on December 2, 1968, where he was introduced as a member of the BPP movement.

On [REDACTED] reported that HAROLD AVENT, also known as NUNDING, has invited a group of Black Panther Party members from Charlotte, North Carolina, to attend a meeting at Greensboro, North Carolina, on [REDACTED] 1969.

On [REDACTED] reported that a meeting of Greensboro members of the BPP was held at [REDACTED] Greensboro, North Carolina, attended by approximately [REDACTED] and two individuals from Charlotte appeared. These two individuals, JEROME JOHNSON and BEN CHAVIS, actually arrived too late for the meeting but were greeted as brothers by NUNDING and the others.

On [REDACTED] advised that the Afro-American Unity Organization's finances are not known, however, no efforts have been made to gather finances other than the small amounts donated by the members.

On [REDACTED] 1969 [REDACTED] advised that during [REDACTED] 1969, [REDACTED] were held by members of the Afro-American Unity Organization at Charlotte. [REDACTED] have been scheduled until such time as they obtain their charter from the BPP, Oakland, California.

On February 21, 1969, [REDACTED] reported that HAROLD AVENT, reportedly a Field Marshal of the BPP from Greensboro, North Carolina, spoke at a Malcolm X Day Commemoration service at Johnson C. Smith University. During his speech, AVENT was critical of the portraits of white persons hanging on the walls of the auditorium. The people portrayed in these portraits were the founders of the institution, a predominantly Negro college, and AVENT stated the pictures of these white pigs should be taken out and burned.

Re: BLACK PANTHER PARTY

[REDACTED] reported that AVENT had been asked to appear at the University of North Carolina campus at Charlotte on Monday, March 3, 1969, in connection with a protest rally led by BEN CHAVIS. [REDACTED] to protest the ten demands being made against the university officials and to get recognition of a black student organization on the campus. The constitution and demands made on the university follow the ten point program for black student unions as set out in the Black Panther newspaper.

On [REDACTED] reported that at a meeting of the BPP at Greensboro, North Carolina, six individuals from Charlotte, including JEROME JOHNSON and BEN CHAVIS and four others, attended. (u)

The "Charlotte Observer", a daily Charlotte, North Carolina, newspaper, in its issue of March 4, 1969, contained an article which stated in part that about forty (40) Negroes had gathered around the flag pole at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, shouting "Power to the People" and replaced the United States and North Carolina flags with a black flag. The newspaper article identified the chief spokesman for the group as BEN CHAVIS. The article also states that at approximately 2:00 P. M., on March 3, 1969, the black students began taping posters on the Administration Building windows, some of which were denunciations of North Carolina Governor ROBERT SCOTT, such as "Scott is oinking (pig) in the eyes of the people."

During [REDACTED] reported that BEN CHAVIS, Minister of Information for the group at Charlotte, North Carolina, has been observed [REDACTED]

On March 18, 1969, CE T-6, who has frequent contact with the leadership of the BPP National Headquarters, Berkeley, California, advised that [REDACTED] contacted the national headquarters in order that he might purchase a quantity of posters and newspapers. According to CE T-6, [REDACTED] requested 200 copies of the "Black Panther" newspaper and 20 copies of two different posters be shipped to him at [REDACTED] Charlotte, North Carolina. CE T-6 stated that [REDACTED] also gave his telephone number as [REDACTED]

Re: BLACK PANTHER PARTY

[redacted] who was accompanied by another Negro male named [redacted] advised that he did not care to discuss anything with law officers inasmuch as he considered himself to be a Black Panther. When questioned as to his actual membership in the Black Panther Party [redacted] stated that he did not have anything official to prove his membership but that he was in fact a member of the Black Panther Party in his heart. He said that he believed in certain things which he refused to enumerate, but he stated that he was willing to die for these beliefs.

When further questioned concerning background information, [redacted] stated that all background information concerning him could be obtained through contacting EDDIE GEE CLEAVE.

In an effort to establish rapport, [redacted] was offered a cigarette, at which time he refused, stating that he was in training. It was noted that at the time of the contact, [redacted] was wearing a black beret, Army fatigues pants, and black military type jump boots. His hair was worn in a full bush.

On [redacted] 1969, information was received from [redacted] that on May 3, 1969, a group of approximately ten Negro males and females gathered at the intersection of Oaklawn Avenue and Beatties Ford Road, Charlotte, North Carolina, for approximately one and one-half hours where they gave the Black Panther salute with their fists in the air and shouted abuse at the policemen patrolling the area, such as "pig" and "honky", and for the policemen to leave the area. A number of individuals had shoulder weapons, such as rifles and shotguns, and machetes.

