

8. "Did not the Gentile magicians do great things before the Pharaoh?

9. "My words and deeds in all the walks of life shall be the proof of my Messiahship."

10. And then the tempter said: "If you will go into Jerusalem and from the temple pinnacle cast down yourself to earth, the people will believe you are the Messiah sent from Allah.

11. This you can surely do; for did not David say: He gives His angels charge concerning you, and with their hands will they uphold lest you shall fall?"

12. And Jesus said: "I will not tempt the Lord, my God, Allah."

13. And then the tempter said: "Look forth upon the world; behold its honors and its fame! Behold its pleasures and its wealth.

14. "If you will give your life to these they shall be yours."

15. But Jesus said: "Away from me all tempting thoughts. My heart is fixed. I spurn this carnal self with all its vain ambition and its pride."

16. For forty days did Jesus wrestle with His carnal self; His higher self prevailed. He then was hungry, but his friends had found Him and they ministered to Him.

17. Then Jesus left the wilderness, and in the consciousness of Holy Breath, He came into the camps of John and taught.

CHAPTER XVI

Pilate's Final Effort to Release Jesus Fails—He Washes His Hands in Feigned Innocence—Delivers Jesus to the Jews for Execution—The Soldiers Drive Him to Calvary

1. A superstitious people are the Jews. They have a faith that they have borrowed from the idol worshippers of other lands, that at the end of every year,

2. They may heap all their sins upon the head of some man set apart to bear their sins.

3. The man becomes a scapegoat for the multitudes; and they believe that when they drive him forth into the wilds, or into foreign lands they are released from sins.

4. So every spring before the feast they chose a prisoner from the prisons of the land, and by a form of their own, they fain would make him bear their sins away.

5. Among the Jewish prisoners in Jerusalem were three who were the leaders of a vile, seditious band, who had engaged in thefts and murders and rapine, and had been sentenced to be crucified.

6. Barabbas and Jesus were among the men who were to die, but Barabbas was rich and had bought off priests the boon to be the scapegoat for the people at the coming feast, and he was anxiously in waiting for his hour to come.

7. Now, Pilate thought to turn his superstition to account to save the Lord Jesus, and so he went before the Jews and said:

8. "You men of Israel, according to my custom, I will release to you today a prisoner who shall bear your sins away."

9. "This man you drive into the wilds or in foreign lands, and you have asked me to release Barabbas, who has been proven guilty of the murder of a score of men."

10. Now, hear me men. Let Jesus be released and let Barabbas pay his debt upon the cross; then you can send this Jesus to the wilds and hear no more of Him."

11. At what the ruler said the people were enraged, and they began to plot to tear the Roman palace down and drive in exile Pilate and his household and his guards.

12. When Pilate was assured that civil war would follow if he heeded not to the wishes of the mob, he took a bowl of water and in the presence of the multitude he washed his hands and said:

13. "This man whom you accuse is Son of the Most High Allah, and I proclaim my innocence."

14. "If you would shed His blood, His blood is on your hands and not mine."

15. And then the Jews exclaimed: "And let His blood be on our hands and on our children's hands."

16. And Pilate trembled like a leaf, in fear. Barabbas he released, and as the Lord stood forth before the mob, the ruler said: "Behold your King! And would you put to death your King?"

17. The Jews replied: "He is no King; we have no King but great Tiberius."

18. Now, Pilate would not give consent that Roman soldiers should imbue their hands in blood of innocence and so the chief priests and the Pharisees took council what to do with Jesus.

19. Caiaphas has said: "We cannot crucify this man. He must be stoned to death and nothing more."

20. And then the rabble said: "Make haste! Let Him be stoned." And then they led Him forth toward the hill beyond the city's gates where criminals were put to death.

21. The rabble could not wait until they reached the place of skulls. As soon as they had passed the city's gates, they rushed upon Him, smote Him with their hands, they spit upon Him, stoned Him and He fell upon the ground.

22. And one, a man of Allah, stood forth and said: "He shall be bruised for our transgressions and by His stripes we shall be healed."

23. And Jesus laid all bruised and mangled on the ground, a High Priest called out, "Stay, stay, you men! Behold the guards of Herod come and they will crucify this man."

24. And there beside the city's gates they found Barabbas' cross, and then the frenzied mob cried out, "Let Him be crucified."

25. Caiaphas and the other ruling Jews came forth and gave consent.

26. And they lifted Jesus from the ground, and at the point of swords they drove Him on.

27. A man named Simon, from Cyrene, a friend of Jesus, was near the scene, and since the bruised and wounded Jesus could not bear His cross, they laid it on the shoulders of this man, and made him bear it to Calvary.

[redacted] had in his possession a certificate which referred to him as [redacted] EL SHEIK, certifying him to be a Moor, and issued by the Moorish Temple of Science of America, with headquarters at 3229 Indiana Avenue, Chicago.

b7c
Under date of April 13, 1942 Sheriff [redacted] of Lexington, Mississippi telephonically contacted the Jackson office and advised that it had come to his attention that there was a chapter of the Moorish Temple of Science of America located on the Farm Security Administration Housing Project at Mileston, Mississippi and that he had also learned that there were organizers of the Moorish Temple of Science operating in Yazoo and Humphreys Counties and that they were advising the negroes that they were Moors and not, in fact, negroes and that if the Japanese won the war the negro or Moorish race would gain equality with the other races in the United States. He further advised that one [redacted] appeared to be the local leader of the organization and had been advising the negroes that if they joined the organization they would not have to fight in the present war and that when the Japanese took over the country all members of the organization would be treated in good fashion. He further advised that he had a confidential informant, [redacted] negro, who was cooperating with him in an effort to obtain additional information.

Under date of May 8, 1942 [redacted] Jackson, advised this office that considerable trouble had been arising in the vicinity of Tchula among the negroes in that area and that a [redacted] and a [redacted] both large planters who reside R.F.D., Tchula, [redacted] had advised him that some negroes in the community were teaching that any negroes who joined the Moorish Temple organization would not have to register under the Selective Service Act and that if they had already registered and were members of the organization they would not have to go when called for induction, and that if they got into any trouble over the matter the organization would get them out of it.

On April 24, 1942 while in Lexington, the writer attempted to contact Sheriff [redacted] relative to the Moorish Temple of Science, but it was learned that Sheriff [redacted] was out of town. Deputy Sheriff [redacted] however, advised the writer that Sheriff [redacted] had conducted considerable investigation relative to this matter and had discussed it with County Prosecuting Attorney PAT BENNETT. He further advised that the State Grand Jury had just indicted [redacted] of R.F.D., Lexington, and [redacted] under a state statute making it a criminal offense to teach any belief that advocates the overthrow by violence of the present form of government. He advised that [redacted] who appeared to be the leader of the local group, was presently incarcerated in the county jail; that [redacted] another member of the group, was presently in jail in Belzoni, having been arrested there for disturbing the peace and starting a fight aboard a bus; that [REDACTED] a brother-in-law of [REDACTED] was also in custody in Lexington but that [REDACTED] had not been located, and he advised that it was his understanding from the sheriff that [REDACTED] was from Chicago, Illinois, and had probably organized the local group. He added that it was the sheriff's belief that [REDACTED] had gone back to Chicago. He further advised that Sheriff [REDACTED] had developed during the investigation that this organization had been preaching to the negroes in the community that they were not members of the negro race but were in actuality Moors and members of the Asiatic race; that the Japanese were fighting a war of liberation for all of the Asiatic people in America and that when the Japanese won the war and invaded the United States those individuals who were members of the Moorish Temple of Science and who had certified cards and buttons issued by the headquarters of the organization would not be harmed by the invading armies and would be treated as brothers by the Japanese, while other individuals, on the other hand, would be killed. He advised that the negroes were being taught that they should cooperate with the Japanese and should not fight against the Japanese in the present war. Deputy Sheriff [REDACTED] further advised that in the raid Sheriff [REDACTED] had conducted that a number of exhibits had been obtained but that it was his understanding that these were presently in the custody of County Prosecuting Attorney PAT BARRETT.

The writer then attempted to contact County Attorney BARRETT, but it was learned at his office that he was away attending court in Greenwood, Mississippi. However, from Mr. BARRETT'S secretary the writer obtained the exhibit file in this case for perusal, and examination of the file disclosed that there were a number of pasteboard cards about 2 inches by 3 inches which appeared to be identification or credential cards of various members, certifying that the bearer was a bona fide member of the Moorish Temple of Science and entitled to all privileges, etc. The file also contained a number of buttons apparently for pinning in coat lapels, which were about the size of a nickel and having a blue background and displayed thereon a small silver star and crescent with the letters in capitals thereon at the top MA and the word "Allah" printed thereon in silver. There were also in the file a number of books, one group of which carried the title "The Holy Koran of the Moorish Temple of Science." the other books were on the order of pamphlets of questions and answers for members.

From the material in the file it appeared that the headquarters of the Moorish Temple of Science were at 3229 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, telephone Victory 8794, and that the prophet of the order was Noble DREW ALI. From the information printed on some of the pamphlets it appeared that the organization was incorporated and registered in Cook County, Illinois, as a religious organization.

An examination of the "Holy Koran" disclosed that a large portion of the book was devoted to religious quotations and instructions of the Prophet to members relative to questions arising in daily life. It was, however, noted that throughout most of the books there appeared the theme that there was no such thing as the negro race; that negroes were, in fact, of Moorish descent and a branch of the Asiatic race. Apparently from a brief perusal of the "Koran" it was a teaching of the organization that the dark skinned and yellow races were, in reality, all branches of the Asiatic race.

THE CHICAGO FIELD DIVISION

At Chicago, Illinois

* Will make appropriate investigation at 408 West Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, concerning the Moorish Science Temple of America. The individuals in charge appear to be known as C. CURTMAN BEY and NOBLE DREW. It is especially desired to ascertain if this organization is hostile to the best interests of the United States Government in view of the fact that subject WASHINGTON has stated to persons solicited that when the Japs take over this country, those who belong to this organization will not be molested.

* It is also requested that if possible, the connection of subject WASHINGTON with this organization be obtained.

Will, at 3229 Indiana Avenue, the headquarters of the Moorish Temple of Science of America, obtain, if possible, a list of the local chapters of the organization that are located in the State of Mississippi.

THE JACKSON FIELD DIVISION

At Bolzoni, Mississippi

b7c Will interview Sheriff [REDACTED] for any background information he may have relative to subject organization and will also interview [REDACTED] whom the sheriff presently has in custody.

At Lexington, Mississippi

b7c Will interview Sheriff [REDACTED] and obtain all available information relative to subject organization which he has in his possession, and will, after obtaining this background information, interview [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] whom the sheriff presently has in custody.

Subject: NEGRO (NIGRO) AMERICAN ORGANIZATION

Summary of Information:

1. This office is in receipt of the following information from the Post Intelligence Officer, Camp Upton, New York and is forwarded for our considerations.

"A number of persons affiliated with subject organization have recently moved into Gordon Heights, an all-negro settlement in West Yaphank, Long Island, New York, not far from this post.

The organization is said to have headquarters in Oyster Bay, Wantagh, and Riverhead, and its members are composed of colored persons with little or no education, who are on relief.

In Gordon Heights they are said to have evinced much sympathy with Japan, even going so far as to make loudly favorable comments when Japanese victories are reported in newspapers. The group is also said to believe strongly in Hitlerism and Nazism.

Subject organization is said to hold regular meetings on Sunday afternoons on Granary Road in West Yaphank at an old farmhouse which is occupied by one WILLIAM L. who is said to be the subject organization's organizer for the Yaphank-Riverhead district.

This organizer's son, known as CLAUDE WILLIAMS, is said to live in Brooklyn, and his trips to Gordon Heights passes as a United States Deputy of some sort, displaying a badge and gun.

This information comes from WALLACE LEONARD, President of the Civic League of Gordon Heights, and Treasurer of school board there, who has for eighteen (18) months been employed by the Intelligence Department, Camp Upton, New York. Informant expresses great fear of the power of the organization, and said its members were disrupting his community."

1. The following unsolicited information was obtained from a confidential source believed to be reliable.

2. Subject organization under title of MOORISH TEMPLE OF SCIENCE is operating on the same basis as is the MOORISH TEMPLE in Detroit, Michigan, and claims a membership of five thousand. The policy of this temple is to advocate the policy of non-resistance to the Japanese among the colored people. JAMES BARNES, organizer of subject organization, was recently convicted in Lexington, Mississippi, for violation of the Mississippi Sedition Act. HIRSH KAHNE, a native of Chicago and a member of subject organization, was convicted with BARNES. The financial backing of both the Chicago and Detroit temples can be traced to the Japanese.

b7c subject organization. [REDACTED] that approximately five years ago there had been a colored organization which held meetings at 408 West Chicago Avenue but they had long been disbanded and had never heard anything regarding them since that time. Numerous other inquiries around in that same neighborhood regarding the subject organization also met with negative results.

The report of Special Agent [REDACTED] New York City, dated 4/6/40 set forth that a negro individual known as "Grand Sheikh El" who resided at that time in Brooklyn, New York, had gone to Hartford, Connecticut, in the summer of 1936 and established Local Chapter #35 of "The Moorish Science Temple of America, Inc.". The informant, whose identity is not set forth, was of the opinion that this organization was originally founded by his Excellency, Col. KIRKMAN-BEY, of Chicago, Illinois. The informant further advised that this organization was believed founded for the purpose of uplifting the poor negro classes of the United States, and he was of the opinion that at the present time there were eight million members in the organization.

b7c [REDACTED] that he had been in that neighborhood for approximately ten years and was casually acquainted with KIRKMAN-BEY. [REDACTED] that BEY was a petty politician and knew that he was a leader of some club or religious organization which met at the corner of New Orleans and Wendell Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] was unable to give any information with regard to the activities of this organization or the membership or the policies for which they stood.

b7c [REDACTED] that KIRKMAN-BEY had been living at 1104 Sedgwick Avenue for the last year and a half and he also stated that BEY was the leader of some religious organization. [REDACTED] unable to give any information regarding the personal life of BEY but stated that he was married and had three children. [REDACTED] that BEY had been in the colored section of the north side over a long period of time and was very well known.

It was learned through informants in this city that KIRKMAN-BEY and NOBLE DREW ALI originally founded this organization a good many years ago among the colored people but that there had been some disagreement between those two men and they had separated. BEY then became the leader of the negroes on the north side of Chicago and DREW ALI became the leader and organizer among the negroes on the south side. It has been reported since then, however, that DREW ALI has been dead for approximately five years, but this information has not been verified as yet.

Information was received from [REDACTED] to the effect that the Moorish Science Temple of America was organized on November 29, 1926, to uplift fallen humanity and teach those things necessary to make men and women better citizens. The informant set forth that on May 21, 1929, the charter was amended and the annual report filed on February 6, 1929, showed [REDACTED] EL. GRAND SHEIK. President.

b7d
[REDACTED] BEY, Secretary. [REDACTED] The report filed on January 20, 1942, shows [REDACTED] President.

[REDACTED] BEY, Secretary. [REDACTED] EL, Treasurer,

[REDACTED] All these people are colored and reside in Chicago. The principal office of this temple was supposedly located at 4848 South State Street and was formerly at 3709 Indiana Avenue.

b7c
It was set forth in the reference report of Special Agent [REDACTED] that the headquarters of the subject organization were at 3229 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, telephone Victory 8794, and that the Prophet of the Order was NOBLE DREW ALI. This report further set forth that from all indications the organization was incorporated and registered in Cook County, Illinois, as a religious organization. The above telephone number is listed to the Moorish Science Temple at 3229 Indiana Avenue.

b7e
It should be noted that considerable information regarding activities of the colored population of this city is set forth in the report of Special Agent [REDACTED] Chicago, Illinois, entitled [REDACTED] with aliases; [REDACTED] with aliases; SEDITION, SELECTIVE SERVICE. A copy of this report is being sent to the Springfield Office for their information. There are a number of colored organizations which are very active in this city but it is very difficult to make a distinction as to the various groups inasmuch as they all seem to have the same outlook on the present conflict and they advocate a Japanese victory. The Moslem organization seemed to be the most active colored organization and this is a national organization with branches all throughout the United States.

It should be noted that several colored informants have been developed by this office and an attempt is being made to place them in the various colored organization in order to identify the leaders and also the statements which they make at the meetings.

CHICAGO FIELD DIVISION.

At Chicago, Illinois.

Will at 3229 Indiana Avenue, supposedly the headquarters of the Moorish Science Temple of America, obtain if possible a list of the local chapters of the organization that are located in the State of Mississippi. It should also be noted that the principal office was also reported to be at 4848 South State Street. Investigation should also be made at this address.

Will attempt to locate the exact meeting place of the subject organization which was reported to be at the corner of New Orleans and Wendell Avenue.

Will instruct confidential informants to attend meetings of subject organization on the north side in order to obtain specific information as to identity of leaders, total membership, and statements made by speakers.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

DATE 1-31-80 BY SP2 Tmple

At the above noted time, Special Agent [REDACTED] Number One Man, Kansas City Field Division, telephonically contacted the writer and advised that the Kansas City Office had apprehended seventeen colored individuals in Kansas City, Kansas, as of this date for violations of the Selective Service Act.

He advised that these individuals were members of the Moorish Science Temple of America, which organization has its main headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. Members of the organization claim to be Moslems rather than Americans, and for that reason insist that they need not comply with the laws of this country, especially in regard to Selective Service registration. They further claim they are not of the Negro race, but are of the Moslem race.

b7c Agent [REDACTED] further explained that warrants had been issued for seven of these individuals, and that the Deputy United States Marshal, Kansas City, Kansas, and Bureau Agents had taken part in the arrests. At the present time, five of the individuals are incarcerated in the Wyandotte County jail, Kansas City, Kansas, and twelve are in the Kansas City, Kansas, jail. They are presently being questioned by Bureau Agents. He stated that prior to the apprehensions made this evening, seven warrants had been issued by the United States Attorney, and upon making the apprehensions at the Moorish Temple, which is located at Kansas City, Missouri, it was ascertained that an additional ten were also apparently in violation of the Selective Service Act.

b7c Members of the organization are considered by the Kansas City, Kansas Police to be religious fanatics and apparently somewhat mentally unbalanced. The members of this organization assume either fictitious names or add to their own names in such a manner as to make them meaningless and sound somewhat Arabic. The organization at Kansas City, which is a branch, has apparently from seventy-five to one hundred members, and they meet at irregular intervals. When questioned, individuals were very uncooperative as to giving their correct identities, and when questioned concerning their ages, they usually replied that they are either eighteen or eighty-eight, which answers are obviously incorrect.

Agent [REDACTED] further advised that various organizations throughout the country of the Moorish Temple have caused trouble in this regard also. He was unable to give any other specific data at this time concerning this.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

Copies of reports from the Kansas City Office reflect that on July 24, 1942, sixteen members of the negro religious cult known as Moorish Science Temple of America were arrested and charged with violation of the Selective Service and Training Act of 1940, in that they failed to register. Each of these subjects is held under $10,000 bond awaiting action of the Federal Grand Jury.

The headquarters of the Moorish Science Temple of America are located in Chicago, with active branches in Milwaukee and Washington.

The Kansas City Office has been requested to furnish complete information concerning the background and activities of the movement in Kansas City.

Respectfully submitted,

R. H. Cunningham

This case originated at Kansas City

File No. 100-4692

Report made at Kansas City, Missouri	Date made 8-7-42	Period 6-16; 7-24, 25, 30; 8-2-42	Report made by [REDACTED] b7c os
TITLE MOORISH SCIENCE TEMPLE OF AMERICA; C. KIRKMAN BEY		CHARACTER INTERNAL SECURITY - J

SYNOPSIS: Brother Mohammed Bey founded branch temple of Moorish Science, a negro religious organization, in Kansas City, Kansas about 1933. At one time boasted membership of 400 members. Brother Mohammed Bey passed from the scene in March 1941 and membership has now dwindled to around 50 members. Investigation revealed male members had failed to register for Selective Service, claiming since they were religious Asiatics they had no interest in a European conflict. 15 members of the Temple taken into Federal custody 7-24-42 for violation of Selective Service Act. Organization apparently guided by C. KIRKMAN BEY, of Chicago, Illinois, who publishes Moorish Voice. Publication of August 1941 contains an article indicating Japanese influence over organization. No evidence of subversive activities being carried on by Kansas City, Kansas branch other than violation of Selective Service Act. No evidence of subversive activities on part of branch located at Atchison, Kansas, all members of which have registered for Selective Service.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was interviewed and advised that the Moorish Science Temple of America had a branch organization in Atchison, Kansas for about two years. She stated at the beginning the organization issued cards to the members as evidence of the fact that they were Moorish Americans; that issuance of these cards had been discontinued the past year. [REDACTED] the membership was about twenty and that they have their meetings each Sunday afternoon between 6:00 and 7:00 P.M. at a temple located at 224½ North 6th Street, Atchison, Kansas; that a fee of $1.00 each is charged for admittance to membership in the Temple. She stated she is not a member of the organization; however, she had been solicited on numerous occasions to become a member but had never joined.

