RACIAL MATTERS - KLAN

Handwritten: KLAN MATTERS

Miss. A confidential source advised on October 27, 1966, that Richard Barrett, a white male, age 23, in the past few months, accompanied by [redacted] father of [redacted] went to Natchez, Mississippi, and contacted [redacted]. The purpose of the contact was for Barrett to ascertain if [redacted] knew the names of a couple of men in each county in Mississippi whom Barrett could contact in an effort to have them join some type of hate-group he was trying to form. [redacted] told Barrett he could not assist him in his request.

Assistant Chief of Police J. L. Ray, Jackson, Mississippi Police Department, on November 23, 1966, advised he had received information that Barrett had two large flags hanging in his room which he claimed were given him by Governor George Wallace of Alabama. Barrett has received mail from "Voice of the People", address unknown, condemning Negro servicemen in Viet Nam.

An article appearing in The Clarion-Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi, daily newspaper, under date of February 12, 1967, indicates that Barrett graduated from Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, in 1964. He later returned his degree to the University because he said they had Communist Party leaders teaching there.

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT

He said the institution also sanctioned the sending of blood, money and supplies by certain groups to the Communists in North Viet Nam. Barrett's statement to the Associated Press at that time was "We can't battle Communists abroad and tolerate them here at home".

An article appearing in The Natchez Democrat, Natchez, Mississippi, under date of April 22, 1967, indicates that Richard Barrett is a former Army infantry enlisted man. The article further indicates that Barrett recently returned from Viet Nam where he was wounded twice in action and received the Purple Heart twice.

On May 15, 1967, M. B. Pierce, Chief of Detectives, Jackson, Mississippi Police Department, advised that Barrett had made application for a permit to hold a parade on May 21, 1967, sponsored by the American Victory Committee of which Barrett is Chairman. The theme of the parade was "Win in Viet Nam" and Barrett was urging veterans, mothers, workers and students to participate in this parade.

Barrett was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on March 13, 1967, at which time he advised he is a "racist" and he gives talks frequently concerning segregation and talks concerning Viet Nam. He said he believes in segregation and feels that segregation should some day be the law of the land, and it is his objective to organize an organization with this objective in mind. He related he is a Viet Nam veteran and is firmly convinced that the United States should be involved in the Viet Cong war but it should win the war and not sacrifice American lives for political reasons.

Barrett continued that he is not a member of the Ku Klux Klan or any other organization and would not identify any of his associates nor state whether he was or was not acquainted with any members of the Ku Klux Klan. Barrett refused to discuss in detail any of his activities inasmuch as he felt the FBI was becoming a national police agency similar to the Gestapo.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT

Records on file at the Military Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri, reveal Richard Anthony Barrett, Army Serial Number RA 12701033, served in the U.S. Army from June 4, 1964, to May 27, 1966, receiving an honorable release from active duty as Specialist 4 at Oakland, California, and transferred to U.S. Army Reserve to complete military obligation. Terminal date of military obligation is shown as May 3, 1970. Records indicate that Barrett is currently a member of the Stand-by Reserve, U.S. Army Reserve Control Group. He had foreign service in Viet Nam and received Viet Nam Service Medal, Purple Heart with oak leaf cluster and Combat Infantry Badge. No record of disciplinary action or treatment for mental or nervous disorder is contained in his file. These records indicate Barrett was born on February 18, 1943, at New York, New York.

M. B. Pierce, Chief of Detectives, Jackson, Mississippi, on May 22, 1967, advised that Richard Barrett, along with approximately sixty-eight other individuals, proceeded to parade on Capitol Street in Jackson, Mississippi, on May 21, 1967, the parade culminating at the War Memorial Building on North State Street, Jackson, Mississippi. The parade began at approximately 3:00 P.M. During the parade individuals carried placards and signs reading "Did 10,000 Americans Die in Vain in Viet Nam"; "Victory in Viet Nam"; "Win the War Now"; "Deport Stinky Stokely"; "Bury Communism"; "Better Dead than Red", and others of similar nature. Upon arrival at the War Memorial Building, Richard Barrett, along with several other individuals, made comments and short speeches.

