SUBJECT: WATERGATE AND RELATED MATTERS

Reference is made to memorandum dated 7/15/75 from L. E. Rhy to Mr. Gebhardt (copy attached) which sets forth the total number of manhours expended by the Bureau on Watergate and related matters. It is felt that this matter is newsworthy; however, prior experience has shown that the media would only utilize these figures if we could place a dollar value on them. Accordingly, it is believed if an approximate dollar value can be placed on these figures that this material could be furnished to the media.

RECOMMENDATION

That consideration be given to placing a dollar value on the total number of hours expended by the Bureau on Watergate and related matters.

SUBJECT: WATERGATE AND RELATED MATTERS

This is to recommend discontinuance of gathering clerical and Special Agent man-hours spent on subject matters.

Cost data has been gathered from the field since 11/1/73. At that time, it was anticipated that the Watergate Special Prosecution Force (SPF) would utilize the FBI on a reimbursable basis. This has not been the case.

Since inception of the Watergate investigations through 6/30/75, 42 Agent man-years and 17 clerical man-years have been expended. The amount spent for personnel compensation total $1,143,524, and for other expenses $147,050 for a grand total of $1,290,574. In June 1975, personnel time expended on Watergate matters cost $4,065. It is anticipated that SPF will soon be closing its operations and the Statute of Limitations is about to run on many of the Election Law violations. We still have a few pending matters under investigation at the request of the SPF. However, in terms of overall manpower utilization it is negligible, as only about 10 field offices are actively engaged in any type of Watergate investigation.

The discontinuance on gathering cost data has been coordinated with the Administrative Division, Budget and Accounting Section, and it was determined that no special reason continues to exist to gather this cost data.

RECOMMENDATION: If discontinuance of gathering the man-hour figures for time spent on Watergate investigations is approved, that attached airtel be sent to all offices.

Result of examination:

Partly because of the lack of comparable writing and partly because of discrepant characteristics in the known and questioned writings, it was not determined whether specimens Q109 and Q110 were or were not prepared by any of the subjects in the above-captioned matter or by any of the individuals whose known writings were submitted in connection with the case entitled "Donald Henry Segretti; Election Laws."

It was not possible to determine the date of preparation of specimens Q109 and Q110.

Photographs of specimens Q109 and Q110 have been retained.

Recently national publicity has been given to the existence of the possible plot to assassinate or drug Syndicated Columnist, Jack Anderson, by E. Howard Hunt convicted Watergate burglar. Hunt in an interview with Time Magazine said former White House Aide, Charles Colson once suggested that Anderson might be discredited if he appeared on his live radio program under the influence of a drug. Hunt and G. Gordon Liddy, another convicted Watergate burglar discussed the means for doing this, but never contemplated murder.

Henry S. Ruth, Jr., Special Prosecutor, requested that Cuban informants in the Miami area be canvassed to determine if they ever heard of such a plot. Ruth further requested that in addition to the inquiry regarding the Anderson plot, that the inquiry include if any information was ever received regarding a plot to assassinate Daniel Ellsberg.

Gentlemen:

On January, 1973 I met with Mr. Carl Silbert at the Federal Court House in Washington D.C. and told him of some indirect knowledge I had of Watergate matters. He was quite interested at the time and he directed me to the main agent in charge of the Watergate investigation. I presented him with a tape recording, approximately 25 minutes long which I had made, concerning dates, places, names, addresses, etc of various people directly involved in the whole mess.

EX-110 REC-14 1-2-10036

21 OCT 10 1975

For some obvious reason, the information was never used and as a result I suffered the loss of a $40,000 a year job plus defamation to my character, loss of a store, etc. It turns out a year later, most of the same material I had was used + made public by from different sources.

I am entitled to have that tape recording sent back to me along with a notebook I had given to the STRIKE forces in Pittsburgh, Pa the same month.

I don't want any typical bureaucratic delay in having the tape returned and I don't want any explanations, either, why the documentation I offered was never used. I have a book coming out shortly which will answer several unanswered matters.

Please send tape & notebook to the above address -

PURPOSE: To set forth request from Special Prosecutor, Henry S. Ruth, Jr., regarding any information we may have in our files regarding the assassination plot against Jack Anderson. A review of our files discloses no such information.

DETAILS: Henry S. Ruth, Jr., Special Prosecutor, telephonically contacted Section Chief, Louis E. Rhyne, 9/30/75, in reference to recent newspaper articles reporting that E. Howard Hunt had contemplated the murder of Jack Anderson, a Washington Syndicated Columnist. Ruth requested that we review our files regarding the Watergate investigation to determine if we had ever received any such information from informants or during the course of our investigation. He indicated that they had conducted some interviews and reference had been made that such a plot may have existed, however, no concrete facts have been developed, that such was the case. Ruth also indicated that possibly there was a plot to assassinate Daniel Ellsberg.

