FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Sacramento, California

June 14, 1968

On June 14, 1968, Kern County District Attorney's Office, Entersfield, California, advised as follows:

He has been advised by Jerry Cohen, the attorney for the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee (UFWOC), AFL = CIO, 102 Albany Street, Delano, California, who resides at 1731 Quiency, Delano, to the effect that he had received information concerning a possible threat against the President of the United States. Hr. Cohen stated that on or about June 9, 1968, during the Kennedy menorial march held at Delano, one Juan Martinez was over-heard to make a statement that Censer Chawez was "going down soon" and that Chawez and President Johnson "are the only two left and they would be gotten." Mr. Chawez is the director of UFWOC. These statements by Martinez were reportedly overheard by Porferio Borga Montion, who resides at the Pete Valasco Camp in Richgrowe, California, and Al Wasquez, who can be contacted through UFWOC.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director Wederal Bureau of Investigation Ninth and Fennsylvania Avenues, N.W., Washington 25, District of Columbia

Dear Mr. Hoover:

When I was a teenager at East Saint Louis Senior High School in East Saint Louis, Illinois between the years of 1942 to January 1945, I on my own with my own common sense reported to the branch office of the F. B. I. at the East St. Louis, Illinois U. S. Fost Office building about the Nazi headquarters there in the area at a home on Nathlie Street. I was later told they moved to the Belleville area.

Before going, I assured the men that those attending were not planning to overthrow their government (I mean our good old U.S.A.. I went and attended the function. It was on a Sunday. There was no discussion of any kind from anyone there, or appeches made to overthrow the U.S. government.

Now, I want to report to you personally that Cesar Chavez and his so-called union want to overthrow our government through revolutionary changes. Last year I had to hear with my own ears from his communist cronies yelling into the vineyard from the road when we take over, the land will be ours".

Please investigate this man and his organization, and stop his overthrow of our American Flag with our government.

I also went to know whether the John Birch Society is a good organization to join. Please answer.

105-157123-2

Also lest week, one of my employees brought me a circular, which I vital try to piece together again. After I read it and gave it back to him, he tore it up in my presence. I read that farmers were "exploiting" employees and getting rich. When the word exploit is used, that means communists at work! If you desire to contact me, please telephone my home at the number. If you have some bureau man contact me, please tell him to contact my home first before coming to see me. I'd rather meet him in Indio at the office there. I have been trying for many weeks to contact the office, but was unsuccessful. No one enswered the phone in Indio.

I remain.

For the past several years CESAR CHAVEZ and the United Farm Workers Organization Committee (UFWOC) AFL-CIO, have been attempting to organize the farm laborers who worked in the grape harvest in the Coachella Valley as well as the Delano, California area. The grape growers have resisted such organization.

was extremely concerned that CESAR CHAVEZ was a Nazi and he referred to similarities in statements attributed to CHAVEZ in the press and a book entitled, "Under Cover", written by JOHN RAY CARLSON in 1943. He also referred to material set out in the 1967 edition of the publication by the California Un-American Activities Committee.

dangerous person as he felt CHAVEZ wanted to overthrow the government through revolutionary means.
was asked if he had any specific or first hand knowledge of this and he stated that his conclusions were entirely based on what he had read in the press and the action taken by the Union in their attempt to organize the farm workers.

RE: PROPOSED COMMEMORATION PROGRAM
SPONSORED BY CESAR CHAVEZ FARM WORKERS ORGANIZING COMMITTEE, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS, SYLVAN THEATRE, WASHINGTON, D.C.
SEPTEMBER 7, 1969

On August 25, 1969, a representative of the Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Virginia, advised that Arlington National Cemetery had received an application to hold a mass at the grave of Senator ROBERT F. KENNEDY in Arlington National Cemetery. The request was under the sponsorship of the CESAR CHAVEZ - FARM WORKERS ORGANIZING COMMITTEE, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR - CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS. The request advised that they wished to hold the mass on the afternoon of September 7, 1969.

The representative further advised that the request had been forwarded to the United States Army, who had turned down the request. He stated that the denial was on the basis that in order to hold a religious ceremony in Arlington National Cemetery, a family member of the deceased must sponsor the ceremony and also agree to be in attendance at the ceremony. He further stated there was no indication on the application of any such sponsorship.

The representative advised that on September 2, 1969, for a period of three weeks the grave of JOHN F. KENNEDY would be blocked off to public access due to

MEXICAN-AMERICAN MILITANCY INTERNAL SECURITY - SPANISH AMERICAN

On December 3, 1969, EP T-1 advised as follows:

On the night of December 2, 1969, about 500 people, most of whom were Mexican-Americans, gathered at Bowie High School on the south side of El Paso, Texas, to attend a meeting called at the request of the Board of Commissioners of the El Paso Housing Authority. Mayor Peter de Wetter and members of the City Council were present at the meeting. During the proceedings, Mr. Cesar Chavez, Union Leader of the National Farm Workers Association, from California, made an appearance and was granted permission to speak by Mayor de Wetter. The Mexican-American people became very emotional and gave Chavez a tremendous ovation.

The above mentioned meeting was held for the purpose of giving the people of El Paso an opportunity to discuss with the members of the El-Paso Housing Authority the complaints they had to register against the Housing Authority. It had nothing to do with the efforts of Cesar Chavez to expand the grape boycott throughout the country. Chavez said only a few words and made no effort to propagandize his grape boycott, but the Mexican-American people present responded very favorably to Chavez.

The wife of Cesar Chavez made the comment in private that they could see the "Chicano movement" developing more and more wherever they went throughout the United States. Activist Mexican-American groups seem to be drawn to Cesar Chavez, have attempted to ride on his coattails, and then become more outspoken.

An example of this occurred at the above mentioned meeting at Bowie High School when young Mexican-Americans connected with the Mexican-American Youth Association (MAYA).

MEXICAN-AMERICAN MILITANCY

a group of young Mexican-American activists on El Paso's south side, took over the podium and called for Cesar Chavez to speak to those gathered at the meeting, even though the meeting had nothing to do with Chavez' grape boycott.

Chavez was asked about his position on the subject of violence, at which time he said that he was for non-violence in Vietnam or any other war, was against violence in the streets or in any other shape or form. Chavez said that it takes a lot of discipline to follow his recommended course of action. He said people have to be "militant" but they also have to be on the defensive because they should not hit back with violence. Chavez said that all that they had were their lives, and that there was no reason for violence taking place between people.

Farmworkers' union pushes on

NEW YORK — Monopoly's fleeting headaches promise to turn into migraines as the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee (UFWOC) continues to organize in California and then sweep over the landscape of this country—Cesar Chavez had pledged, and

Cesar Chavez had pledged, and so far he has been true to his word, that the UFWOC will forge "one single union for the farmworkers of the United States."

Monopoly, which has been running rampant over the lives of farmworkers, suddenly confronted the first real obstacle in recent history in the farms of Delano, California, five years ago.

The grape fields must be organized. The strike is on. The weapon of the boycott is used against Safeway. People soon learn that Safeway, the second largest food chain in the U.S., continues to carry scab grapes precisely because it is one of the largest farm owners in California. For a while, there is a drive not to bank at Bank of America, the biggest bank in the world, which owns considerable land in the valley. And Southern Pacific Railroad, people are told, has land amounting to 20,000,000 acres by virtue of early land grabs.

So, the public slowly becomes educated. It learns that the growers are not the borny-handed sons and daughters of the land. Behind every large farm there is a large corporation or bank, the directors of which are interlocking.

For example, J.G. Boswell, member of the Safeway Board of Directors, is also a member of the board of directors of J.G. Boswell Co., Boston Ranch, Crockett Gambody, Tulare Lake Land Co., and Miller & Lux, all of which own farmland in the rich valleys of California.

