ARTHUR PHINEAS WEBER

Confidential Informant T-24 advised February 6, 1950, that ARTHUR PHINEAS WEBER had been in New York City over the weekend and that he had an appointment to see T-24 at 3 P. M. on February 6, 1950. A physical surveillance was instituted on WEBER at 4:15 P. M., February 6, 1950, when he left the office of T-24, by SAS LESTER O. GALLAHER, MAURICE W. CORCORAN and RICHARD E. BRENNAN. WEBER proceeded immediately to Penn Station where he boarded a train for Long Beach, Long Island, his home. He was observed entering his residence at 25 West Broadway, Long Beach, at 6:05 P. M. on that date. The surveillance was temporarily discontinued at that point.

On the morning of February 7, 1950, WEBER, accompanied by his wife and two children, left his home at 25 West Broadway, Long Beach, via automobile, New York license ND-15-74. They proceeded to Freeport, Long Island, where they looked at homes in Freeport Estates and later at the Birchwood Homes Section of North Rockville Centre, New York. WEBER, his wife and child returned to 25 West Broadway, Long Beach, at 1:05 P. M. At 4:05 P. M., WEBER left 25 West Broadway, walked to the Long Island Railroad Station where he boarded a train for New York. It is noted that he was carrying a large suitcase at the time.

Upon arriving at Penn Station, WEBER ate and then took the 6:10 P. M. train, Car 321, for Dayton, Ohio. Upon arriving in Penn Station, he was observed to meet a man and have a brief conversation with this man. A surveillance of this individual reflected that he went to 2005 East Eighth Street, Brooklyn, at 8 P. M. on February 7, 1950. It is to be noted that that address is where WEBER'S parents are known to live and it would appear that this individual was a relative of WEBER.

Confidential Informant T-24 advised that he had a long conversation with WEBER on the afternoon of February 6, 1950, during which WEBER discussed personal problems with T-24. WEBER explained that his wife is reluctant to move to Dayton, Ohio, and he is reluctant to return to New York for the reason that he has had clearance difficulties with the Atomic Energy Commission and fears that he cannot find suitable employment in the New York area. WEBER stated that he did not care to advise his wife of these difficulties.

Confidential Informant T-24 explained that originally, WEBER'S clearance was delayed at the time he became involved in the Tedlee Chemical Company case. Later, when his clearance came up for official attention at the AEC, the official at AEC in New York and the official at AEC in Washington who were handling the case, had personal differences over the manner in which WEBER'S case was being handled.

NY 65-15136

As a direct result, after each had accused the other of mishandling WEBER'S case, no action was ever taken to clear WEBER, although the Kellex firm had recommended in WEBER'S favor. Confidential Informant T-24 stated that he had advised WEBER to remain with the firm in Dayton, Ohio (International Engineering Corporation) for a couple of years until such time as he had established himself, after which his clearance might be effected. T-24 strongly advised WEBER against making any approach at this time to the AEC officials regarding his clearance.

Confidential Informant T-24 stated that WEBER was obviously upset regarding this problem. In the course of the discussion, T-24 mentioned the FUCHS case to WEBER and WEBER stated that he had not known FUCHS or any of the British Delegation during his employment at Kellex. In 1943 and 1944, STEIGMAN and his wife sent communications to Governor DEWEY, urging the pardon of NORRIS U. SCHAPPES, City College professor, convicted of perjury in connection with an inquiry into Communism.

~~MARSH~~ ~~HISKEY~~, wife of CLARENCE HISKEY, mentioned STEIGMAN to a third person in November, 1945.

In 1948, STEIGMAN is known to have received a request for a contribution for the defense and bail of the Communist Party leaders.

STEIGMAN'S name and address was found in the personal possession of a telephone directory of Dr. JOSEPH GREENSPAN and IRVING ROBERTS, who were employed on MED projects and are known Communists. One informant has stated that STEIGMAN was a Communist and a contact of GREENSPAN. ~~MARCO~~ ~~STEIGMAN~~, his wife, has been an active Communist Party member since 1935.

The following is a physical description of STEIGMAN:

Dr. HARRY GRUNDFEST.

GRUNDFEST was born on January 10, 1904, at Minsk, Russia. He entered the United States at New York on September 1, 1913, and was naturalized in Jersey City on September 27, 1921.

GRUNDFEST has been active in the American Association of Scientific Workers for several years. Presently he is the International Corresponding Secretary and corresponds with scientists throughout the world. He has continuously followed the Communist Party line, and is a member of the World Federation of Scientific Workers. GRUNDFEST'S contacts include WENDELL ~~FURRY~~, a brother-in-law of ISRAEL HALPERIN, a defendant in the GUZENKO case. Also, he has communicated with Professor RAYMOND ~~DOTER~~ and NORMAN K. ~~WEALL~~, both of whom were involved in the GUZENKO case.

Confidential Informant T-12 advised, on May 29, 1944, that a telephone call was made from the residence of VICTOR L. ~~STONE~~, 39 West 55th Street,

NY 65-15136

New York City, to GRUNDFEST'S telephone number in New Jersey. It is conceivable that ARTHUR ADAMS, Soviet Agent and paramour of VICTORIA STONE, was in touch with GRUNDFEST at that time. It is also known in 1944 ADAMS had GRUNDFEST'S telephone number in Rumson, New Jersey, listed in his personal address book.

It is noted that GRUNDFEST was employed at the Climactic Research Section of Fort Monmouth Signal Laboratory until September 23, 1944. It was reported that because of GRUNDFEST'S Communist affiliations and Russian contacts that the Climactic Research Section was completely dissolved so that GRUNDFEST might be removed from a vital area. It is also noted that GRUNDFEST had looked around for other employment during the fall of 1944, and on January 2, 1945, started work at the Guyot Laboratory, Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey. GRUNDFEST'S work there was on a confidential contract for the Office of Scientific Research and Development. Later, it was learned that steps had been taken to have the OSRD contract at Princeton terminated at the end of February, 1945, by which action the MED hoped that GRUNDFEST would be forced to leave the campus and, therefore, would not be near the work of interest to the DS' project. GRUNDFEST'S work was to study the effect of tissue on high velocity projectiles.

In June, 1945, it was reliably reported that GRUNDFEST had access to the Soviet diplomatic pouch. (S) (u)

According to another informant, GRUNDFEST stated at a National Executive Committee meeting of the American Association of Scientific Workers that a friend of his, one IGNACY ZLOTOWSKY, Polish diplomat, was a good friend of his, and that he, GRUNDFEST, could arrange for the use of the diplomatic pouch in the event any scientist desired to send information from the United States without detection of the F.B.I. or other United States Government agencies.

Surveillance of GRUNDFEST revealed the following information of possible significance:

On December 14, 1944, GRUNDFEST left Rumson, New Jersey, and went to the home of Major B. F. MILLER, Washington, D. C. It is noted that on October 8, 1944, ZELMA BAKER MILLER, wife of Major B. F. MILLER, was in contact with ARTHUR ADAMS, Soviet Agent, in New York City, between trains when she was en route from Bedford Hills, New York, for Washington. Mrs. MILLER was then employed in the Naval Medical Research Laboratory, Bethesda, Maryland.

