VISIT OF SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY
TO OCALA, FLORIDA,
ON JANUARY 28, 1972

On January 28, 1972, Captain [redacted] Marion County Sheriff's Office, Ocala, Florida, advised as follows:

Senator Edward Kennedy and party arrived at Ocala, Florida, in a private plane at 7 p.m., January 27, 1972, and are guests of George Steinbrenner, owner, Kinsman Stud Farm located near Martel, Florida. Steinbrenner has employed 8 to 10 men from Pinkerton Detective Agency to guard Kennedy and party. Captain [redacted] advised his office has also assigned men to guard Kennedy and party and the private plane utilized by Kennedy.

Two Ocala women have been attempting to polarize action against Kennedy in the form of a demonstration to take place when Kennedy speaks at Silver Springs Shores near Ocala, at 8 p.m., January 28, 1972. One woman is Mrs. [redacted] Silver Springs Shores, who is disgruntled with the Kennedy family. She lost a son in Vietnam and holds it against the late President John F. Kennedy. She is also involved in litigation with Silver Springs Shores over her residence and is disgruntled because Kennedy is being allowed to speak at Silver Springs Shores. Mrs. [redacted] has purchased radio time for spot announcements on WMC radio, Ocala, in which she is encouraging people who are against Senator Kennedy to contact her. She plans a demonstration to take place during Kennedy's speech; however, her attorney, [redacted] Ocala, advised her against such action. b6 b7C

The second woman is [redacted] Ocala, wife of [redacted] who is area coordinator of the John Birch Society, Ocala. Mrs. [redacted] has contacted Marion County Sheriff's Office and inquired as to rules concerning public demonstrations and picketing.

VISIT OF SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY

[redacted] advised two men, whose names were unknown, who reside in Silver Springs Shores, have stated as residents of Silver Springs Shores, they have a right to attend the meeting at which time Kennedy is speaking without payment of $15 charge and they will crash the meeting. The site of Kennedy's speech is a new modern building of glass walls, which is located on a small lake. Marion County Sheriff's Office plans to have 15 to 20 men assigned to cover event including deputies patrolling the lake adjacent to the building in a patrol boat. After Kennedy's speech, he will attend a private reception for him at the residence of [redacted] who is [redacted] of the Barnett Bank at Ocala. Kennedy and his party will stay at Kinsman Stud Farm on January 28, 1972, departing from Ocala in a private plane on the morning of January 29, 1972.

On January 29, 1972, Captain [redacted] Marion County Sheriff's Office, Ocala, Florida, advised only one incident occurred at Silver Springs Shores near Ocala, Florida, where Senator Edward Kennedy spoke at the annual Marion County Chamber of Commerce Banquet at 8 p.m., January 28, 1972. Mrs. [redacted] Silver Springs Shores, who had attempted to organize a demonstration protesting Senator Kennedy's appearance in the Ocala area, appeared at the place Senator Kennedy scheduled to speak, at 6:30 p.m. accompanied by her husband. She had in her possession a tape recorder and requested to use the Silver Springs Shores community facilities. They were allowed to remain at the facilities until 7 p.m. at which time they were asked to leave or be subject to arrest. They left immediately without further incident.

Missoula Indian Group To Picket Sen. Kennedy

By DENNIS E. CURRAN
Missoulian Staff Writer

A Missoula Indian group plans to picket Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts when he speaks in Missoula Friday and Saturday.

Indian LIGHT, which had hoped to meet with Kennedy, has called for the picketing because Kennedy apparently will not meet with the group.

Kennedy's principal public appearances in Missoula will be the Mike Mansfield Lecture on International Relations Friday night and an address Saturday in connection with the Kiy-Lo Indian Youth Conference.

An Indian LIGHT reader, Victor Charlo of Evaro, said that the group will picket both speeches. The group also plans to picket the U.S. Public Health Service unit in St. Ignace Friday afternoon in protest against income and residence restrictions and lack of dental care for adults.

Indian LIGHT had asked to discuss with Kennedy the health care facilities for off-reservation Indians, but, according to Charlo, Kennedy aides told Indian LIGHT that the senator would not have time.

"We're saying he should get his priorities right," Charlo told The Missoulian. "He's not going to meet with those who can tell him what's happening."

Charlo said that Kennedy had written a Missoula low-income doctor last fall expressing concern over health facilities on the Flathead Reservation but that nothing had been done.

"We want honest-to-goodness type help, not just verbal assurances," Charlo said.

He said that Indian LIGHT still hopes to meet with Kennedy during the Democratic leader's visit to Missoula.

Indians will picket Kennedy speeches

By DAN McINTYRE

Montana Kaimin Staff Writer

A Missoula Indian group will picket speeches this week by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., Vic Charlo, a spokesman for the Indian Low Income Group for Human Treatment (Indian LIGHT), said yesterday.

Sen. Kennedy will be picketed because of his refusal to meet with local Indians to discuss their grievances, Mr. Charlo said. He said Mr. Kennedy asserted he couldn't speak with the Indians because of "time commitments."

Sen. Kennedy will speak in the second of the Mansfield Lecture Series at 8 p.m. Friday in the Field House. He will also give the main address to the Kyi-Yo Indian Youth Conference at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Field House.

Mr. Charlo charged that Mr. Kennedy should be listening to the problems of the people of Montana. He said Mr. Kennedy has "all night to talk to the people."

