FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 06/27/2000

E. Pierce Marshall, Date of Birth, January 12, 1939, was telephonically interviewed concerning his association with Anna Nicole Smith, aka, Vickie Lynn Smith (actress), as it had been alleged that she attempted to hire someone to kill him [Marshall]. SA  identified himself and the purpose of the interview, and Marshall provided the following information:

b6

Marshall resides at 5917 Club Oaks Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone number, (972) 931-0961, and owns a company called, MAROPCO, 7600 W. Tidwell, Suite #800, Houston, Texas, telephone number, (713) 690-4321. MAROPCO was previously owned by his father, Howard Marshall II (Marshall II), but was placed in a family trust subsequent to his death on August 4, 1995.

Marshall knew Anna Nicole Smith as Vickie Lynn Smith and as the woman who had married his father, Marshall II, on June 27, 1994. Marshall first found out about Smith and his father's relationship in the latter part of 1992 or early 1993 when his father told Marshall that he had been romantically involved with a young lady named Vickie Smith.

Marshall had visited his father about twice a week at his father's Houston home, 11100 Meadowick Drive, Houston, Texas and usually stayed with his father for several days during his visit. Marshall had only seen Smith on two occasions while she had been dating his father. On one occasion, in 1993, Marshall's father invited Marshall to have lunch with him and Smith, and on another occasion, in late 1993 or early 1994, when Smith walked into his father's office while Marshall was visiting his father.

Marshall did not find out about his father's marriage to Smith until he was told two weeks later by his father's attorney, Dan Hedges.

Shortly after the wedding, Smith telephoned Marshall and told him she would like to move into Marshall's old bedroom at his father's house. Smith told her he would not mind, however, asked her not to discard any of his old books still in the bedroom. Smith was apparently angered by Marshall's comments.

Even after Smith's marriage to Marshall's father (Marshall II), Marshall still visited his father twice a week for several days at time. Marshall never saw Smith at Marshall II's house. It appeared to Marshall that Smith had moved into his old room at Marshall II's home but did not spend too much time at the house. Marshall II told Marshall that he rarely saw her at the house, and that she spent some of her time in California. Marshall II's caretakers, who live at with Marshall II at his house, verified Marshall II's statement that Smith rarely spent time with him. Marshall II expressed to Marshall that he was very upset at his new wife's (Smith) constant absence from the home.

Marshall II's [redacted] kept a log of Smith's visits to Marshall II's house. According to [redacted] log, Smith had visited Marshall II about a thirty days out of the whole time they had been married, a little over a year. Marshall said that if Smith visited his father for two hours, [redacted] would log that as a day she had come to visit. The last month of Marshall II's life, Smith never came to see him. Smith's last visit to see Marshall II was on July 4, 1995. Marshall II died in August 1995.

Marshall II complained to Marshall that Smith asked for fifty to sixty thousand dollars two times a week. Marshall II accommodate Smith by borrowing money from the Marshall Family Trust of which Marshall was the trustee to give Smith the money she wanted. Marshall II had bought Smith a house in Spring, Texas and listed under the name of, Houston Land Trust.

After Marshall II's death, a series of law suits took place between Marshall and Smith. Smith contended that Marshall II had made her an oral promise to give her half of his estate which is being held in a family trust. Marshall disputed her claim which is the subject of a pending civil suit.

The above civil action received notoriety through the media. Smith had made several comments about the law suit to the press, and, according to Marshall, she and her two attorney's, had launched a negative media attack against Marshall. Marshall sued Smith and her two attorneys. One of Smith's attorneys settled the civil suit out of court while the other attorney lost several million dollars as a result of a jury judgment. Smith's suit is still pending and has been consolidated with the law suit concerning the Marshall Family Trust.

