effect that he was of party with regard to a trip, made with the fact ti brothers of Chicago, that he did not know what was in the suitcase, the second error in that article. Permit me now to tell you, in the event you do not know, that Diatra obtained that job in the battle with the New Jersey through all the efforts, the notorious New Jersey racketeer who was murdered this past fall. Morotti took Diatra to a gymnasium where Diatra was around the city, where he was referred to as "Doc". He was on the level of that because interested in his voice, a man with whom Morotti went along. He got the job for the night the night again at $50 per week and felt that money was too little so he kept on the side with a job with Docet money, which was the first of all money Diatra ever saw, and that resulted in drinking on the job on the side with his pal, the Rocco Diacchetti, the younger of the two Diacchetti, the elder of whom is now in jail. Morotti also attempted to get Diatra out of trouble. Diatra was arrested on a sex charge in Essex County, jailed, and the case went to the grand jury, but through the influence of Morotti the charge was reduced to seduction and he was released. Diatra was in the place around that time, Diatra went to Los Angeles where the sheriff respected him for carrying a gun illegally a long after the sheriff told the press he had taken away the gun and warned Diatra a second sex offense Diatra was still carrying a gun. He seems to be unshaky. Around the years ago, after he was fired by the firm for his gun, a case to be heard by the and partner, who was not really known, had a joining apartments with no one knew them. One evening he was entertaining another man when Diatra stalked in with a gun and fired it. The police were called and he was off the so-called rivalry. After Diatra returned to New York, an informant out word that the wanted a good job for Diatra and he selected Tony Moracy who was forced to hire him as a soldier under contract. Diatra then tried of that, too, and wanted out and he refused the offer to be in front of the underworld and a visit and Diatra was released.

In addition to dope peddlers and arms dealers, Diatra's friends included not only the murdered Morotti, but Joe Bonis, Reinhold Al Capone, the Diacchetti, Meyer Lansky, Frank Costello, and Lucky Luciano. You may recall all of this in an article entitled: "Frank Diatra Confidential (Confessions of a Club)" by W. Lee Mortimer in last August's American Mercury magazine, which may meet the same unshaky character in the book: "New York Confidential" by Mr. Mortimer and Mr. Jackson. In February, 1947, you will recall that the manifest of the Pan-American Airways of a trip Diatra made with the two Diacchetti from Miami to Havana accompanied by the Capones. This is the trip he now claims innocence about. Prior to that trip, Walter Winchell gave a tip in his broadcast. If Diacchetti, who was not at the scene, knew the Diacchetti's were making that trip, knew the purpose, and knew the route, why didn't he call Diatra, who was Rocco Diacchetti's fast and furious pal, who was familiar with his activities, give a out the Havana end of the trip, and know what he was doing? That's a tall tale for a man to expect to get away with if he was innocent. Luciano was deported by the Government to Italy because he had an illegal entry into Havana. The flight is made to Havana, Miami by the T-men from Miami to Havana, Miami, Miami, Miami, etc., and the Capones, and Diatra carries the heavy suit case containing the million dollars, the proceeds of narcotic sales in this country, to Havana, Miami to Havana, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami, Miami to substantiate all this. If Diatra were innocent or had been paid, why have we seen nothing is heard of since that trip, why didn't he have a action against Winchell for the broadcast and why didn't he have a a returner for his American Mercury article and why didn't he have a left for their book containing this fact. But not a peep out of him until now, until now that he realizes the country is increased over narcotics and been broken out into print a mere few months with regard to a matter, and to be waiting to reveal his lost sound, but there is a lot of money to be could not raise his voice louder than he did because that would attract too much

Serial 922A - Memo from Director to SAC, LA dated 9/7/51 re: FRANK SINATRA, etal - Research. Memo sets out - Enclosed are photostatic copies of two communications dated 8/28, and 8/30/51, from an anonymous source. Copies being furnished to Narcotics Bureau at Washington, D. C. and the Legat at Havana, Cuba.

