with GALANTE in 1930, at the time of GALANTE's arrest for an attempted holdup. He stated that two other individuals were also involved in this holdup, and GALANTE stayed behind and shot it out with arresting officers, permitting the other two individuals to escape. He stated that from his experience with GALANTE at this time and the information he has learned since then, he considers GALANTE to be a vicious killer with no emotions whatsoever. He added that since GALANTE's involvement in the murder of CARLO TRESKA and the fact that he refused to talk concerning this, he began his rise in the criminal underworld to where he now occupies the position of a trusted lieutenant.

He stated that GALANTE is the type who would be given such an assignment as the murder of ALBERT ANASTASIA, which was committed in October, 1957. He based this opinion on the fact that no matter what illegal activities GALANTE might be caught in or charged with, he has the reputation of not talking.

IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT GALANTE IS KNOWN TO HAVE CARRIED FIREARMS IN THE PAST, TO HAVE SHOT AT LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ATTEMPTING TO APPREHEND HIM, AND IN VIEW OF HIS LONG CRIMINAL RECORD FOR ASSAULT AND ROBBERY, HE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND EXTREMELY DANGEROUS.

[redacted] furnished considerable information during the period 3/28/58 to 4/3/58, concerning the occupants of Suite 10A, Alrae Hotel, 37 East 64th St., NYC. Some of this information has been set out in the details of this report, appropriately paraphrased, however, the following information is being set forth for the Bureau's information and for future evaluation. Where the identities of the individuals concerned are known, such will be noted in parenthesis. It is also to be noted that comments made by the agent concerning this information, are based on personal knowledge of the investigation and are conjectures and opinions on his part.

Unsub (believed to be the subject) discussed on the telephone with an unknown person, the condition of the children. This conversation indicated he was probably talking to his wife. Later this individual advised another person in the room that the woman and the kids were moving out of the hotel to some other location. Mention was further made that [redacted] brother-in-law died and [redacted] closed the barber shop to go see him. It was mentioned that [redacted] had moved the above mentioned woman and kids.

Comment: [redacted] mentioned above may be identical to [redacted] who has been reportedly living with the subject as his wife.

Unsub (believed to be subject) stated that they should try to get the little guy at the bar and tell him b7C { In another phone conversation, Unsub (subject) advised he might see her later at ██████████, accompanied by ██████████. From comments made, it appeared that this woman had apparently taken a walk with "██████████"

b7C { In another phone conversation, Unsub (subject) stated he and ██████████ would probably go to ██████████ and eat and to contact ██████████ and see if ██████████ had the letter and find out what he, ██████████ did with the old letter, and to obtain it.

b7C { In another phone conversation, unsubs was called by ██████████ to which he inquired if ██████████ had seen ██████████. ██████████ was then given the address of the Alrae Hotel and told to come on over. A short time later, an individual entered the room. He was greeted as ██████████ who remarked "Your sister is a busy girl." A conversation was later heard indicating that the individuals were going to eat at the L'Amrique Restaurant at Second Ave. and 54th St. One of the individuals asked for the little guys phone number, which was repeated to be Evergreen 4-8463. Inquiry was made to determine if ██████████ had the car and the box, and that ██████████ wanted to meet him at ██████████ place. ██████████

CARDINE GALANTE

Reference is made to Bureau Letter to New York dated November 27, 1957.

Referenced letter furnished all field offices with instructions concerning administration of the Top Hoodlum Program. All offices were instructed to forward photographs of top hoodlums to the New York Office. Since that time, the New York Office has been forwarding copies of photographs of top hoodlums.

The purpose of this memorandum is to channelize photographs of top hoodlums submitted by the New York Office into the individual case files. The photographs will be detached from the New York airtel and filed in the individual case files under cover of a copy of this memorandum without indexing.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that approval be granted for preparation of 250 copies of this memorandum to be used in filing photographs of top hoodlums.

The alleged meeting of hoodlums at Apalachin, New York, 11/14/57, occurred shortly after Galante and Bonanno returned to the U.S. Bonanno was in attendance and was confronted and identified by the police at Apalachin, while Bonanno was trying to avoid confrontation by hiding in a corn field. The Bureau had received allegations from several sources that Galante was also present at Apalachin but evaded the police. Notes found on the person of the late Salvatore Tornabe at Apalachin indicated that a few days prior to the meeting, Tornabe was to have gotten in touch by telephone with Galante at Barbara's home in Apalachin, where the meeting was held. It has been a supposition that it may have been more than a coincidence that the gathering at Apalachin occurred a short while after the
