On June 27, 1972, [redacted] Vancouver, Washington, telephone number [redacted] advised that he is rarely home in that he is a bus driver. He further advised that on or about December 13, 1971, he picked a man up in Portland, Oregon, who looked a lot like the composite drawing of the UNSUB. He stated that the man entered his bus from Fifth Avenue in Portland and that the man already had a ticket. He stated that he left the man off at Bridgeport Way and Interstate 5 South of Tacoma, Washington. He added that the man told him that he had to pick up a car at the south end of Tacoma. He advised that he got one quick look at the man as the man exited the bus. He described the man as white male, approximately 40 years old, height 5' 10", weight 145 to 150, dark hair and dark complexion, no luggage.

He further advised that he thinks the actual UNSUB in this matter was probably killed when he parachuted from the plane.

A Dun and Bradstreet report dated 8/31/71, indicated Westward Manufacturing, Inc., entered involuntary bankruptcy in July 1971. On 7/28/71, the corporation was adjudicated bankrupt.

On 7/27/72, [redacted] was interviewed at his residence, [redacted] California. [redacted] advised he recalls being with [redacted] at the [redacted] in Santa Monica, California, on 11/24/71. [redacted] specifically recalled having invited [redacted] to have Thanksgiving dinner with them on the following day at his, [redacted] home in Lakewood, California. He recalled [redacted] had declined the invitation stating he was flying out of town. He stated [redacted] had stated he was flying either to Phoenix, Arizona, or to Costa Rica and would be out of town on 11/25/71. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised he quite possibly drove [redacted] to Los Angeles International Airport (LAX), on the morning of 11/25/71; however, he does not positively recall that he had done so. He explained that he has often driven [redacted] to LAX on his business trips out of Los Angeles and he, in all liklihood, did so on 11/25/71, but could not state this positively. b6 b7C

[redacted] continued stating he has observed the artist's conception of the hijacker in both "Look" magazine and "Stag" magazine and in his opinion the drawing definitely does not resemble [redacted] He added he considers himself a very close friend of [redacted] and has never known him to ever have parachuted or even considered parachuting at any time. He said [redacted] entire disposition would make him, [redacted] extremely doubtful as to whether [redacted] would be capable of such a crime as he is a very nervous person even as a passenger on a plane and is not at all atheletically inclined. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that he, as a pilot, would be the last to condone any type of hijacking and if he had any knowledge or suspicion that anyone, including [redacted] was involved in such a matter he would readily cooperate with the FBI. b6 b7C

[redacted] also advised that one of the two men involved in [redacted] Costa Rica with [redacted] is reportedly a former Special Agent of the FBI. He stated the names of [redacted] business associates in Costa Rica are [redacted] and (first name unrecalled) [redacted] b6 b7C

In view of the previous information provided by attorney [redacted] of Marina del Rey, California, that [redacted] was in his office on 11/24/71, and [redacted] statement that he conversed with [redacted] at the [redacted] Santa Monica, on 11/24/71, it does not appear [redacted] warrants further consideration as a logical suspect at this time and no further investigation will be conducted by Los Angeles, UACB. b6 b7C

It is noted that UNSUB in this matter requested that the aft door must be opened and the stairs down during take off. When it was explained to the hijacker that the plane could not take off with the stairs down, he reportedly said in a low voice, "Yes they can, but the cockpit can put it down after they get airborne."

On 7/26/72, [redacted] Boeing Company Executive, advised that if the hijacker was a member of or had consulted with a member of The Boeing test team, he would have known that the 727 could not have taken off with the air stairs down; nor would it have been necessary, since the air stairs can easily be lowered in flight. b6 b7C

On 7/31/72, [redacted] advised that all personnel involved in the Boeing tests have been interviewed by Boeing Security Personnel and at the time of interview, copies of the artist's conception of UNSUB were provided to those personnel interviewed. [redacted] specifically requested that any further interviews with Boeing personnel be arranged through him and that consideration be given to prior contact with Boeing employees because of valuable work time involved. b6 b7C

On 7/31/72, [redacted] made available, a copy of the Boeing tests summary report dealing with the flight configuration of the 727 during testing. The following is a summary of the configuration used during the Boeing air stairs test: b6 b7C

Speed - 125 knots
Flaps - 25 degrees down
Altitude - 10,000 feet

The following information was obtained from The Boeing report:

"...the air stair was quite stable when it was down and no airplane control problems were experienced. No excessive cabin pressure transients were noted with the aft entry door open and the stair extended. The environment near the aft entry door allowed it to be safely opened and the stair retracted at speeds up to 300 knots."

In Seattle report of SA CHARLES E. FARRELL dated 2/16/72, it is noted that UNSUB requested the following configuration upon taking off from Seattle-Tacoma (Sea-Tac) International Airport:

Gear down
Flaps 15 degrees
Altitude - 10,000 feet

It is apparent therefore, that the configuration requested by UNSUB is not the same as used in Boeing air stair testing.

[redacted] further stated that the Boeing test results occupy many volumes and because of the many copies made and length of time since test conducted (8 years), it is not possible to determine the names of all persons who might have had access to the test results. b6 b7C

RE: ARTIST'S CONCEPTION

Enclosed is a copy of photo KK5-1 in the Facial Lines Section of the Facial Identification Catalogue, and a copy of the artist's composite of UNSUB.

The Bureau advised by teletype dated 12/17/71 as follows:

"It is expected the Seattle Office will continue to give this matter close supervisory attention and insure investigation is conducted promptly and thoroughly."

In view of this, the enclosed information is being submitted in memorandum form, first for supervisor evaluation and approval prior to being forwarded to the Bureau for approval.