Dr. John Daniels of St. Ignatius wrote Mr. Kennedy last fall, describing problems of area Indians, according to Mr. Charlo. He said Mr. Kennedy replied that he would investigate the reports of mistreatment of Indian and inform Dr. Daniels of steps taken to correct the situation.

Mr. Charlo said Mr. Kennedy never informed them of steps that would be taken.

Mr. Charlo co-authored a letter to Mr. Kennedy three weeks ago asking what progress had been made in investigating Montana Indian problems and requesting Mr. Kennedy to discuss the Indian progress when he arrived in Missoula this weekend.

Mr. Kennedy said he would not be able to speak with the group, although he was still interested in their problems.

Indian LIGHT will also demonstrate Friday at 1 p.m. at the Flathead Indian Reservation's Public Health Service Unit in St. Ignatius.

Mr. Charlo said the demonstration will draw attention to inadequate health care and shortage of federal and state funds entitled to Indians by treaty.

Public Health Service policies for Indians are inconsistent throughout the state, he added. Some units, including the one at St. Ignatius, do not serve off-reservation Indians, Mr. Charlo said.

There will be a discussion of how to obtain more money from the government for health care, Mr. Charlo said. The group would be willing to go "all the way to Washington, D.C." if necessary, he said.

"Middle America has been telling the people to talk to their representatives instead of going to the streets," he said. "Kennedy won't meet with the people, so we will go to the streets."

Indians Dump Plan To Picket Kennedy

A Missoula Indian group has called off plans to picket speeches by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy after learning that Kennedy will meet with members of the group.

Tom McDonald, a leader of Indian LIGHT, told The Missoulian that Kennedy will meet with Indian LIGHT Friday afternoon to discuss health care problems and other problems affecting Indians living off reservations.

Kennedy set up the meeting through Med Bennett, a consultant to Missoula low-income groups, McDonald said.

Indian LIGHT had announced plans to picket the Massachusetts Democrat during his visit to Missoula because it believed that Kennedy was ducking a meeting. Members said that Kennedy had originally told them, through an aide, that he would not have time to meet with them.

Kennedy, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on Indian education, will deliver the Mansfield Lecture on International Relations Friday night and will address the Kyi-Ko Indian Youth Conference Saturday morning before leaving Missoula.

Indian LIGHT still plans to picket the U.S. Public Health Service unit at St. Ignace Friday afternoon to call attention to what it feels is inadequate medical and dental care, especially for off-reservation Indians.

Senator Kennedy to lecture tonight

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., will deliver the third address in the Mansfield Lecture Series tonight at 8 in the Field House.

His topic will be "U.S. Relations with Latin America."

The senator will also be keynote speaker for the Kyi-Yo Indian Youth Conference tomorrow at 9 a.m. in the Field House. Both lectures are open to the public without charge.

Other meetings with Sen. Kennedy on campus were still unconfirmed late yesterday. UM administrative spokesmen told the Montana Kaimin that the senator's schedule will depend on the time of his arrival in Missoula by private plane today.

Leo B. Lott, political science chairman, said yesterday Sen. Kennedy has requested a joint meeting with several political science classes. A question-and-answer session is tentatively scheduled today at 2:15 in LA11.

Political science classes will have priority, but other students may attend, Mr. Lott said.

Sen. Kennedy also is expected to meet with representatives of Indian Low Income Group for Human Treatment (Indian LIGHT) sometime today for a discussion of Indian problems and programs. Earlier, LIGHT members announced plans to picket the senator's speeches because they understood he would not have time to meet with them.

The senator announced Wednesday he would be able to meet with the group.

The senator's schedule tomorrow includes a breakfast meeting with ASUM officers at 8 a.m. in the UC.

Kennedy Arrives In Missoula Today

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is expected to arrive in Missoula mid-day Friday to deliver public lectures in the University of Montana Field House Friday night and Saturday morning.

The Massachusetts Democrat will discuss American relations with Latin America as the third speaker in the Mike Mansfield Lectures on International Relations at 8 p.m. Friday.

The senator also will speak at the Kyi-Yo Indian Youth Conference at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Field House.

Some 500 Indian high school and college youths from seven western states crowded into the University Center Thursday morning for the opening session of the three-day conference on Indian education sponsored by UM's Kyi-Yo Indian Club.

Kennedy is expected to arrive in Missoula shortly after noon, but no definite time has been set. Depending on his arrival time, Kennedy plans to meet with Indian groups, and student leaders and visit classes.

The Saturday lecture was moved back to its original time, 9 a.m., to allow Kennedy more time at a breakfast with University officials and students. The senator plans to leave Missoula by noon.

A Missoula Indian group, Indian LIGHT, has called off plans to picket Kennedy's two main appearances because it has been promised a meeting with Kennedy. However, the group still plans to picket the U.S. Public Health Service unit at St. Ignatius Friday afternoon in protest against poor health care for off-reservation Indians.

Participants in the Indian conference are attending seminars on Indian education and history in sections, but they will come together at 1 p.m. in the University Theater for a three-hour panel discussion about civil disobedience as a tactic to improve Indian legal and economic status.

Participating in the seminar discussion will be John McCabe, assistant dean of the UM law school, Fred Hart, director of the Indian Law School at the University of New Mexico, Monroe Price, UCLA law professor, Kahtineta Horn, Caughnawaga, Quebec, Can., Bud Mason, a student at Black Hills Teachers College, Spearfish, S.D., and Victor Charlo, Evaro.