Serial 922 - Photostatic copy of letter dated 8/28/51 to Director signed "Justifiably puzzled citizen". Letter as follows:
"A large aggregation of people are puzzled about something, which has been recently called to the public's attention through an article in the August edition of the 'American Mercury' magazine. This article pertains to gangsters in the night clubs and other media of entertainment and it specifically mentions FRANK SINATRA as having aided gangsters and narcotic traders. It also mentions that your T-men were present in Havana when SINATRA made the plane trip with the Fischetti brothers, and that he carried the suitcase supposedly containing the money for Luciano. From the article, the data for which was taken from the Treasury Department records, you will find that SINATRA is the close friend of Moretti, the Fischettis, Capone, Adonis (cousin to Moretti, and Luciano. There is much campaigning on the part of the Government, the press, and the radio, all of whom have been carrying extensive articles and programs in an effort to rid the country of this demoralizing situation, drug addiction, particularly among the youth of the nation SINATRA is supposedly the symbol of the underprivileged youth of America. That is the saddest mistake ever. He is synonymous with everything undersirable and from which youth should be protected and I hope you will concur that he is not the type of personality to have in the entertainment field and before the youngsters who emulate his pattern and feel it's perfectly all right to achieve a success that way. People now feel that SINATRA should be forced to withdraw from the amusement world. 'Reader's Digest,' of September, carries two excellent articles; one on drug addiction among the young and one on Lucky Luciano. The press and other publications and the radio are hammering at this outrageous and scandalous condition existing among the young. Why is SINATRA permitted to continue when he is a friend of these very criminals? What we would like to know right now is why was not SINATRA picked up in Havana when he arrived with the Fischettis? The T-men were on the scene for the express purpose of meeting that plane inasmuch as they had information with regard to the trip. Suppose through lack of evidence your men were not able to arrest SINATRA, but don't you arrest suspects, more particularly in such a serious matter? It is a known fact that entertainers are 'used' for such purposes, but when a particular entertainer is a

There must be something wrong somewhere. Even Walter Winchell gave the tip-off on his program before that trip was made. Also, how is it that SINATRA has just been given a five-year TV contract with a network who has been doing such a magnificent job in this connection, their 'Nation's Nightmare' series just ended, during which they carried Moretti's voice, Moretti who gave SINATRA his start and maintained him also was instrumental in having the sex charge arrest reduced to seduction and then dismissed, though it had gone to the grand jury. There is something peculiar going on and people would like to know what it's all about. It's anything but healthy and SINATRA is anything but un-American when he is aiding criminals."

Photostatic copy of letter dated 8/30/51 to Director signed "Disgusted and indignant". Letter as follows:

"I don't pretend to understand the workings of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I've always felt that since we had your agency everything, more or less, was under control. However, I'm now puzzled by something and also have a very thorough feeling of revulsion about another aspect of it. Not so very long ago Walter Winchell in his broadcast gave a tip-off about a trip being made to Havana by the notorious Fischetti brothers, a trip to take drug money to Luciano, and he went so far as to mention the name of third person who would be taking the money - FRANK SINATRA! I have just read an article by Lee Mortimer in the August issue of the 'American Mercury,' which is a partial expose of gangsterism in the entertainment world and he has mentioned the above stated facts. What is more, his material for the article was taken from the files of our Treasury Department and there is a photograph showing SINATRA getting off the plane, carrying the suitcase purportedly containing that money, and in company of the two Fischettis, and, further, that the T-men were on the scene at the airport. Did not the fact that he was in their company and carrying a suitcase, a large one, (the SINATRA of all people carrying a suitcase of any size!) at least make him suspect enough for attention on the part of your agents? No doubt, there was good reason for his not being apprehended. As I said, I don't understand the methods employed by your agency. Something just recently has happened, too, that makes me wonder. Maybe I'm just becoming suspicious of everything. On his 'flight' back from Mexico, forced out by the attentions of the press (one of whom he deliberately drove his car at and jammed on the brakes as he touched the photographer's leg with it and then threatened to kill him the next time) he and Gardner, according to

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 3. the press, returned to the Los Angeles airport in a B-36 bomber borrowed from one of his friends in Mexico, a Mexican importer and exporter. I know that surplus equipment can be purchased for private and other usage, but why does an importer want a B-36 bomber? He's a Mexican, but in what business? SINATRA is the close friend of Moretti, Adonis, Capone, Costello, and Luciano, and now comes to light that he has as a friend a Mexican importer. What goes on? Is the bomber being used for narcotics across the border? SINATRA would certainly know who's-who to whom to deliver. There was no mention of a pilot either. The papers said he returned in a bomber he borrowed from the Mexican. He knows how to fly, had a private plane, but why would he want to know how to fly a bomber, if he actually did? It's no mean task and if he does know he must have had anything but a sound and healthy reason for wanting to know how.

