Dear Mr. McGrath:

As a member of the Executive Council of the Highlander Folk School, I was pleased to know from Myles Horton, the director, that a number of people had written to you concerning the recent visit to the School of FBI agents.

It is very disturbing that when the FBI visits the school the question of Negro attendance there seems to be a contributing factor in confusing the School with Communism. This is very dangerous, as I am sure you will agree.

In fact this whole manifestation of confusion in the minds of reactionary people between unions, Negroes and Communists comes up often enough to deserve thought and care - and some basic instruction to FBI investigators, especially those who are southern and have deep prejudices - against Negroes, and often against CIO union people.

I have been on the Highlander Council for some twelve years and have known the School for a longer time. I rarely miss a meeting. Also I have taught in the School almost every season and have spent days there. So I can testify from personal knowledge that the School is a sound, healthy institution, doing a good job in helping train union leaders (AFOFL as well as CIO).

If high character, devotion to the workers' cause, and belief that union members will be better leaders and citizens for having had some "workers' education" spells Communism, it can only do so with very ignorant and prejudiced persons.

Even though a severe case of flu prevented my writing nearer the time of the incident that caused the letters, I am writing now as I am sure you will want to know what reactions followed the FBI visit to Highlander.

Cordially yours,

/s/ Lucy R. Mason

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL
WASHINGTON

March 20, 1951

Honorable Adam Clayton Powell, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Congressman:

This will refer to your transmittal memorandum of February 20, 1951, addressed to the Attorney General, forwarding a communication, with enclosures, from Mr. Myles Horton, Director of the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee.

This material is very similar to material that was previously forwarded to the Department by Mr. Horton, at which time the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation advised that he had checked into the allegation made by Mr. Horton, and he wished to assure the Department that the Bureau had never investigated the Highlander Folk School, any representative of the school, or any other individual on the ground that the Highlander Folk School or the individual participated in interracial educational activities nor have the Bureau Agents inquired relative to the interracial aspects of that school.

It is noted that Mr. Horton, in his letter dated February, 1951, addressed to "Dear Friend", makes a new allegation in the following words: "What strategy prompted the FBI Agents to watch the school by night . . ."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, through its Knoxville office, made a most careful check concerning this allegation that a physical surveillance or "watch" was conducted on the Highlander Folk School at night by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Special Agent in Charge of the Knoxville office has assured the Director that no surveillance or "watch" has been conducted either at or in the vicinity of the Highlander Folk School.

Yours sincerely,

Peyton Ford

INFORMATION CONCERNING

Reference is made to the material which you received from Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., of the 22nd Congressional District, New York, relating to the captioned matter and which you transmitted to this Bureau on March 9, 1951. We have made appropriate photostatic copies of this material and are returning the originals herewith to you.

The enclosed material is very similar to that previously forwarded by you to the Bureau and which was discussed in some detail in my memorandum to you of February 26, 1951.

It is noted, however, that Hyles Horton, Director of the Highlander Folk School, in his letter dated February, 1951, addressed to "Dear Friend" made a new allegation not incorporated in his previous correspondence with the Attorney General, namely, "that strategy prompted the FBI Agents to watch the school by night...."

The Knoxville Office of this Bureau made a most careful check concerning the allegation that a physical surveillance or "watch" was conducted on the Highlander Folk School at night by Special Agents of the FBI. The Special Agent in Charge of my Knoxville Office has assured me that no surveillance or "watch" at night has been conducted either at or in the vicinity of the Highlander Folk School.

No further action is contemplated by this Bureau regarding the enclosed material.

February 1951

Dear Friend:

The F.B.I. agents have been asking our mountain neighbors about Negro students at Highlander. You will want to know the details. We need your advice and you need to know what is going on here. We believe Attorney General McGrath will be sympathetically interested and have sent him the enclosed letter.

That strategy prompted the F.B.I. agents to watch the school by night and to harass neighbors with questions linking Negroes with communism is not clear. It has long been a matter of public record that they would catch us red handed practicing racial democracy by a visit to the school.

While we do not know the reasons we do know the results. A community that has accepted the presence of Negroes at Highlander for the past ten years is without a protest (and longer with protests) is again questioning the right of Negroes to come to the school. They gather from the F.B.I. questions that the presence of Negroes means the presence of communism. A sense of community suspicion is being undermined by an open to race prejudice.

My sister, a mountain woman aware of the traditional anti-Negro feeling here in the Cumberland Valley in the attached letter, sent the story of the red flag on the school's non-discrimination policy means. Miss [unclear] formerly taught in the local grammar school and now writes books for children.

We have also asked Mr. McGrath for an opinion on the Highlander Executive Council's proposal that interviews with the F.B.I. be in writing. Two agents with short memories have already proved embarrassing. As long as we remain experts of American democracy, with emphasis on frontier equality, we can expect investigation and would like to keep the record straight.

It seems to me that the only way to handle this matter is to handle it until it is handled. It is a matter of principle and it is a matter of fact.

But I believe the Highlander Folk School is a different kind of school. It is a school of democracy and it is a school of the mountain.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable J. Howard McGrath
United States Attorney General
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McGrath:

Miss Lucy Randolph Mason, Southern CIO Public Relations Representative, has suggested that I ask your advice about a problem growing out of the attendance of Negroes at the Highlander Folk School. Because of your own personal feeling in regard to discrimination, Miss Mason felt that you would understand the problem here and be in a position to give advice.

The Highlander Folk School endeavors to put racial democracy into practice; consequently we can expect a measure of opposition.