Activities Saturday include a conference summary by Indian folksinger Buffy Sainte-Marie in the Field House following Kennedy's speech, a parade down Higgins Avenue from the Burlington Northern depot at 1:30 p.m. and a concert by Miss Sainte-Marie at 8:15 p.m. in the Field House, followed by a dance.

By DENNIS E. CURRAN
Missoula Staff Writer

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy landed in Missoula Friday afternoon, but a jam-packed and constantly changing schedule of meetings with Indian students and the press kept him flying.

Drawing crowds wherever he went, the Massachusetts Democrat criticized the Nixon administration for playing on emotions and called the rejection of Supreme Court nominee G. Harold Carswell "the most reassuring action taken by the Senate in years."

On a subject closer to home, Kennedy met with a group of Indians which had threatened to picket his speeches and promised he would try to free frozen federal health care funds for the Flathead Reservation.

He told The Missoulian that he is aware that federal funds for Indian health care are "woefully inadequate" and that the fund increase he sponsored last year was frozen.

Members of Indian LIGHT, a group of off-reservation Indians which threatened Kennedy with a picket, protested health care at the U.S. Public Health Service unit at St. Ignatius Friday after-

The senator's comments about the Carswell nomination defeat came before a political science class at the University of Montana. Calling the defeat "fresh air," Kennedy said that it was "one time, perhaps an extremely important time" when an institution responded.

He said that the debate and discussion also is creating improved standards for Supreme Court justices.

He reserved his "official judgment" on Judge Harry A. Blackmun, President Nixon's third nominee for Abe Fortas' Supreme Court seat, until the Senate Judiciary Committee has a chance to study the nomination.

"But from initial appearances, he certainly appears to be well qualified," he told the students and, later, a press conference.

Kennedy criticized Nixon and Vice President Agnew for dividing the country when "the need is to bring it together."

American leaders, he said, should "defang the emotions, hatreds and frustrations which plague our country — not play to the emotions and frustrations just because 'you can win elections' with that approach."

At the press conference Kennedy expressed thanks for the safe return of the Apollo 13 astronauts earlier Friday and said, "I don't think the space program ought to be judged on one mission."

However, he added that the program "ought to be measured against other domestic needs" and said he "expects some modification and adjustment" in the program. Earlier he had told the students that he favors orderly exploration of space but not necessarily at the present expensive manned level.

Kennedy said that he does not know if the United States was involved in the recent Cambodian overthrow but that it would be "extremely unfortunate" if it were true. And he seconded Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield's position that the United States should deny any military aid to Cambodia.

"We ought to pay greater heed to his guidance," Kennedy said, crediting Mansfield as an Asian expert. "I hope his recommendation will be heeded."

Kennedy, who asked questions as well as answered them, also criticized Nixon's Vietnam policy and said that there is no guarantee that the Viet Cong won't take over in the future unless we are prepared to say we're going to stay there ad infinitum.

"I want to see American foreign policy determined by what is in our national interest, rather than the interest of the Thieu-Ky regime in South Vietnam," he said.

Kennedy arrived at Johnson-Bell Field by private plane and was taken directly to the University, where he met briefly with UM administrators.

He also met with a large delegation of Indians from the Rocky Boy Reservation in northern Montana and heard them express a need for more money to make self-determination education policies work.

His meeting with Indian LIGHT was closed to reporters, but he described it later as a "quiet meeting with some good suggestions." The Indians had threatened to picket Kennedy because he earlier had declined to meet with them.

The senator told reporters Friday that he originally declined because he thought he would be detained in the Senate until just before his Mansfield Lecture on International Relations Friday night.

Tom McDonald, an Indian LIGHT leader, called Kennedy "a sensitive man" who promises to help with legislation, money and pressure. "I really feel he'll do what he can," McDonald said, adding that he still is skeptical about getting better health care.

Another Indian LIGHT member, Sherry Stewart, said she was upset by the meeting with Kennedy because of the presence of Public Health Service officials "who interrupted with excuses."

Kennedy's Saturday schedule begins with an 8 a.m. breakfast with UM student government leaders. He will address the Kiy-Yo Indian Youth Conference at 9 a.m. in the UM Harry Adams Field House.

The lecture, dealing with Indian education and struggles, is open to the public without charge.

Kennedy also plans to meet with a group of law students before leaving Missoula around noon Saturday.

ST. IGNATIUS—A mixed group of off-reservation Indians and LIGHT affiliates peacefully picketed the Public Health Service (PHS) in St. Ignatius for about two hours Friday afternoon.

Signs stating "The buffalo has a bigger heart than PHS" of showing a clenched red fist, set the tone of the demonstration.

After marching around the PHS building at 1 p.m., the picketers made speeches from the front steps. The group protested the lack of medical and dental care for off-reservation Indians and Indians with incomes of a certain level. They claimed that dental care is not available to any adult member of the Flathead tribe.

The unit director of the PHS in St. Ignatius, Tom Keast, leaned against a car at the foot of the stairs and listened attentively to the remarks. Later, he spoke to the crowd.

"I felt more discouraged two years ago when there weren't any demonstrations. It's good to see people out who have enough conviction to speak up. The only thing I have to say is 'Don't stop here,'" Keast said.

Strong feelings were expressed about the quality of medical care received from some doctors under contract to PHS, and one person charged that some of the doctors are prejudiced against their Indian patients.

A list of "demands" was presented to Keast. The demands were that an outpatient clinic and pharmacy for both on- and off-reservation Indians be built immediately as a bridge to a fully operational hospital. The clinic and pharmacy must be controlled by Indians who will make policy, according to the demands.