While there are some familyowned farms, the dominant control rests in the hands of the large financial interests.

The public also learns that the farmworkers, by and large colored peoples, make meager wages, live in hovels fit only for rats, are denied the right to health and unemployment insurance, are regularly subjected to the careless spraying of pesticides that endanger their families' lives.

Agri-business is regularly making its super-profits at the expense of the workers' welfare and collecting its government subsidies for not growing crops, taking out of the mouths of the poor.

J. G. Boswell and Co. alone received $4,091,818 in subsidies in 1967.

But the public will soon learn that the victory of the farmworkers in California will be like a flame in a dry valley. It will spread until it catches the imagination of the farmworkers in all ranches in this country and one single farmworkers union is forged from California to New York to Florida.

CHAVEZ ORDERED FREED BY COURT

His Appeal on Contempt Is to Be Heard on Coast

SAN FRANCISCO Dev. 23 (UPI)—The state Supreme Court today ordered the release of Cesar Chavez, jailed since Dec. for contempt of court.

The court voted to hear Mr. Chavez's appeal and released him pending the outcome of that hearing.

Mr. Chavez, head of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, was ordered jailed by Superior Court Judge Gordon Campbell of Monterey County. He had refused to obey Judge Campbell's injunction against a boycott effort aimed at a Salinas grower, Bud Antle, who has a long-standing contract with the rival teamsters union.

The high court's ruling temporarily stayed Judge Campbell's injunction "except as to those parts which prohibit the union from representing the Antle workers already under teamster contract."

Mr. Chavez was ordered released without bail pending the Supreme Court's hearing. No date for the hearing was announced.

Chavez at work

By Whitney Young Jr.

It's the great grape strike all over again. Some years ago Chavez organized a union for the exploited farm workers in the West, mostly Mexican-Americans, Filipinos, and other minorities. After a long and bitter struggle marked by Chavez own saintly personality and the tremendous support given him by people all over the country who refused to buy non-union grapes, the growers finally gave in and signed a union contract.

Now the union, the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee (AFL-CIO), is trying to organize growers of iceberg lettuce.

This time the issue is more complicated because some growers have signed up with a rival union, against the wishes of many workers. This makes it technically a jurisdictional dispute, so a strike is outlawed.

VIOLENCE has also reared its ugly head, with attacks on strikers and their supporters. Beatings have been common. Attorneys for the workers have been threatened. Few arrests have been made—and apparently the "law and order" supporters who cheer Chavez' jailing on contempt charges don't consider physical assaults a crime.

The UFWOC seeks better wages for the workers, but that isn't the only issue, especially since the rival union also negotiated salary increases. One demand is for ranch hiring halls so that people can apply for work directly, instead of being at the theory of labor contractors, who pocket some of the wages of the workers. The union also wants growers to provide food and housing, now sold at exhorbitant rates to the farm workers. The also wants to restrict use of poisonous sprays.

restrict use of poisonous sprays.

Basically what he unfold states is dignity for its members the right to be treated as free workers and not as virtual seris.

IT IS WHAT all unions have sought and won for their members, and there is no reason for farm owners to consider themselves and their workers a breed apart, and refuse to unionize the way other employers have done.

The grape growers have found that their worst fears were not realized; that the farm workers' union led to higher labor costs but also to a happier, more stable, more productive work force.

The UFWOC's insignia, a black eagle, appears on iceberg lettuce or the crates in which it is packed. It is a way to tell that the lettuce you buy was picked on farms that have signed union contracts with the UFWOC.

I have little doubt that whatever the powerful men who control the ranches and the court say, the boycott will continue until victory is won. The union certainly has no intention of calling it off, and the many millions of people who supported the grape boycott can be counted upon to support this one, too.

But aside from its importance to the unorganized, poverty-stricken farm workers, Cesar Chavez' movement has immense importance for the whole labor movement.

THERE IS NO question about labor's diminishing influence among the young and the liberal. Its top leaders have supported the war in Vietnam, some unions still discriminate against black workers, and many people believe that labor has become part of the Establishment.

But the fervor roused by the farm workers of California, the garbage workers of Memphis, and the hospital workers elsewhere shows that labor's real glory days are still ahead.

By organizing the unorganized and by bringing skills and higher wages for those in our society who are most oppressed, the labor movement can recapture the crusading spirit that helped end industrial exploitation in the past and helped to bring a better life for the working millions.

On December 4, 1970, a Salinas, California, court or dered Gesar Chavez to jail until he called off the na tional lettuce boycott. The injunction that sent him to joil was obtained by Bud Antie Farms, Inc. The injunction was appealed as unconstitutional. But the same sourt refused to stay the injunction until Mr. Chave: posted a $2.75-million bond.

Gesar Chavez is the man who has received national awards for outstanding service and leadership, Sena for Robert F. Kennedy, a few weeks before his tragic death, said that Cesar Chavez is "one of the heroic figures of our times." Six days before his jailing, while visiting Cincinnati, Mr. Chavez received the St. Franci?" jet Assist Peace Plaque from the Franciscan Religious. Order in its "Campaign for Positive Moral Leadership." All of the honors given to Cesar Chavez are for hit non-violent organizing of farm workers.

Since 1962, Geser Chavez has been creating the United Early Committee, AFL-GIO, to bring American form workers out of a century of poverty and paternalism.

Farm workers feed America and in raturn receive the lowest wage ($2700 a year-family income), the most miserable and hazardous working conditions (300% higher accident rate, poisoning from posticides), and a life expectancy of 49 years—21 years less than anyone else.

Deliberalely excluded from the protection of the National Labor Relations Act of 1935, farm workers are forced to resort to strike and boycott to obtain the right to fair wages and safe working conditions.

Most conglomerate growers refuse to talk with farm workers about their rights. On September 16, 1976, a Salinas, California, court ordered farm workers to stop strike activities. Now the same court has ordered an end to the lettuce beyont and the imprisonment of Cesar Chavez, the director of their union. Confronted with such unjust court action, can anyone doubt the existence of a power bloc against farm workers' rights?

Same say this lettuce strike and boycott is a fight between two unions. The fact is: the dispute between the two unions has been settled for months. A definite statement of that settlement came at the October 26, 1970, meeting between AFL-CIO President George Meany and Frank Fitzsimmons, acting President of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. According to the October 27, 1970, LOS ANGELES TIMES, "The Teamsters will stay in the area they have been active in for years, and the Farm Workers Union will stay with the field workers." The teamsters' position now is not to sign any more contracts covering field workers, to give racisions of their contracts to any grower who asks for them, and to refrain from any enforcement of field-worker.contracts.

This struggle, then, like the grape strike and boycott which the form workers won with the help of citizens across the nation, is against corporate growers and their powerful political and economic allies. Where do you stand in this moral issue of human rights?

PLEASE SUPPORT THE BOYCOTT OF LETTUCE FROM CALIFORNIA, ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO WHICH DOES NOT BEAR THE UNITED FARM WORKERS' AZTEC EAGLE UN-ION LABEL

· ----. . $225,000 FUND GIVEN TO CHAVEZ CENTERS

1 % $225,000 grant to support efforts for improving the economic and social conditions of Mexican - American migrant farm workers in the West and Southwest was announced yesterday by the Ford Foundation.

The grant—to the Center for Community Change, which is based in Washington, D.C:—will help finance seven farm workers' service centers established by the directors of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, Cesar Chavez Mr. Chavez was falled 10 days ago in Salinas, Calif., for refusing to obey a court order issued there that directed him to end a lettuce boycott in Salinas.

The centers advise 7,000 Mexican - American laborers monthly on such matters as welfare and social security benefits, the filing of tax returns and wage claims, and protection of civil rights.

The grant also will be used to expand legal efforts to protect farm workers' bealth and safety.