We hardly expected, however, to have Negro students make the kind of investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. On October 11th I wrote Senator Estes Kefauver that FBI agents were making our neighbors about the attendance of Negroes and applying that our non-discrimination policy was communist and immoral. This kind of questioning has created confusion in the minds of our neighbors regarding the rights of Negroes to attend the School.

On December 10th I cited this incident to Mr. Hugh H. Gregg, Assistant Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and quoted one of the FBI agents who had told me that it might be difficult to release condemning discrimination would be considered communist by a majority of Southern people.

The apparent confusion of racial democracy with communism by the FBI agents and the implication of this kind of thinking alarmed the Highlander Executive Council members who met January 22 and 23.

January 31, 1951

Council members were also disturbed by the exchange of correspondence with Mr. Clegg. If agents can deny what they have said, they can likewise report things they have not been told. Since they go in pairs, the person interviewed is at a disadvantage.

With this problem in mind, a motion was made by Miss Lucy Randolph Mason that, because of previous misunderstandings in interviews with FBI agents, the Highlander Director shall speak for the staff and shall ask that all questions posed by any FBI agents be put in writing, and shall make his replies in writing if provided legal counsel advises this action.

The Council is not raising the question of giving information, but of giving it in such a way that the person interviewed has the protection of a written record. Could you advise me as to the legality of the Council proposal that interviews be carried on in writing?

We shall greatly appreciate your advice on this matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Charles Horton, Director
Highlander Folk School

I want to pass on a comment on this letter made by J. B. Lantry,

Highlander Folk School
Monticello, Tennessee

For immediate release

Monticello, Tennessee, November 20, 1950 - "Our Christmas bells could be freedom bells if we dared include all minorities in our circle of brotherhood," W. L. Horton told a conference of church leaders at the Highlander Folk School.

"Freedom bells ringing in the cabins of Negro sharecroppers, ringing for eager-minded students with opportunities limited by accident of birth, and freedom bells echoing in distant lands would fill the troubled world with thoughts of peace on earth and good will toward men," he said.

Highlander's democratic program is based on the brotherhood of man. Democracy to us means that membership in the human family entitles all to the freedom of thought and religion, to equal rights to a livelihood, education and health, to equal opportunity to participate in the cultural life of the community and to equal access to public services. "The religious basis is old."

Horton said that democracy is inactive unless workers are given a full voice in industry, enough unions, or farmers are given a voice in the market place through cooperatives, or where freedom of thought and discussion is guaranteed, and that democracy is inhibited by legally entrenched discrimination and segregation.

Horton called for an affirmative program, based on a positive concept of democracy deeply rooted in the lives, traditions and traditions of the American people must be created. By broadening the concept of democracy to include everyone, and deepening the concept to include the concept of brotherhood, the Army of Democracy would become vast and so nothing undemocratic would stand in its path."

Dear Nyles:

While, to my mind, as a thoroughly honest and perfectly consistent expression of the problem you present. I cannot see how Mr. McGrath can fail to understand its significance, and understanding, fail to take steps toward the prevention of future trouble.

Please feel free to use me as a reference if you have such need.
I am always willing to speak or write my convictions regarding your personal integrity and the high purpose of Highlander.

I was here some years before you came. The newness of your program aroused wonder and even suspicion in the community. We heard wild tales of communistic intent, alliance with Russia, machine guns in the attic and various forms of immorality. People came to me with these wild rumors, begging me to do something about it. I did do something. I visited the school when you and Don West gave a playday for the children of our community. I went again when Jim Dombrowski started a Bible study class. We learned a good deal about racial discrimination in the days of Jim Crow and death. I went to a meeting held after a neighbor's house had burned down and you started plans to build a community center. I went to a Christmas party where I dined with the children, games and as you play Santa Claus with a bag of presents. I went to a sewing bee, another neighborhood benefit.
I was in the choir. I was organized in your living room, but I heard a lot of other good things. By this time the neighbors had something else to talk about than the fearful rumors of the early days. One dark night I saw a good way to bring a doctor to care for my school girls in the home where her baby was born. I know there were many good folks, some neighbor woman said, when I heard about the name that Claudia Lewis, the nursery school teacher, and another from Highlander, prepared all that was needed to bury a little child in a very poor family.

All these things and many more convinced me that your purpose and plan for coming to live in our community was essentially good and had no ulterior motive. In later years I have learned more of your practical program, your concept of true democracy in your policy of non-discrimination, non-segregation, and your actual example in living what you believe. I know a minister who said, "I wish I could feel that I came as near as Nyles Horton to real consecration to the cause of real Christianity."

W. L. Horton

"Do you think Highlander is radical?" The last time I was asked this question I gave the answer I would give today. "Yes, they are radical - as radical as the Declaration of Independence or the Common on the Mount."

It is because you dare to believe that not only all men are created free and equal but that there should be liberty and justice for all that you are radical. And the one who made all men to all his brothers made no difference between his white children and the black.

Let me explore the recent investigation of the F.B.I. agents, implying as it did, that your non-discrimination policy toward Negro students constituted proof of your communistic nature, purpose, plan and intent. When racial democracy can be confused with communism in the minds of F.B.I. agents, there is cause for alarm. It seems to me, our community has come a long way in appreciating and understanding the policy of Highlander, its principles, its practice of real democracy. But this faith, fostered for so many years by living proof and example, cannot fail to suffer from the shock of a visit from the F.B.I. men which the school's policy of non-discrimination is given a good tag and label.

With all this in mind, I am glad you have written this letter to Mr. McGrath. I hope it leads to a definite understanding which will affect all future interviews.

