Dear Sir:

I note you are still the mo. I Pro-Nazi in the U.S. indicating we must still be on Hitler's payroal.

Your statement in Readers liges - Germany and Hitler are as much right as England and France."

If this is so, 90% of the U. S. Civizens must be badly cockeyed, for you and I know the people of the U.S. are against Hitler and what he stands for and what he is doing. The U.S. support when the opportune time comes will swing 100% to the Allies regardless of what you may say and write as a pro-Nazi.

Your son was murdered by a German Hun, still you stick up for the German Huns. You asked for British protection because it was 37% safer for you and your family there, but England and France soon found out what a dirty spy you were, and so you thought it best to return to the U.S. to carry on your Nazi propaganda here, but you are not getting away with it for we know your weaknesses like a book. -

I will be glad when every IOO% American and U.S. Citizan is placed on the vigalent committee of the B.F.I. Fifth column to watch you and other Nazi spys in the U.S., as I am sure with the wrotten character you have displayed you would even sell out the U.S. for a mess of German Pottage. We all know in the U.S. that you are just a weakling living off the rich Morrow sugar tit.

Go ahead and you will soon be put in your place with the Mazis and followers . of Hitler.

Dear Sir:

The following information which was taken from the publication "The Hour" was received at the Eureau "from an outside anknown source.

Catholic admirer of Failer Coughlin and a speaker at the Ku Klux Klan-Bund rally in New Jersey, writes a column for "Publicity", the Fascist newspaper which is published in Wichita, Kansas. The newspaper is edited by one E. J. Carner, but the man behind it is Dr. J. P. Brinkley, of "monkey-gland" notoriety. Er. Smythe, who has declared der Feuhrer to be the Twentieth Century Ressiah, always devotes his column in "Publicity" to bitter labor baiting, violent attacks on the Jewish people and general slander against American democracy.

For the December 19th issue of "Publicity", Smythe wrote — in addition to his regular contribution a front page article. The title of this feature was "Hitler's Money System Is Compared With Ours". The author, after quoting at length from Hitler's "Mein Kampf", makes this statement:

In his column of the same issue, this ardent Hitlerite begins the compilation of his Who's Who of the United States Fifth Column:

> "Here Are American Patriots: -- That I want every Christian American to always remember - These fire men and women are signing a re-Declaration of Independence...; Rev. Gerald B. Winrod, Wichita, Kansas; Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, Royal Oak, Wichigan; William El Kullgren, Editor, Beacon Light; Sobert Edward Edwondson; Charles B. Eudson; William Dudley Pelley; George Deatherage; Elisabeth Dilling; Ernst Goerner; Walter S. Steele; James True; Harry Yung; Colonel Charles Lindbergh; Congressman, Thorkelson; General Van Horn Koseley -- these fine outstanding Americans and many others have been in the front line trenches for years fighting the battle for all, that we as Christian Americans hold DEAR -- Remember them in your prayers.... Other patriots will be mentioned in future columns."

Nazi Consul Is Charged as Spy

Fritz Wiedemann Heads Vast Espionage Setup in All Americas, Woman Says.

SAN FRANCISCO, March & (AP) .--Consul General Fritz Wiedemann was represented Wednesday as heading a German espionage ring throughout the Americas, and as having ordered his agents to obtain secret information "beneficial to Germany in its conquest of the Western Hemisphere."

The allegations were in a complaint filed for Mrs. Alice Crockett, plaint filed for Mrs. Alice (Crockett, former wife of a United States Army officer, who asked $8,000 she said Wiedemann owed her for a trip to Germany in his behalf in 1839.

The complaint set forth that Wiedemann received more than $5,000,000 from the German government for "espionage activity, that he moleved many persons for such employed many persons for such purposes, and that it was the duty of the Princess Stephanic Hohenlohe, whom the United States is seeking to deport, to pay these employes.' The remainder of the complaint was made up of statements which Mrs. Crockett said Wiedemann made to her. "Statements" Repeated.

He was alleged to have told her that he obtained information "to determine by what method the Panama Canal could be made useless," that he employed officials of the United States Government, that be hired workmen in vital industries to "foment class hatred," that he encouraged strikes to undermine United States defensive strength, and that he directed the German-American Bund.