"SINATRA to my mind constitutes just as much of a criminal as his odious friends not only by association with them and dope addicts but, what is much worse, by his participation in their activities. Of course, he owes his career to them in no uncertain way and also owes his support financially (outside of his career) at times to them. He can't possibly come out and say he's innocent of all this. The press gave an account about a year-and-a-half ago of his visit to Italy when he attended Luciano's parties and read about the delightful inscription (the "Mercury article will tell you) he had put in the gold cigarette case he gave Luciano. This SINATRA is quite something, isn't he?! Yet he's walking around free and is permitted to remain on top, where's he definitely anything but an example to youth. Why isn't something done about this undeserving and worthless individual? From where I sit, he should be in jail or at least out of the public life he enjoys so freely. The photographer has filed a complaint against him, but will anything come of it? Not with SINATRA's 'friends' behind him! Where were the police at the airport that they did not see him deliberately drive his car at a person and isn't there a cause for arrest when there's an attempt at manslaughter? What goes on anyway? He jammed on the brakes just in time then yelled: 'Next time I'll kill you!' I'd hate to see the newsman killed or injured, but it's honestly too bad that SINATRA was able to jam on the brakes in time to prevent something more serious than brushing the man's leg happening. It would have been cause for putting this scurvy character where he rightfully belongs and to think that he's receiving the adulation of the public and the idolatry of the teen-agers when he is the very living symbol of everything the Government, the press, the radio (the very network which produced such an outstanding program on narcotics and the criminals in the field, even interviewing Moretti Nice public utility - radio! Hypocrisy if I ever met up with it! Maybe it's more than hypocrisy if the truth ever comes out), reputable publications, and everyone else, are exposing to full view and decrying loudly and trying to jail and punish. Why does he go free? The record speaks for itself, the facts can't be denied he's as much a criminal as they are and the 'they' are Moretti, Adonis, Capone, Fischettis, Costello, and...oh, yes! ... Lucky Luciano!

"Please, what goes on!!!!???????? This is America or am I wrong? he's not even a good citizen or am I wrong again? Facetiously, he's America's top 'stinking' star, though the radio says 'top singing star.' Anyone who will be un-American and stupid enough to support him may do so. They belong in his class!"

Serial 922C - Memo from Director to SAC, LA dated 10/3/51 re: FRANK SINATRA - Research - Enclosing 3 photostatic copies of a communication from [REDACTED] dated 9/11/51, which was postmarked the following date at MI, MI. Since no return address was given, it is not being acknowledged. Copy to Chief Gordon Bowers, IASC 10/21/51. Copy to Capt. J. E. Hamilton, Intel. Div. LAPD 10/31/51.

Serial 922B - Photostatic copy of letter.

"Have a number of friends residing in your State and they have told me innumerable times how rigid your laws are and how proud the people are of their State for this reason. Therefore, it is, indeed, incredible that some of the Hollywoodites go entirely free of punishment for some of their demoralizing acts. A number of them come from other states, I know, but a goodly number of them have become residents and are not the sort of people to enhance any scene. I know that immorality is rampant in Hollywood and drug addiction, too. Some cases have come to light and if the remainder of the population were decent they would refuse to support such people. I'm not speaking of 'first offenders' for anyone can make a mistake and should be given the opportunity to show it was an error. One of the residents, from another state, who has been a resident of your State for at least fifteen years is the subject of this protest. I have good and sufficient reason for this letter inasmuch as very, very large number of people here in New York City and in the eastern section and even in the middle-west, judging from the correspondence I have received, find it inconceivable that this person has not been

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 5. Called to account for activities since he moved to California. I am speaking of FRANK SINATRA. Perhaps this may amuse you, but when you read my reason for indignation I'm confident you will understand. I am voicing this for many, many people.

"The August edition of the AMERICAN MERCURY magazine contains an article by Lee Mortimer titled: 'FRANK SINATRA Confidential (Gangsters in the Night Clubs!)' and Mr. Mortimer's material is authenticated. He took the material from our government records, from the files of the Treasury Department. It is doubtful if you'll be able to obtain a copy this late so I shall outline the bare facts. I am mindful of the teen-agers when writing this letter.