With best wishes for you and the rest of the Highlander staff, I remain your friend,

W. L. Horton

Mr. Hugh H. Clegg

Assistant Director

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Clegg:

I have pleased to read from the International Labor News Service that you feel that the "success of communism" can be measured by the weaknesses of democracy. I am led to believe by your analysis of the situation that you would approve the enclosed statement of policy of the Highlander Folk School.

In the South, people are often criticized who believe as we do here at Highlander that discrimination is incompatible with democracy. In fact it was told recently by one of your agents that the contents of the enclosed news release would be considered Communist by a majority of Southern people.

I sincerely trust that the position taken by you in the New York Herald Tribune Forum is the official position of the F.B.I. and not the position implied by the activities of your representatives who have questioned our neighbors regarding visits of Negroes to the School.

Would you clear this matter up for me?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge your letter of December 10, 1950.

It has long been the established procedure of this Bureau to refrain from commenting on the statement of aims and purposes of any organization and, therefore, we cannot comment on the policies of your school.

With regard to the statement that you attributed to a Special Agent of this Bureau, this will advise that it was checked with the 100 Special Agents who contacted you on December 7, 1950. They emphatically deny that you showed them the release or that they made any statements to you regarding your allegation.

Very truly yours,

Hugh H. Clegg
Assistant Director

from Highlander Executive Council Minutes

F.B.I. Syles Horton gave a full report on some recent activities of F.B.I. agents who are questioning people in the community. The agents have been asking neighbors about Negroes attending or visiting Highlander. Horton read a letter he wrote to Senator Kefauver which said in part: "They (the F.B.I. agents) have been particularly insistent in their questions about the attendance of Negroes at Highlander sessions and conferences. They wanted to know where people sleep and what goes on after the conferences are over. I hope you can find time to look into this situation and do something to stop intimidation of our neighbors and the inference that the non-discrimination policy of the school, which is that of the CIO and AFL, is communistic and immoral."

Horton continued that the agents are going around the community trying to stir up the people by asking loaded questions about the Negro students at Highlander. At the time, Horton read a newspaper report that the Assistant Director of the F.B.I. made a speech at the New York Herald Tribune Forum in which he said discrimination was incompatible with democracy. Horton congratulated the F.B.I. spokesman and reported a comment made to him by an F.B.I. agent who said that a Highlander news release which condemns discrimination would be considered communistic by the majority of Southern people. The F.B.I. Assistant Director answered that he had personally checked the matter and that both agents who talked with Horton emphatically denied making any such statements.

After prolonged discussion, it was moved by Lucy Randolph Mason that, because of previous misunderstandings in interviews with F.B.I. agents, the Highlander Director shall speak for the staff and shall ask that all questions posed by any F.B.I. agents be put in writing, and shall make his replies in writing. Provided legal counsel advises this action. Motion seconded by Emil Williams and passed.

It was also suggested by Lucy Randolph Mason that the Director shall write U. S. Attorney General Howard McGrath and inform him of this situation and explain to him why they have been forced to take this action. That a copy of this letter be sent to Senator Kefauver and Highlander members.

(Attorney Jordan Stokes II writes: "I see no reason why the F.B.I. should not be required to put their questions in writing and I would insist on it for our protection and for the protection of the school.")

HIGHLANDER FOLK SCHOOL

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE, PROGRAM AND POLICY

We reaffirm our faith in democracy as a goal that will bring dignity and freedom to all; in democracy as an expanding concept encompassing human relations from the smallest community organization to international structure; and in meeting all economic, social, and political aspirations.

Democracy to us means that membership in the human family implies all the freedom of thought and religion, to equal rights to livelihood, education and health, to equal opportunity to participate in the cultural life of the community and to equal access to public service.

We hold that democracy is inactive unless workers are given a full voice in industry through unions; for farmers are given a voice in their industry through cooperatives; for where freedom of thought and discussion is limited; that democracy is outlawed by legally entrenched discrimination and segregation; that there must be diversity of approach but each step must be in conformity with the goal, which is dishonored by each undemocratic act.

Our democratic goal is in a position to fight anything that gets in the way of the totalitarianism, of fascism or of socialism.

The Highlander Folk School is to assist in reaching these goals. Our services are available to labor, farm, community, youth, and other organizations working toward a democratic goal.

The Highlander Folk School program will be determined by the needs and interests of the people.

The Highlander Folk School by individual organizations will be an open house for the people. It is a place where people can go to learn and to grow. It is a place where people can go to learn and to grow.

The Highlander Folk School is a non-sectarian, non-partisan, non-profit organization. It is a place where people can go to learn and to grow.

The Highlander Folk School is supported by contributions from individuals, organizations, foundations and unions.

We call for an affirmative program, based on a positive goal, an array of democracy deeply rooted in the lives, struggles and traditions of the American people must be created. By broadening the scope of democracy to include everyone and deepening the concept to include every relation, the way of democracy would be so vast and so determined that nothing could stand in its path.