- 61 -

On December 15, 1944, GRUNDFEST came to New York, went to the Horace Mann School, 120th Street and Broadway, and after attending a meeting, came out with one ALEX B. NOVIKOFF.

On November 16, 1944, GRUNDFEST attended a meeting at Madison Square Garden of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. Immediately after the meeting he went to Toronto, Canada, where he made a speech before the National Council of Canadian-Soviet Friendship on November 18, 1944.

On January 25, 1945, GRUNDFEST came from New Jersey to Pennsylvania Station, New York City, where he acted in a most peculiar manner, making eleven telephone calls, each from a different booth in Pennsylvania Station.

During 1947 and 1948, GRUNDFEST is known to have been in frequent contact with IGMAZY ZLOTOWSKY. (S) u

During the summer months for a number of years since 1927, GRUNDFEST has visited the Marine Biological Laboratories, Woods Hole, Massachusetts, where he conducts scientific research.

In 1944, GRUNDFEST was one of five directors of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Inc. While at Fort Monmouth, GRUNDFEST was active in the Communist-controlled Federal Workers of America, CIO.

The following information regarding his education, employment and addresses is set forth:

GEORGE PLACZEK

It will be noted that Albuquerque letter to the Bureau of February 9, 1950, reflects that PLACZEK registered at the LaFonda Hotel, Santa Fe, from June 6, to June 8, 1945. The AEC files, Los Alamos, reflect that PLACZEK originally came to the Los Alamos project as a member of the British Mission, on May 7, 1945. He was then an employee of the University of California, at Los Alamos, from February 1, 1946, to July 9, 1946, in the Theoretical Physics Division with FUCHS, and for a time was the leader of that division. PLACZEK made a trip to New York for a conference with a Mr. ~~X~~ DAVISSON, from June 7 to June 13, 1945. The security office files of AEC reflect that PLACZEK was going to New York in June, 1945, for his final naturalization hearing, and as a matter of fact, he was naturalized in New York on June 11, 1945.

The New York Indices reflect that the name GEORGE PLACZEK, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, appeared on a typewritten list bearing names of approximately forty American scientists known to have been in the possession of IGNACY ZLOTOWSKI, former Polish delegate to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission.

Confidential Informant T-11, of known reliability, furnished the following information regarding PLACZEK to the New York Office in July, 1948:

Confidential Informant T-11 stated he first met PLACZEK in the University of Hamburg, Germany. He said that PLACZEK is a man of fine habits, discreet, dependable, and an absolutely loyal United States citizen. He declared that PLACZEK'S experiences in Dzharkov, Russia, have made him bitterly opposed to the Communists, to whom he refers as "animals and liars". According to T-11, he is equally opposed to Nazism and Fascism on a two-fold basis; one, because he despises the totalitarian ideology, and secondly, because his brother was killed by the Nazis when they entered Czechoslovakia.

The following information regarding PLACZEK appears on an Atomic Energy Commission Personnel Security Questionnaire:

PLACZEK was born on September 26, 1905 at Brno, Austria. He attended the following schools:

Grammar School, Brno	1911-1916
High School, Brno	1916-1924
University of Vienna	1924-1925
University of Prague	1925-1926
University of Vienna	1926-1928 (Ph.D.)
University of Utrecht, Holland	1928-1931
University of Leipzig	1931
University of Rome	1931-1932

From 1932 to 1938, PLACZEK performed research work for the Institute for Teoretisk Fysik, University of Copenhagen, Copenhagen, Denmark, except for four months in 1933, while performing research work and teaching at the Ukrainian Physical Technological Institute, Kharkof, Russia, and except for eight months in 1935 when he was performing research and teaching at the University of Jerusalem. From October, 1938, to January, 1939, he was performing research at the College de France, at Paris, France. In January, 1939, he established residence in the United States. From February, 1939, to July, 1942, he was performing research and teaching at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. From July, 1942, to January, 1945, he was performing war research in Atomic Energy for the British Government at Cambridge, England; Montreal, Canada and Los Alamos, New Mexico. From February, 1945, to July, 1945, he was doing research for the University of California at Los Alamos. From August, 1945, to the present time, he has been doing research work for General Electric, Schenectady, New York.

Bureau files reflect that BENEDICT'S brother, WILLIAM SOLOMON BENEDICT was employed by the United States Bureau of Standards and possessed Communist leanings. WILLIAM BENEDICT'S wife wrote a paper in collaboration with another person on the topic of racial equality. This paper allegedly reflected Communist tendencies.

ISADORE AMDUR submitted a Personnel Security Questionnaire at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and gave as a reference MANSON BENEDICT. He and his wife are members of the Communist Party in Massachusetts. The names of ISADORE AMDUR and his wife ALICE were found by the Canadian Police among the effects of ISRAEL HALPERN, a subject in the Canadian espionage case. AMDUR was also in contact with NORMAN VEALL another subject in the GUZENKO case.

BENEDICT attended a two-day round-table conference on problems of war and peace in Philadelphia on January 4, 1946, which conference was called by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Confidential Informant T-3 has advised that BENEDICT worked at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, on the gaseous diffusion project and was among the Kellogg representatives who conferred with the British delegation of scientists including FUCHS. JOSEPH DAUBER

A physical surveillance of ARTHUR ADAMS on October 21, 1944, reflected that he contacted DEBORAH V. DAUBER, now deceased, and her husband, JOSEPH DAUBER, both then residents of Chicago, who were in New York City. ADAMS is known to have made plane reservations for the DAUBERS for Boston.

While in Boston from October 23-26, 1944, the DAUBERS visited MIT; the firm of Geier, Edgerton and Germeshausen. Also while in Boston, they contacted one BORIS COURT, 576 Washington Street, Boston, a reported Communist.

ARTHUR ADAMS is known to have contacted DEBORAH V. DAUBER on several occasions in Chicago during ADAMS' visit there. The DAUBERS resided at 5119 South Kimbark Avenue, Chicago, and DEBORAH V. DAUBER had offices at 85 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, where she practiced medicine.

JOSEPH DAUBER was born May 23, 1909, at New York. He was educated at MIT, Cambridge, Massachusetts, receiving a degree in physics. Later, he

EDWARD N. GOSSELIN

A review of the contacts of ABRAHAM BROTHMAN reflects that on July 10, 1946, Confidential Informant T-17, of known reliability, advised that BROTHMAN made an unsuccessful attempt to contact GOSSELIN in Chicago. Later, on the same date, BROTHMAN contacted a Mr. ~~SPRINGER~~, stating that he had a contract with the U.S.S.R. in which GOSSELIN might possibly be interested.

From other information obtained from GOSSELIN'S contacts, it is known that GOSSELIN may then have been the head of the Graver Tank Company, East Chicago, Indiana, in which company BROTHMAN is known to have contacts. The Indianapolis Office has been requested by teletype of February 21, 1950, to obtain a photograph of GOSSELIN and forward a copy to the Bureau, Boston and New York.