"SINATRA: In his late teens met Willie Moretti, the notorious kind of the New Jersey rackets (not under your State's jurisdiction) who became his 'patron saint.' Moretti endeavored to keep him out of trouble, but didn't succeed very well.

"SEX CHARGE ARREST: In Bergen County, N. J. Arrested on sex charge, through influence of Moretti reduced to seduction and finally dismissed through Moretti, though case went to grand jury. Moretti obtained his first job for him, $35.00 weekly, but he, Moretti thought it was insufficient so handsomely supplied SINATRA with pocket money.

"ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF WEAPON: SINATRA then went to Los Angeles and he openly carried a gun. The Los Angeles Sheriff took it away from him but SINATRA continued to carry a gun long after the Sheriff told the press he had taken it away.

"FRIENDS: SINATRA's friends are: Willie Moretti (cousin of Joe Adonis), Joe Adonis, the Fischetti brothers of Chicago (who are cousins of Al Capone), Al Capone, Meyer Lansky, Frank Costello, and Lucky Luciano.

"CAREER AGAIN: The gangsters obtained his job with Tommy Dorsey's band. SINATRA wanted a release from the contract and when Dorsey refused he was threatened so the release was given. While SINATRA was out of work he was 'kept' by the gangsters since he could not be seen going around poorly dressed.

"COMPLICITY WITH CRIMINALS AND IN CRIME: There is ___ entry on the manifest of the Pan-American Airways of a trip made with the Fischetti brothers from Miami to Havana for the express purpose of turning over two million dollars, covering past and future narcotic transactions. This was after Luciano had been deported to Italy and had managed to sneak back to Cuba. There is a photograph to prove this. The T-men had the entire matter covered from Miami to Havana and the photo shows SINATRA getting off the plane with the Fischettis and carrying the suitcase. The money was later turned

In a raid on Luciano's home by the Italian police they collected, among other things, a solid gold cigarette case bearing the inscription: 'To my dear pal, Lucky, from his friend, FRANK SINATRA.' According to newspaper accounts, less than two years ago SINATRA made a trip to Italy where it was reported he openly attended Luciano's parties.

"You have here three wanton breaches of the law: Sex charge arrest in New Jersey. Illegal possession of a gun, even after having it taken away from him by the sheriff, a person of authority, after which he continued to carry one. And complicity with criminals and in crime. Today he still boasts on his radio program that: 'Most of my friends are in prison.'

"Why is this entertainer permitted to have full rein in the profession? The Government, the press, and the radio are hard at work trying to prosecute all these criminals, gangsters, and racketeers. The radio has over the summer months given an outstanding public service in this connection, even having an interview with Moretti on one program (the network that will hire SINATRA again for five years!) and all the leading publications are running lead articles on drug addiction among the young and on Luciano and his crimes. Yet nobody bothers to see that SINATRA comes in for his share in this nefarious matter. Frankly, we feel he is anything but the sort of entertainer to have before the teen-agers as a pattern to follow to become successful. Of course, it's all right to have sex orgies (the papers are full of them today), it's perfectly all right to break the law and carry guns even after you have been apprehended and warned against it, it's perfectly all right to be close friends with the top criminals of the country and to help them and have them put you on the top where you receive a fantastic income. It's a nice example for youth, isn't it? He breaks the law on three counts, goes free; has all the wrong associations and people applaud him, carries a gun, so that's all right; aids criminals and that's all right, too. He comes out on top. Hollywood has erroneously described him as 'the symbol of underprivileged American youth.' Nothing could be farther from the truth! He's synonymous with criminals, crime, hoodlumism, gangsters, and his almost daily immorality is enough in itself without all the other more heinous activities. What has SINATRA gone free? We read from time to time of one of the entertainers in Hollywood committing an offense for the first time, not as bad as SINATRA's offenses, and an uproar is made and he is arrested, fined and jailed, but SINATRA goes free. There

The same network denouncing crime and criminals will give him a five-year contract next month. They are writing to the various churches and to the press and various other publications who are civic-minded. Perhaps you will see fit to do something about this odious individual who should be removed from the entertainment picture at least. He does not constitute a good citizen and he is not a good example particularly at this time when the emphasis is on the protection of the young in this very field - criminals, crime, hoodlums, gangsters, rackets, drug addiction, narcotics in all its ugly phases.