DETAILS

Scope of the Investigation of the Highlander Folk School

In order to clarify just what investigation the Knoxville Office has conducted concerning the Highlander Folk School either directly or incidental to developing full information on the activities of various individuals, I wish to advise you as follows:

Under date of October 6, 1939, the Knoxville Office furnished the Bureau the first reported information concerning the Highlander Folk School. The first report reflecting investigation was submitted under date of April 10, 1941. This report set forth the information on the history of the school and the people connected with it. The letter and the report reflected that the investigation was instituted only after numerous allegations were received regarding Communist activity at the school. No active investigation has been made of the school since the closing report dated July 4, 1943. The file fails to reflect any pertinent information received since that date regarding any recognizable Communist Party activity on the part of the school itself; however, allegations of Communist Party sympathy or activity have been received concerning persons who were or had been connected with the school. These investigations were directed solely toward the individuals and not the Highlander Folk School. Some examples of these investigations are as follows: William Walter Remington, Perjury; [redacted] Atomic Energy Act - Applicant; [redacted] Loyalty of Government Employees; [redacted] Security Matter - C; [redacted] Loyalty of Government Employees; [redacted] Security Matter - C; [redacted] Loyalty

Due to the volume of applicant cases in the Knox-cases, people living at Monteagle, Tennessee, have been contacted; however, the Agents working in that area are aware of the general nature of the Highlander Folk School and the Agents have advised that no inquiries have been made concerning the interracial character of the school. SAC Robey has advised that he has personally contacted all of the Agents in the Knoxville Office who had worked in Mont-eagle and vicinity in the past year and all have categorically denied that they have discussed the interracial character of the school with anyone and that they have exerted utmost caution to prevent anyone from gaining the impression that the school was being investigated by the FBI.

Answer to Your Inquiries Raised in My Memorandum of February 21, 1951, Which is Attached.

1. Why was Horton carried on the Knoxville Key Figure List and why was the case closed out?

87D
In June, 1940, Myles Horton, Director of the Highlander Folk School, was reported as taking an active part in or attending meetings held by the various Communist Party units in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and vicinity and that he formulated the policies and directed the activities of all the local units, as well as the entire group of units. This information was furnished by [REDACTED] On the basis of this allegation a custodial detention card was recommended and approved on Myles Horton. He was later listed as a Key Figure by the Knoxville Office. Investigation conducted of Horton between 1942 and 1944 failed to substantiate the original allegation that Horton was engaged in Communist activity; therefore, by closing report dated January 25, 1944, the Knoxville Office removed Horton from the Knoxville Key Figure List and the Security Index Card on Horton was cancelled by letter dated January 7, 1946.

2. You instructed that the Knoxville Office be advised to make no further contact with the Highlander Folk School on any matter.

Pursuant to your instructions the Bureau on February 22, 1951, telephonically instructed SAC Robey of the Knoxville Office to make no further contacts at the Highlander Folk School on any matter.

3. You inquired, "Why did we utilize such cumbersome procedure to get to the bottom of charges made by Horton in December, 1950?"

It has been the practice in the Security Division to immediately make direct contact with any individual who might make an unfounded allegation against the Bureau. In this instance we didn't go directly to Horton upon receipt of his December 10, 1950, letter because we recognized him as a trouble maker and felt that nothing would be gained by such an approach. We were wrong and I regret that we didn't

This is the most stupid reason yet advanced. Certainly nothing would have been lost. We would at least now have been in a better position

Memorandum from Peyton Ford dated February 19, 1951, Dealing with Correspondence from Myles Horton, Director of the Highlander Folk School

There is attached hereto a memorandum from Peyton Ford dated February 19, 1951, with photostatic copies of Horton's letter and attachments to Peyton Ford, together with Mr. Ford's draft of a reply to Horton. This correspondence regards the same unfounded allegation that Agents of the Knoxville Office have construed the interracial nature of the Highlander Folk School as being Communist. It is not believed that the Bureau can agree with Peyton Ford's draft reply to Mr. Horton. Our Knoxville Office obviously should not conduct interviews in the Highlander Folk School with stenographic or other persons recording the interview. The attached reply for your approval to Peyton Ford points out the reason why this procedure should not be followed. There is also attached for Peyton Ford's information a copy of the summary memorandum prepared concerning the Highlander Folk School.

Memorandum from Peyton Ford dated February 19, Concerning Correspondence from Dr. Albert E. Barnett of the Candler School of Theology Emory University, Georgia

There is attached hereto a memorandum from Peyton Ford dated February 19, 1951, which sets forth the contents of a letter directed to the Attorney General from Albert E. Barnett which also regards the unfounded allegation that Agents of the Knoxville Office were investigating the Highlander Folk School because they surmised "that the free admission of Negroes as students at Highlander constituted evidence of Communist point of view." Obviously, Myles Horton has persuaded Dr. Barnett to write Attorney General McGrath in order to strengthen Horton's complaint against the FBI. For your information, Dr. Barnett is mentioned in the Bureau files. These references reflect that Barnett has been connected in one way or another with the following organizations which have been subject to considerable Communist infiltration.

The files also reflect that Dr. Barnett was one of the members of the Ad Hoc Committee which welcomed the Reverend Hewlett Johnson's arrival at La Guardia Airport in November, 1948. Unusual publicity resulted from the fact that the so-called "Red Dean's" first application for a visa was turned down due to the fact that he was sponsored by the National Council of American Soviet Friendship. The "Daily Worker" of May 20, 1949, reflects that 275 prominent individuals had signed an open letter urging that Congress reject the Atlantic Pact and called upon President Truman to settle issues now outstanding through direct negotiations with the Soviet Union. Dr. Barnett was one of the signers. (100-3-81-A) Committee for Peaceful Alternative to the Atlantic Pact - On August 21, 1949, Dr. Barnett was listed as an individual from Illinois who had signed an open letter to Senators and Congressmen urging defeat of President Truman's arms program. (100-364437-7)

Mid-Century Conference for Peace - In Chicago, May 29-30, 1950, Dr. Barnett was carried as a sponsor of this organization from the Chicago area. (100-364437-36 p.22)

Methodist Federation for Social Action - He was a delegate to a meeting of the organization held in Ohio, July 18 to 21, 1950. (61-3615-41)

No investigation has ever been conducted concerning Dr. Barnett; however, as indicated above, there is evidence reflecting that he has been connected with organizations which have been subject to Communist infiltration. In the attached memorandum to Peyton Ford, he is advised that Dr. Barnett has been misinformed by Myles Horton with respect to nature of our interest in the Highlander Folk School.

