Dear Mr. Gray:

C.O.D.E.

On behalf of Her Serene Highness, Princess Grace of Monaco, and in cooperation with the Variety Club of Washington, D. C., I am writing to bring you an early announcement of a gala Celebrity Banquet for the benefit of the Catholic Office of Drug Education. Princess Grace, Honorary Chairman of the benefit, would be delighted if you would share this Banquet with her. She feels her presence and yours will give strong and necessary confirmation to the interest and concern felt in regard to the problem of drug abuse. Realizing your busy schedule, the Princess felt this early letter might be convenient and helpful to you. A formal invitation will follow in about three weeks.

The Banquet will be held Wednesday, April 25, 1973 at 12:30 p. m., in the Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D. C. Princess Grace hopes you can plan this event in your schedule since your support will enable the Catholic Office of Drug Education to help millions of people without regard to race, creed, or nationality.

Princess Grace, The Variety Club and myself extend our heartfelt gratitude and hope for the pleasure of sharing with you the first annual Celebrity Banquet for the Catholic Office of Drug Education.

Sincerely,

Father Roland Melody, S.T.

Dear Mrs. Gray:

D.C. PA CALIF

Her Serene Highness, Princess Grace of Monaco, has accepted Honorary Chairmanship for an afternoon Celebrity Banquet for the benefit of the Catholic Office of Drug Education. Father Roland Melody, S.T., is National Coordinator of the Office and it is in cooperation with the Princess and Father we are organizing the gala affair.

Princess Grace requests the honor of your presence on the Dais with her. She realizes the extreme demands on your time and generosity but feels her presence and yours will give strong and necessary confirmation to the interest and concern felt in regard to the terrible problem of drug abuse. Many other celebrities from both government and the field of entertainment will be present.

D.C.

The Banquet will be held Wednesday, April 25, 1973 at 12: 30 p. m. , in the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D. C. Princess Grace feels your sharing the Banquet with her will enable the Catholic Office of Drug Education to help millions of people without regard to race, creed or nationality.

It would be extraordinarily helpful if you could respond at your earliest convenient time. Formal invitations will be sent a month before the affair.

Princess Grace, Father Melody and myself extend our heartfelt gratitude and hope for the pleasure of greeting you at the First Annual Celebrity Banquet for the Catholic Office of Drug Education.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Legum:

Mrs. Gray has received your very thoughtful letter of March 5th regarding an invitation for her to attend an afternoon Celebrity Banquet on April 25th for the benefit of the Catholic Office of Drug Education. You may be sure she is deeply appreciative of your kindness in contacting her with respect to this affair.

Father Roland Melody, S. T., has been in contact with me regarding this Banquet, and Mrs. Gray and I find we will be unable to attend in view of an out-of-town commitment. We are indeed sorry we will not be able to be with Her Serene Highness, Princess Grace of Monaco, Father Melody, and you. Please express our regrets to Father Melody also.

Sincerely yours,

Pat Gray