The Special Crime Study Commission on Organized Crime appointed by the Governor of Calif. has conducted during the past year considerable inquiry into the activities of the Mafia. CONTINUED FROM PAGE 19. By way of evaluation of the information furnished by the above Informant, the LA Office by letter to the Director dated 3/9/54, furnished news clippings of Westbrook Pegler syndicated column during 9/9,10,21/47, regarding an alleged association between FRANK SINATRA, Charles Fischetti and Lucky Luciano. A review of these newspaper columns was made for background information, and the following summary prepared:

In the Winter of 1946-47, FRANK SINATRA was observed in association with notorious persons, including Lucky Luciano in Cuba. Not long after the meeting in Cuba, SINATRA made his way back to Hollywood by way of several Mexican resorts. The official passenger list of the Pan-American Airways on 2/11/47, reportedly reflects that FRANK SINATRA flew from Miami, Fla., to Havana, Cuba, with Joe and Rocco Fischetti of Chicago. It is reported that E. J. Kahn, Jr., then press agent for SINATRA, reported that SINATRA was often surrounded by a strolling wall of self-appointed guardians who while not precisely desperados, are fairly rough and tumble individuals, who are always looking out to see that nothing happens to SINATRA. It was through a relative of the Fischetti brothers of Chicago that SINATRA was introduced to Lucky Luciano in Cuba. The Fischetti brothers are related to the Capones in Chicago and had many interests in common with the Capone Gang.

One of SINATRA's own group referred to the wild party in which SINATRA took part in the Hotel Nacional in Havana, Cuba, as a 'debauch.' Among those present were SINATRA, Luciano, the Fischetti, a Chicago journalist, and a number of women. A strip of moving pictures show SINATRA getting off the plane in Havana on that occasion accompanied by Joe and Rocco Fischetti. Another Fischetti brother is named Charles, who is in partners with his brothers in a suburban Chicago gambling dive. Rocco Fischetti was described as a member of the Italian secret underworld organization, the Mafia, of which Luciano was reportedly the leader.

Another associate of SINATRA was described as Willie Moretti, a notorious New Jersey gangster who for years had been associated with Frank Costello, Joe Adonis, Longie Zwillman, Meyer Lansky, and the late Bugsy Siegel.

Moretti, commonly known as Willie Moore, was described as absolute underworld boss in Bergen County, N.J. It was in this county that FRANK SINATRA, then of Hoboken, N. J., was charged on 11/26/38, in the Criminal Judicial District Court of Bergen County, N. J., with seducing a woman. SINATRA was at that time described as being in the 'roadhouse stage' of his career, and Moretti was his friend of some years standing.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 20. Bugsy Siegel's most outspoken instrument of publicity in 1947 was a small publication (Night Life) which SINATRA was known to solicit to the studios in seeking advertising favors. The publication's incorporaters included Hank Sanicola, SINATRA's partner in the music business, and Barney Ross, former welterweight fighter. Its editor was described as a police character from Orange, N. J., with a record of three entries named James Tarantino. The latter individual reportedly spent some time in the so-called dubious area of midtown NY known as Jacob's Beach near Madison Square Garden. His interest in that area was money lending in amounts of $5.00 and $10.00 at 'vigorous interest.' Following his transfer to Calif. as a protege of SINATRA, he became involved in a scandal over a mysterious and apparently spurious kidnaping of a member of his family.

In connection with the above newspaper items, it is noted that in referenced letter from LA, Tarantino is presently serving time in a Calif. prison, having been convicted of using the magazine 'Night Life' for extortion purposes. It is also stated in that letter that according to the LA Informant, Tarantino has started a rumor that SINATRA had 'crossed him' and this rumor had reached the stage where it became necessary for SINATRA to contact a leading member of the Italian Criminal Syndicate to straighten Tarantino out. Informant advised that the person SINATRA contacted was Charles 'Trigger Happy' Fischetti, a leading Chicago underworld figure. The Informant stated that he was furnishing the above information in order to reveal that SINATRA, as well as Tarantino, was controlled by members of the nationwide Italian Criminal Syndicate, and that the Informant considered both to be representatives of the Syndicate. Pegler further stated in the article that George Evans, SINATRA's manager, had denied that SINATRA had anything to do with Tarantino but in contradiction of this contention Pegler pointed out that on 2/4/46, FRANK SINATRA's name was signed first under the signature of a 'Citizens' Committee' to wire Fred Howser, the prosecuting attorney of LA County, asking for police protection for Tarantino, his wife and child, who had been threatened and harassed by political gangsters.

