Reference: 279A-WF-222936-LEAD Serial 1200

Administrative: Per meeting between AMERITHRAX personnel and SSA [Redacted] on March 27, 2006.

Enclosure(s): Paperwork associated with the polygraph examination of Bruce Edwards Ivins, including: One copy of the FD-497, one copy of the questions asked of Ivins, one copy of the FD-524, and a copy of the Consent to Interview with a Polygraph form.

Details: On February 28, 2002, Bruce Edwards Ivins was administered a polygraph examination. Ivins is a research scientist at the United States Army Medical Research Institute of Infectious Disease (USARMIID) located on Fort Detrick, Frederick, Maryland. After the anthrax attacks of 2001, FBI evidence was being processed at USAMRIID. As part of a screening process, all individuals at USAMRIID who were going to be in contact with the anthrax evidence were required to sit for a polygraph examination. Ivins' polygraph was administered as part of this screening process.

Items labeled #1 through #385 were seized from the U.S. Army Medical Research Institute of Infectious Disease (USAMRIID), Fort Detrick, during a consent search executed from July 16, 2004, through July 23, 2004. Item descriptions may contain typographical errors due to inability to read labels on vials properly and/or inability to read inventory logs written by Search personnel (hazardous materials search team members). All effort possible was made to accurately describe seized items correctly. A complete list of the items collected are as follows:

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [REDACTED] from 11/30/2006 through 12/4/2006:

The home computer of BRUCE EDWARDS IVINS was imaged during a consent search by WFO CART on March 31, 2005 and is stored in evidence as item 1B 4117. As part of the review of the image, a report was produced that tracked the websites visited on IVINS' computer. It should be noted that IVINS' computer was a family computer and was used by himself [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This review only covers those searched made while IVINS was logged onto America Online using his screen name of kingbadger07.

Each website documented in the abovementioned report was accessed by writer on the internet [REDACTED]

b7E

[REDACTED] A summary of this work is shown below and categorized based on the type of website visited by IVINS.

FRATERNITY AND SORORITY WEBSITES

www.fraternitysecrets.com - website that inventoried fraternity and sorority rituals, codes and other similar activities. A page was noted for Kappa Kappa Gamma (KKG) but there were not any KKG secrets posted.

www.simplygreek.com - website that sells items bearing Greek letters such as sweatshirts, hats, etc.

www.campusspeak.com - website devoted to college issues, including the Greek system as well as hazing.

GENERAL WEBSITES

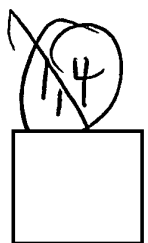

www.fcpl.org - Frederick County Public Library website.

www.farmersandmechanics.com - Farmers and Mechanics Bank website that is used for online banking.

www.fmbancorp.com - Parent company of Farmers and Mechanics Bank.

www.medscape.com - a sub-site of www.webmd.com. medscape.com is a site about health and self diagnosis, just as webmd.com is.

www.celestialseasonings.com - website for the tea retailer.

[REDACTED]

www.quayaki.com - homepage for an energy drink company.

www.drudgereport.com - homepage for the popular Drudge Report website.

www.pacprod.com - homepage for Pacific Products Gallery, which sells unique gifts and collectibles.

www.razormagazine.com - homepage for Razor Magazine, a men's magazine similar to FHM or Maxim.

www.suntimes.com - homepage for the Chicago Sun Times newspaper.

www.productopinionpanel.com - website dedicated to obtaining consumer's opinions on products they use.

www.floriculture.com - website dedicated to horticulture.

www.cnn.com - homepage for CNN. IVINS apparently read an article titled "Schiavo Parents Back in Federal Court" dated March 24, 2005.

www.amazon.com - homepage for the online retailer Amazon. Ivins searched for a book by HANK NUWER titled "Wrongs of Passage: Fraternities, Sororities, Hazing, and Binge Drinking".

www.thebielsite.com - website dedicated to the bondage fetish. Website appears to be the child of the website named www.bondageineverydaylife.com. Site had pictures of people being handcuffed by the police and individuals handcuffed in non-pornographic scenes.

www.clinsci.org - homepage for the Clinical Science Journal published by the Portland Press.

www.clevelandclinic.org - homepage for the Cleveland Clinic, one of the most respected hospitals in the United States.