Wiedemann also was represented as having said he "worked together" with Henry Ford and Col. Charles Lindbergh, and that he (Wiedemann) was "active in secretly storing large quantities of ammunistorm particularly in the East and in New Jersey, "to be used by the . . . bund . . . in fighting against the United States Government."

The complaint said Wiedemann The complaint said Wiedemann told Mrs. Crockett he had placed Dr. Friedhelm Draeger in charge of the East Coast German propaganda division, Dr. Mathias Schmitz in charge of the New York division, and Herman Schwinn in charge of the West Coast division.

Wiedemann consul seneral here

Wiedemann, consul general here since early in 1939, denied all such charges when a similar suit was filed by Mrs. Crockett in superior court, and his attorney termed the action a "shakedown."

"Check Up" Trip.

The consular official was a su-perior officer of Adolf Hitler in the World War, and was Hitler's person-al aid and confident from Jan. 1, 1935, until coming here.

Mrs. Crockett's complaint said

Wiedemann owed her $3,000 for six months service and $5,000 in expenses for visiting Hitler and other high officials in Germany and ascertaining that they believed Wiede-mann was "properly fulfilling" his duties as consul general and in the "espionage service."

The trip, the complaint said, was taken after Wiedemann had a "serious misunderstanding" with the German government. The complaint asserted that Wiede-mann remarked he "used" Colonel Lindbergh "to lull America and Americans into a sense of false security and into believing that Amerand into believing that America was and is safe from Germany and German attack." It said, too, that the consul general had stated he "worked together" with Ford "in furthering the German and Nazi cause in the United States."

STORY FORD AIDED BUND 18 TERMED "OUTRAGEOUS LIE."

DETROIT, March 5 (P). — Commenting on a complaint filed in federal court in San Francisco, I. A. Capizzi, attorney for the Ford Motor Company, said Wednesday night that company, said weinesday high the amount of the working alone or with anyone else to further any foreign cause whatever is an outrageous lie."

Capizzi referred to the complaint by Mrs. Alice Crockett against Fritz Wiedemann, German consul-general et San Francisco, in which Wiede-mann was said to have received more than $5,000,000 from Germany for espionage in the United States and elsewhere in the Western Hemi-

The complaint, alleging that Wiede-mann directed German-American Bund activities in the United States, said Wiedemann told Mrs. Crockett that he "worked together with" Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Henry Ford.

Weide mann Says Ford, Lindy Tale 'Fantasy'

Br United Press

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6—German Consul General Fritz Wiedemann today denounced as "pure fantasy" a charge that he collaborated with Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Henry Ford "to further the Nazi cause in this country"

The accusation was made by Mrs. Alice Crockett, 37 divorced wife of Lieut. Col. Gilman Crockett of Camp Jackson, S. C., who claims Capt. Wiedemann owes her $8000 for five months of confidential work among his masters in Germany. She filed an amended suit yesterday in Federal Court.

'ALL BUNK'

"All bunk. From the first word to the last, it's all bunk. The whole thing's pure fantasy. That's all I have to say," Capt. Wiedemann commented at the consulate. He appeared amused, rather than angry.

A Ford spokesman said in Detroit tilat the suit "appears to be a publighty stunt."

Mrs. Crockett said Princess Stefaute Hohenlohe of Hungary was Capt. Wiedemann's agent, paying his workers in the United States.

Mrs. Crockett said Capt. Wiedemann told her, among other things, that: Sigrid Schultz, Chicago Tribune cor-

Sigrid Schultz, Chicago Tribune correspondent, was employed by the German propaganda division to extol Nazism in dispatches to this country, and Capt. Wiedemann and his aides tried to determine the reaction to them.

The Panama Canal Zone was fertile ground for espionage, and Capt. Wiedemann knew how the canal could be made useless.

Government officials, plant superintendents, foremen and workmen in U. S. steel and munitions industries were in his pay.

NEW JERSEY ARSENAL

He directed activities of the German-American Bund and had stored secret arsenals in the United States, particularly in New Jersey, to be used at the opportune time.