On [redacted] 1969, [redacted] Charlotte, North Carolina, advised that on [redacted] the same group of individuals who staged a demonstration at Beatties Ford Road and Oaklawn Avenue, conducted firearms practice near the home of [redacted] Charlotte. This area [redacted] was located by a Special Agent of the FBI and numerous empty .22 caliber rifle casings and 12 gauge shotgun shell casings were present in the area. ✓

It is noted that on May 6, 1969, a Special Agent of the FBI observed BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CHAVIS, JR., and JEROME CLIFTON JOHNSON, along with a group of other persons, milling around the Administration Building at Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, North Carolina. ✓

On [REDACTED], 1969, [REDACTED] reported that [REDACTED] had possibly purchased a number of firearms at local stores in Charlotte. ✓

On [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advised that JEROME JOHNSON had not been successful in establishing an affiliation with the RPP of California. [REDACTED] reported that this delay in obtaining a charter was due to a purge being conducted within the national BPP to get rid of informants and undesirable characters. [REDACTED] stated that the only officers are JEROME JOHNSON, who holds the position of Area Captain, and BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CHAVIS, JR., who has been designated as the Minister of Information. ✓

On May 13, 1969, [REDACTED] stated that there was no charter group of BPP in North Carolina as of that date, however, the group at Charlotte, North Carolina, expects to receive a charter in the near future. ✓

On [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Charlotte, North Carolina, advised that the Afro-American Unity Organization under the leadership of JEROME CLIFTON JOHNSON has planned a rally for Saturday afternoon, May 24, 1969, at the corner of Beatties Ford Road and Oaklawn Avenue in Charlotte. [REDACTED] stated that the reason for the rally was unknown but [REDACTED] advises that JOHNSON hopes for a police confrontation at the time of the rally. JOHNSON and BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CHAVIS, JR., another member of the organization, are scheduled to speak at the rally. ✓

[REDACTED] advised that his information reflects that all members are requested to wear black berets, black shirts.

On May 24, 1969, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], advised that the parking lot of the Pork and Rib Restaurant, Beatties Ford Road and Oaklawn Avenue in Charlotte, had been cleared of vehicles by 11:45 A. M., May 24, 1969, however, the rally, allegedly to be held from 12:00 Noon to 4:00 P. M., did not occur even though several young Negro males dressed in black berets and about 50 other Negro individuals milled about the parking lot until about 4:30 P. M.

[REDACTED] advised that one of the reasons the rally apparently failed was the fact that JEROME CLIFTON JOHNSON was not available to lend his leadership to the group.

[REDACTED]

On [REDACTED] 1969, [REDACTED] advised that the Afro American Unity Organization, which is continuing to attempt to affiliate with the Black Panther Party, plans to hold a public rally in Freedom Park on June 22, 1969, beginning at approximately 3:00 P. M. [REDACTED] stated the purpose of the rally will be to solicit funds from those in attendance to be used for attorney fees and defense of members of the organization who were recently arrested in connection with a raid on the group's headquarters in Charlotte. The source advised that BENJAMIN FAIRSTON, a member of the group, will be in charge of the program, will be assisted by SANDRA McGRUDER, who is believed to be affiliated with the Southern Students Organizing Committee (SSOC).

On [REDACTED] advised that the rally was held at Freedom Park, Charlotte, North Carolina, on Sunday afternoon, June 22, 1969, beginning at approximately 3:00 P. M. The rally started with 18 Negroes, four of them females, all dressed in Black Panther regalia and marching to the speaker's stand in column of twos. As these Negroes marched to the speaker's stand they counted cadence, shouted "Power to the People", periodically giving the Black Power salute.

[REDACTED] stated that BENJAMIN CHAVIS acted as MC during the rally and introduced the speakers. One speaker was VERONICA HAGANS, a member of the Afro American Unity Organization, who spoke for approximately four minutes on the theme of police brutality. JAMES COVINGTON was then introduced as an individual who had recently been released from Federal custody and could speak with authority on police brutality. Thereafter, JOHN LUNSFORD was introduced as representative of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and he also spoke concerning police brutality, and the support of the SDS for the Negro and any other minority race which was being victimized by the police and the capitalistic society in which the people in the United States are presently living.

Following JOHN LUNSFORD's speech GAIL LUNSFORD was introduced as a representative of the SDS and she spoke concerning women's liberation. WORTH KITSON was introduced as a member of the SDS and gave a speech demanding immediate withdrawal of all United States troops in Vietnam, abolishment of the Selective Service System, and support of the Black Brothers in Furtherance of the Workers Revolution.