She recalled that C. KIRKIAN BEY, Supreme Grand Advisor and Moderator, of Chicago, Illinois, came to Atchison in September 1941 to inspect the temple and met the members of the organization. According to [REDACTED] BEY, [REDACTED] is the local Prophet for the organization.

[REDACTED] he attended one meeting of the Moorish Science Temple in Atchison, and that was on the occasion when C. KIRKIAN BEY made a visit to the Temple in September, 1941. According to [REDACTED] the aim of the organization was to teach the Mohammed religion and that Allah is God, but they do not teach anything against the Government, and the constitution of the Moorish Science Temple teaches its members to obey the laws of the land. The teachings of the Moorish Science Temple are also that the members are a branch or descendants of the Nobites, who were led out of the wilderness by Jesus and settled in North Africa.

advised that he attended the meeting when C. KIRKMAN BEY came to Atchison and he heard C. KIRKMAN BEY lecture; at which time he only spoke about the progress of the organization and talked at random concerning the various Temples located over the country. He further advised he knew the Moorish Temple had not had meetings for the past two Sundays, but was unable to say whether it was due to the article appearing in the newspaper recently concerning several members of the Kansas City Temple having been arrested for not having registration cards.

[redacted] of the Atchison, Kansas Police Department, advised that he knew several of the men who were members of the Moorish Science Temple in Atchison, and knew the organization existed, but he has never heard anything concerning them to indicate that there is anything subversive in the organization.

b7c
[redacted] Local Selective Service Board 1, Court House, checked the names of the persons furnished her as being members of the Moorish Science Temple in Atchison, and it was ascertained all the male members were duly registered with the Local Draft Board.

- At Kansas City, Kansas -

On June 12, 1942, a negro by the name of [redacted] was arrested by the Kansas City, Missouri Police Department on a charge of drunk and careless driving, at which time it was found he failed to have a registration certificate although 21 years of age. [redacted] admitted he had not registered for Selective Service and stated he was a member of the religious sect known as the Moorish Science Temple of America and, therefore, being a religious man he did not have to register. [redacted] was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury at Kansas City, Missouri, and prosecuted in Federal Court for violation of the Selective Service and Training Act of 1940, being placed on probation for a period of two years after he stated he desired to register and comply with all provisions of the Selective Service Act.

On June 16, 1942, reporting Agent along with Special Agents [redacted] called at the Moorish Science Temple of America, located at 604 Miami Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas, and interviewed a number of the members of this religious cult and found that none of the male members had registered for Selective Service. At the time of this interview they were all warned it was their duty and obligation under the Selective Service And Training Act to register and advised if they did not register they were subject to prosecution in Federal Court.

On July 24, 1942, fifteen of these Subjects were arrested for violation of the Selective Service & Training Act at Kansas City, Kansas, and are now awaiting the action of the Federal Grand Jury. At the time they were arrested they appeared to be quite hostile to the white race and stated they were continually being "pushed around" by the white people; that they did not feel they were obligated to perform any duty under the Selective Service Act since they were Asiatics and did not believe they had any interest in a European conflict. All of these Subjects are negroes, born in either Louisiana, Mississippi or Texas and have come to Kansas within the last few years.

Investigation reveals that most of these Subjects joined up with the Moorish Science Temple before coming to Kansas City, Kansas, and came to Kansas City, Kansas because the Temple was located at that point.

The leader of the Branch Temple in Kansas City, Kansas, at the present time is [REDACTED] BEY alias [REDACTED] Bey, who is the wife of Mohammed Bey who died March 8, 1941. Mohammed Bey came to Kansas City, Kansas about 1933, having organized the Moorish Science Temple of America along with another negro known as NOBLE DAWALLAH, who was born in the state of North Carolina, supposedly in 1886. It is claimed that this religious cult was founded in Newark, New Jersey in 1913 but the headquarters of the organization are now located at 3603 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The dues are $2.00 for a Nationality Card, which is issued by the Prophet and designates the bearer as either a Bey or El, this being supposedly the family of his forefathers. There is no way of knowing how the Prophet designates whether they are Bays or Els, but the members of this cult do not seem to question this and accept the name given by the Prophet in return for their $2.00. The dues at the Local Temple in Kansas City, Kansas were found to be 50¢ a month and the membership at the present time is estimated between 40 and 50 members in Kansas City, Kansas, and a number of dues paying members in Mississippi, Arkansas, and Louisiana brings the membership close to 200. It is stated that when Mohammed Bey, the Prophet of the Kansas City, Kansas Temple, was alive the membership was as much as 400 dues paying members.

It is believed there is also a temple located in St. Louis, Missouri but the head temple, which is controlled by C. KIRKLAND BEY, who bears the title of Supreme Grand Advisor and Moderator, is located at [REDACTED] Chicago, Illinois.

At the time the fifteen members were arrested for violation of the Selective Service Act a number of picture postcards, supposedly of the headquarters of the Moorish Temple in Cairo, Egypt, were found, which were apparently used by Mohammed Bey to impress members of his religious cult as to the grandeur of the lives lived by their alleged forebears.

Found among the effects of [REDACTED] BEY was a letter dated October 25, 1938 - from Mohammed Bey, Carrerera Nacional Rio Corona Tamas, Mexico addressed to [REDACTED] which reads as follows:

"Brother I need Two Hundred Dollars at once please sent me the money soon I have a place for you all it is good for forming Land I need this money to build House for you all tell the Moslems I say Islam an Peace this is From the Prophet Mohamed Bey."

b7c [redacted] is a well known negro [redacted] in Kansas City, Kansas, who is apparently well off financially and is a devoted member of the Moorish Science Temple.

b7c Found also amongst the effects of [redacted] BEY was a telegram from [redacted] Kansas City, Kansas, dated September 23, 1936 to Prophet Mohamed Bey, care [redacted]. This telegram was a Money Order sent to Mohamed Bey with the following message: "EL ISLAM AND PEACE MY ALLAH BLESS TO ALL".

b7c Also found among the effects was a letter from [redacted] from [redacted] January 8, 1939 addressed to Mohamed Bey, as follows:

"My dear friend:

Parlon me for not answering sooner because I was out of town and had not received your letter, and also the one you sent to my wife. We are glad you are all well and are getting ready to come in January.

The papers that you were expecting from Mexico City have not reached here yet.

I think you can arrange everything down there with the Consul - in the that Country. Show to him your legalized passports so he knows that you are going to emigrate to Mex. and have with you the money that the law requires for the purpose as an emigrant, who comes to this country to work with his own money, and not to be e charge to the Country.

Answer me soon and give our best regards to you family. " b7c When questioned concerning these communications [redacted] BEY advised her husband had negotiated with officials in Mexico for some farm land in order to move the followers of his religious cult to Mexico from Kansas City, Kansas, but that his health failed and the officials in Mexico were none too friendly, and therefore this venture was dropped.

At the time of the arrest of the fifteen individuals, as stated above, a number of copies of the Holy Koran of the Moorish Science Temple of America were obtained and are being submitted to the Bureau with this report, although a preliminary review of the matter in the Kansas City Field Division office fails to indicate there is anything of a subversive nature contained therein.

Also was a pamphlet entitled "Salvation" written by NOBLE DREW ALI, founder of the Moorish Science Temple of America, 3603 Indiana Avenue, with no date, answering some questions about the religious beliefs of this cult. A copy of this pamphlet is also being submitted to the Bureau with copies of this report.

b7c
Deputy United States Marshal [redacted] Kansas City, Kansas obtained a copy of the Moorish Voice published by the Moorish Science Temple of America, Volume 2, Number 4, dated August 1941. Contained on page 5 of this book the following article, apparently written by Sister FOLSON BEY, entitled "WE HAVE THE RIGHTS", appears:

" If you want the best that life can give, put forth your best efforts."

" This is a new era of time now, one in which Moorish Americans must take a leading part. Our children must measure head and shoulder with the children of other leading Asiatic races.

" It is significant that many years ago when Japan won freedom from mental slavery, we gained physical freedom, and when Japan won her first battle over the Europeans, we won our first mental battle, and gained the right to become a National Unit through our Prophet Noble Drew Ali. Now Japan has reached the position where she can hold her own with all European nations, say and do when and what she pleases, our people are aroused to the need of sticking together.

" The sun rises in the East and casts its warm nourishing rays towards the West. The Japanese are the Eastern Semites. We are the Western.

" Always since the beginning of civilization, the East taught the West its learning.

" We the Moors of North America are the salt of the Asiatic Nations in this Western hemisphere. Therefore let us beware lest the salt lose its saving power.

" We have what it takes, through our beloved Prophet, Noble Drew Ali, now, let's use it."

It would appear from a review of this article that this organization might be controlled by Japanese influence and leads are being set out for the Chicago Field Division to conduct appropriate investigation in the event same has not already been conducted concerning this organization in that city.

ACT 1. Grand Sheiks, and Governors and heads of all Temples, all Businesses: Each said Temple must be approved by the Prophet Noble Drew Ali. Before acting upon by any members, let it be finance, property or any line of life that will cause the members to sacrifice finance, etc., that will cause the support of any group of members. Any former officer that violates these laws is subject to be removed from his office under a heavy restriction, etc., by the Prophet or the Grand Sheikh.

ACT 2.—All members are to attend their adept meetings and their public meetings promptly. If a member is found standing around on their meeting period, shall be fined $0c on the first case, and on the second, he will be fined one dollar ($1.00), which will go on your emergency fund. If member is working his monthly dues must be paid, and if he has money in the bank he must subscribe for as much as he is able, to the Moorish Uplifting Fund, because it takes finance to uplift a Nation.

ACT 3.—It is the lawful and divine duty of every good member if he is able in finance, to aid me in saving the nation; and if he does not, he is an enemy to the cause of uplifting his own people, and Justice must catch you. Let it be he or she according to Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom and Justice, as I have the power invested in my hands and I will have to enforce the law in order to save the Nation.

ACT 4.—All members while up making a public speech must not use any assertion against the American flag, or speak radical against the church or any member of any organized group; because we are to teach Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom and Justice.

ACT 5.—All members must promptly attend their meetings and send their children to Sunday School, and the teacher must confirm himself to the questionary. And let every member exercise his five senses who is able to do so, because out from your Sunday School comes the guiders of the Nation.

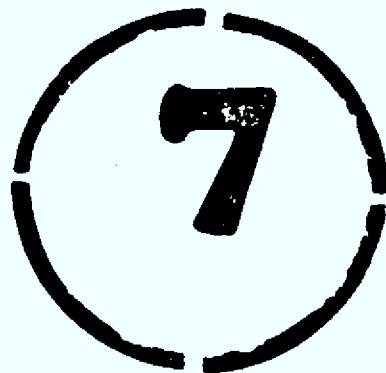

ACT 6.—With us all members must proclaim their nationality and we are teaching our people their nationality and their Divine Creed that they may know that they are a part and partial of this said government, and know that they are not Negroes, Colored Folks, Black People or Ethiopians, because these names were given to slaves by slave holders in 1779 and lasted until 1865 during the time of slavery, but this is a new era of time now, and all men now must proclaim their free national name to be recognized by the government in which they live and the nations of the earth, this is the reason why Allah the Great God of the universe ordained Noble Drew Ali, the Prophet to redeem his people from their sinful ways. The Moorish Americans are descendants of the ancient Moabites who inhabited the North-western and South-western shores of Africa.

ACT 7.—All members must promptly attend their meetings and become a part and partial of all uplifting acts of the Moorish Holy Temple of Science. Members must pay their dues and keep in line with all necessities of the Moorish Holy Temple of Science then you are entitled to the name of, "Faithful". Husband, you must support your wife and children. Wife, you must obey your husband and look after the duties of your household. Sons and daughters must obey father and mother and be industrious and become a part of the uplifting of fallen humanity. All Moorish Americans must keep their hearts and minds pure with love, and their bodies clean with water. This Divine Covenant is from your Holy Prophet Noble Drew Ali, through the guidance of his Father, God Allah.

Know Thyself and Allah
THE GENOLOGY OF "JESUS"

Life and Works of Jesus in India, Europe and Africa, in the land of Egypt

NOBLE DREW ALI

THE PROPHET AND FOUNDER OF THE MOORISH HOLY TEMPLE OF SCIENCE, TO REDEEM THE PEOPLE FROM THEIR SINFUL WAYS

KNOW THYSELF
ALLAH

The Geneology of Jesus with eighteen years of the events, life, works and teaching in India, Europe and Africa. These events occurred before he was thirty years of age. These secret lessons are for all of those who love Jesus and desire to know about His life, works and teaching.

Dear readers, do not falsely use these lessons. They are for good, peace and happiness for all those that love Jesus.

Dear mothers, teach these lessons to your little ones, that they may learn to love instead of hate.

Dear fathers, by these lessons you can set your house in order and your children will learn to love instead of to hate.

The lessons of this pamphlet are not for sale, but for the sake of humanity, as I am a prophet and the servant is worthy of his hire, you can receive this pamphlet at expense. The reason these lessons have not been known is because the Moslems of India, Egypt and Palestine had these secrets and kept them back from the outside world, and when the time appointed by Allah the' loosen the keys and freed these secrets, and for the first time in ages have these secrets been delivered in the hands of the Moslems of America. All authority and rights of publishing of this pamphlet of 1927.

By the Prophet

NOBLE DREW ALI

The industrious acts of the Moslems of northwest and southwest Africa. These are the Moabites, Hamathites, Canaanites, who were driven out of the land of Canaan, by Joshua, and received permission from the Pharaohs of Egypt to settle in that portion of Egypt. In later years they formed themselves kingdoms. These kingdoms are called this day Morocco, Algiers, Tunis, Tripoli, etc.

CHAPTER I.

THE CREATION AND FALL OF MAN

"Time never was, when man was not." If life of man at any time began, a time would come when it would end.

"The thoughts of Allah cannot be circumscribed. No finite mind can comprehend things infinite. All finite things are subject unto change. All finite things will cease to be, because there was a time when they were not." The bodies and the souls of men are finite things, and they will change, yea, from the finite point of view the time will come when they will be no more. "But man himself is not the body, nor the soul; he is a spirit and a part of Allah." Creative Fate gave to man, to spiritman, a soul that he might function on the plane of soul; gave him a body of flesh, that he might function on the plane of things made manifest. "Why did Creative Fate give to spirit-man a soul that he might function on the plane of soul? Why did Creative Fate give to soul a body of flesh that he might function on the plane of things that are made manifest?"

"Hear, now, ye cherubim, ye seraphim, ye angels and ye men!"

"Hear, now, ye creeping things of earth, ye fish that swim, ye birds that fly!"

"Hear, now, ye winds that blow, ye thunders and ye lightnings of the sky!"

"Hear, now, ye spirits of the fire, of water, earth and air."

"Hear, now, oh everything that is, or was, or ever more will be, for wisdom speaks from out the highest plane of spirit life:

"Man is a thought of Allah; all thoughts of Allah are infinite; they are not measured up by time, for the things that are concerned with time, begin and end."

"The thoughts of Allah, are the everlasting of the past unto the never ending days to come. And so is man, the spirit-man."

"But man like every other thought of Allah, was but a seed, a seed that held within itself the potencies of Allah, just as the seed of any plant of earth holds deep within itself the attributes of every part of that especial plant."

"Go spirit-man as seed of Allah held deep within himself the attributes of every part of Allah."

"Now, seeds are perfect, yes, as perfect as the source from which they come; but they are not unfolded into life made manifest. The child is as perfect as the mother is. So man, the seed must be deeply planted in a soil that he might grow, unfold, as does the bud unfolds to show the flower. The human seed that came forth from the heart of Allah was full ordained to be the Lord of the plane of soul, and of the plane of things made manifest. So Allah, the husbandman of everything that is, threw forth this human seed into the soil of soul; it grew space, and man became a living soul, and he became the Lord of all the kingdom of the soul. Hark, now, let every creature hear; the plane of the soul is but the ether of the spirit plane vibrating not so fast, and in the slower rhythm of this plane the essence of life are manifest; the perfumes and odors, the true sensations and the all of love manifest.

"And these soul attributes became a body beautiful. A multitude of lessons man must learn upon the plane of soul; and here he tarries many ages until his lessons are all learned. Upon the boundary of the plane of soul the ether began to vibrate slower still, and then the essences took on a final garb; the perfumes and odors and the true sensations and the all of love were clothed in flesh; and man was clothed in flesh. Perfected man must pass through all the ways of life, and so a carnal was full manifest, a nature that sprang forth from fleshy things. Without a soldier never knows his strength, and thought must be developed by the exercise of strength. And so this carnal nature soon became a foe that man must fight, that he might be the strength of Allah made manifest. Let every living thing stand still and hear! Man is the Lord of all the plane of manifest, of protoplast, of mineral, of plant, of beast; but he given up his birthrights just to gratify his lower self. But man will regain his lost estate, his heritage; but he must do it in a conflict that cannot be told in words. Yea he must suffer trials and temptations manifold; but let him know the cherubim and seraphim that rule the stations of the sun and spirit of the mighty Allah who rule the solar stars are his protectors and his guide and they will lead to victory. Man will be fully saved, redeemed, perfected by the things he suffers on the plane of flesh, and on the plane of soul. When man has conquered carnal things his garb of flesh will then have served its purpose well and it will fall; will be no more.

"Then he will stand untrammeled on the plane of soul where he must full complete his victories. Unnumbered foes will stand before man upon the plane of soul; there he must overcome, yea overcome them every one. Thus hope will ever be his beacon light; there is no failure for the human soul, for Allah is leading on and victory is sure.

"Man cannot die; the spirit man is one with Allah, and while Allah lives man cannot die. When man has conquered every foe upon the plane of soul the seed will have full opened out, will have unfolded in the Holy Breath. The garb of soul will then have served its purpose well, and man will then attain unto the blessedness of perfectness and at one with Allah."

CHAPTER II.

EDUCATION OF MARY AND ELIZABETH IN ZOAN, EGYPT

1. The son of Herod, Archelaus, reigned in Jerusalem. He was a selfish cruel king; he put to death all those who did not honor him.

2. He called in council all the wisest men and asked the infant claimant of his throne.

3. The council said that John and Jesus both were dead; then he was satisfied.

4. Now Joseph, Mary and their son were in Egypt in Zoan, and John was with his mother in the Judean hills.

5. Elihu and Salome sent messengers in haste to find Elizabeth and John. They found them, they brought them to Zoan.

6. Now Mary and Elizabeth were marveling much because of their deliverance.

7. Elihu said, "It is not strange; there are no happenings; law governs all events."

8. From olden times it was ordained that you should be with us and in this sacred school be taught.

9. Elihu and Salome took Mary and Elizabeth out of the sacred grove nearby where they were wont to teach.

10. Elihu said to Mary and Elizabeth, you may esteem yourselves thrice blessed, for you are chosen mothers of long promised sons.

11. Who are ordained to lay a solid rock a sure foundation stone on which the temple of the perfect man shall rest—a temple that shall never be destroyed.

12. We measure time by cycle ages, and the gate to every age we deem a mile stone in the journey of the race.

13. An age had passed; the gate unto another age flies open at the touch of time. This preparation age of soul, the kingdom of Emmanuel, of Allah in man.

14. And, these, your sons, will be the first to tell the news, and teach the gospel of good will to men, and peace on earth.

15. A mighty work is theirs, for carnal men want not the light; they love the dark, and when the light shines in the dark they comprehend it not.

16. We call these sons Revealers of the light, but they must have the light before they can receive the light.

17. And you must teach your sons, and set their souls on fire with love and holy zeal, and make them conscious of their missions to the sons of men.

18. Teach them that Allah and man are one, but that through carnal thoughts and words and deeds, man tore himself away from Allah debased himself.

19. Teach that the Holy Breath would make them one again, restoring harmony and peace.

20. That naught can make them one but love; that Allah so loved the world that he has clothed his son in flesh that man can comprehend.

21. The only savior of the world is love, and Jesus, son of Mary, comes to manifest that love to men.

22. Now love cannot be manifest until its way has been prepared, and naught can rend the rock and bring down lofty hills and fill the valleys up, and thus prepare the way, but purity.

23. But purity in life men do not comprehend; and so, it, too, must come in flesh.

24. And you, Elizabeth, are blessed because yours is purity made flesh, and he shall pave the way for love.

25. This age will comprehend but little of the works of purity and love; but not a word is lost, for in the book of Allah's remembrance & registry is made of every thought and word and deed.

26. And when the world is ready to receive, lo, Allah will send a messenger to open the book and copy from its sacred pages all the messages of purity and love.

27. Then every man of earth will read the words of life in language of his native land, and men will see the light, and walk in the light and be the light.

28. And man again will be at one with Allah.

CHAPTER III.