ADVERTISING WEBSITES

www.ssk.com - homepage of an advertising agency.

www.insightexpressai.com - homepage of an advertising agency.

www.roidealsdaily.com - web advertising agency that uses the slogan "Convert clicks into cash."

www.rightmedia.net - homepage of an advertising agency.

SEARCH ENGINES

IVINS accessed the following search websites. The search parameters IVINS used at these sites is not known.

www.dogpile.com
www.altavista.com
www.anywho.com
www.whowhere.com
www.geocities.com

IMAGE SEARCHES

IVINS used the Google Images and webshots.com to search for photos of interest to him. Writer accessed these sites and entered the same search parameters as IVINS did. On most occasions, the search results provided thousands of pictures. This being the case, writer randomly selected various photos to view to determine the types of pictures returned from the search. In all cases, there were no adult or child pornography pictures noted.

IVINS performed the following searched webshots.com:

birthday+kidnapping
blindfold
freshman+initiation
band+initiation kidnap+new abduct+new kidnap
ransom
obstacle+course trust+walk
bachelorette+party

Based on these searches, it appears as if IVINS viewed pictures with the following captions or from the following albums on webshots.com:

"Lauren's 21st"
"Val blindfolded on her birthday, shhh it's a surprise"
"She doesn't know anyone else was in the van!"
"Me and aubs kidnapped britta"
"Me and my sis"
"Semester @ Sea"

"Ransom!!"

"sk ransom nite... me, [REDACTED]"

"will you pay to get this girl back?"

[REDACTED] in ransom notes"

IVINS performed the following searches at images.google.com:

soccer+initiation
lacrosse+initiation
pledge and kidnaping
sister and kidnaping
camp kidnaping
pledge+kidnapping
sister+kidnapping
soccer+initiation
walk+the+plank
Jolly+roger+crusie

GOOGLE WEB SEARCHES

IVINS also used google.com to perform searches for information rather than images. IVINS used google.com to make the following searches:

[REDACTED]+hazing (produced several search results, including mention of the Frederick News Post Letter to the Editor submitted in [REDACTED] name)

b6
b7c

kingbadger07 (IVINS AOL screen name, produced no search results)

kappa+kappa+gamma+blindfolded (no search results returned)

Ivins used aolsearch.aol.com to search "pledge+prank". The results of the search are not known.

Dear [redacted]

b6
b7c

I am sending you a Xerox copy of a "letter to the editor" which recently appeared in a local paper. Because of the nature of its subject matter, I thought that you would want to see it. I'd like to encourage you to write a book on Fraternity/sorority hazing. I think that it would benefit many people, especially many students just entering college. At this end, my ^{research} work on "Greek affairs" continues, but is rather slow at this point due to some very exciting scientific developments which recently took place at Fort Detrick. (I'm working on the anthrax project.) Would it be possible for you to ~~send~~ send to me copies of letters from individuals describing sorority hazing events? You could preserve confidentiality by crossing out names of individuals, names of sororities, etc. I'd be happy to pay copying expenses and to make a contribution to your work. How did your lawsuit turn out? - favorably for you, I hope.

I'll continue to send you any ⁱⁿformation which I think you might wish to see. Please take seriously about writing a book. There is no question in my mind that it is a subject which has long been addressing on a national scale, and you are our nation's foremost authority.

Take care & best wishes,

Bruce Ivins

[redacted] other researchers would question why or what [redacted] was doing [redacted] was often successful in [redacted] work, such as work with [redacted] which [redacted] did with IVINS.