A key witness, [redacted] was very adamant in her insistence that the artist's conception was not a good likeness of the hijacker. In an FD-302 dated 12/2/71, [redacted] stated that the coneption was not, in her opinion, a good likeness of the hijacker. She requested permission to examine the Facial Identification Catalogue and immediately picked out photo #KK5-1 in the Facial Lines Section stating, "that is him, except for the years and hair." She explained that the person depicted in that particular photo closely resembled the man; however, the ears of the hijacker did not protrude as far from the head and she felt that the hair line should be somewhat lower than that on the man depicted on photo KK5-1. She was very adamant in her insistence that the artist's conception shown to her was not a good likeness of the hijacker. b6 b7C

A comparison of the artist's composite of UNSUB and photo KK5-1 revealed the primary difference between the two photos is UNSUB's composite appears to be a man much younger than theman depicted in photo KK5-1. The man in KK5-1 appears to be in his mid-40s while the composite shows the man in his late 20s or early 30s.

Witness [redacted] advised on 11/29/71 that the artist's composite of UNSUB depicted a man too young. b6 b7C

Witness [redacted] advised on 11/29/71 the man depicted in artist's composite appears younger than UNSUB actually is.

Stewardess [redacted] on 11/25/71 advised the man depicted in artist's composite is "too young." b6 b7C

From a review of Seattle report of SA CHARLES E. FARRELL dated 2/16/72, it is apparent that the only witnesses to see UNSUB for any length of time, at a close distance, were the three Northwest Airlines stewardesses. Therefore, their opinions should be given more consideration and any artist's conception of UNSUB should reflect more of their views than those of the other witnesses.

To date 475 suspects have been developed based on appearance, as well as other features. Many of the suspects were developed because of their resemblance to the artist's composite of UNSUB. A great number of these suspects have turned out to be in their 20s or early 30s, with light or fair complexion. According to witnesses, UNSUB's age is in the mid-40s and his complexion is olive or Latin in appearance. The artist's composite clearly looks like a man in his late 20s or 30s and his complexion is difficult to determine from the black and white sketch.

Many agent hours are necessary to eliminate a suspect once developed. To investigate a suspect who should never have been considered is inefficient as well as ineffective. Redoing the artist's composite to better approximate the age and complexion of UNSUB should save many fruitless hours of agent investigation time.

In view of the above the following lead is suggested:

A Bureau artist should recontact the three Northwest Airlines stewardesses and amend the current composite to better reflect his age and complexion. The sketch should be done in color showing full face, full face with dark glasses, side profile and a sketch showing the hijackers height and build in a standing position. All sketches should be in color to indicate UNSUB's swarthy complexion.

The FBI Laboratory should provide information to the Bureau artist as to color of hair based upon a single hair sample submitted previously by the Las Vegas Division. It is noted that this hair was found on the head rest towel on the back of the seat reportedly occupied by UNSUB. It is further noted that this hair is being held by the Las Vegas Division as evidence. If the exact color of the hair was not determined in the initial Laboratory examination, the Las Vegas Division should be directed to forward it to the Laboratory for a color examination.

Oneother reference point, being Point A (Supra), was located, after which both using their technique produced an angle which when extended appearedto contact the previously established location within the triangle.

RE: ARTIST'S CONCEPTION

Enclosed is a copy of photo KK5-1 in the Facial Lines Section of the Facial Identification Catalogue, and a copy of the artist's composite of UNSUB.

The following information is being submitted for Bureau review, and the enclosed leads are being set forth on an UACB basis:

On 12/2/71, a key witness, [redacted] b6 b7C insisted that the artist's conception was not a good likeness of the hijacker. She requested permission to examine the Facial Identification Catalogue and immediately picked out photograph KK5-1 in the Facial Lines Section stating, "that is him, except for the ears and hair." She explained that the person depicted in that particular photograph resembled the man; however, the ears of the hijacker did not protrude as far from the head and she felt that the hair line should be somewhat lower than that on the man depicted on photo KK5-1. She was very adamant in her insistence that the artist's conception shown to her was not a good likeness of the hijacker.

164-81-3751.1

In addition, the following witnesses indicated their dissatisfaction with the artist's sketch:

Witness [redacted] advised on 11/29/71, that the artist's composite of UNSUB depicted a man too young. Witness [redacted] advised on 11/29/71, the man depicted in artist's composite appears younger than UNSUB actually is. Stewardess [redacted] on 11/25/71, advised the man depicted in artist's composite is "too young." b6 b7C

To date 475 suspects have been developed based on appearance, as well as other features. Many of the suspects were developed because of their resemblance to the artist's composite of UNSUB. A great number of these suspects have turned out to be in their 20s or early 30s, with light or fair complexion. According to witnesses, UNSUB's age is in the mid-40s and his complexion is olive or Latin in appearance. The artist's composite clearly looks like a man in his late 20s or early 30s and his complexion is difficult to determine from the black and white sketch.

Many agent hours are necessary to eliminate a suspect once developed. Redoing the artist's composite to better approximate the age and complexion of UNSUB should save many fruitless hours of agent investigation time.

From a review of Seattle report of SA CHARLES E. FARRELL dated 2/16/72, it is apparent that the only witnesses to see UNSUB for any length of time, at a close distance, were the three Northwest Airlines stewardesses. Therefore, their opinions should be given more consideration and any artist's conception of UNSUB should reflect more of their views than those of the other witnesses.

In view of the above the following lead is being set forth on an UACB basis:

A Bureau artist will recontact the three Northwest Airlines stewardesses and amend the current composite to better reflect his age and complexion. The sketch should be done in color showing full face, full face with dark glasses, side profile and a sketch showing the hijackers height and build in a standing position. All sketches should be in color to indicate UNSUB's swarthy complexion.

The FBI Laboratory will provide information to the Bureau artist as to color of hair based upon a single hair sample submitted previously by the Las Vegas Division. It is noted that this hair was found on the head rest towel on the back of the seat reportedly occupied by UNSUB. It is further noted that this hair is being held by the Las Vegas Division as evidence. If the exact color of the hair was not determined in the initial Laboratory examination, the Las Vegas Division should be directed to forward it to the Laboratory for a color examination.

The Seattle Division will, upon receipt of copies of the amended sketch, supervise its distribution.

