VERNON HOWELL,
ALSO KNOWN AS (AKA)
DAVID KORESH
INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE AND SLAVERY

Davidian

VERNON HOWELL is the present leader and prophet of an organization known as the Branch Dividend, 7th Day Adventists, located at Mount (Mt) Carmel, near Waco, Texas. HOWELL also uses the name DAVID KORESH and is known by that name by the individuals living at Mt. Carmel. From the mid-1950's through 1978, the group was headed by an individual by the name of BENJAMIN RHODEN and his wife, LOIS. In 1978, RHODEN died and his wife was the sole leader until 1986. In 1986, LOIS RHODEN passed away and her son, GEORGE RHODEN, and VERNON HOWELL became the co-leaders of the organization.

Shortly after GEORGE RHODEN and HOWELL were appointed as the leaders, HOWELL was accused of raping RHODEN's mother. RHODEN dismissed VERNON HOWELL and several of his followers and renamed the land the organization was living on as Rhodenville. HOWELL and several of the residents that were dismissed, attempted to reclaim their land and were involved in a shoot-out with the McLennan County Sheriff's Office. Presently, GEORGE RHODEN is incarcerated for murder and HOWELL is the sole leader at Mt. Carmel.

Allegations were received by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in the Spring of 1992, that HOWELL (also known as DAVID KORESH) may have been planning a mass suicide event at Mt. Carmel. Also, allegations were received that HOWELL may be holding members of the Sect under conditions which may constitute violations of the Federal laws pertaining to involuntary servitude and slavery.

VERNON HOWELL

On March 17, 1992, a complaint was received by the Office of the United States Representative FRED UPTON, St. Joseph, Michigan. The complaint alleged allegations similar to those previously received as well as child molestation charges regarding HOWELL. Due to the allegations made, several other agencies were advised by the FBI of the status at Mt. Carmel. These agencies included the Department of Human Services, Child Protective Services, Department of Public Safety Intelligence Division, Internal Revenue Service, McLennan County Sheriff's Office, and the Department of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms.

Investigative reports were received from Child Protective Services, reporting the results of unannounced visits and interviews at the Mt. Carmel compound. Investigation continued during the time frame for which the mass suicide was to take place, during the Spring of 1992. To date, no further information has been developed by the San Antonio Division of the FBI to substantiate the accuracy of the reports concerning any potential acts of violence/self-destruction by members and/or leaders of this religious sect. Those law enforcement agencies also notified of the circumstances involving Mt. Carmel have not filed charges as of February 1993. Close liaison is maintained by the FBI with each affected agency to ensure close monitoring of this situation as it may pertain to any potential federal violations of the law.

Due to the receipt of a duplicate letter forwarded to Congressman CHET EDWARDS Office, Waco, Texas, which was previously in the possession of Congressman FRED UPTON, St. Joseph, Michigan, all appropriate local and federal law enforcement agencies have been re-notified.

MISCELLANEOUS NON-SUBVERSIVE
 Re Bureau facsimile to San Antonio, 5/11/92.

Enclosed for the Bureau are copies of sixteen (16) pages from San Antonio file #100-0-16869 concerning the activities of captioned organization.

For the further information of the Bureau, San Antonio is currently investigating the possibility that the leader of the organization, VERNON HOWELL, aka David Koresh, may have been planning a mass murder-suicide event. Also, allegations have been received that HOWELL has been holding members of the sect under conditions which may constitute violations of the federal laws pertaining to involuntary servitude and slavery. This particular investigation is based upon a complaint originally received by the office of United States Representative FRED UPTON, St. Joseph, Michigan. A review of the nature of the allegations contained in the letter to Congressman UPTON indicates that they are essentially identical to those contained in the correspondence received by Senator RIEGLE. To date, no further information has been developed by San Antonio to verify the accuracy of the reports concerning any potential acts of violence/self-destruction by members and/or leaders of this religious sect.

Thank you for your interest, and please assure Mr. [REDACTED] that this matter will receive appropriate attention.

Honorable Donald W. Riegler, Jr.

NOTE: Senator Riegler wrote on behalf of [REDACTED] had sent him a copy of a statement made by [REDACTED] a former member of the BRANCH DAVIDIAN SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS. [REDACTED] recently won a child custody battle based on his former wife exposing his 11-year-old daughter to the practices of the ADVENTISTS. He stated he was concerned for the other children in the group because he had heard that the group's leader, VERNON W. HOWELL, aka DAVID KORESH, had announced a plan for mass self-destruction. He also indicated that he had reported this to the FBI but that "they have offered no confirmation of action." By airtel dated 5/12/92, San Antonio advised that it is currently investigating the possibility that HOWELL may be planning a mass murder-suicide event. Also, allegations have been received that HOWELL has been holding members of the sect under conditions which may constitute violations of Federal laws pertaining to involuntary servitude or slavery. San Antonio's investigation is based upon a complaint received from Congressman Fred Upton, and the allegations furnished in Senator Riegler's communication are essentially the same as those provided by Congressman Upton. Based on available information, Bufiles contain no information regarding [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] Detroit indices were also searched, and only two 502 references were found on a VERNON W. HOWELL; however, they had been destroyed. Neither Detroit nor San Antonio has any record of having been contacted by [REDACTED] Interim reply sent by CAO 4/29/92. Final reply discussed with SSA [REDACTED] CID.