ARISTID GROSSE

By teletype of February 22, 1950, the San Francisco Office suggested that ARISTID VICTOR ~~VON~~ GROSSE might be a suspect for GOOSE. According

~~X~~ to this teletype, GROSSE collaborated on the preparation of a report, number 4-R-18, at Columbia University, in the MED thermal diffusion project entitled, "Effect of Losses on a Diffusion Plant", which was published February 4, 1943, and co-authored by H. LEFKOWITZ, B. SCHWARZ and GROSSE.] ~~X~~ W

The following background is available regarding GROSSE in the publication "American Men of Science";

GROSSE was born in Riga, Latvia, January 4, 1905. He was naturalized a United States citizen in 1937 and received a degree of engineering in the Technische Hochschule, Berlin, in 1926. He received the degree of Doctor of Engineering in Chemistry and Chemical Engineering in 1927.

GROSSE was research associate and Justus Liebig Fellow at Kaiser Wilhelm Institute, Berlin, from 1927 to 1928. He was research chemist in the medical laboratory at Shanghai, China, from 1928 to 1929; visiting Assistant Professor of Chemistry at Technische Hochschule, Berlin, 1929 to 1932; Research Associate, presumably University of Chicago, 1932 to 1935; Associate Director of Research of the Universal Oil Products Company, Chicago, 1935 to 1940. GROSSE was a John Guggenheim Fellow in physics and Associate Professor to HAROLD CLAYTON UREY, Columbia University, 1940 to 1943; Director of oil research, Houdry Process Corporation, Philadelphia; 1943 to 1948; Chemistry Consultant, President of Research Institute, Temple University, 1948 to date. Also GROSSE was Chief Consultant War Labor Board, 1942 to 1943; member of American rubber mission to the Soviet Embassy, 1942-1943, with the Atomic Energy Project of the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

GROSSE presently resides at 456 Glynwynne Avenue, Haverford, Pennsylvania.

The San Francisco files reflected an article in "Russian Life", a White Russian newspaper, dated October 7, 1948, which referred to an article apparently in the New York "Times", dated September 26, 1948, with regard to GROSSE. The writer of this "Russian Life" article, BELCHENKO, advised he had known GROSSE as a small boy when ARISTID GROSSE, together with his younger brother, LEV, were attending elementary school in Hangkow, China. BELCHENKO stated that LEV GROSSE, in 1948, was living in Kazan, U.S.S.R., where he was teaching English, and that at the orders of the Soviet Consul General, LEV

- 84 -

GROSSE wrote for the North China "Daily News" in Shanghai, weekly reviews in the life of Russian citizens. BELCHENKO stated that the White Russians should be proud of ASTRID GROSSE but should blush for LEV GROSSE.

Further, the San Francisco Office advised AEC files contain a report entitled, "The Theory of Isotope Separation as Applied to Large Scale Production of Y-235", written by KARL COHEN, which report indicates that GROSSE did considerable work in the field of diffusion but was transferred later to the heavy water project.

The New York files reflect that GROSSE was on the payroll of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, Columbia University, from January 1, 1941, to June 30, 1942, as a consultant. On the latter date, GROSSE went with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C. In October, 1943, it is reflected in the Columbia University records that GROSSE was connected with the Catalytic Development Corporation, Houdray Laboratories, Marcus Hook, Pennsylvania.

Confidential Informant T-19, of unknown reliability, advised that he had known GROSSE since about 1939 and that GROSSE had worked for a period at the Radiation Laboratory at Columbia University for a time without pay because of his interest in chemical research. T-19 stated that subsequently, in about 1941, GROSSE was placed on the payroll. Confidential Informant T-19 stated that he believed GROSSE to be of fine character, a loyal American citizen and an outstanding physicist.

Confidential Informant T-19 stated that GROSSE was outwardly antagonistic to the Communist regime and to Communism in general and had frequently expressed himself vigorously in this respect to the extent that during the war he had antagonized various individuals at Columbia who believed that he was a Fascist in his theories. T-19 was certain that GROSSE was not at all sympathetic to Fascism or Communism, but that due to his German name and a feeling against foreigners at Columbia during the war, GROSSE was not invited by UREY to continue his work.

Confidential Informant T-20, of known reliability, advised that he was acquainted with GROSSE as a result of his professional work and recommended GROSSE without qualification, stating that to his knowledge, GROSSE had no foreign sympathies and was obviously a loyal American.

Other informants, including Confidential Informants T-21, T-22 and T-23, all of unknown reliability, were contacted regarding GROSSE and furnished similar opinions regarding him.

The Washington Field Office has obtained a photograph of GROSSE which has been forwarded to the Bureau, Boston and New York.

HENRY P. KALMUS

By teletype of February 8, 1950, the Washington Field Office advised of an anonymous telephone call stating that KALMUS is a physicist with the National Bureau of Standards and a contact of FUCHS while FUCHS was in this country.

The Washington Field Office is being requested to furnish full details regarding KALMUS' background and a photograph of him if available.

ARNOLD DAVID HACKEL

A check of the theses written at City College of New York by SA JAMES F. DONAHOE, revealed that one GLORIA ASCH wrote a thesis entitled, "The Thermal Diffusion of Gases", in the spring of 1946. No thesis was required by City College for undergraduate students.

The City College records reflected that GLORIA ASCH received a Bachelor of Chemistry degree in 1946, having entered January 29, 1943. Her address was given as 2705 Bainbridge Avenue, Bronx, New York. She was born October 21, 1925 in Brooklyn of English and Hungarian descent.

The marriage records of New York reflected that GLORIA ASCH married ARNOLD DAVID HACKEL on June 27, 1948. HACKEL'S occupation was then listed as an accountant and ventilating engineer. ASCH stated she was employed as a "technical writer".

Selective Service records reflected that HACKEL registered in June, 1943, at which time he was a chemical engineering student at City College, Company which company contracted and operated the S-50 project, or someone connected with the MED who had officers stationed at the S-50 project, or someone connected with the Navy, which furnished the scientific advisory personnel, would have written such an article or thesis.

It was Confidential Informant T-24's speculation that anyone else connected with the project would not have had enough knowledge to write an article which would have had a conformance with the title. T-24 considered it likely that the author was an engineer or possibly a scientist, but definitely someone who was intimately acquainted with the production and operation problems involved. Also, T-24 stated that if the article was written prior to the declassification of the S-50 project or prior to the spring of 1945, it would be indexed in the AEC library in either Washington or New York. Otherwise, the article would not be indexed.

In connection with the operation of the S-50 project, the following summary of its history is set forth:

The primary purpose of the S-50 project was to supply feed with the above-normal concentration of Uranium-235 to the Electro-magnetic (Y-12) Project until such time as the Gaseous Diffusion (K-25) Project could get into production. The project was concerned with increasing the concentration of Uranium-235 from the naturally occurring 0.71 per cent to 0.85 per cent; a peak production was reached in the month of June, 1945. Progress by the Naval Research Laboratory in developing the liquid thermal diffusion process was followed by the Office of Scientific Research and Development, and the process was selected in June, 1944, when its advantages became apparent.

