the National Consumer's League. This organization has not been investigated by the Bureau and it is not identical with the National Consumer's Union. (100-153350)

(c) Alleged Association by Frances Perkins with Communist Party and Reported Communists

(1) Communist Party

Bureau files contain letters written by individuals in which it is alleged that Frances Perkins is a Communist or Communist sympathizer. None of these letters contain any factual basis for the allegations. It is noted most of these letters made similar allegations regarding other prominent people employed by the United States Government.

370 [REDACTED] was reported to have said that if a Communist has trouble coming to America or getting off Ellis Island, Frances Perkins eases things for him. (65-8946-5104)

An article appeared in the July 27, 1940 issue of the Saturday Evening Post written by Benjamin Stolberg which set forth "Perkins is not a Communist nor even remotely a Communist sympathizer. She represents a classic type of soft-minded liberals whom the Stalinists behind the scenes know how to exploit for their own purposes." (39-915-96X5)

Bureau files do not reflect Frances Perkins has been active in any reported Communist Party front organizations.

(2) Association with Reported Communists

Frances Perkins was reported to have canceled in 1934 the deportation order of Frank Borich, who was charged with being a member of an organization seeking the overthrow of this government by violence. Borich, in 1948, was reported to be a Communist Party member and Executive Secretary of the National Council of Americans of Croatian Descent. (10003452570kk30) 100-376248-118

III - MISCELLANEOUS

(See also Part I, pg. 12, 13, 14)

An article in the October 18, 1933 issue of the "Daily Worker" refers to Secretary Frances Perkins as having been a member of the Socialist Party for the past fifteen years. (101-255-2)

Frances Perkins was listed as a reference in 1942 by [redacted]

(65-39300-482, 753) 75

Much unfavorable comment has been made of Frances Perkins regarding her reported action in withholding the deportation of aliens who were reported to be Communists. This criticism pertains to such well-known individuals as Harry Bridges and Frank Borich, mentioned above. Such organizations as the American Legion, the National Small Businessmen's Association and the House Committee on Un-American Activities have issued statements voicing such criticism. (61-7587-2-10) (61-7582 Vol. 3, pg. 2001; vol. 4 pg. 2927) (94-1-7451-A)

The November 17, 1944 issue of the "Sunday Star" carried an article which set forth that Frances Perkins had expressed herself as being opposed to "sheepdog" investigators, checking up on federal office holders and applicants. (62-28592)

It is requested that you advise this Bureau if a full field loyalty investigation should be conducted of Frances Perkins, based upon the above information. If you do not desire such an investigation, please advise if a summary of this information should be furnished to the Civil Service Commission on the basis of the loyalty form.