Re Memo of SA [redacted] to SAC, 8/1/72

Referenced memorandum contained information regarding [redacted] alleging that he is able to locate currency by means of [redacted]

On 8/2/72 [redacted] telephonically advised that [redacted] had changed his original location of a currency cache to a spot approximately 2½ miles east of the original location. It should be noted that the new location is approximately on line of flight of the hijacked aircraft as set forth on original maps and in other data, and also approximately 1½ miles from Point A, of a triangulated search area, in a northerly direction.

On 8/3/72 the writer, [redacted] went to the intersection of County Roads 16 and 32 in Clark County where [redacted] exhibited time honored techniques of [redacted] This resulted in producing what they concluded to be the direction and approximate location of a large sum of currency. Three other reference points were located on County Road 20 and using the same method angles were determined setting up a triangle in which this large amount of currency is believed to be located by [redacted]

One other reference point, being Point A (Supra), was located, after which both [redacted] using their technique produced an angle which when extended appeared to contact the previously established location within the triangle. 5 maps in 164-81-Sub A 1a (306)

Maps explaing the above information are attached to this communication. 1 map attached Sub E

The writer to test the veracity of the tehhnique used hid small sums of currency in various locations and observed both [redacted] locate the hidden currency [redacted]

164-81-3766

It is felt consideration should be given to exploring the possibility that a large sum of currency is located at the area outlined in red on one of the attached maps.

Re memo of SA [redacted] to SAC, 8/4/72 b6 b7C

On 8/7/72 the agents attached to Longview RA donducted a check of the area mentioned in referenced memorandum which also had a map attached. SA [redacted] conducted a complete through search of the area starting at County Road 20 and progressing through the area to county road 32. It is felt a thorough walk through search was conducted of the suspect area and it was noted that the area is extremely heavy brush, fallen timber and almost impenetrable and is an area in which there are no residences or farm buildings. b6 b7C

On the County Road 32 side of the suspect area the terrain drops very sharply about 50 feet from the road to the creek bed. Further on the county road 20 side of the suspect area the terrain also drops very sharply to the creek.

It is felt that if a decision should be made to conduct further searching of the suspect area it would be necessary to have lo agents for a period of two days. The property in question is privately owned with three parcels owned by three individuals.

On 8/7/72 [redacted] who has been involved in this inquiry from its inception furnished aerial photograph copies of the terrain in question which are attached. b6 b7C

Dear Sir:

[redacted]

I have thought of a idea that may work in the prevention of aircraft hyjacking it came to me while reading and noteing that our government and aircraft builders have not come up with a real solution to the problem. The cost at this time to find a way to stop hyjacking is tremendous. Plus the possible loss of life & aircraft. This are my conditions to expose my idea $150,000 tax free if it is tested and works. I was in the air force for eight years. Also I worked for Boeing Aircraft for two years as a Quality Control inspector of aircraft. Knowing the aircraft systems, makes me believe that it will work. b6 b7C

In the course of the conversation [redacted] mentioned the name [redacted] I'm not sure the correct spelling of the name. He also said this guy was just crazy enough to do something like that, (Hi-Jack an airplane.) He said this guy had done some flying and that he was a para-trooper in the service for three years. He also said *this guy fits the description of D. B. Cooper and [redacted] said he hadn't seen the guy in a long time but that he thought he was in Alaska. b6 b7C

When I got home that night (or morning) I called the FBI office in Seattle, number MA2-0460 and gave the person who answered the phone the foregoing information.

In order that this case be given more publicity, the following leads are being set forth for Bureau consideration and approval:

1. Mats should be made of the artist's conception of Unsub so that small publications with limited funds can feature articles concerning this matter and include with the story a picture of Unsub without incurring the additonal expense of having new mats made (Note: An editor of the Veterans' of Foreign Wars publication for the State of Oregon has requested such a mat to print a picture of Unsub in his next issue).

Enclosed is a copy of the May 1972 Pacific Power & Light bulletin's story concerning the FBI search for parachuting skyjacker. This story is being enclosed for information purposes only; however, the following quote from the story is noteworthy:

"The man who boarded the plane in Portland as 'D. B. COOPER' literally vanished into the air that November night and as this issue went to press nothing new had been unearthed in the recent search.

"This fact, coupled with a popular theory that the skyjacker ended up entangled in a tree in below-freezing weather and never made it any farther, may make looking for 'D. B. COOPER' and the $200,000 ransom a recreational fad on the Lewis River this summer."

FBI's Search for Parachuting Skyjacker
No Picnic Around PP&L's Merwin Area

PP&L's Merwin Park could have passed for a mini-military base last month when the FBI and the U.S. Army moved in to resume the search for the mysterious "D.B. Cooper" who hijacked a Northwest Airlines 727 last November, demanded $200,000 in ransom and parachuted with the money into the rainy night—most likely as the plane was over the Lake Merwin area.

The area was pinpointed by the FBI based on the position of the plane when the crew last spoke to the skyjacker over the plane's phone approximately two miles east of Woodland. Winds between 25 and 40 miles per hour were taken into account in determining that the hijacker could have drifted toward Lake Merwin.

A portion of the Company's property and surrounding area on the Lewis River in southwestern Washington was searched following the skyjacking but the November weather hindered the operation.

Then in March, four months after the event, the FBI contacted Pacific wanting to renew the search of the rugged, wooded terrain and use Merwin Park as its headquarters. Two weeks later 200 men, nine helicopters and the support facilities needed to maintain the men and machines of the squadron from Ft. Lewis moved into the Company's recreational facility to assist in the air and ground search.

The resumption of the search, although what prompted it was not made public, was coordinated with PP&L personnel. Tom Selliken, assistant vice president in charge of insurance and security, along with Larry Ouzts, loss prevention engineer; G. Eldon Drennan, vice president of engineering and power operations; Stan Piper, division power superintendent; and Joe Nichols, manager of public affairs, met with the FBI to help determine measures that would insure the security of PP&L's hydroelectric dam and property.

Normally open to the public, the park was closed during the search to guard against crowds of curious people on the grounds.