Subsequent to June, 1941, under the supervision of P. H. ABELSON of the Naval Research Laboratory, a high pressure steam pilot plant was constructed at the Philadelphia Naval Yard. By June, 1944, this unit was nearly complete and operating technique had been planned to an advanced degree.

During the operation of the S-50 plant, intensive process improvement studies were carried on by the operating contractor, the Fercleve Corporation. The operation of the Philadelphia Pilot Plant was also continued during this period and for some time after the shutdown of the S-50 plant. It was necessary to bring a new contractor into the Manhattan District for the S-50 contract job, and the H. K. Ferguson Company was selected as the original contractor as this company was expected to finish the S-50 project in the least amount of time. The H. K. Ferguson Company knew the design but lacked construction forces and was given an architect-engineer contract. The J. A. Jones Construction Company, Inc., was chosen as the construction contractor. Personnel training began at the Philadelphia Pilot Plant in August, 1944, but was cut short on September 2, 1944, by a disastrous explosion which damaged the pilot plant installations.

Thereafter, all of the Fercleve trainees and fifteen Naval Research Laboratory personnel proceeded to the S-50 site where preliminary conditioning of the equipment was begun September 15, 1944. On September 4, 1945, orders were issued to terminate all operations at S-50 and place the plant in a standby condition. On February 15, 1946, the last employment was terminated and the entire area was transferred to the custody of the K-25 operations officer.

Regarding the personnel, Dr. P. H. ABELSON of the Naval Research Laboratory perfected the Naval thermal diffusion method and with the aid of fifteen of his men, including Dr. NATHAN ROSEN, University of North Carolina, and Dr. ROSS GUNN, who assisted greatly in initial S-50 operations.

Colonel K. D. NICHOLS was District Engineer and Contracting Officer. Lt. Col. MARK C. FOX was assigned to the S-50 area as Unit Chief from June 25, 1944 to March 31, 1945, when he was succeeded by Major THOMAS J. EVANS. W. N. THOMPSON was Chief Engineer for the H. K. Ferguson Company and C. W. FÖBER was Project Manager. R. S. LAMIE was Production Superintendent and Dr. B. F. DODGE was Director of the Technical Division. The Ferguson Company payroll reached a peak of 1,900 construction workers in September, 1944, while the Fercleve Corporation payroll reached a peak of 1,600 operating people in April, 1945. Technical reports resulting from the S-50 project have been incorporated in the AEC report files.

Confidential Informant T-24 mentioned specifically as possible authors of the above-captioned article the following individuals:

P. H. ABELSON
N. ROSEN
M. G. ALSTER
C. W. FÖBER
Lt. Col. MARK C. FOX
E. P. WILSON

A review of the indices of the New York Public Library and determined that Lt. Col. MARK C. FOX wrote two articles on thermal diffusion in September, 1945. The first was entitled, "Thermal Diffusion as an Adjunct of the Electro-Magnetic Process," which appeared in the magazine, "Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering", for December, 1945. He also wrote an article for the "Engineering News Record", for December, 13, 1945, entitled, "Thermal Diffusion Plant Built Rapidly".

A check of the records of the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn College and New York University, with the possibility that such an article may have been written as a thesis, with negative results.

Confidential Informant T-25, of known reliability, advised that one HENRY CARROLL, a teacher at Brooklyn College, had written material on the diffusion of gases. CARROLL, according to T-25, was at the DSM project during the war and then came back to Brooklyn College for a year or so and opened his own business.

Confidential Informant T-26, of unknown reliability, advised that a review of the back issues of the publication, "Chemical Engineering Progress", which is prepared by the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, 120 East 41st Street, New York City, was reviewed for articles on thermal diffusion, indicated that in February, 1947, MANSON BENEDICT wrote an article in which gaseous diffusion was treated at some length. This article was reviewed and found that the topic of thermal diffusion was only briefly treated.

Confidential Informant T-26 exhibited another manuscript by BENEDICT which was never published. This article also took up thermal diffusion as one of its topics but there was comparatively little space devoted to the production problems involved.

It was also determined by Confidential Informant T-26 that FUCHS was not on the mailing list of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

Confidential Informant T-27, of unknown reliability, also advised that a search of the back issues of the "Chemist" and various other publications on file, reflected no article on thermal diffusion. Also FUCHS was not on the mailing list of the American Institute of Chemists.

NY 65-15136

A further review of the records of the New York Public Library reflected that one J. F. HOGERTON wrote an article entitled, "Oak Ridge Gives Industries a Unit Operation; Gas Diffusion".

The difficulty and problems which arose in the successful contract operation of the K-25 plant are given in this article. In the case of the article, "Thermal Diffusion as an Adjunct of the Electro-Magnetic Process", written by FOX and mentioned above, a review reveals that the process of diffusion of liquid on gas by highly heated transfer crossed a thin film of liquid on gas, is treated in this article. The article describes the S-50 thermal diffusion process on liquid uranium. Production problems are briefly treated in this article.

Two other articles of possible interest were written under the following titles in the following periodicals:

"The Role of the Process Engineer in the Atomic Bomb Process" by P. C. KEITH of the Kellogg Company, appeared in the February, 1946, issue of "Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering" and "The Development of Atomic Energy" by A. M. KRAMER, Editor of "Power Plant Engineering".

The indices of the Science Department of Columbia University were checked without finding any articles or theses on thermal diffusion.

Confidential Informant T-28, of unknown reliability, advised that the following sources should be checked in an effort to determine whether any article on thermal diffusion had been published in scientific periodicals:

1. "Chemical Abstracts"

A section of the "Chemical Abstracts" index for 1944-1947 was made by SA FRANCIS W. ZANGLE at the New York Public Library, as well as a check for technical publications' index and the engineering annual index for 1943-1948.

3. Abstracts regarding physics, probably maintained by the American Physics Society.
4. "Mechanical Engineering", publication of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.
5. Engineering Societies Laboratory, 29 West 39th Street, New York City.

Confidential Informant T-28 also stated that there is an organization known as the American Documentation Institute, or some similar title, where unpublished scientific papers are filed and also this would be a likely source.

A check of the records of the McGraw-Hill Publishers, reviewing all scientific articles appearing in the periodicals, "Chemical Engineering" and "Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering", which contained the article written by FOX mentioned above.

The records of CCONY, were checked with the results set forth above that GLORIA ASCH had written an article on thermal diffusion in 1946.

A check of the records of the New York University, advising that there was no record of any thesis having been written on thermal diffusion or a related subject for the years 1944-1947.

Confidential Informant T-20, of known reliability, has advised that there was no record of any article or thesis regarding thermal diffusion written in the Physics Department of Columbia University.

A check of the records of the American Institute of Physics, 57 East 55th Street, New York City, publishers of "The Physical Review", which records indicate that this publication was being sent to FUCHS at Harwell, England. These records also indicate that FUCHS had become a member of the Society on November 28, 1947 and subscribed to "The Physical Review", "The Review of Modern Physics", and the "Bulletin of the American Physical Society". No additional information regarding FUCHS was available at this source.