They further demanded that competent Indians set up an Indian community health organization in the community. The clinic and the pharmacy must not be controlled by the Tribal Council, they stated. The proposed outpatient clinic, which is to be phased out when a hospital is built, must include emergency facilities. They also demanded immediate release of money to the PHS in St. Ignatius to meet the health needs of on- and off-reservation Indians until the clinic is built.

The immediate allocation of funds for adult dental care and medical, surgical and emergency care for all Indians regardless of where they live was demanded.

They also wanted an investigation made by competent Indians of the needs of area PHS offices. These demands, along with other priority needs, were to be presented to Sen. Edward Kennedy later Friday by Indian-LIGHT.

Following the speeches and presentation of demands, the group again resumed marching with their signs in a circle in front of the PHS building, shouting in unison, "We want a hospital, good doctors, dental care, Indian control, human liberation and red power red power!"

Some beat drums and an elderly marcher sang an old song from "before the days of Custer."

Perhaps 190 persons were on the scene at some time during the short demonstration. Although the picketing was widely publicized, the number of participants from the Flathead Reservation and St. Ignatius community were few. No members of the Tribal Council were present.

Extra law enforcement officers were in town but did not attend the demonstration.

During Meeting with Kennedy

Indians Win Promises of Action

By LOIS MURRAY

Tribune Staff Writer

MISSOULA — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, promised to take action on two major demands of LIGHT (Low Income Group for Human Treatment) a community action group, at a private meeting Friday afternoon in the office of University of Montana President Robert Panzer.

Kennedy said he will try for more allocations, through an amendment, for off-reservation as well as reservation Indian health service with emphasis on out-patient clinic and pharmacy needs.

He offered the Indian LIGHT group open communication at all times with his office, according to Victor Charlo, a LIGHT leader.

"LIGHT's next step will be to go on to the Flathead reservation organize the people and poll them on health service needs," Charlo said. "We can now begin to build groundwork for a pharmacy and clinic."

"This will have been a satisfying meeting with Mr. Kennedy," said Charlo, "if by this time next year, a commitment for more money for public health services and such concrete things as dental care for young people, a health service priority are under way."

Kennedy answered LIGHT members that he would look into the Indian trainee "problem" of Avco in Glasgow.

The LIGHT members meeting with Kennedy included Mrs. Ida Curley, Mrs. Bea Noble, Mrs. Sherry Stewart, Kevin Howlett, Charlo, and McDonald. Included in the meeting were UM student representatives Robert Swan, president of the KYI-YO Indian Club, and Robert Howe, public relations representative for the club.

The students presented Kennedy material on Indian education problems in Montana and also material on the club.

Earlier in the day, Kennedy met with a Rocky Boy Indian Reservation delegation, who asked for assistance in their request for funding for the new Rocky Boy School District. The request is for teachers and more buildings. The group also asked for funds to construct and repair roads to reservation industries.

A Rocky Boy spokesman said that to this day they have not received any response to these requests. Rocky Boy representatives included Robert Favel, school board chairman, Joe Rosette, tribal council chairman, and Bert Corcoran, Havre educator and future administrator of the new Rocky Boy School.

Missoulian Staff Writer

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy Saturday accused the Nixon administration of speaking to Indians with a "forked tongue" and urged a "real" federal commitment to help Indians.

Kennedy also told a predominantly Indian audience that Indians must work together to determine their own solutions to problems and then "come to the doors of Congress" with programs they want.

"If you are to control your own destiny, you have a lot of complex and hard decisions to make," he said. "When you've made your decisions we in Washington have to respect them."

The Massachusetts Democrat and Senate majority whip was the featured speaker at the morning session of the Kiy-Yo Indian Youth Conference which drew more than 1,000 Indians from throughout Montana and other western states.

About 1,600 persons attended the 9 a.m. lecture in the UM Field House, less than a third of the crowd that packed the Field House Friday night for Kennedy's Mansfield Lecture on Foreign Relations.

Speaking from a prepared text, Kennedy said that the Nixon administration's statements about helping Indians far exceed actions.

"The Great White Father and his spokesmen seem to be following the example of three centuries of American history. They continue to speak to the Indian peoples of this land with a forked tongue," he said, drawing applause.

"Just a small but real commitment — and relatively small amounts of money — could go a long way toward alleviating your hardships, restoring your integrity, starting your communities on the road to meaningful economic development," he said.

Detailing Indian problems ranging from "drastically deteriorating" health care to "disgraceful abuses in elementary boarding houses," Kennedy said that the administration has the power to correct many of the problems.

He criticized the federal Bureau of Indian Affairs for failing the Indian and called it "notorious for its resistance to reform, to innovation and to discharging its responsibilities in a competent and sensitive fashion."

He called for its complete reorganization but said he doubted if there could be real reform without direction from Indians and pressure from without the bureau.

"The directions must come from you," he told the Indians. "But the pressures must come from the White House. And the commitment must come from the White House."

Kennedy expanded his remarks about Indian involvement during a brief question period and advised Indians that they could get better results from Congress if they would get together and come up with a program.

"You have to work these solutions out, and then you have to come to us," he said. Kennedy quoted a remark made to him on his Alaska trip that Indians need more "expert Indians," not "Indian experts."

"The American Indian should come to the door of Congress and say, 'Here is our program. If you really want to help us, let's see you put that through Congress.' And let me say in conclusion we will," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said that violence could not be condoned in protesting inequities but that peaceful acts of civil disobedience should be a moral and subjective decision depending on "the nature of the moral injustice."