"Farm workers," the foundation announcement said, "are among the nation's most dis-advantaged citizens. They are not covered by the National Labor Relations Act, they are often not eligible for welfare, Medicaid, or unemployment benefits, and they are fre-quently housed in inadequate private housing or labor camps. Many suffer from majnutrition

A Peaceful Vigil Kept For Chavez

Salinas,

Monterey county

Farm Workers Union in Cambridge, yesterday, members continued their Harvard University and peaceful vigil for Cesar Chavez yesterday while his will serve only the Farm attorneys planned their appeal of his conviction for contempt of court.

Jerome Cohen, general counsel for the union, said he hopes to nullify Superior Court Judge Gordon Campell's decree that Charez nust remain in jail until he calls off a nationwide boychtt of lettuce grown by Bud Antle Inc.

"This transcript is a legal goldmine." Cohen said Only the first part of Friday's hearing was available yesterday, however, and Cohen -aid it probably would be the end of the week before an ap-! peal can be filed.

EXEMPT

Judge Campbell sentenced Chavez to jail after ruling the 43-year-old farm labor leader "wilfully" disobeyed an October 8 order to exempt Antle lettuce from the boyctt. which affects all lettuce not picked by his union.

Antle has had a Teamsters contract since 1961, and the courts in Salinas have ruled the Farm Workers Union is engaged in an illegal jurisdictional battle.

The union appealed the "jurisdictional strike" ruling and contended Judge Campbell's subsequent orders are unconstitution -!

About 25 union members and supporters demonstrated yesterday at a chrine across the street from the county jail where Chavez is held.

The activity had none of the acrimony which marked the vigil and counterpicketing by grower supposters Sunday when Mrs. Ethel Kennedy, widow of Robert Kennedy, visited Chavez in Workers Union Terrore.

SALINAS - Mrs. Ethel ert. Kennedy, braved a delnge of catcalls and boos here yesterday to visit jeijed farm labor leader Cesar Chavez.

Her face showing concern over a potentially serious confrontation involving a ssembled farm worker supporters of Chavez and about $00 supporters of anti-Chavez growers, Mrs. Kennedy was scorted to Chavez' cell by hympic decathlon star Rafer Johnson and Salinas police.

Chavez was jailed Friday by Superior Judge Gordon Campbell for ignoring an inunction enjoining him and the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee from Dividenting the lettuce of Bud Antle, Inc.

The UFWOC is seeking to retriesent employes of Antle who has had a labor contract with Teamsters Local 890 since May, 1961. Antie's Salinhs operation is the world's sacond largest letiuce producer.

The late Sen. Kennedy was a staunch supporter of Chavez during the successful grape strike and boycott which ended in victory for he UFWOC.

The 400 supporters of unti-union growers sang "America_The Beautiful" and the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" as the procession including Mrs. Kennedy marched toward the jail.

Signs critical of an insulting to the Kennedys were prominent among the crowd of anti-union people.

"Kennedys are jailbirds," read one sign.

On November 28, 1970.

advised that Cesar Chavez, nead of the United Farm Workers' Organizing Committee (AFL-CIO), arrived in Cincinnati on Friday night, November 27,1970 and huddled with local supporters to plan the next move against the Kroger Company's refusal to buy union picked lettuce. He advised Chavez was to attend mass and receive an award at 6:30 AM on November 28, 1970 in St. Francis Church, Cincinnati, Ohio. He stated Chavez would be a guest of the AFL-CIO Local Council breakfast at the Hotel Sheraton-Gibson at 7:30 AM and at 9:00 AM, Chavez was to speak to supporters at Kroger Company building downtown. He stated Chavez was planning to fly to New York afterwards.

The 'Cincinnati Enquirer", a daily newspaper published in Cincinnati, Ohio, published an article in its edition on November 28, 1970, captioned: "Lettuce picket leader visits to bend Kroger". This article stated that Cesar Chavez arrived in Cincinnati Friday night with cheers, hugs and hand clasps and immediately went into a huddle with local supporters to plan the next move against the Kroger Company's refusal to buy union picked lettuce. This article further advised that Chavez heads the United Farm Workers' Organizing Committee, known as UFWOC.

Above article went on to quote Chavez as saying, "We go where the workers demonstrate they are helping themselves and want us, too."

RE: APPEARANCE OF CESAR CHAVEZ
IN CINCINNATI, OHIO ON
NOVEMBER 27-28, 1970
REGARDING KROGER COMPANY'S
REFUSAL TO BUY UNION PICKED LETTUCE

In this article, Chavez went on to say that union endorsements have been a big factor, but the American Catholic Bishops have helped, too, as mediators. According to this article, Chavez said: "They bent some grower's arms . . . but we've also been the victim of arm-twisting by the bishops."

Above article concluded by saying that "Chavez will attend mass at 6:30 AM today in St. Francis Church, Liberty and Vine Streets, then be the guest of an AFL-CIO Labor Council breakfast at 7:30 AM." This article went on to state that at 9:00 AM, Chavez was to speak to supporters at the Kroger Company building downtown and would fly to New York afterwards.

The "Cincinnati Post and Times Star", a daily newspaper in circulation in Cincinnati, Ohio in its issue of November 28, 1970, carried an article captioned: "Chavez joins lettuce pickets here." This article stated that Cesar Chavez, surrounded by 120 picket-carrying supporters on the Kroger Company front sidewalk, challenged the Cincinnati-based grocery firm to live up to its moral responsibilities and not sell lettuce from non-union growers.

This article went on to state that Chavez flew into Cincinnati on November 27, 1970 from California Headquarters of the United Farm Workers. This article further related that Chavez addressed a breakfast crowd of 250 earlier November 28, 1970 in the Roof Garden of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. The article stated that proceeds from the $5 a plate breakfast ($2.50 for students) go to the Cincinnati Citizens For United Farm Workers, the group which supplied pickets for the march. This article stated that Chavez at the breakfast, traced the history of the California farm worker and his problem, namely, poor living conditions, low unemployment benefits, and health insurance.

-RE: APPEARANCE OF CESAR CHAVEZ
IN CINCINNATI, OHIO ON
NOVEMBER 27-28, 1970
REGARDING KROGER COMPANY'S
REFUSAL TO BUY UNION PICKED LETTUCE

This article went on to say that Chavez mentioned that change comes only at a very high price and that: "We wish and sing and pray, but we also picket a heck of a lot." This article further indicated that Chavez characterized his union efforts as non-violent and said there was something about non-violence, that attracts people, nice people. This article concluded by stating that Chavez was due in New York City, November 28, 1970.

On December 10, 1970, advised that about 125 individuals

left the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel on Saturday morning,

November 28, 1970 with Cesar Chavez and they proceeded to march in an orderly fashion on the sidewalk to the Kroger Company building downtown. He stated this group stayed on the sidewalk, walked in a conclusion he advised that there were no incidents

Richard Chavez, vice president of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO, says supporters of the nation-wide UFW lettuce boycott will continue to picket military installations across the country to discourage the Pentagon from buying nonunion-picked lettuce.

Chavez, brother of UFW head, Cesar Chevez, said in an interview yesterday at AFL-CIO headquarters in the Railway Clerks Building the military is responsible for the continuing boycott.

"We probably would have Antle (Bud Antle Inc., of Salinas, Cal., a major lettuce grower and prime target of the boycott) on the contracts now," he said, "but the military bailed them out."

CHAVEZ SAID since the five-month boycott began, the Pentagon has tripled its direct lettuce purchases from Antle.

CHAVEZ ESTIMATED that his committee has picketed between 20 and 30 major military bases in the United States. Thus far, he said, the results of the protests have been slim.

Chavez Files Suit To Curb Army's Lettuce Buying

NEW YORK-(UPI) — Labor activist Cesar-Chavez has filed suit against the Defense Department an attend to prevent it from buying lettuce produced by a firm boycotted by farm workers.