Memo also set that on 5/1/50 [REDACTED] advised that he had ascertained the following information from a confidential source which he would not disclose to the writer:
Same info. as 62-2469-G-102, & 38-1088-451.

At this interview this informant recalled that FRANK SINATRA resides at 10051 Valley Spring Lane, No. Hollywood, Calif., telephone No. Tex. 03311 and furnished the following background information conc. him:

On 11/26/38, in the criminal judicial district court of Bergen County, N.J., FRANK SINATRA of Hoboken, N.J. was charged with seducing, on promise to marry, a young woman 'of good repute for chastity'. SINATRA was released on $1,500 bail and the complaint was withdrawn on 12/7/38. Two weeks later SINATRA was arrested again, the morals charge this time involved the same girl, who was then described as a married woman. This case was referred to the grand jury, which returned a no bill and the case was dismissed. At that time SINATRA was about 22 years of age.
Same as 38-1088-451.

On 4/9/47 after this escapade in Cuba, SINATRA was arrested in Hollywood, Calif. on a charge of assault and posted a $500. bail. SINATRA stated that Lee Mortimer, NY columnist and co-author of the best-seller 'Chicago Confidential', had called him a vile name, SINATRA saw red, and hit Mortimer. Mortimer stated that SINATRA was a liar and that he did not even know that SINATRA was present at Ciro's restaurant, where the fight between them took place. On 6/3/47 Mortimer announced in court that he was willing that the case against SINATRA be dismissed subject to the approval of the judge. Mortimer stated that SINATRA had publicly acknowledged that the fight between them was unprovoked. Mortimer admitted that SINATRA had paid him $9,000. but explained that he felt obliged to accept this settlement because otherwise SINATRA might induce the court to grant many postponements. Mortimer had already paid for one trip from NYC to Calif. because of the incident and considered that he might have to make several trips before a settlement would be made. Soon after SINATRA's arrest in connection with this case, SINATRA's license to carry a pistol was revoked by local LA authorities.

On 2/4/46 SINATRA's name was signed to a telegram to Fred N. Howser, LA Dist. Atty., demanding 'big police protection' for Jimmy Tarantino and his wife and child, who had been 'threatened and harassed by political gangsters'. There was a false report that Mrs. Tarantino had been kidnaped. SINATRA presumed that Dist. Atty. Howser would give attention to the telegram he sent and he went a

Just at this time SINATRA was backing Tarantino in the organization of the Hollywood 'Night-Life' magazine and [redacted] as yet does not know the reason for the false rumor concocted either by SINATRA or Tarantino that Tarantino's wife had been kidnaped. This info. concludes that apparently SINATRA and Tarantino were attempting to convey to lower their importance in the community of LA for certain desired advantages, [redacted]

On 6/21/48 a testimonial dinner was given in the Crystal room of the Beverly Hills Hotel in honor of Jimmy Tarantino. SINATRA sang several songs, one of which was a parody of the song 'Nature Boy' which was dedicated to Tarantino. SINATRA received an ovation and spoke with much feeling concerning his deep friendship for Tarantino. [redacted] is positive that the friendship between SINATRA and Tarantino has been broken but he believes that eventually some member of the Italian criminal syndicate will eliminate the difference between Tarantino and SINATRA. This informant draws this conclusion because SINATRA and Tarantino are of Italian decent and have several connections with reputed Italian Syndicate members.

Memo sets out there is presently in progress in the court of U.S. Judge James M. Carter, LA, a damage suit for $210,000 against Glenn McCarthy, Texas oil millionaire. The plaintiff is Larry M. Rummans.

In cross-examination on 4/27/51, Rummans, in describing his past employment, said he had been employed for a time by Jimmy Tarantino as associate editor of Tarantino's Hollywood gossip magazine. Article from LA Times, 5/1/51 entitled "SINATRA Investments Aired in McCarthy Case."

"Crooner FRANK SINATRA was not a financial backer of Jimmy Tarantino's Hollywood night club gossip magazine, it was testified yesterday before a jury in U.S. Judge James H. Carter's court which is hearing a $210,000 damage suit by Sports Promoter Larry M. Rummans against Glenn McCarthy, Texas oil millionaire and hotel operator.