She charged the German government gave Capt. Weidemann $5,000,000 "to promote strife and class hatred in the United States." and he "did employ ruffins to stir racial hate... and pay such ruffins from funds of the German government... and did encourage strikes in all types and kinds of industries in the United States for the purpose of destroying untiy and undermining the strength and ability of the United States to prepare for national defense."

Col. Lindbergh, she said, was Clipt. Wiedemann's tool in efforts to "ull therica and Americans into a sense of false security." She said the consulted her Col. Lindbergh was considered the "best German propagandist in the country."

Mrs. Crockett said he owed her $8,000, salary and expenses, for sounding out Adolf Hitler, Joseph Goebbels, and Field Marshal Herman Goering in 1939, about his work in this country. He feared they were dubious of his ability, she said, but she was able to report that they thought he was the best man available for the job.

Wiedemann was a captain in the World War; Hitler was his motorcycle dispatch rider.

"Gentlemen:

Is someone trying to "spoof" me or is there really something sinister back of all this? I have written any number of letters to the Courier Journal and Times commending Col. Lindbergh. Every time I have a letter published I am swamped with letters and cards like the two I am sending you. As you see, some of them are postmarked Lebanon, Ky. That is what puzzles me.

Do you want me to correspond with these "fifth columnist" at specified intervals and report to you my findings, or would you advise me to ignore them as cranks?

I would like to be of service to my country in any way possible, so advise me what to do if I can be of any assistance.

I still think someone should have their neck broken for trying to connect Col. Lindbergh in any way with such a low down movement. If you have no use for the literature return it to me I should like to keep it as a souvenir. Thanks for an early reply.

Dear

This is a very late letter to thank you for the trenslations you sent to me last April. Also for your willingness to make these translations from time to time for me. I have had no letters in German recently, but I am counting on sending them to you whenever they arrive. Of course, I want to make some arrangement for doing this which is satisfactory to you. For the present, I am enclosing a check for ten dollars. We can make a more definite arrangement when we see how much of this work there will be in the future.

I want you to know that I greatly appreciate your assistance.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Charles A. Lindberg

Would you be kind enough to forward the enclosed letter to General Udet for me? His address is among my papers in England.

Photogratic copies of the above letter have been made, one copy being retained in the New York Office and one copy being forwarded to the Bureau.

The newspapers have mentioned that the Republicans may draft Indbergh for vice president. If they think this is a new idea they are way behind the times. The Nazis had this idea a long time

Several months ago before General Mosely was discredited , the bund through their chief Recruiting Agents and 'ermany's accredited Representatives Toockel Bros of 3299 Third Ave. - New York wity had formed a party to run Mosely for President and Lindbergh for vice > President. They were obtaining signatures on Petitions and had their Candidates names prominently displayed in their windows until sentiment about the Bund became a little too hot. Now they display two American Flags, but still hold Pro German and anti-american secret mmeetings in the back of their building, which is ideally suited for the caching of Arms and manufacture of explosives.

They have abandoned their former open policy of operating buses to Nazi training camps and open Pro-Hitler allegiance but are ready to undermine this country at the first opportunity.

The closing of the eyes of the local Police to their utterances and those of other Seditionists in the same locality should also be looked into.

All statements mentioned can be easily verified.

Bowdoin Professor Deplores Talk

Special Despaich to The Press Herald Brunswick, May 23-Lashing out at those who he alleges are seeking at those who he alleges are seeking to confuse a well-meaning and honest public with nightmare apparitions. Prof. Newton P. Stallknecht, associate professor of philosophy at Bowdoin College, in a chapel address today urged the atudents to mature their opinions and make them heard. He quoted from a recent address by Admiral Yarnell that the United States is safe from foreign invasion.

Prof. Stallknecht termed the recent talk by Col. Charles Lindbergh as honest, intelligent, courageous opinion, but added it was presented a bit tactiessly.

