDS membership is).

During the past week according to informants at San Francisco State College the Black Student Union has called for a student strike but refused to let SDS participate in the plans or make suggestions regarding demonstrations.

On 11/10/68, at the University of California, Berkeley Campus, a Negro leader issued a warning to "white radicals" to stay out of Negro affairs charging that they secretly scheme to use the black man to take over the country; then enslave him. He also charged, "these radicals" with "chicanery and hypocrisy" in their wooing of Negroes to their cause and said they first tried to incite the white worker class to fight their revolution, but failed. He also warned the radicals that "when the black brother learns you've been lying, you might contemplate going back to the white worker and give him another try" because the blacks will be angry.

With SDS continuing as a paternless; amorphous, and ambiguous group with leadership in many chapters changing each semester it is not possible to clearly define the nature or extent of the ideological schism within the SDS even within individual chapters. With such a situation, the use of informants to make charges and countercharges would require continued replacement of isolated informants a task that we have neither the informants or personnel in the vicinity of college campuses, to handle at this time.

Attached for the benefit of the offices which did not receive a copy of the Berkeley Barb, is an article in the issue of 10/11-17/68. There is also attached a copy of the leaflet distributed at the University of California, Berkeley (UCB) which further analyzes the dispute between PLP and anti-PLP groups in the SDS Chapter at Berkeley.

It is the opinion of informants contacted that there is always factionalism in each SDS Chapter because all of the SDS Chapters in this area are full of uncertainties, divergent viewpoints, charges and countercharges. Everyone is allowed to speak and no group is generally excluded. Our investigations have also shown the membership, leaders and activities of these autonomous chapters is constantly changing and in the opinion of the high-placed informants within SDS, SDS is actually "an ideological storm" with probably as many viewpoints as there are members.

San Francisco LHIs of 11/7/68 and 11/20/68 captioned "Students for a Democratic Society, IS-SDS" reported in great detail on the National Council meeting held at Boulder, Colorado, 11/13/68. Since this concerned the National Council meeting full details are not being set forth again regarding the Student Labor Action Project (SLAP) and the lengthy proposals introduced by this pro-PLP group at the SDS National Council meeting at Boulder as this can be more appropriately handled by the Office of Origin who would have details from all informants in attendance. Briefly it should be noted that the SLAP proposal was overwhelmingly defeated and the vote challenged by the PLP after [redacted], SDS [redacted] spoke against the SLAP proposal asking why PLP brought their proposal to SDS stating they should go out and do it themselves. It was also noted at this National Council meeting that the Up Against The Wall/Other F Group from New York City were most active against the PLP and their vote was the one challenged at the National Council meeting by PLP. It should be noted that PLP also supported the inauguration day march on the White House proposal which was also defeated at the SDS National Council meeting. According to SF informants, the SLAP proposal introduced by the PL group was viewed by the majority of SDS members as a solution to a problem that never existed but rather as something PL created in order to present a solution too.

JIS:cb

San Francisco is of the same opinion as the Bureau that dissension within the SDS Chapters prevents them from taking more effective action but is also of the opinion at this time that the PL Group is creating sufficient animosity on its own. As an example of this, informants have reported that at an SDS meeting at Berkeley, California in 10/68, a fist fight broke out between one of the leaders of PL and an SDS leader because of agitation-propaganda songs ridiculing PL that were sung at the meeting. PL accused SDS of not being serious about their politics. It has also been reported that one of the SDS members who had been extremely critical and had ridiculed PL at the UCB Chapter claimed that he had been beaten up by three thugs at gunpoint who told them "our friends in Progressive Labor don't like what you've been doing and the information you've been putting out and that if he didn't stop, he'd be a dead man". One of the other anti-PL members in SDS is reported to have made the statement that he has a rifle in his house and that he fully intended to use it "should anyone think that I need being beaten up" and if anyone breaks into his house he will shoot first and then ask questions.

Berkeley, California as well as UCB police are aware of this particular situation and have planned to take no action at this time.

SDS SPLIT NOT FATAL; STILL ONLY PAPER PANIC

An internal struggle within the ranks of the Students for a Democratic Society national and campus organizations threatened this week to split the Berkeley group into two permanent camps. But a meeting Tuesday night resolved the problem in part.

Student members of the so-called "Workers-Student Alliance of SDS," feel that SDS should be "a mass, anti-imperialist organization which fights around issues of concern to students."