"Rummans testified last week that Henry W. Sanicola and SINATRA had put up money to finance Tarantino's magazine. The testimony was given in connection with Rummans' assertions that he was employed by SINATRA at one time.

"Sanicola, SINATRA'S manager, took the witness stand today and said that SINATRA had never invested any money in the gossip magazine.

"I put up $5000 for the magazine,' Sanicola testified 'and Barney Ross, a fighter, put up $1000,' Sanicola testified. 'I had an interest in it for only about a year.'

"Sanicola also was questioned about Rummans' connection with the Jersey Joe Wolcott-Al Brown fight in 1946 and said that Rummans was merely a $75-a-week runner, 'a sort of liaison man between himself and SINATRA in that promotion."

Article from LA Times, 5/19/51 entitled "Wot Hoppened?"

"An article from the Daily Worker, reprinted in the American Legion magazine, is revealing. The Worker is hurt because some of the Hollywood people who attacked the House Un-American Activities Committee in 1947 have nothing to say today. It lists the following names: Robert Young, Lucille Ball, FRANK SINATRA, Joseph Cotten, Margaret Sullavan, Burt Lancaster, Gregory Peck, Myrna Loy, Fredric March, Richard Conte, Gene Kelly, William Wyler, Cornel Wilde and Bob Ryan. Then it says: 'Why are they silent today? Why don't they speak up as they did in '47? The committee has not changed. It's still the same in '51 as in '47. The longer their silence, the greater their shame.'"

The other faction publicized their campaign under the words, 'Keep AFRA for AFRA business', and highly publicized its opposition to making AFRA a political pressure group. Report of SA [REDACTED] NY, 2/11/48 re: Communist Infiltration of the Radio Industry - IS-C.

Report sets out - With reference to FRANK SINATRA, Third Vice-president of AFRA, the 'Fraternal Outlook', official monthly publication of the International Workers' Order, on 3/9/46, reflects that SINATRA had prepared an article on discrimination for a magazine issued by the AYD. The 'People's Voice', until recently a negro Communist publication, on 12/29/45, announced that SINATRA was to be honored at a dinner held at the Hotel Commodore under the auspices of the publication 'New Masses' on 1/15/46. The joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee in its 'News Bulletin' of 1944 indicated that SINATRA had contributed $100.00 to that group.

[REDACTED] in October, 1944, learned that SINATRA was scheduled to make three appearances at Italian-American election meetings in NYC, one of which had been arranged by the CPA. However, the inf. further learned that SINATRA did not appear at these meetings.

Confidential Informant [REDACTED] advised that SINATRA had sent a letter of regret to the CP Headquarters in NYC because he was not able to attend a dinner on 5/9/46, given by the 'Action Committee to Free Spain Now', the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, and the American Committee for Spanish Freedom. The informant advised SINATRA had been listed as a speaker at this dinner.

Article entitled "Kids halt racial clashes; start little United Nations." Re: Mass meeting held Friday night (9/21) at the Soto-Michigan community center, neutral ground for both sides in the incipient war.

"SINATRA flashed onto the screen and had a simple man-to-man talk with a bunch of boys who were pummelling a Jewish lad. He told them about Colin Kelly and Meyer Levin. He found out that one of them was the son of a seriously wounded soldier, and that the Jewish boy's mother had given blood to the Red Cross.

"'Would you rather your father had died, instead of using that Jewish blood?' he asked.

"'Many of our parents came from different places and we have different religions,' he said. 'But we're all Americans today. Let's use our good American brains and not fight each other.'

"And then he sang the beloved song, the homey, neighborly song which Earl Robinson has made popular, 'The House I Live In.' The final words summed up the whole spirit and purpose of the meeting, and kids went out humming quietly--'All races, all religions, That's America to me.'" Photo of FRANK SINATRA.

Sinatra is the well-known singer and motion picture actor. No investigation has been conducted of him previously.

In order to receive a passport Sinatra signed an affidavit dated January 10, 1955, for the Passport Division of the Department of State. One Photostat of this affidavit and its covering certification is attached for each office receiving copies of this letter.