"Why then all these alarms?" asked Prof. Stallknecht. "Why all this talk from high school to Congress of winged warriors descending upon us? Why this attempt to torture the public? Have they not heard enough already? Why repeat Orsen Welles horrible fairy tale about the Martians? That, to be sure was an accident. But there is nothing accidental about its repetition. repetition.

"If the people desire to involve usin war for reasons of economics, of international morality or sheer prestige, let them speak out but their critics must require them to state their true reasons. And they should refrain from confusing a well-meaning and honest public with nightmare apparitions. "It is my belief that an effort is now being made to frighten the American people. We hear from the President of the United States a public statement of the flying times from Greenland to Maine and from Bermuda to New York City. And these seem merely to be offered as evidence seem merely to be offered as evidence that we cannot possibly stand aloof from the European conflict. To be

He advocates a vast armament of airplanes — five times what one general considers adequate for defense. This armament is to be built under war-time measures which suspend competitive bidding, and some labor regulations which in recent years have been prepared to protect the forgotten man.

"Now of course we do not know what the Administration's next move will be. In fairness, we must admit that it may not be an unwise one. But it will be most unwise and unfair if it involves any further effort to frighten the public. A frightened pub-lic means a confused Congress that

It involves any further effort to frighten the public. A frightened public means a confused Congress that dares not appear to ignore popular excitement. And such a Congress is likely to do the wrong thing. No leader who frightens his people is a truly Democratic leader.

"Not so long ago one leader told us that grass would grow in the streets if he were not elected. And soon other leaders may be telling us that foreign bombs will be bursting in air if they are not reelected.

"Since I have gone so far it appears only fair to you that I state more fully my opinions concerning our proper attitude toward the war. I will not say that the European war is no concern of ours. It is very obviously a cause of great and distressful concern. We talk, these days of little else and we must take an intelligent stand concerning to.

"The war abroad is a painful matter for all of us—it is inhuman to laugh at it or even to try to forget; it. I am sure that everyone here is." ready to contribute generously to the Red Cross funds and to offer help to refugees when the chance arises. Americans have experience in organizing such assistance and such help can be offered with a clean conscience.

"But there is no ground upon which our own Government has a right to interfere in this war. Our Government is not a militant benevolent society for policing the world. Since we have proceeded according to that assumption, we should not suddenly desire to enforce law and order on a grand scale in Europe or Asia. To desire to do so under these circumstances is nothing but militant sentimentalism—which is at once the worst kind of sentimentalism and almost the worst kind of militarism.

This is not all. We should make certain that our government hears our instructions. There are involved in such a policy many special problems. Probable logs of much foreign trade is one of them. But even this is a small price to pay for the sanity and price to pay for the sanity and wholesome living which was is almost certain seriously to impair."

January 20, 1941

At the suggestion of a friend I am taking the liberty of writing you about Scribner's Commentator.

I felt that you would be interested to discover that one magazine exists in this confused land of ours which has the courage to speak out in behalf of common sense.

I say courage because the editorial policy we have adopted - the policy of thinking of America first and Europe second is not a popular one with the "Go To War Crush Hitler Now" minority who make the loudest noise and wield the most pressure these days.

Frankly we had some publishing doubts when we first lashed out on our campaign for reason. We were advised by every imaginable New York pressure group to desist. One prominent publishing executive warned us that if we ran a piece favorable to Lindbergh it would put the magazine out of business because "America thinks of Lindbergh as a traitor."

But we went ahead. As one of our directors said, "If this country has fallen so far that war-mongering playwrights are hailed as patriots while a Lindbergh is denounced as a foreign agent the sooner we find out about it the better."

And the results have been far from discouraging. A few newsdealers disliked our program and refused to 9 display us. A few people have written in asking that we cancel their subscriptions. But the real voice of America, the solid citizen who resides in ever-increasing numbers as one looks outside the great metropolitan areas, is backing us 100%.

Re: Destiny Barty.

On the evening of January 22, the American Destiny Party opened a membership drive in upper Manhattan with a meeting at the Glencoe Athletic Club, 159th St and Amsterdam Ave.

Between three and four hundred people crowded into the small drab hall. Strong-arm members of the Party stood at the door, som tinizing everyone who entered.