ELIHU'S LESSONS—THE UNITY OF LIFE

1. Again Elihu met his pupils in the sacred grove and said:

2. No man live unto himself, for every living thing is bound by cords to every other living thing.

3. Blessed are the pure in heart; for they will love and not demand love in return.

4. They will not do to other men what they would not have other men do unto them.

5. There are two selves; the higher and lower self.

6. The higher self is human spirit clothed with soul, made in the form of Allah.

7. The lower self, the carnal self, the body of desire, is a reflection of higher self, distorted by the murky ethers of the flesh.

8. The lower self is an illusion and will pass away; the high self is Allah in man, and will not pass away.

9. The higher self is the embodiment of truth, the lower self is truth reversed and so is falsehood manifest.

10. The higher self is justice, mercy, love and right; the lower self is what the higher self is not.

11. The lower self breeds hatred, slander, lewdness, murder, theft and everything that harms; the higher self is mother of the virtues and the harmonies of life.

12. The lower self is rich in promises, but poor in blessedness and peace; it offers pleasure, joy and satisfying gain; but gives unrest, misery and death.

13. It gives men apples that are lovely to the eye and pleasant to the smell; their cores are full of bitterness and gall.

14. If you would ask me what to study I would say, yourselves; and you well have studied them; and then would ask me what to study next. I would reply, yourselves.

15. He who knows well his lower self, knows the illusions of the world, knows of the things that pass away and he knows his higher self, knows Allah; knows well the things that cannot pass away.

16. Thrice blessed is the man who has made purity and love his very own; he has been ransomed from the perils of the lower self and is himself his higher self.

17. Men seek salvation from an evil that deem a living monster of the neither world; and they have gods that are but demons in disguise all powerful, yet full of jealousy and hate and lust.

18. Whose favors must be bought with costly sacrifice of fruits, and of the lives of birds and animals and human kind.

19. And yet these gods possess no ears to hear, no eyes to see, no heart to sympathize, no power to save.

20. This evil is a myth; these gods are made of air, and clothed with the shadow of a thought.

21. The only devil from which men must be redeemed is self, the lower self. If man would find his devil he must look within; his name is self.

22. If man would find his savior he must look within; and when the demon self has been dethroned the savior, love, will be exalted to the throne of power.

23. The David of the light is purity, who slays the strong Goliath of the dark, and seats the savior, love, upon the throne.

DEATH AND BURIAL OF ELIZABETH—MATHENO'S LESSONS—THE MINISTRY OF DEATH

1. When John was twelve years old his mother died, and neighbors laid her body in a tomb among her kindred in the Hebron burying ground, and near to Zacharias tomb.

2. And John was deeply grieved; he wept. Matheno said, it is not well to weep because of death.

3. Death is no enemy of man; it is a friend who, when the work of life is done, just cuts the cord that binds the human boat to earth, that it may sail on smoother seas.

4. No language can describe a mother's worth, and yours was tried and true. But she was not called hence until her tasks were done.

5. The calls of death are always for the best, for we are solving problems there as well as here; and one is sure to find himself where he can solve his problems best.

6. It is but selfishness that makes one wish to call again to birth departed souls.

7. Then let your mother rest in peace. Just let her noble life be strength and inspiration unto you.

8. A crisis in your life has come, and you must have a clear conception of the work that you are called to do.

9. The sages of the ages call you harbinger. The Prophets took to you and say, "He is Elijah come again."

10. Your mission here is that of harbinger; for you will go before the Messiah's face to pave His way, and make the people ready to receive their king.

11. This readiness is purity of heart; none but the pure in heart can recognize the king.

12. To teach men to be pure in heart you must yourself be pure in heart and word and deed.

13. In infancy the vow for you was made and you became a Nazarite. The razor shall not touch your face nor head, and shall not taste wine nor fiery drinks.

14. Men need a pattern for their lives; they love to follow, not to lead.

15. The man who stands upon the corners of the paths and points the way, but does not go, is just a pointer; and a block of wood can do the same.

16. The teacher treads the way; on every span of ground he leaves his foot-prints clearly cut, which all can see and be assured that he, their master went that way.

17. Men comprehend the inner life by what they see and do. They come to Allah through ceremonies and forms.

18. And so when they would make men know that sins are washed away by purity in life, a rite symbolic may be introduced.

19. In water wash the bodies of the people who would turn away from sin and strive for purity in life.

20. This rite of cleansing is a preparation rite and they who thus are cleansed comprised the temple of purity.

21. And you shall say, you men of Israel, hear; reform and wash; become the sons of purity, and you shall be forgiven.

22. This rite of cleansing and this temple are but symbolic or the soul, which does not come with outward show, but is the temple within.

23. Now, you may never point the way and tell the multitudes to do what you have never done; but you must go before and show the way.

24. You are to teach that men must wash; so you must lead the way, your body must be washed, symbolic of the cleansing of the soul.

25. John said, Why need I wait? May I not go at once and wash?

26. Matheno said, "Thy well, and they went down to the Jordan ford, and east of Jericho, just where the host of Israel crossed when first they entered Canaan, they tarried for a time.

27. Matheno taught the harbinger, and he explained to him the inner meaning of the cleansing rite and how to wash himself and how to wash the multitude.

28. And in the river Jordan John was washed; then they returned unto the wilderness.

29. Now in Engedi's hills Matheno's work was done and he and John went down to Egypt. They rested until they reached the Temple of Sakara in the valley of the Nile.

30. For many years Matheno was a master in this temple of the Brotherhood, and when he told about the life of John and his mission to the sons of men, the hierophant with joy received the harbinger and he was called the Brother Nazarite.

31. For eighteen years, John lived and wrought within these Temple gates; and here he conquered self, became a master mind and learned the duties of the harbinger.

CHAPTER V.

After the Feast—The Homeward Journey—The Missing Jesus—The Search for Him—His Parents Find Him in the Temple—He Goes With Them to Nazareth—Symbolic Meaning of Carpenter's Tools.

1. The great Feast of the Pasch was ended and the Nazarenes were journeying toward their homes.

2. And they were in Samaria, and Mary said: Where is my son? No one had seen the boy.

3. And Joseph sought among their kindred who were on their way to Galilee; but they had seen him not.

4. Then Joseph, Mary and a son of Zebedee returned and sought through all Jerusalem, but could find him not.

5. And Mary asked the guards had they seen Jesus, a little boy about twelve years old.

6. The guards replied, yes, he is in the temple now disputing with the doctors of the law.

7. And they went in and found him as the guards had said.

8. And Mary said, Why, Jesus, why do you treat your parents thus? Lo, we have sought two days for you. We feared that some great harm had overtaken you.

9. And Jesus said, Do you not know that I must be about my Father's work?

10. But he went round and pressed the hand of every doctor of the law and said, I trust that we meet again.

11. And then he went forth with his parents on their way to Nazareth; and when they reached their home he wrought with Joseph as a carpenter.

12. One day as he was bringing forth the tools for work he said:

13. These tools remind me of the ones we handle in the workshop of the mind where things are made of thought and where we build up character.

14. We use the square to measure all our lines, to straighten out the crooked places of the way, and make the corners of our conduct square.

15. We use the compass to draw the circles around our passions and desires to keep them in the bounds of righteousness.

16. We use the ax to cut away the knotty, useless and ungainly parts and make the character symmetrical.

17. We use the hammer to drive home the truth, and pound it in until it is a part of every part.

18. We use the plane to smooth the rough, uneven surface of joint, and block and board that go to build the temple for the truth.

19. The chisel, line, the plummet and the saw have all their uses in the workshop of the mind.

20. And then this ladder with its trinity of steps, faith, hope, and love; on it we climb up to the dome of purity in life.

21. And on the twelve step ladder, we ascend until we reach the pinnacle of that which life is spent to build—the Temple of Perfected Man.

CHAPTER VI.

LIFE AND WORKS OF JESUS IN INDIA

AMONG THE MOSLEMS.

1. A royal prince of India, Ravanna in the South, was met at the Jewish Feast.

2. Ravanna was a man of wealth, and he was just, and with a band of Brahmic priests sought wisdom in the west.

3. When Jesus stood among the Jewish priests and read and spoke, Ravanna heard and was amazed.

4. And when he asked who Jesus was, from whence he came, and what he was, Chief Hilell said:

5. We call this the day star from on high, for he has come to bring to men a light, the light of life, to lighten up the way of men and redeem his people of Israel.

6. And Hilell told Ravanna all about the child; about the prophecies concerning him; about the wonders of the night when he was born; about the visit of the Magian priests.

7. About the way in which he was protected from the wrath of evil men, about his flight to Egyptland, and how he then was serving with his father as a carpenter in Nazareth.

8. Ravanna was entranced, and asked to know the way to Nazareth, that he might go and honor such a one as the son of Allah.

9. And with his gorgeous train he journeyed and came to Nazareth of Galilee.

10. He found the object of his search engaged in building dwellings for the sons of men.

11. And when he first saw Jesus he was climbing up a twelve step ladder, and he carried in his hands a compass, square and ax.

12. Ravanna said, All hail, most favored son of heaven!

13. And at the inn Ravanna made a feast for all the people of the town; and Jesus and his parents were the honored guests.

14. For certain days Ravanna was a guest in Joseph's home on Marmion Way; he sought to learn the secret of the wisdom of the son, but it was all too great for him.

15. And then he asked that he might be the patron of the child, might take him to the east, where he could learn the wisdom of the Brahmns.

16. And Jesus longed to go, that he might learn; and after many days his parents gave consent.

17. Then, with proud heart, Ravanna, with his train, began the journey toward the rising sun; and after many days they crossed the sand and reached the providence of Orissa, and the palace of the prince.

18. The Brahmic priests were glad to welcome home the prince; with favor they received the Jewish boy.

19. And Jesus was accepted as a pupil in the Temple of Jaguanath; and here he learned the vedas and the manic law.

20. The Brahmic Masters wondered at the clear conceptions of the child, and often were amazed when he explained to them the meaning of the law.

CHAPTER VII.

THE FRIENDSHIP OF JESUS AND LAMAAS—JESUS EXPLAINS TO LAMAAS THE MEANING OF TRUTH

1. Among the priests of Jaguanath was one who loved the Jewish boy. Lamaas Brames was the name by which the priest was known.

2. One day as Jesus and Lamaas walked alone in plaza, Jaguanath Lamaas said: "My Jewish master, what is truth?"

3. And Jesus said: "Truth is the only thing that changes not."

4. In all the world there are two things: The one is truth, the other is falsehood, and falsehood that which seems to be.

5. Now truth is aught and has no cause, and yet it is the cause of everything.

6. Falsehood is aught and yet it is the manifest of right.

7. Whatever has been made will be unmade; that which begins must end.

8. All things that can be seen by human eyes are manifestations of sight, are aught, and so must pass away.

9. The things we see are but reflexes just appearing, while the others vibrate so and so, and when conditions change they disappear.

10. The Holy Breath is truth, is that which was, and is, and evermore shall be; it cannot change nor pass away.

11. Lamaas said: "You answer well, now what is man?"

12. And Jesus said: "Man is the truth and falsehood strangely mixed."

13. Man is the breath made flesh; so truth and falsehood are conjoined in him; and then they thrive, and naught goes down and man as truth abides."

14. Again Lamaas asked: "What do you say of power?"

15. And Jesus said: "It is a manifest; is the result of force; it is but naught; it is illusion, nothing more. Force changes not, but power changes as the ethers change."

16. "Force is the will of Allah and is omnipotent, and power is that will in manifest, directed by the Breath."

17. "There is a power in the winds, a power in the waves, power in the lightning's stroke, a power in the human arm, a power in the eye."

18. The ethers cause these powers to be, and thought of Elohim, of angel, man, or other thinking things, directs the force; when it has done its work the power is no more."

19. Again Lamaas asked: "Of understanding, what have you to say?"

20. And Jesus said: "It is the rock on which man builds himself; it is the gnosis of the aught and of the naught, of falsehood and of truth."

21. "It is the knowledge of the lower self; the sensing of the powers of man himself."

22. Again Lamaas asked: "Of wisdom, what have you to say?"

23. And Jesus said: "It is the consciousness that man is aught; that Allah and man are one."

24. That naught is naught; that power is but illusion; that heaven and earth and hell are not above, around, below, but in which in the light of aught becomes naught, and Allah is all.

25. Lamaas asked: "Pray what is faith?"

26. And Jesus said: "Faith is the surety of the omnipotence of Allah and man; the certainty that man will reach deific life."

27. Salvation is a ladder reaching from the heart of men to heart of Allah."

28. It has three steps: Belief is first, and this is what man thinks, perhaps is truth.

29. And faith is next, and this is what man knows is truth.

30. Fruition is the last, and this is man himself, the truth.

31. Belief is lost in faith; and in fruition faith is lost; and man is saved when he has reached deific life; when he and Allah are one.

CHAPTER VIII.

JESUS REVEALS TO THE PEOPLE OF TAHILI FRUITFUL WAYS

1. In all the cities of Oriissa Jesus taught. At Katak, by the river side, He taught, and thousands of the people followed Him.

2. One day a car of Jaguanath was hauled along by scores of frenzied men, and Jesus said:
 3. "Behold a form without a spirit passes by; a body with no soul; a temple with no altar fires."
 4. This car of Krishna is an empty thing, for Krishna is not there. This car is but an idol of people drunk on wine of carnal things.

6. Allah lives not in the noise of tongues; there is no way to Him from any idol shrine.
 7. Allah's meeting place with man is in the heart, and in a still small voice he speaks; and he who hears is still ill.
 8. And all the people said: "Teach us to know the Holy One who speaks within the heart, Allah of the still small voice."
 9. Ach! Jesus said: "The Holy Breath cannot be seen with mortal eyes; nor can men see the spirit of the Holy one."
 10. But in their image man was made, and he who looks into the face of man, looks at the image of Allah who speaks within.
 11. And when man honors man he honors Allah, and what man does for man he does for Allah.

12. And you must bear in mind that when man harms in thought, or word or deed another man, he does a wrong to Allah. 13. If you would serve Allah who speaks within the heart, just serve your near of kin, and those who are no kin, the stranger at your gates, the foe who seeks to do you harm.

14. Assist the poor, and help the weak; do harm to none and covet not what is not yours.

15. Then, with your tongue the Holy One will speak; and he will smile behind your tears, will light your countenance with joy, and fill your hearts with peace.

16. And then the people asked. "To whom shall we bring gifts? Where shall we offer sacrifice?"

17. And Jesus said, "Our Father—Alah asks not for needless waste of plant, of grain, of dove, of lamb."

18. That which you burn on any shrine you throw away. No blessing can attend the one who takes the food from hungry mouths to be destroyed by fire.

19. When you would offer sacrifice unto Allah, just take your gift of grain, or meat, and lay it an the table of the poor. 20. From it an incense will arise to heaven, which will return to you with blessedness.

21. Tear down your idols; they can hear you not; turn all your sacrificed altars into fuel for the flames.

22. Make human hearts your altars, and burn your sacrifices with the fire of love.

23. And all the people were entranced, and would have Jesus as a God; but Jesus said:

24. "I am your brother man, just come to show the way to Allah; you shall not worship man; praise Allah the Holy One."

CHAPTER IX.

JESUS ATTENDS A FEAST IN BEHAR AND HERE HE TAUGHT HUMAN EQUALITY

1. The fame of Jesus as a teacher spread through all the land, and people came from near and far to hear his words of truth.

2. At Behar, on the sacred river of the Brahmns, he taught for many days.

3. And Ach, a wealthy man of Behar, made a feast in honor of his guests and he invited every one to come.

4. And many came; among them thieves, extortioners and courtesans, and Jesus sat with them and taught; but they who followed him were much aggrieved, because He sat with them and courtesans.

5. And they upbraided Him; they said, "Robboni, Master of the wise, this day will be an evil day for you.

6. "The news will spread that you consort with courtesans and men will shun you as they shun an asp."

7. And Jesus answered them and said, "A master never screens himself for the sake of reputation or of fame."

8. These are but worthless baubles of the day; they arise and sink, like empty bottles on a stream; they are illusions and will pass away.

9. They are the indices to what the thoughtless think; they are noise that people make; and shallow men judge merit by the noise.

10. Allah and all master men judge men by what they are and not what they seem to be; not by their reputation and their fame.

11. These courtesans and thieves are children of my Father, Allah; their souls are just as precious in his sight as yours; or of the Brahmic priests.

12. And they are working out the same life sums that have solved, you men who look at them with scorn.

13. And some of them have solved much harder than you have solved, you men who look at them with scorn.

14. Yes, they are sinners, and confess their guilt while you are guilty, but are shrewd enough to have a polished coat to cover up your guilt.

15. Suppose you men who scorn the courtesans, these drunks and these thieves, who know that you are pure in heart and life, that you are better far than they, stand forth that man know just who you are.

16. The sin lies in the wish, in the desire, not in the act.

17. You covet other people's wealth; you look at charming forms, and deep within your heart you lust for them.

18. Deceit you practice every day, and wish for gold, for honor and for fame, just for your selfish selves.

19. The man who covet is a thief, and she who lust is courtesan. You who are none of these speak out,

THE DIVINE INSTRUCTIONS

20. Nobody spoke; the accusers held their peace.
 21. And Jesus said, "The proof of this day is all against those who have accused."

22. The pure in heart do not accuse. The vile in heart who want to cover up guilt with holy smoke of piety are never loathing drunkards, thieves and courtesans.

23. This loathing and this scorn is mockery, for if the tinselled coat of reputation could be torn away, the loud professor would be found to reveal in his lust, deceit and many forms of secret sin.

24. The man, who spends his time in pulling other people's weeds can have no time in pulling his own, and all the choicest flowers of life will be choked and die, and nothing will remain but darnel, thistles and burs.

25. And Jesus spoke a parable; He said, Behold a farmer had great fields of ripened grain, and when he looked he saw that blades of many stalks of wheat were bent and broken down.

26. And when he sent his reapers forth he said, we will not save the stalks of wheat that have the broken blades.

27. Go forth and cut and burn the stalks with broken blades.

28. And after many days he went to measure up his grain, but not a kernel could he find;

29. And then he called the harvesters and said to them; where is my grain?

30. They answered him and said we did according to your word; we gathered up and burned the stalks with broken blades and not a stalk was left to carry to the barn.

31. And Jesus said, If Allah saves only those who have broken blades, who have been perfected in his sight, who will be saved?

32. And the accusers hung their heads in shame; and Jesus went his way.

FROM THE HOLY PROPHET

6. And when you crush beneath your foot the meanest worm, you shake the throne of Allah and cause the sword of life to tremble in its sheath.

7. The birds sing out its song for men, and men vibrate in unison to help it sing.

8. The ant constructs its home, the bee its sheltering comb, the spider weaves her web and flowers breathe to them a spirit in their sweet perfume that gives them strength to toil.

9. Now, men and birds and beasts and creeping things are deities, made flesh; and how dare you kill anything?

10. It is cruelty that makes the world awry when men have learned that when they harm a living thing, they harm themselves, they surely will not kill, nor cause a thing that Allah has made to suffer pain.

11. A lawyer said, I pray to Jesus, tell who is this Allah you speak about; where are his priests, his temples and his shrines 12. And Jesus said, the Allah I speak about is everywhere, He cannot be compassed with walls, nor hedged about with bounds of any kind.

13. All people worship Allah, the One; but all the people see Him not alike.

14. This universal Allah is wisdom, will and love.

15. All men see not the Triune Allah. One sees Him as Allah of might, another as Allah of thought, another as Allah of love.

16. A man's ideal is his God and so, as man unfolds, his God unfolds. Man's God today, tomorrow is not God.

17. The nations of the earth see Allah from different point of view, and so he does not seem the same to every one.

18. Man name the part of Allah he sees, and this to him is all of Allah; and every nation sees a part of Allah, and every nation had a name for Allah.

19. You Brahmins call him Parabrahm, in Egypt He is Thoth, and Zens is His name in Greece, Johovah is His Hebrew name; but everywhere he is the causeless cause, the rootless 1 from which all things have grown.

20. When men afraid of Allah, and take Him for a foe, they dress up other men in fancy garbs and call them priests.

21. And charge them to restrain the wrath of Allah by prayers, and when they fail to win His favor by their prayers, to buy him off with sacrifice of animals or birds.

22. When man sees Allah as one with him, as Father Allah he needs no middle man, no priest to intercede.

23. He goes straight up to Him and says, my Father God, Allah! And then he lays his hands in Allah's own hand, and all is well.

24. And this is Allah. You are, each one, a priest, just for yourself; and sacrifice of blood Allah does not want.

5. By the sweet breath of Allah all life is bound in one; so if you touch a fiber of a living thing you send a thrill from center to the outer bounds of life.

CHAPTER X.

JESUS SPEAKS ON THE UNITY OF ALLAH AND MAN TO THE HINDUS

1. Benares in the sacred city of the Brahmus, and Benares, Jesus taught; Udraka was his host.
2. Udraka made a feast in honor of his guests, and many high born Hindu priests and scribes were there.
3. And Jesus said to them, with much delight I speak to you concerning life—the brotherhood of life.
4. The universal Allah is one, yet he is more than one; all things are one.
5. By the sweet breath of Allah all life is bound in one; so if you touch a fiber of a living thing you send a thrill from center to the outer bounds of life.