It is noted that on June 6, 1969, in United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina at Charlotte, North Carolina, Civil Action Number 2490 was filed by GEORGE S. DALY, JR., attorney for the plaintiffs, which is a complaint and motion for temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction. Plaintiffs were listed as BEN CHAVIS and wife JACQUELINE CHAVIS, JAMES COVINGTON, JR., THOMAS COLEMAN, VERONICA HAGANS, Mrs. MENTZIE JOHNSON, CORDELL KENNEDY, MARY SMITH, ART LYNCH, JR., CORNELIUS WATSON and U.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

SOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (SSOC)

On November 1, 1966, a first source advised that the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) was formed on the weekend of April 2-5, 1964, to stimulate activity of Southern Student groups in areas of civil rights, peace, academic freedom, civil liberties, capital punishment, and unemployment. Originally, it was to be a white counterpart of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). It has agreed to work with similar interested groups such as SNCC and Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF). SSOC is a fraternal affiliate of the SDS.

Beginning in the Fall of 1966, SSOC became a membership organization and embarked on a campaign to form local chapters on various college campuses throughout the South. SSOC publishes, October through May each year, a publication, "New South Student," which according to the above source has increasingly espoused and defended the pro-Communist and anti-United States position on domestic and foreign policy.

On July 2, 1968, a second source advised that SSOC continues to be headquartered at 1703 Portland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, and continues to defend and espouse the pro-Communist and anti-United States position with particular emphasis on attacking United States policy in Vietnam and emphasis on attacking the Selective Service system. Source two noted that SSOC Chairman Thomas N. Gardner in the Summer of 1967 traveled to Prague, Czechoslovakia, where he met with representatives of the National Liberation Front (NLF) and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV), and that SSOC staff members Bruce Smith and Alan Levin traveled to Cuba in the Summer of 1967 and February, 1968, respectively.

By letter dated April 26, 1968, on SSOC letterhead mailed to the general SSOC membership over the signature of Mike Welch, Executive Secretary of SSOC, it was announced that as a step toward close relations with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and better communications with the movement nationally, SSOC and SDS have worked out an exchange of the "New South Student" and the "New Left Notes," and that SDS and SSOC were exchanging contact lists of their respective memberships for this exchange.

The May, 1968, issue of "New South Student" indicates that the SSOC mailing address is P. O. Box 6403, Nashville, Tennessee, 37212, Telephone Number 615-291-3537, and the mast-head described the organization as "An association of young concerned Southerners dedicated to social change," as taken from the preamble of the SSOC constitution.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF);
"THE SOUTHERN PATRIOT" (SP)

An article in the December, 1967, issue of "The Southern Patriot" (SP) commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the publication with that issue recites the following:

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) was organized in 1938: SP, started in 1942 as the publication of SCHW, was taken over by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), in the late 1940's when SCHW went out of existence. SCEF, originally the "educational wing" of SCHW, continued as an independent organization. For almost two decades, concern of SCHW and SCEF was with racial segregation and oppression of black people. In 1964, SCEF recognized that the legal back of segregation had been broken and economic and political gains were necessary if Southern life was to change. In the past few years, SCEF has also supported battles for academic freedom and the Southern movement for world peace.

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) was cited as a Communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. House Report 592, June 12, 1947. In the same house report, "The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SCHW.

The September, 1967, issue of SP refers to SCEF as a "community of organizers and writers" stating its work is centered in organizing the poor in Appalachia for political and economic power, helping white people in the Deep South find a common cause with black people, helping local groups organize action for peace and working for abolition of the "House Un-American Activities Committee."

The Masthead of SP in its April, 1968, issue states "The Southern Conference is dedicated to ending racism, poverty, and other injustices in the South; it opposes war as an instrument of national policy."

Listed in the Masthead are SCEF officers consisting of eight executive committee members, four executive staff members

headed by Carl and Anne Braden, five office staff members and fourteen field staff members and two "Eastern Representatives."

Mrs. Alberta Ahearn, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP), Louisville, Kentucky, testified on December 11 and 13, 1954, in Jefferson County, Kentucky Criminal Court in a State sedition prosecution against Carl James Braden. She identified Carl James Braden and his wife, Anne McCarty Braden, as having been known to her as members of CP from January, 1951, to December, 1954.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that Claude Lightfoot, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the CP in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the CP has some indirect influence in SCEF.

A second source, familiar with some phases of CP activity in the New Orleans area, advised on June 3, 1966, that during the time that the SCHW was in existence, members of the CP were members of and worked actively in the SCHW; however, since the formation of the SCEF, CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization because it has gone along with the CP on certain issues, particularly on the racial issue.