MEASURES TO INSURE security of PP&L's hydroelectric dam and property was worked out prior to the resumption of the search. Larry Ouzts, left, loss prevention engineer, stops at Merwin Park gate to check in with FBI agent.

PICNIC TABLES ON A HELICOPTER PAD? Pacific's Merwin Park with scenes of Army life—mess tent, military vehicles, first aid truck and helicopters — as the FBI and Army used the park as headquarters during the recent search for "D. B. Cooper," missing skyjacker.

The command post for the operation where FBI agents coordinated men and helicopters was set up in one of the Company buildings at the site. The troops were bivouacked in the adjoining park area which also served as a helicopter pad.

The man who boarded the plane in Portland as "D.B. Cooper" literally vanished into the air that November night and as this issue went to press nothing new had been unearthed in the recent search.

This fact, coupled with a popular theory that the skyjacker ended up entangled in a tree in below-freezing weather and never made it any farther, may make looking for "D.B. Cooper" and the $200,000 ransom a recreational fad on the Lewis River this summer.

[redacted] One of these two buddies either [redacted] a service station in Illion, New York, and [redacted] also had [redacted] prior to entering the service. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] told [redacted] that the [redacted] however, he did not indicate where, but presumably some place near Illion, New York. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] also told [redacted] that he and his two buddies [redacted] on the street and had the system worked out to where they could [redacted] in from three to five minutes. At times they would sit back and [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated he first mentioned the hijacking to [redacted] after [redacted] asked [redacted] to give him a problem to figure out. b6 b7C b7D

They then discussed the hijacking plan that [redacted] had thought of earlier and whether or not it would work. Their original plan was to obtain a flight that would have very few people on it, [redacted] one or more of the hijackers capable of taking over the controls of the airplane. [redacted] suggested the northwestern United States, pointing out there were numerous open places where a jump could be made with no problems. Their jump would be made at night from a height of 10,000 feet. Further, they talked of asking for a $200,000.00 ransom; however, they never discussed how it would be gotten aboard the aircraft, such as landing at an auxiliary field after radioing ahead. [redacted] instead of having them provided with the ransom. The plan also called for the jump to be made without the crew of the aircraft knowing when it took place. An accomplice on the ground with a vehicle was discussed as part of the plan. No other aircraft was mentioned in their plan. The fewer people involved as participants of the hijacking the better. b6 b7C b7D discussed any particular airline as their victim. He estimated they discussed the hijacking about four different times of periods of thirty minutes or less.

[redacted] said no cities in the northwest were mentioned and no specific landing area was selected. Also, they never b6 b7C b7D

One of their problems was to determine in advance that a plane on a particular flight would not have very many people on board. Further, after additional consideration they realized that the only jet aircraft in use at that time had side doors and a jump from a side door would be too dangerous. In view of this, they "bagged" the idea and did not feel it could be carried out safely.

[redacted] said that [redacted] he has ever discussed the hijacking plan with and never with any of his other military buddies. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] insisted that this is as far as he went with this plan; however, he feels [redacted] has the nerve and is shrewd enough to plan and carry out a hijacking. Definitely [redacted] had not told [redacted] he intended to carry through on the plan; however, he could have decided after the 727 came into existence. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] said he has not seen or heard from [redacted] in any manner whatsoever since he, [redacted] left Okinawa in early [redacted] and thereafter received his discharge at Oakland, California, [redacted] He added that [redacted] was in Okinawa when he left; however, he presumed he later came to Oakland and was discharged if he did not sign up for another hitch. Further, [redacted] held the rank of [redacted] at the time he received his discharge and [redacted] when [redacted] left Okinawa. b6 b7C b7D

Reurairtel dated 8/7/72.

Bureau artist developed composite drawing of NORJAK Unsub with sunglasses based on interviews with stewardesses [redacted] b6 b7C and [redacted] On 11/27/71 stewardess [redacted] while viewing original sketch prepared, commented that it was "almost 100% like him" and stated she could suggest nothing additional to make sketch a better likeness.

With reference to photo KK5-1 in the Bureau's Facial Identification Catalog, it is noted [redacted] indicated on her initial interview it would bear a resemblance to Unsub if modifications were made. She selected ten additional photos as resembling various features of Unsub. This plus the comments and look-alike photos selected by stewardesses [redacted] and [redacted] went into the preparation of composite drawing with sunglasses. The sketch was modified to show the eyes when additional witnesses later selected look-alike photos of the eyes. b6 b7C

The attempt to depict the apparent age of Unsub has proven difficult from the beginning since witnesses did not describe age lines or features that lend themselves to the aging process. Preparation of the drawing in color may contribute to the aging factor as well as show the complexion color. In view of [redacted] more recent comments, an additional sketch in color and labeled "B" has been prepared by Exhibits Section with and without sunglasses. The "B" sketch is based on photo KK5-1 from the Catalog with changes suggested by [redacted] Original sketch previously prepared from combined descriptions of several witnesses will be retained in Bureau files. b6 b7C

Preparation of profile view of Unsub will be held in abeyance until your office determines whether or not an available witness can supply sufficient descriptive data for sketch of side view to be made. If this description is available Exhibits Section should be advised accordingly.

Advantages offered by full length sketch in standing position appear questionable. A full length sketch is recommended only if it shows some descriptive feature that deviates from the average and can better be described pictorially than written.

Enclosed herewith are twenty photographic copies of "B" sketch, in color. Ten show Unsub with sunglasses, ten without. They should be displayed to available witnesses for their evaluation and comments.

DETAILS:

PREDICATION

RICHARD FLOYD MC COY, JR. - SUSPECT

MC COY was the subject of a similar crime aboard aircraft - hijacking case involving United Air Lines Flight 855 from Denver, Colorado, to Los Angeles, California, April 7, 1972, in which case MC COY was convicted by jury in United States District Court, Salt Lake City, Utah, and sentenced on July 10, 1972, to a term of 45 years.

This investigation was predicated on the fact that numerous similarities exist between the captioned matter, "NORJAK," and the case involving MC COY, as follows:

In NORJAK, envelope containing instructions was furnished to stewardess. In United Air Lines, envelope and two-page single spaced, typewritten instructions with envelope containing hand grenade safety pin and .45 caliber cartridge were given to stewardess.