In an interview in the current issue of Time Magazine, convicted Watergate Burglar E. Howard Hunt, OCT 10 1975 said former White House Aide, Charles Colson, once suggested that Anderson might be discredited if he appeared on his live radio program under the influence of a drug. Hunt and G. Gordon Liddy, another convicted Watergate Burglar, discussed the means for doing this, but never contemplated murder as was previously reported. Hunt said it was just another wild idea that never got beyond the proposal stage, in the interview with Time. Hunt denied that any action as serious as murder was ever contemplated, but revealed the drugging plot.

CIA E. Howard Hunt and G. Gordon Liddy planned and "set up" the abortive Watergate Burglary to create a national scandal that would prevent Nixon's re-election to a second term as President. They knew from the beginning that in order for their plan to succeed it would be necessary for the team to be captured by the police. The Cubans were selected with this in mind.

CIA James McCord, from the Committee to Re-Elect the President (CREP), was tricked "at the last minute," into entering the Watergate Complex with the regular members of the burglary team, because it was necessary (for the success of Hunt and Liddy's plan) to establish a highly visible link between the burglars and the President.

Soon after the burglars (plus McCord) entered the Watergate Complex the nightwatchman was tipped off as planned, and he called the police. The burglars surrendered peacefully, and when they were searched for identification the police found consecutively numbered one hundred dollar bills and White House telephone numbers. The burglars were taken to jail.

John Dean's very effective efforts to keep the Watergate Incident out of the headlines until after the election prevented the success of Hunt and Liddy's original plan (to create a scandal that would prevent Nixon's re-election). But the true intentions of the burglars had not been discovered. Hunt and Liddy remained silent and waited. President Nixon was busy with the election, and had assumed like everyone else that the burglars were misguided pranksters loyal to the President, and he remained loyal to them. Even James McCord, who had been "hustled" into going to jail with the burglary team, did not suspect the motives of Hunt and Liddy.

After the election was over, and Nixon had begun his second term as President, the news media, inspired by those who had originally inspired Hunt and Liddy's plan, began to step up the pressure for a full investigation of the Watergate "scandal," and John Dean's efforts to "keep the lid on the Watergate" gradually became less and less effective.

President Nixon was under great pressure in the field of Foreign Affairs, and he left the incident in the hands of the up-til-now very capable and effective John Dean. But Dean was now fighting a very large war by himself, and without concrete evidence that would clarify the motives of those behind the Watergate Incident it was not possible for him to fully understand the true nature of the problem, or to convincingly communicate its seriousness to the President.

It was not until E. Howard Hunt demanded a million dollars (to pay off the Watergate lawyers) that President Nixon realized that the burglars were neither loyal to him, nor were they pranksters. It was then that the true dimensions of the problem began to become clear, but by then the Watergate had become an international incident, public opinion in the United States had been "mobilized" against the President, those who might have supported him became involved in troubles of their own, and before the year was out the President of the United States was forced to resign, in order to avoid Impeachment in the Senate.

E. Howard Hunt is a long-time agent of the Central Intelligence Agency in possession of a large amount of information vital to the security of the United States. The Watergate Incident thus becomes a matter of national security in every legitimate sense, and legally justifies the President's efforts to keep the true facts from the eyes of the world.

But beyond the question of legal justification, President Nixon is innocent of any involvement in the illegal activities that have been committed in his name by various agents of the CIA and other governmental agencies, sometimes in conjunction with members of the Mafia and other criminal organizations, which these people are now trying to lay at the feet of the Presidents under whose administrations these activities took place.

DEATH PLOT ON CASTRO REPORTED

Plan Said Stopped by RFK Action

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH
©1975 N.Y. Times News Service

WASHINGTON — Two former key aides to the late Robert F. Kennedy said he told them in 1967 that agents of the Central Intelligence Agency had contracted with the Mafia in an aborted plot to assassinate Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba before the Bay of Pigs invasion in 1961.

Adam Walinsky and Peter B. Edelman, who were assistants to Kennedy when he was attorney general and a senator, said in interviews last week that Kennedy told them that he had played an active role in stopping the assassination attempt.

A high official of the CIA, informed of the Walinsky-Edelman account, said the agency would have "no comment."

Walinsky, now a lawyer in private practice in New York, said that Kennedy disclosed that he had received "assurances in writing" from the CIA that the attempted assassination had been aborted. Those assurances came after Kennedy discussed the issue with high officials of the agency, Walinsky recalled the then-senator saying:

"He told us that he had discovered that the CIA had made a contract with the Mafia to hit Castro," Walinsky said.

On March 3, 1967, Jack Anderson, the syndicated columnist, reported that the CIA may have plotted Castro's assassination and depicted Kennedy as the official who "may have approved the operation." Anderson also cited what he termed persistent "rumors" to the effect that Castro may have become aware of the American plot and decided to retaliate by having President Kennedy assassinated in 1963. Because of that possibility, the columnist suggested, Senator Kennedy may have been blaming himself for the death of his brother.

The column, published at a time of strained relations between Senator Kennedy and President Johnson, "outraged" the senator, Walinsky recalled, and led to the discussion of the alleged CIA-Mafia assassination attempt.

"I remember him saying 'Blame myself?'" Edelman recalled. "'I didn't start it (the Castro assassination attempt), I stopped it.'"