Pierce stated the group then burned what they said was a Viet Cong flag and Barrett made a statement "We did something in Mississippi they couldn't do in New York, we burned the Viet Cong flag". Pierce stated that among the group were

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.,
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

WHITE KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
OF MISSISSIPPI (WKKKKOM)

A source advised that on February 15, 1964, approximately 200 members of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK) from the State of Mississippi met at Brookhaven, Mississippi. Those present decided to defect from the OKKKK and to form their own Klan group in Mississippi to be known as the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi.

This source advised that the aims and purposes of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi are to preserve Christian civilization, protect and promote white supremacy, and the segregation of the races, to fight Communism and to extend the dignity, heritage, and rights of the white race of America.

A second source advised on August 10, 1966, that the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi is an unincorporated secret organization existing in the State of Mississippi and dedicated to the preservation of white supremacy at any cost, including the use of force and violence. The official constitution and other directives of the organization do not show any advocacy of force or violence, but it is generally conceded among the members that in the end force and violence will be the only salvation of the white man with regard to his relationships with the Negro race. The White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is controlled by the Imperial Wizard and other State Officers and the State is divided into districts and provinces. There is an estimated membership, as of August 10, 1966, of 800 to 1000 dues-paying members of this organization. RICHARD BARRETT Soldier for the people.

Richard Barrett recently returned from a year's combat infantry duty in Vietnam as a volunteer. Now 24 and separated from the Army, this young soldier served with five different American and Vietnamese units. He was wounded twice and was decorated with the Purple Heart twice. He served most of his duty as a Private First Class.

Barrett brought back his experiences, scars, souvenirs and medals. He also brought back a fierce will to win. In Vietnam he often spoke to the troops about patriotism and devotion to duty. Now he is carrying an important message of hope throughout Mississippi.

Before joining the Army, Barrett did farm work and painted signs to put himself through Rutgers College in New Jersey. He had no family to help him. (His mother and father left him when he was young and his grandfather helped raise him until he died).

While in Vietnam, Barrett heard that Prof. Eugene Genovese was teaching at Rutgers college that the communist should win the war. Barrett wrote to the school. He demanded that Genovese be fired. Nothing happened. So Barrett personally returned his degree, saying "what this school stands for is not what I stand for. This degree is worthless to me."

That day, June 22, 1966, marked the start of many exciting and important things for Richard Barrett and for America.

Barrett is a soldier now for the people. He believes in the decent people. He goes to the working people and to the young folks. "The men in Vietnam can't win, the man in Washington won't win, the people here will win," he says. He calls folks to patriotic rallies to "show their colors" and "take charge of our future here."

Richard Barrett is a Mississippian by choice. His father was from the South. His mother was from the North. He was born in New Jersey York State and raised in New Jersey's dairy country. His home is now in Jackson where he makes signs and advertising. He says he is "still poor, still single, but real happy."

Barrett is a Bible-believing Christian. He belongs to no organizations. Local people "passing-the-hat" sponsor his talks.

Barrett's mission takes him to meet men like Governor Wallace and men who work in gas stations. But he feels most at home with working people, like himself. He gets mail and encouragement from as far away as Vietnam and Rhodesia, and from as close as your own community. He is a popular and exciting speaker....

Richard Barrett's mission is to "mobilize Mississippi" for America and Victory. He hopes you will stand up with him, too.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT
RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

Richard Barrett was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on March 13, 1967, in connection with another official investigation, at which time he advised that he is a "Racist", and he gives talks frequently concerning segregation and Viet Nam. He said he believes in segregation and feels that segregation should be the law of the land some day, and it is his objective to organize an organization with this objective in mind. He related that he is a Vietnam veteran and is firmly convinced that the United States should be involved in the Viet Cong War but should win the war and not sacrifice American lives for political reasons.