The subject in NORJAK exhibited contents of attache case alleged to contain dynamite. In United Air Lines case, hijacker exhibited gun and grenade and indicated he had plastic explosive.

In NORJAK case, subject dictated message to stewardess as follows: "I want $200,000 by 5:00 p.m. in cash. Put it in a knapsack. I want two back parachutes and two front parachutes. When we land, I want a fuel truck read to refuel. No funny stuff, or I'll do the job."

In United Airlines case, specific typewritten instructions were given for United Air Lines to have $500,000 in various denominations, two back and two front parachutes of a specific manufacture and location where they could be obtained at San Francisco, that fuel truck with six hours fuel and two men on truck be available; that all vehicles be 100 feet from the nose of the aircraft on the left side, and that captain of hijacked plane use Runway 19 Left at San Francisco International Airport.

In NORJAK, passengers were deplaned and one stewardess and three male flight crew members remained on board. In United Air Lines case, all passengers deplaned, two stewardess and three flight crew personnel remained on board.

In NORJAK, hijacker instructed he be flown to Mexico City, instructing pilot to fly at not more than 10,000 feet, with flaps at 15 degrees, the landing gear down and rear steps of plane also down, plane involved being Boeing 727, a tri-jet, with stairs at rear. Hijacker finally agreed to having steps raised. (It is noted Boeing 727 aircraft unable to take off with stairs in lowered position. However in order for stairs to be lowered in flight, it is necessary that rear pressured door be in open position on take-off.)

Continuing in NORJAK, stewardess remained in cabin with hijacker, and hijacker had stewardess show him how to lower steps and ordered her to go to first class section. United Air Lines hijacker ordered stewardess to go to front section of plane and did not require instructions as to how to operate lowering mechanism of rear stairs.

In NORJAK, plane captain was in contact with hijacker by intercom and just prior to final communication with hijacker, captain had signal indicating stairs had been lowered.

In United Air Lines case, plane crew was on oxygen flying at 16,000 feet for a period of one and one-half hours prior to hijacker jumping due to open rear stairs.

In NORJAK, Boeing 727 was flying at 170 knots. In United Air Lines case, Boeing 727 was flying at 180 knots, which approximates 200 miles per hour or 3 miles per minute, at instruction of hijacker.

DB Cooper-9389

In NORJAK, two parachutes remained on aircraft when it arrived at Reno, Nevada, one of which was open and three shroud lines had been cut and removed from parachute, presumably to tie ransom money package to hijacker. In United Air Lines case, hijacker jettisoned one, two or three parachutes in Nevada, at least one containing homing device, and had rope or harness in his possession to fasten money and equipment to him. In United Air Lines case, the rope was 19 feet long with eye grommets. In interview of local National Guard parachute jumper, he indicated it is standard operating procedure in National Guard units to have "H" harness with which equipment package is strapped to body. Approximately 25 foot rope is fastened to harness and equipment package, and after parachute is opened, jumper lowers package so it dangles below him. As jumper approaches ground, he releases rope from body harness with result package will drop in immediate area of landing. Jumper cannot retain package fastened to body as this would hinder landing operation and possibly cause serious injury.

Physical description in both cases is remarkably similar. In NORJAK case, subject is described as possibly in mid 40s, and personal observation of MC COY, age 29, gives immediate impression of man possibly 40. Composit photograph of NORJAK subject bears strong resemblance, particularly hair-line, hair part, shape of face and nose. In NORJAK case, witnesses describe subject's complexion as olive, Latin appearance, medium smooth. In United Air Lines case, witnesses likewise described subject as of dark complexion, possibly Mexican, believed due to make-up. In NORJAK case, subject described as having sideburns at low ear level. Subject in United Air Lines case upon arrest had sideburns to bottom lobe of ear. In NORJAK case, witnesses stated voice had no particular accent, possibly from Midwest section of United States. In United Air Lines case, witnesses described subject's voice as normal and did not refer to any accent of any type.

In NORJAK case, subject described as heavy smoker of Raleigh filter-tip cigarettes. In United Air Lines case, subject brought supply of candy and continually ate candy during flight. It is noted United Air Lines investigation has not indicated United Air Lines subject smokes; however, he is from Raleight, North Carolina. Candy could be a substitute for cigarettes; however, subject in each case obviously nervous.

In United Air Lines case, there is obvious evidence subject attempted to disguise himself after boarding plane, in that he on two occasions spent extended periods in lavatory and emerged with black hair wig and false mustache.

In NORJAK case, subject during latter part of flight put on dark wrap-around sunglasses with dark rims. United Air Lines case subject boarded plane with mirror type sunglasses.

In NORJAK case, subject believed to have departed plane in area containing a noticeable beacon and farm land. In United Air Lines case, subject departed plane shortly after heading east of Utah Lake near airport with beacon and immediately beyond, farm land thus providing excellent bearings for jump.

In NORJAK case, subject was very insistent upon retrieving instructions after reading by pilot. In United Air Lines case, subject likewise insisted upon retrieving instructions. Advance preparation of flight plan instructions in United Air Lines case could logically represent refinement of modus operandi.

DB Cooper-9392

On April 11, 1972, [redacted] b6 b7C
[redacted] Hughes Air West, 2nd and Ellsworth, San Mateo, California, made available Hughes Air West tickets during the pertinent period of NORJAK, and a review failed to reflect any individual by the name R. MC COY, D. B. COOPER or any similar name flying from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Seattle, Washington, or Portland, Oregon, or from Portland or Seattle to Salt Lake City. During this review, reviewing personnel were instructed to pull any tickets with the names COOPER or MC COY and none were located, the review being conducted by Bureau Agents.