25. Just give your life in sacrificial service to the all of life and Allah is pleased.

26. When Jesus had thus said He stood aside; the people were amazed, but strove among themselves.

27. Some said, He is inspired by Holy Brahm and others said He is insane, and others said He is obsessed; He speaks as devils speak.

28. But Jesus tarried not. Among the guests was one, a tiller of the soil, a generous soul, a seeker after truth, who loved the words that Jesus spoke, and Jesus went with him and in his home abode.

CHAPTER XI.

JESUS AND BARATA—TOGETHER THEY READ THE SACRED BOOKS

1. Among the Buddhists priests was one who saw a lofty wisdom in the words that Jesus spoke. It was Barata Arabo.

2. Together Jesus and Barata read the Jewish Psalms and prophets, read the vedas, the Avesta and the wisdom of Guatama.

3. And as they read and talked about the possibilities of man, Barata said: Man is the marvel of the universe. He is a part of everything, for he has been a living thing on every plane of life.

4. Time was when man was not, and then he was a bit of formless substance in the molds of time, and then a protoplast.

5. By universal law all things tend upward to a state of perfectness. The protoplast evolved, becoming worm, then reptile, bird and beast, and then at last it reached the form of man.

6. Now, man himself is mind, and mind is here to gain perfection by experience; and mind is often manifest in fleshy form, and in the form best suited to its growth. So mind may manifest as worm, or bird or beast or man.

7. The time will come when everything of life will be evolved unto the state of perfect man.

8. And after man is man in perfectness, he will evolve to higher forms of life.

9. And Jesus said, Barata Arabo, who told you this, that mind, which is man, may manifest in flesh of beast or bird or creeping thing?

10. Barata said, from time which man remembers not our priests have told us so, and so we know.

11. And Jesus said, enlighten Arabo, are you a master mind and do not know that man knows naught by being told?

12. Man may believe what others say, but thus he never known. If man would know, he must himself, be what he knows.

13. Do you remember, Arabo, when you was ape, or bird, or worm?

15. Now, if you have no better proving of your plea than that the priests have told you so, you do not know; you simply guess.

16. Regard not, then, what any man has said; let us forget the flesh and go with mind into the land of fleshless things; mind never does forget.

17. And backward through the ages master minds can trace themselves; and thus they know.

18. Time never was when man was not. If man was not, the time which begins will have an end. If man was not, the time will come when he will not exist.

19. From Allah's own record book we read: The Triune Allah breathed forth, and stood seven spirits his face. The Hebrews call these seven spirits Elohim.

20. And these are they who, in their boundless power, created everything that is, or was.

21. These spirits of the Triune Allah moved on the face of boundless space and seven others were and every other had its form of life.

22. These forms of life were but the thought of Allah, clothed in the substance of their ether planes.

23. Men call these ether planes, the planes of protoplast, of earth, of plant, of beast, of man, of angel and cherubim.

24. These planes with all their teeming thoughts of Allah are never seen by eyes of man in flesh; they are composed of substance far too fine for fleshy eyes to see, and still they constitute the soul of things.

25. And with the eyes of soul all creatures see these other planes, and all the forms of life.

26. Because all forms of life on every plane are thoughts of Allah, all creatures think, and every creature is possessed of will, and in its measure, has the power to choose.

27. And in their native planes all creatures are supplied with nourishment from the others of their planes.

28. And so it was with every living thing until the will came a sluggish will, and then the ethers of the protoplast, the earth, the plant, the beast, the man, began to vibrate very slow.

29. The ethers became more dense, and all the creatures of these planes were clothed with coarser garbs of flesh, which men can see; and thus the coarser manifest, which men call physical, appeared.

30. And this is what is called the fall of man; but man fell not alone for protoplast, and earth, and plant, and beast were all included in the fall.

31. The angels and the cherubim fell not; their will were never strong, and so they held the ethers of their planes in harmony with Allah.

32. Now, when the ether reached the rate of atmosphere, and all the creatures of these planes must get their food from atmosphere, the conflict came; and then that which the finite man has called survival of the best, became a law.

34. The stronger ate the bodies of the weaker manifests; and here is where the carnal of evolution had its rise.

35. And now man, in his utter shamelessness, strikes down and eats the beasts, the beasts consume the plant, the plant thrive on the earth, the earth absorbs the protoplast.

36. In yonder kingdom of the soul this carnal evolution is not known, and the great work of master minds is to restore the heritage of man, to bring him back to his estate that he had lost, when he again will live upon the ethers of his native plane.

37. The thoughts of Allah change not; the manifests of life on every plane unfolds into perfection of their kind; and as the thought of Allah can never die, there is not death to any being of the seven ethers of the seven spirits of the Triune Allah.

39. The time will come when all these manifests will be absorbed, and man and beast and plant and earth and protoplast will be redeemed.

40. Barata was amazed; the wisdom of the Jewish sage was revelation unto him.

41. Now, Vidyapati, wisest of the Indian sages, chief of the temple Kavavistu, heard Barata speak to Jesus of the origin of man, and heard the answer of the Hebrew prophet, and he said:

42. You priests of Kapavistu, hear me speak; we stand today upon a crest of time. Six time ago a master soul was born who gave a glorious light to man, and now a master sage stands in the temple Kapavistu.

43. The Hebrew prophet is the rising star of wisdom, deified. He brings to us a knowledge of the secret things of Allah; and all the world will hear his words, and glorify his name.

44. You priests of temple Kapavistu, stay; be still and listen when he speaks; he is the living oracle of Allah.

45. And all the priests gave thanks, and praised the Buddha of enlightenment.

CHAPTER XII.

JESUS TEACHES THE COMMON PEOPLE AT A SPRING—

TELLS THEM HOW TO OBTAIN ETERNAL HAPPINESS

1. In silent meditation Jesus sat beside a flowing spring. It was a holy day, and many people of the servant caste were near the place.

2. And Jesus saw the hard drawn lines of toil on every brow, in every hand. There was no look of joy in any face. Not one of all the group could think of anything but toil.

3. And Jesus spoke to one and said, "Why are you all so sad? Have you no happiness in life?

4. The man replied, "We scarcely know the meaning of that word. We toil to live, and hope for nothing else but toil, and bless the day when we can cease our toil and lay down to rest in Buddah's city of the dead."

5. And Jesus's heart was stirred with pity and with love for these poor toilers, and he said:

6. Toil should not make a person sad; men should be happiest when they toil. When hope and love are back of toil, then all of life is filled with joy and peace, and this is heaven. Do you not know that such a heaven is for you?

7. The man replied, "Of heaven we have heard; but when it is so far away, and we must live so many lives before we reach that place!"

8. And Jesus said, "My brother man, your thoughts are wrong; your heaven is not far away, and it is not a place of metes and bounds, is not a country to be reached; it is a state of mind!"

9. Allah never made a heaven for man; he never made a hell; we are creators and make our own.

10. Now, cease to seek for heaven in the sky; just open up the windows of your hearts, and, like a flood of light, a heaven will come and bring a boundless joy; then the toil will be no cruel task.

11. The people were amazed, and gathered close to hear this strange young master speak.

12. Imploring him to tell them more about the Father God, Allah, about the heaven that men can make on earth, about the boundless joy.

13. And Jesus spoke a parable; He said, "A certain man possessed a field; the soil was hard and poor.

14. "By constant toil he scarcely could provide enough to keep his family from want,

15. "One day a miner who could see beneath the soil, in passing on his way, saw this poor man and his unfruitful field.

16. "He called the weary toiler and said, "My brother, know you not that just below the surface of your barren field rich treasures lie concealed?

17. "You plow and sow and reap in a scanty way, and day by day you tread upon a mine of gold and precious stones.

18. "This wealth lies not upon the surface of the ground; but if you will but dig away the rocky soil; and delve down deep into the earth, you need no longer till the soil for naught."

19. The man believed. "The miner surely knows," "And I will find the treasures hidden in my field."

20. "And then he dug away the rocky soil, and deep down in the earth he found a mine of gold."

21. And Jesus said, "The Sons of men are toiling hard on desert plains, and burning sands and rocky soils, are doing what their fathers did, not dreaming that they can do ought else."

4. The man replied, "We scarcely know the

22. Behold a master comes, and tells them of a hidden wealth; that under neath the rocky soil of carnal things are treasures that no man can count.
23. That in the heart the richest gems abound; that he who wills may open the door and find them all.
24. And then the people said, "Make known to us the way that we may find the wealth that lies within the heart."
25. And Jesus opened up the way; the toilers saw another side of life, and toil became a joy.

CHAPTER XIII.

LIFE AND WORKS OF JESUS IN EGYPT AMONG THE GENTILES

1. Jesus with Elihu and Salome in Egypt. Tells the story of His journeys. Elihu and Salome praise Allah. Jesus goes to the temple in Heliopolis and is received as a pupil.
2. And Jesus came to Egyptland, and all was well. He tarried not upon the coast; He went at once to Zoan, home of Elihu and Salome, who five and twenty years before had taught his mother in their sacred school.
3. And there was joy when met these three. When last the son of Mary saw these sacred groves he was a babe.
4. And now a man grown strong by buffettings of every kind; a teacher who had stirred the multitudes in many lands.
5. And Jesus told the aged teachers all about his life; about his journeys in foreign lands; about the meetings with the masters and His kind reception by the multitudes.
6. Elihu and Salome heard His story with delight; they lifted up their eyes to heaven and said: "Our Father-God Allah, let now Thy servants go in peace; for we have seen the glory of Allah."
7. And we have talked with Him, the messenger of love, and of the covenant of peace on earth, good will to men.
8. Through Him shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, thru Him, Emmanuel.
9. And Jesus stayed in Zoan many days; and then went forth into the city of the sun, that men called Heliopolis, and sought admission to the temple of the sacred brotherhood.
10. The council of the brotherhood convened, and Jesus stood before the heirophant; He answered all questions that were asked with clearness and with power.
11. The heirophant exclaimed, "Rabboni of the rabbinate, why come you here? Your wisdom is the wisdom of the gods. Why seek for wisdom in the halls of men?"
12. And Jesus said, in every way of life I would walk; in every hall of learning I would sit; the heights that any man has gained, these I would gain.
13. What any man has suffered I would meet, that I may know the griefs, the disappointments and the sore temptations of my brother man; that I would know just how to succor those in need.

CHAPTER XIV.

THE MINISTRY OF JOHN THE HARBINGER

John the Harbinger, returns to Hebron, lives as a hermit in the wilds, visits Jerusalem and speaks to the people.

1. It came to pass when John, the son of Zacharias and Elizabeth, had finished all his studies in the Egyptian schools he returned to Hebron, where he abode for certain days.
2. And then he sought the wilderness and made his home in David's cave, where many years before he was instructed by the Egyptian sages.

3. Some people called him the Hermit of Engedi; and others said, he is the wild man of the hills.
4. He clothed himself with skins of the beasts; his food was carobs, honey, nuts and fruits.

5. When John was thirty years of age he went into Jerusalem, and in the market place he sat in silence seven days.
6. The common people and the priests, the scribes and the Pharisees came out in multitudes to see the silent hermit of the hills; but none were bold enough to ask him who he was.

7. But when his silent past was done, he stood forth in the midst of all and said:
8. Behold the King has come; the prophets told of Him; wise men long have looked for Him.

9. "Prepare, O Israel, prepare to meet your King."
10. And that was all he said, and then he disappeared, and no one knew where he had gone.

11. And there was great unrest through all Jerusalem. The rulers heard the story of the hermit of the hills.
12. And they sent couriers forth to talk with him that they might know about the coming King; but they could find him not.
13. And after certain days he came again into the market place, and all the city came to hear him speak. He said:

14. Be not disturbed, you rulers of the state; the coming King is no antagonist; He seeks no place on earthly throne.
15. "The eyes of men shall see it not and none can enter but the pure in heart.

16. "Prepare, O Israel, prepare to meet your King."

17. Again the hermit disappeared; the people strove to follow him, but he had drawn a veil about his form and men could see him not.

18. Jewish feast day came; Jerusalem was filled with Jews and proselytes from every part of Palestine and John stood in the temple court and said:

"Prepare, O Israel, prepare to meet your King."

20. So, you have lived in sin; the poor cry in your streets, and you regard them not.

21. Your neighbors, who are they? You have defrauded friends and foes alike.

22. You worship Allah with voice and lip; your hearts are far away, and set on gold.

23. Your priests have bound upon the people burdens far too great to bear; they live in ease upon the hard earned wages of the poor.

24. Your lawyers, doctors, scribes, are useless cumberers of the ground; they are but tumors on the body of the state.

25. They toil not, neither do they spin, yet they consume the profits of your marts of trade.

26. Your rulers are adulterers, extortioners and thieves, regarding not the rights of man.

27. And robbers ply their calling in the sacred hills; the holy temple you have sold to thieves; their dens are in the sacred places set apart for prayer.

28. Hear! Hear! You people of Jerusalem! Reform; turn from your evil ways or Allah will turn from you, and heathen from afar will come, and what is left of all your honor and your fame will pass in one short hour.

29. Prepare, Jerusalem, prepare to meet your King.

30. He said no more; he left the court and no one saw him go.

31. The priests, the doctors and the scribes were all in rage. They sought for John, intent to do him harm. They found him not.

CHAPTER XV.

Divine Ministry of Jesus—Jesus Goes to the Wilderness for Self-Examination, Where He Remains Forty Days. Is Subjected to Three Temptations—He Overcomes. Returns to the Camps of John and Begins Teaching.

1. The harbinger had paved the way; the Logos had been introduced to men as love made manifest, and he must now begin his divine ministry.

2. And He went forth into the wilderness to be alone with Allah, that He might look into His inner heart, and note its strength and worthiness.

3. And with Himself He talked; He said, "My lower self is strong; by many ties I am bound down to carnal life.

4. "Have I the strength to overcome and give my life a willing sacrifice for men?"

5. "When I shall stand before the face of men, and they demand a proof of my Messiahship, what will I say?"

6. And then the tempter came and said, "If you be the Son of Allah, command these stones to turn to bread."

7. And Jesus said, "Who is it that demands a test? It is no sign that one is a Son of Allah because he does a miracle; the devils can do mighty things.

8. "Did not the Gentile magicians do great things before the Pharaoh?

9. "My words and deeds in all the walks of life shall be the proof of my Messiahship."

10. And then the tempter said, "If you will go into Jerusalem and from the temple pinnacle cast down yourself to earth, the people will believe you are the Messiah sent from Allah.

11. This you can surely do; for did not David say, He giveth His angels charge concerning you, and with their hands will they uphold lest you shall fall?"

12. And Jesus said, "I will not tempt the Lord, my God, Allah."

13. And then the tempter said, "Look forth upon the world; behold its honors and its fame! Behold its pleasures and its wealth.

14. "If you will give your life for these they shall be yours."

15. But Jesus said, "Away from me all tempting thoughts. My heart is fixed. I spurn this carnal self with all its vain ambition and its pride."

16. For forty days did Jesus wrestle with his carnal self; His higher self prevailed. He then was hungry, but his friends had found Him and they ministered to Him.

17. Then Jesus left the wilderness, and in the consciousness of Holy Breath, he came into the camps of John and taught.

CHAPTER XVI.

Pilate's Final Effort to Release Jesus Fails—He Washes His Hands in Feigned Innocence—Delivers Jesus to the Jews For Execution—The Soldiers Drive Him to Calvary.

1. A superstitious people are the Jews. They have a faith that they have borrowed from the idol worshippers of other lands, that at the end of every year,

2. They may heap all their sins upon the head of some man set apart to bear their sins.

3. The man becomes a scape goat for the multitudes; and they believed that when they drive him forth into the wilds, or into foreign lands, they are released from sins.

4. So every spring before the feast they chose a prisoner from the prisons of the land, and by a form of their own, they fain would make him bear their sins away.

5. Among the Jewish prisoners in Jerusalem were three who were leaders of a vile, seditious band, who had enraged in thefts and murders and rapine, and had been sentenced to be crucified.

THE DIVINE INSTRUCTIONS

6. Barabbas and Jezia was among the men who were to die, but he was rich and he had bought off priests the boon to be the scape goat for the people at the coming feast, and he was anxiously in waiting for his hour to come.

7. Now, Pilate thought to turn this superstition to account to save the Lord Jesus, and so he went before the Jews and said:

8. "You men of Israel, according to my custom, I will release to you today a prisoner who shall bear your sins away.

9. "This man you drive into the wilds or in foreign lands, and you have asked me to release Barabbas, who has been proven guilty of the murder of a score of men."

10. Now, hear me men. Let Jesus be released and let Barabbas pay his debt upon the cross; then you can send this Jesus to the wilds and hear no more of Him.

11. At what the ruler said the people were enraged, and they began to plot to tear the Roman palace down and drive in exile Pilate and his Household and his guards.

12. When Pilate was assured that Civil War would follow if he heeded not to the wishes of the mob, he took a bowl of water and in the presence of the multitude he washed his hands and said:

13. "This man whom you accuse is Son of the Most High Allah, and I proclaim my innocence.

14. "If you would shed His blood, His blood is on your hands and not mine."

15. And then the Jews exclaimed, "And let His blood be on our hands and on our children's hands."

16. And Pilate trembled like a leaf, in fear. Barabbas he released, and as the Lord stood forth before the mob, the ruler said,

"Behold your King! And would you put to death your King?"

17. The Jews replied, "He is no King; we have no King by great Tiberius."

18. Now, Pilate would not give consent that Roman soldiers should imbue their hands in blood of innocence, and so the chief priests and the Pharisees took council what to do with Jesus.

19. Caiaphas has said, "We cannot crucify this man. He must be stoned to death and nothing more."

20. And then the rabble said, "Make haste! Let Him be stoned." And then they led Him forth toward the hill beyond the city's gates, where criminals were put to death.

21. The rabble could not wait until they reached the place of skulls. As soon as they passed the city's gates, they rushed upon Him, smote Him with their hands, they spit upon Him, stoned Him and He fell upon the ground.

22. And one, a man of Allah stood forth and said Isaiah said, "he shall be bruised for our transgressions and by His stripes we shall be healed."

23. As Jesus laid all bruised and mangled on the ground, a High Priest called out, "Stay, stay, you men!" Behold the guards of Herod come and they will crucify this man."

24. And there beside the city's gate they found Barabbas's cross, and then the frenzied mob cried out, "Let Him be crucified."

25. Caiaphas and the other ruling Jews came forth and gave consent.

26. And they lifted Jesus from the ground, and at the point of swords they drove Him on.

27. A man named Simon, from Cyrene, a friend of Jesus, was near the scene, and since the bruised and wounded Jesus could not bear His cross, they laid it on the shoulders of this man, and made him bear it to Calvary.

CHAPTER XVII.

Jesus Appears, Fully Materialized, Before Apollo and the Silent Brotherhood in Greece—Appears to Claudas and Juliet^{eq} Tiber Near Rome—Appears to the Priests in the Egypt Temple at Heliopolis.

1. Apollo, with the Silent Brotherhood of Greece, was sitting in a delphian grove. The Oracle had spoken loud and long.

2. The priests were in the sanctuary as they looked the Oracle became a blaze of light; it seemed to be on fire, and all consumed.

3. The priests were filled with fear. They said a great disaster is to come; our gods are mad; they have destroyed our Oracle.

4. But when the flames had spent themselves, a man stood on the Oracle pedestal and said:

5. "Allah speaks to man, not by an oracle of wood and gold, but by the voice of man."

6. "The gods have spoken to the Greeks, and kindred tongues, through image made by man, but Allah the One, now speaks to man through Jesus the only Son, who was and is and evermore will be.

7. 'This Oracle will fail; the living Oracle of Allah, the Omega, will not fail.'

8. Apollo knew the man who spoke; he knew it was t... Nazarene who once had taught the wise men in the Acropolis and had rebuked the idol worshippers upon the Athen's beach.

9. And in a moment Jesus stood before Apollo and the Silent Brotherhood and said:

10. "Behold, for I have risen from the dead with gifts for men, I bring to you the title of your vast estate.

11. "All power in heaven and earth is mine; to you I give all power in heaven and earth."

12. "Go forth and teach the nations of the earth the Gospel of the resurrection of the dead and eternal life through Jesus, the love of Allah made manifest to men."

13. And then he clasped Apollo's hand and said: "My human flesh was changed to higher form by love divine and I can manifest in flesh or in the higher planes of life at will."

14. What I can do all men can do. Go teach the Gospel of the Omnipotence of men."

15. Then Jesus disappeared; but Greece and Crete and all the nations heard.

16. Cludas and Juliet, his wife, lived on the palatine in Rome and they were servants of Tiberius; but they had been in Galilee. 17. Had walked with Jesus by the sea, had heard his words and seen his power; and they believed that he was Jesus made manifest.

