DEVELOPMENTS FROM INVESTIGATION

Can testify that about 3 A. M. March 10, 1923, he was occupying a room at the Smith-Williams Hotel, Fairfax, Okla.; that at that time he had arisen, and, looking out of his bedroom window which faced south, he noticed a bright flame that flared up and died out rapidly two or three times; that this flame was located about two blocks southwest, almost south of where he was standing; that by its light he could see the gable of the north end of the house from which the flame appeared to be flaring; that the flame rose as high as this gable; that almost immediately the flame went out and a terrific explosion occurred which threw him back on his bed and broke the glass in his window; that he later went out and found that the explosion was at Bill Smith's house; and that the house was demolished and in flames.

M. C. McNEW,
Santa Fe Agent,
Fairfax, Okla.

Material.

2.

Can testify that on March 10, 1923, at about 2:50 A. M. he was up with a sick member of his family when a terrific explosion occurred that shook and damaged his home, located two doors south of the then W. E. Smith home in Fairfax, Okla.; that he went out to investigate and found the Smith home demolished by the explosions and in flames; that he saw the mangled corpses of Mrs. Rita Smith and Nettie Brookshire recovered from the burning ruins, and the still living body of W. E. Smith rescued from the debris. Mr. McNew can also furnish the names of other neighbors who can testify to substantially the same effect.

Can testify that on March 9, 1923, Len Oller, intimate friend and associate of Bill Hale, sent from Fairfax, Okla., to W. K. Hale, Campbell, Texas, a telegram reading: "Deal stands good. I will go in the morning." Suspected that this telegram has reference to blowing up Smith's house. Can also testify that about 2 A. M. March 10, 1923, he heard what appeared to be a Ford car pass his house going south; that this car stopped at the south end of the block and a man got out and walked back north toward the Smith house; that about 2:35 A. M. that morning he heard a car going south at a high rate of speed, and judging from the sound, it was probably a car

DR. J. G. SHOUN,
Fairfax, Okla.

Can testify that W. E. Smith was taken from the ruins of his demolished home to Drs. D. A. and J. G. Shoun's hospital where he died four days later as a result of injuries received in the explosion.

Stated to Agent Weakley that the day before the explosion Mrs. W. K. Hale asked his (Shoun's) wife if they had moved all their furniture from the house which Smith had purchased.

Can testify that after the Anna Brown murder Smith said a number of times that Bryan and Ernest Burkhart and Bill Hale had killed her, and that he, Smith, expected them to blow him up or kill him at any time.

Can testify that W. E. Smith was taken from the ruins of his demolished home to Drs. D. A. and J. G. Shoun's hospital where he died four days later as a result of injuries received in the explosion.

Stated to Agent Wright that on one occasion, after the explosion, and just before his death, and when Smith was of sound and rational mind, Smith stated, in Shoun's presence, that Bill Hale and Ernest Burkhardt were the only enemies he had on earth that he could suspect of having blown up his home and that he did not want to accuse them of the deed at that time for the reason that he had no proof and might be wrong. Shoun "thinks" and is quite positive that Jeff Hutchin-son, D. E. Johnson, Henry Ward and Richard Grandall heard Smith make above state-ment.

Manager of Telephone Co. at Fairfax. Stated to Agent Weakley that a day or two after Smith died a nurse at Dr. Shouns' hospital, whose name is Burkhart and is a sister of Ernest Burkhart, a nephew of Bill Hale, called Hale by phone at Pawhuska and advised him that Bill Smith had died. Hale replied "is that so?" or some such phrase. Miss Burkhart said "I must see you right away". Hale said something about coming up to the hospital, and she replied "no", he must not come up there", and then Hale said he would come to his home and leave the door open and she could come down there and see him. Morgan also stated that immediately after Smith died Lon Oller called Hale from Ralston by phone. Hale at that time being somewhere in Texas, and that in making this call, it came over the wire that passed through the Fairfax exchange, and the operator at Fairfax caught the call; that he, Morgan, does not remember what the conversation was, but that Oller is supposed to have left and met Hale some place en route to Pawhuska, and then to Fairfax.

