Dear Sirs,

My name is [REDACTED] and I am a student at Indiana State University. I am a Sophomore and a Business major. Included in my curriculum is English Composition. One requirement for this course is a 3000 word term paper. The area in which the topic is to be chosen is between the years 1919 and 1928. As my topic I have chosen "Alphonso Capone!"

I have searched our library but have not been able to locate sufficient information covering my topic. This is the purpose of my letter to you gentleman. I would like to ask you if you could give me some information concerning this topic. I was not sure if you are able to hand out this type of information but I thought that I would at least try. I knew that if anyone would have such information, the people in your department would be most qualified. I realize that you people have more important matters to attend to but I was hoping that you would see what you could do for me. If you are not permitted to hand out this information, I was hoping you could give me the name of some other qualified source of information. (Books, pamphlets, etc.)

Thank-you for your time and trouble, it is well appreciated.

Enclosed is a copy of letter I received from [REDACTED] in which he is seeking information on what is known as the "Al Capone car". He has apparently corresponded a great deal in trying to get something, and why I do not know.

If you do not have any information I do not know where to turn. If there is anything we can pass on to him I would like to do so as I am sure he will be writing again.

I was glad to run into you at the Waldorf the other day and I hope our paths will cross again.

Dear Jim:

I have received your letter of July 19th, with enclosures. It was certainly good to hear from you again and I was happy to learn from your enclosures of the honors accorded you in recognition of your many years of service to our country. Our generation has been indeed fortunate to have been blessed with men of your stature.

Concerning [REDACTED] interest in the possible use of Al Capone's car by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, I wish I could answer his inquiry. Unfortunately, however, we do not have the information he is seeking. Although the FBI did investigate Capone, he was sentenced on October 24, 1931, for violation of the Federal income tax laws which do not come within our investigative jurisdiction. Following this conviction we had no reason to determine what disposition was made of his vehicle.

You may wish to suggest to [REDACTED] that he communicate with the Honorable James J. Rowley, Director, United States Secret Service, Washington, D. C. 20226, if he has not already done so, regarding any available records maintained concerning automobiles used by the Presidents on various occasions in the past.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Clyde Tolson

[REDACTED] is not identifiable in Bufiles. Liaison Section has determined from Secret Service that certain records are maintained by that agency regarding the use of various vehicles by the different Presidents over the years. b6

Dear Sirs:

I have a term paper to do for one of my classes. It's on Al Capone. I would be extremely grateful if you would send me the full life history of this man. I've checked libraries and other sources, but I thought this would be the best and most efficient way to get a complete life history of him. It's due in early March. Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Almost one year ago I wrote to you for some information on the late Eliot Ness. Now I have a question for you. At any point during his life, did Al Capone ever visit the southeast section of Pennsylvania around Johnstown? The reason I am asking this question is that very close relatives of mine have,

During Prohibition, federal men did raid this village and part of Johnstown. In Johnstown, they flooded the streets with whisky by breaking hundreds of casks of the alcohol. One street carried the whisky in its gutters is still used. The name of the street is Whisky Run Road.

The relatives changed their name from Capone to one still bearing the first four letters of Capone. I shall not divulge the name.

You may wonder why I am asking you a question about

I am involved in a lengthy report on the direct or indirect involvement of the gangster, Al Capone in murder. One of the requirements of the report is to have material other than what is in local material in libraries and research books.

Therefore, I would appreciate any material, or any recommendations of where I could acquire any material on Al Capone and any of his friends or acquaintances. I would appreciate a reply as soon as possible so I could have that much more time to organize my material.

Sincerely Yours.

Dear Sir:

I am interested in obtaining information under the freedom of information law. The information I want relates to files about 40 years old involving the Al Capone gang. Essentially I want to know whether a particular person was involved in the gang's operation. That person is [REDACTED]. I need not know who the FBI's informants were who told of [REDACTED] involvement. I would, however, like to get a sense of what [REDACTED] activities were within the gang, if he was involved.

Since it is 40 years since [REDACTED] was supposedly involved, I suppose it is possible that he may have been involved in some other Chicago gang. If that is true I would, of course, be interested. What I am saying is that I want to find out anything you know about [REDACTED] and can tell me.

