MRS. GEORGE JAMES, Fairfax, Okla. Material.	Can testify that she was awake Sunday morning, May 22, 1921, worrying because her husband had not come home that night; that she had known Anna Brown and Bryan Burkhart well for a number of years; that she lived a short block due south of Anna's home, and a block due north of the main road from Fairfax to Grayhorse and Ralston, on the south side of Fairfax; that about 3 A. M., that Sunday morning, she saw the lights of a big car which stopped on said road just south of her house, and heard a man's and a woman's voice; that the man exclaimed "Stop your foolishness, Anna, and get into this car", and a woman's voice answered, but was unintelligible; that in a few minutes the car drove on west a block, turned north for two blocks, east a block, and then turned south, with the lights directly toward Mrs. James, and stopped at the sidewalk, in front of Anna Brown's house; that Anna Brown and Bryan Burkhart got out of the car and walked up to Anna's front porch, where an electric light was burning; that they stopped at Anna Brown's front door, and Mrs. James recognized the two persons on the porch as Anna Brown and Bryan Burkhart; and that they had then come up from where they had stopped in the road south of her house. ROBERT KISSER or KAZEE, Address unknown Farmer near Fairfax, Okla. Material.	Can testify that early on Saturday night, May 21, 1921, he went to the home of Anna Brown, and no one was there; that he again called at her home a little later the same night, and found no one there. (Corroborates testimony of Fred Uto.) Can testify that onnthe afternoon of Sunday, May 22, 1921, he and Duke Burkhart drove to the home of Anna Brown to see if she was there, but she was not home; that Duke Burkhart claimed he was looking for her at the request of Anna's mother. MR. ~~TURNDEN~~, Turden Undertaker, Fairfax, Okla. Material—	Can testify that he was notified of the finding of the body by Andy Smith, Ona Smith and I. L. Ellsworth; that he went out to the spot but could not identify the body; That Dr. J. G. Shoun, Mrs. Anna Sitterly, Mrs. Mollie Burkhart and Mrs. Rita Smith, all of Fairfax, subsequently identified the body as that of Anna Brown; that he prepared the body for burial by freezing it in ice and salt where it was found; that at the place where the body was found, Drs. J. G. Shoun and D. A. Shoun performed a rude autopsy by bisecting the skull from front to rear, and searching in the decayed brain mass for the bullet, which was not found; that a more thorough autopsy could not be made on account of the terrible condition and odor of the body; Mr. Turnden still has the left side of the skull, showing the bullet hole. Can testify that he examined the surroundings carefully, noted the position of the body, and the position and condition of the clothes, and is convinced that Anna Brown was sitting just where her body was found when she was shot. Can also testify that a round quart whiskey bottle, with about an inch of corn whiskey in it, was lying near the body, on the ground	Page 667 Par. last. Agents have not approached this witness, who is an ex-convict, a car thief, a "stick-up" man, and an all around robber, but have a confidential informant working on him for further evidence. There is a universal fear among witnesses of being "bumped off" for telling or assisting in the investigation which has kept many persons from telling things of material value. It is believed, however, that when the evidence to convict in one of these Indian murders is obtained, and the guilty persons arrested and held with [illegible] bond, that a lot of [illegible] will [illegible]

ERNEST BURKHART, Fairfax, Okla. Conspirator.	Testified before coroners jury.	Page 107 Par. last.	Conspirator. Will not be used before Grand Jury.
	Stated by Dewey Selph, on July 9, 1925, to Agents J. A. Street and J. R. Burger, that on the night before Anna Brown disappeared, he, Blackie Gord, Kelsie Morrison, Bob Crane, Charles Bailey, Bryan and Ernest Burkhart were at Ernest Burkhart's home near Grayhorse, playing poker, and Ernest Burkhart at that time said he would give $2500. to get rid of Anna Brown, and $2500. after she was done away with.	Page 721 Par. last	Ernest Burkhart married Mollie, a daughter of Lizzie Q. and sister of Anna Brown. Mollie inherited the estates of Lizzie Q. and Anna Brown. Mollie, Ernest's wife, is now seriously ill, she is the last of the Lizzie Q. family, and it is believed that she is being slowly poisoned, so that all the property formerly held by these Indians will go to the Burkharts.
	Selph's statement corroborated by W. O. Bailey, in statement made by Bailey to Agents F. S. Smith and J. A. Street on July 13, 1925.	Page 780 Par. last

BRYAN BURKHART, Fairfax, Okla. Conspirator.	Testifaed before coroners jury that the last time he saw Anna Brown alive was on Saturday May 21, 1921 about 4:30 or 5 o'clock. (This is direct contradiction of statements of George James, Edith Davis, I. R. Hedges, E. D. Rainey, J. McGuire, Fred Wheeler, Lee Morgan, Paul Johns, Maggie Clark McClure, Mrs. George James, Walter Collins, Martha Doughty Brookshire.) As stated by George James, Bryan Burkhart, Anna Brown, J. L. Bridges, George James and Edith Davis were on a drinking party at a whiskey joint just west of Ralston Saturday night May 21,1921, where they stayed until 10 P. M., then drove to Paul John's roadhouse near Burbank where they stayed until 12:30 A. M. Sunday May 22, then drove to "Shorty" Morgan's whiskey joint near Burbank where they stopped but did not get out of the cars, after which they separated, James and Edith Davis in one car, and Bridges, Bryan Burkhart and Anna Brown inthe other car. This was about 2 A. M. May 22, 1921, and the last time George James saw Anna Brown alive. Alleged that on May 21, 1921, Bryan Burkhart told Martha Doughty Brookshire that Anna had threatened to kill him, but that he was going to beat her to it and kill her in the morning. E. M. [illegible] Kansas City, Mo. Material.	Can testify that he was an operative for a private detective agency in June and July 1921, and, as such, was employed in June and July 1921 to get evidence to build up an alibi for Bryan Burkhart in the murder of Anna Brown.	Page 318 Par. last	[illegible]bpoena and question [illegible] before using before Grand Jury.
	Can testify that Bryan Burkhart admitted to him the details of the drinking party on the night and morning of May 21 and 22, 1921, at which time Anna Brown was in the party.	Page 317 Par. last
	Can also testify that Bryan Burkhart took him to several witnesses who Bryan had "fixed" to give statements to corroborate his, Bryan's, alibi.	Page 315 Par. all
	Can testify that he learned that Bill Hale furnished Bryan Burkhart the .38 calibre gun with which to kill Anna, as Bryan had a .44 which was well known, and its use would have thrown suspicion on him immediately; that all details of the killing of Anna Brown were worked out at the whiskey joint just west of Ralston, between Hale, Bridges and Bryan, that Saturday night, May 21, 1921.