A third source advised on May 25, 1965, that George Meyers, a CP functionary, expressed great admiration for Carl and Anne Braden and SCEF, which they head. He said SCEF is the best organization in the South as far as doing effective work is concerned and that they have a better idea of what they are doing, where they are heading, and they influence other organizations for the better.

The second source also advised on June 3, 1966, that many people who are officials and supporters of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means Communists.

The April, 1968, issue of SP states that the editorial and business offices of SCIF, publishers of SP, are at 3210 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky; office of publication, 150 Tenth Avenue, North Nashville, Tennessee; Eastern office, Suite 412, 799 Broadway, New York, New York.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SNCC

The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, is a nonmembership organization, which was born out of the sit-in movement that erupted across the South beginning in 1960.

Today SNCC identifies itself as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

According to SNCC, the year 1967 marked a historic milestone in the struggle for the liberation of black people in the United States and the year that revolutionaries throughout the world began to understand more fully the impact of the black movement. SNCC declared that "liberation will come only when there is final destruction of this mad octopus - the capitalistic system of the United States with all its life-sucking tentacles of exploitation and racism that choke the people of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The realities of black life, together with the recognition instilled in SNCC workers forced its members to further popularize the legitimacy of self-defense and rebellions when oppression became too great."

From May, 1966, until May, 1967, Stokely Carmichael was National Chairman of SNCC. As of July, 1968, Carmichael resided in Washington, D. C., where he was affiliated with SNCC and active as temporary chairman of a black coalition group. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced by Hubert Geroid Brown, commonly known as H. Rap Brown, who served until June, 1968.

In June, 1968, at the Staff and Central Committee meeting of SNCC held in Atlanta, Georgia, it was decided to restructure the organization by equalization of responsibility by creating ten deputy or vice chairmanships. The primary purpose for this change is to take law enforcement pressure off any single individual.

HEROLD AVANT, also known as Reddick, has appeared on A & T State University Campus with ERIC PATRICK BROWN. [REDACTED] said AVANT is supposed to be a member of the Black Panther Party and had come from New York or New Jersey with ERIC BROWN upon BROWN's return to A & T State University after the Christmas vacation.

[REDACTED] had furnished [REDACTED] with a copy of a poster which had appeared on A & T State University bulletin boards urging support of ERIC BROWN in his opposition to having been suspended from A & T State University.

[REDACTED] stated that he had been suspended because of his disruptive conduct and disorderly activity on the campus shortly before the Christmas holiday. BROWN had led a group of eight or ten other Negro students, and they had done considerable damage in the two dining halls at the school. They had broken up dishes, turned over tables, etc., and for this disorderly conduct, [REDACTED]

Upon his return to A & T State University after the Christmas holidays, BROWN had brought along HAROLD AVANT, and these posters had appeared on the bulletin boards.

[REDACTED] BROWN was on the poster and then an appeal to the students to come to BROWN's aid in his fight against suspension.

[REDACTED] that a hearing had been held, and BROWN has been re-instated at A & T State University. BROWN had also asked for use of the auditorium in the Student Union Building for AVANT to speak to the student body.

[REDACTED] said, however, that he understood AVANT had gone into one of the dormitories and talked with the students.

[REDACTED] further had been advised by [REDACTED] a Negro active in anti-poverty work in Greensboro, North Carolina, that AVANT is a member of the Black Panthers, and that [REDACTED] had seen AVANT hanging around the Carolina Power and Light office, at 914 1/2 Gerrell Street, Greensboro, North Carolina. [REDACTED] had told [REDACTED] that he was quite concerned about AVANT and his activities in the vicinity of A & T State University.

On January 15, 1969, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised ERIC BROWN and AVANT have been seen by him wearing Black Panther buttons on their lapels and also he has seen two or three other students at A & T State University and a couple of girls from Bennett College who are wearing such buttons. [REDACTED] said AVANT is not living on campus but apparently is staying somewhere nearby and has been observed a number of occasions on the campus. He described AVANT as a Negro male, about 6 feet 1 inch tall, weighing 230 pounds, an estimated age of 26 to 27, with a large head and his head is completely covered by a big full Afro-bush type haircut and beard. He said AVANT's complexion is medium dark, and he understood that AVANT was either from New Jersey or New York; and the impression that [REDACTED] had was that perhaps he was some sort of organizer for the Black Panthers who would go into an area and stay for a short time and then move on. He stated he did not know where AVANT was staying in Greensboro, but he claimed that ERIC BROWN has Room 1045 in Scott Hall at A & T State University.