CHARLES HEMBREE,
Fairfax, Okla.

Material:

Can testify that on the night of March 9 and early morning of March 10, 1923, he was coming home from Ralston, south of Fairfax; that about six miles from Fairfax he heard a heavy explosion in the direction of Fairfax, about 3 A. M.; that a minute or two later he saw the headlights and heard the roar of some big car coming south from Fairfax at a high speed; that he thought it was some drunken Indians, and turned off the road and stopped his truck with the headlights thereof pointing into the road, and lit that the approaching car passed him at a high speed, and when it came into the light of his truck headlights he noted that there were two men in the front seat and the man driving was a stranger to him and had a small face; that the car had the curtains up, both headlights lit, and two "goose egg" side lights, and a light inside in the roof of the car; that the car passed him and he heard the screech of the brakes as it took the turn into Ralston a few seconds later. Hembree thinks he may recognize the driver if he ever sees him again, but is doubtful. He stated that he knew Kagsie Morrison well by sight, but could not say that he ever thought Kagsie Morrison was one of the three men he saw in the car that night, although it is possible that this was the case.

Stated to Agents Weilas and Burger on Jan. 24, 1924, that Kelsie Morrison was in Fairfax on the night of the explosion at Bill Smith's house; that nitroglycerine was stolen from a magazine located near Whisbang by unknown persons; that Kelsie Morrison had a brother living near Whisbang at that time, who was not seen nor heard of afterward; that Morrison gave his brother $500. to go to New Mexico for his health, as it was said he had tuberculosis, but in fact was a drug addict. Bloyed also stated that he knows Kelsie Morrison was at that time driving a Studebaker Big Six which had side or "goose egg" lights and an inside light, and dark maroon in color. (This fits the description of the car seen by Charles Hembree.)

It is alleged that this witness said he saw Kelsie Morrison and one Powell, Kelsie Morrison's brother-in-law, in the Silver Moon Cafe, Fairfax, (Ed Fincher, Proprietor) between 11 and 12 o'clock March 9, 1933, the night of the blow-up of Bill Smith's home; that Morrison was apparently drinking and Morrison mentioned to Dr. Friedman that he, Morrison, had just come from Oklahoma City in an auto and had taken the wrong road and was delayed in getting to Fairfax. (This corroborates statement of Ed Fincher, Proprietor, Silver Moon Cafe, Fairfax, Okla.)

Page 17. Subpoena and question filed before using before Grand Jury.

This witness is a Dentist at Fairfax, Okla. and a close friend of the Hale family.

1.

ED FINCHER,
Fairfax, Okla.

2.

Stated to Agent Wright that between 11 and 12 o'clock on the night of March 9, 1923, Kelsie Morrison and Bill Powell were in his, Fincher's, cafe at Fairfax; that Morrison had been drinking and stated that he had just come in from Oklahoma City.

Alleged that Witness Fincher told Sam Turk that Kelsie Morrison, in company with Anos Tucker and Bill Rivard, left Fairfax on March 9, 1923, about noon, in an automobile, going to Oklahoma City.

BILL RIVARD
Address unknown.

2. Alleged that Kelsie Morrison, in company with Bill Rivard and Amos Tucker, left Fairfax, Okla., about noon March 9, 1923, in an automobile, for Oklahoma City. This information emanated from Ed Fincher, Prop., Silver Moon Cafe, Fairfax.

It is further alleged that Morrison returned to Fairfax late the night of March 9, 1923.

Witness Rivard may have information as to Morrison's return trip to Fairfax the night of March 9, 1923.

Indicate and subpoena and question fully before us in the before Grand Jury.

W. A. GROVE,
U. S. Special Indian
Agent,
Pawhuska, Okla.

2.