He urged the Indians to use freedoms of speech and petition to the fullest, but he acknowledged that speaking and petitioning haven't always worked in the past.

The senator received a standing ovation at the opening and close of his speech, and he drew applause during the address for suggesting greater Indian participation in the selection of BIA superintendents and area directors and for advocating protection of tribal resources.

Kennedy also called for the establishment of a federal ombudsman — or go-between — to assist Indians bypass uncooperative local officials and for upgrading the position of Indian commissioner to an assistant secretary rank in the Department of Interior.

Kennedy's appearance was the main event of the morning conference session, and many in the audience abandoned seats to catch a last glimpse of the senator.

The three-day conference on Indian education, sponsored by the Kyi-Yo Indian Club at the UM, concluded Saturday night with Indian dancing and a concert by Buggy Sainte-Marie, nationally known Indian folksinger.

The Indians also heard discussion of the AVCO Indian training program at Glasgow, and the Indian club approved a resolution opposing any future funding for AVCO and requesting state and federal agencies to meet with all concerned Indians, not just tribal councils, over training programs.

Robert Swan, Kyi-Yo Club president, said that about 620 Indians officially registered for the conference but that more than 1,000 were attending.

O.L.A.

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

I am writing following a request for action from leaders of the Cuban American community, regarding the recent deaths of several Cuban leaders.

They inform me that some seven individuals, all prominent in the Cuban community, have been murdered.

I am enclosing the six listed in a recent letter. Since the receipt of the letter, Ramon Donestovez was found dead, apparently murdered as well.

I would appreciate learning whether the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been involved in these investigations, whether there has been any link established between these killings and whether, if no federal involvement has yet occurred, the Department of Justice would undertake an inquiry.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy

ENCLOSURE 105-301391-1
 174-2-13633

- 1- Jose Elias de la Torre; murdered April 12, 1974. Led the "Plan de Trabajo para la Liberación de Cuba." His group had been blamed by Castro for several commando attacks in Cuba. Torriente had received considerable support in the Cuban exile community. He was a member of a prestigious Cuban family. He had not been involved in politics in the past. He traveled extensively and was received by important officials in Latin American capitals.

Shot through a window of his home. A group, until then unknown, called "zero" claimed credit for the execution.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

2. Rodriguez Vives; murdered in New York right around the time of Torriente's murder. He had organized a revolutionary organization. Someone came to see him and they sent his wife to get something to eat. Upon her return she found him dead.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

3. Captain Luciano Nieves; former Captain in Castro's Army. Nieves had called for "a national reconciliation" between the former revolutionaries in exile and their former allies still in Castro's government. The idea was to make an alliance and get rid of Castro. He had announced he had contacts in Cuba.

Murdered in the parking lot of a hospital in Miami.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

4. Ernesto Rodriguez; murdered in Miami. Former president of the Cuban Christian Democratic Party. Supposedly killed during a robbery in his small shop. Nothing was stolen.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

5. Rolando Masferrer; ex-Batista henchman. Very well known. Blown to pieces when he started his car in Miami. Although bombings are often investigated by the FBI, this one I have been told, has been left as a local matter to the Miami Police Department.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

6. they tried to kill him but he is still alive. Former commander of a group that was to land during the Bay of Pigs invasion in Oriente province. After the landing at Pigs and the subsequent fiasco his ship was ordered not to land and was diverted to Puerto Rico.

Someone came to see him. He allowed this person and the visitor's wife into the house. She passed a gun to his visitor and he shot him. They left in a rented car, and drove to a canal where they were picked up by a boat.

This is the most recent case. NO INDICTMENTS. UNSOLVED.

LETTER FROM SENATOR KENNEDY DATED
APRIL 29, 1976, CONCERNING POSSIBLE
FBI INVESTIGATION INTO SEVERAL
MURDERS OF CUBAN AMERICANS

M. J. [signature]

Reference is made to your memorandum dated
May 18, 1976, which forwarded a copy of captioned letter.

Your preliminary response to Senator Kennedy in this matter was a very succinct and accurate summation of the overall situation: "Federal investigation is normally undertaken only when the parent crime is punishable in Federal court." In addition, FBI investigation of bombing matters is guided by the "investigative guidelines, Title XI, Organized Crime Control Act of 1970, Regulation of Explosives" issued by the Department of Justice and agreed to by the FBI and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (BATF).

The FBI assumed no investigative jurisdiction in the deaths referred to by Senator Kennedy since no information has been received to indicate a violation of a statute under which we have investigative jurisdiction.

For your assistance in preparing an answer to Senator Kennedy's request I am enclosing seven separate memoranda concerning the murder or attempted murder of the seven individuals mentioned by Senator Kennedy. It is requested that you utilize the information in these memoranda in the preparation of your response but that they receive no dissemination outside the Department. For your further information contacts with local police authorities and personnel involved in investigations of terrorist activities do not indicate there is any established link between any of these deaths.

In addition to the above, on May 29, 1976, United Press International (UPI) Wire Service carried a news release from Miami concerning the discovery of the "bullet-riddled" body of Jesus Gonzalez-Carta, a prominent Cuban exile, in the Everglades, Southwest of Miami.

Local police are investigating the homicide and feel that inasmuch as Gonzalez has a long record of criminal activities and allegations of narcotics involvement, his murder must be related to criminal activities or revenge by an unknown person.