Their strategy, presented to Tuesday night's meeting as the "White Proposal," called for "the moulding of an alliance between the student movement and the movements of black people in the country."

The other perspective, presented to the meeting as the "Green proposal," was that of the "Monday Night Caucus or New Left Group," whom the others call the "Student-Power" group.

Although the rift reflects two major conflicting sentiments common to the national SDS organization and SDS campus groups all over the nation, the crisis at Cal was apparently brought about by the Cleaver case.

According to the "Workers-Student" position paper, their group fought to build the movement to get 199X for credit, explaining the "racist nature of the Regents' action" in leaflets, and calling for a more thorough fight against racism in the university, while the others advocated that SDS do nothing about the issue.

The Worker-Student group charged their opposition with "not caring enough about racism, and seeing the credit issue is irrelevant."

The other group, says the Alliance, called for the split, "subscribes to a strategy of student power, which we feel is basically a selfish ideology, wanting to liberate students from their problems without really changing the world at large."

Another issue behind the split was apparently the presence of Progressive Labor Party members in the SDS organization, specifically in the Worker-Student Alliance faction. The Alliance members accused the other caucus group of "doing the job of the oppressor for them," alluding to the McCarthy techniques of the 50's.

The voting on Tuesday approved the Green Paper, defeating the Worker Student Alliance plan, and leaving somewhat of a gap in the entire group's unity. But those who supported the White Paper felt that all was not lost for several reasons.

First, they cite the inclusion of an alliance clause, a watered-down capsulization calling for an effort to encompass the workers' ideals, listing the blue-collar workers as "particularly important."

Another is that the committee work outlined by the Green Paper is largely the same as that suggested by the dissenting alliance.

"We don't feel that we're alienated from the others," Roz Goldstein, who supported the defeated plan, told BARB. "We can still work on the committees that we felt were necessary."

"Essentially," she said, "they agree with the same demands--about minority hiring and admissions, about war complicity and I.D.A. war research, and about racism--but with a different analysis."

The spokesman, refusing to say that she or her faction were completely satisfied, indicated that the struggle will continue in a different manner:

"There are still two basic ideologies. We believe that ours (the Worker-Student Alliance's) is the better.

"We believe that students don't have enough power and must link up with other more powerful groups. But the only test will be working these differences out within SDS. Each group feels they have the correct plan. Eventually, one will win out."

Ken Epstein, a PL member of the Student-Workers Alliance faction, disagreed. He explained that the reason the real split didn't take place was because the alliance had leafleted the campus with a piece on the Anti-Communist stand of the main SDS group.

"The split never really came about," he told BARB. "There has been a national movement to remove the 'external cadre' of PL members from the organization. The conflict here is not resolved by Tuesday's action."

"Over the next three months," Epstein said, "we will find that our ways of doing things will be unacceptable to the others. I still think they hate Communists and the idea of having Communists in with them, and they will try to get the PL out."

"I'm sure the conflict will break out again, and maybe break up SDS this time," he said.

ANTI-COMMUNISM IN SDS - An Open Letter

There is an internal struggle between two perspectives in SDS. One perspective is that SDS is a mass organization which has reached crisis proportions here, and we feel you should do about it. One group wants to call for SDS to call on this campus and the chapter.

For the past year, most of the work of SDS has been done by people who feel SDS should be a mass, anti-imperialist organization which takes broad issues of concern to students. We feel the strategy by which to build this kind of organization is to build an alliance between the student movement and the movements of black people, workers fighting against bosses and call-out union leaders, and all oppressed people in the country. This is called the worker-student alliance. Members of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), a communist organization, work in this area. Over the year, SDS has set up a number of committees and had a number of struggles which have started to build this alliance and have built SDS.

The other group of people -- the one calling for the split -- subscribes to a strategy of "student power." With utter contempt for the intricacies of this, we feel it is basically a selfish ideology which wants to "liberate" students from their problems, with utterly changing the world at large -- without building alliances with the rest of the people who are oppressed. In the Cleaver fight, for instance, the worker-student alliance group has said SDS should hold a town hall movement to set the course for credit, and has also put out leaflets explaining the racist nature of the Regents' action and calling for a more thorough fight against racism in the university. The other group (which calls itself the "Monday night caucus" and the "New Left of SDS") advocated that SDS do nothing on the Cleaver issue. They saw the issue of credit as "irrelevant" and didn't really care enough about racism to fight this Regental decision.

