Dear Sir:-

This is to advise that Special Agent Frank S. Smith has been subpoenaed to appear in the State Court at Pawhuska, Okla., September 28th next to testify in the State case against Byron Burkhardt, et al, which case grew out of the Government's investigation of the Osage Murder Cases. You will recall that this case was tried April last, resulting in a disagreement.

I assume that the authorization granted in your telegram dated February 7, 1927, for Agent Smith to testify in this case still applies.

I am writing you today relative to this matter for the reason that you will note in the Bureau letter that I am instructed to advise Agent Smith to respond to the subpoena in question. The Bureau evidently overlooked the fact that Agent Smith is now attached to your office.

2. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this telegram over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

3. Messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the Company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of its office in other towns or towns. Beyond these limits the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, make arrangements at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
