The review of Bureau indices fails to reflect any information regarding former Vice President Agnew pertaining to his acceptance of a $2,500 bribe and placing the cash in his drawer.

Bureau file captioned "Dale Anderson, County Executive, Baltimore County, Maryland; Spiro T. Agnew, Vice President, Information Concerning," Bureau file 58-8211, contains a memorandum prepared by SA J. R. Pearce dated 8-13-73, which sets forth information on page 7 that Lester Matz furnished information that in the spring of 1971, he turned over $2,500 to J. Walter Jones in Agnew's office; however, Matz could not personally recall if he gave the money to Jones in Agnew's office or in an alcove. This is the only reference to an acceptance of $2,500 by Jones and a copy of this memorandum is not only in the possession of the Baltimore Office, but is in the possession of USA Beall.

If not already done, Baltimore should furnish the information to USA Beall.