On January 23, 1969, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were arrested by Special Agents of the FBI at John F. Kennedy Airport, New York.

At the time of their arrest, [REDACTED] had in his possession an attache case which contained numerous notes and other materials. Also contained in a separate section of the attache case appeared a list of documents with a handwritten "Project #3" printed at the top of each document. Included, among other documents, was a "Fact Sheet on the Case of Bro. Eric Brown", which is set forth hereafter:

"This statement is being issued to give the students the fact involved in the case of Bro. Eric B. Brown.

"On Monday night December 2, 1968, following the speech of Bro. Calvin C. Matthews, President of S. G. A., announced that as of 7:00 A.M. Wednesday, December 11, 1968, a boycott of all classes would go into effect. The boycott was called to give students ample time to draw up a list of demands that would be given to the administration on Friday, December 13, 1968.

"On Thursday, December 12, 1968, between 4:00 P.M. and 4:30 P.M. a spontaneous disturbance erupted in Murphy Hall. During the disturbance trays of food were thrown on the floor and tables and chairs were over turned. After devastating Murphy Hall, the frustrated students then proceeded to Brown Hall around 4:45 P.M., whereupon they commenced to turn over trays tables and chairs there too.

"At the time of the first incident, it must be made quite clear, that Bro. Eric P. Brown was in a conference with Bro. Willie Drake, Vice President of S. G. A. The conference lasted from around 3:50 P.M. to 4:30 P.M. Upon leaving Bro. Drake, Bro Brown heard the news of the disruptive actions taken by students in Murphy Hall. He immediately proceeded to Murphy Hall to witness the incidents. With things having subsided at Murphy Hall, Bro. Brown headed for Brown Hall to eat dinner.

"While standing in line at Brown Hall, the emotional charged students from Murphy Hall came into Brown Hall and began to disrupt the eating facilities there.

"At that point, Bro. Calvin C. Matthews entered Brown Hall and proceeded across the room and singled out one brother who had thrown his tray on the floor. He then threw a series of blows to the brother (unknown). Bro. Brown along with some other students immediately sought to restrain Bro. Matthews. Bro. Matthews was finally removed from the dining hall. (U)

"That night about 7:00 P.M., a meeting was called to give a progress report on the boycott.

"Prior to the progress report, Bro. Brown, along with some other brothers, tried to talk to Brother Matthews to warn him that such incidents would cause student divisions. Unfortunately, Brother Matthews was emotionally upset at that time. The brothers could not come to an agreement.

"When Matthews addressed the student rally that evening, citing the cafeteria incident, he asked for all radicals to stand. After no one stood Brother Brown attempted to get the floor. He was pointed out as a 'radical' at that time.

"On Friday, Dec. 13th Bro. Brown received the following letter:

"Dear Mr. Brown

"You have been charged with a very serious infraction of regulations and standards of the University. Specifically, you are charged with defacing property of the University and disorderly conduct. Especially is your case a very serious one because of a deliberateness taken on your part to insist others to follow your actions. You have been summoned to this office for a hearing to face these charges and to receive judgment as the facts in the case dictate.

"Very Sincerely yours

J. E. Marshall
Dean of Student Affairs

On [REDACTED] advised that on [REDACTED] 1969, a meeting of the BPP was held [REDACTED] Greensboro, North Carolina. The meeting was attended by [REDACTED] persons and the instructor was HAROLD AVANT, who identified himself as a Section Chief and teacher of the BPP. This was one of a group of weekly training sessions to be presented for new BPP members. ERIC BROWN was identified as the Captain for the Greensboro, North Carolina, area and ROBERT [REDACTED] was designated as First Lieutenant. (u)

According to [REDACTED] the regular weekly meetings of the BPP in Greensboro continued with about the same number of persons present during [REDACTED] 1969. (u)

On April 21, 1969, CE T-6 reported that an individual identifying himself as [REDACTED] Greensboro, North Carolina, contacted the BPP National Headquarters, Berkeley, California, and was advised by persons at the national headquarters that he has no authority at this time to organize a BPP chapter. [REDACTED] indicated that he and another BPP brother whom he did not name, had traveled to North Carolina from New York, specifically to organize the North Carolina chapter of the BPP. As of May 21, 1969, [REDACTED] were not aware of any charter being issued to the BPP in North Carolina.

On [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] ERIC BROWN, who calls himself the Area Captain for the BPP, in North Carolina, he has determined that BROWN considers approximately 35 people in Greensboro to be members of the BPP.