Helmond acted as chairman, introducing the speakers JAMES DOWNEY. prominent thristian Fronter, FRANK WOODRUFF, stout garrulous pro-Nazi, and JOSEPH McWILLIAMS, the FUHRER.

McWilliams chose for his theme the "History of the Jewish people". His rambling speach lastened mere than an hour. He advocated that the United States settle its "Jewish problem" in the same manner as " Egypt and Nazi Germany settled theirs" ..

Qn January 29, the Party held its second meeting at the Glencoe Athletic Club. As McWilliams had promised, the " Christian Directories" were distributed.

McWilliams himself described how they should be used. There were, he pointed out, four different directories, each covering a particular section in Manhattan.

This time, MrWilliam's speach lasted almost two hours. He urged all of them to keep * little black books* in readiness for "The Day". He was keeping one of his own, he said. At the conclusion of this speach, McWilliams brought the audience to its feet by vemently declaring: * The day is not far off when we shall meet no more in a small hall like this. The day will soon come when our Party will fill Madison Square Garden to overflow and LINDBERGH and I will apeak to you from the platform !"

Dear Mr. Early:

It is about time Lindberg was put in his place. Melvin E. Purvis late of the F.B.I. Chicago - now living in Florence, South Carolina - can give a true story of this young man, which will open the eyes of the public. Purvis told me he would be pleased to write such story for any reputable periodical - but would naturally want certain approval and permission to obtain some necessary data from the official files. You would not know me, but I think the Presd't may. You winter address is and you would undoubtedly know many friends of mine in the South. is my first cousin, but of course no one knows of my writing you on this subject matter, - hence the long hand letter.

I would be pleased to have Purvis write you - or I could call on you in #ashington after October twenty ninth - but this matter is of sufficient import to act without delay.

Please don't hesitate to permit me to give any aid.

Again in struct confidence

I remain yrs very truly

Stephen T. Early, Esq.

During the early part of the week, the experimental observation ship, the HELICOPTER, previously mentioned in these memorandums as being under construction in the Experimental Department, crashed at the nearby Bridgeport City Airport, and while being flown by its inventor. The ship was almost entirely demolished. Information from plant officials, based on conversations by them with persons acquainted with the crash, has resulted in information that the crash positively was cussed by the mechanical failure of tail parts from a material standpoint and that no sabatoge was seen therein. With reference to the Experimental Department, attention is invited to the writer's memorandum under date of October 12, 1940, page three, wherein it appears that Colonel CMRILES MINDELECT had visited the plant. Information from the purlater to the effect that Colonel MADELEGH had called for the purpose of flying the experimental ship, the "FIGHTER", but which was not accomplished as it was found that the motor mount connections were not strong enough to withstand the stress from the pull out of a power dive. Later it was learned that the above had been corrected but as yet the ship has not been further tested.

CHARGETA THE ACCOUNT OF

Mr. Chairman, members of the A.M.C. After your last meeting here some months ago, in your Chicago offices, Mr. Rosenberg rather intimated to me that I had been optimistic in my viewpoint. I certainly did not feel optimistic, at that time, and apparently I was only afraid to show the extent of my pessimism.

It has always seemed to me that since August 1939, when I received a letter from my German friend, saying "We will invade Poland on September 1st and Poland will cease to exist as a nation in 30 days - then it will be France's turn, then England's, then, we shall see who won the last war," that this was "our war" and from its very inception. It is our war now, we surely know. Or do we?

In the words of Life's editor, Mr. Luce, "We cannot win this war until we come to the knowledge that we might lose it."

This war will be the longest, most ruthless and bloodiest war you ever heard of. It will not all be fought in Borneo, "or what have you" but will very conceivably be fought partly between San Francisco and New York and very likely in Alaska, in Mexico and most assuredly in Panama and, of course, in Africa, in Europe and in Australia. This is truly a World-Wide War.

Neither Japan nor Germany will collapse, at least not in any conceivable immediate future. The Philippines are gone. Singapore, the Indies, even Turkey and Africa may fall and soon. And, no matter, except that another million men will die and the war will last another year. Mistake it not, there is but one enemy that we face and that we must defeat and that enemy is Nazi Germany. Japan will fall when Germany falls and not one hour before.