The suit, which names Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird and the commander of the Ft. Hamilton, Brooklyn, Army base, charges the Defense Department with buying lettuce from the Bud Antie Co. in order to help the company break the union boycott.

Chavez, head of the United Farm Workers Union, who led a successful boycott of California grapes, announced filing the suit in U.S. District Court and said it would be the first in a series of legal actions against the Army for purchasing "scab lettuce."

SA 105-NEW

Austin but stated that the support of MAYO was not being sought. He invited MAYO members to attend but only as spectators.

The above is being furnished for information purposes as referenced communication 7/6/70 indicates that the Bureau does not desire an active investigation of CESAR CHAVEZ who will be the principle speaker at the above activity.

The Economy Furniture Company Strike mentioned above has been organized by a legitimate labor organization which has not in the past displayed a propensity for violence. Local law enforcement agencies are cognizant, as CHAVEZ' appearance is receiving publicity.

San Antonio, will, provide coverage through established sources only.

Gentlemen:

I am asking for general information, not of confidential nature, but that which is or may be public knowledge.

This is in regard to Cesar Chavez, organizer of farm labor groups in California.

Do you have information or findings indicating this mans political views and adherence? Is he a communist or has he received training by communist? Does he practice and teach the communist line? Is he considered a fellow traveler?

On June 26, I will be attending a meeting where Chavez is to be a speaker and may even participate in this meeting.

If you have any report open to the public, or if you can refer to to valid info or an evaluation of Chavez, I will greatly appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible.

Most sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As the

I am writing you pertaining to Mr. Ceaser Chevez. In the next several weeks, it will be necessary for us as ministers and laymen, to make a decision with regard to where we stand in the new effort to organize the migrants in Florida.

I believe Mr. Chevez is the leader in this new move to organize in the state.

We, as a church, simply need some understanding of his affiliations before we can make an objective appraisal of his efforts. Does he have communistic connections? Is he in any way out of step with the principles of our democracy or do you have any information which we need to know?

Contact, on September 28, 1971, and October 12, 1971, with a source that has access to information regarding the UFWOC, and who has furnished reliable information regarding members of this organization in the past, source advised that this individual advised him that various members of UFWOC are intending to travel to Mexico, believed to be Mexicali, Chihuahua, or possibly Mexico City, where they are to convene with the UGOCM to discuss the organization of boycotts and other protest movements. The source stated that he is uncertain if Chavez himself will make the trip but feels as though Dolores Huerta and Julio Hernandez, both recognized leaders of the UFWOC, have been designated to attend the conference along with other unspecified individuals. Also scheduled to be in attendance at the conference are a group of imported Cubans. Source also stated that he understands that this conference is only a preliminary one with another one scheduled after the first of the year in Jalisco, Mexico.

Informer Says He was Part of

Coast Plot to Kill Cesar Chavez

THE SHOOT SHOULD BE THE THE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1—Despite the disclaimers of Federal officials, an unemployed taborer who describes himself as a paid police informer insists that certain farmers in the San Joaquin Valley of California, ordered the assassination of Cesar Chavez, the farm union leader.

The informer, Larry Shears, 32 years old, said that he had been offered $5,000 to participate in the plot and that he had witnessed what appeared to be the payment of $30,000 to carry out the assassination.

Mr. Shears, a thin, longhaired man who lives in Bakerfied, offered a series of tape recordings and documents that he said demonstrated the veracity of his story.

ity of his story.

Jerry Cohen, chief counsel to the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, has expressed concern for the safety of Mr. Chavez, who heads the union, and has said that he will seek a Congressional investigation.

Warned by Agents

Mr. Cohen said that last July 31 Federal agents secretly warned the union that they had reason to believe an attempt to assassinate Mr. Chavez was being organized. On one occasion Federal agents were said to have provided protection for Mr. Chavez at a rally.

But last, according to an Associated Press dispatch, a Federal spokesman said that the Government "now considers the case closed" after the informer was unable to provide any proof of a plot.

Mr. Chavez has been a controversial figure in his union's long and bitter struggle to organize and raise the wages of workers on the huge California fruit and vegetable farms. Ex-Official Recalls Case

The investigation into the alleged assassination plot was conducted by the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Enforcement Division of the Internal Revenue Service, an arm of the Treasury Department.

Various officials of the enforcement division on the West Coast with whom Mr. Shears said he had dealings have declined to comment on the case and have referred inquiries to Washington.

On Thursday a revenue service spokesman in Washington declined comment on the case, caying, "I.R.S. has an established policy of not commenting on investigations."

ing on investigations."

Donald W. Bacon, now a tax consultant with Gulf and Western Industries, who until Noveber was Assistant Commissioner for Compliance at the revenue service, recalled that there had been an investigation. He said:

"At one time there was a threat on Chavez's life. Sometime in early fall. There was an alleged plot. I authorized payment of an amount that might have included payment to an informant. I understood the information wasn't satisfactory and therefore he was not paid."

information wasn't satisfactory and therefore he was not paid."

He added, "The attempt was never made on his life. The investigation stopped."

Two key men named by Mr. Shears as participants in the alleged plot have been arrested on unrelated charges, and one is still in jail. Neither was charged with organizing an assassination. One was arrested on a narcotics charge and the other for murder.

Because there has been no official action against any of those mentioned by the informer, the names of alleged plot participants are withheld.

Despite the arrests, leaders of the farm union are still worried.

Mr. Cohen said, "maybe all we got was a reprieve. We still have people out there who put up a substantial sum of money. They could be looking for another hit man."

Kennedy Pressed Fee

Mr. Cohen said that he had spent much time investigating the story related by Mr. Shears and had concluded that there were elements of truth in it. He said that Mr. Shears' tapes and documents proved that he did work with the Federal agents and that the Government did authorize the payment of $10,-000 to him for his role as an informer in the case.

It was also learned that Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts, had instrumental in getting the $10,000 fee approved for payment to Mr. Shears. The informer said thaat the money was to have been paid not only for his services as an informer and later as a witness but also to enable him to relocate his family outside California. He has a wife and two children.

Mr. Shear said that he never received the $10,000. However, he did show a copy of a canceled check issued by the Treasury of the United States in the amount of $500.

He also had a copy of woucher showing that the payment' had been made to him for "information and evidence necessary to identify [name withheld) and those person who are providing [name withheld] the funds to arrange the emon the arson and murder of Cesar Chavez."

The canceled check for $500, dated Oct. 4, 1971, was issued through William J. Vizzard, a special investigator in the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Enforcement Division.

Mr. Shears said that nearly three years ago he was without work and offered his services to the Kern County Sheriff's Department as an informer. He said that he had promised information that would lead to arrests and convictions is ano-lations of parcotics laws.

He said that he worked with the sheriff's department over a period of time and, because of his success, was then put in touch with the State Narcotics, Bureau, with whose agents he subsequently worked.

The sheriff's office confirmed that Mr. Shears had done work for it and said that his information had proved reliable.

Mr. Shears said that in late 1970, while he was working for the state agency, he came in touch with a 26-year-old man who eventually broached to him the idea of assassinating Mr. Chavez.

Suggests Burning Slide

Mr. Shears related that this person was involved in parcotics and that he planned to set this person up for an arrest that would have earned him $500 from the state.

As the relationship between the two developed, the contact man offered Mr. Shears a way to earn money, the informer: said. He asked Mr. Shears if he would burn an amusement slide to permit the owner to collect insurance. Mr. Shears said that he declined the job but that the slide was later destroyed by fire.

In the early spring, he said, the contact man offered him $5,000 to burn some records in Delano. He said that he questioned the contact man bout the deal and learned that the secords belonged to Mr. Chavez and that it was his offices that were to be burned. In addition, the plan was to steal certain records from the union's files and then make a "hit" on Mr. Chavez—that is, assassinate him.