Barrett continued that he is not a member of the Ku Klux Klan or any other organization, and he would not identify any of his associates nor state whether he was or was not acquainted with any members of the Ku Klux Klan. Barrett refused to discuss in detail any of his activities, inasmuch as he felt the FBI was becoming a national police agency similar to the gestapo.

MISS

A confidential source advised on October 27, 1966, that Richard Barrett, a white male age 23, in the past few months, accompanied by [redacted] went to Natchez, Mississippi, and contacted [redacted]. The purpose of the contact was for Barrett to ascertain if [] knew the names of a couple of men in each county in the State of Mississippi whom Barrett could contact in an effort to have them join some type of hate-group he was trying to form. [] told Barrett he could not assist him in his request.

A second confidential source on March 13, 1967, advised that [] is a member of the Original Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., (OKA), the MISS White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi (WKKKKOM), and the United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA, Inc.).

A third confidential source advised on March 2, 1967, that [] publicized a letter dated February 13, 1967, which stated he was resigning from the UKA, Inc., along with all the former State officers.

Characterizations of the OKA, WKKKKOM, and UKA, Inc., appear in the appendix.

On May 15, 1967, M. B. Pierce, Chief of Detectives, Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department, advised that Barrett had made application for a permit to hold a parade on May 21, 1967, sponsored by the American Victory Committee of which Barrett is National Chairman. The theme of the parade was "Win in Vietnam", and Barrett was encouraging veterans, mothers, workers, and students to participate in this parade.

Chief Pierce stated on May 22, 1967, that Barrett, along with approximately sixty-eight other individuals, held a parade in Jackson, Mississippi. Individuals participating in the parade carried signs reading "Did 10,000 Americans die in Vain in Vietnam"; "Victory in Vietnam"; "Win the War Now"; "Deport Stinky Stokely"; and others. Chief Pierce stated that there were no spectators along the parade route, and no incidents occurred during the parade. He attributed the lack of spectators and no more participants in the parade to very inclement weather.

A fourth confidential source advised on August 14, 1967, that Richard Barrett held a "Victory In Vietnam" Parade in Natchez on the night of August 12, 1967. There were approximately twenty-five automobiles in the parade with two people in each car, making a total of fifty people in the parade.

Source stated that [redacted] ^{SS} an employee in the Natchez Campaign Headquarters of [redacted] Gubernatorial Candidate, helped organize the parade. United States Representative John R. Rarick of St. Francisville, Louisiana, was the main speaker, and the theme of his talk was Americanism. Barrett made a short talk about winning the War in Vietnam. Barrett stated in his talk that while he served in Vietnam, he could not get an American flag. ^{MISS}

Source stated the parade was not organized and was a complete flop.

Source further advised that he had observed several individuals participating in this parade who were members of the Ku Klux Klan.

An article appeared in the "Meridian Star" Newspaper, Meridian, Mississippi, under date of July 31, 1967, entitled "White Militant Group Planned By Jacksonian." The article stated that "A Jackson man who has sponsored conservative rallies and at least one parade says he plans to organize a new militantly segregationist group called 'America's Victory Force.'" The article pointed out that Richard Barrett, age 24, the moving force behind another group called "The American Victory Committee", and two youths laid a wreath on the steps of the State Capitol in memory of Senator Theodore G. Bilbo, the segregationist Mississippi Governor and Senator. The article also pointed out that Highway Patrolmen told the group they could be arrested if they tried to carry flags or read a "proclamation," which Barrett had prepared.

Barrett said in this article that the group's purpose would be "to promote Christianity and patriotism and to further the unity and coordination of white Americans." He said the "main flavor of our militancy will be in racial segregation -- we will promote, however, that the group's militant acts would be within all laws."

The third confidential source advised on August 8, 1967, that he is acquainted with Richard Barrett and has learned that Barrett is attempting to organize an organization entitled "American Victory Committee" and "The American Victory Force" and set himself up as the head of both of these organizations. Source stated that he does not believe Barrett will get a foothold in his attempts to organize this organization, inasmuch as the general consensus of the people he comes in contact with is that he is a "nut."