As I am sure you understand I am under time constraints. If you can reply by early next week it would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]

Reference is made to your letter of July 10th requesting information concerning [REDACTED] whom you identified as [REDACTED]

For your information, investigatory files of the FBI are exempt from public disclosure pursuant to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. However, on July 11, 1973, former Attorney General Elliot L. Richardson issued Order 528-73 affording access to Department of Justice files that are more than 15 years old and are of historical interest to persons engaged in historical research. Concerning the Order, enclosed is a reprint which contains the current Department of Justice regulations and policy implementing the Freedom of Information Act.

The Attorney General

In cases where we are protecting the privacy of a third party, it is extremely important to maintain a uniform response to all requests which will preclude any inferences being made by the requester. Although we do not have the exact information requested in this instance, we do have material relating to [REDACTED]. An additional request for information concerning him might force us to furnish a different type of answer leading to the logical assumption that we do indeed have the information requested.

Simply put, it is our position that in these situations where the right of privacy of third parties is at issue, the requester is entitled to no information whatsoever and any information we do furnish, even when negative, opens the door to assumptions which could be damaging to the third party.

We feel this policy is sound and is the most protective of the rights of individuals who may be mentioned in our records. We respectfully urge you to affirm our denial of [REDACTED] request without telling him that we do or do not have a record regarding [REDACTED]

- 1 - The Deputy Attorney General
- 1 - Assistant Attorney General
- Office of Legal Counsel

Department of Justice

NOTE: We have learned from representatives of the Department's Office of Legal Counsel that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] However, FOIA Unit feels strongly enough that this procedure suggested by the Department in advising an individual as to whether or not the FBI has a record on a third party would constitute an invasion of privacy in regard to the third party. Therefore, we feel our views should be put on record with the Attorney General.

APPEAL OF [REDACTED] OF FBI'S DENIAL FOR DATA UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

This concerns a request received from [REDACTED], in July of this year for any information in our files concerning one [REDACTED] involvement with the Al Capone gang. According to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] feels that information on his background would serve the public interest.

A review of our files developed several references to [REDACTED], but none were located which indicated his involvement with the Al Capone gang. Consequently, since the files concerning the Al Capone gang are over 15 years old, [REDACTED] was advised that according to our interpretation of Departmental Order 528-73, [REDACTED] was not of the historical significance envisioned by that Order.

Representatives of the Department's Office of Legal Counsel have advised us that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Although the preceding statement is accurate, it is 1974 been the FBI's policy in implementing the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act that in those cases where one party inquires as to whether we have a record on a third party, that we do not respond to such inquiry indicating whether or not we have such a record, but reply by indicating that such information would not be available to a third party. In appropriate cases, we go on to explain that the divulgence by the FBI to an individual that a third party does or does not have a record with the FBI could lead to an invasion of privacy of the individual about whom the inquiry was made.

Dear Mr. Ross:

In response to your telephone call to our Research Unit on August 15, 1983, for information and photographs of Al Capone and members of the "Capone Gang," the following data are furnished:

The activities ascribed to the "Capone Gang" and others in the 1920s and early 1930s did not, for the most part, constitute apparent violations of Federal law within the investigative jurisdiction of the Bureau of Investigation, the predecessor of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. However, available information which may be of value to you is described below:

Enclosed is a list of alleged members of the "Capone Gang" as furnished in 1936 by police officials familiar with the hoodlum element in Chicago.

Also enclosed are copies of articles concerning Al Capone which appeared in the "International Criminal Police Review" of May, 1947, and in "True Detective" magazine of August, 1961. Additionally, articles concerning Al Capone may be found in "The Encyclopedia of American Crime" (EAC), by Carl Sifakis, 1982, Facts on File, Inc., Page 122; and in "Bloodletters and Badmen" (B&B), by Jay Robert Nash, 1973, M. Evans and Company, Inc., Page 17. Those volumes are probably available in a library near you.

MR. DIVAN:

On 6/15/83 a telephone call was received by John Mullery in Research Unit from Willie Ross, Research Analyst, Pennsylvania State House of Representatives, Room 311, Finance Building, Post Office Box 250, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17120. He advised that some time ago, about four months, he had requested photos and histories of several gangster types, including Al Capone and his gang members. He had received the desired material, except for the Capone request.

A check of records of OCPA Research, Special Productions, and Correspondence Units, and of Buindices has failed to verify that Ross's request has been handled.

Unless you disagree, information and photos of Al Capone and members of his gang, as identified in Research Unit folders, will be furnished to Mr. Ross at the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. I am assigning this project to Mr. Mullery.
