b7C
b7D

[REDACTED] stated that he had not been present at the BARBARA residence on November 14, 1957.

b7D

[REDACTED] stated that he was acquainted with only a few of the local individuals who were present at the BARBARA home on November 14, 1957, meeting at BARBARA's Apalachin residence.

b7D

[REDACTED] denied any acquaintance or association with CARMINE GALANTE. He stated, however, that he was familiar with GALANTE's name and photograph from the great amount of newspaper publicity given to him when he was jailed in the Broome County Jail in 1956, on a traffic charge and subsequently, when he was connected with other individuals who were in attendance at the meeting at BARBARA's on November 14, 1957.

b7D

[REDACTED] he did not know GALANTE by that name or any other name, and that he has never had any associations or dealings with him. [REDACTED] denied having any dealings with the Latamer Shipping Company at New York City. He stated that he had never heard of the Latamer Shipping Company, nor was he acquainted with anyone connected with this company.

IV CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

CONFIDENTIAL

[REDACTED]

From information obtained by the Albany Office in connection with the notes taken from the person of the late SALVATORE TORNABE [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED], mentioning a get-together with LEO, it is reasonable to assume that the subject was among those in attendance at this meeting since it has been reported from several sources that he was there and managed to evade detection by the police. It is also to be noted that an additional note found in TORNABE's possession mentioned the name ACQUA-VELVA, which could be assumed to be a phoenetic variation of the then current alias used by the subject, ACQUAVELA.