On April 11, 1972, Bureau Agents from the Minneapolis Office contacted [redacted] Northwest Airlines, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and [redacted] provided the lift tickets for all flights from Portland to Seattle and vice versa for the period of November 10-24, 1971, and a review of these tickets for the names RICHARD FLOYD MC COY, R. MC COY, D. COOPER, DAN COOPER and T. JOHNSON were negative. [redacted] stated that the lift tickets that were reviewed were tickets of on-line passengers, who are those individuals making reservations through Northwest on Northwest flights, and tickets were not available for review of those off-line passengers, which would entail approximately 25 percent of Northwest passenger service. b6 b7C

The Las Vegas Division on April 18, 1972, advised that all airline manifest that have flights to Portland from Las Vegas are destroyed after 90 days and that Hughes Air West, United Air Lines and Northwest Airlines provide service between Las Vegas and Portland; however, there are no direct flights and all are via Los Angeles, California, or San Francisco, California.

On April 19, 1972, the Las Vegas Division advised the only Air Force base where military planes could land in the Las Vegas area is Nellis Air Force Base northeast of Las Vegas. Nellis Air Force Base operations advised that individuals who come in on military planes are not logged, therefore, there is no way of knowing whether a particular individual arrived in Las Vegas. Operations personnel stated that individual names would be available at the point of origin of the flight and would be contained on a passenger manifest.

On April 19, 1972, the San Francisco Division advised that records of Hughes Air West under the names RICHARD FLOYD MC COY, D. COOPER, DAN COOPER and J. JOHNSON were checked by Bureau Agents from November 22, 1971, through November 26, 1971, for all flights from Las Vegas, Nevada, to Portland, Oregon, and return with negative results.

On April 19, 1972, the Chicago Division advised a review of all United Air Lines flight coupons and all other airlines flight coupons used for travel on United Air Lines flights from Salt Lake City to Portland, November 10-24, 1971, and return flights from Seattle and Portland to Salt Lake City from November 10 to November 27, 1971, failed to show any passenger traveling under the name R. MC COY, RICHARD FLOYD MC COY, JR., D. COOPER or DAN COOPER.

On April 20, 1972, [redacted] Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada, advised a search of records for outgoing aircraft to Portland, Oregon, area during November, 1971, was made with negative results, and no record was located on MC COY on any flight manifest for the same period. b6 b7C

On April 21, 1972, the Portland Division advised records of three separate military units at Portland International Airport, Portland, Oregon, were checked and the records disclosed that no flight was made during the pertinent period by suspect MC COY. Western Airlines records at Portland, Oregon, failed to show any flight made by suspect MC COY during pertinent period.

On April 19, 1972, [redacted] for Hill Air Force Base Passenger Terminal, Utah, advised Special Agent [redacted] that the November, 1971, passenger manifest did not list the names D. B. COOPER, DAN COOPER or RICHARD FLOYD MC COY, JR. b6 b7C

On April 27, 1972, [redacted] for United Air Lines, Elk Grove, Illinois, advised United Air Lines offers no connecting flights from Las Vegas to Portland during November, 1971, and was not a recommended service for those points. b6 b7C

CREW IN NORJAK AND OTHER WITNESSES

DB Cooper-9395

On April 12, 1972, a series of photographs containing that of RICHARD FLOYD MC COY was shown to Northwest Airlines stewardesses at Minneapolis, Minnesota. The three stewardesses stated there were some slight similarities, but each was quite certain that MC COY was not identical with COOPER. Some of the differences in physical characteristics noted were that MC COY's ears stuck further from his head than those of COOPER, and COOPER's hair was fuller than that of MC COY's, MC COY's nose was broader than that of COOPER's; and [redacted], the only stewardess who saw COOPER without his glasses, stated that COOPER's eyes were brown, it being noted that MC COY's eyes are blue. b6 b7C

Photographs of RICHARD FLOYD MC COY were shown in suitable groups to Portland Division witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] fellow passenger of subject in NORJAK case. b6 b7C and none could make any identifications. [redacted] stated positively that MC COY was not identical with NORJAK subject, and [redacted] stated he does not recall enough to make a positive statement.

[redacted] Las Vegas, Nevada, on April 18, 1972, located a carbon copy and two carbons utilized in the preparation of a sales invoice number 764637 for the purchase of 5.6 gallons on gasoline with total charges of $2.57.

This invoice was charged to RICHARD F. MC COY, JR., Bank Americard Number 4763 160 217 773 and bore the signature of MC COY.

The invoice carried the machine date of November 25, 1972, but had the written date of November 26, 1971. The license number listed on the carbon copy of the invoice appeared to be SA 1334 and the carbon utilized for the preparation of these invoices had the additional notations "No. Carol", however the above writing was not readily discernible on the written carbon copy of the invoice.

[redacted] explained that the discrepancy of the dates could be explained by virtue of the fact that his station operated on a 24 hour basis with shifts running from 7:00am to 3:00pm, from 3:00pm to 11:00pm and from 11:00pm to 7:00am. He stated that in view of the fact November 25, 1971, was a holiday, he did not personally work that day and as a result, the machine date of November 25, would not have been changed to November 27, 1971, until 9:00am on November 26, when he visited the station to correlate the receipts for the holiday. b6 b7C

[redacted] further noted that in all possibility, the employee handling the actual transaction was on duty from 11:00pm, November 25, to 7:00am, November 26, and therefore entered the date as November 26, which would have been his regular work day and the machine date would not have been changed until his appearance later as noted above. b6 b7C

[redacted] noted further that in view of their location as the last station prior to the southbound entry onto Interstate 15 or conversely the first station for anyone approaching Las Vegas on the freeway from the south, their business is evenly divided between traffic heading for Los Angeles who wish to gas up prior to their entry into the desert or are the initial contact for vehicles coming into from the desert area who are nearly out of gasoline. b6 b7C

[redacted] noted that three copies of the Bank Americard invoice would have been prepared with the original copy being furnished to MC COY at the time of the purchase, a second copy being retained by him and the final copy going to Bank Americard Company for charges to be paid at a later date. [redacted] placed his name and date on the reverse side of the carbon copy and furnished this invoice and the two carbons in the preparation of the entire transaction to the FBI on April 18, 1972. b6 b7C