There is but one grave, great and immediate danger to America, namely that England may be invaded. If the British Isles fall, our situation is desperate indeed, for Britain is the "nerve center" of all resistance today, even though Russia is the "strong right arm" at the moment.

As yet we have no adequate army. Rather, a large group of individuals. A Buyer here in Chicago told me recently that if one single German landed at New York, he would take his rifle and go down. He meant this as a patriotic gesture but really it is defeatist in its effect. For, if we, you and I, "wait" until Nazis land anywhere then we are on the verge of defeat and we, as well as Mussolini, will be "lackeys" to the "Herren Volk" - the "Master Race". It is we that must do the "landing" or we will indeed, be the slave state.

The American Quislings have not changed their minds, they are merely biding their time. All hell will be to pay in these beloved United States of ours, and, when the going gets tough, watch the Darlan's and the Laval's in America and the Lindbergh's and the Nye's and the Coughlin's. They show signs of having the "Gauleiter" complex.

When the $30,000 salaried, export sales executive of a great Detroit Motor Car Manufacturer, living in Pleasant Ridge in Detroit, when, I say, such a man is convicted by the Federal Courts of espionage and admits having constantly advised Germany of our detailed army plane production, plant by plant and design by design, then, I say we had best watch the "Appeasors" and the "Nazi-medal-wearers" and the apologists for Herr Schickelgruber.

Housewares are important to America, they always have been, I hope they always will be. Housewares are important, even to victory. We must all do the best we can, must substitute, must improvise and must carry on and quit "bellyaching".

It will not help to quit or give up or lay down on our respective jobs. You will do less business in 1942 than you did in 1941. You had best make a larger mark-up to pay your increasing overhead. Our firm is rapidly bring our pricing policy to a point where we can allow a full and satisfactory margin to our key accounts. The manufacturer who "cuts" your discount today is doing you a grave disservice, when your costs are mounting against the possible restriction of sales due to rationing or to some equivalent.

Beh & Company wants to tell you that we are selling our merchandise to our regular department store and jobbing accounts exactly as we always have done. We have not solicitated nor accepted any new and large catalog or chain store business. Neither have we sold the hundreds of premium, chain, furniture and "schlag" houses who are coming in to see us in droves, both here at the Housewares Show in Chicago, and in our New York office. We are not, have not and will not sell the second story "discount houses" that you so justly complain of (and about which you do nothing).

All our items are for your counters and for the shelves of our other established and key accounts. We have, to date, filled 90% of your orders complete. We are still doing so and can continue, we feel, longer than the average of your resources.

May I say, also, that wood products are becoming scarce and will shortly be as difficult to obtain, perhaps as steel. To those who say "how come?" and add "the camps are all built", I reply, the camps have not even been started as yet and relatively speaking, of course.

A concrete case is the cancelling of 21 cars of lumber due us at the present time. Another 3 cars of Southern pine also suddenly taken by government priorities and only last week.

po not believe that the government will freeze your legitimate stocks of normal housewares, nor any items therein. Freezing of automobile stocks has no bearing on housewares. Naturally with auto production stopped, cars on hand must not be "gobbled up" by those with ready cash in their jeans, but must, in all conscience, be rationed, if that be the right word, but of course "sold" to those individuals and firms whose service to the public most urgently requires new transportation.

No car dealer will have his cars requisitioned or will lose his investment as the appeasers are apt to "whisper".

Rumor mongering, cursing the government, daming Roosevelt, daming England; apologizing for Hitler, condemning the Catholics, "God-daming" the Jews, all will not help us win this war. Let us stop these dangerous, if unconscious fifth columnists.

Thank you!

He told her that his wife was German and that they had formerly lived in Frankfort, Germany. During the course of their conversation, he spoke of "our man lindbergh" and seemed extremely annoyed at himself for having made this statement. Informant stated that she would have attached no significance to this statement except that she had heard from another source that the Fascists in this country planned to use LINDBERGH as a front man for Fascist activities in this country. She was unable to state where she had heard this information.