ACTION

There is attached hereto proposed letters to Roger Baldwin and to Peyton Ford for your approval.

ADDENDUM - 2-23-51

The Director further inquired as to why more complete details were not furnished in the first instance concerning the extent of our investigation at the Highlander Folk School.

Inasmuch as the issue raised by Horton and Baldwin was to the effect that Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation had confused interracial education with communism, the background information furnished in our original memorandum was designed to cover that issue.

We now realize that we did not give the Director sufficient background to enable him to properly evaluate this situation.

We will make every effort to avoid this in the future.

Baldwin's letter said no such thing. The last paragraph of his letter as to why any investigation of the school has been made. (No limitation as to reason is stated)

What you gave me was refuse & misleading information.

MYLES HORTON
① HIGHLANDER FOLK SCHOOL

With reference to the attached letter from Herbert Monte Levy, Staff Counsel of the American Civil Liberties Union, there are two issues involved. eh

The first issue - Does the FBI consider interracial education as somewhat subversive and does it ask questions on this basis of neighbors.

Investigation which was made in February proves this view without foundation. To re-check the matter, I called SAC Robey at Knoxville and asked him if we had contacted neighbors. He stated every Agent working in that area had been questioned at least twice and we had not contacted neighbors.

Collateral to this issue is the attempt of the American Civil Liberties Union to force the FBI to issue instructions concerning comments on interracial education. There is no need for such instructions since they are part and parcel of the Bureau's operating procedures and policies. To issue such instructions would in effect admit that such a condition existed. To date there is no proven case to substantiate this.

The second issue has to do with contacting the Highlander Folk School.

The minutes of the Highlander Executive Council for January 22 and 23, 1951, which were forwarded to the Attorney General reflect that "because of previous misunderstandings in interview with FBI agents, the Highlander Director (Myles Horton) shall speak for the staff and shall ask that all questions posed by any FBI agents be put in writing, and shall make his replies in writing - provided legal counsel advises this action." This condition is, of course, impossible, and on February 22, 1951, instructions were issued to the Knoxville Office to make no further contact with the Highlander Folk School on any matter. de

A letter to Levy is attached.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have recently reexamined the exchange of correspondence between Mr. Baldwin and you of last February concerning the Highlander Folk School. Your letter was most certainly responsive to Mr. Baldwin's inquiry.

However, a careful reexamination of the correspondence leads us to believe that Mr. Baldwin, who wrote you in his personal capacity rather than as an officer of this organization, did not quite hit the point which was troubling the Highlander Folk School authorities.

The real concern of the School and of several members of our Board who have been contacted by the school authorities is that some questions addressed by F.B.I. investigators to neighbors of the School led the neighbors to believe the questions were indicative of an attitude on the part of these agents that inter-racial education is somewhat subversive. We are confident that this does not reflect an F.B.I. attitude. Nor do we know whether the interpretation of the neighbors as to the purport of the questions was reasonable or unreasonable. We wonder however, whether, to avoid future repetitions of such incidents, it might not be possible to issue appropriate instructions to your agents to guard against any implication on their part that inter-racial education is necessarily subversive.

We note also in your letter of February 26 that you have issued appropriate instructions to discontinue any direct contacts to representatives of the School. But again, although you were not informed of it Mr. Horton had not been opposed to contacts being made at the School. Indeed, it would seem most unwise to discontinue direct contacts with the school representatives, both from the point of view of the F.B.I. the students, and Mr. Horton. Doubtless the F.B.I. would be able to get much better and fuller information from the officials of the School than from the neighbors who alone are now being contacted.

I might add that I have communicated my views to Mr. Horton, and that he shares them fully. As he states in a letter to us dated April 14, "I have no objection to direct dealings with the F.B.I. on matters of internal security or in regard to legitimate inquiries. No purpose would be served ... by my failure to cooperate in such matters." He also agrees that the real concern is the issuance of appropriate directives to your agents concerning comments on inter-racial education.

We should appreciate your comments.

I wish to acknowledge your letter of April 18, 1951, with further reference to the allegations of Mr. Nyles Horton of the Highlander Folk School.

When Mr. Horton first alleged that interracial education was considered "somewhat subversive" by the FBI, and the basis for investigation, we made a very careful check into the matter. We could find no basis for corroboration of Mr. Horton's statement although it was quite obvious that these allegations had been widely disseminated by Mr. Horton. There are no facts to substantiate Mr. Horton's position that FBI Agents considered interracial education as "subversive," nor did the Agents ask questions which would permit any such impression to be conveyed. In view of the long-standing policies of the FBI and the absence of any proven instances of violations of these policies I saw no necessity then, nor now, to reiterate our policy. The very thought that interracial education is a basis for the conclusion of "subversion" is so far removed from the operations of the FBI that I see no purpose to be served in sending out any instructions on this subject at this time.

I have noted your comment as to the desirability of dealing directly with the Highlander Folk School. This is exactly what we did do on the occasion of our last contact with Mr. Horton. It has always been my view that the most accurate information can be obtained directly from the interested parties rather than from indirect inquiries. The Highlander Executive Council, however, at its meeting

The enclosed material makes the false allegation that the FBI is harassing the Highlander Folk School because of its interracial character. This allegation was originally made to the Attorney General by Myles Horton, director of this school and, since then, several individuals have written to the Attorney General in a similar vein. This previous correspondence has been discussed in our memoranda to you dated February 26, 1951, March 13, 1951, and March 28, 1951.