The records of Columbia University, Physics and Chemistry Departments were checked regarding possible theses on thermal diffusion with negative results.

A check of the records of the Engineering Society Library, 29 West 39th Street, New York City which revealed the following articles on atomic energy and thermal diffusion:

- "Separation of Isotopes by Thermal Diffusion" by R. C. JONES and W. H. FURRY appearing in "Reviews of Modern Physics", April, 1946.
- "Separation of Gases by Single and Double Diffusion" by E. A. SCHWARTZ, appearing in the "American Journal of Physics" for January-February, 1947.
- "Key Scientists in Diffusion Plant Project of Atomic Bomb Research", "National Petroleum" Magazine, March, 1945.
- "Isotope Separation by Thermal Diffusion -- The Cylindrical Gas" by W. H. FURRY and R. C. JONES, "Physical Review", May, 1946.
- "Oak Ridge Gives Industries a Unit Operation; Gas Diffusion" by J. F. HOBERTON, "Chemical and Metallurgical Engineer", December, 1945.
- "Unit Operations and Equipment; Gaseous Diffusion", "Chemical and Metallurgical Engineer", February, 1946.
- "Diffusion - Multi-Stage Separation Process" by MANSON BENELICT. in the "Chemical Engineering Progress", February, 1947.

It was learned at this source that the American Documentation Institute is located in Washington, D. C., and it is at this source that unpublished articles and theses are indexed. A lead is being set forth for the Washington Field Office to check this source.

Confidential Informant T-29, of known reliability, caused a check of the Atomic Energy Commission Library, 70 Columbus Avenue, New York City to be checked with negative results on the above stated article on thermal diffusion. It was also ascertained that there is no record in the Atomic Energy Commission, New York City of the military personnel assigned to the S-50 Project or, for that matter, to any other project. Confidential Informant T-29 stated that there is no breakdown by project of military personnel assigned to various atomic installations. He stated that any record of military personnel should be located either at Oak Ridge, Tennessee or at the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C.

With reference to the operation and scientific personnel employed on the S-50 Project at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, the Cleveland Office has ascertained the following information regarding the following individuals from the records of the Ferguson Company in Cleveland, Ohio. The top Fercleve on the S-50 Project were as follows:

C. W. ROBERTS, General Manager of Operations, now in charge of the Houston Office of H. K. Ferguson Company.
 Dr. PHILLIP H. ABLESON, Chief Consultant.
 Dr. J. J. COE, Assistant to Dr. ABLESON.
 NELSON B. GARDEN, Technical Advisor.
 Dr. FORREST WESTERN, Director of Laboratory #1.
 Dr. W. H. JONES, Director of Laboratory #2.
 Dr. MALCOLM DOLE, Director of Process Development.
 C. A. TODARO, Process Development Supervisor.

In addition to the above names, a review of the files also disclosed the names of O. F. DWYER and Dr. BARNETT F. DODGE as scientific personnel assigned to the project.

The following individuals were assigned as M.E.D. personnel:

H. T. WENSEL, M. E. D. Research Staff
 Captain G. L. AGNOR, Unit Chief, S-50 Area
 Major THOMAS J. EVANS, Bomb Unit Chief, S-50 Area
 Major WALTER STAGG
 Colonel K. E. NICHOLS
 Colonel MARK FOX
 Colonel R. W. COOK.

According to Confidential Informant T-30, of unknown reliability, all of the personnel mentioned above were scientific personnel capable of writing the report in question, with the exception of C. W. ROBERTS of the Fercleve personnel listed above. Confidential Informant T-30 was of the opinion that H. T. WENSEL was the only scientist.

Confidential Informant T-24, of known reliability, made a check of the library maintained by Kellex, Inc., New York City regarding the above captioned article on thermal diffusion with negative results. In the course of discussing the matter with Confidential Informant T-24, he also expressed the opinion that FRANK BUCK, Chief Engineer, age seventy, who was connected with the H. K. Ferguson Company on the S-50 Project, probably in the operations end, might be a possible source for determining the author of the above article. He stated that BUCK is now employed at the Crookhaven National Laboratory, Camp Upton, New York.

Confidential Informant T-31, of unknown reliability, advised on February 7, 1950 that the possibility existed that the report on thermal diffusion, the title of which is set out above, is possibly on file at the Naval Research Laboratory, Washington, D. C. under the following numbers:

M-1330 - Initials of writer, H. T. W., probably H. T. WENSEL

~~TOP SECRET~~KARL PALEY COHEN

COHEN was born February 5, 1913 in New York City. His mother was born in Russia, and his father was born in the United States. The records of Columbia University reflect that COHEN was admitted in September, 1929 and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in February, 1933. He received a Master of Arts Degree in February, 1935 and a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in January, 1937. He majored in chemistry.

Confidential Informant T-32, of known reliability, advised that COHEN was employed in the SAM Laboratories, New York City from July 1, 1940 to April 29, 1944. He had first served as a contractor with O. S. K. L. and later with the Manhattan Engineers.

In May, 1944, COHEN became employed by the Standard Oil Development Company, Bayonne, New Jersey and is presently employed by H. K. Ferguson Company in New York City.

Confidential Informant T-33, of known reliability, advised the New York Office, on the morning of February 9, 1950, that one SAMUEL GOUDSMIT, a scientist at the Brookhaven National Laboratory who is also acting as a consultant for CIA in Washington, D. C., had advised him that he is a friend of Dr. COHEN, presently a Technical Director of H. K. Ferguson Company, New York City. GOUDSMIT told Confidential Informant T-33 that COHEN does some work at the Brookhaven National Laboratory. Confidential Informant T-33 stated that COHEN had told GOUDSMIT, after the publicity concerning FUCHS' case, that he had known FUCHS and that he had been in contact with FUCHS when the latter was in this country in 1947. In this connection, COHEN related the following incident:

COHEN stated that during the time FUCHS was in this country in 1947, FUCHS had borrowed a hat from one of his, FUCHS', acquaintances in New York, and sometime thereafter left the hat in a restaurant. COHEN claimed that FUCHS attempted to have his acquaintance pick up the hat, but being not successful in that, FUCHS requested COHEN to obtain the hat and deliver it to FUCHS' acquaintance at an address on West 111th Street, New York City, which COHEN did.

SA Robert M. Kane and the writer interviewed SAMUEL GOUDSMIT at the Brookhaven National Laboratory, Camp Upton, New York on February 9, 1950, at which time GOUDSMIT related the following facts:

GOUDSMIT had met COHEN on February 4, 1950 at a physics meeting at Newark, New Jersey. COHEN related to him a rather curious episode which occurred between him and FUCHS in 1947. GOUDSMIT understood that COHEN had first received a telephone call from FUCHS, who was then in the United States for a Declassification Conference. COHEN invited FUCHS to his home but FUCHS declined, and a luncheon or dinner date was made. During the meal, according to GOUDSMIT, no business was discussed which, according to GOUDSMIT, surprised COHEN. Sometime after the meal, FUCHS realized that he left his hat at the restaurant. He called COHEN, explaining that he had borrowed the hat from a friend, with whom he was staying, and asked that COHEN return the hat, which COHEN later did. COHEN told GOUDSMIT that the house to which he returned the hat was on West 111th Street, New York City, which he might be able to locate.