Records on file at MPRC, St. Louis, Missouri, reveal that Richard Anthony Barrett, Army Serial Number RA 12701033, served in the United States Army from June 4, 1964, to May 27, 1966, receiving honorable release from active duty as Specialist 4, at Oakland, California, and transferred to United States Army Reserve to complete military obligation. Terminal date of military obligation shown as May 3, 1970.

Barrett currently is a member of Standby Reserve, United States Army Reserve Control Group, MPRC, St. Louis, Missouri. He had foreign service in Vietnam and received Vietnam Service Medal, purple heart with oak leaf cluster and combat infantry badge. No record of disciplinary action or treatment for mental or nervous disorder contained in his file.

He later returned his degree to the university because he said they had Communist Party leaders there. He said the institution also sanctioned the sending of blood, money, and supplies by certain groups to the Communists in North Vietnam. Reference	Letterhead Memorandum dated and captioned as above.

All sources (except any listed below) whose identities are concealed in referenced communication have furnished reliable information in the past.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.,
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with Units in several Southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on May 25, 1966, that the UKA is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization and was elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source stated that during April, 1966, the National office was moved from Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to the carport of SHELTON's residence, #18 Lake Sherwood, Star Route, Northport, Alabama, which space he had converted into a room.

A review of Bufiles pertaining to Barrett fails to indicate that Barrett is of national prominence or of national interest at this time. While his potential for violence is realized through the very fact of his participation in and leading of demonstrations against segregation, nevertheless, there is insufficient information available at this time indicating that violence has occurred through his actions.

You should conduct an investigation of Barrett as well as the "Americans Victory Force." Be guided by Section 122 of the Manual of Instructions concerning these investigations.

If Barrett and his group are not part of the Klan, the reports submitted should be captioned "Racial Matters (Organization)."

NOTE: [Handwritten initials]

Jackson has recommended that the subject be included on the Rabble Rouser Index. A review of his file indicates that he is organizing a group called the "Americans Victory Force" which will consist of young militant segregationists. He is nationally unknown at this time and has precipitated no racial violence to date. We are calling for an investigation of Barrett and his group and at this time are turning down the recommendation that he be included on the Rabble Rouser Index.

The Bureau is in possession of much material forwarded by various offices concerning captioned individual who is a "racist." He has made many attempts to form organizations, the main purpose of which is to fight integration and communism, such as the "American Victory Committee," "American Victory Force," and parades with the general theme of "Back the Boys in Vietnam." His organizations have the militantly segregated flavor with the theme of Christianity and patriotism to further coordinate white Americans. He was recommended for the Rabble Rouser Index.

Last evening (1/3/68) BARRETT called the office and inquired of SAC if he would issue a public statement of apology for having conducted an investigation concerning BARRETT's background indicating he had information and signed affidavits in his possession from individuals from South Carolina who had been contacted and that the head of the South Carolina Office of the FBI had issued such a statement. BARRETT was definitely set straight as to our policy in conducting such investigations, that I was certain the SAC of our Columbia, S.C., Office had made no such statement; that if he had such affidavits in his possession they were probably falsified and that we would conduct an investigation concerning anyone when they fell within our jurisdiction to do so.

I understand that your Chief has apologized in South Carolina for these improper actions.

Special Agent in Charge, Jackson Division, advised that Richard Anthony Barrett, a notorious racist, called the Jackson Office and inquired of the Special Agent in Charge if he would issue a public statement of apology for having conducted an investigation concerning Barrett's background indicating he had information and signed affidavits in his possession from individuals in South Carolina who had been contacted and that the head of the South Carolina Office of the FBI has issued such a statement.

Barrett was set straight by Special Agent in Charge Roy K. Moore and was told that he was certain the Agent in Charge of our South Carolina Office had made no such statement and that the FBI would conduct investigations concerning anyone when it was within the Bureau's jurisdiction to do so.