My dear Senators:

This is in response to your note of May 3, 1951, which referred a letter and enclosure from [REDACTED] for consideration by this Department.

The enclosure of [REDACTED] letter is an article from the "Daily Compass" of April 30, 1951, which suggests that agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of this Department have harassed the Highlander Folk School of Monteagle, Tennessee.

May I reassure you for the benefit of [REDACTED] that such a suggestion is absolutely false and without any foundation whatever. As you know, the FBI is strictly an investigative organization, in fact as well as policy, and indulges in no harassment.

In accordance with your request, I am returning [REDACTED] letter and enclosure.

ReKxlet dated 10/16/51.

On April 17, 1952, [REDACTED] Internal Revenue, U. S. Treasury Department, advised that no investigation has as yet been conducted of the Highlander Folk School and its personnel by Treasury Agents. He added that because of a desire by the Internal Revenue Bureau to look into the tax returns of gamblers and racketeers his office had been ordered to discontinue any investigation of the Highlander Folk School for an indefinite period of time.

He advised that he would notify the FBI in the event that investigation was to be conducted at a future date. In view of these facts this case is being closed administratively by the Knoxville Office pending receipt of this advice from Bureau files reflect that in December 1943 the correspondent communicated with the Bureau concerning juvenile delinquency matters and was afforded a cordial acknowledgment.

The letter of acknowledgment is being mailed in plain envelope inasmuch as Swift indicates that he desires his identity be kept confidential.

Bureau files reflect that a security investigation of the Highland Park School was closed in 1943, Knoxville, file 61-12, inasmuch as no evidence was developed that the school was Communist controlled or dominated. The files do not disclose pertinent information received since that date indicating Communist Party activity on the part of the school; however, allegations of Communist Party sympathy or activity have been received concerning persons who were or had been connected with the school.

[REDACTED] Horton long-time head of Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee. Close associate of known Communist Party members. Active in Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW), a cited organization and Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF), successor organization to SCHW.* Horton and [REDACTED] on West, known Communist, were principal organizers of program Highlander Folk School when latter organized in 1932. In December, 1950, Horton in letter to Mr. Clegg accused Bureau Agents of questioning neighbors of Folk School regarding visits of Negroes to School and also of stating that a press release released by School would be considered communistic by a majority of southern people. Horton made similar charges in letter to Attorney General, Senator Estes Defauver, to the press and to others. Horton's allegations found by Bureau to be false. Horton in letter to Attorney General stated that the Council of the School was considering the procedure for future interviews with Bureau Agents, i. e., of having the Director of School only speak for entire staff and of having all questions posed by Bureau Agents put in writing. Director of School to submit replies in writing. Subsequently Knoxville Office instructed to have no further contacts whatever at Folk School. 'Pastor Swift,' Wife Did a Lot of Healing

Lovable Couple Now Retired After 60 Years

By GORDON H. TURNER
Staff Correspondent

MONTEAGLE, Tenn.—Much of the South and nation and in fact a lot of the world would not be exactly the same had it not been for a lovable, retired couple now happily living in retirement here.

High above the world's ills, which they have done a lot to heal, are the Rev. W. A. Swift, an all-time famous Methodist preacher and his wife, the former Irene Keiser. Both were born and reared not far apart in southwest Kentucky during the latter quarter of the 19th century.

"Pastor Swift" had written me they were "retired," and that they were "happy." After evangelizing and holding a dozen or so pastorates in many states, they bought a pretty home here 10 years ago and settled down, free from now on, of routine professional duties.

Although 60 Years

But Mrs. Swift has attended to the famous Sunday school assembly programs here for 60 years (with her husband since the early 1890s). With such an acquaintance, he says nothing of continuing worldwide correspondence, reading from a large personal library, and filling in a thousand and one little calls and chores around here—the couple is yet quite active.

At their invitation by letter, I spent a recent unforgettable day with this remarkable couple, whom I had never before met, and for whom a dozen stories couldn't do justice. He did me the courtesy of complimenting my good-will column in his estate, and my column. Though no publicity seeker, he consented for me to write their story.

Swift described hardships long ago and when he served as school janitor to pay his way through a small college.

"When I was born there were no electric lights or paved roads, much less automobiles in Kentucky," he recalled. "But ox-wagons, spinning wheels, and homemade clay lamps were common."

He told of "dropping" corn, then covering and cultivating it with a hoe—of eggs selling at three to five cents a dozen, and drum prints at four cents a yard. Back then men worked hard from sun to sun for 25 cents, corn sold for 20 cents a bushel, children walked miles to school, and preachers, usually riding horseback to appointments, often got as little as $100 for a year's pay.

ENCLOSURE

Lost All for Friends

Swift's dad was a wet-to-do farmer until he lost all he had as security on notes for friends. W. A. never got a cent from home toward his education.

"One winter I had but one pair of socks to my name and washed them out at night to wear next day," he declared. "But before I married I had crossed the Atlantic ocean three times and traveled in all the world's continents except Australia."

It was actually in the middle of the Atlantic while on a trip to the Holy Land that he met the girl he was to marry in 1900. Their oldest daughter, Mary Elizabeth, died at age 6 and oldest son William was killed in an automobile accident at age 20. These losses were partially made up, however, for Eleanor (now Mrs. John R. West of Nashville) soon came along and then later within a matter of minutes of each other, Thomas, Margaret and Marjorie arrived to place the Swifts as the only known "Methodist pastor" parents of triplets in the world.