On the evening of February 9, 1950, SA Robert M. Kane and the writer interviewed Dr. KARL PALEY COHEN at his home at 501 West 121st Street, New York City, at which time he related the following facts:

COHEN explained that he regarded himself as FUCHS' counterpart in the United States Atomic Energy setup, since COHEN was head of the Theoretical Physics Division, which actually was FUCHS' job for the English. As such, COHEN stated that he had frequent contact with FUCHS at the SSM Laboratories, Columbia University, New York City, up to the time that COHEN left there in May, 1944. COHEN acknowledged that he probably knew FUCHS better than any of the American scientists employed on the Atomic Energy Project in New York City at that time. However, he stated that his contact was limited to business and that he recalls, now, only one social contact with FUCHS. He stated that at the time he, COHEN, left the SSM Laboratories, a party was given him, which FUCHS attended.

COHEN stated that he did not know where FUCHS had lived in New York. However, he was aware that FUCHS had come to Los Alamos, California after leaving New York and that he had one contact with FUCHS at Los Alamos. He said that in January, 1946, while employed by the Standard Oil Development Company, he was dispatched to the Los Alamos site in order to obtain the services of a physicist from the pool of Los Alamos physicists which was then breaking up. While there, COHEN said he saw FUCHS, who appeared very friendly to him and offered COHEN the use of his automobile. COHEN borrowed the automobile from FUCHS and took a 400 or 500 mile trip into Colorado and New Mexico. He was told by FUCHS, at that time, that FUCHS would be leaving for England in a short time, but COHEN did not know the actual date on which FUCHS left New York City.

Thereafter, COHEN said that he had no contact with FUCHS until sometime in 1947 when the Declassification Conference was held in Chicago, Illinois.

COHEN was informed by Dr. WILLARD LIBBY of the Atomic Energy Commission that FUCHS probably would be in contact with him since there was one document scheduled for declassification which LIBBY wanted COHEN to discuss with FUCHS and make his recommendations regarding it to LIBBY.

COHEN claims he received a telephone call from a woman unknown to him who explained that she was a friend of FUCHS and that FUCHS was staying at either the Henry Hudson Hotel or the Park Central Hotel and wanted to see COHEN. COHEN then called FUCHS and invited him to his home; which invitation FUCHS declined. They then made a dinner date at a restaurant chosen by COHEN. COHEN thinks it was a French restaurant on East 55th Street, New York City. He stated that they had dinner at the restaurant, during which they discussed the declassification of the document and COHEN recommended that it be declassified while FUCHS opposed it.

COHEN said that sometime after leaving the restaurant, either while they were both together or sometime the next day, FUCHS realized that he had left a hat at the restaurant which belonged to the person with whom he was staying. FUCHS asked COHEN to pick up the hat and return it since he, FUCHS, was leaving town. COHEN claims that he informed FUCHS that he regarded this request extraordinary, but in view of the favor that FUCHS had done COHEN at Los Alamos, California, he finally agreed to call the people and tell them where they could obtain the hat. COHEN then called the restaurant to make sure that the hat was still there. He then called a number furnished by FUCHS and informed the woman to whom he had previously spoken that the hat was there and asked that she obtain it. He recalls that the woman said that she was unfamiliar with New York and that she was busy getting ready to leave New York and asked that COHEN obtain the hat for her. COHEN said that he left town that day but a few days later obtained the hat and returned it to an address on West 111th Street, New York City.

It was COHEN's recollection that FUCHS' contact was a Dr. COOPER or a Dr. SKINNER who was also attached to the British Delegation and who was then in the United States for the Declassification Conference. This contact was then staying with his wife and her father at the West 111th Street address. (Actually a Dr. H. B. SKINNER of the British Delegation attended the Declassification Conference in Chicago, Illinois).

COHEN said that when he brought the hat around to the West 111th Street address, he was invited in for a few moments, during which visit he met a woman, who was apparently SKINNER's wife, and her father, whom he described as being in his fifties, well dressed, and of European extraction. He described the woman as speaking with a British accent and being in her middle or late thirties. He recalled that the bell at the apartment house had the name of COOPER or SKINNER, as well as the name of the father-in-law. COHEN stated that he would have forgotten the incident had it not been for the recent publicity on FUCHS.

COHEN then accompanied the Agents to the 500 block of West 111th Street, New York City which is between Broadway and Amsterdam Avenue, New York

City. After visiting two or three apartment houses on the south side of this block, near the middle, COHEN entered the address 536 West 111th Street. It should be noted that COHEN, while visiting these other apartment houses, appeared to be casually looking over the names on the bells, but when he entered 536 West 111th Street, he selected, within a few seconds, a bell on which appeared the names, SKINNER, ~~HOFFMAN~~, and ~~HEASCH~~. It was the definite impression of the Agents that COHEN may have previously visited this apartment house between the time he had spoken to GOUDSMIT and the evening of February 9, 1950. He stated that he was reasonably certain that he had selected the right apartment house. However, he crossed the street and entered another apartment house about directly opposite, in which apartment house there appeared another SKINNER.

Regarding FUCHS, COHEN commented that he was astounded by FUCHS' recent arrest and stated that he had regarded FUCHS as a brilliant scientist, but personally was a shy, quiet individual who had very little to say on any given topic and who never expressed himself on politics.

COHEN stated that the group of scientists at Los Alamos, including ~~BETH~~, ~~MARSHAK~~, and others, probably came to know FUCHS better than he, since they were living and working closely together. COHEN stated that he had maintained a diary on official conferences held with FUCHS and others in 1943 and 1944 and that he had checked this diary and determined that CLARENCE HISKEY and JOHN CHAPIN, also known to COHEN, and known to him as having radical tendencies, were in Chicago, Illinois at the Aragon Laboratory and not in New York at any time that FUCHS was here.

COHEN was specifically asked whether he had corresponded with FUCHS between the time FUCHS left the United States in 1946 and the meeting in 1947. He answered by saying that the Agents should not have the idea that FUCHS would want to recruit him since he felt that FUCHS knew more about atomic energy problems than he, COHEN, did at any time.

COHEN appeared cooperative and willing to furnish information, although he did not volunteer anything without being specifically asked for it. COHEN stated that he was leaving New York for Los Alamos, California on February 10, 1950 for a ten day business trip.

An examination of the diary of Dr. COHEN on February 10, 1950. The first entry in which FUCHS' name was mentioned was December 14, 1943, which states that COHEN feigned an illness to miss a lecture by FUCHS. It was explained that he had already covered the ground with FUCHS, and discussion of it would have been repetition.

FUCHS was next mentioned on December 22, 1943 in a meeting at Kellogg, Inc., Woolworth Building, New York City. This meeting was also attended by General GROVES, JAMES B. CONNANT, HAROLD EUBRY, and Kellogg employees. Also present were W. H. ~~AKERS~~, J. ~~E. SIMON~~, ~~D. KURTIS~~, R. ~~E. PEIERLS~~, L. ~~S. PFELLS~~, and FUCHS of the British Delegation. The purpose of that meeting was to announce that the gaseous diffusion line of approach had been settled and its work was ready to begin.