NEVER, NEVER SURRENDER PROTHERS
POWER TO YOU

All Panthers in training (P.I.T.) are required to learn all Panther policy and program in a six week period, before moving on to the next stage. You must discipline yourselves to concentrate because revolution is not a party or a joke. There will be no revolution without a revolutionary party. The Black Panther Party is truly a revolutionary party. We must work very hard. Please feel free to ask about anything you don't understand and don't be afraid to challenge your instructor on any point.

You must memorize and understand the TEH POINT PROGRAM.
You must memorize and understand the POLITICAL DEFINITIONS.
You must memorize and understand the 3 RULES OF DISCIPLINE & 8 POINTS OF ATTENTION.
You must obtain or liberate a copy of CHAIRMAN MAO TSE-TUNG QUOTATION (REDBOOK).
You must obtain or liberate a PERET.

During the six week training period you will be put through test and given special assignments to test your fiber. You will be expected to do some community work and help get together a community organizational chart. We must always have the respect of the community. A Panther must always carry him self like a gentleman. We are the peoples heroes and the peoples liberation force. The first army that black people have ever had.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE. POWER TO BLACK PEOPLE. POWER TO THE VANGUARD MOVEMENT

NORTH CAROLINA A&T STATE UNIVERSITY
Greensboro

On Thursday night, March 13, 1969, the Greensboro police, without regard to humane standards of safety, carelessly and recklessly fired upon students at this university, wounding by gunshot three students and a visitor to our campus from the Greensboro community. The Greensboro police purposely sought out and illegally arrested students at our university and members of the black community while, at the same time, all cars containing blacks were stopped, machine guns pointed at the passengers, and illegally searched as cars containing whites were, in the same setting, re-routed, not stopped, and not searched. The Greensboro police did flagrantly intrude upon our campus, firing at students, and endangering the safety of all students at this university.

It is, therefore, that we, the undersigned, as students at this university, do strongly denounce the actions of the Greensboro police on the night stated herein, and very strongly demand that the administration at this university release a PUBLIC STATEMENT denouncing the actions of the Greensboro police and explain:

- (a) the relationship which the administration has with the Greensboro police department;
- (b) why members of the Greensboro police department were on the campus proper Tuesday, March 12, through Friday, March 14, 1969;
- (c) whether or not the administration invited the Greensboro police upon our campus proper;
- (d) whether or not the administration sanctioned the presence of the Greensboro police upon our campus proper;
- (e) why the administration has thus far remained silent on the actions of the Greensboro police and the wounding of our fellow students and the brother from the Greensboro community by Greensboro police on the night stated herein.

THIS PUBLIC STATEMENT BY THE ADMINISTRATION MUST BE RELEASED NO LATER THAN MONDAY MARCH 24, 1969 by 4:00 P.M.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE
(SNCC)

The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia, is a nonmembership organization, which was born out of the sit-in movement that erupted across the South beginning in 1960.

Today, SNCC identifies itself as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

According to SNCC, the year 1967 marked a historic milestone in the struggle for the liberation of black people in the United States and the year that revolutionaries throughout the world began to understand more fully the impact of the black movement. SNCC declared that "liberation will come only when there is final destruction of this mad octopus - the capitalistic system of the United States with all its life-sucking tentacles of exploitation and racism that choke the people of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The realities of black life, together with the recognition instilled in SNCC workers forced its members to further popularize the legitimacy of self-defense and rebellions when oppression became too great."

From May, 1966, until May, 1967, Stokely Carmichael was National Chairman of SNCC. As of July, 1968, Carmichael resided in Washington, D. C., where he was affiliated with SNCC and active as temporary chairman of a black coalition group. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced by Hubert Geroid Brown, commonly known as H. Rap Brown, who served until June, 1968.

In June, 1968, at the Staff and Central Committee meeting of SNCC held in Atlanta, Georgia, it was decided to restructure the organization by equalization of responsibility by creating ten deputy or vice chairmanships. The primary purpose for this change is to take law enforcement pressure off any single individual.

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY, INC. (OAAU)

On June, 28, 1964, Malcolm X Little, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Inc. (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all-Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Streets, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by Malcolm X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of Malcolm X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "Human Rights," while the initial objective is to "inter-nationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. Little condemned the nonviolent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes in education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

Malcolm X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, while addressing an OAAU rally at the Audubon Ballroom, New York City.

On April 18, 1965, a source advised that on March 26, 1965, the OAAU filed a Certificate of Incorporation with the Department of State, State of New York, Albany, New York, and hereafter the organization's true name would be Organization of Afro-American Unity, Incorporated.

On February 23, 1966, a second source advised that the president and head of the OAAU is Ella Collins, a half-sister of the late Malcolm X who resides in the Harlem Section of New York City.