It is noted Gonzalez was born July 6, 1923, in Havana, Cuba, and was well documented as a gunman and political gangster in Cuba from 1945 to 1952. With a change of regimes in Cuba in 1952, Gonzalez went to El Salvador and Mexico from which countries he was expelled.

In 1956 and 1957, there were about 150 Cubans in the Dominican Republic preparing for an invasion of Cuba. Gonzalez was in the Dominican Republic and one of the leaders of this group.

In 1958, Gonzalez was reportedly in the United States on an assassination mission.

In 1959, Gonzalez arrived in the United States as a political exile after having been deported from the United States in 1956 for illegal entry.

In 1963, Gonzalez was reportedly dealing in explosives in Miami. Thereafter, he moved to New York City and in 1963, was arrested and convicted of burglary, theft and possession of a gun. His 90-day sentence was suspended.

In 1967, Gonzalez was arrested in New York for counterfeiting U. S. currency, was sentenced to five years and sent to Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary.

Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division

After serving his sentence, he moved to Miami and in 1973, was associated with Miami Attorney [redacted] and worked as a night watchman.

b6
b7C

In 1975, Gonzalez was engaged in trying to sell modular housing to the Dominican Republic and Venezuela.

Established sources and informants, as well as local police, advise that during the time Gonzalez lived in the United States, he was engaged in a variety of criminal activities and narcotics. He was not recently involved in anti-Castro Cuban revolutionary activities because he was well known in the Cuban exile community as a criminal and was completely unacceptable.

We hope the above information will assist you in preparing an answer to Senator Kennedy.

O.L.A.

The Honorable Edward H. Levi
Attorney General of the United States
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

I am writing following a request for action from leaders of the Cuban American community, regarding the recent deaths of several Cuban leaders.

They inform me that some seven individuals, all prominent in the Cuban community, have been murdered.

I am enclosing the six listed in a recent letter. Since the receipt of the letter, Ramon Donestevéz was found dead, apparently murdered as well.

I would appreciate learning whether the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been involved in these investigations, whether there has been any link established between these killings and whether, if no federal involvement has yet occurred, the Department of Justice would undertake an inquiry.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy

Criminal

- 1- Jose Elías de la Torriente; murdered April 12, 1974. Led the "Plan de Trabajo para la Liberación de Cuba." His group had been blamed by Castro for several commando attacks in Cuba. Torriente had received considerable support in the Cuban exile community. He was a member of a prestigious Cuban family. He had not been involved in politics in the past. He traveled extensively and was received by important officials in Latin American capitals.

Shot through a window of his home. A group, until then unknown, called "zero" claimed credit for the execution.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

2. Rodriguez Vives; murdered in New York right around the time of Torriente's murder. He had organized a revolutionary organization. Someone came to see him and they sent his wife to get something to eat. Upon her return she found him dead.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

3. Captain Luciano Nieves; former Captain in Castro's Army. Nieves had called for "a national reconciliation" between the former revolutionaries in exile and their former allies still in Castro's government. The idea was to make an alliance and get rid of Castro. He had announced he had contacts in Cuba.

Murdered in the parking lot of a hospital in Miami.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

4. Ernesto Rodriguez; murdered in Miami. Former president of the Cuban Christian Democratic Party. Supposedly killed during a robbery in his small shop. Nothing was stolen.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

- ✓ 5. Rolando Masferrer; ex-Batista henchman. Very well known. Blown to pieces when he started his car in Miami. Although bombings are often investigated by the FBI, this one I have been told, has been left as a local matter to the Miami Police Department.

UNSOLVED. NO INDICTMENTS.

6. they tried to kill him but he is still alive. Former commander of a group that was to land during the Bay of Pigs invasion in Oriente province. After the landing at Pigs and the subsequent fiasco his ship was ordered not to land and was diverted to Puerto Rico.

Someone came to see him. He allowed this person and the "visitor's wife" into the house. She passed a gun to his visitor and he shot him. They left in a rented car, and drove to a canal where they were picked up by a boat.

This is the most recent case. NO INDICTMENTS. UNSOLVED.

Honorable Edward M. Kennedy
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

This is in response to your letter of April 29, 1976 to the Attorney General describing the murder or attempted murder of seven Cuban-Americans. As you know, Federal investigation is normally undertaken only when an apparent crime is punishable in Federal court. Murder is a Federal crime only when committed in the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States.

Since you asked whether the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been involved in these investigations I have referred your letter to the FBI for their review. I expect to hear from the FBI shortly and will be in further communication with you at that time.

Sincerely,

Assistant Attorney General

Information Concerning the Deaths of Several Cuban Leaders

MAY 19 1976

The New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation did not conduct any investigation into the Cuban American activities of Jose Elias De La Torriente, Captain Luciano Nieves, Ernesto Rodriguez, Rolando Masferrer, [REDACTED] or Ramon Donestevez, as none of these individuals resided in the New York City area of the United States. However, Arturo Rodriguez Vives did reside in New York City until the time of his death on April 16, 1974.

b6

Records of the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation did contain the following information regarding Arturo Rodriguez Vives also known as Arturo Rodriguez and Rodriguez Vives. He was born on January 10, 1943, in Havana, Cuba. He was paroled into the United States in Miami, Florida, by the Immigration and Naturalization Service on August 23, 1960, and was granted indefinite parole on October 6, 1960, after the Immigration and Naturalization Service had afforded him an exclusionary hearing and ordered him deported. He signed a parole agreement containing certain restrictions, and was reparaled by the Immigration and Naturalization Service on October 14, 1968.