By memorandum of March 7, 1955, Assistant Attorney General Tompkins requested an investigation of Sinatra to determine if sufficient evidence exists to warrant prosecution of Sinatra under Section 1001 and 1542 of Title 18, U.S.C. A Photostat of Assistant Attorney General Tompkins' memorandum is attached for each office.

Each office receiving copies of this memorandum is instructed to make a thorough search of indices for subversive information concerning Sinatra. Logical informants should also be contacted. DIRECTOR, FBI

SAC, DENVER (100-7464)

FRANCIS ALBERT SINATRA, aka

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 9/16/79 BY 2802/ubk

Re Los Angeles letter to Director dated 4/25/55 requesting Denver to consider the advisability of interviewing Reverend OLIVER KENNETH GOFF, Englewood, Colorado.

The following information concerning GOFF was furnished the Bureau by Denver letter dated 3/3/55 in the case entitled [redacted] SM - C, PERJURY, Bufile 100-38800.

b7c

As the Bureau is aware, KENNETH GOFF has never been used by the Denver Office as a confidential informant, nor as a confidential source. Also, the only contacts with GOFF by the Denver Office have been upon specific request by the Bureau in loyalty and applicant type cases, and in each instance where possible, the Denver Office would obtain a signed statement from GOFF, who readily furnished same and who readily volunteered to appear before any court of law or hearing board to testify as to the facts in his signed statements.

KENNETH GOFF is a self-styled free lance Evangelist who for the past number of years has been speaking around the U. S. regarding the threat of Communism to the U. S.
GOFF is a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party at Madison and Milwaukee, Wisconsin during the years 1936 to 1939 and claims to have been a leading functionary of the Communist Party of the U. S. during those years.

In the case entitled "KENNETH GOFF: CHRISTIAN YOUTH
FOR AMERICA; SM - X," report of SA [redacted] dated 7/4/45 at Denver, the Bureau was advised that GOFF organized the "Christian Youth for America" at Englewood, Colorado, in December, 1943, and published a monthly newspaper, "The Pilgrim Torch" that was closely associated with GERALD L. K.
SMITH.

By letter dated January 20, 1949 under the caption "KENNETH GOFF, IS - X" the Denver Office advised the Bureau that GOFF claimed to be in a position to furnish pertinent information concerning EUGENE DENNIS, who was presently on trial in New York City along with the other top eleven Communist Party leaders of the U. S., and Denver asked the Bureau if they desired that GOFF be used as a witness in that trial; however, the Bureau declined GOFF's services. In the Bureau case entitled "REVEREND KENNETH GOFF;" GOFF was found guilty by jury trial on January 29, 1948, in United States District Court, District of Columbia, and was fined $100 as a result of the subject's placing anti-Communist signs before the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C. GOFF furnished a signed statement in this case, admitting participation in placing these signs on the grounds of the Soviet Embassy on July 31, 1947.

GOFF has been a controversial figure at Denver and Englewood, Colorado, for the past number of years and presently resides at 3406 South Bryant Street, Englewood, Colorado. In GOFF's speaking tours he also creates considerable controversy, which has resulted in many individuals and Bureau offices writing to the Bureau and the Denver Office concerning his activities. In GOFF's speaking tours he speaks on the following subjects:

- "Treason in Our State Department"
- "Red Secret Plot for Seizure of Denver"
- "Do the Reds Plan to Come by Alaska"
- "Should We Use the Atom Bomb"
- "The New Bible. Is It of Communist Origin"
- "What is the Kremlin's Next Move"
- "Traitors in the Pulpit, or What's Behind the Flying Sancers - Are They from Russia, Another Planet or God?"

Also, some of the titles of GOFF's books, which he publishes voluminously are:

- "Will Russia Invade America"
- "One World A Red World"
- "Confessions of Stalin's Agent"

The "Rocky Mountain News" on October 25, 1951, contained an article stating that, "Three Englewood persons were ordered to appear in Denver Municipal Court as an aftermath of the ripping of the Soviet flag yesterday at Civic Center. Mr. and Mrs. KENNETH GOFF were two of these three individuals". The newspaper article continued that "The Soviet flag was being raised into position in the United Nations display flanking the walks at Civic Center when an unidentified man raced up and ripped the flag with a sharp instrument and darted into a waiting car. One of the spectators took down the license of the car, which belonged to KENNETH GOFF, self-named director of the Colorado Anti-Communist League."

In view of the above the Denver Office will not interview GOFF UACB.