[redacted] Las Vegas, Nevada, advised on April 19, 1972, that the handwriting appearing on Bank Americard invoice number 764637 for the sale of 5.6 gallons of gasoline in the amount of $2.57, appeared familiar to him as his handwriting and it is his impression that he possibly handled that transaction. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that normally they are required to enter their initials on the sales transaction, however, this apparently was not done on the above invoice and stated that he normally checks the license plate and state and enters same thereon, which he assumes he may have done in this instance. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated, however, that he did work the 11:00pm shift commencing November 25, 1971, terminated at 7:00am on November 26, 1971, but he does not now specifically recall handling this transaction nor can he describe the vehicle or individuals who may have been involved. b6 b7C

[redacted] added that he is unable to identify the artist's conception of the individual hijacking the northwest airline flight as anyone known to him. b6 b7C

A review of BankAmericard charge tickets on April 17, 1972, indicated charges to MC COY at Provo, Utah, for gas purchased on November 25, 1971; a charge for gas purchase at Cedar City, Utah, on November 25, 1971; a charge for gas purchase at Power Thrust, Las Vegas, Nevada, on November 25, 1971; and a gas purchase on November 26, 1971, at Cedar City, Utah.

On April 19, 1972, pertinent service stations at Cedar City, Utah, were contacted and it was stated that the dates on the charge tickets of November 25 and 26, 1971, are probably accurate dates; however, both service station operators advised they have made errors in the past on dates on charge tickets and could not be absolutely certain as to the dates.

Enclosed to this memo is a copy of a story that appeared in the June issue of Mobster Times entitled, "Skyjacking: The Plane Story of D. B. Cooper." It is noted much of the information contained in the article is erroneous but two statements were of interest and there are quoted for information purposes as follows: "He had chosen a 727 because the 727 is the only kind of commercial jet from which it is safe to parachute." "He who steals a plane and $200,000 and leaps out into the night sky is a hero."

ReSEairtel to Bureau dated 8/22/72, requesting mats of the artist's conception prepared in captioned matter for use in obtaining more widespread publicity.

In accordance with the request of the Seattle Office 8/7/72, a color artist's conception was prepared and forwarded to the Seattle Office. To date the Bureau has received no evaluation of this color sketch. Seattle's request for mats will not be further considered until the Bureau receives an evaluation by the witnesses of the color sketch.

For the information of the Seattle Office, commercial engravers charge $10 per 50 minutes plus an initial charge of $8 for a 4" x 5" plate. These mats will only reproduce in black and white. Many publishers both large and small presently use the offset printing process which does not require a mat.

The Seattle Office should promptly coordinate review of the Bureau's color sketch for the purpose of evaluation. If it is deemed advisable that the mats be prepared, resubmit your recommendation.

BUFILE 164-2111

On 8/17/72, [redacted] residing at [redacted], Georgia, furnished the following information.

During the first week of November 1971, he was on an elk hunting trip in the northeastern portion of the state of Oregon. During this hunt he ran across a log shelter cabin and a cache of survival gear located in a remote place in this area. He is unware of the signifcance of this cache but furnished this information after hearing about captioned case. He advised that a short time after the hijacking he was transferred by his company from Portland, Oregon, to Atlanta, Georgia, and only recently received his furniture and personal effects. Since some of the data contained herein was with his personal effects he was unable to furnish this information prior to this time.

He produced a United States Department of Agriculture, Forest Service map of the Joseph Ranger District, Wallowa Whitman National Forest, dated in 1965. He stated that this map is available through the headquarters of the Forest Service in Portland, Oregon. He stated that the area that he is relating to is located within sections 1, 12, or 13 of Range 49 East in Township 1 north as set out on the above described map.

He states that he was off hunting by himself on this one particular occasion, when he stumbled into an area of heavy brush, he discovered a log shelter constructed entirely of logs five to six inches in diameter. The building being approximately four feet long by five feet wide and four feet high, the opening to the shelter was covered by logs propped in place and staked in position in the ground. At the time he was there, there was approximately 12 to 18 inches of snow on the ground and this amount of snow had been in the area for four to six weeks prior to this time. He noticed no fresh tracks near the shelter or cache at the time.

He was unable to look into the shelter to see what was contained therein and he did not remove any of the logs to examine it. He did notice a duffel bag hanging from a tree near by. This duffel bag had the name [redacted] b6 b7C or the last name could be [redacted] with Air Force number [redacted] imprinted on the duffel bag. The bag appeared to be old and contained numerous tears and wear holes. He examined the contents of the duffel bag and discovered that it contained rifle bullets, long-handled men's underwear, shoe grease, candles, a jacket, vitamin pills, and some hippie-type smoking pipes, which appeared to handmade. He noticed no food, no socks, or shoes in the bag. He noted that several of these items still had price tags on them reflecting that they were purchased either at GI Joe's or Andy and Box both of which are Army surplus stores located in Portland, Oregon. He did not recall any dates of purchase.

He also noted that there was a left-handed bow, as used by archers, hanging from a tree nearby. He removed this bow and took it with him, the bow bears the name Baer Archery Company, Grayling, Michigan, registration number [redacted] b6 b7C

He stated that the area of the cache is located in what is known as Hell's Canyon, near the boundary between eastern Oregon and Idaho. It is located generally in a gully between Windy Ridge and the next ridge located to the southwest. He states that the nearest community is in Imnaha, Oregon, located on the Imnaha River. To get to the area you take the Hat Point Road out of Imnaha and follow it to the end of the pavement, at this point you follow the wide trail that goes out on Windy Ridge and finally comes to a dead end. The road ends at a small draw and the area of the cache is located about 200 or so yards from the end of the road.

He stated that this general area has the appearance of being used during the summer months by packtrain trips coming from various dude ranches in the area and located nearby is a camping area which might be an overnight stopping point on these packtrain trips. He stated that from this camping area the site of the cache is perhaps 100 to 150 yards away up the side of a hill in heavy brush. The cache could not be seen from the camping area but the area could probably be pointed out by one of the rangers from the nearby ranger station at Hat Point.