Arturo Rodriguez Vives failed to report for induction into the United States Armed Forces on August 4, 1964, and for physical examination as ordered by the Selective Service System in Newark, New Jersey. When he finally did report for induction on July 15, 1968, he was found to be unacceptable for duty in the Armed Forces of the United States. A Federal investigation conducted concerning his failure to report for induction revealed that Arturo Rodriguez had been arrested numerous times in Florida, Maryland, and New Jersey for Vagrancy, Robbery, Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Armed Robbery, Possession of a Dangerous Weapon, Larceny, and Carrying a Concealed Weapon. The United States Attorney's Office in Newark, New Jersey, declined Federal prosecution of

Arturo Rodriguez for violation of the Selective Service Act.

On September 10, 1968, Arturo Rodriguez was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at New York, New York, concerning the then recent series of bombings in New York City which began April 22, 1968. Rodriguez admitted he was a propagandist and until the end of August, 1968, was a spokesman for "Cuban Power" in New York City. Rodriguez denied participating or involving himself in any bombing and stated that he merely made releases concerning the bombings by "Cuban Power" then a Miami based Cuban exile anti-Castro group.

On September 24, 1968, Rodriguez was arrested by the New York City Police Department while attending a demonstration outside the Henry Miller Theater on West 43rd Street, New York City, where the production "The Cuban Thing" was playing. Rodriguez was charged with Reckless Endangerment, Disorderly Conduct, and furnishing a false report in that he was allegedly shouting inside the theater "there is a bomb inside".

On October 23, 1968, Rodriguez was among ten individuals arrested by the New York City Police Department in connection with the bombings that had been occurring in New York City since April, 1968. At this time, Rodriguez was charged with Second Degree Arson and Conspiracy to Commit Arson, Second Degree. At this time, Arturo Rodriguez Vives' common law wife, Marilyn Rivera, 1370 University Avenue, Bronx, New York, was also arrested for Possession of a Deadly Weapon in that she was in possession of a .22 caliber automatic Selecta at the time of Rodriguez's arrest on October 23, 1968.

On April 16, 1974, Arturo Rodriguez Vives was shot twice in the head by an unknown male assailant in Vives apartment.

On April 23, 1974, [redacted] was interviewed at her request in her home at Apartment [redacted] [redacted] New York, New York.

b7c

[redacted] denied [redacted] involvement in Cuban bombings, narcotics, and prostitution. [redacted] advised that she has supported the family through prostitution for the previous nine years, but that Vives himself was in no way involved in this. [redacted] stated that about 2:15 p.m., on April 16, 1974, Vives answered the door and permitted a Cuban male to enter the apartment. [redacted] was not dress and consequently did not hear all of their conversation. She stated that they discussed Cuban politics, and the recent shooting of Torriente in Miami. She stated that she overheard Arturo ask if he had met this man in Boston. [redacted] served coffee at which time she noticed the visitor was carrying a gun in a shoulder holster. She described him as being a male Cuban, five feet eight inches in height, 180 pounds, light blue or grey eyes, white hair, which was short cropped, age 50-55 years and wearing a tan raincoat, suit and tie. During the conversation Vives asked this man why he was carrying a gun. His reply was that he was engaged in Cuban activities, and had a hard time getting the gun out of Miami.

b6

[redacted] further stated that she left the apartment at Vives request to purchase a newspaper and returned ten or fifteen minutes later to find Vives dead on the floor.

The New York City Police Department had not developed any information which indicated that the killer of Rodriguez Vives was a former member of the SIM (Servicio Inteligencia Militar). The police department had not developed any information indicating that the murder of Rodriguez Vives had been done for political reasons, or that it had been committed by anyone connected with the then present Cuban Government. The police department's investigation did indicate that the murder of Rodriguez Vives was probably committed by a "hit man" who in all probability had come into New York to do the killing.

The murder investigation of Rodriguez Vives was conducted entirely by the New York City Police Department. The New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation had closed its security investigation of Arturo Rodriguez Vives on October 4, 1973.

RE: JOSE ELIAS TORRIENTE AJURIA

TORRIENTE was born April 19, 1904 in Havana Province, Cuba. He came to the United States and graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1923. He later returned to Cuba, operated a plantation and was general manager of a Cuban airline. He went with Collins Radio in 1960 and in 1966 was Vice President of Collins Radio International and lived in Coral Gables, Florida. He was a naturalized U. S. citizen.

In October, 1969, TORRIENTE claimed that President NIXON chose him to lead the fight to overthrow the government of Cuba. TORRIENTE formed a unity organization and in February, 1970, received a donation of $45,000 from the Cuban Medical Association in exile.

In February, 1970, he formed "Plan TORRIENTE" to liberate Cuba. He held rallies in different cities throughout the United States to collect funds, had many press interviews, appeared on national television, and said he was recruiting an army. During 1970, he traveled extensively in Latin America, the United States and Europe to raise money for an invasion of Cuba.

Recruiting and fundraising continued through 1971. In June, 1971, numerous articles appeared in the press in Miami exposing TORRIENTE as the president of a large housing development and using funds collected for personal use.

On December 17, 1971, U. S. Marshal seized TORRIENTE's 150 ft. motor vessel at Fort Pierce, Florida under Title 18, Section 1709, U. S. Code.

The Cuban exile community in Miami then severely criticized TORRIENTE for having failed in his plan to invade Cuba.

