A. WESLEY HODGE, partner, HULLIN, EHRLICHMAN, ROBERTS and HODGE, Norton Building, advised January 27, 1969, that he has known EHRLICHMAN closely through business and also to a lesser extent socially for the last ten years. He said that the appointee, his wife and children, are persons of the finest character and reputation and without question loyal Americans. He said that the appointee is extremely capable and is, in fact, a "lawyer's lawyer", that is, he has done much work for other attorneys, which would indicate the high regard of his ability by other attorneys. He said the appointee has not been engaged in local politics and it was, therefore, with considerable surprise that most people learned of his recent appointment. He said that the appointee is "tops" in all personal traits and characteristics and his sincerity, honesty and trustworthiness are beyond reproach. Mr. HODGE said, "If I were NIXON, I'd appoint him too" as he is an excellent man in all respects. He said he would recommend EHRLICHMAN without qualification.

On January 24, 1969, STANLEY C. SODERLAND, Judge, Superior Court, King County, Seattle, Washington, advised that the appointee has made frequent appearances before him and has ably represented his clients. He has always entertained the highest personal regard for him. He has met and worked with him in Bar Association meetings and discussions and describes him as of excellent character and reputation and outstanding professional integrity. Judge AGNEW stated that he welcomes the opportunity to unqualifiedly recommend JOHN DANIEL EHRLICHMAN for any position of trust and confidence.

On January 23, 1969, GORDON S. CLINTON, Attorney At Law and former Mayor of Seattle, Hoge Building, Seattle, advised that he has known JOHN DANIEL EHRLICHMAN for the past ten years. His law practice has consisted to a considerable extent as defense Counsel for various insurance companies and on matters concerning zoning, planning and real estate law. Mr. CLINTON advised that when he was Mayor of Seattle he worked closely with JOHN DANIEL EHRLICHMAN on zoning and planning matters and found him to be completely dependable and thoroughly reliable. He is temperate and is a devoted family man. He has in the past been active in civic and community affairs. He has a tremendous capacity for work, is of a judicious temperament and is competent without arrogance. Nothing of an unfavorable nature has ever come to his attention concerning JOHN DANIEL EHRLICHMAN and he has no hesitancy in unqualifiedly recommending him for any position of trust and confidence.

OLSON, United States Courthouse, Seattle, Washington, advised on January 24, 1969, that due to the nature of the appointee's law practice, the appointee has had insufficient contact with members of the United States Attorney's Office for anyone to make any meaningful comment concerning him and he knew no one in the United States Attorney's Office who knew EHRLICHMAN on a personal basis although by reputation he understands that EHRLICHMAN is an especially capable attorney whose integrity and reputation have been unquestioned.

JAMES R. ELLIS, Attorney, IBM Building, Seattle, Washington, advised that he has known the appointee for approximately ten years and that he had worked with the appointee in connection with King County's "Forward Thrust" program and he characterized the appointee as, "One of the ablest lawyers in the State".