Barrett then told Special Agent in Charge Moore that he would have to write a letter to Director Hoover complaining of the harassment of the Jackson Office of the FBI. Barrett was told that he should be careful in relating only true facts and not to make false accusations concerning anyone.

The Jackson Office has informed us that a complaint concerning the Jackson Division may be forthcoming from Barrett.

Richard Anthony Barrett is a white male, born February 18, 1943, in New York City and is National Chairman for the "American Victory Committee" which is militantly segregationist group whose alleged purpose is to "promote Christianity and patriotism." He was arrested in August of 1967 by the Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department for disturbing the peace in connection with a demonstration during a Poor People's March to the State Capitol in Jackson, Mississippi.

During this investigation, information was developed that RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT would be leaving Jackson, Miss., on an eleven-state speaking tour under the sponsorship of the American Victory Force, which he, BARRETT, has set himself up as national chairman.

The Bureau, by referenced communication, requested Jackson to attempt to obtain BARRETT's itinerary and identify any group sponsoring this tour.

Investigation has disclosed that BARRETT is a "loner" and individuals interviewed stated that BARRETT has not actually planned his tour; in fact, he will go to a place and if he finds a group which is receptive to him, he will "bilk" this group for everything he can and then move on to another location.

[redacted] Jackson, Miss., who is on the Board of Directors of the American Victory Force, has advised that even BARRETT did not tell him where he would be going on this speaking tour and [redacted] has no idea as to how to get in touch with or communicate with BARRETT.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT is on the rabble rouser index of the Jackson Office.

The Bureau also requested, in referenced communication, that if information was developed regarding BARRETT's itinerary, offices covering that particular location should be advised in order that local, as well as pertinent Federal agencies, could be advised of BARRETT's activities.

Inasmuch as information was developed that BARRETT is allegedly going to speak in Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia, New Jersey, as well as New York, copies of this communication are being sent to those offices who are requested to contact sources and in the event information is received that BARRETT will be

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on February 27, 1968, that he had been in contact with Richard Barrett and was told by Barrett that he, Barrett, had not made a trip to Washington, D.C., as originally planned on February 19, 1968, as he had been busy preparing for an eleven-state speaking tour. Barrett stated he intends to leave Jackson, Mississippi, on March 3, 1968, on his speaking tour and will go to Washington, D.C., at the conclusion of the tour. Barrett did not indicate what states were involved in the speaking tour.

Richard Anthony Barrett was contacted at his residence by Special Agents of the FBI on February 27, 1968, and when advised that no warrant was outstanding, Barrett stated he had nothing to say, and terminated the interview.

He was promptly advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to talk to an attorney or anyone else before saying anything at all. He advised orally as follows:

He is a member of the Board of Governors for the American Victory Force (AVF). He is unaware of the activities of RICHARD BARRETT, who is President or Commander of this organization, nor is he fully aware of the aims and purposes of the organization except that all the members are dedicated to fighting Communism, preserving the white race, and striving against mongrelization of the races.

He recalls being at the residence of RICHARD A. BARRETT, 171 Horseshoe Circle at 7:30 P.M. on February 14, 1968. He had been called by BARRETT and asked to appear at that time for a meeting of the Board of Governors. He continued that only he and BARRETT attended and that the conversation dealt mainly with the fact BARRETT was having considerable difficulty preparing important organizational papers.

On February 21, 1968, he was to again appear at the weekly meeting of the AVF, however, was unable to do so and instead called BARRETT at his residence and excused himself from attending.

He has no information nor can he speculate on what BARRETT might have done between February 14, and February 21, 1968. He believes it is entirely possible that BARRETT could have departed Jackson for neighboring states, inasmuch as it is the practice of BARRETT to travel extensively throughout the South, allegedly on organizational business.