On December 23, 1943, COHEN met with PEIERLS and FUCHS and others, whose names were not noted, in a technical meeting. COHEN stated that he was not positive that FUCHS attended this meeting, however.

On December 28, 1943, COHEN, FUCHS, PEIERLS, and E. T. BOOTH, a Columbia University Professor, had lunch together. A notation was made that the Lebanon Issue had been discussed, but COHEN does not recall the conversation.

On December 29, 1943, FUCHS, PEIERLS, COHEN, and ~~E. SKOG~~ and A. ~~L. BAKER~~ of Kellex, Inc. and ~~one~~ ~~OLDS~~ had a technical meeting.

On January 5, 1944, General GROVES, Colonel NICHOLS, LYMAN ~~BLISS~~, ~~GEORGE FELBECH~~ of Union Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company, and W. H. ~~AKERS~~, ~~PFELLS~~, ~~KURTIS~~, and J. ~~B. BROWN~~ of the British Delegation and Kellex employees had a technical meeting. The name of FUCHS is not noted in COHEN's diary, but COHEN believes he was present.

On January 7, 11 and March 31, 1944, FUCHS met with COHEN and other Kellex employees in what was termed "control meetings". COHEN does not recall others present but relates that FUCHS dominated the discussions because of his greater experience with gaseous diffusion.

On March 11, 1944, FUCHS met with COHEN and PEIERLS in a technical discussion.

No other meetings with FUCHS were noted, but COHEN advised that his diary was incomplete at times and was not maintained after May, 1944. He recalls that he met with FUCHS numerous other times but is now unable to furnish the dates.

COHEN also advised that his wife reminded him on February 9, 1950 that FUCHS had visited his home socially in the summer of 1944 and that COHEN "dominated that discussion". COHEN does not recall the subject matter of the discussion but believes it must have been on gaseous diffusion.

Confidential Informant T-24 has stated that he is as positive as he can be that KARL PALEY COHEN did not write the above captioned article on thermal diffusion. The informant explained that COHEN is a high minded theoretical physicist who, in the first place, would not have an intimate knowledge of the production problems encountered and who was concerned only with the theoretical physics approach to the project. Confidential Informant T-24 stated that COHEN is the type of individual who apparently has done considerable reading on the subject of Communism and Marxism in order to be better informed but that his attitude is anything but pro-Communist, and he has expressed himself against all anti-American doctrines, including Communism.

SA Ralph F. Miller made inquiry at 536 West 111th Street, New York City and ascertained that apartment 65 is owned by a Mrs. RUBY SKINNER, a wealthy woman who lives in Connecticut or upstate New York. It was ascertained that she has rented out this apartment to various roomers for the past six years and that a Mr. HULSE, her stepfather, who presently resides there, would have information on the attendance of persons who had occupied the apartment.

SAs Robert M. Kane and Joseph C. Walsh contacted DANIEL HULSE, age eighty, who is presently in St. Luke's Hospital in New York City. HULSE advised that he is the stepfather of Mrs. RUBY SKINNER, Yonkers, New York, the listed tenant of Apartment 65, 536 West 111th Street, New York City. HULSE stated that he had resided in this apartment since 1946. He said that in 1947, he shared the apartment with THOMAS E. BURNS, a Mr. and Mrs. HIRSCH, and one CHARLES REED and his brother.

HULSE stated that BURNS was a retired Consolidated Edison employee while HIRSCH was in the fur business. He stated that he could not recall REED's occupation. HULSE positively stated that no tenants answering the description of the individual seen by KARL PALEY COHEN had ever occupied the apartment since 1946. Moreover, he could recall no other tenants in the building of English descent who had occupied the apartment.

It would appear from the above that COHEN has selected the wrong apartment house, and further inquiry will be considered of COHEN regarding this matter.

ABRAHAM BROTHMAN

 BROTHMAN, as has been noted above, was apparently being handled by the unknown subject [GOOSE] at the same time [GOOSE] was handling FUCHS in 1944.] (u)

BROTHMAN was born on August 15, 1913 at New York. He was married on June 15, 1937 to NAOMI METT and presently resides at 41-08 - 42nd Street, Sunnyside, Long Island, New York. He graduated from Columbia University in 1933 with a Degree of Chemical Engineer. During the period from 1938 to 1942, BROTHMAN conducted a company known as the Republic Chemical Machinery Company which performed designing work on chemical machines. This company held patents on several machines which were manufactured by the Hendrick Manufacturing Company of Carbondale, Pennsylvania.

In June, 1942, BROTHMAN severed his connection with Republic Chemical Machinery Company and with Hendrick Manufacturing Company and became associated with HENRY GOLWYNNE in the Chemurgy Design Corporation, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York City. While at the Chemurgy Design Corporation, BROTHMAN worked for the Tedlee Chemical Corporation and the Regal Chemical Company. In the course of his work with these two latter firms, BROTHMAN developed an automatic machine for filling aerosol bombs in the field and a valve for aerosol dispensers and also developed a process for making DDT. Because of contract difficulties in this organization, BROTHMAN broke his connection with Chemurgy Design Corporation in the summer of 1944.

In August, 1944, BROTHMAN organized his own firm, Abraham Brothman and Associates, 114 East 32nd Street, New York City and later moved its office to 2928 - 41st Street, Long Island City, New York where he is presently located. His partners in this firm, at the time it was organized, were EMIL Z. BARISH, GERHARD WOLLAN, OSCAR J. VAGO, and JULES KORCHEIN. At the present time, BROTHMAN only associate is MIRIAM MOSKOWITZ who was formerly employed as his secretary.

BROTHMAN's firm is presently engaged in developing work for firms in the United States and certain foreign countries, including China.

According to Confidential Informant T-7, BROTHMAN's firm is listed as "experienced chemical engineers".

BROTHMAN first came to the attention of the New York Office as a result of allegations made by Confidential Informant GREGORY who stated that in about May, 1940, JACOB GOLOS, deceased Soviet Agent, had introduced the informant to BROTHMAN. The informant stated that from the early summer of 1940 until the fall of 1940, GREGORY had met BROTHMAN about ten times in New York City in order to obtain blueprints from him. On other occasions, the informant was aware that BROTHMAN was contacted by GOLOS. The meetings between BROTHMAN and GREGORY frequently took place in front of the Mosler Safe Company, 32nd Street and Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Following the meeting, GREGORY and BROTHMAN would have dinner together, and during the course of the dinner, BROTHMAN would turn over certain blueprints to GREGORY. The informant stated that on several occasions, the prints which BROTHMAN had given her were copies which he had made from the originals. However, on some occasions, BROTHMAN gave the informant originals which the informant had to have copied and subsequently returned the originals to BROTHMAN. The informant stated that sometime during the course of these meetings, it was learned from either BROTHMAN or GOLOS that the blueprints were of commercial kettles or commercial vats.