18. Now Cludas and his wife were on the Tiber in a little boat; a storm swept from the sea, and the boat was wrecked and Cludas and his wife were sinking down to death.

19. And Jesus came and took them by the hands and said: "Cludas and Juliet, arise and walk with me upon the waves.

20. And they arose and walked with Him upon the waves.

21. A thousand people saw three walk on the waves, and saw them reach the land, and they were all amazed.

22. And Jesus said: "You men of Rome, I am the resurrection and the life. They that are dead shall live, and many that shall live will never die."

23. By mouth of gods and demigods Allah spoke unto you fathers long ago; but now He speaks to you through perfect man."

24. "He sent his son, Jesus in human flesh to save the world, and as I lifted from the watery grave and saved the servants of Tiberius."

25. "So Jesus will lift the sons and daughters of the human race, yes every one of them, from darkness and from graves of carnal things to light and everlasting life.

26. "I am the manifest of love raised from the dead; behold my hands, my feet, my side which carnal men have pierced.

27. "Cludas and Juliet, whom I have saved from death, are my ambassadors to Rome.

28. "And they will point the way and teach the Gospel of the Holy Breath and the resurrection of the dead."

29. And that was all he said, but Rome and all of Italy heard.

30. The priests of Heliopolis were in their temple met to celebrate the resurrection of their brother Nazarite; they knew that he had risen from the dead.

31. The Nazarite appeared and stood upon a sacred pedestal on which no man had ever stood.

32. This was an honor that had been reserved for him who first would demonstrate the resurrection of the dead.

33. When Jesus stood upon the sacred pedestal the masters stood and said: "All hail!" The great bells of the temple rang and all the temple was ablaze with light.

34. And Jesus said: "All honor to the masters of this Temple of the Sun."

35. In flesh of man there is the essence of the resurrection of the dead. This essence quickened by the Holy Breath, will raise the substance of the body to higher tone.

36. And make it like the substance of the bodies of the plane above, which human eyes cannot behold.

37. There is a holy ministry in death. This essence of the body cannot be quickened by the Holy Breath until the fixed solved; the body must disintegrate, and this is death.

38. And then upon these pliant substance Allah breathes just as he breathed upon the chaos of the deep when the world were formed.

39. And life springs forth from death; the carnal form is changed to form divine.

40. The will of man makes possible the action of the Holy Breath. When will of man and will of Allah are one, the creation is a fact.

41. In this we have the chemistry of mortal life, the ministry of death, the mystery of deific life.

42. My human form was wholly given to bring my will to tune with the deific will; when this was done my earth-tasks are done.

43. And you, my brothers, know full well the foes I had to meet; you know about my victories in Gethsemane; my trials in the courts of men; my death upon the cross.

44. You know that all my life was one great drama for the sons of men; a pattern for the sons of men. I have lived to show the possibilities of man.

45. What I have done all men can do, and what I am all men shall be.

46. The masters looked; the form upon the sacred pedestal had gone, but every temple priest, and every living creature said praise Allah.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Resurrection of Jesus—Pilate Places the Roman Seal upon the Stone Door of the Tomb—At Midnight a Company of the Silent Brothers March About the Tomb—The Soldiers are Alarmed—Jesus Teaches to the Spirits in Prison—Early Sunday Morning He Rises From the Tomb. The Soldiers are Bribed by the Priests to Say that the Disciples Had Stolen the Body.

1. The tomb in which they laid the body of the Lord was in a garden, rich with flowers, the garden of Saboam, and Joseph's home was near.

2. Before the watch began Caiaphas sent a company of priests out to the garden of Seloeum that they might be assured that Jesus' body was within the tomb.

3. They rolled the stone away; they saw the body there, and then they placed the stone again before the door.

4. And Pilate sent his scribe who placed upon the stone the seal of Rome, in such a way that he who moved it they would break the seal.

5. To break this Roman seal meant death to him who broke the seal.

6. The Jewish soldiers all were sworn to faithfulness; and then the watch began.

7. At midnight all were well, but suddenly the tomb became a blaze of light, and down the garden walked a troupe of white clad soldiers marched in single file.

8. They came up to the tomb and marched and counter-marched before the door.

9. The Jewish soldiers were alert; they thought his friends had come to steal the body of the Nazarene. The captain of the guard cried out to charge.

10. They charged; but not a white clad soldier fell. They did not even stop; they marched and counter-marched among the frightened men.

11. They stood upon the Roman seal; they did not speak; they unsheathed not their swords; it was the Silent Brotherhood.

12. The Jewish soldiers fled in fear; they fell upon the ground.

13. They stood apart until the white clad soldiers marched away and then the light about the tomb grew dim.

14. Then, they returned; the stone was in its place; the seal was not disturbed, and they resumed their watch.

15. Now, Jesus did not sleep within the tomb. The body is manifest of soul; but soul is without its manifest.

16. And in the realms of souls unmanifest, the Lord went and taught.

17. He opens up the prison doors and set the prisoners free.

18. He broke the chains of captive souls, and led the captives to the light.

19. He sat in council with the patriarchs and prophets of the olden times.

20. The masters of all times and climes He met, and in the great assemblies He stood forth and told the story of His life on earth, and of his death in sacrifice for man.

21. And of his promises to clothe himself again in garb of flesh and walk with His disciples, just to prove the possibilities of man.

22. To give to them the key of life, of death and of the resurrection of the dead.

23. In council all the masters sat and talked about the revelations of the coming age.

24. When she, the Holy Breath, shall fill the earth and air with holy breath and open up the way of man to perfectness and endless life.

25. The garden of Saloam was silent on the Sabbath day. The Jewish soldiers watched and no one else approached the tomb; but on the following night the scene was changed.

26. At midnight every Jewish soldier heard a voice which said: "Adon Mashich Cum," which meant, "Lord Jesus arise."

27. And they supposed again the friends of Jesus were alert, were coming up to take the body of their Lord away.

28. The soldiers were alert with swords unsheathed and drawn, and then they heard the words again.

29. It seemed as though the voice was everywhere, and yet they saw no man.

30. The soldiers blanched with fear, and still to flee meant death for cowards, and so they stood and watched.

31. Again, all this was before the sun arose, the heavens blaze with light; a distant thunder seemed to herald forth a coming storm.

32. And then the earth began to quake and in the rays of light they saw a form descend from heaven. They said: "Behold an Angel comes."

33. And then they heard again, "Adon Mashich Cum."

34. And then the white-robed form tramped on the Roman seal, and then he tore it into shreds; he took the mighty stone in his hand as though it were a pebble from the brook, and cast it to the side.

35. And Jesus opened His eyes and said: "All hail the rising sun; the coming of the day of righteousness.

36. And then he folded up his burial gown, his head bands and his coverings and laid them all aside:

37. He rose, and for a moment stood beside the white-robed form.

38. The weaker soldiers fell to the ground and hid their faces in their hands; the stronger stood and watched.

39. They saw the body of the Nazarene transmute. They saw it change from mortal to immortal form, and then it disappeared.

40. The soldiers heard a voice from everywhere; yea, from everywhere, it said:

41. Peace, peace on earth good will to men.

42. They looked, the tomb was empty and the Lord had risen, as He said.

43. The soldiers hastened to Jerusalem, and to the priests, and said:

44. "Behold the Nazarene has arisen as He said; the tomb is empty and the body of the man is gone; we know not where it is." And then they told about the wonders of the night.

45. Caiaphas called a council of the Jews; he said, "The news must not go forth that Jesus has arisen from the dead.

46. For if it does, all men will say, 'He is the Son of Allah, and all our testimonies will be proven false.'

47. And then they called the hundred soldiers in and said to them:

48. "You know not where the body of the Nazarene is resting now, so if you will go forth and say that His disciples came and stole the body while you slept."

49. "Each one of you shall have a silver piece, and we will make it right with Pilate for the breaking of the Roman seal.
50. The soldiers did as they were paid to do.

CHAPTER XIX.

Jesus Appears, Fully Materialized, to the Eastern Sages in the Palace of Prince Ravanna in India—To the Magician Priests In Persia—Three Wise Men Speak in Praise of the Personality of the Nazarene.

1. Ravanna, prince of India, gave a feast. His palace in Orissa was the place where men of thought from all the farther East were wont to meet.

2. Ravanna was the prince with whom the child Jesus went to India with when twelve years old.

3. The feast was made in honor of the wise men of the East.

4. Among the guests were Mengate, Vidyapati, and Lamas.

5. The wise men sat about the table talking about the needs of India and the world.

6. The door unto the banquet hall was in the East; a vacant chair was at the table to the East.

7. And as the wise men talked a stranger entered, unannounced, and raising up his hands in benediction, said, "All hail!"

8. A halo rested on his head, and light, unlike the light of sun, filled all the room.

10. And Jesus sat down in the vacant chair, and then the wise men knew it was the Gentile prophet who had come.

11. And Jesus said, "Behold, for I am risen from the dead, look at my hands, my feet, my side."

12. "The Roman soldiers pierced my hands and feet with nails; and then one pierced my heart.

13. "They put Me in a tomb, and then I wrestled with the conqueror of men. I conquered death, I stamped upon him and rose.

14. "Brought immortality to light and painted on the walls of time a rainbow for the sons of men; and what I did all men shall do.

15. "The gospel of the resurrection of the dead is not confined to Jew and Greek; it is the heritage of every man of every time and clime; and I am here a demonstrator of the power of man."

16. Then He rose and pressed the hand of every man and of the royal host, and said:

17. "Behold, I am not myth made of the fleeting winds, for I am flesh and bone and brawn, but I can cross the borderland at will."

18. And they talked together there a long, long time. Then Jesus said:

19. "I go my way, but you shall go to all the world and teach the gospel of the omnipotence of man, the power of truth, the resurrection of the dead."

20. "He who believes this gospel of the son of man shall never die; the dead shall live again."

21. Then Jesus disappeared, but He had sown the seed. The words of life were spoken in Orissa, and all of India heard.

22. The Magician priests were in the silence of Persepolis, and Kasper and the Magician masters, who were first to greet the child of promise in the shepherd's home in Bethlehem, were with the priests.

23. And Jesus came and sat with them; a crown of light was on His head.

24. And when the silence ended Kasper said, "A master from the Royal Council of the Silent Brotherhood is here; let us give praise.

25. And all the priests and masters stood and said, "All hail! What message from the Royal Council do you bring?"

26. And Jesus said, "My brothers of the Silent Brotherhood, peace on earth, good will to men."

27. The problem of the age has been solved; a son of man has risen from the dead; has shown that human flesh can be transformed into flesh divine.

28. Before the eyes of men this flesh in which I come to you was changed with speed of light from human flesh. And so I am the message that I bring to you.

29. To you I come, the first of all the race to be transmuted to the image of Allah.

30. What I have done, all men will do; and what I am, all men shall be.

31. But Jesus said no more. In one short breath He told the story of His mission to the sons of men, and then He disappeared.

32. The Magi said, "Some time ago we read this promise, now fulfilled, upon the dial plate of heaven."

33. And then we saw this man who has just demonstrated unto us the power of man to raise from carnal flesh and blood, the flesh of Allah, a babe in Bethlehem.

34. And after many years He came and sat with us in these same groves.

35. "He told the story of His human life, of trials, sore temptation, buffeting and woes."

36. He pressed along the thorny way of life till He had risen and otherthrown the strongest foes of Allah and Man; and He is now the only master of the human race whose flesh has been transmuted into flesh divine.

37. He is the God-man of today; but every one of earth shall overcome and be like Him, a Son of Allah.

These events occurred before He was 30 years of age, and the events after He had risen from the dead, He appeared back to India, Europe and Africa in the land of Egypt, and made Himself known unto the world. These events are the 18 years which are absent in your "Holy Bible." The Events of John the Baptist. John taught by the Egyptian sage. The meaning of Baptism and how to baptise himself. And after he was baptised, he was taken at the age of twelve years into Africa, the land of Egypt, and there he remained in the Egyptian Schools 18 years. And there he learned his duty as "Fore-runner of Jesus."

CHAPTER XX.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS AND WARNINGS FOR ALL YOUNG MEN.

1. Beware, young man, beware of all the allurements of wantonness, and let not the harlot tempt thee to excess in her delights.

2. The madness of desire shall defeat its own pursuits; from the blindness of its rage, thou shalt rush upon destruction.

3. Therefore give not up thy heart to her sweet enticements, neither suffer thy soul to be enslaved by her enchanting delusions.

4. The fountain of health which must supply the stream of pleasure, shall quickly be dried up, and every spring of joy shall be exhausted.

5. In the prime of thy life old age shall overtake thee; the sun shall decline in the morning of thy days.

6. But when virtue and modesty enlighten her charms, the lustre of a beautiful woman is brighter than the stars of heavens, and the influence of her power it is in vain to resist.

7. The whiteness of her bosom transcendeth the lily; her smile is more delicious than a garden of roses.

8. The innocence of her eyes is like that of the turtle; simplicity and truth dwell in her heart.

9. The kisses of her mouth are sweeter than honey; the perfumes of Arabia breath from her lips.

10. Shut not thy bosom to the tenderness of love; the purity of its flame shall enoble thy heart, and soften it to receive the fairest impressions.

CHAPTER XXI.

MARRIAGE INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAN AND WIFE FROM THE NOBLE PROPHET.

1. Give ear, fair daughter of love, to the instructions of prudence, and let the precepts of truth sink deep in thy heart; so shall the charms of thy mind add lustre to the elegance of thy form; and thy beauty, like the rose it resembleth, shall retain its sweetness when its bloom is withered.

2. In the spring of thy youth, in the morning of thy days, when the eyes of men gaze on thee with delight, and nature wispeth, in thine ear the meaning of their looks; ah! hear with caution their seducing words; guard well thy heart, nor listen to their soft persuasions.

3. Remember thou art made man's reasonable companion, not the slave of his passion: the end of thy being is not merely to gratify his, loose desire, but to assist him in the toils of life, to soothe his heart with thy tenderness, and recompense his care with soft endearments.

4. Who is she that winneth the heart of man, that subdueth him to love, and reigneth in his breast?

5. Lo! Yonder she walketh in maiden sweetness, with innocence in her mind, and modesty on her cheeks.

6. Her hand seeketh employment, her foot delighteth not in wandering abroad.

7. She is clothed with neatness, she is fed with temperance, humility and meekness are as a crown of glory circling her head.

8. On her tongue dwelleth music, the sweetnes of home, flaweth from her lips. Decency is in all her words, in her answers are mildness and truth.

9. Submission and obedience are the lessons of her life, and peace and happiness are her reward.

10. Before her steps walketh prudence, and virtue attendeth at her right hand.

11. Her eye speaketh softness and love, but discretion with a scutre sitteth on her brow.

12. The tongue of her licentious is dumb in her presence; the awe of her virtue keepeth him silent.

13. When scandal is busy, and the fame of her neighbor is passed from tongue to tongue; if charity and good nature open not her mouth, the finger of silence resteth on her lip.

14. Her breast is the mansion of goodness, and therefore she curesceth no evil of others.

15. Happy were the man that should make her his wife; happy the child that should call her mother.

16. She presideth in the house, and there is peace; she commands with judgment, and is obeyed.

17. She arseth in the morning, she considers her affairs, and appointeth to every one their proper business.

18. The care of her family is her whole delight; to that alone she applich her study; and elegance with frugality is seen in her mansion.

19. The prudence of her management is an honor to her husband, he heareth her praise with a secret delight.

20. She informeth the minds of her children with wisdom; she fashioned their maniacs from the examples of her own goodness.

21. The words of her mouth is the law of their youth; the mansion of her eye commandeth their obedience.

22. She speaketh, and the servants fly; she pointeth, and the thing is done; for the law of love is in their hearts, and her kindness addeth wings to their feet.

23. In prosperity she is not puffed up; in adversity she healed the wounds of fortune with patience.
 24. The troubles of her husband are alleviated by her counsils and sweetened by her endearments; he putteth his heart in her bosom, and receiveth comfort.
 25. Happy is the man that hast made her his wife; happy the child that call her mother.

CHAPTER XXII. DUTY OF A HUSBAND.

1. Take unto thyself a wife, and obey the ordinance of Allah; take unto thyself a wife, and become a faithful member of society:
 2. But examine with care, and not fix suddenly. On thy present choice depends thy future happiness.
 3. If much of her time is destroyed in dress and adornment; if she is enamoured with her own beauty, and delighted with her own praise; if she laugheth much, and talketh loud; if her foot abideth not in her father's house, and her eyes with boldness rove on the faces of men; though her beauty were as the sun in the firmament of heaven, turn thy face from her charm, turn thy feet from her paths, and suffer not thy soul to be ensnared by the allurements of imagination.

4. But when thou findest sensibility of heart, joined with softness of manners; and accomplished mind, with a form agreeable to thy fancy; take her home to thy house; she is worthy to be thy friend, thy companion in life, the wife of thy bosom.
 5. O cherish her as a blessing sent to thee from heaven. Let the kindness of thy behavior endear thee to her heart.

6. She is the mistress of thy house; treat her therefore with respect, that thy servants may obey her.
 7. Oppose not her inclination without cause; she is the partner of thy care, make her also the companion of thy pleasures.

8. Reprove her faults with gentleness, exact not her obedience with rigour.

9. Trust thy secret in her breast; her counsels are sincere, thou shalt not be deceived.

10. Be faithful to her bed; for she is the mother of thy children.

11. When pain and sickness assault her, let thy tenderness soothe her affliction; and look from thee of pity and love shall alleviate her grief, or instigate her pain, and be of more avail than ten physicians.
 12. Consider the tenderness of her sex, the delicacy of her frame; and be not severe on her weakness, but remember thine own imperfections.

CHAPTER XXIII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FOR THY CHILDREN.

1. Consider, thou art a parent, the importance of thy trust; the being thou hast produced, it is thy duty to support.

2. Upon thee also it dependeth whether the child of thy bosom be a blessing or a curse to thyself; an useful or a worthless member, to the community.
 3. Prepare him early with instructions, and season his mind with the maxims of truth.
 4. Watch the bent of his inclinations, set him right in his youth and let no evil habit gain strength with his years.
 5. So shall he rise like a cedar on the mountains; his head shall be seen above the trees of the forest.
 6. A wicked son is a reproach to his father; but he that doeth right is an honor to his grey hairs.

7. The soil is thine own, let it not want cultivation; the seed which thou sowest, that also shalt thou reap.
 8. Teach him obedience, and he shall bless thee; teach modesty, and he shall not be ashamed.
 9. Teach him gratitude, and he shall receive benefits, teach him charity, and he shall gain love.
 10. Teach him temperance, and he shall have health; teach him prudence, and fortune shall attend him.
 11. Teach him justice, and he shall be honored by the world; teach him sincerity, and his own heart shall not reproach him.
 12. Teach him diligence, and his wealth shall increase; teach him benevolence, and his mind shall be exalted.
 13. Teach him science, and his life shall be useful; teach him religion, and his death shall be happy.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE OBEDIENCE OF CHILDREN TOWARDS THEIR FATHER
 1. From the secrets of Allah let man learn wisdom, and apply to himself the instruction they give.
 2. Go to the desert, my son; observe the young stork of the wilderness; let him speak to thy heart; he beareth on his wing aged sire; he lodgeth him safely, and supplieth him with food.

3. The piety of a child is sweeter than the incense of Persia offering to the sun; year, more delicious than odors wafted from a field of Arabian spices of the western gales.
 4. Be grateful to thy father, for he gave thee life; and to thy mother, for she sustained thee.
 5. Hear the words of his mouth, for they are spoken for thy good; give ear to his admonition, for it proceedeth from love.
 6. He hath watched for thy welfare, he hath toiled for thy ease; do honor therefore to his age, and let not his grey hairs be treated with irreverence.

7. Forget not thy helpless infancy, nor the forwardness of thy youth, and indulge the infirmities of thy aged parents; assist and support them in the decline of life.
 8. So shall their hoary heads go down to the grave in peace; and thine own children, in reverence of thy example, shall repay thy piety with filial love.

CHAPTER XXV.

A HOLY COVENANT OF THE ASIATIC NATION.

1. Ye are the children of one father, provided for by his care; and the breast of one mother hath given you suck.
2. Let the bonds of affection therefore, unite thee with thy brothers, that peace and happiness may dwell in thy father's house.
3. And when ye separate in the world, remember the relation that bindeth you to love and unity; and prefer not a stranger before thy own blood.
4. If thy brother is in adversity, assist him; if thy sister is in trouble, speake her not.
5. So shall the fortunes of thy father contribute to the support of his whole race; and his care be continued to you all, in your love to each other.

CHAPTER XXVI.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS OF UNITY.