Edelman, now a vice president for policy at the University of Massachusetts, further quoted Kennedy as saying, "I found out that some people were going to try an attempt on Castro's life and I turned it off."

CIA Link To Castro Death Plot

Edelman said that Kennedy had "mentioned the Mafia." Edelman said that the inference he had then drawn from the conversation was that "someone associated with the CIA had done this, but not necessarily that it had been officially sanctioned by the agency; whatever that means."

Walinsky also recalled Kennedy as explaining in 1967 that he had learned of the alleged CIA-Mafia link while working as an organized crime investigator for a Senate committee in the late fifties.

"He was out in Las Vegas," Walinsky recalled Kennedy as saying, "and a mobster told him, 'You can't touch me, I've got immunity.' He said, 'Who gave you immunity?' and the mobster said 'CIA.'

"He went back and he checked and sure enough it was true," Walinsky said. "They had made a deal with this guy."

Re Bureau airtel to WFO and Pittsburgh dated 10/3/75.

A review of the WFO file in captioned matter indicates that DAVID B. SCHULER, 625 Stanwix Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., appeared at the Office of the United States Attorney, Washington, D.C., (WDC), on January 17, 1973, stating that he had information concerning captioned matter.

SCHULER was interviewed on that date by WFO SAs DANIEL C. MAHAN and ANGELO LANO. During the course of the interview, SCHULER displayed a large notebook which contained, in his handwriting, information concerning interviews he had conducted in South America. SCHULER removed four pages from this notebook and he made them available to the interviewing Agents for inspection. These pages contained nothing more than actual accounts of the burglary as they were reported in newspapers.

SCHULER permitted the interviewing Agents to make xerox copies of the four pages of notes he had and these pages are currently maintained in the WFO file. Neither SCHULER's notebook or the original pages that were copied were taken by the interviewing Agents. Thereafter it is requested that the FBI Laboratory compare the enclosed notes with the known handwriting of subjects in this matter as well as related matters. A review of the enclosed notes seemed to indicate that JEB STUART MAGRUDER might possibly be author.

It is requested that the Identification Division examine the enclosed notes for latent fingerprints and thereafter compare any latent fingerprints developed with the known prints of subjects in this and related matters.

It is also requested of the FBI Laboratory that they attempt to date the notes, in an effort to determine if they were written in 1972 or more recently, and if possible provide a detailed transcript of said notes.

WFO is maintaining a xerox copy of the enclosed notes.

SUBJECT: WATERGATE SPECIAL PROSECUTION FORCE REPORT

By memorandum dated 10/17/75 from R. G. Gallagher to Mr. Adams, captioned as above (copy attached), one copy of the Special Prosecution Force Report on Watergate dated October 1975 was furnished to each division for their review and comments which in turn are to be forwarded to the General Investigative Division (GID). GID will then prepare a summary memo.

The report has been reviewed for information relating to matters falling within this Division's operational functions. Nothing in the report directly refers to or has a direct effect upon the functions of a section or unit in the Administrative Division.

Under the section of the report captioned "Concluding Observations and Recommendations" it is stated under the subcaption Congressional Oversight (page 142), "Recent disclosures about some of the activities of the CIA, FBI, and IRS suggest that such oversight has been seriously deficient in the past. Oversight should include regular review of agency policies, the nature of priorit programs, allocations of resources, intelligence programs, internal inspection procedures, compliance with audit requirements, and similar indications of the manner in which such agencies are performing their sensitive functions."

The implication of the above-quoted segment of the report cannot be accurately measured at this time, but we most certainly should gird ourselves for further monitoring from outside agencies such as GAO, and requests for information from congressional committees.

RECOMMENDATION: EX 104 REC-51 139-4089-3067

SUBJECT: WATERGATE SPECIAL PROSECUTION FORCE REPORT

Reference is made to R. J. Gallagher memorandum to Mr. Adams dated 10/17/75, furnishing a copy of the above report to each division for review and comments. A summary of comments received from the divisions indicate a general consensus that the report was generally favorable to the FBI's handling of the investigation. At the suggestion of the Training Division the report is being furnished the Academy Learning Resource Center for purposes of reference.

A review of this report discloses references made to the FBI's Watergate investigation are favorable.

EX-104

According to the report one of the Special Prosecutor's most difficult early decisions was whether to use the FBI as the principal investigative arm or to hire his own staff. After weighing all the evidence and satisfying himself that alleged improprieties by some former high FBI officials did not involve those who would be responsible for the work to be done, he decided to continue to use the FBI to conduct the investigations.

26 NOV 26 1975

The report states "There also appeared to be no basis for doubting the integrity or diligence of the Agents who had actually conducted the investigations to date and who would presumably be the ones to continue this work under the direction of the Special Prosecutor."

By letter dated October 16, 1975, to Director Kelley, Henry S. Ruth, Jr., Special Prosecutor forwarded a "Summary of October, 1975, Report of Watergate Special Prosecution Force," and stated he relied heavily on the Bureau for investigative assistance in many extremely important areas. Mr. Ruth expressed appreciation to the Director and each of the Agents and the supervisory personnel who cooperated so well in the mission of his office.