[redacted]

IVINS grew and isolated virulent spores for [redacted] as well as handled animals used in challenges by injecting and bleeding the animals. [redacted]

[redacted]

When concerns were raised about the anthrax vaccine in the 1990s, [redacted] recalled [redacted] and IVINS as strong proponents of the vaccine, with [redacted] as the strongest. [redacted] and [redacted] were also concerned with vaccine-related issues. Everyone was scientific in their approach to concerns about the vaccine, going back to the data involved to conduct new rounds of tests, and did not take complaints about the vaccine personally.

According to [redacted] there was downward pressure on the researchers to correct the problems with the vaccine or to create a new vaccine. [redacted] referred to "they" and "them," indicating people outside of USAMRIID who came in to review the research and pushed the researchers to make their work more product oriented. [redacted] thought this pressure originated from the Government Accounting Office (GAO) and Congress.

The change in focus to product development led to internal changes in assignments and work, which [redacted] caused some unhappiness and "a lot of grouching" about it. Researchers were taken off of the work they had been doing to focus on vaccine development. [redacted]

[redacted] explained that the researchers liked being able to work on what interested them, or what they thought was important, and the vaccine problems caused them to shift their focus to delivering a product. [redacted]

[redacted]

According to [redacted] the personnel most upset by the work environment at USAMRIID, particularly their interaction with [redacted] were [redacted] IVINS, and [redacted] perceived all three had the technical expertise to prepare the material used in the 2001 anthrax attacks, [redacted]

[redacted]

Neither [redacted] nor [redacted] had a financial interest in vaccine development. [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] couldnot recall any media inquiries or requests made under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) related to vaccine development or other work conducted at USAMRIID. [redacted] is not aware of anyone having problems with the media, and did not have any issues with the media [redacted]

[Redacted] Night and weekend work was not uncommon for researchers, and [Redacted] identified IVINS as working the longest hours. [Redacted] elaborated that IVINS was there "a lot" as he was focused on his experiments and work.

[Redacted]

[Redacted] signed for a 5L Bio Flow III fermentor from IVINS, who held the original hand receipt.

[Redacted]

[Redacted] The fermentor had been around for a while when [Redacted] began [Redacted] employment at USAMRIID, [Redacted]

[Redacted] IVINS "absolutely" used the fermentor, but [Redacted] did not know what IVINS processed with it. There was a training course for use of the fermentor, but [Redacted] stated it was easy to use, and that someone with no experience could learn how to use the equipment relatively quickly. The fermentor was maintained in laboratory space in [Redacted] a suite used for years for work on the Sterne strain of Ba. [Redacted] recalled one incident in [Redacted] where Sterne "came out" of the hot suite. The incident involved [Redacted] and [Redacted] [Redacted] could not identify.

[REDACTED] never saw one on the hot side, but said the equipment was on wheels and could be moved. Different areas were taken down for decontamination at different times, so equipment would have been moved around in that process, however [REDACTED] does not recall seeing a lyophilizer in any area that was "hot."

[REDACTED] described [REDACTED] as someone who had technical ability to conduct the 2001 anthrax attacks, but [REDACTED] described [REDACTED] more as someone who was "just collecting a paycheck." [REDACTED] would come in, do [REDACTED] work, and leave. [REDACTED] remembered [REDACTED] and probably made use of the showers in the hot suites. [REDACTED] acknowledged that the showers in the hot suite were often used by personnel after physical training and exercise. Access to the showers required both an access card and a PIN.