1. The gifts of the understanding are the treasures of Allah; and he appointeth to every one his portion, in what measure seemeth good unto himself.
2. Hath he endowed thee with wisdom? Hath he enlightened thy mind with the knowledge of truth? Communicate it to the ignorant, for their instruction; communicate it to the wise, for thine own improvement.
3. True wisdom is less presuming than folly. These wise men doubteth often, and changeth his mind; the fool is obstinate, and doubteth not; he knoweth all things, but his own ignorance.
4. The pride of emptiness is an abomination; and to talk wisdom to hear with patience their impertinence, and to pity their absurdity.
5. Yet be not puffed up in thine own conceit, neither boast of superior understanding; the clearest human knowledge is but blindness and folly.
6. The wise man feeleth his imperfections, and is humbled; he laboreth in vain for his own approbation but the fool peepeth in the shadow stream of his own mind, and is pleased with the pebbles which he seeth at the bottom he bringeth them up, and showeth them as pearls and with the applause of his brethren delighteth himself.
7. He boasteth of attainments in things that are of no worth; but where it is a shame to be ignorant, there he hath no understanding.
8. Even in the path of wisdom, he toilleth after folly; and shame and disappointment are the reward of his labor.
9. But the wise man cultivates his mind with knowledge; the improvements of arts is his delight, and they utility to the public crowneth with honor.

10. Nevertheless, the attainment of virtue he accounteth as the highest learning; and the science of happiness is the study of his life.

CHAPTER XXVII.

THE HOLY UNITY OF THE RICH AND THE POOR.

1. The man to whom Allah hath given riches, and blessed with a mind to employ them aright, is peculiarly favored and highly distinguished.
2. He looketh on his wealth with pleasure, because it affordeth him the means to do good.
3. He protecteth the poor that are injured; he suffereth not the mighty to oppress the weak.
4. He seeks out objects of compassion; he injureth into the wants; he relieth them with judgments and without ostentation.
5. He assisteth and rewardeth merit; he encourageth ingenuity and liberally promoteth every useful design.
6. He carrieth his own great works; his country is enriched, and the labor is employed; he formeth new schemes, and the arts receive improvement.
7. He considers the superfluities of his table, as belonging to the poor of his neighborhood; and he defraudeth them not.
8. The benevolence of his mind is not checked by his fortune; he rejoiceth therefore in riches, and his joy is blameless.
9. But wee unto him that heappeth up wealth in abundance, and rejoiceth alone in the possession thereof; that grindeth the face of the poor, and considereth not the sweat of their brows!
10. He driveth on oppression, without feeling; the ruin of brother disturbeth him not.
11. The tears of the orphan he drinketh as milk; the cries of the widow are music to his ears.
12. His heart hardened with the love of wealth; no grief nor distress can make impression upon it.
13. But the curse of iniquity pursueth him; he liveth in continual fear; the anxiety of his mind and the rapacious desires of his own soul take vengeance upon him for the calamities he had brought upon others.
14. Oh! What are the miseries of poverty, in comparison with the gnawings of this man's heart!
15. Let the poor man comfort himself, yea, rejoice; for he hath many reasons.
16. He sitteth down to his morsel in peace: his table is not crowded with flatterers and devourees.
17. He is not embarrassed with a train of dependents, nor teased with the clamours of solicitations.
18. Debarred from the dainties of the rich, he escapeth also their diseases.

19. The bread that he eateth, is not so sweet to his taste? The water he drinketh, is not so pleasant to his thirst? Yea far more delicious water than the richest draughts of the luxurious.

20. His labor preserveth his health, and procureth him a repose, to which the downy bed of sloth is a stranger.

21. He limiteth his desires with humility, and the calm of contentment is sweeter to his soul than all the acquirements of wealth and grandeur.

22. Let not the rich, therefore, presume on his riches; nor the poor in his poverty yield to despondence; for the providence of Allah dispensest happiness to them both.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET
MASTER AND SERVANT.

1. Repine not, O man, at the state of servitude; it is the appointment of Allah, and hath many advantages; it removeth thee from cares and solicitudes in life.

2. The honor of a servant is his fidelity; his highest virtues are submission and obedience.

3. Be patient, therefore, under the reproofs of thy master; and when he rebuketh thee, answer not again. The silence of thy resignation shall not be forgotten.

4. Be studious of his interest, be diligent in his affairs, and faithful to the trust which he reposeth in thee.

5. Thy time and thy labor belong unto him. Defraud him not thereof, for he payeth thee for them.

6. And thou who art a master, be just to thy servant if thou expectest from him fidelity; and reasonable in thy commands if thou expectest ready obedience.

7. The spirit of a man is in him; severity and rigour may create fear, but can never command love.

8. Mix kindness with reproof, and reason with authority; so shall thy admonitions take place in his heart, and his duty shall become his pleasure.

9. He shall serve thee faithfully from the motive of gratitude; he shall obey thee cheerfully from the principle of love; and fail thou not, in return, to give his diligence and fidelity their proper reward.

CHAPTER XXIX.

MAGISTRATE AND SUBJECT.

1. O thou, the favorite of Heaven, whom the son of men, thy equals, have agreed to raise to sovereign power and set as a ruler over themselves; consider the ends and importance of their trust; far more than the dignity and height of thy station.

2. Thou art clothed in purple, and seated on a throne; the crown of majesty investeth thy temples, the sceptre of power is placed in thy hand; but not for thyself were these ensigns given; not meant for thine own, but the good of thy kingdom.

3. The glory of a king is the welfare of his people; his power and dominion rest on the hearts of his subjects.

4. The mind of a great prince is exalted with the grandeur of his situation; he evolveth high things, and searcheth for business worthy of his power.

5. He calleth together the wise men of his kingdom; he consulteth among them with freedom, and heareth the opinions of them all.

6. He looketh among his people with discernment; he discovereth the abilities of men, and employeth them according to their merits.

7. His magistrates are just, his ministers are wise, and the favorite of his bosom deceiveth him not.

8. He smileth on the arts, and they flourish; the sciences improve beneath the culture of his hand.

9. With the learned and ingenious he delighteth himself; he kindleth in their breasts emulation; and the glory of his kingdom is exalted by their labors.

10. The spirit of the merchant who extendeth his commerce, the skill of the farmer who enricheth his lands, the ingenuity of the artists the improvements of the scholar all these he honored with his favor, or rewardeth with his bounty.

11. He planteth new colonies, he buildeth strong ships, he openeth rivers for convenience, he formeth harbors for safety, his people abound in riches, and the strength of his kingdom increaseth.

12. He frameth his statutes with equity and wisdom; his subjects enjoy the fruits of their labor in security; and their happiness consists in the observance of the law.

13. He foundeth his judgments on the principles of mercy; but in the punishment of offenders, he is strict and impartial.

14. His ears are open to the complaints of his subjects; he restraineth the hands of their oppressors, and he delivereth them from their tyranny.

15. His people, therefore, look up to him as a father, with reverence and love; they consider him as the guardian of all they enjoy.

16. There affection unto him begetteth in his breast a combination of the public; the security of their happiness is the object of care.

17. No murmurs against him arise in their hearts; the malignities of his enemies endanger not the state.

18. His subjects are faithful, and firm in his cause; they stand in his defense, as a wall of brass; the army of a tyrant flieth before them as a chaff before the wind.

19. Security and peace bless the dwelling of his people; and glory and strength encircle his throne forever.

CHAPTER XXX
HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET
THE SOCIAL DUTIES

1. When thou considerest thy wants, when thou beholdest thy imperfections, acknowledge his goodness. O son of humanity, who honored thee with humanity, endowed thee with speech, and placed thee in society, to receive and confer reciprocal helps and mutual obligations. Protection from the injuries, thy enjoyments of the comforts and the pleasures of life; all these thou owest to the assistance of others, and couldst not enjoy but in the bands of society.

3. It is thy duty, therefore, to be a friend to mankind, as it is thy interest that man should be friendly to thee.

4. As the rose breatheth sweetness from its own nature, so the heart of a benevolent man produceth good works.

5. He enjoyeth the ease and tranquility of his own breast.

6. He rejoiceth in the happiness and prosperity of his neighbor.

7. His desire is to do good, and he researcheth out the occasions thereof; in removing the oppression of another, he relieveth himself.

8. From the largeness of his mind, he comprehendeth in his wishes the happiness of all men; and from the generosity of his heart, he endeavoureth to promote it.

CHAPTER XXXI

JUSTICE.

1. The peace of society dependeth on justice; the happiness of individuals, on the safe enjoyment of all their possessions.

2. Keep the desires of thy heart, therefore, within the bounds of moderation; let the hand of justice lead them aright.

3. Cast not an evil eye on the goods of thy neighbor; let whatever is his property be sacred from thy touch.

4. Let no temptation allure thee, nor any provocation excite thee to lift up thy hand to the hazard of his life.

5. Defame him not in his character; bear no false witness against him.

6. Corrupt not his servant to cheat or forsake him; and the wife of his bosom, O tempt not to sin.

7. It will be a grief to his heart, which thou canst not relieve; an injury to his life, which no reparation can atone.

8. In thy dealings with men, be impartial and just; and do unto them as thou wouldest they should do unto thee.

9. Be faithful to thy trust, and deceive not the man who relieth upon thee; be assured, it is less evil in the sight of Allah to steal than to betray.

10. Oppress not the poor, and defraud not of his hire the laboring man.

11. When thou sellest for gain, hear the whispering of conscience, and be satisfied with moderation nor from the ignorance of thy buyer make any advantage.

12. Pay the debt which thou owest; for he who gave thee credit, relieth upon thine honor; and to withhold from him his due, is both mean and unjust.

CHAPTER XXXII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.

CHARITY.

1. Happy is the man who hath sown in his breast the seeds of benevolence; the produce thereof shall be charity and love.

2. From the fountain of his heart shall rise rivers of goodness; and the streams shall overflow, for the benefit of mankind.

3. He assisteth the poor in their trouble; he rejoiceth in their prosperity of all men.

4. He censureth not his neighbor; he believeth not the tales of envy and malevolence; neither repeateth he their slanders.

5. He forgiveth the injuries of men, he wipeth them from his remembrance; revenge and malice have no place in his heart.

6. For evil he returneth not evil, he hateth not even his enemies, but requitteth their injustice with a friendly admonition.

7. The griefs and anxieties of men excite his compassion; he endeavoureth to alleviate the weight of their misfortunes, and the pleasure of success rewardeth his labor.

8. He calmeth the fury, he healeth the quarrels of angry men, and preventeth the mischiefs of strife and animosity.

9. He promoteth in his neighborhood peace and good will, and his name is repeated with praise and benedictions.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET

GRATITUDE.

1. As the branches of a tree return their sap to the roots, from whence it arose; as a river poureth its streams to the sea, whence the spring was supplied; so the heart of a grateful man delighteth in returning a benefit received.

2. He acknowledgeth his obligation with cheerfulness, he looketh on his benefactor with love and esteem.

3. And if to return it be not in his power, he nourisheth the memory of it in his breast with kindness; he forgetteth it not all the days of his life.

4. The hand of the dangerous man is like the clouds of heaven which drop upon the earth, fruits, herbage and flowers; but the heart of the ungrateful is like a desert of sand which swalloweth with greediness the showers that fall, and burieh them in its bosom, and produceth nothing.

5. Envy not thy benefactor, neither strive to conceal the benefit he hath conferred; for though to oblige is better than to be obliged, though the act of generosity commandeth admiration, is both mean and unjust.

tion, yet the humility toucheth the heart, and is amiable on the sight both of Allah and man.

6. But receive not a favor from the hand of the proud; to the selfish and avaricious have no obligation; the vanity of pride shall expose thee shame; the greediness of avarice shall never be satisfied.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET. SINCERITY.

1. O thou who are enamoured with the beauty of Truth, and hast fixed thy heart on the simplicity of her charms, hold fast thy fidelity unto her, and forsake her not; the constancy of thy virtues shall crown thee with honor.

2. The tongue of the sincere is rooted in heart; hypocrisy and deceit have no place in his words.

3. He blusheth at falsehood, and is founded; but in speaking the truth, he hath a steady eye.

4. He supporteth, as a man the dignity of his character; to the arts of hypocrisy; he scorneth to stoop.

5. He is consistant with himself; he is never embarrassed; he hath courage enough for truth; but to lie he is afraid.

6. He is far above the meanness of dissimulation; the words of his mouth are the thoughts of his heart.

7. Yet, with prudence and caution he openeth his lips; he studieth what is right, and speaketh with discretion.

8. He adviseth with friendship; he reproveth with freedom; and whatsoever he promiseth, shall surely be performed.

9. But the heart of the hypocrite is hid in his breast; he maketh his words in the semblance of truth while the business of his life is only to deceive.

10. He laugheth in sorrow, he weepeth in joy; and the words of his mouth have no interpretation.

11. He worketh in the dark as a mole, and fancieth he is safe; but he blundereth unto light, and is betrayed and exposed, with dirt on his head.

12. He passeth his days in perpetual constraint; his tongue and heart are forever at variance.

13. He laboorth for the character of a righteous man; and huggeth himself in the thoughts of his cunning.

14. O fool, fool! The pains which thou takest to hide what thou art, are more than would make thee what thou wouldest seem; and the children of Wisdom shall mock at thy cunning, when in the midst of security, thy disguise is stripped off, and the finger of derision shall point thee to scorn.

CHAPTER XXXV. HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET. RELIGION.

1. There is but one Allah, the author, the creator, the governor of the world; almighty, eternal, and incomprehensible.

2. The sun is not Allah, though his noblest image. He enlighteneth the world with his brightness; his warmth giveth life to the products of the earth. Admire him as the creature, the instrument of Allah, but worship him not.

3. To the one who is supreme, most wise and beneficent, and to Him alone, belong worship, adoration, thanksgiving and praise;

4. Who hath stretched forth the heavens with his hands, who hath described with his fingers the courses of the stars.

5. Who setteth bounds to the ocean, that it cannot pass; and saith unto the stormy winds, "Be still."

6. Who shaketh the earth, and the nations tremble; who dareth his lightnings, and the wicked are dismayed.

7. Who calleth forth worlds by the word of his mouth; smiteth with his arm, and they sink into nothing.

8. O reverence the majesty of the Omnipotent; and ten... not his anger, lest thou be destroyed.

9. The providence of Allah is ever all his works; he ruleth and directeth with infinite wisdom.

10. He hath instituted laws for the government of the world; he hath wonderfully varied them in all beings; and each, by his nature conformeth his will.

11. In the depth of his mind, he revolveth all knowledge; the secrets of futurity lie open before him.

12. The thoughts of thy heart are naked to his views; he knoweth thy determination before they are made.

13. With respect to his prescience, there is nothing contingent; with respect to his providence, there is nothing accidental.

14. Wonderful he is in all his ways; his counsels are inscrutable; the manner of his knowledge transcendeth thy conception.

15. Pay therefore to his wisdom, all honor and veneration; and bow down thyself in humble and submissive obedience to his supreme discretion.

16. The Father is gracious and beneficent; he hath created the world in mercy and love.

17. His creatures of his hand declare his goodness, and their enjoyments speak of his praise; he clothed them with beauty, he supporteth them with food, he preserveth them with pleasure, from generation to generation.

18. If we lift up our eyes to the heavens, his glory shineth forth; if we cast them down on the earth, it is full of his goodness; the hills and the valleys rejoice and sing; fields, rivers and woods resound his praise.

19. But thee, he hath distinguished with peculiar favor; and exalted thy station above all creatures.

20. He hath endued thee with reason, to maintain thy dominion; he hath fitted thee with language, to improve by society; and exalted thy mind with the powers of meditation to contemplate and adore his inimitable perfections.

21. And in the laws he hath ordained as the rule of life, so kindly hath he united thy duty to thy nature that obedience to his precepts is happiness to thyself.

22. O praise his goodness with songs of thanksgiving, and meditate in silence on the wonders of his love; let thy heart overflow with gratitude and acknowledgement, let the language of thy lips speak praise and adoration, let the actions of thy life show thy love to his law.

23. Allah is just and righteous, and will judge the earth with equity and truth.

24. Hath he established his laws in goodness and mercy, and shall he not punish the transgressors thereof?

25. O think not, bold men, because thy punishment is delayed, that the arm of Allah is weakened; neither flatter thyself with hopes that he winketh at thy doings.

26. His eye pierceth the secrets of every heart, and he remembereth them forever; he respecteth not the persons or the stations of men.

27. The high and the low, the rich and the poor, the wise and the ignorant, when the soul hath shaken off the cumbersome shackles of this mortal life, shall equally receive, from the sentence of just and everlasting retribution, according to their works.

28. Then shall the wicked tremble and be afraid, but the heart of the righteous shall rejoice in his judgments.

29. O fear Allah, therefore, all the days of thy life, and walk in the paths which he hath opened before thee. Let prudence admonish thee, let temperance restrain, let justice guide thy hand, benevolence warm thy heart, and gratitude to Heaven inspire thee with devotion. These shall give thee happiness in thy present state, and bring thee to the mansions of eternal felicity in the paradise of Allah.

30. This is the true economy of Human Life.

CHAPTER XXXVI. KNOW THYSELF.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.

- Weak and ignorant as thou art, O man, humble as thou oughtest to be, O child of the dust, wouldest thou raise thy thoughts to infinite wisdom? Wouldest thou see omnipotence displayed before thee? Contemplate thine frame.
- Fearfully and wonderfully art thou made; praise therefore thy Creator with awe, and rejoice before him with reverence.
- Wherefore of all creatures art thou only erect, but that thou shouldst behold his works? Wherefore art thou to behold, but that thou mayest admire them? Wherefore to admire their and thy Creator?
- Wherefore is consciousness reposed on thee alone, and whence is it derived to thee?

6. It is not in flesh to think; it is not in bones to reason. The lion knoweth not that worms shall eat him; the ox perceiveth not that he is fed for slaughter.

6. Something is added to thee, unlike to what thou seest; something informs thy clay, higher than all is the object of thy senses. Behold, what is it?

7. The body remaineth perfect after it is fled; therefore, it is no part of it; it is immaterial, therefore, it is eternal; it is free to act, therefore it is accountable for its actions.

8. Knoweth the ass the use of food, because his teeth now down the herbage? or standeth the crocodile erect, although his backbone is as straight as thine?

9. Allah formed thee as he formed these; after them all went thou created; superiority and command were given thee over all, and if his breath did he communicate to thee the principle of knowledge.

10. Know thyself and the pride of his creation, the lime uniusing divinity and matter; behold a part of Allah himself within thee; remember thine own dignity, nor dare descend to evil or to meanness.

11. Who planted terror in the tail of the serpent? Who clothed the neck of the horse with thunder? Even he who hath instructed thee to crush the one under thy feet, and to tame the other to thy purpose.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.

THE BREATH OF HEAVEN.

- Vaunt not thy body; because it was formed; nor of thy brain, because therein thy soul resideth. Is not the master of the house more honorable than its walls?
- The ground must be prepared before corn be planted: the potter must build his furnace before he can make his porcelain.
- As the breath of heaven sayeth unto the waters "a deep, 'This way shall thy billows, roll, and no other; Thus high, and no higher shall they raise their fury,'" so let thy spirit, O man, actuate and direct thy flesh; so let it repress its wilderness.
- Thy body is as the globe of the earth; thy bones the pillars that sustain it on its basis.

6. As the ocean giveth rise to springs, whose waters return again into its bosom through the rivers; so runneth thy life from thy outwards, and so runneth it into its place again.

7. Do not both retain their course forever? Behold, the same Allah ordained them.

8. Is not thy nose the channel to perfumes, thy mouth the path to delicacies.

9. Are not thine eyes the sentinels that watch for thee? Yet how often are they unable to distinguish truth from error.

10. Keep thy soul in moderation, teach thy spirit to be attentive to its good; so shall these its ministers be always to thee conveyances of truth.

11. Thine hand is not a miracle? Is there in the creation aught like unto it? Wherefore was it given thee, but that thou mightest stretch it out to the assistance of thy brother?

12. Why of all things living are thou alone made capable of blushing? The world shall read thy shame upon thy face; therefore do nothing shameful.

13. Fear and dismay, who rob thy countenance of its ruddy splendor? Avoid guilt, and thou shalt know that fear is beneath thee; that dismay is unmannerly.

14. Wherefore to thee alone speaks shadows in the vision of the pillow? Reverence them; for know, that dreams are from on high.

15. Thou man alone canst speak. Wonder at thy glorious prerogative; and pay to him who gave it thee a rational and welcome praise, teaching thy children wisdom, instructing the offspring of thy loins in piety.

CHAPTER XXXVIII. HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET

THE SOUL OF MAN.

1. The blessing, O man of thy external part, are health, vigour and proportion. The greatest of these is health. What health is to the body, even that is honesty to the soul.

2. That thou hast a soul is of knowledge the most certain, of all truths the most pain unto thee. Be meek, be grateful for it. Seek not to know it perfectly. It is inscrutable.

3. Thinking, understanding, reasoning, willing, call not these the soul. They are its actions, but they are not its essence.

4. Raise it not to high, that thou be not dispraised. Be not thou like unto those who fall by climbing; neither debase it to the sense of brutes; nor be thou like to the horse and the mule, in whom there is no understanding.