Now we do not see this proposed split as a harmless affair. It is coordinated with a sustained attack on our viewpoint by a clique of people in the National Office of SDS. This attack takes the form of trying to kick the PLP out of the organization, and indeed kicking all those out who agree with the worker-student alliance strategy. So far, such attacks have failed. The split proposed here is yet another way of attempting to rid SDS of the worker-student alliance perspective, of the PLP, and of all those in the organization who think the worker-student alliance strategy is the way to build the student movement. As such, we regard the split as ANTI-COMMUNIST. The Monday night caucus is continually RED-BAITING our group, by spreading such slander as "PL is destroying SDS," or "PL are external cadre (outside agitators)," or "PL is taking over SDS," and by continually labelling all those who agree with the worker-student alliance position as members of PLP.

Ironically, there are only a handful of PL-ers in SDS here, and they are completely open about their identity. There are many more who agree with the worker-student alliance. On the other hand, to have enough strength to push for the split, the Monday night caucus has called to its aid all sorts of people who have no interest in building a mass student organization: including the various "communes" of street people, the split-pro group which has insisted for a year it has nothing to do with SDS, various isolated campus and non-campus radicals who only come to SDS when they want an organization's name behind their ideas, the Kew-Forest newspaper staff, etc. (Most of these people, such as those in the communes, aren't students and are more interested in tripping out than in changing the world.) The common goal of all these people is to "get rid of PL." After that, they will use the SDS name for themselves, or will disappear -- they are not interested in building SDS as a mass student organization.

The reason we feel this situation is important is that anti-communism is the most potent tool used to destroy the movement. McCarthy used it in the '50's, with success, which resulted in the quiet killing.

Both of the referenced teletypes reflect that SDS calls for demonstrations in connection with the national elections 11/4-5/68 and specifically state how they have planned and how they have intended to cause this disruptive action, including a suggestion of violation of the sedition laws in connection with the coffee houses at army bases and USO centers, et cetera.

RECOMMENDATION

In view of the above allegation and statements made by [REDACTED] of SDS, it would seem advisable that the Bureau prepare a national press release prior to the elections in order that the people all over the U. S. will recognize the fact that if this possible disruption takes place it is the result of the plans by SDS.

Apparently this activity on the part of the New Left and some of the Key Activists has been planned for quite some time. The Bureau's attention is invited to San Francisco letter dated 9/25/68 captioned "JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, ARL, PRINCIPAL SUBJECT" which enclosed an LHM dated 9/25/68 and advised at that time that RUBIN when served with a subpoena to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee on 10/3/68 stated he was then in Berkeley, California, to organize demonstrations to be held in this area on election day.

The idea of the national press release prepared by the Bureau is to inform the citizens of the U. S. that this activity is sponsored by a group of dedicated individuals who are determined to break the laws of the U. S. and cause as much trouble for the U. S. citizens as they can through their demonstrations.

As the Bureau points out in its letter of 10/21/68 captioned "COUNCIL OF INTELLIGENCE - KEY ACTIVISTS", the continued unimpeded activity on the part of these individuals poses a direct threat to the security of the nation and their neutralization becomes even more imperative. This press release should be aimed at the idea that SDS activity has nothing to do with free speech but is purely disruptive, anarchistic, and troublesome. The majority of our people enrolled in U. S. colleges are attempting to better themselves in obtaining an education and the article might include the idea that these disruptive measures do not help the student in pursuit of an education but actually are giving the young students a black eye. For example, in the recent demonstrations at the University of California at Berkeley, of which the Bureau has been completely advised, there are over 28,000 students at the University of which a very small minority and percentage are actually engaged in the demonstrations. Fifty or a hundred students in a demonstration can give the whole college or university a black eye.

The release should also be prepared in such a way as to point these facts out and should not have a connotation that it is an advertisement, which would stimulate further interest and/or support for SDS. It is felt this type of national press release could inform all of the U. S. citizens, including those servicemen that might be involved, of the true nature of SDS and its leaders and would definitely be in line with the Bureau's desires in the counterintelligence program.

It is recommended that the Bureau prepare and issue a national press release in line with the foregoing suggestions.

Recently Jerry Rubin, a key activist, flew from Chicago to San Francisco on a reduced fare airline ticket even though he is overage for such reduced fare. Chicago notified San Francisco of Rubin's arrival in advance. San Francisco attempted to take counterintelligence action to have Rubin arrested; however, the airline was reluctant to do this. It was necessary for the Bureau to request San Francisco to report the action that it had taken in this matter since their response to Chicago's communication had been only a terse teletype.