"And I thought, whos, God, and I know [name withheld] and I knew his people and his organization, and I knew he was capable of it," Mr. Shears leaid.

Demand for Money

It was at about that point, Mr. Shears said, that he had heard about the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Enforcement Division and decided to contact it with the information about the assassination plot. Until that time he had not had any dealines, with the division, he

Mr. Shears said thta eb made contact with the division, told what he knew and then, realizing that his identity as an informer would become known, demanded enough money to re-locate outside the state. He said that Mr. Vizzard and Richard Cook, another special investigator for the division, agreed to try to get him $10,000 and that a contract was drawn up.

Next, Mr. Shears said that the area chief of the enforce-ment division, Melvin Warner, was brought in from San Francisco. He said that Marker her wanted idin to take a lie-detector test but that the idea was dropped when expressed opposition. Instead, he said, he agreed to try to get an agent in touch with the contact man who had broached the assassination idea. He said that the agent was Lester Robinson and that he was successful in getting him is touch with the contact man.

Hit' Man Selected

Meanwhile, Mr. Sears said, he received from the contact man detailed diagrams of Mr. Chavez's office and was told that the killing would be done by a 36-year-old "hit" man who was wanted for murder by Kern and Ventura Counties. However, the contact man told him the hit man would himself be shot after the murder, Mr. Shears said.

The plot was then held up, he said, because the persons ordering the killing insisted that certain files be stolen before the assassination took place.

Mr. Shears said this aroused the interest of the Federal investigators, who speculated that the Chavez files might contain "tax information on these farmers."

Another delay occurred, he said, when the prospective hit man was picked up on the murder charges already pending against him. This man is still in jail and his case has not come to trial.

After several days, Shears went on, he called the contact man to ask if the asssssination was still on and was told, "The guy will be here Friday with the money to do

Man With Paper Bag

He said that on that Friday, though uninvited, he went to the contact man's house but was told to wait outside. He said that he saw a man, whom he identified as the son of a farmer in the valley, arrive about 4 P.M. with a brown paper bag that he assumed contained the $30,000.

Mr. Shears said that a little later the contact man came out of the house and told him. The money is here," but added "The decision to go—we still don't have that decision."

When asked who was making that decision, Mr. Shears and that he did not know.

He said that on another occasion, involving the burning of the amusement slide, the same payoff man delivered the money to pay for the job. He also said that the owner of the alside, whom he described as a loan shark, was the man to whom the files to be stolen from Mr. Chavez's office were to be delivered.

Questioned by Police

Mr. Shears said that earlier the agents supplied him with a small radio device that enabled them to eavesdrop on his conversations with the contact man when they discussed the assassination plot. That, he said, enabled the agents to know that he was on the level.

The alleged assassination plot hit its final snag when the amusement slide operator was picked up and questioned by the Fresno police about the burning of the slide.

Mr. Shears said that information that he had given the Kern County Sheriff's Department had been passed to the Fresnopolice and that, in questioning the slide operator, they dropped the names of Mr. Shears, the plot contact man and several others.

He said that the slide operator then became suspicious and called the payoff man, when they visited the contact man. The two decided that there was an informer in their midst and that Mr. Shears was the suspect, he said.

Mr. Shears said that he was successful in covering himself but that Mr. Vizzard and another agent, Bill Bertolani, became worried and decided to move to get the contact man off the streets.

the agent, Mr. Robinson, to purchase 1,000 amphetamine pills from the contact man and then arrest him.

The Kern County Sheriff's Department assisted in the arrest, made in August, on charges of sale and possession of dangerous drugs. The sheriff's office said that $6,700 was taken from the contact man's home as evidence and that from $20,000 to $22,000 was left there because it was not needed as evidence. The case is still pending and the suspect is free on bail.

Mr. Shears said that he left

Officials of the farm union agreed with Mr. Shears in believing that all that may have been acomplished was to delay an assassination attempt.

They said that in recent months there have been a number of arson attempts against various union offices, that others have been riddled with bullet holes, and that at least two attempts were made to steal records in the union offices.

Informer Says He was Part of Coast

By EARL CALDWELL tel to The New York Times

BAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1-Despite the disclaimers of Federal officials, an unemployed saborer who describes himself as a paid police informer insists that certain farmers in the San Joaquin Valley of California, ordered the assassination of Cesar Chavez, the falm union leader.

The informer, Larry Shears. 32 years old, said that he had been offered $5,000 to participate in the plot and that he had witnessed what appeared to be the payment of $30,000 to carry out the assassination.

Mr. Shears, a thin, long-haired man who lives in Bakerfied, offered a series of tape recordings and documents that he said demonstrated the veracity of his story.

Jerry Cohen, chief counsel to the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, has expressed concern for the safety of Mr. Chavez, who heads the union, and has said that he willi seek a Congressional investigation.

Warned by Agents

Mr. Cohen said that last July 31 Federal agents secretly warned the union that they had reason to believe an attempt to assassinate Mr. Chavez was being organized. On one occasion Federal agents were said to have provided protection for Mr. Chavez at a rally.

But last, according to an Associated Press dispatch, a Federal spokesman said that the Government "now considers the case closed" after the informer was unable to provide any proof of a plot.

Mr. Chavez has been a controversial figure in his union's iong and bitter struggle to organize and raise the wages of workers on the huge California fruit and vegetable farms.

Ex-Official Recalls Case

The investigation into the alleged assessination plot was conducted by the Alcohol, Toment Division of the Internal Revenue Service, an arm of the Tressury Department.

Two key men named by Mr. Shears as participants in the alleged plot have been arrested on unrelated charges, and one is still in jail. Neither was charged with or ganizing an assassination. One was arrested on a narcotics charge and the other for murder.

Because there has been no official, action against any of those mentioned by the informer, the names of alleged plot participants are withheld. Despite the arrests, leaders of the farm union are still worried.

To the Hon. J. Edgar Hoover Director of Federal Bureau of Investigation Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

I am sure you are snowed under with letters but hope one of your men will have time to open this book and at least read the preface. I doubt if I could tell you anything that you do not already know about this Mexican Mafia. Cesar Chavez has been a thorn in the flesh around Lodi, which is the Tokay grape center of U.S.

Last spring, little Cesar descended on Stockton with his troupe of radicals. I was told that he sent a couple of organizers to several growers. If one would say he did not wish to join up, these hoods would say, "well it would be too bad if your barn would burn down or your kid get run over." Well, I saw two large barns burn last March. No one knows how they started in such wet weather but it certainly was not spontaneous combustion.

Perhaps this assassination hue and cry is partly a plea for public sympathy for Cesar is losing ground in this state. His first Lt., Harry Itilong, quit him. His publicity agent, Senor Campos, quit him and started lecturing to the effect that Chavez said he was working for the Mexican people but he was really working on them.

Last year I mailed these books "Bitter Harvest" to many prominent people in U.S. and had them run in installments in Farm weeklies but not with my name to be used for any publicity for my son business these days without a vengeful Cesar after one.

1 FED 8 197

I asked my friend, to mail a book to each of the U.S. Supreme Court judges for they had declared a Boycott on grapes & lettuce for Chavez. He said the Court was there for life and might not take time to read but that Attorney Gen. Mitchell was a very nice person and might read the book. I sent one. I honestly believe that anyone who read "Bitter Harvest" would have no sympathy for Cesar Chavez.

Mr. Ponder _____

As you well know, Mr. Hoover, people forget what one did 25 years ago. There's another generation, many of whom are a generation of vipers, who think one had better be put on ice when he attains 70.

I majored in Spanish at Univ. of Calif. I attended a CSO meeting in Stockton a year ago -- about 1000 Mexicans. Cesar was scheduled to speak. He never showed up, but many Mexicans came in shouting "Huelga" we can enly strike (Huelga) or boycott to further our cause."