He saw BARRETT on Wednesday morning, February 28, 1968, at approximately 9:00 A.M. and BARRETT advised him that he was preparing to leave Jackson at that time to begin an eleven state speaking engagement which would culminate in Washington, D.C., where he intended to lobby and also to picket the Supreme Court Building and the Capitol Building.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT

The following investigation was conducted by SA

[redacted]
[redacted] Mississippi Stationery Company,
277 East Pearl, Jackson, Mississippi, on March 6, 1968, reviewed his records, which reflected that RICHARD BARRETT brought in some printing to be done on February 19, 1968.
[redacted] stated that he cannot recall specifically what time of the day BARRETT was in to leave this printing.

He stated that BARRETT was again in his office on February 26, 1968, and left more printing to be done.
At this time BARRETT told [redacted] that he would be back in approximately six weeks to pick up this printing as he was going on a speaking tour; however, he did not tell [redacted] [redacted] where he was going or to whom he would speak.

[redacted] Secretary, Mississippi Stationery
Company, 277 East Pearl Street, Jackson, Mississippi, on March 6, 1968, advised that she prepared the order for RICHARD BARRETT on February 19, 1968, when he ordered some printing to be done. She stated she does not recall specifically what time it was but feels that it was either late morning or early afternoon of February 19, 1968.

She continued that BARRETT was again in this shop on February 23, 1968, and indicated that he wanted some printing done immediately; however, she advised BARRETT that they would be unable to do his printing for him that day. She stated he was in the shop before 8:30 a.m. and came back around 10:00 a.m. She recalls the specific times on this date inasmuch as it snowed in Jackson and the crew in the printing shop did not come in until approximately 10:00 a.m.

She stated that BARRETT was again in the shop picking up some printing on February 26, 1968, at which time he indicated that he would be gone on a speaking tour and would return in approximately six weeks to pick up the rest of his material. He did not specify where he was going or to what groups he would be speaking before. She could furnish no additional information regarding BARRETT.

On March 6, 1968, [redacted] Editor, Clarion-Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi, daily newspaper, advised that RICHARD BARRETT had advised his office that he, BARRETT, would hold a press conference at 171 Horseshoe Circle, at 2:00 p.m., on February 28, 1968, at which time BARRETT would outline for the newsmen the details of his eleven-state speaking tour and what the theme of his speeches would be about.

[redacted] stated that he had canvassed all of his reporters and had been unable to locate any reporter who covered the news conference held by RICHARD BARRETT.

[redacted] stated that BARRETT is continually bringing him news releases regarding the American Victory Force, and other news releases concerning Vietnam and other controversial issues. [redacted] stated that occasionally he will print one of BARRETT's releases, but not often; he just discards them.

He stated that in conversations with BARRETT, he has the opinion that he is a "kook", meaning that BARRETT does not actually know what he is working for or what he actually stands for. [redacted] stated BARRETT's main concern is getting publicity for himself.

[redacted] stated he knew that BARRETT was allegedly going on an eleven-state speaking tour; however, he does not know the states involved or the groups which will sponsor BARRETT's speeches. [redacted] stated that in his opinion, even BARRETT does not know from one day to the other where he will be speaking next. It is [redacted] opinion that BARRETT will size up a group and if they are receptive, he will "bilk them" for all he can and then move on to another section.

[redacted] stated he was unable at this time to furnish any additional information regarding BARRETT.

[redacted] Editor, Jackson Daily News, a daily newspaper in Jackson, Mississippi, on March 6, 1968, advised that he was aware of the fact that RICHARD BARRETT was allegedly to hold a press conference at 2:00 p.m. on February 28, 1968; however, after canvassing all of the reporters, he was unable to locate anyone who attended this press conference held by RICHARD BARRETT.

[redacted] advised that he had reviewed all the material in his possession and was unable to locate any news release from BARRETT indicating his itinerary on the eleven-state speaking tour.

He stated that in his opinion BARRETT actually does not know from one day to the next where he will be inasmuch as if he finds a receptive group, he will stay with them as long as they feed and house him. When he wears out his welcome, he then moves on to another place and another group.