This witness is alleged to have stated that he saw Kelsie Morrison and talked to him at the Federal Building, Oklahoma City, on the morning of March 10, 1933, where Morrison was attending Court; that Morrison mentioned to him, Crowe, that an explosion had occurred at Fairfax on Friday night or Saturday morning; that he, Morrison, seemed anxious to get away from Court and go to Fairfax, stating that he owned property adjacent to Bill Smith's home, indicating to Mr. Crowe that he, Morrison, had heard or knew the details of the explosion. Crowe stated that Morrison's line of talk was evidently made to leave a false impression on him, Crowe.

This witness may have other information material to this investigation.

3.

J. G. WILKINSON,
Fairfax, Okla.

Material.

2.

This witness can testify as to general conditions around Fairfax at the time of the murder of W. E. "Bill" Smith. He probably has detailed information of material value to this investigation. This witness is alleged to know that Kelsie Morrison was in Fairfax the night of the blow-up of Smith's home, which resulted in Smith's death.

3.

Page 3,

Smith was subpoenaed before being before Grand Jury.

This witness is a white man and retired from business. He formerly was State Representative. He is said to be a man of good character, but will not talk at this time.

HENRY CORNETT,
County Jail,
Anadarko, Okla.

2.

Cornett stated to Agent Smith and [redacted] that he knows an Indian who lives at Lonce City, Okla., who came to him, Cornett, prior to the murder of Bill Smith and family and told him, Cornett, that some men came to him, the Indian, and wanted him to go to Fairfax and point out some Indians that these men had been hired to kill by Bill Hale and the Burkharts; that Cornett advised this Indian against doing it, telling him that after these men killed the Indians he would then be killed for knowing too much. Cornett states that he knows two men in the State Penitentiary at McAlester, who know all about the Smith murder.

Subpoena for questioning before Grand Jury.

This witness has resided in the Osage country for a long period, and was at one time closely allied with the high powered criminal element of that section, and he promises when released from his present confinement, which he expects to be soon, to cooperate with the Government in every particular.

1.
EDITH FOX,
Pawhuska, Okla.

Material.

2.

On August 7, 1924, Kelsie Morrison told Special Agent Burger and former Agent Weiss that Edith Fox told him, Morrison, (referring to Bill Hale) "I know all about the Smith blowup. Ace Kirby set it afire and was framed."; that Kelsie replied to her, "I know all about it and have saved his D--- neck until now", meaning Hale.

3.

Page 563,

4.

Edith Fox will be substituted for the Anna Brown case, at which time she will be fully questioned regarding the Bill Smith blowup.

KELSIE MORRISON,
State Penitentiary,
McAlester, Okla.

Conspirator.

2.

It is alleged that Dr. A. H. Friedman, of Fairfax, saw Kelsie Morrison and one Powell, Morrison's brother-in-law, in the Silver Moon Cafe, Fairfax, between 11 and 12 O'clock, the night of the blow-up of Bill Smith's home, March 9, 1923; that Morrison was apparently drinking and that Morrison mentioned to Dr. Friedman that he had just come from Oklahoma City in an automobile, and had taken the wrong road and was delayed in getting to Fairfax.

Ed Fincher, proprietor of the Silver Moon Cafe, Fairfax, was interviewed by Special Agent Burger and corroborated statements of Dr. Friedman.

Sam Tulk is alleged to have stated that he and Bob Parker saw Kelsie Morrison at Oklahoma City in the Federal Building, where he was attending Court, about 10 A.M. March 10, 1923; that Morrison had plenty of time to drive from Fairfax to Oklahoma City after the explosion which destroyed Bill Smith's home, as the trip could have been made in three or four hours in a good car.

W. A. Okover, Indian Agent, Fairfax, Okla., is alleged to have stated that March 10, 1923, he saw Kelsie Morrison and Walker with him on the morning of March 10, the day following Oklahoma City.

1st par.

Morrison is now confined in the State Penitentiary at McAlester, Okla., serving nine years. He is unquestionably, in the judgment of the investigators, involved in the actual murder of several Osage Indians as a prime conspirator with W. K. Hale and the Burkhardt boys, and the evidence at hand indicates that he, to some extent, is involved in the murder of W. K. Smith.