Now I just do whatever I can to promote good & stomp out evil.

I have been reading your articles vs. Communism for 30 years & admired your zeal in organizing Boys Clubs to try to bring up the youth here the way they should go. I fear when you leave the scene, there is no one left to carry the banner versus Communism and evil unless some of the men trained under you can stand up on their hind legs and maintain the honest reputation which only your FBI has. Yours is the only Govt. organization that is honest and can be trusted so please just burn up this letter after reading for the future FBI may be infiltrated with Cesar's pals. He has powerful friends, Hubert Humphrey, George Meany, "Scoop" Jackson, etc etc. These three phone Bob Morettie, speaker at Sacramento, to kill the State Farm Bill so Cesar could be only Farm Union. This, I heard, over radio some months ago.

Lenin said that when the Capitalist nations started trading with them (the Communists) that is when they will finance their own destruction (so we've started) I just heard over radio they were figuring on putting you out on clover after next election.

Well, here's to the man, you, Mr. Hower, who gave his entire life to the betterment of his country in furthering freedom and justice. I am sure that all of us citizens who stand up for our country have a heartfelt appreciation of your life work. As for the dissenters, anyone who does anything vs. Evil and Communism makes enemies.

Sincerely Yours,

Chavez Remains In Hospital, But Ends 24-Day Fast

Cesar Chavez remains hospitalized today, but he has a andoned his 24 - day fast to oppose Arizona's new farm later law.

In a statement read by a aide during yesterday's me morial mass at the Towne House for the late Sen. Robert Kennedy, Chavez said:

"What is a few days without food in comparison to the daily pain of our brothers and aisters who do back - breaking work in the fields under inhuman conditions and without hope of ever breaking their cycle of poverty and misery?"

MORE THAN 5,000 persons heard Chavez' statement read while the weakened founder of the United Farm Workers Union sat with head in his hands.

Doctors said Saturday that continuation of the fast would be dangerous since tests showed Chavez' heart muscles were weakening.

On hand for yesterday's ceremony, which attracted many of the Yuma area farm workers who union spokesmen say are striking, were Joseph Kennedy III, eldest son of Sen. Kennedy, who was slain during presidential campaigning in 1968.

Folk singer Joan Baez and Paul Schrade, former United And Workers official, also attended. Schrade was injuded in the shooting that killed Kennedy.

CHAVEZ arrived at the mass in an ambulance and broke his fast by eating sadrifical bread at the communion service.

"I am weak in body but I feel very strong in spirit," Chavez' statement said.

"What a terrible irony it is that the very people who harvest the food we eat do not have enough food for their own children."

The UFW is ramrodding a mationwide lettuce boyott and has been urging melon pickers in the Yuma area to strike. The group also is conducting a recall drive against Governor Williams.

Opponents contend Arizona's new law, which becomes effective Aug 13, inhibits the workers' right to organize and prohibits secondary boycotts.

SUPPORTERS say workers can organize any time they want to via secret ballot and that an arbitrator — to be picked by mutual agreement of the grower and the workers, or by the court if no agreement is possible — must decide issues quickly any time an employer gets a court injunction during a harvest-time strike.

Joan Baez and former United official, also late was injured at that killed 111 24 9 byers in the statement.

"OUR OPPONENTS in the agricultural industry are very powerful and farm workers are still weak in money and influence," he added.

But, he said, "we have another kind of power that comes from the justice of our cause. So long as we are willing to spread the meassage of our struggle, then millions of people around the world will respond from their hearts... and in the end we will over-

Chavez' physician, Dr. Jerome Lackner of San Jose, Calif., said the farm workers' leader will remain hospitalized "until we are confident he is okay."

CEASAR CHAVEZ ACTIVITIES February 12-13, 1973 Kansas City, Missouri

On February 7, 1973, KC 1-1 advised that Ceasar Chavez is to appear in Kansas City February 12-13, 1973, with approximately 70 people, arriving in Kansas City the late evening of February 12, from Delano, California. Chavez while in Kansas City is to attempt to organize the Spanish people in boycotting Safeway stores for selling non-union lettuce and appear at a rally Tuesday, February 13.

On February 9, 1973, KC T-1 advised the Chavez group which is to appear in Kansas City has the main objective to expand the lettuce boycott into the entire United States by boycotting two major grocery chains, Safeway stores west of the Mississippi and A&P stores east of the Mississippi. KC T-1 advised that the Chavez group will be staying at the St. Thomas Church, 740 Shawnee, Kansas City, Kansas, and will attend a rally to be held at the Penn Valley Community College, Westport Road, Kansas City, Missouri, on Tuesday evening.

On February 13, 1973, RC T-1 advised that the Chavez group arrived in Kansas City, Missouri, as previously scheduled in the late evening of February 12, 1973, and was to picket a Safeway store located in the Valentine Shopping Center, 36th and Broadway, from 2-5 p.m., February 13. The activity would consist of approximately 40-100 people and the main objective of the demonstration is to convey to the people the boycotting of the Safeway store, as the establishment was selling non-union lettuce.

On February 13, 1973, KC T-2 advised that a group of some 75-100 individuals consisting of Mexicans and blacks picketed the Safeway store at 3600 Broadway from approximately 2-3:30 p.m., February 13. The activity consisted of the participants carrying red flags and signs which read "Boycott Safeway who sells non-union lettuce." KC T-2 advised that Ceasar Chavez led the demonstration and was overheard to make the comment that six individuals who were to do their grocery shopping at Safeway left after they determined why the individuals were picketing and two individuals who had already bought their groceries returned the groceries to Safeway after they found out why the individuals were picketing. There were no arrests or police confrontations.

On February 14, 1973, KC T-3 advised that a rally was held by the Ceasar Chavez group at the Penn Valley Community College auditorium located on Westport Road in Kansas City, Missouri, from approximately 7-9:30 p.m., February 13, 1973. The rally consisted of several speeches and several hundred individuals were in attendance.

On February 14, 1973, KC T-2 advised that a rally was conducted at Penn Valley Community College, Kansas City, Missouri, from 7-9:30 p.m., February 13. There were approximately four speakers including Ceasar Chavez, and a priest with the Chavez group, and it appeared the objective of the rally was to organize the Spanish community in the Kansas City area to boycott Safeway stores. Other activity at the rally consisted of singing and dancing. **C T-2 advised approximately 1,500 people attended the rally. No arrests were made and no confrontations with police occurred.

World-Deganizing Trip: Cesar Chaver! Supporters Invade Peaceful Conference of Christians and Jews Banquet

MEW YORK--Who is this Cesar Chavez whose people pirket not brotherhood? Who is this Cesar Chavez whose people invaded a banquet of the National Conference of Christians and Jews peacefully gathered to honor a man who has labored in these concrete vineyards for fraternity among the races and amity among the many religions?

Who is this Cesar Chavez, criticism of whom brings down upon the critic tidal waves of intellectual terror-and some physical pushing around as well?

True he is president of the AFL-CIO's United Farm Workers. But is he more equal than the rest of us?

The farm workers and their allies are on the attack.

They are assailing the big Teamsters union, charging it with having illegally seized field pickers' contracts covering some 50,000 California workers (Chicanos, Portuguese and Arabs as well as some blacks and whites) from the UFW.

The forces of the slim, open-collared, charismatic

Chaver-who are now being intensely trained for the revived campaign for the boycott of table grapes, lettuce and Gallo wines--are spreading out across the land in front of the big retail chain outlets. They have the support of big unions such as Al Shanker's teachers. Now their subsidies come mostly from the $10,000 a week donated by Leonard Woodcock's auto workers.

Chavez's organizers are fanning out across Western Europe, successfully winning support from powerful transport unions and laborite municipal and national governments.