Reference San Francisco airtel 10/23/68.

Reairtel submitted a letterhead memorandum dated 10/23/68, captioned "Counterintelligence Program - New Left." While reairtel suggested that information regarding the hijacking of an Army ammunition truck be furnished to the San Francisco press, it was not clear whether you intended to do this by means of the enclosed letterhead memorandum. The letterhead memorandum should not be disseminated outside your office since it carries the caption of this Program.

In addition, the Bureau is not aware as to whether information contained in paragraph five of the memorandum is factual or whether it is a contrived situation developed for the purpose of the press release.

Prior to authorizing such a release, you should clarify this point.

In addition to the above, it is felt that it may be to Army's interest to make such a release and, therefore, you should discuss this matter with that agency prior to taking further action in this regard.

COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM - NEW LEFT

Reference is made to San Francisco letterhead memorandum dated October 18, 1968, bearing caption, "[REDACTED] Demonstration at U.S. Naval Weapons Facility, Concord, California".

The following is a suggested newspaper article which may be placed in a San Francisco newspaper:

A U.S. Army spokesman stationed in the San Francisco Bay Area today announced the Army's growing concern over thefts from their arms and ammunition supply depots. The Army stated that a recent report indicates a rise in minor thefts from these depots.

Intelligence officers have reported that for the past several months rumors have persisted that racial and New Left militant groups both consider Army supply depots as prime targets from which to obtain arms and explosives. They allegedly desire these arms and explosives to prepare themselves for a confrontation with the "Establishment", a confrontation which they say is necessary and imminent.

The Army related the following incident exemplifying their concern: Recently the driver of an arms truck reported that he had been followed on his previous two runs. The Army reported this to the FBI and on the driver's next run Agents from the FBI followed the truck at a distance. The Agents detected that a car containing two bearded youths was following the truck for several miles. The Agents contacted the driver of the truck by radio and he confirmed that it was the same car which had followed him on two previous runs. The Agents pulled the car over and questioned the youths, who appeared alarmed however, they refused to talk. The youths were apparently unarmed and they were allowed to proceed without arrest.

They noted that at a June, 1968 convention held in Michigan, Student for a Democratic Society members held a sabotage and explosives workshop at which they taught their members how to construct and detonate explosives.

The Army stated that all military installations plan to increase the amount of protection given to arms and explosive supply depots and to the carrier who deliver to these depots.

See appendix for characterization of Students for a Democratic Society.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Re Bureau airtel dated 10/10/68 requesting San Francisco to review this program and advise the Bureau specifically what steps were taken on the basis of information furnished by Chicago telephone call to San Francisco 10/4/68 to institute effective counterintelligence action against JERRY CLYDE RUBIN upon his arrival in San Francisco.

Immediately upon receipt of Chicago telephone call advising that a teletype was being prepared for the Bureau and San Francisco, San Francisco contacted [redacted] a former SA of the FBI who is [redacted] for United Air Lines (UAL) at the San Francisco Airport, at his home. [redacted] stated he had not received any calls from his office regarding the fact that JERRY RUBIN was traveling to San Francisco at a reduced rate.

In Chicago telephone call and teletype, it should be noted Chicago advised it was the policy of some airlines to charge deceptive practices in such instances and have the person arrested by local police. Bureau airtel of 10/10/68 is not in agreement with the information furnished by Chicago telephone call and teletype on this point. The Bureau airtel states San Francisco was advised by Chicago of the policy followed in Chicago concerning violation of these regulations and this policy included arrest on charges of following deceptive practices. Chicago telephone call suggested San Francisco determine what policy was followed in San Francisco regarding possible arrest of RUBIN.

As a result of the contact by this office [redacted] contacted various people at UAL at the San Francisco Airport and found they had, in fact, received a telephone call from Chicago UAL but had not bothered to advise the Investigations Office of this situation. [redacted] stated the procedure in a matter such as this in San Francisco is to contact the individual and ask him for the additional fare that is due. This was done by [redacted] who initiated the action in line with the Bureau's desires. The policy of UAL is not to arrest the individual but to take civil action to reclaim the fare if it is not paid.