First Home Service

W. A.'s first sermon was at his home church, Mount Carmel, near Murray, Ky. in 1896. Before retiring a decade ago he held many pastorates, including also churches in Little Rock and Texarkana, Ark., Marion, Ill., St. Clair, Mo., and Millersburg, Ky. An editor of church papers for 11 years, he helped found two Methodist colleges (Kentucky Wesleyan and Athens, Ala.), and had the distinction of clearing several towns and cities of the "filth of alcohol and indecent shows and carnivals."

This man accumulated what may have been the largest personal library of any fellow-preacher in the country and though he had given away or sold nearly all of it, he recently counted more than 1000 volumes left. Too, he has always had a big correspondence and today values among keepsakes a personal letter to him from King Edward VII, three from King George VI, and one from Queen Elizabeth II.

Gave J. P. Alley A Start

As benefactor of the late J. P. Alley Sr., creator of Hambone's meditations who grew to be one of America's greatest commercial artists, Pastor Swift is very proud. While he was preaching at Asbury Methodist in Little Rock, Ark., out of work, came to him for help. Swift got him a good job, took him into his home for free board, slept in the same bed with him for two years, gave him money to take an art course by mail (only training he ever had) and watched him rise to fame.

Later Alley's were the only cartoons ever to hang on the walls of the U. S. capitol in Washington and the only ones created out of England to appear in a famous London magazine. As a boy Swift for the Memphis Commercial Appeal, he considered changing to one of the nation's biggest dailies at a tripled salary but Swift advised him to remain in Dixie. He did, and in Little Rock became a great lay leader and Bible teacher in Asbury church. Swift performed Alley's wedding ceremony, and when he died a few years ago, was called to preach his funeral.

The Swift triplets, parent-like, are blaxing their own brilliant trails. Born in Lexington, Ky., they graduated together at Jackson (Tenn.) high school under principal D. E. Ray and the late C. B. Hams then city superintendent. They literally worked their way through college — not one each but up to two, three, and more, all with exceptional records.

Thomas attended Lambuth (Jackson, Tenn.), the University of Tenn., and Ohio State, and is now a graduate chemical engineer in Houston, Texas. Margaret graduated from Wesleyan (Macon, Ga.), Scarritt in Nashville, and then from Columbia in New York City when its president was General Eisenhower. Later she attended the Universities of Michigan, California and Peiping, China. She served as a missionary in China until the Communists took over and is now field director of the American Red Cross in Japan.

Marjorie graduated from Lambuth, Peabody college, and then from Northwestern university with a Ph.D. degree. Now with a top-spot on the University of Alabama faculty, she gets back here more often than the other children to visit the family.

The Swifts hosted me through their big home "so cool in summer that we always sleep under blankets." He has a vegetable garden (mostly beans and tomatoes now) and in lovely flower beds, dahlias are a specialty. There are enough beds in the big house "to sleep several families," and with two kitchens I got the idea that most of the time it is open house to friends from everywhere. Just finished on the backside is a tiny guest house as modern as tomorrow, which they plan to rent to assembly visitors when not used as their own guest house.

Philosophy on World

Strolling in the garden Swift who has been a student of government and world affairs from boyhood, gave me his philosophy of current conditions.

"The world, since I was born has improved very fast materially but constantly drifted morally," he said. "But if even yet America really turned to God in practice as well as theory, we can overcome communism and lead the world into a great spiritual awakening that would bring untold material blessings to all. If we don't, I fear communism will win out and set the world back a thousand years or perhaps even destroy civilization itself."

Bureau letter to Reverend W. A. SWIFT, Monteagle, Tennessee, dated 8-6-53. I.H.

Rev. WILLIAM ALFRED SWIFT, Monteagle, Tennessee, was interviewed at his residence by Special Agent [REDACTED] on 8-19-53. Rev. SWIFT advised that he is a retired Methodist Minister, 81 years of age, and that he has resided at Monteagle, Tennessee, for the past 10 years. Rev. SWIFT reported that the Highlander Folk School which is located on highway between Monteagle and Tracy City, Tennessee, was reportedly founded during the early part of 1930 by a man named DOMBROSKY. Rev. SWIFT stated that he did not know DOMBROSKY's first name and that he had never met DOMBROSKY. Rev. SWIFT advised that DOMBROSKY is no longer connected with the Highlander Folk School, but that he is reported to be sympathetic with the Communist. Rev. SWIFT stated that he believed DOMBROSKY to be sympathetic with Communism because of newspaper accounts linking DOMBROSKY with strikes which were occurring all over the United States. Rev. SWIFT stated that he had never heard any comments made either by or accredited to DOMBROSKY which would lead him to believe him to be Communistic and he stated that he had not received any reports of any activity on the part of DOMBROSKY other than the newspaper accounts of DOMBROSKY participating in strikes which would lead him to believe that DOMBROSKY was sympathetic with Communism or any subversive organization.

Rev. SWIFT stated that he has been informed that the Highlander Folk School is reportedly operated under the leadership of a man by the name of HORTON, first name unknown. He said that he has never met HORTON and does not know anyone connected with the Highlander Folk School either in the past or at the present time. He also advised that he has never visited the Highlander Folk School and has never associated with anyone who has frequented the Highlander Folk School or associated with any of the individuals connected with this school. Rev. SWIFT advised that he has no direct information regarding the Highlander Folk School or any of its past or present personnel. He stated that his only information concerning the possible sympathies of the Highlander Folk School with the Communist Party or other subversive organization is in the form of hearsay information. Rev. SWIFT was asked for specific information even in the form of hearsay upon which he based his opinion that the Highlander Folk School was Communistic in nature. Rev. SWIFT advised it is his opinion that the Highlander Folk School was dominated by Communist Sympathizers on the following events.