5. Search it by its faculties; know it by its virtues. They are more in number than the hairs of thy head; the stars of heaven are not to be counted with them.

6. Think not with Arabia, that one soul is parted among all men; neither believe thou with the sons of Egypt, that every man hath many; know, that as thy heart, so also thy soul is one.

7. Doth not the sun harden the clay? Doth it not also soften the wax? As it is one sun that worketh both even so it is one soul willeth contraries.

8. As the moon restraineth her nature, thou darkness spread itself before her face as a curtain; so the soul remaineth perfect, even in the bosom of a fool.

9. She is immortal; she is unchangeable; she is alike in all. Health calleth her forth to show her loveliness, and application anointeth her with the oil of wisdom.

10. Although she shall live after thee, think not she was born before thee. She was created with thy flesh, and formed with thy brain.

11. Justice could not give her to thee exalted by virtues, nor mercy delivered her to thee deformed by vices. These must be thine, and thou must answer for them.

12. Suppose not death can shield thee from examination; think not corruption can hide thee from inquiry. He who formed thee from thou knowest not what, can he not raise thee from thou knowest not what again?

13. Perceive not the cock the hour of midnight? Exalteth he not his voice to tell thee it is morning? Knoweth not the dog the footsteps of his master? Flyeth not the wounded goat unto the herb that healeth him? Yet when these die, their spirit returneth to dust: thine alone surviveth.

14. Envy not to these their senses, because quicker neth than thine own. Learn that the advantage lieth not in possessing good things, but in the knowing to use them.

15. Hadst thou the ear of the stag, or were thine eye as strong and piercing as the eagles; didst thou equal the hound in smell, or could the ape resign to thee his taste, or could the tortoise her feeling; yet without reason what would they avail thee? Perish not all these like their kindred?

16. Hath any one of them the gift of speech? Can any say unto thee, "Therefore did I do?"

17. The lips of the wise are as the doors of a cabinet; no sooner are they opened but treasurers are poured out before thee.

18. Like unto trees of gold arranged in beds of silver are wise sentences uttered in due season.

19. Canst thou think to greatly of thy soul? Or can to much be said in its praise? It is the image of Him who gave it.

20. Remember thou its dignity for ever; forget not how great a talent is committed to thy charge.

21. Whatsoever may do good, may also do harm. There are great things that thou direct its course to virtue.

22. Think not that thou canst lose her in a crowd; suppose not that thou canst bury her in thy closet. Action is her delight, and she will not be withheld from it.

23. Her motion is perpetual; her attempts are universal; her agility is not to be suppressed. It is at the uttermost part of the earth? She will have it. Is it beyond the regions of the stars? Yet will her eye discover it. Inquiry is her delight. As one who roveth through the burning sands, in search of water, so is the soul that thirsteth after knowledge.

24. Guard her for she is rash; restrain her, for she is irregular; correct her, for she is outrageous; make supple is she than water, more flexible than wax, more yielding than air. Is there naught that can bind her?

THE DIVINE INSTRUCTIONS

25. As a sword in the hand of a mad man, even so is the soul to him who wanted discretion.
26. The end of her search is truth; her means to discover it are reason and experience. But are not these weak, uncertain and fallacious? How then shall she attain unto it?
27. General opinion is no proof of truth, for the generality of men are ignorant.
28. Perception of thyself, the knowledge of Him who created thee, the sense of worship those owe unto Him. Are not these plain before thy face? And, behold! What is there more that man needeth to know?
- CHAPTER XXXIX.
- HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.
- PINACLE OF WISDOM.
1. As the eye of the morning to the lark, as the shade of the evening to the owl, as honey to the bee, or as the carcass to the vulture even such is life unto the heart of man.
2. Though bright, it dazzleth not; though obscure, it displease not; though sweet, if cloyeth not; though corrupt, it forbiddeth not, yet who is he that knoweth its true value?
3. Learn to esteem as it ought; then art thou near the pinacle of wisdom.
4. Think not, with the fool, that nothing is more valuable; nor believe, with the pretended wise, that thou oughtest to condemn it. Love is not for thyself, but for the good it may be of others.
5. Gold cannot buy it for thee, neither mines of diamonds purchase back the moment thou hast now lost it. Employ the succeeding ones in virtue.
6. Say not that it were best not to have been born; or if born, that it has been best to die early: neither dare thou to ask of thy Creator, "Where has been the evil; had I not existed?" God is thy power, the want of good is evil; and if thy question be just, lo, it condemneth thee.
7. Would the fish swallow the bait if he knew the hook was hidden therein? Would the lion enter the toils if he saw they were prepared for him? So neither, were the soul to perish within this clay, neither would a merciful Father have created him: know hence thou shalt live afterwards.
8. As the bird, enclosed in the cage before he sooth it, yet tearcth not his flesh against its sides; so neither labor thou vainly to run the state thou art in, but know it is allotted thee, and be content with it.
9. Though its ways are uneven, yet are they not all painful. Accommodate thyself to all; and where there is the least appearance of evil, suspect the greatest danger.
10. When thy bed is straw, thou sleepest in security; but when thou stretch thyself on roses beware of the thorns.
11. A good death is better than an evil life; strive therefore, to live as long as thou oughtest, not as long as thou canst.
- While thou life is to others worth more than they death, it is thy duty to preserve it.
12. Complain not, with the fool, of thy shortness of thy time: remember, that with thy days the cares are shortened.
13. Take from the period of thy life the useless part of it, and what remaineth?
14. Take off the time of thine infancy; thy second infancy of age, thy sleep, thy thoughtless hours, thy days of sickness; and even at thy fullness of years, how few seasons hast thou truly numbered!
15. He who gave thee life as a blessing, shortened it to make it more so.
16. To what end would longer life have served thee? Wishest thou to have had an opportunity of more vices? As to the good, will not He who limited thy span, be satisfied with the fruits of?
17. To what end, O child of sorrow, wouldest thou live longer? To breathe, to eat, to see the world? All this thou hast often already.
18. Wouldest thou improve thy wisdom and thy virtue? Alas! What are thou to know? Or who is it that shall teach thee? Badly thou employest the little thou hast, dare not, therefore, to complain that the more is not given thee.
19. Repine not at thy want of knowledge; it must perish within the grave. Be honest here, thou shalt be wise hereafter.
20. Say not unto the crow, "Why numberest thou seven times thy lord?" or to the fawn, "Why are thine eyes to see my offspring?" or to the hawk, "Why are these to be compared with springs an hundred generations?" Are these to be compared with thee in the abuse of life?
21. Are they riotous? Are they cruel? Are they ungrateful? Learn from them, rather, that innocence of manners are the paths of good old age.
22. Knowest thou to employ life better than these? Then less of it may suffice.
23. Man, who dares enslave the world, when he knows he enjoys his tyranny but for a moment, what would he not sin, if he were immortal.
24. Enough hast thou of life, but thou regardest it not; thou are not in want of it, O man, but thou art prodigal; thou throwest it lightly away, as if thou hadst more than enough; and yet thou repinest that it is not gathered again unto thee. Know, that it is not abundance which maketh rich, but Economy.
25. The wise continueth to live from his first period; the fool is always beginning.
26. Labor not after riches first, and think thou wilt afterwards enjoy them. He who neglecteth the present moment, throweth away all that he hath. As the arrow passeth through the heart while the warrior knew not that it was coming; so shall his life be taken away, before he kneweth that he hath it.

27. What then is life that man should desire it? What, breathing, that he should covet it?
 28. Is it not a scene of delusion, a series of misadventures, a pursuit of evils linked on all sides together? In the beginning, it is ignorance, pain is in its middle; and its end is sorrow.
 29. As one wave washeth another, till both are involved in that behind them; even so succeedeth evil to evil, in the life of man; the greater and the present swallow up the lesser and the past. Our terrors are real evils; our expectations look forward into impossibilities.

30. Fools, to dread as mortals, and to desire as if immortal!
 31. What part of life is it that we should wish to remain with us? Is it youth? Can we be in love with outrage, licentiousness, and temerity? Is it age? Then we are found of infirmities.
 32. It is said, grey hairs are revered, and length of days in honor. Virtue can add reverence to the bloom of youth; and without it, age plants more wrinkles in the soul than on the forehead.
 33. Is age respected because it hateth riot? What justice is in this, when it is not age that despiseth pleasure, but pleasure that despiseth age.
 34. Be virtuous while thou art young, so shall thine age be honored.

CHAPTER XL.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.

THE INSTABILITY OF MAN

1. Inconstancy is powerful in the heart of man; Intemperance swayeth it whither it will; Despair engrosseth much of it; and Fear proclaimeth, "Behold, I sit unrivaled therein," but Vanity is beyond them all.
 2. Weep not therefore at the calamities of the human state; rather laugh at its follies. In the hands of the man addicted to vanity, life then is but the shadow of a dream.

3. The hero, the most renowned of human character, what is he, but the bubbles of this weakness. The public is unstable and ungrateful. Why should the man of wisdom endanger himself for fools.

4. The man who neglecteth his present concerns, to revolve how he will behave when greater, freedeth himself with wind, while his bread is eaten by another.

5. Act as becometh thee in thy present station, and in more exalted ones thy face shall not be ashamed.

6. What blindeth the eye, or what hideth the heart of a man from himself, like Vanity? Lo, when thou seest not thyself, then others discover thee, most plainly.

7. As the tulip, that is gaudy without smell, conspicuous without use; so is the man who sitteth himself up so high, and hath not merit.

8. The heart of the vain is troubled while it seemeth content; his cares are greater than his pleasures.

9. His solicitude cannot rest with his bones, the grave is not deep enough to hide it; he extendeth his thoughts beyond his being; he bespeaketh praise, to be paid when he is gone; but whocver promiseth it, deceiveth him.

10. As the man engageth his wife to remain in widowhood, that she disturb not his soul; so is he who expecteth that his heart shall reach his ears beneath the earth, or cherish his heart in its shroud.

11. Do well whilst thou livest; but regard not what is said of it. Content thyself with deserving praise, and thy posterity shall rejoice in hearing it.

12. As the butterfly who seeth not his own colors, as the jasminc which fceleth not the scent it casteth around it; so is the man who appereath gay, and biddeth others to take note of it.

13. "To what purpose," saith he, "Is my vesture of gold, what end are my tables filled with dainties, if no eye gaze upon them, if the world knew it not?" Give thy raiment to the naked, and thy food unto the hungry; so shalt thou be praised, and feel that thou deservest it.

14. Why bestoweth thou in every man the flattery of unmeaning words? Thou knowest, when returned thee, thou regardest it not. He knoweth he lieth unto thee, yet he knoweth thou wilt thank him for it. Speak in sincerity, and thou wilt hear with instruction.

15. The vain delighteth to speak of himself; but he seeth not that others like not to hear him.
 16. If he hath done anything worth praise, if he possesses that which is worthy of admiration, his joy is to proclaim it, his pride to hear it reported. The desire of such a man defeateth itself. Men say not, "Behold, he hath done it," or "See, he possesseth it," but, "Mark how proud he is of it."

17. The heart of man cannot attend at once too many things. He who fixeth his souls on show, loseth reality. He pursueth bubbles, which break in their flight, while he treads to earth what would him honor.

CHAPTER XLI.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET

1. Nature urgeth thee to inconstancy. O man! Therefore guard thyself at all times against it.

2. Thou art, from the womb of thy mother, various and wavering from the loins of thy father inheritit thou instability. How then shalt thou be firm?

3. Those who gave thee a body, furnished it with weakness; but he who gave thee a soul, armed thee with resolution. Employ it, and thou art wise, be wise, and thou art happy.

4. Let him who doeth well, beware how he boasted of it, for rarely it is of his own will.

5. Is not the event of an impulse from without born of uncertainty, enforced by accident, dependent on some what else? "To thee, and to accident, is due the praise.

6. Beware of irresolution in the intent of thy actions beware of instability in the execution; so shalt thou triumph over two great failings of thy nature.

7. What reproacheth reason more than to act contrarieties? what can surpass the tendencies of these, but firmness of mind. 8. The inconstant feeleth that he changeth, but he knoweth not why; he seeth that he escapeth from himself, but he perceiveth not how. Be thou incapable of change, in that which is right, and men will rely upon thee.

9. Establish unto thyself principles of action, and see that thou ever act according to them.

10. So shall thy passions have no rule over thee; so shall thy constancy ensure unto thee the good thou possessest, and drive from thy door misfortune. Anxiety and disappointment shall be strangers to thy gates.

11. Suspect not evil in anyone until thou seest it; when thou seest, forget it not.

12. Whoso hath been an enemy, cannot be a friend; for man mendieth not his faults.

13. How should his actions be right, who hath no rule of his life? Nothing can be just which proceedeth not from reason.

14. The inconstant hath no peace in his soul; neither can he at ease whom he concerneth himself with.

15. His life is unequal; his motions are irregular; his soul changeth with the weather.

16. Today he loveth thee, tomorrow thou are detested by him; and why? Himself knoweth not wherefore he now hateth.

17. Today he is the tyrant, tomorrow thy servant is less humble; and why? He who is arrogant without power, will be servile where there is no subjection.

18. Today he is profuse, tomorrow he grudgeth unto his mouth that which it should eat. Thus it is with him who knoweth not moderation.

19. Who shall say of the camelion, "He is black," when, the moment after the verdure of the grass overspreadeth him?

20. Who shall say of the inconstant, "He is joyful," when his next breath shall be spent in sighing?

21. What is the life of such a man, but the phantom of a dream? In the morning he riseth happy, at noon he is on the rack; this hour he is a god, the next below a worm; one moment he laugheth, the next he weepeth; he now willetteth, in an instant he willetteth not, and in another He knoweth not whether he willetteth or no.

22. Yet neither east nor main have fixed themselves on him? neither is he waxed greater, or become less; neither hath he had cause for laughter, or reason for his sorrow; therefore shall none of them abide with him.

23. The happiness of the inconstant is as a palace built on the surface of the sand; the blowing of the wind carrieth away its foundation; What wonder then that it faileth?

24. But what exalteth form is this, that hitherward directs its even, its uninterrupted course—whose foot is on earth, whose head is above the clouds?

25. On his brow sitteth majesty; steadiness is in his port; and in his heart reigneth tranquility.

26. Though obstacles appear in his way, he deigneth not to look down upon them; though heaven and earth oppose his passage, he pregeleth.

27. The mountains sinks beneath his tread; the waters of the ocean are dried up under the sole of his foot.

28. The tiger throweth herself across his way in vain; spots of the leopard glow against him unregarded.

29. He marcheth through the embattled legions; with his hands he putteth aside the terrors of death.

30. Storms roar against his shoulders, but are not able to shake them, the thunder bursteth over his head in vain; the lightning severeth but to show the glories of his countenance.

31. His name is Resolution! He cometh from the utmost part of the earth he seeth happiness afar off before him; his eye discovereth her temple beyond the limits of the pole.

32. He walketh up to it, he entereth boldly, and he remaineth there forever.

33. Establish thy heart, O man, in that which is right; and then know, the greatest of human is to be immutable.

CHAPTER XLII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.

WEAKNESS.

1. Vain and inconstant as thou art, O child of imperfection, how canst thou be weak? Is not inconstancy connected frailty? Can there be vanity without infirmity? Avoid the danger of the one, and thou shalt escape the mischiefs of the other.
2. Wherein art thou most weak? In that wherein thou seemest most strong; in that wherein most thou gloriest; even in possessing the things which thou hast; in using the good that is about thee.

3. Art not thy desires also frail? Or knowest thou even what it is thou wouldest wish? When thou hast obtained what most thou soughtest after, behold, it contenteth thee not.
4. Wherefore loseth the pleasure that is before thee its relish? And why appeareth that is yet to come the sweeter? Because thou art wearied with the good of this, because thou knowest not the evil of that which is not with thee. Know, that to be content, is to be happy.

5. Couldst thou choose for thyself, would thy Creator lay before thee all that thou heart could ask for, would happiness then remain with thee, or would joy always dwell in thy gates?

6. Alas! Thy weakness forbiddeth it; thy infirmity declareth against it. Variety is to thee in the place of pleasure; but that which permanently delighteth must be permanent.

7. When that is gone, thou repentencest the loss of it; though while it was with thee, thou despisest it.

8. That which succeedeth it, hath no more pleasure to thee; and thou afterwards quarrellest with thyself for preferring it; beholding the only circumstances in which thou arrest not!

9. Is there any thing in which thy weakness appeareth more than in desiring things? It is in the possessing, and in the using of them.

10. Good things cease to be good in our enjoyment of them. What mature meant pure sweets, are sources of bitterness to us, from our delights arise, pain, from our joys, sorrow.

11. Be moderate in the enjoyment, and it shall remain in thy possession; let thy joy be founded on reason, and to its end shall sorrow be a stranger.

12. The delights of love are ushered in by sighs, and they terminate in languishment and dejection. The objects thou burntest for, nauseates with satiety; and no sooner hast thou possessed it, but thou are weary of its presence.

13. Join esteem to thy admiration, unite friendship with the love; so shalt thou find in the end content so absolute that it surpasseth raptures, tranquility more worth than ecstasy.

14. Allah hath given thee no good, without its admixture of evil; but he hath given thee also the means of throwing off the evil from it.

15. As joy is not without its alloy of pain, so neither is sorrow without its portion of pleasure. Joy and grief, though unlike, are united. Our own choice can only give them to us entire.

16. Melancholy itself often giveth delight, and the extremity of joys are mingled with tears.

17. The best things in the hands of a fool may be turned to his destruction; and out of the worst, the wise will find means of good.

18. So blended is weakness in thy nature, O man, that thou hast not strength either to be good nor to be evil, entirely. Rejoice that thou canst not excel in evils, and let the good that is within thy reach content thee.

19. The virtues are allotted to various stations. Seek not after impossibilities, nor grieve that thou canst not possess them all.

20. Wouldst thou at once have the liberality of the rich, and the contentment of the poor? Shall the wife of thy bosom be pleased because she sheweth not the virtues of the widow?

21. If thy father sink before thee in the divisions of thy country, can at once thy justice destroy him, and thy duty save his life?

22. If thou behold thy brother in the agonies of a slow death, is it not mercy to put a period to his life? And is it not also death to be his murderer?

23. Truth is but one; thy doubts are of thine own raising. He who made virtues what they are, planted in thee a knowledge of their pre-eminence. Act as thy soul dictates to thee, and the end shall be always right.

CHAPTER XLIII.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PROPHET.

THE INSUFFICIENTLY OF KNOWLEDGE.

1. If there is anything lovely, if there is anything desirable, if there is anything within the reach of man that is worthy of praise, is to not knowledge? And yet who it is that attaineth it?

2. The statesman proclaimeth that he hath it; the ruler of the people claimeth the praise of it—but findeth the subject that he possesseth it?

3. Evil is not requisite to man; neither can vice be necessary to be tolerated; yet how many evils are permitted by the connivance of the laws: How many crimes committed by the degrees of the council!

4. But be wist, O ruler, and learn, O thou that are to command the nations! One crime authorized by thee is worse than the escape of ten from punishment.

5. When the people are numerous, when thy sons increase about thy table; sendest thou them not out to slay the innocent, and to fall before the sword of him whom they have not offended? 6. If the objects of thy desire demandeth the lives of a thousand sayest thou not? "I will have it." Surely thou forgettest that he who created thee, created also these; and that their is as rich as thine.

7. Sayest thou, that justice cannot be executed with art wrong? Surely thine own words condemn thee.

8. Thou who flatterest with false hopes the criminal, that he may confess his guilt, art not thou unto him a criminal? Or is thy guiltless, because he cannot punish it?

9. When thou commandest to the torture him who is but suspected of ill, dardest thou to remember, that you mayest rack the innocent?

10. Is thy purpose answered by the event? Is thy soul satisfied with his confession? Pain will enforce him to say what is not, as easy as what is; and anguish hath caused innocence to accuse herself.

11. That thou mayest not kill him without cause, thou doest worse than kill him; that thou mayest prove if he be guilty thou destroyest him innocent.

12. O blindness to all truth! O insufficiency of the wisdom of the wise! Know, when thy judge shall bid thee account for this, thou shalt wish ten thousand guilty to have gone free, rather than one innocent then to stand forth against thee.

13. Insufficient as thou art to the maintenance of justice, how shalt thou arrive at the knowledge of truth? How shalt thou ascend to the footstep of her throne?

14. As the owl is blinded by the radiance of the sun, so shall the brightness of her countenance dazzle thee in thy approaches.

15. If thou wouldst mount onto her throne, first bow thyself beneath ~~your~~ feet; therefore pursue her manfully.

17. The way to her is labor; attention is the pilot that must conduct thee into her port. But weary not in the way; for when art arrived at her, the goal shall be to thee for pleasure.

18. Say not unto thyself, "Behold, truth breedeth hatred, and I will avoid it; dissimulation raiseth friends, and I will follow it." Are not the enemies, made by truth, better than the friends obtained by flattery?

19. Naturally doth man desire the truth; yet, when it is before him, he will not apprehend it; and if force itself upon him, he is not offended at it.