[redacted] advised the policy of UAL in San Francisco was that they could not make an arrest without the authority of their legal department, which would have been required in this instance and would not have been possible to get under the circumstance late on a Saturday night. [redacted] believes this is the same policy that would be followed in Chicago. If UAL in Chicago was aware of the fact RUBIN was traveling with an illegal ticket UAL in Chicago could have denied him boarding in Chicago. However, once aboard the aircraft, the only action that could have been taken by UAL in San Francisco upon arrival was to request from him the additional fare and, if he refused, to consider civil action to recover the fare. It is not UAL's policy or in their interest to take civil action following such an incident as the amount involved is approximately $50.

[redacted] UAL, San Francisco Airport, was contacted 10/14/68 to see if any additional action is being taken in this matter. He advised no known action was being taken at this time. He also advised he was quite certain the policy regarding arrests at UAL in Chicago is the same as that at UAL in San Francisco.

Bureau airtel of 10/10/68 stated it appeared San Francisco did nothing more than make a perfunctory contact with UAL employees to determine what action they took with regard to RUBIN. This situation was brought to our attention under the caption "JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, ARL (PRINCIPAL SUBJECT)" and San Francisco immediately initiated all of the action taken by UAL as a result of the telephone call from the FBI in Chicago and contacted the Agent in Charge of Investigations at his home who in turn supervised the complete operation at the San Francisco Airport at the time RUBIN arrived.

Referenced airtel also makes reference to the fact there is no indication that the San Francisco police authorities were alerted to the arrival of RUBIN using a fraudulent ticket which occasion could possibly have justified his arrest. It should be noted the San Francisco Airport is under the jurisdiction of the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office which was alerted concerning RUBIN'S arrival.

A careful review of the facts as set forth above will reflect that the San Francisco Office did everything that was possible under the circumstances in order to cause trouble for RUBIN upon his arrival at the San Francisco Airport as a result of his use of a reduced airline ticket. However, the policy of UAL in San Francisco was such that UAL would not entertain the idea of making an arrest on the spot.

As noted in San Francisco teletype to the Bureau dated 10/5/68, which reported this matter to the Bureau under the ARL caption, RUBIN was contacted by a representative of UAL and asked for the full fare. As it turned out, RUBIN uttered some obscenities and walked away.

This program has been reviewed with all of the agents assigned to the San Francisco Office, including all of the Resident Agents, and the importance of the program stressed. The need for alertness to this program has been brought to everyone's attention and an effort has been made to create an intelligent, enthusiastic and imaginative approach to the program.

On several recent occasions the Bureau has issued instructions pointing out the necessity for each Division to develop comprehensive, energetic, and imaginary plans for combatting the New Left and its key disciples. Toward that end, the captioned Program was launched for the specific purpose of taking action against those individuals and organizations which have done so much to undermine the Nation's institutions.

By referenced CGtel and telephone call, you were advised, well in advance, of the arrival of Jerry Rubin, a key activist of the New Left, at San Francisco, as well as of the fact that he was using a reduced fare airline ticket to which he had no legal claim. You were also advised by Chicago of the policy followed in Chicago concerning persons violating these regulations. This policy included arrest on charges of following deceptive practices. In addition, you were also told that United Air Lines at Chicago had already notified United Air Lines at San Francisco of Rubin's flight and his use of the reduced airline ticket.

Notwithstanding past Bureau entreaties regarding the neutralization of these individuals, and in the face of a situation pregnant with possibilities for neutralizing one of the most reprehensible of the New Left leaders, it appears your office did nothing more than to make a perfunctory contact with United Air Lines employees to determine what action they took with regard to Rubin.

On the basis of information furnished by your office in referenced teletype, there is no indication whatsoever that any inquiry was made as to the procedures followed by San Francisco airlines in cases of this sort or that San Francisco police authorities were alerted to the arrival of Rubin using a fraudulent ticket which occasion could possibly have justified his arrest.

The above circumstances indicate clearly that the Agents of your office have not yet grasped the significance of the Counterintelligence Program, are not alert to opportunities that may arise to counteract the New Left and its adherents, and are not sufficiently motivated to aggressive action.

In view of the foregoing, you are to personally review this Program with the Agent to which this Program is assigned and his immediate Supervisor. By return airtel under instant caption, advise specifically what steps were taken on the basis of the information furnished by Chicago to institute effective counterintelligence action against Rubin in this instance.

You are to take immediate steps to institute procedures that will assure that similar failures do not occur in the future. The steps you plan taking to accomplish this are to be made a part of your airtel.