Rev. SWIFT stated that sometime during 1952, he observed Mr. HORTON, Highlander Folk School Director, throw away a copy of the Romanian News, Sunday Edition, dated October, 1952, numbered 206. Rev. SWIFT stated that HORTON discarded this newspaper in the Post Office of Monteagle, Tennessee and he reclaimed the newspaper for information purposes. Rev. SWIFT stated that after reading this edition of the Romanian News, he considered it subversive in nature.

Rev. SWIFT stated that the Highlander Folk School has claimed for years that the purpose of their location at Monteagle, Tennessee is to assist the mountain people in that vicinity. He stated that he has been visiting in Monteagle and vicinity for the past 35 years and has lived continually at Monteagle, Tennessee for the past 10 years. He stated that in visiting with mountain people in that vicinity, he has yet to find anyone who has stated that anyone connected with the Highlander Folk School has assisted the mountain people in any way.

Rev. SWIFT said that [REDACTED] advised him some time ago that the Highlander Folk School was made up of Communist Sympathizers. Rev. SWIFT advised the interviewing agent that [REDACTED] did not elaborate on the comment and did not give any reason or basis for making this remark.

Rev. SWIFT also advised that he had been informed by [REDACTED] that the Highlander Folk School was a "hot bed of Communist". Rev. SWIFT was unable to furnish any additional information regarding the comment and stated that [REDACTED] had not elaborated on this remark. He also stated that he has seen extremely large quantities of mail being delivered at Monteagle Post Office to representatives of the Highlander Folk School. He stated this mail comes from all over the world and a great deal of it is in the form of air mail and special delivery mail. Rev. SWIFT stated that he cannot understand how any school could receive this much mail unless it was engaged in some sort of illegal or subversive activity.

Rev. SWIFT also advised the interviewing agent that he had been informed by several mountain people, names unknown, that while doing day labor on the grounds of the Highlander Folk School, they had learned that there was a building on the ground of the Highlander Folk School called the Film Center. Rev. SWIFT stated these people had advised him that no one, other than Highlander Folk School personnel were allowed to enter or go near this building. He stated that he had no other information regarding the building, but it seemed rather suspicious to him that a school would be so particular in maintaining a building and its contents in such secrecy.

Rev. SWIFT stated that Dr. J. T. BLACKWOOD, a retired Methodist Minister who is 91 years old and resides at Monteagle, Tennessee, had commented to him that the Methodist Church which was located in the immediate vicinity of the Highlander Folk School had been forced to close its doors. Rev. BLACKWOOD informed Rev. SWIFT that this church was forced to close its doors due to the distractions offered by the Highlander Folk School personnel. He reportedly stated whenever a church service was in progress, the Highlander Folk School personnel would plan a demonstration picnic or offer to take the children on hikes or rides through the woods and in this method distract them from the church services.

Rev. SWIFT advised that the Highlander Folk School personnel were acting as spies in the different churches in the vicinity of Monteagle and Tracy City, Tennessee. When asked to explain what he meant by this, he stated that they attend a church service without invitation and the next Sunday they would go to some different church. He stated that to his knowledge, they have never caused any disturbance at any of these churches, but that they do not continually go to the same church in the vicinity of Monteagle or Tracy City. He was asked specifically why he thought they were acting as spies and he could offer no explanation other than the fact that they did not attend any church regularly.

Rev. SWIFT also advised that he had heard, source unknown, that several manufacturing establishments had refused to build in the vicinity of Monteagle or Tracy City because of the Communistic leadings of the Highlander Folk School which was located in the same vicinity of Monteagle and Tracy City, Tennessee. They reportedly stated that they did not want to build near the Highlander Folk School because the school would continually be causing trouble in the form of strikes.

Rev. SWIFT stated that he could not furnish any additional information other than what was related above. He stated he believed the school was a "hot bed of Communist" and he based this opinion upon the several events which are related above. Rev. SWIFT advised he was unable to furnish any additional information regarding the Highlander Folk School either in the form of hearsay or otherwise. Rev. SWIFT was orally advised that all pertinent information relating to subversive activities should be furnished to the FBI, inasmuch as the FBI has been given the general responsibilities for the investigation of subversive activities within the United States under the Security Program defined by Executive Orders and Congressional Enactments. He was informed that if he received any additional information regarding any subversive activities that he should immediately notify the Special Agent in Charge of the Knoxville Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. There are no known subversive organizations within the Knoxville Division purely local in nature, nor are there any national headquarters for such organizations in this division; however, the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee, is occasionally referenced in connection with security matters and, therefore, the following documentation is being submitted:

[REDACTED] furnished the following information regarding the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee:

"The Highlander Folk School is an institution located near Monteagle, Tennessee. It is an institution with classes on a seminar basis and is supported primarily by donations from individuals, from labor unions in the form of payments for students who attend, and to some extent by the Farmers' Union. It offers courses of instruction in labor organization, social economics, parliamentary procedure and the general field of labor education. This school has had Communist Party members on its staff and as instructors, and has followed the practice of welcoming CP members as students, but to my knowledge, the school has never offered courses of instruction in Communist matters nor has the Communist element ever completely controlled the institution."

Confidential Informant Knoxville T-2, a governmental agency, has advised that LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ, admitted former editor of the "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper and an official in the Communist Party, advised on 11/21/52 that the Highlander Folk School was pro-Communist.