Marshall is the trustee of his family's trust. Marshall's deceased father, E. Howard Marshall, about 89 years old, had married Anna Nicole Smith, aka, Vickie Lynn Marshall, about 32 years old, in 1995. Marshall died the following year, and Smith alleges that Howard Marshall had made her a verbal promise to give her half of his estate. Howard Marshall's estate is protected in a family trust which has an estimated worth of about twenty-five million dollars. Smith and her attorney, Howard Stern, contend that the estate is worth over a billion dollars. Marshall and Smith have been engaged in several law suits in California and Texas since Howard Marshall's death. Smith and Marshall's next court appearance is a trial scheduled for September 2000.

Anna Nicole Smith, aka, Vickie Lynn Marshall, Date of Birth, November 28, 1967, 11923 Hartsok Street, North Hollywood, telephone, (818) 762-7882, was interviewed concerning allegations that she had planned to have Pierce Marshall in Texas killed. Interviewing agents identified themselves and the purpose of the interview, and Smith provided the following information:

After agents identified themselves, Smith immediately asked if the agents presence had anything to do with [redacted] Agents responded that their visit did have to do with [redacted] (notified FBI of above allegations) and allowed Smith to speak about her relationship [redacted]

Smith's relationship [redacted] lasted about three months, from March to June 2000. Smith began by stating she had met [redacted] through [redacted] who Smith had known for about two years. Smith's first meeting with [redacted] was in March 2000 when she met [redacted] and [redacted] at Miceli's, an Italian restaurant in Studio City, California. Smith got along with [redacted] even though the evening ended with [redacted] Smith left prior to the police officers' arrival, however, [redacted] told Smith that the incident was not [redacted] fault. Smith purposely did not return [redacted] telephone calls to her and was concerned that he kept calling her. Smith accused [redacted] while he had access to her house. Smith believes that [redacted] is obsessed with her and may try and harm her since she has stopped seeing him. Smith received several other calls since [redacted] the last ones being about two days ago, June 28 or 29.

Smith admitted to [redacted] on two occasions. The first time was [redacted] at Miceli's Restaurant in March 2000, and the second time was when [redacted]

[redacted] Smith showed agents two carbon copies of checks, one made in the amount of twenty-eight-hundred dollars, and the other in the amount of five-thousand dollars. Both checks reflected the name, [redacted] in the memo portion of the check. The check for twenty-eight-hundred dollars was written on an Bank Of America check, #1524, and dated "7/7/00 (probably meant to be 6/7/00)." The check for five-thousand dollars was written on a Bank Of America check, #1472, and dated, "4/11/2000." The check also indicated, "Loan [redacted]"

After Smith finished describing her relationship with [redacted] agents told her that they were investigating allegations that she had planned to kill Pierce Marshall. Smith began crying and denied ever making such plans and blaming [redacted] for making up the story. Smith then asked if [redacted] had made those allegations about her. SA [redacted] responded that they could not divulge their source of the allegations, and that they were conducting an investigation to verify the allegations.

Smith said she was a party in a civil suit in Texas involving Pierce Marshall and his family's trust. Marshall lives in Texas and is the trustee of the trust. Smith explained that she was married to Marshall's father, Howard Marshall, in 1995. Howard Marshall died about a year later, and she was suing Marshall for money owed to her by the trust. Smith never thought about killing Marshall, and explained that it would not be logical for her to want Marshall killed as the law suit would soon be finished by September 2000. Smith said killing Marshall would not make sense since the trust would still exist. Smith adamantly denied ever contemplating such a crime and believed [redacted] made up the story because he was angry with her for severing their relationship.

re: Murder-for-hire Investigation involving Anna Nicole Smith
file number 166C-LA-223601

Dear Special Agent [REDACTED]

I have reviewed the 302 reports of interview relating to the investigation of a plan by Anna Nicole Smith to kill Pierce Marshall. After reviewing the reports and notes of conversations I had with you during the course of your investigation, I have determined that there is insufficient evidence to establish that there was a murder-for-hire plot by Ms. Smith to kill Pierce Marshall. Based on the evidence presented at this time, the U.S. Attorney's Office is declining prosecution.

Please call at me (213) 894-0334, if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,
