Dear Mr. Corbett:

This letter is to confirm a conversation on March 22, 1990, between Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [REDACTED] of your office and Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Johnstown Resident Agency.

As you will recall, captioned matter involves a threatening letter sent to United States Congressman John P. Murtha, Twelfth District, Pennsylvania, and received at the Congressman's office in Somerset, Pennsylvania (PA). This letter was sent by captioned individual, [REDACTED] who is a patient at the Somerset State Hospital, Somerset, PA.

On March 22, 1990, AUSA [REDACTED] declined prosecution in this matter since it has no prosecutive merit due to the obvious mental problems of [REDACTED]

Sincerely yours,

[REDACTED]
JOHN P. MURTHA,
U.S. CONGRESSMAN,
TWELFTH DISTRICT, PENNSYLVANIA - VICTIM
EXTORTION

On March 22, 1990, [REDACTED] Administrative Assistant to JOHN P. MURTHA, U.S. Congressman, Twelfth District, Pennsylvania (PA), reported a threatening letter was received through the U.S. Mail on March 22, 1990, at Congressman MURTHA'S office in Somerset, PA, and contained a threat to the life of Congressman MURTHA. The return address on the envelope listed the sender as [REDACTED] Somerset State Hospital, Somerset, PA, 15001, and the letter was postmarked March 21, 1990, from the Somerset State Hospital, Somerset, PA.

Somerset State Hospital officials were contacted and confirmed that [REDACTED] is currently a patient at the hospital. [REDACTED] has been diagnosed as a chronic schizophrenic. [REDACTED] has been treated at the Somerset State Hospital and the Fairview State Hospital continuously since 1983.

Dr. [REDACTED] M.D., attending physician, advised that due to [REDACTED] medical history, [REDACTED] is considered unpredictable and dangerous because of previous acts of striking out with hands and fists against staff members at the hospital. Staff members at the hospital added that, in their opinion, [REDACTED] does not have the foresight, judgement or attention span to plan or carryout any plot to assault a public official.

Officials at the hospital advised, in their opinion, subject does not have the foresight, judgement or attention span to plan or carryout any plot to assault a public official. Hospital officials also advised the subject does not have a history of escape from the hospital and has not attempted to escape from the hospital recently.

On 3/22/90, an interview was conducted with the subject at Somerset State Hospital. Subject admitted to writing the threatening letter to Congressman MURTHA, stating his reason is he blames the Congressman, among others, for his not being able to get into the military after he graduated from high school in 1979. Subject advised he never intended to assault or kill Congressman MURTHA. Subject is identified as follows:

[REDACTED] W/M; D/POB [REDACTED] at Johnstown, PA; SSAN [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

Somerset State Hospital officials advised it is highly unlikely that subject will be released from the care of the hospital in the near future, since he has been receiving care at the hospital since 1983 and his condition has not improved.

On 3/22/90, the Pittsburgh Office of the U.S. Secret Service was telephonically contacted and advised of the above threat.

Pittsburgh indices reviewed with negative results.

An immediate declination was received from the USA'S Office, Western District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, PA.

Unless further investigation is required, Pittsburgh considers this matter RUC.