On May 8, 1967, the first source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU is located at 224 West 130th Street, New York, New York, which is the residence of Ella Collins.

with a protest rally led by BEN CHAVIS. [REDACTED] to protest the ten demands being made against the university officials and to get recognition of a black student organization on the campus. The constitution and demands made on the university follow the ten-point program for black student unions as set out in the Black Panther newspaper.)

During [REDACTED] reported that BEN CHAVIS, Minister of Information for the group at Charlotte, North Carolina, has been observed [REDACTED]

On [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advised that JEROME JOHNSON had not been successful in establishing an affiliation with the BPP of California. [REDACTED] reported that this delay in obtaining a charter was due to a purge being conducted within the national BPP to get rid of informants and undesirable characters. [REDACTED] stated that the only officers are JEROME JOHNSON, who holds the position of Area Captain, and BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CHAVIS, JR., who has been designated as the Minister of Information.

[REDACTED] advised that the rally was held at Freedom Park, Charlotte, North Carolina, on Sunday afternoon, June 22, 1969, beginning at approximately 3:00 P. M. The rally started with 18 Negroes, four of them females, all dressed in Black Panther regalia and marching to the speaker's stand in columns of twos. As these Negroes marched to the speaker's stand they counted cadence, shouted "Power to the People", periodically giving the Black Power salute.

[REDACTED] stated that BENJAMIN CHAVIS acted as MC during the rally and introduced the speakers. One speaker was VERONICA HAGANS, a member of the Organization of Afro-American Unity, who spoke for approximately four minutes on the theme of police brutality. JAMES COVINGTON was then introduced as an individual who had recently been released from Federal custody and could speak with authority on police brutality. Thereafter, JOHN LUNSFORD was introduced as a representative of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and he also spoke concerning police brutality, and the support of the SDS for the Negro and any other minority race which was being victimized by the police.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF);
"THE SOUTHERN PATRIOT" (SP)

An article in the December, 1967, issue of "The Southern Patriot" (SP) commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the publication with that issue recites the following:

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) was organized in 1938: SP, started in 1942 as the publication of SCHW, was taken over by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), in the late 1940's when SCHW went out of existence. SCEF, originally the "educational wing" of SCHW, continued as an independent organization. For almost two decades, concern of SCHW and SCEF was with racial segregation and oppression of black people. In 1964, SCEF recognized that the legal back of segregation had been broken and economic and political gains were necessary if Southern life was to change. In the past few years, SCEF has also supported battles for academic freedom and the Southern movement for world peace.

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) was cited as a Communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947. In the same house report, "The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SCHW.

The September, 1967, issue of SP refers to SCEF as a "community of organizers and writers" stating its work is centered in organizing the poor in Appalachia for political and economic power, helping white people in the Deep South find a common cause with black people, helping local groups organize action for peace and working for abolition of the "House Un-American Activities Committee."

The Masthead of SP in its April, 1968, issue states "The Southern Conference is dedicated to ending racism, poverty, and other injustices in the South; it opposes war as an instrument of national policy."

Listed in the Masthead are SCEF officers consisting of eight executive committee members, four executive staff members

APPENDIXSOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (SSOC)

On November 1, 1966, a first source advised that the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) was formed on the weekend of April 3-5, 1964, to stimulate activity of Southern Student groups in areas of civil rights, peace, academic freedom, civil liberties, capital punishment, and unemployment. Originally, it was to be a white counterpart of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). It has agreed to work with similar interested groups such as SNCC and Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF). SSOC is a fraternal affiliate of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

Beginning in the Fall of 1966, SSOC became a membership organization and embarked on a campaign to form local chapters on various college campuses throughout the South. SSOC publishes, October through May each year, a publication, "New South Student," which according to the above source has increasingly espoused and defended the pro-Communist and anti-United States position on domestic and foreign policy.

On July 2, 1968, a second source advised that SSOC continues to be headquartered at 1703 Portland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, and continues to defend and espouse the pro-Communist and anti-United States position with particular emphasis on attacking United States policy in Vietnam and emphasis on attacking the Selective Service System. Source Two noted that SSOC Chairman Thomas N. Gardner in the Summer of 1967 traveled to Prague, Czechoslovakia, where he met with representatives of the National Liberation Front (NLF) and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV), and that SSOC staff members Bruce Smith and Alan Levin traveled to Cuba in the Summer of 1967 and February, 1968, respectively.

By letter dated April 26, 1968, on SSOC letterhead mailed to the general SSOC membership over the signature of Mike Welch, executive Secretary of SSOC, it was announced that as a step toward close relations with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and better communications with the "New South Student" and the "New Left Notes," and that SDS and SSOC were exchanging contact lists of their respective memberships for this exchange.