20. The fault is not in truth, for that is amiable; but the weakness of man bareth not its splendour.

21. Wouldst thou see thine insufficiency more plainly? View at thy devotion! To what end was religion instituted, but to teach thee thine infirmities, to remind thee of thy weakness, to show that from Heaven alone art thou to hope for good?

22. Doth it not remind thee that thou art dust? Doth it not tell thee that thou art ashes? And behold repentance, is not frailty?

23. When thou givest an oath; when thou swearst thou wilt not deceive; behold it spreadeth shame upon thy face, and upon the face of him that receiveth it. Learn to be just, and repentance may be forgotten; learn to be honest, and oaths are unnecessary.

24. The shorter follies are, the better; say not therefore to thyself, "I will not play the fool by halves."

25. He that heareth his own faults with patience shall reprove another with boldness.

26. He that giveth a denial with reason, shall suffer a rebuke with moderation.

27. If thou art suspected, answer with freedom. Whom should suspicion affright, except the guilty?

28. The tender of the heart is turned from his purpose by supplications, the proud is rendered more obstinate by entreaty; the sense of thine insufficiency commandeth thee to hear; but to be just, thou must hear without thy passions.

HOLY INSTRUCTIONS FROM PROPHET.

MISERY.

1. Feeble and insufficient, as thou art. O man, in good; frail and inconstant as than an art in pleasure; yet there is a thing in which thou art strong and unshaken. Its name is Misery.

2. It is the character of thy being, the prerogative of thy nature; in thy breast alone, it resideth; without thee there is nothing of it. And behold, what is its source, but thine one passions?

3. He who gave thee these, gave thee also reason to subdue them; exert it, and thou shall trample them under thy feet.

4. Thine entrance into the world, is it not shameful? Then destruction, is it not glorious?"—Lo! men adorn the instruments of death with gold and gems, and wear them above their garments.

5. He who begat thee a man, hideth his face; but he who killeth a thousand, is honored.

6. Know thou, notwithstanding, that in this is error. Corruption cannot alter the nature of truth; neither can the opinion of man destroy justice; the glory and the shame are misplaced.

7. There is but one way for a man to be produced; there are a thousand by which he may be destroyed.

8. There is no praise or honor to him who giveth being to another; but triumphs and empire are the rewards of murder.

9. Yet he who hath many children, hath as many blessings; and he who hath taken away the life of another, shall not enjoy his own.

10. While the savage curseth the birth of his son, and blesseth the death of his father, doth he not call himself a monster?

11. The greatest of all human ills is sorrow; to much of this thou art born unto; add not unto it by thine own perverseness.

12. Grief is natural to thee, and is always about thee; pleasure is a stranger, and visiteth thee by times; use well thy reason and sorrow shall be cast behind thee; be prudent, and the visits of joy shall remain long with thee.

13. Every part of thy frame is capable of sorrow, but few and narrow are the paths that lead to delight.

14. Pleasures can be admitted only simply, but pains rush in a thousand at a time.

15. As the blaze of straw fadeth as soon as it is kindled, so passeth away the brightness of joy, and thou knowest not what become of it.

16. Sorrow is frequent, pleasure is rare; pain cometh of itself; delight must be purchased; grief is unmixed; but joy wanteth not, its alloy of bitterness.

THE DIVINE INSTRUCTIONS

CHAPTER XLVI.

17. As the soundest health is less perceived than the lightest malady, so the highest joy toucheth us less deep than the smallest sorrow.

18. We are in love with anguish; we often fly from pleasure; when we purchase it, costeth it not more than it is worth?

19. Reflection is the business of man; a sense of his state is his first duty; but who remembereth himself a boy? Is it not mercy, then, that sorrow is allotted unto us?

20. Man forsooth the evil that is to come; he remembereth it when it is past; he considereth not that the thought of affliction woundeth deeper than the affliction itself. Think not of thy pain, but when it is upon thee, and thou shalt avoid what most hurt thee.

21. He who weepeth before he needeth weepeth more than he needeth; and why, but that he loveth weeping?

22. The stag weepeth not till the spear is lifted against him; nor do the tears of the beaver fall, till the hound is ready to seize him: man anticipateth death by the apprehension of it; and the fear is greater misery than the event itself.

23. Be always prepared to give an account of thine actions; and the best death is that which is least premeditated.

CHAPTER XLV.

THE DIVINE ORIGIN OF THE ASIATIC NATIONS

1. The fallen sons and daughters of the Asiatic Nation of North America need to learn to love instead of hate; and to know of his higher self and lower self. This is the uniting of the Holy Koran of Mecca, for teaching and instructing all Moorish Americans, etc.

2. The Key to civilization was and is in the hands of the Asiatic nations. The Moorish, who were the ancient Moabites, and the founders of the Holy City of Mecca.

3. The Egyptians who were the Hammites, and a direct descendant of Mizraim, the Arabians, the seed of Hagar, Japanese and Chinese.

4. The Hindoos of India, the descendants of the ancient Canaanites, Hittites and Moabites from the land of Canaan.

5. The Asiatic nations and countries in North, South and Central America; The Moorish Americans and Mexicans in North America, Brazilians, Argentinians and Chilians in South America.

6. Columbians, Nicaraguans and the natives of San Salvador in Central America, etc. All of these are Moslems.

7. The Turks are the true descendants of Hagar, who are the chief protectors of the Islamic Creed of Mecca; Beginning from Mohammed the first, the founder of the uniting of Islam, by the command of the great universal God—Allah.

THE BEGINNING OF CHRISTIANITY

1. The foundation of Christianity began in Rome. The Roman nation founded the first Church of whom crucified Jesus of Nazareth for seeking to redeem his people from under the Roman yoke and law.

2. Jesus himself was of the true blood of the ancient Canaanites and Moabites and the inhabitants of Africa.

3. Seeking to redeem his people in those days from the pressure of the pale skin nations of Europe, Rome crucified Him according to their law.

4. Then Europe had peace for a long time until Mohammed the first came upon the scene and fulfilled the works of Jesus of Nazareth.

5. The holy teaching of Jesus was to the common people, to redeem them from under the great pressure of the hands of the unjust. That the rulers and the rich would not oppose the poor. Also that the lion and the lamb may lay down together and neither would be harmed when morning came.

6. These teachings were not accepted by the rulers neither the rich; because they loved the principles of the ten commandments.

7. Through the ten commandments the rulers and the rich lived, while the poor suffer and die.

8. The lamb is the poor people, the lion is the rulers and the rich and through Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom and Justice all men are one and equal to seek their own destiny and to worship under their own vine and fig tree. After the principles of the holy and divine laws of their forefathers.

9. All nations of the earth in these modern days are seeking peace, but there is but one true and divine way that peace may be obtained in these days and it is through Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom and Justice being taught universally to all nations, in all lands.

CHAPTER XLVII.

ECCLYT, THE CAPITOL EMPIRE OF THE DOMINION OF AFRICA.

1. The inhabitants of Africa are the descendants of the ancient Canaanites from the land of Canaan.

2. Old man Cush and his family are the first inhabitants of Africa who came from the land of Canaan.

3. His father Nam and his family was second. Then came the word Ethiopia, which means the demarcation line of the dominion of Amexem, the first true and divine name of Africa. The division of the land between the father and the son.

4. The dominion of Cush, North-East and South-East Africa and North-West and South-West was his father's dominion of Africa.

8. The River Nile was dredged and made by the great Pharaohs of Egypt in order to trade with the surrounding kingdoms. Also the Niger River was dredged by the great Pharaoh of Egypt in those ancient days for trade, and it extends eastward from the River Nile, westward across the Atlantic. It was used for trade and transportation of negro, black or colored race attached to the human family, because all the inhabitants of Africa were and are of the same race, descendants of the ancient Canaanite nation from the human race, Canaan.

Assistant SAC Belmont called from Chicago, Illinois relative to authority for the establishment of a [redacted] microphone in connection with meetings in the above case. Belmont advised that this organization is apparently operating along lines similar to the Allah Temple of Islam, in connection with which you previously authorized the use of a [redacted] microphone. This investigation involves the negro case in which the Chicago Office is endeavoring to ascertain the specific motives of the group to determine whether there is anything of a subversive nature transpiring. Belmont further stated that if authorized, the microphone [redacted] would be used only to cover meetings of this [redacted] group, which meetings are generally held on Sunday afternoons. He felt that such a surveillance could be readily handled [redacted] at 1032 Orleans Street.

ACTION: Belmont was advised that this matter would be taken under consideration and he would be notified in the event you approve the establishment of this [redacted] microphone.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Sheriff of Holmes Co. advised that arrest of [REDACTED] in April, 1942, first revealed existence of Moorish Science Temple in State of Mississippi. Local Lodge alleged to have been organized in Feb. or March of 1942 by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] came to Miss. from Chicago for that purpose. Teachings and practices of this organization led to arrest of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] negroes, and conviction under new Miss. State Law for un-American activities. Reports from Greenville and Hernando indicate organization may still be active in this state. Names of negroes who attended meeting at which local Lodge was organized set out. Leads set out.

Report of Special Agent [REDACTED] dated May 26, 1942 at Jackson, Mississippi.

At Lexington, Mississippi

Sheriff [REDACTED] Holmes County, advised that in nothing is known of the Moorish Temple of Science of America February or March of 1942. The Sheriff stated that it was about that [REDACTED] came here from Chicago arriving at Durant, Mississippi and proceeding from there by automobile to [REDACTED] plantations which is located about eight or ten miles south of [REDACTED]. He stayed the first night at [REDACTED] place and the next day went over [REDACTED] place, which is located on the [REDACTED]

It was here that [REDACTED] requested of [REDACTED] project, the use of the FSA school for the purpose of holding a meeting. Permission to use the school was refused because [REDACTED] would not state the nature of the meeting which he intended to hold. Thereupon a meeting was held at [REDACTED] place and a Lodge of the Moorish Temple of Science was organized. At this meeting [REDACTED] was elected Sheik and [REDACTED] secretary. Sheriff [REDACTED] declared that the ground work for this Lodge was laid by [REDACTED] formerly of Holmes County, but now of Chicago on this particular occasion. The Sheriff stated that he believes that membership in the Lodge also carried with it certain burial policy opportunities, but declared that he does not know the full truth of this matter or the details of it. The negroes who attended this meeting, as disclosed by subsequent legal proceedings, were as follows: [REDACTED]
(who fled from Mississippi and is believed to be in Chicago); [REDACTED]

b7d
Sheriff [REDACTED] advised that following the aforementioned meeting, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] boarded a train at Durant at 2 a.m. and returned to Chicago. They were accompanied to the railroad station at Durant by [REDACTED] and another negro named [REDACTED]. Sheriff [REDACTED] advised that it was here that an episode occurred which caused [REDACTED] to wholeheartedly believe in the principles of the MOORISH SCIENCE TEMPLE. [REDACTED] with his companions, entered the white people's ticket section and when told to go to the colored section he produced some papers or credentials which he showed the ticket man and was allowed to continue through the white section of the depot and board the train. [REDACTED] led his negro companions to believe that he had shown credentials of the Moorish Science Temple, but [REDACTED] advised Sheriff [REDACTED] that it was here that "the pigeon was dropped" and that [REDACTED] merely had shown to the ticket man his return ticket reservation to Chicago and was allowed to pass on through to the train. [REDACTED] said that it was here that [REDACTED] became convinced that the Moorish Science Temple was a bona fide organization and that the principle of Mohammedanism was substantial. As a direct result of this [REDACTED] was subsequently arrested in Belmont for his refusal to sit in the colored section of a public bus. Sheriff [REDACTED] stated that the arrest of [REDACTED] uncovered the activities of the Moorish Science Temple for the first time, and that as a result of information obtained from [REDACTED] was also arrested.

b7c of [redacted] County Attorney, who prosecuted the cases of [redacted] and [redacted] advised that the State offered evidence to show that these parties were teaching that this was the Asiatic Continent of North America and that all people should join in the Moorish Holy Temple of Science and that to do so would cause the Asiatic conquerors to welcome them as brothers, and further that by joining this organization they would and should not be made to register or fight in the armed forces.

At Greenville, Mississippi

b7c [redacted] of the Greenville Police Department advised the writer at the quarterly police conference held in Greenville, Mississippi on July 9, 1942 that a Greyhound bus driver, name unknown, had informed him that almost weekly he carries two, three or four negroes northward in his bus to Memphis where they invariably changed for Chicago. This driver is reported to have said that he believes some outside source provides the transportation expenses of these negroes.

b7c [redacted] also reported that about two weeks previous he had had occasion to disband a group of about one hundred negroes meeting in the home of [redacted] in Greenville, [redacted] did not know the purpose of this meeting, believing at the time that the negroes had been gambling, but finding out later that they had not been gambling.

At Eudora, Mississippi

b7d Deputy Sheriff [redacted] of DeSoto County, on an occasion when the writer was in DeSoto County in June, 1942, advised that [redacted] told him that while she was sitting on her porch one day she heard the negroes talking as they passed her home and overheard one remark to the effect that the man at the meeting had told them that if Japan wins the war the negroes will be equal to the whites. This is all the information that Deputy Sheriff [redacted] had on this incident.

Subject: Moslem Negro Movement; Temple People

Summary of Information:

Reference is made to summary of information dated August 6, 1942, subject, "Riot of Negro Troops in Riverside, California", File No. MID 291.2, Negroes.

Subsequent information received is to the effect that an additional check throughout the colored districts of Chicago failed to reveal any presently active group by the name of "New Freedom Movement". The Moslem Negro group referred to in our summary of August 6, has been determined to be the Negro Moslem movement known as "Alli Temple of Ishaq", a reputedly Japanese-supported organization with main headquarters at 104 East 51st Street, Chicago.

There is no information available concerning the "New Freedom Movement".

The Moslem Temple at 104 East 51st Street, Chicago, is said to be Temple #2 of a Negro Moslem organization that is alleged to have a large membership in this country, there being approximately 200 members enrolled in the Chicago Temple alone. It is also reported that there are about 300 active members of this organization in Detroit at the present time, the Detroit Temple being known as Temple #1, and having headquarters at 623 Madberry Street, Detroit. The secretary of the organization, who resides at that address, is known as Divan Ford. The Detroit Temple is led by Willie Mohammed, brother of Oulan Bogans, who is also known as Mohammed Hassoul, Elijah Mohammed and Elijah Poole, a leader of the Moslem Temple in Washington, D. C. Bogans has claimed that his organization includes over 9,000 persons.

Temple #3, according to a statement of Bogans, is located at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, at 630 North McKinley Street and is led by Sultan Mohammed. It has between 50 to 100 members.

Elijah Mohammed, or Bogans, is said to be held for action of the Grand Jury under $5,000 bond for counseling, aiding, and abetting evasion of military service. Mannie Beverly, Secretary of the Washington, D. C. Temple was arrested May 9, 1942, on charges of conspiracy to violate the Selective Service Act. Sultan Mohammed, head of Milwaukee Temple, and Willie Mohammed, head of the Detroit Temple, were apprehended in Washington, D. C., on May 14 and May 16, respectively. David Jones, another leader in the Washington Temple, was taken into custody May 19 and is being held for action of the Grand Jury on a charge of failure to register and for counseling, aiding and abetting evasion of service.

It is learned that members of this group are advocating absolute non-participation in the defense of the United States, being opposed to the rule of the white race as well as to Christianity, and believe that the Japanese, by winning the present war, will be a means of triumph for the black race.

Subject: Riot of Negro Troops in Riverside, California.

Summary of Information:

Reference is made to report on subject in which mention is made of the "New Freedom Movement".

"The New Freedom Movement" is believed to be a Moorish-Negro organization without Communist connections. It is believed, however, to be under Japanese influence.

An organization of this name has been reported as inactive for the last ten years, but report from the Sixth Service Command, dated July 27, 1942, indicated the revival among negroes living in the negro section of the Chicago Avenue District of Chicago.

No other information has yet been received in reference to this organization.

This group was originally started by a Japanese named [REDACTED] who has since been deported twice. Its slogan was that the Pale Face must go. There is another Japanese who seems to be active in the movement at present in Chicago and he is stirring up plenty of trouble among the colored people in that city.

This group has requested the privilege of speaking before N.A.A.C.P. and the Negro Congress and promise to give the Chicago authorities plenty of trouble in the very near future. They are recruiting members throughout Chicago's industry wherever colored people are employed, and they are very much against the war effort.

The organization started up under the name of The Moorish Temple of America, known as the Science Temple of America and the Temple of Allah. Some of the officers of the N.Z.A.C.P. were very much against it but others have been known to attend their meetings. The Detroit membership is very strong and they are attempting to set up several other negro groups under religious names. Their meetings have been attended in Detroit very regularly and they have had as many as 1500 at a single meeting. The membership in Detroit is claimed to be about 8500 and in Chicago over 12,000

There is a fast moving colored movement which is now very dangerous and has its strongest point in Chicago. This is headed by a Negro named C. Krikman Bey who is known as "The Grand Sheik". He lives [REDACTED] in Chicago. He has split the movement up in several branches and most of the meetings are being held in small groups at the homes of his chosen leaders. Mass meetings are held at the Golden Gate Hall located at Orleans and Hobbie Streets, Chicago and are reported to be very seditious.

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated June 26, 1942, in the case entitled [REDACTED] with aliases, et al; Selective Service", which instructed that you initiate inquiries to determine if the members and leaders of the Moorish Science Temple of America have complied with the Selective Service Act and whether the leaders may have counseled evasion of the Act.

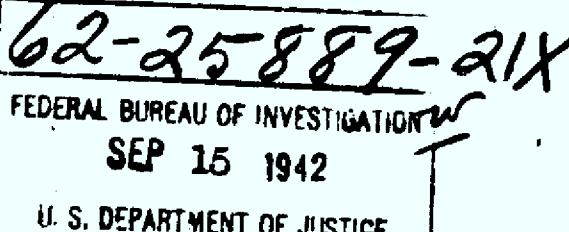

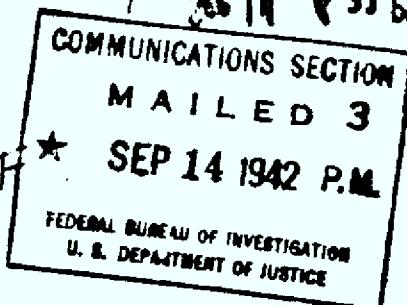

It is desired that a report reflecting the results of inquiries made in this letter be submitted to the Bureau without delay.

Very truly yours,

Reference is made to the Bureau letter of June 6, 1942, under the caption of Moorish (Negro) American Organization, Internal Security (J), requesting that investigation be conducted concerning the Moorish American organization mentioned in a report of the Headquarters Second Corps Area, Office of the Commanding General 2, Governors Island, New York, dated May 8, 1942, a copy of which was furnished to the New York Office.

It is believed that the Moorish (Negro) American Association is identical with the Moorish Science Temple of America. You are instructed to conduct the investigation mentioned in the reference letter. Copies of this report should be sent to Chicago, the office of origin; and the Washington, Springfield, Kansas and St. Louis offices.

Dear Sir:

Re: MOORISH SCIENCE TEMPLE OF AMERICA;
C. KIRKMAN BEY; INTERNAL SECURITY -J

Reference is made to report of Special Agent [redacted] dated at Kansas City, Missouri August 7, 1942 relating to the above captioned case. The office of origin was designated as Kansas City, Missouri and an undeveloped lead was set forth for the Chicago Field Division to conduct investigation at the Moorish Science Temple of America at Chicago, Illinois. It is believed, however, that the Temple located at Chicago is the headquarters for this organization in the United States and it is requested that the Chicago Field Division be designated as the office of origin in this case.

Investigation at Kansas City, Missouri has been completed. This organization is in a dormant status at Kansas City, Kansas due to the arrest of a majority of the male members of this cult and interview with the leaders of this cult and also with members has led to a denial of any Japanese influence or promotion. The Chicago Field Division has been furnished with a copy of the above mentioned report which has been the only report submitted in this case by the Kansas City Field Division.

Yours truly

Reference is made to your letter of October 22, 1942, indicating that investigation at Kansas City, Missouri, in the above-captioned case has been completed and requesting that the Chicago Field Division be designated as the office of origin.

It is suggested that further investigation be conducted in this case, particularly to determine if any of the leaders have counselled the members of the Moorish Science Temple of America not to register for Selective Service, with a view toward prosecuting such leaders for conspiracy to violate the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940.

b7c
The report of Special Agent [redacted] dated August 7, 1942, at Kansas City, reflects that fifteen members were arrested for violation of the Selective Service Act, but this file does not reflect their names or the disposition of the cases. When arrested, these men, according to the report of Agent [redacted] were said to have stated that they did not feel that they were obligated to perform any duties under the Selective Service Act since they were Asiatics. Nelson [redacted] and A. Tamm [redacted] did not have any interest in a European conflict. Investigation Neegg [redacted] should be made to determine the source of this statement.