[redacted] stated that with him on this trip was an individual named [redacted] who goes by the name [redacted] who is a builder in Portland, Oregon, but who resides in Aurora, Oregon, having home telephone number [redacted] thinks that probably [redacted] could point out the area where the party camped during this elk hunt and might possibly be able to assist in locating the area of the cache. Other members of the hunting party were a young relative of [redacted] last name unrecalled, who is possibly a student at one of the community colleges in the Portland, Oregon, area. The third member of the trip is [redacted] who is employed as [redacted] in the Portland area. [redacted] states that no one was with him when he found the cache and the others would know of his find based only on the information he furnished them. b6 b7C

Due to the fact that the Hell's Canyon area is located a considerable distance from the possible flight path of the aircraft in captioned case, flying from Seattle to Reno, the significance of this information is not known to the Atlanta office, accordingly, no leads are being set out in the Portland area at this time. Leads are being designated for the Detroit office to determine if the bow found by [redacted] is registered. b6 b7C

DETROIT DIVISION

Will contact Baer Archery Company to determine if left handed bow number [redacted] has been registered by its owner with that company. If information is found will furnish the same to office of origin for appropriate additional investigation. b6 b7C

Re St. Louis letter to Los Angeles and Seattle dated 7/6/72, captioned "INFORMATION CONCERNING AIRCRAFT HIJACKING", and St. Louis routing slip to Los Angeles dated 7/11/72, with attached typewritten letter directed to Mr. GRAY, Acting FBI Chief, Washington, D. C., and signed [redacted] b6 b7C

RE: [redacted]
INFORMATION CONCERNING

On 7/31/72, [redacted] Woodland Hills, California, was interviewed to ascertain if she had any pertinent knowledge concerning the Norjak matter or any other matter of investigative interest to the FBI.

[redacted] b6 b7C stated she was a relative of ART LINKLETTER, the well-known television personality. She spoke rapidly with a distinct French accent and made disjointed statements about how she had deduced by reading articles on various murders and hijackings that [redacted] ART LINKLETTER, have been responsible for the Zodiac murders, the mutilation murders of farm workers in Yuba City, California, the TATE - LA BIANCA murders in Los Angeles and the ax murders which took place in a national park in California. When it was pointed out to her that in some of these matters the perpetrators have been identified and convicted of the crimes, she replied very positively that the police have identified the wrong persons as no police agency will touch ART LINKLETTER or his family.

She advised that ART LINKLETTER is the [redacted] and that he was raised by a [redacted] named LINKLETTER. ART LINKLETTER was previously known as [redacted] b6 b7C

She advised ART LINKLETTER was once a hit man for a crime syndicate out in New York in the 1930's and has been responsible for many crimes throughout the U.S. When anyone threatened to disclose him they are killed and she added that [redacted] have been brought up in the same criminal way. b6 b7C

She added that DIANE LINKLETTER, ART's daughter, had not actually committed suicide when she allegedly jumped out of a Hollywood apartment while on drugs. She stated that [redacted] pushed DIANE out of the window upon [redacted] ART LINKLETTER. She believed this was due to the fact that DIANE knew too much about [redacted] criminal activities. b6 b7C

[redacted] then displayed photographs of ART, [redacted] which she had clipped from trade publications, advising she had deduced from newspaper articles that [redacted] was the Zodiac killer and [redacted] was "D.B. Cooper". She stated the wrong man was going to trial in the Yuba City, California murders as she has deduced from reading newspaper reports that [redacted] was the only person who could be responsible for these killings. b6 b7C

She stated that the LINKLETTERS were involved in the TATE - LA BIANCA murders in Los Angeles but could provide no specific reasons why she believed this. When asked if she had reported her beliefs to the local police she stated she had done so on several occasions but apparently no one believed her or would not take any action because of ART LINKLETTER's social status.

[redacted] advised she writes many letters reporting her beliefs to various police agencies and knows that no action is ever taken because of ART LINKLETTER's social and financial status. All of her information is based on articles she has read about various crimes. b6 b7C

She does not have any specific firsthand information but appears obsessed with the idea that ART LINKLETTER has for many years been connected with crime syndicates in New York and Chicago and that [redacted] have been responsible for numerous hijackings and murders in the U.S. b6 b7C

In at least two of the crimes which she alleges were perpetrated by the LINKLETTERS, the suspects have been identified, tried and convicted; therefore, there is no basis of fact in her allegations.

[redacted] appears to have an extremely wild imagination coupled with the obsession that ART LINKLETTER and [redacted] are "master criminals". b6 b7C

Following the interview of [redacted] on 7/31/72, a letter was directed by [redacted] to the Los Angeles Office postmarked 8/1/72, in which she stated she had forgotten to demonstrate how [redacted] as "D.B. Cooper" had placed a piece of scotch tape in his nose to make his nose appear narrower. b6 b7C

Enclosed with the letter was an airline ticket which she had recently received through the mails with an invitation to visit a land development project in Redlands, California. In her letter she stated this ticket was "bait" and believes ART LINKLETTER, through the land development company, was going to kill her. She stated, "I have an idea this two-way trip would be only one-way because of an accident". These tickets and invitations are regularly received by home owners in Southern California and to construe the receipt of such literature as some type of plot to murder appears completely absurd.

Based on the above, it does not appear that any information provided by [redacted] should be considered reliable or valid and no investigation concerning allegations made by [redacted] appears warranted. b6 b7C

The above is being furnished for the information of St. Louis and Seattle as more letters from [redacted] might well be received in the future wherein she will allege to have information concerning other major crimes. b6 b7C

The airline ticket, photographs of the LINKLETTERS and the letter from [redacted] dated 8/1/72, will be maintained in Los Angeles file 164-497. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that he asked the man his name and the man said it was D.B.COOPER. [redacted] said that he recalled the name in connection with the skyjacking of an airliner and recalled that he had seen a photograph of the individual using the name COOPER and that in his opinion the man in the bar resemebled the picture he had seen.