The May, 1968, issue of "New South Student" indicates that the SSOC mailing address is P O Box 6403, Nashville, Tennessee, 37212, Telephone Number 615-291-3537, and the mast-head described the organization as "An association of young concerned Southerners dedicated to social change," as taken from the preamble of the SSOC constitution.

[REDACTED] NUNDING insisted that NEWTON was unjustly shot and said that it was a typical example of justice that Negroes have put up with when they are dealing with white courts. NUNDING wanted those present to read the following books: (U)

"Killer of the Dream," written by L. SMITH

"Black Rage," written by WILLIAM GREER and PRICE COBB (U)

NUNDING also discussed the fact that Negroes are taken advantage of by white people when they get a decent job. NUNDING listed the executives of the BPP as follows: (U)

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

Minister of Defense
Minister of Information
Prime Minister
Chairman

HUEY P. NEWTON
ELDRIDGE CLEAVER
STOKELY CARMICHAEL
BOBBY SEALE

NUNDING said that the main offices of the BPP were located at 4421 Grove Street, Oakland, California, mailing address Post Office Box 8641, Emeryville Branch, Oakland, California. The meeting was adjourned in the usual procedure which is to stand and give the pledge to the Black Panther Flag, and then sing the Black Panther Song. There were two individuals from Charlotte, North Carolina, at this meeting identified as JEROME JOHNSON and BEN CHAVIS. These two actually arrived too late but were greeted as Black Panther Brothers by NUNDING and the others.

During the evening, [REDACTED], however, NELSON JOHNSON sat in the kitchen with them but would not bring them into the Panther meeting. (41)

[REDACTED] Most of the discussion at this meeting concerned the trip ERIC BROWN and NUNDING had taken to the Duke University campus during the period of racial violence. NUNDING said that the Negroes had made progress by the revolt against the administration and had photographs showing white policemen spraying tear gas on the Negro students.

On [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. RITA BYRD was identified as the Secretary of the BPP group in Greensboro, and the meeting was more or less a rehash of what had been discussed before by NUNDING.

On [REDACTED] reported that a meeting was held at the Hayes Taylor YMCA sponsored by members of the BPP with WALTER BRAME and NELSON JOHNSON, leaders in the BPP, running the meeting. None of the white members of the Redevelopment Commission showed up, and one Negro member was in attendance for a short time. According to [REDACTED] BRAME is pushing for action concerning housing problems by the Redevelopment Commission to show that he is taking some activity on the part of Negroes in Greensboro.

On [REDACTED] advised that the meeting of Black Militants was held in Greensboro led by WALTER BRAME, a member of the BPP, urging everyone to support CLAUDE BARNES, another member of the BPP who was refused permission by school officials to run for student body office. (4) meeting because NELSON JOHNSON kept interrupting and injecting militant talk which kept the students agitated although there were a number of responsible Negro citizens at the meeting. (1)

[REDACTED] there were three new BPP organizers in Greensboro who have recently come to Greensboro from Connecticut. They are JOHN JOHNSON, also known as, KATARA, JOSE GONZALVEZ, and BRAD (Last Name Unknown). GONZALVEZ and BRAD are from Bridgeport, Connecticut. These three individuals are in Greensboro to try to reorganize the BPP and build it up to a really strong organization. They are extremely militant. (1)

On May 22, 1969, [REDACTED] reported that on May 21, 1969, violence erupted at Dudley High School, Greensboro, which included rock throwing, and the police drove the students away from the building. NELSON JOHNSON was one of the BPP members present during this demonstration. The meeting was held in Holland Bowl on the A&T campus with JOHNSON and CALVIN MATTHEWS, the President of the A&T student body, the principal speakers. JOHNSON gave a very fiery speech encouraging all the young people to stick together for police, whom he referred to as "Pigs," had taken over the society and were holding them in bondage like slavery. He said that the "Pigs" were taking over the complete control of the Negro community by killing Negro leaders who were trying to fight for their people. JOHNSON urged all the Negroes to fight for their rights even if it meant death because something had to be done. CALVIN MATTHEWS then spoke and asked all the students who were willing to die to come to Scott Hall that night, May 22, 1969, with the weapons of their choice, and for the ones who were not willing to stand up for their rights, to stay at home and go into hiding because the only way that the situation could be resolved was to fight back. MATTHEWS asked everyone to come to Scott Hall by 8:00 PM and said that the ones who were interested in being there should be there before 8:00 PM because the curfew was going into effect at that time. BLACK PANTHER PARTY~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968 contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.