[redacted] stated he was unable to furnish any additional information regarding RICHARD BARRETT.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT:

[redacted] was recontacted on March 8, 1968, at which time he advised he had received no word from Barrett. He said that in discussions with Barrett before his departure, he believes Barrett will go to South Carolina, as Barrett indicated there is a man who owns a restaurant in South Carolina who will feed him and finance his trip to Washington, D.C. [redacted] said Barrett will probably advertise his speeches in the Carolinas as he has received good reception there in the past.

[redacted] stated he would advise if he received any additional information regarding Barrett's activities.

[redacted] Newscaster, WLBT-TV, a Jackson, Mississippi, television station, advised on March 8, 1968, that Richard Barrett gave him a pamphlet, which indicates that Barrett will be making an eleven-state speaking tour, some of the states being Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia, New York, New Jersey, and Washington, D.C. Barrett stated that details of his speaking tour will be announced from Washington, D.C.

[redacted] advised he had learned that Barrett, representing the American Victory Force, will lay a wreath on the north side of the Washington Monument on 2:30 p.m., on March 9, 1968, in memory of all soldiers killed in the Vietnam war. Barrett will place inside the wreath one of the two purple hearts he received while serving in Vietnam.

[redacted] stated Barrett will probably make further statements regarding his speaking tour at this time.

Richard Barrett was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on March 13, 1967, at which time he advised he is a "racist" and he gives talks frequently concerning segregation and talks concerning Vietnam. He said he believes in segregation and feels that segregation should some day be the law of the land. It is his objective to organize an organization with this objective in mind. He related he is a Vietnam veteran and is firmly convinced that the United States should be involved in the Viet Cong war, but it should win the war and not sacrifice American lives for political reasons.

Barrett continued that he is not a member of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) or any other organization and would not identify any of his associates nor state whether he was or was not acquainted with any members of the KKK. Barrett refused to discuss in detail any of his activities inasmuch as he felt the FBI was becoming a national police agency similar to the gestapo.

Records on file at the Military Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri, reveal Richard Anthony Barrett, Army Serial Number, RA12701033, served in the U. S. Army from June 4, 1964, to May 27, 1966, receiving an honorable release from active duty as Specialist 4, at Oakland California, and transferred to U. S. Army Reserve to complete military obligation. Terminal date of military obligation is shown as May 3, 1970. Records indicate that Barrett is currently a member of the Standby Reserve, U. S. Army Reserve control group. He had foreign service in Vietnam and received Vietnam service medal, purple heart with oak leaf cluster and combat infantry badge. No record of disciplinary action, treatment for mental or nervous disorder is contained in his file. These records indicated that Barrett was born February 18, 1943, at New York, New York.

An article appearing in the Clarion-Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi, daily newspaper, under date of February 12, 1967, indicates that Barrett graduated from Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, in 1964. He later returned his degree to the university because he said they had Communist party leaders teaching there. He said the institution also sanctioned the sending of blood, money, and supplies by certain groups to the Communists in North Vietnam. Barrett's statement to the Associated Press was, "We can't battle Communists abroad and tolerate them here at home."

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT:

Richard Barrett has organized, and held, several parades and memorial services sponsored by the American Victory Force, of which Barrett has set himself up as chairman. The main theme of the American Victory Force is "Back the Boys in Vietnam", and "Win the War in Vietnam."

Barrett has stated that the "American Victory Force" will be a militantly segregationist group whose purpose will be to promote Christianity and patriotism and to further the unity and coordination of white Americans. He stated, "The main flavor of our militancy will be in racial segregation--we will promote, however, that the groups' militant acts would be within all laws."

No information has been developed that Richard Barrett is a member of the KKK; however, he associates with individuals who have been identified by informants of the Jackson Division as being members of the KKK.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT
RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on February 27, 1968, that he had been in contact with Richard Barrett and was told by Barrett that he, Barrett, had not made a trip to Washington, D.C., as originally planned on February 19, 1968, as he had been busy preparing for an eleven-state speaking tour. Barrett stated he intends to leave Jackson, Mississippi, on March 3, 1968, on his speaking tour and will go to Washington, D.C., at the conclusion of the tour. Barrett did not indicate what states were involved in the speaking tour.

