First semester, 1947-1948; Second semester, 1947-1948;
First semester, 1948-1949

The appointee was granted freshman class honors on January 29, 1948, and placed on scholastic probation on June 9, 1948. On January 25, 1949, he was dropped for academic reasons.

The following notation was recorded on the appointee's record: "No transcript, may not re-register till clears with library." b7c

[REDACTED] stated the above notation probably means that while the appointee was at this university he checked a book out of the library and failed to return it.

She stated the appointee's record contains no other information of an unfavorable nature and she cannot suggest any instructors currently here who might recall him.

University of Chicago

It is noted an article appearing in the July 29, 1965, "Chicago Sun-Times" announcing CHANCELLOR's appointment as Director of the Voice of America stated appointee had been a student at the Universities of Chicago and Illinois.

[REDACTED] stated that nothing of an adverse nature was recorded in the record of this student, that he was not personally acquainted with him, that he was unable to identify classmates of this student, and that he could suggest no instructor presently associated with this school who possibly might recall this student.

[REDACTED] advised on July 30, 1965, that he recalls the appointee working for this newspaper in 1948 - 1950, first as a copy boy and then an apprentice reporter. He said he had limited contact with the appointee, as the appointee worked [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] said that he had no reason to question the appointee's integrity or his loyalty to the United States Government, and the appointee impressed him as being a rather ambitious, likable, and intelligent young man. He stated he was aware of the fact that the appointee and his first wife were divorced, but has no idea why this divorce was consummated.

[REDACTED] said he has followed the appointee's career in the field of newspaper work and it is his impression the appointee is a dedicated, thorough and objective reporter.

[REDACTED] said that he would endorse the appointee for a position of trust.

[REDACTED] advised on July 30, 1965, that the appointee first worked for this newspaper when it was known as the "Sun Times" in 1948. He worked until 1950, when he was released due to a reduction in force.

[REDACTED] said the appointee, while with this newspaper, performed his job in a very capable manner and was never the subject of any criticism. Due to a difference in their respective ages, he never associated to any extent with the appointee, but on occasion they would have a drink together. The appointee seemed to be able to handle his drinks without any trouble and he has never known him to become intoxicated.

[REDACTED] advised that he is aware of the fact that the appointee had been arrested some time in the early 1950's by the Chicago Police Department, for being on a fire escape in the early hours of the morning. He said he is not personally aware of any of the details concerning this arrest, but it must have been satisfactorily explained, otherwise the appointee would not have been able to keep his job with his employer at that time, NBC.

[redacted] declared that he personally considers the appointee to be masculine in every sense of the word, a competent individual in the field of journalism, and strictly objective in his views. The appointee has had many years in the field of journalism and newspaper work and would be an asset to any reporting media. He advised he would endorse the appointee for a trusted position.

[redacted], advised on July 30, 1965, that he has been acquainted with the appointee on a limited social and professional basis since 1948. He remembers the appointee when he first worked for this newspaper then known as the "Sun Times", in 1948, as a copy boy. After working for the newspaper until 1950, the appointee was released due to a reduction in force, and subsequently was employed by NBC, Chicago. He remained in the Chicago area as a reporter for NBC until approximately 1958, when he was sent to Europe. b7c

[redacted] advised that he is well acquainted with the appointee's first wife and it is his opinion that their divorce was due to emotional immaturity on the part of both of them. To his knowledge, there was never any scandal or malicious gossip concerning the divorce proceedings.

He said he is aware of the fact that the appointee had been arrested by the Chicago Police Department in the early morning hours, around 1951, for being on a fire escape of a hotel. Personally, he is not aware of the exact nature of this arrest, but at that time the appointee and his wife were on the "outs" and it is possible that the appointee had over-indulged in alcohol and committed a youthful escapade. He stated he has no reason to question the appointee's moral behavior and has never known him to be other than a healthy masculine man.

SA [REDACTED] as follows:

His first recollection of JOHN WILLIAM CHANCELLOR was as a very bright young man with some journalistic experience in the News Department of NBC, Chicago, in the early 1950s, also in the early days of television.

CHANCELLOR was assigned to a program called Night Desk wherein they tried to do on-the-spot televising and broadcasting of news in the making. While so assigned, there was an instance of a policeman being shot at an elevated station. The manhunt ensued, and the killer was trapped in a theater but shot his way out. He was again located this time in an apartment, and CHANCELLOR, his driver and mobile unit chanced to arrive there shortly thereafter. CHANCELLOR took some coverage back of an automobile and broadcast an eyewitness account of the bullet ridden affray leading to the capture of the killer. An alarm attached to the bottom of the fire escape was set off when it was pulled down to ground level.

[REDACTED] stated that he and [REDACTED] proceeded up the fire escape to the roof. A search of the roof revealed the appointee hiding behind a vent. When questioned the appointee stated that many years ago he, the appointee, had lived in this hotel where his mother was the housekeeper. The appointee advised them he used to play on the roof and fire escape and had returned this night on a desire to re-visit the site where he used to play.

An individual identifying himself only as a police officer and a good Democrat, telephonically advised the Chicago FBI Office on July 28, 1965, that he did not want to become involved, but thought that the Administration should know that JOHN CHANCELLOR had been locked up a number of times by the Chicago Police Department, and had a "big sheet". He was arrested about six years ago on moral charges and the records are now at 11th and State. He was arrested by the 35th and 36th Districts once on Elm Street, and on another occasion at the Ambassador Hotel. The latter charge was quashed. On one occasion he was found hiding on a roof using binoculars.

The officer who called, stated that all of these arrests are matters of record with the Chicago Police Department and could be checked.