Social circles at USAMRIID formed around professional lines (technicians or researchers) and military lines, and [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] as part of a "party group." Animosity existed on the part of military personnel at USAMRIID, and [REDACTED] described them as extremely territorial and "blustering." [REDACTED] personally had no issues with the military personnel [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] admitted there were "mainstream rumors" around the Division and stated there was "all kinds of innuendo." [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] as someone who would know the rumors because [REDACTED] had worked at USAMRIID for a long time. [REDACTED]

Since leaving USAMRIID in [REDACTED] has had minimal contact with anyone at the facility. [REDACTED] contacted [REDACTED]

IVINS complained to _____ claiming he had also complained to the commander on a number of occasions about _____ treatment of him. _____ cannot remember IVINS having trouble or issues with anyone other than _____ _____ claimed that _____ stated _____ did not trust IVINS to work on his own material and therefore "kept a tight reign" on IVINS. Although IVINS had previously done his own investigative work and experiments, _____ had IVINS grow up virulent Ba, isolate spores, organize animals for a challenge, adjuvant material, and bleed the animals -- essentially working as _____. It was obvious to _____ that IVINS hated his role and _____ verbally abuse IVINS, stating IVINS suffered for the way he was treated. Other than complaining about his situation, _____ is not aware of IVINS acting out due to his situation, and conditions did not improve for IVINS. _____ said IVINS could have produced the material used in the 2001 anthrax mailings, but is not sure if IVINS could have mailed the letters.

IVINS was very close to _____ whom _____ described as quiet and "kind of vanilla." _____ thought _____ was "definitely in the loop" regarding gossip at USAMRIID. _____ described _____ work as competent, and that _____ does what _____ is told, then goes home.

IVINS did spore production for a lot of people, including _____ _____ a very "heated debate" with _____ and IVINS concerning _____ desire to produce a very large quantity of spores. The purpose of such a large batch would be to use the same material to do complete trials, as there had been some debate about the consistency of the quality and virulence of spores between preparations. _____

On 12/18/2007, [redacted] relayed the following information via telephone:

[redacted] had received an e-mail from BRUCE IVINS that [redacted] thought was weird. The first paragraph focused on IVINS stating that he never lied or mislead the [AMERITHRAX] investigation. In the second paragraph IVINS relayed a conversation he had with [redacted]. According to IVINS, [redacted] told [redacted] of an occasion when [redacted] had placed hot, virulent strains of bacteria into a BSL-2 level clinical laboratory. Additionally, IVINS relayed that at one time [redacted]

[redacted]

IVINS then went on to describe how [redacted] [redacted] thought this email was out of context [redacted] [redacted] also added that his sentences seemed very disjointed.

[redacted]

[redacted] He talked about his possibility of going to jail and that was not easy for him to deal with. It scared and depressed him. He described his brain as being "like Swiss cheese" and he hoped that everyone else told the truth. He said that he doesn't have documents to look up his answers [for the investigator's questions].

[redacted]

[redacted] then talked about how, to some extent, IVINS was always influenced by off the wall stuff. [redacted] provided the example of a magazine that IVINS used to bring to work, called AMERICAN FAMILY [third word [redacted] can't remember]. [redacted] believed it may have been associated with his Right-to-Life stuff, but [redacted] wasn't sure about that. [redacted] did recall that a Minister named [redacted] was associated with the magazine. [redacted] remembered the magazine to have a lot of "right wing propaganda. [redacted] added that IVINS would often relay third hand information without looking into the facts. [redacted] thought that perhaps the magazine was literature that [redacted] had. [redacted] remembered IVINS bringing in this magazine to work [redacted]

[redacted] offered the example of the magazine blasting

Synopsis: To request FBI Laboratory Explosives Unit conduct analysis of evidence submitted to FBI Laboratory on 07/12/2008.

Details: On 07/12/2008, the FBI Washington Field Office conducted a search of the residence of Bruce Edward Ivins, [redacted] [redacted] Frederick, Maryland. During the search, investigators recovered one (1) plastic container containing a powder material. The container was labeled "Alliant Powder 2400, smokeless magnum handgun powder"

SABT [redacted] opened the container and determined that the container was not sealed. The container was approximately 3/4 full of the powder material. The material was grey/black in color.

It is requested that the FBI Laboratory Explosives Unit conduct a physical and chemical analysis of the powder to confirm the identity of the material as well as measure the quantity of the substance.