On April 12, 1974, at 8:15 p.m., TORRIENTE was shot in the head while he was sitting in the living room of his home. The shot was fired from outside the house.

Local police authorities conducted a long, intensive investigation of this murder, with negative results. The police feel that the murder was related to TORRIENTE's misappropriation of funds.

The Miami, Florida office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation rendered considerable assistance to police authorities by conducting out-of-state investigation and examinations of evidence at the FBI in Washington, D.C.

RE: RAMON DONESTEEVEZ DOMINGUEZ

DONESTEEVEZ was born February 5, 1936, in Cuba, and was a businessman.

He came to the United States from Venezuela and became active in Cuban exile political matters.

In October, 1965, DONESTEEVEZ went to Cuba by private boat to bring back Cuban exile political prisoners. On October 24, 1965, he again visited Cuba and conferred with FIDEL CASTRO. On neither trip did he bring back political prisoners. In January and November, 1966, he again visited Cuba but did not bring back any political prisoners.

In August, 1967, he planned a flotilla to go to Cuba to bring back political prisoners. He was severely criticized by the Cuban exile community in Miami.

In September, 1967, he was issued a notice of prevention of departure by U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

In May, 1968, an unexploded bomb was found at his place of business.

In July, 1968, he attempted to go to Cuba but was detained by Immigration and Naturalization Service and given a deportation hearing. In March, 1969, he was paroled and restricted to the land area of Dade County, Florida.

In November, 1971, he was one of seven persons who, in an armed attack, took over Miami Radio Station WQBA and read propaganda documents.

RE: RAMON DONESTEEVEZ DOMINGUEZ

In May, 1973, he pleaded guilty to extortion and received probation in the Florida State Court.

In September, 1974, he went to Cuba, was detained on his return to the United States and later received a jail sentence of two years and one year probation for probation violation. In April, 1975, a bomb exploded at his place of business. In October, 1975, police seized an arms cache at his place of business. State prosecution was instituted.

In December, 1975, some 77 individuals paid between $400 and $2,000 each for DONESTEEVEZ to take them to Cuba in his boat. The boat broke down outside the harbor and was towed back. Later, a ten pound dynamite bomb was found under this boat.

He was given seven years imprisonment by the State of Florida in December, 1975, for probation violation.

On April 13, 1976, he was found shot dead in his office at his place of business.

DONESTEEVEZ was very controversial and many Cuban exiles felt he was pro-CASTRO or even an agent of FIDEL CASTRO.

Some police authorities felt that this murder was a result of his having deceived one or all of the 77 individuals who paid to go to Cuba on his boat in December, 1975. The police felt that DONESTEEVEZ had no intention of going to Cuba and that the bomb later found under his boat was placed by him for publicity reasons.

RE: LUCIANO NIEVES MESTRE

NIEVES was born October 6, 1933 in Las Villas, Cuba.

In 1959, with the fall of the BATISTA regime in Cuba, NIEVES appointed himself as a captain in the army of FIDEL CASTRO. Soon thereafter, he was arrested and sent to jail for dubious economic dealings. He claimed that he had been a member of CASTRO's organization since 1955.

NIEVES was in Spain in 1963 through 1964 and arrived in Miami in December, 1965. In November, 1972, NIEVES announced that a revolutionary congress would be held in Jamaica between his group and representatives of the Cuban government to discuss peaceful coexistence. The announcement caused NIEVES to become a controversial figure in the Cuban exile community in Miami.

Other Cuban exile organizations immediately joined together to oppose NIEVES and the Cuban exile press hostilely accused him of being a communist. The meetings in Jamaica never took place.

On March 20, 1973, NIEVES was beaten in a Miami restaurant by Cuban exiles as a result of his political activity. Later, NIEVES said meetings would be held in Jamaica in July, 1973, between his group and the government of Cuba. These meetings were never held. In November, 1973, NIEVES said he was no longer active in Cuban exile political matters.

MAFERRER was born January 12, 1918 at Holguin, Cuba. He graduated from Havana University Law School in 1945, was co-owner of a newspaper published in Havana in 1952, was elected Senator in Cuba and had a private army. MASFERRER was a member of the Communist Party in Cuba from 1933 to 1945. During 1937 and 1938, he was a dedicated Marxist and served in the International Brigade in the Spanish Civil War.

In February, 1959, MASFERRER came to Miami, Florida, went into hiding and was considered a war criminal.

In June, 1959, he became active in anti-FIDEL CASTRO matters, bought airplanes and arms and planned to operate from Guatemala against Cuba.

In February, 1960, the Federal Bureau of Investigation arrested two representatives of the Cuban Government in Miami who were sent to Miami to kidnap MASFERRER and bring him back to Cuba.

In March, 1960, MASFERRER was planning to invade Cuba and U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service ordered him to leave the Florida area.

In January, 1961, police closed down a barracks in Miami where MASFERRER was housing a small invasion group. In April, 1961, he was indicted in U. S. Federal Court for violation of the Neutrality Act. The indictment was later dismissed. A federal judge ordered MASFERRER to leave the Miami area and in August, 1961, he moved to New Jersey.

Q2 is a photocopy which was produced on a photocopier employing dry toner and the hard/soft roller fusion method. Numerous photocopier brand names of both foreign and domestic manufacture should be considered as possible sources.

No indented writing, watermarks or other distinguishing physical characteristics were noted which would be of value in determining the source of Q1 and Q2.

Q1 and Q2 were photographed and are enclosed.