Richard Anthony Barrett was contacted at his residence by Special Agents of the FBI on February 27, 1968, and when advised that no warrant was outstanding, Barrett stated he had nothing to say, and terminated the interview.

[redacted] Jackson, Mississippi, was interviewed at his place of residence
by Special Agents [redacted]

He was promptly advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to talk to an attorney or anyone else before saying anything at all. He advised orally as follows:

He is a member of the Board of Governors for the American's Victory Force (AVF). He is unaware of the activities of RICHARD BARRETT, who is President or Commander of this organization, nor is he fully aware of the aims and purposes of the organization except that all the members are dedicated to fighting Communism, preserving the white race, and striving against mongrelization of the races.

He recalls being at the residence of RICHARD A. BARRETT, 171 Horseshoe Circle at 7:30 P.M. on February 14, 1968. He had been called by BARRETT and asked to appear at that time for a meeting of the Board of Governors. He continued that only he and BARRETT attended and that the conversation dealt mainly with the fact BARRETT was having considerable difficulty preparing important organizational papers.

On February 21, 1968, he was to again appear at the weekly meeting of the AVF, however, was unable to do so and instead called BARRETT at his residence and excused himself from attending.

He has no information nor can he speculate on what BARRETT might have done between February 14, and February 21, 1968. He believes it is entirely possible that BARRETT could have departed Jackson for neighboring states, inasmuch as it is the practice of BARRETT to travel extensively throughout the South, allegedly on organizational business.

He saw BARRETT on Wednesday morning, February 28, 1968, at approximately 9:00 A.M. and BARRETT advised him that he was preparing to leave Jackson at that time to begin an eleven state speaking engagement which would culminate in Washington, D.C., where he intended to lobby and also to picket the Supreme Court Building and the Capitol Building.

SUBJECT: RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT
RACIAL MATTERS (ORGANIZATION)

Purpose is to inform you of allegations of harassment by FBI Agents made by the subject in testimony before an Executive Session of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (SISS) on March 26, 1968, and to recommend that a representative of Crime Records Division contact that Committee and furnish them with the true facts regarding our interest in the subject.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT TESTIMONY D. APPROX 1944 JACKSON, MISS
Barrett, a white male, aged 24, is an honorably discharged Vietnam war veteran. Upon his return to the United States, he formed and now leads a small group known as the American Victory Force which he describes as a militant segregationist group, whose purpose is to promote Christianity and patriotism; to back America's Vietnam effort; and to further the "unity and coordination of white America." He has in the past associated with known members of the Ku Klux Klan in Mississippi, but no information has been developed indicating that he has ever joined a klan group.

In August, 1967, he was arrested by the Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department and charged with disturbing the peace while counterdemonstrating a "poor people's" march to the State Capitol in Jackson. On October 24, 1967, he burned a United Nations flag on the grounds of the State Capitol in Jackson. In view of his activities and extremist statements, he was placed on the Agitator Index and an investigation initiated to determine whether he or his group are a danger to the internal security of this country. He is extremely anti-Bureau and has refused to be interviewed by Bureau Agents in the past. In view of statements made by him, he was considered a suspect in the bombing of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C. in February, 1968. Investigation eliminated him as a suspect.

On March 26, 1968, he requested and was granted permission to testify before the SISS. He testified about the "communist threat to the United States;" the need to strengthen the internal security of the United States; communist participation in riot activities; and the need for riot control legislation. He also alleged that he and his neighbors have been questioned and harassed by FBI Agents due to his activities. He then called for legislation "guarding against a national police force." It is noted that in January, 1968, he wrote a letter to the Director alleging the same type harassment and the Director noted "ignore" on this communication.

RECOMMENDATION:

That a representative of Crime Records Division be authorized to contact the SISS and advise them of the subject's background, activities, and our investigative interest in the subject and the fact that our Agents have never engaged in harassing tactics in this or any other investigation.