You will be expected to impress upon the personnel of your office, both Agent and Supervisory, the need for alertness in taking advantage of these situations and for creating an enthusiastic and imaginative approach to this entire Program.

Further slipshod handling of this Program will not be tolerated and future delinquencies will be dealt with severely.

frequent contact with [REDACTED] on business matters and he would estimate that [REDACTED] was at home approximately one month prior to employment on the aforementioned job, during which time he worked for his father when work was available. It is noted that [REDACTED] was reported attending the National SDS Convention at Michigan State University at least until June 12, 1968, so it would appear that he returned to South San Francisco following this convention. His attendance at this convention would largely preclude his involvement in the 6/10/68 incident above.

A review on the file on [REDACTED] indicated that he was in the San Diego area from 1965 until approximately June, 1968. He is known to have been visiting in the San Francisco area within this period. San Diego is requested to attempt to ascertain [REDACTED] whereabouts on 6/27/67, and on 2/19/68, and 5/17/68.

For the information of San Diego, [REDACTED] was last reported to be in Chicago during the Democratic Convention. [REDACTED] advised on 9/10/68, that he did not believe that [REDACTED] had returned to the residence of his father as of that time. He stated he would advise immediately if he determines he has returned. It should be noted that MEADOWS had previously reported that [REDACTED] had informed him that [REDACTED] was believed to have gone to San Diego with his girlfriend prior to going to Chicago. [REDACTED] has previously identified this girlfriend as [REDACTED] through pretext with her mother. [REDACTED] was also identified as being in South San Francisco with [REDACTED]. It is requested that San Diego attempt to ascertain if [REDACTED] might have returned to San Diego with [REDACTED] possibly through pretext of the mother, and also determine if [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] might be enrolled in San Diego State College for the fall term.

San Diego is further requested to review their files on [REDACTED] to ascertain if he has been personally observed by an agent and if so, advised date and agent observing.

ReSFairtel 9/6/68.

Authority to offer a reward of $200 for information leading to the identification of person or persons associated with the dynamiting of Berkeley, California, city property is denied.

It is not readily apparent as to how such a reward would accrue appreciable benefit to the Bureau. On the contrary, such a move could possibly become embarrassing to the Bureau should a New Leftist attempt to "bait the trap" by claiming to have information that he did not have. Further, it is not clear from reairtel as to how the post office box would be rented and in whose name.

You should, of course, alert your sources for information that would identify the individuals who were responsible for the dynamiting. Any information developed should be promptly furnished to the Bureau and appropriate local agencies.

RHH:jes

NOTE: By reairtel SF requested authority to place an ad in the "Berkeley Barb," a local underground newspaper; the "Berkeley Gazette" and the "Oakland Tribune" offering a reward for the arrest and conviction of person or persons associated with the dynamiting of Berkeley property during the early morning hours of 9/2/68. SF suggested that a post office box be rented for the purpose of receiving replies from the ads. On the receipt of positive information SF wanted authority to pay up to $200. SF did not make it clear as to the mechanics involved in this procedure, but it is felt that we are dealing with a proposal that does not fit in the Counterintelligence Program and could be embarrassing to the Bureau. SF's request is being denied. The bombing aspects of this matter were discussed with the Civil Rights Division of the Department and no further investigation was requested. Coordinated with Supervisor Gehring General Investigative Division.

Captioned communications reported civil disturbances in Berkeley, California, during the period 8/30 to 9/3/68 that grew out of a ruling by the City of Berkeley that no assemblies could take place between the hours of 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. These disturbances have been the result of several radical groups composed of members from the Young Socialist Alliance, Students for a Democratic Society, Communist Party and other unaffiliated radicals. During the specific acts of violence that took place in Berkeley on 9/2/68, some dynamite was used which resulted in some damage to one of the buildings on Telegraph Avenue including the breaking of an eight inch watermain.

Anyone having information is requested to contact Post Office Box ---, Berkeley, California. In the event positive information is obtained from this technique, $200 would be paid for information on S C authority and if the information was worth more Bureau permission would be obtained for a suitable payment. There are several possibilities that might result from this technique; (1) We might be able to obtain people who have information or associated with the New Left in the East Bay Area; () It is highly possible that someone who knew about the Berkeley disturbances might furnish information identifying the persons responsible which, of course, would be the best thing that could happen.

Replies to the Post Office Box would be carefully evaluated and carefully handled. Permission is requested to proceed as outlined above under the COINTELPRO.