Chaves has tackled the U.S. government, charging a conspiracy between the Immigration and Maturalization Service (INS) and the Teamsters has resulted in the illegal inflow of alien Mexican workers into the U.S. to take jobs from his members, break his strike and smash his boycott. This has been sharply rejected and denied by INS Commissioner Leonard Chapman. And of course by the Teamsters.

But why picket the Conference of Christians and Jews as Chavez's people did the other night? Because the crusading conference was honoring Robert F. Longacre, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, Inc.--that's why.

Its stores sell "double horse" lettuce--the symbol is the traditional Teamsters union trademark. The pickets, run by the Women For Action, some carrying United Farm Workers signs, were shouting against "scab" lettuce, demanding the salad greens and grapes carry the black Axtec eagle emblem of Cesar Chaver's farm workers.

Last Tuesday I was alongside the noisy pickets' circle outside the Hotel Americana here and heard them heap imprecations and vituperation not only upon the man receiving a Brotherhood award, but upon his enterprises, the food they sell—the whole thing.

Well, that's their privilege. This is a free country. Freedom of speech is inherent. But it goes two ways.

Towards the end of the evening, a group peeled off the picket line, invaded the big banquet hall unrolled a banner rushed up to the speakers dais, pushed dog food and other objects upon the table at Mr. Longacre's place. Does free speech depend upon the decisions of the picket captain's whimsies?

Apparently it does, in this case at least. It is the activist principle of the late self-admitted social revolutionary Saul Alinsky of whom Cesar Chaver is a disciple. It will not win adherents to his cause.

Chavez may say he cannot be everywhere. Well, some of his top California lieutenants have been in this metropolitan area for a while and are teaching social picket action to his young organizers. Chavez is racing after far wider horizons at the moment. He was in London the other day. There he won the support of militant Jack Jones, chief of the powerful Transport and General Workers, the United Kingdom's biggest union--proportionately the free world's largest. Chavez wants the "T and G" to boycott Teamster-picked lettuce, grapes, and Gallo wines. Jones, England's most influential labor leader, agreed. And was pleased when Chavez said that the boycott was succeeding so well in the U.S. and Canada, that only Western Europe was left as a market for California grape growers. Prom London Chavez headed for the continent. His itinerary calls for conferences with labor leaders especially in transport in Belgium, France, West Germany and Italy, for starters.

Already the Stockholm City Council has recommended to official national and local "boards and councils concerned, until further notice, not to purchase grapes and lettuce from growers who have not signed contracts with the American farm workers' union, UFW." This could hurt sales since Sweden is a heavy purchaser of these products.

It could also create considerable counteraction by the Teamsters in the U.S. They could refuse to handle or transport imports into America, coming directly from Sweden or via Canada. This would immobilize importation of Volvos, Saabs, and other products on which the Swedish workers depend for jobs and prosperity. There are reports of such counteraction planned to offset boycotts by foreign transport unions, the leaders of which idolize Chavez.

His concept is daring. If successful he will have organized the first all-Europe, all-Scandinavian transport boycott of an American product. Undoubtedly this strategy will be followed by other labor chiefs in the future.

There's no doubt of the world significance of Cesar Chavez's attack on the Teamsters. But let it not infringe on the rights of others to free speech, free assembly and the privilege of honoring their own crusaders.

Draining The Wine:

Cesar Chavez Whipping Up New Intercontinental Farm War

NEW YORK -- That long-running war of the vines and wines -- now stretching on an international front from Germany and Scandanavia to San Francisco -- is about to be whipped up again. This time on the sidewalks of New York when slim, open-shirted 48-year-old farm workers' union chief Cesar Chavez turns svelte Fifth Avenue into self-styled "Camino de Justicia" (Path to Justice).

That will be May 10, one of the big street's busiest shopping days. Chavez, whose brother Richard has been his advance man, thus winds up "Farm Worker Week" in this concrete jungle.

There are vast implications in this mass move into the East.

There's more to the Chevistas rolling into town than the fanfare, a premier movie showing, a big parade during which marchers will collect money from sponsors contributing "dollars per mile of march." There's more here than the battle for the nation's vegetable-basket leadership between the United Farm Workers (UFW-AFL-CIO)

上の39夕 18 MAY - 519751 102 1 11 B and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

E MAY 19 1975

It appears to some observers that Cesar Chavez is molding a political movement among the nation's Chicanos -- some estimate them at 12 million -- just as the late Martin Luther King, Jr. attempted to build a national black political movement.

Chavez is on his own "Camino" (road). True, the boycott of grape and lettuce growers now under contract with the teamsters keeps rolling along. But Chavez's singling out the E. and J. Gallo Winery (the country's largest) is open defiance of most of the labor movement and the nation's labor laws.

A boycott of Gallo wines has not been approved by the national AFL-CIO leadership. It has not been condoned by labor leader George Meany. Gallo long ago signed with three AFL-CIO unions and the Teamsters. The company can legitimately claim to be all union. Yet Chavez has launched a national attack upon the winery.

Chavez didn't show at the AFL-CIO midwinter high command session in Bal Harbour, Fla. Chavez hasn't been in regular, if any communication with Meany or other national AFL-CIO leaders. They are no longer pouring money into the United Farm Workers' war chest.

Therefore it seems to some that Chavez wants to score this one on his own. The labor chiefs can't repudiate him. That would appear to be "deserting" the farm workers. That would appear to be rejecting a large ethnic minority.

Chavez's strategy, according to one high labor source, simply is to refine that boycott weapon, hone it, cut down not only the Teamsters, the lettuce and grape growers but also any one company he wants to hit.

"And where does this leave the rest of the labor movement?" asks this source. "He's building a university and clerical following which gives him strength far beyond his jurisdiction and membership. To fight him and his allies means battling forces with which we just don't want any encounters. We have no quarrel with them otherwise. Chavez knows this."

Chavez's transatlantic attack is unique. He has strong support from the Swedish labor federation (LO) which not too long ago delayed the unloading of 74 tons of grapes at Goteborg. The word spread in Europe is that grapes and lettuce not picked by Chavez's Black Eagle union can have lethal effects because of pesticide. And that non-UFW grapes and lettuce are picked by some 800,000 underage children. The actual total work force involved comes to some 200,000 -- mostly adults.

This has reflected on all American citrus and vegetable exports. Until recently Sweden used to take some 80 per cent of the U.S. lettuce crop exports.

Reports from the American embassy in Stockholm disclose that the agricultural attache there -- and American shippers -- are considerably disturbed by what could result in heavy losses to all American growers.

Now Chavez has set up shop in West Germany where he has strong trade union support. The Federal Republic buys large quantities of American farm products. And U.S. shippers could get hurt there, too.

Teamsters officials talk of a counter-boycott of "all Swedish products." Now they speak grimly of counter-boycotting the heavy selling Volkswagen if Germans boycott lettuce and grapes picked by their members.

Total it all and you have slim little Cesar Chavez shaking the world with his stargazing young collegiate organizers who get "room and board, gas money...and $5 a week."

NEW YORK--Cesar Chavez, maker of social waves in the fields and on the streets of America, has just returned from a most uniquely successful trip abroad. The 47-year-old United Farm Workers leader was warmly received in a private audience by Pope Paul VI.

Those who were with Chavez when he visited the Vatican report the slim open-shirted California Mexican-American received "the red carpet treatment" in the Vatican. His Holiness was sympathetic. He had strong words of support for the table grapes-lettuce-wine boycott leader. And support was expressed for Msgr.

Joseph Donnelly, chairman of the U.S. Bishops'

Committee on Farm Labor, one of Chavez's staunchest allies.

With Chavez was his long-time mentor and champion, Msgr. George Higgins, Secretary for Research, U.S. Catholic Conference, headquartered in Washington, D.C. This visit to the center of world Catholicism marks the ultimate in ecclesiastical support I believe any labor leader has won for his cause.