Sometime during the fall of 1940, according to the informant, GOLOS told the informant that he was becoming disgusted with his dealings with BROTHMAN and stated that he was going to turn BROTHMAN over to someone else. The informant never learned to whom GOLOS directed BROTHMAN. However, BROTHMAN, upon interview in May, 1947, stated that he was contacted by HARRY GOLD, who had been sent to him by GOLOS. GOLD then began picking up prints until the early part of 1942. BROTHMAN has stated that although GOLD did not pick up any prints subsequent to 1942, he would stay in contact with him and that GOLD was hired by BROTHMAN in 1942 as a chemist and may still be so employed.

BROTHMAN testified before a Special Grand Jury in the Southern District of New York on July 22, 1947 where he stated that he first met GOLOS in the early part of 1940, at which time GOLOS informed him that he was connected with the Soviet Government Purchasing Commission and was in a position to obtain contracts for BROTHMAN. BROTHMAN stated that he had invented a piece of machinery at about this time and that this machinery was to be used in chemical processes. GOLOS wanted copies of the prints of this invention and BROTHMAN turned them over to him. BROTHMAN then stated, before the Grand Jury, that shortly after that, GOLOS came to see him about every week to find out if there was anything new in his invention or any new equipment, improvements or applications.

About six months later, or in the summer of 1940, BROTHMAN stated that GOLOS had introduced him to Confidential Informant GREGORY, whose photograph he identified, and after which GREGORY contacted BROTHMAN. BROTHMAN stated that he continued to contact GREGORY until about the Spring of 1941. BROTHMAN's explanation for meeting GREGORY on the street was that he was busy during the day at his office and did not like to be disturbed and that it was more convenient for him to meet GREGORY in the above manner.

A physical surveillance of BROTHMAN was begun on February 16, 1945 and continued through February 24, 1945. The surveillance revealed no significant contacts by BROTHMAN.

The Bureau has advised by letter of February 16, 1950 that simultaneous interviews with BROTHMAN and GERHARD NORVIL ROLLAN, now employed as a teacher at North Georgia College, Dahlonega, Georgia, would be authorized in the near future.

Foreign Students at Columbia University

By teletype of February 8, 1950, the Bureau advised that Confidential Informant T-3 had indicated [some possibility that the unknown subject, with alias; GOOSE, was one of a group of ten students in the New York City area.]

The New York Office was requested to ascertain and furnish the identity and readily available details concerning all Russian undergraduate and postgraduate students at Columbia University during the school years 1943 and 1944.

A check of students at Columbia University, from the winter session of 1942 through the Spring session of 1946, that the following individuals were regarded as "Russian nationals" and attended one of the graduate schools at the university; GREGORY LVOVICH LASERSON, also known as: Gregor Laserson and Gregory Leon Laserson; MORRIS WEINLEIB; and ANATOLE MINC. These three individuals majored in scientific studies, and their files are synopsized hereinafter.

By teletype of February 15, 1950, the New York Office was requested by the Bureau to ascertain the organizational details of the Peacock Laboratories 8503 - 57th Avenue, Elmhurst, Long Island, New York, which was visited by BROTHMAN on January 22, 1950. Photographs and descriptions of the organizers were requested.

Confidential Informant T-7 advised that the Peacock Roll Leaf Company, Inc., 8503 - 57th Avenue, Elmhurst, Long Island, New York was incorporated July 1, 1927 by PAUL ~~JOSSIER~~ and FRANK ~~GIRONES~~. GIRONES left the company in 1929, and the firm is now operated by JOSSIER and EDWARD ~~QUICK~~, Secretary. JOSSIER is married and was born in the United States in 1879. QUICK is married and was born in the United States in 1910. From 1943 to 1945, QUICK operated as a sub-contractor, conducting the General Manufacturing Company, a machine shop, now discontinued.

The New York indices were negative on JOSSIER, GIRONES, and QUICK.

The Peacock Roll Leaf Company, Inc. employs three salesmen and twenty-one other people and manufactures imitation gold and silver leaf. Further efforts are being made to ascertain the identities of other personnel in this firm and efforts will be made to obtain photographs of EDWARD QUICK.

Confidential Informant T-35, of unknown reliability, advised SA Joseph C. Walsh on February 16, 1950 that one Dr. JOSEPH WINTERMITZ, a Czechoslovakian citizen, operated in the latter twenties in Berlin, Germany for the Russians in the recruitment of scientists and engineers for Soviet espionage. WINTERMITZ was a physicist and professionally acquainted with scientific groups. He wrote many articles under the pen name JOSEPH LENZ. According to Confidential Informant T-35, he was also a member of the Communist Party, Central Committee in Germany. WINTERMITZ fled from Hitler to Czechoslovakia in the early thirties, and when Hitler entered Czechoslovakia, WINTERMITZ, as a Czechoslovakian citizen, was able to secure a visa to England where he remained throughout World War II.

The informant is of the belief that WINTERMITZ probably recruited FUCHS into Soviet espionage service in England.

Confidential Informant T-35 also related that FUCHS graduated from the University of Kiel, Kiel, Germany and that he believes a Lr. HANS VonHENTIG, a professor at the University of Kiel who is now at the University of Colorado, may have information regarding FUCHS.

Confidential Informant T-35 described VonHENTIG as a German aristocrat, a liberal social democrat, and extremely interested in political subjects while at Kiel.

Confidential Informant T-36, of known reliability, advised SA Joseph C. Walsh that the records of the Atomic Energy Commission are filed as follows:

Prime contracts in New York City which are designated as classified Sub-contracts are maintained in the Atomic Energy Commission files in Washington, D. C.

Retired contracts are maintained in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Complete records are kept in the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C.

Confidential Informant T-36 explained that there is no filing classification under which contracts let to chemists or chemical laboratories are broken down. He suggested that the Atomic Energy Commission, Finance Division, Washington, D. C. might be of further assistance.

The following offices were requested by teletype of February 25, 1950 to check their Security Index cards for suspects for GOOSE and to forward photos to the Bureau, Boston and New York: Washington Field, Baltimore, Newark, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Albany, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, New Haven, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Knoxville, Indianapolis and Milwaukee.

Will advise how the HEINEMANS place the date of the visit to their home of the UNSUB, was [GOOSE], etc. in February, 1945. It is to be noted that T-3 is certain of the fact that GOOSE visited Mrs. HEINEMAN sometime prior to November 14, 1944, and that she advised him of FUCHS' destination, "Camp Two" (Los Alamos) of which fact FUCHS had apprised her in August, 1944 by means of a telephone call from Chicago, Ill. It is also known from T-3 that GOOSE had planned to see FUCHS in Boston around Christmas, 1944, since Mrs. HEINEMAN had told GOOSE of the fact he might visit her during that Christmas season. It is also to be noted that Mrs. HEINEMAN, according to T-3, was away from home immediately prior to October 4, 1944. It is possible she had been confined to a hospital during that time, or as FUCHS as previously indicated, she was vacationing "on the coast". The purpose of this lead is to establish, if possible, through Mrs. HEINEMAN that she was contacted by UNSUB, was [GOOSE], etc. earlier than has been established thus far. (u)