It marked the end of a long European journey and the winning and welding of clerical support unprecedented in the free world. It, therefore, becomes part of the most significant developments to be recorded in the annals of labor history. It blends the spiritual support of the Catholics with that of Jewish, Methodist and the Protestant organizations of clergymen and moves them into the jurisdictional battle with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT).

The IBT now has virtually all but one or two of the field workers contracts in the California lettuce and vegetable valleys which feed America and much of Europe.

In the clerical coalition now officially behind Chavez, for example, is the Massachusetts Board of Rabbis.

Two months ago the Bay State rabbinical council actually declared non-black Aztec eagle grapes and lettuce non-kosher. The famed eagle is the UFW union label. The Teamsters pack their produce under the equally known twin horse head and wheel, symbol of the union now almost 100 years old.

In the past the Board of Church and Society of the United Methodist Church moved for similar support of the UFW label.

Thus Chavez, having been to the summit, and with other religious leaders backing him--though not quite unanimously--returned to the U.S. He sped to the national AFL-CIO headquarters, reported he was "inspired." Then he flew back to California to plan strategy with his own high command for a renewed battle with the Teamsters for leadership of some 50,000 field workers--now mostly in the IBT which, with 2.2 million members, is the free world's biggest union.

Its general president Frank Fitzsimmons, himself a devout Catholic, charges the Chavez boycott is failing in America and thus the latter has had to turn to European leaders for support. It apparently has been a successful temporal as well as spiritual turn. Chavez had a long talk with the full "Executive" of the militant Jack Jones's giant British Transport and General Workers Union. It's all right, said Jack to Chavez, he hoped the "Californian grapes and lettuce rot in the (British) docks."

To Chavez then, this is the moment to dispatch his legions of pickets across the U.S. Most of this past week in Keene (Calif.) he and his executive council met from 7 a.m. to late evening. They discussed his reports on European labor and Catholic support. They planned for their new offensive.

To give it steam, old-timer Fred Ross, the Saul Alinsky social revolutionary who discovered Chavez back in 1952, and for whom Chavez apprenticed for a decade, gave a one-week course over in New Jersey for some 50 to 75 neophyte UFW organizers. Ross will be back in January for another workshop. Meanwhile, similar hit-the-street-boycott training is under way in many sections of the nation.

Supplementing this is Chavez's private meetings with influential non-Catholic clergymen who are secretaries of other religious councils. Chavez has been urging them to organize regional boycotts as did the Massachusetts rabbis.

There is no doubt of the enormity of this coming battle. AFL-CIO president George Meany has been flaying the Teamsters. He and Leonard Woodcock's United Auto Workers have been supplying Chavez with the logistics needed by the tiny union. During 1973, the AFL-CIO taxed itself $1.5 million for the UFW. The auto workers leaders, who helped on Chavez's technical European trip needs with routing and door-opening all the way from Scandinavia to Dusseldorf, Germany, contributes $10,000 weekly to the black Eagle banner. Thus in 1973, the UFW reported it took in $4,347,375. It spent $5,207,699.

On Jan. 1, 1974, it had some $259,000 in cash bank accounts. So it's in the red. But many of the AFL-CIO unions are quietly contributing more money than boycott pickets. Thus reports that the UFW and its campaign are dead are exaggerated.

It's not quite certain what the Teamster reaction will be. It can counterthrust. It can stay silent. It can retaliate by not coming to the aid of Chavez's labor allies and boycott supporters who call Teamsters headquarters for help daily.

This is no ordinary internal labor feud. A new socio-religious era has been born.

advised of the contents of a "Students For A Democratic Society Regional Newsletter" believed to be the 2/6/66 issue. An article on the "Regional Meeting Report" over the name of Carolyn Craven reported on this meeting by members of the Northern California Region of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS)* on 1/29/66. One topic of discussion was the grape strike in Delano, Calif. and questioning of the strike's chances for success. "Is Cesar Chavez really a radical? Or only a good liberal, with good liberal demands for his oppressed people? Everyone conjectured; no one knew the answers."

SDS "New Left Notes," published in Chicago, Ill., issue dated 2/18/66, carried an article attributed to Craven as set forth in the above paragraph.

The following references in the file captioned "Alianza Federal De Mercedes" (AFDM) pertain to the activities of Cesar Chavez in association with AFDM officials and Mexican-American Political Association officials and as a supporter of their cause from 1965 to 3/9/68 in California and New Mexico. Chavez was mentioned in the September 1967 issue of "Political Affairs," Theoretical Journal of the CP, USA, as a vigorous US-born leader of the farm workers' strike which had resulted in the first great break-through for farm workers. He stressed the necessity of unity with Negro farm workers in their drive for organization in California. Chavez supported a non-violent national coalition of Negro and Mexican-American political action groups but was against joining with the black militant groups.

The following references in the files captioned "National Peace Action Coalition" (NPAC) and "Peoples Coalition For Peace And Justice" (PCPJ) revealed that Cesar Chavez was being considered for an active part in demonstrations sponsored by the NPAC, PCPJ and other peace groups from 4/2/71 to 5/2/71 in San Francisco, Calif. and WDC. It was hoped that Chavez, as head of the UFW, would take part in a public fast for an end to war and poverty. He was to be an approved speaker at these demonstrations and rallies and was to be one of the individuals to conduct a mass soul rally to set a tone of spiritual unity calling for the power of people to render the US Government inoperable. There was no indication that Chavez actually did participate in these demonstrations.

The Phoenix Office advised that approximately twenty-five, individuals appeared at that Office on 9/5/72 with Richard B. Cook (not further identified) as their spokesman. Cook stated that Ralph De Toledano, a reporter for "The Arizona Republic," a daily morning newspaper in Phoenix, wrote an article in the 9/1/72 issue in which he criticized Cesar Chavez. In this article, De Toledano indicated that some unidentified individual had said, "If we had killed him, then he wouldn't be taking the bread out of our mouths today" and the "him" referred to Chavez. Cook stated his group was concerned for the safety of Chavez and felt this threat against his life would be part of a conspiracy which included a "contract" for the death of Chavez amounting to $28,000. Cook's group wanted the FBI to question De Toledano and determine the identity of the person who made this threat against Chavez. Cook also furnished a copy of a statement which his group had filed with "The Arizona Republic" concerning this matter.

By communication dated 9/12/72 the Phoenix Office was advised to insure that appropriate local authorities were aware of any threats to harm Chavez.

The following references in the files captioned "National Farm Workers Association" (NFWA), "United Farm Workers" and "United Farm Workers Organizing Committee" pertain to the activities of Cesar E. Chavez as the founder and Executive Director of the NFWA from 1/24/56 to 2/18/74 in Arizona, California, Illinois, Ohio, Oregon and WDC. The purpose of the NFWA was supposedly to improve the wages and living conditions of the migrant farm worker. Chavez sent letters and pamphlets to universities throughout the US in an attempt to recruit students and professors to go to Delano, Calif. during the summer of 1966 to assist in organizing the farm workers. He spoke at rallies and demonstrations sponsored by the NFWA and was arrested once for illegal use of a loud speaker. As the leader of the NFWA, Chavez led strikes to protest illegal organizing activities and other practices by the teamsters union. Chavez embarked on a seven-week tour of the US in regard to the UFW grape boycott against growers using pesticides as well as another nationwide tour to dramatize his efforts to boycott the sale of non-union harvested lettuce and sale of this lettuce by A and P chain grocery stores. Chavez requested the Justice Department to conduct an investigation for possible Federal violations regarding the dynamiting of UFW offices and threats of bodily harm to Union members. He was Publisher of the newspaper "El Malcriado" which was the official voice of the NFWA. Background data set out.
